1	Bible Principles for Children	Adventures in Odyssey	10/7/2023 at 6:59:36	0:25:29	Today's episode, titled "Potlucks and Poetry," finds Aubrey planning to participate in a poetry reading, but doesn't tell her parents about it, to avoid having them come and possibly embarrass her. At the same time, her parents are discussing attending a church potluck, but hide it from Aubrey's visiting grandparents, since they're hostile to the family's faith. In the end, everyone realizes that, no matter your age, your parents will occasionally embarrass you, even if they're trying to be good and loving parents. We should still be honest and include them in our lives.
2	Bible Principles for Children	Life at the Pond	10/9/2023 at 16:01:29	0:09:27	Fun stories for children where talking animals teach Biblical truths through life lessons. This episode, called "Where'd the Truth Go?" finds Tony lying to Bill about having a prior commitment so that he won't be expected to help move a dresser. He doesn't see it as a big deal, but the lack of regard for truth spreads to others, disrupting life for everyone. They learn that it's important to always be honest.

3	Bible Principles for Children	Down Gilead Lane	10/21/2023 at 13:00:52	0:24:30	In today's episode, called "Cosmic Confusion," the Richters have a Russian exchange student, Lana. Maya is studying astronomy in school, and they discuss the stars, and seeing God everywhere. Maya ends up skipping Youth Group in order to go to the planetarium, where they hear that the Earth is billions of years old. Eventually, Maya brings all her questions to Grace. She explains that, while the Bible is not intended as a science textbook, and it doesn't address all of our questions about the universe, we can trust what it does say. We need to remember that its purpose is primarily to help us have a relationship with God. While we can learn many things from the world around us, we need to have faith in God for our unanswered questions.
4	Bible Principles for Children	Kids Corner Liz & Friends	10/22/2023 at 15:00:49	0:25:00	This episode of Liz and Friends is an episode called "Fuzzy Focus." In this episode, Liz discovers that their new churchgoer Kayla Leon has an amazing voice and is a talented piano player. She records some Christian music, but decides that she'd like to be a famous secular pop singer, placing her focus on fame instead of God. For his part, Liz also gets caught up in earthly things, as he wants to be her manager and help her become extremely famous and successful. Just because he wants to do it with Christian music doesn't mean that his focus is on the right thing. Today's theme verse is 1 Corinthians 15:49, which reminds us that we will be remade bearing the image of God.
5	Bible Principles for Children	Adventures in Odyssey	10/31/2023 at 7:00:14	0:29:28	Today's episode, titled "The Triangle, Part 2," is the conclusion of a retrospective series, looking back to when Whit and his best friend Jack Allen were college students in Southern California. Jack is in love with a woman named Jenny, and they start dating, though she doesn't have feelings for him (but doesn't tell him.) She falls in love with Whit, which makes everything more complicated. Jack ends up heartbroken, and there is a lot of pain before his friendship with Whit can be repaired. We can avoid a lot of unnecessarily strained relationships if we're up-front and honest, and approach our problems with prayer instead of only using our own wisdom and feelings.
6	Bible Principles for Children	Dan and Louie	11/06/2023 at 13:59:32	0:09:06	A humorous and educational show to help teach the Bible to children. Today's episode, called "Esther, the Queen Who Saved Her People" tells the Biblical story of Queen Esther. Esther was very brave, and risked death in order to save her people from Haman's plan to exterminate the Jews. It also teaches about the evils of bigotry, such as Haman showed against the Jewish people. It's wrong to hate people who are different than us, whether that's a difference in skin color, ethnic or national origins, or simply different beliefs.
7	Bible Principles for Children	Your Story Hour	11/13/2023 at 11:00:09	0:29:36	Teaches lessons through radio dramas based on Bible stories, historical figures, and other true stories. This episode, called "Grandpa Jack's Attic" tells the story of Erica and Jordan as they explore the treasures held in their grandfather Jack Hunter's attic. Besides their grandmother's handmade wedding dress and manual sewing machine, they also find war medals and hear his stories of being helped by angels during combat. Despite being shot and stuck outside by himself in a blizzard, he trusted God to help him.

8	Bible Principles for Children	Keys for Kids	11/24/2023 at 11:37:59	0:04:30	Kids devotions, for learning more about God's love through a short fictional story with a Key Verse. Today's episode, called "Too Short," finds little Isla trying and failing to reach a balloon stuck on the top shelf all on her own. Her sister Maddie is struggling with explaining to her friend Kenna that being a good person isn't enough to get you into heaven. Mom explains how, just like Isla could never reach her balloon and needed her help, nobody is able to save themselves. We all need Jesus' help. Today's verse is Romans 3:23.
9	Bible Principles for Children	Adventure Pals	11/30/2023 at 9:00:09	0:10:20	Stories and songs, with an object lesson. Today's episode, called "First Stone," takes its name from Jesus' words in John 8:7: "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone." The story finds John and Bill exasperated with the new kid, Larry, as he's constantly bragging and trying to make himself out to be better than everyone else. In the end, John realizes that it's not fair to constantly criticize Larry's imperfections when he's imperfect himself.
10	Bible Principles for Children	Visit with Mrs. G	12/6/2023 at 8:32:54	0:13:07	Dramatic retelling of stories, primarily from the Bible. This episode tells the Biblical story of the events that occurred just after Jesus birth. Mary and Joseph were surprised when they were visited by shepherds. The shepherds came to them because, while they were out in fields watching sheep, they'd been visited by angels who told them to look for a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.
11	Bible Principles for Children	Keys for Kids	12/11/2023 at 17:31:32	0:04:30	Kids devotions, for learning more about God's love through a short story with a Key Verse. Today's episode finds Hayden wishing that her newborn baby brother Sammy were capable of playing with her. When they're first born, babies are helpless and dependent on their family. When he came to Earth, Jesus didn't come as a fully-grown powerful king. He set aside His power to be born as a small, helpless human baby so that we can all relate to Him. Today's verse is Luke 2:11.
12	Bible Principles for Children	Dan and Louie	12/19/2023 at 13:59:21	0:11:21	A humorous and educational show to help teach the Bible to children. Today's episode tells the Biblical story of the prophet Elijah at Mt. Carmel, and how he showed that King Ahab's prophets of Baal were serving a false god. Along the way, it demonstrates present-day applications of the first of the Ten Commandments: to not have idols. Even in our own lives, this still applies. If we stay home from Sunday School in order to watch TV, that's a form of idolatry, as we're putting our own entertainment higher than God.
13	Bible Principles for Children	Kids Corner Liz & Friends	12/24/2023 at 15:00:51	0:25:00	This episode of Liz and Friends is a special episode called "Mary's Miracle." It's a dramatic retelling of the story of the birth of Jesus. It teaches children that nothing is impossible with God, and that He values what's inside our hearts, not our outward appearances.
