SERIES DESCRIPTION

THE HENRY FORD'S INNOVATION NATION

The Henry Ford's INNOVATION NATION, hosted by Mo Rocca, is a weekly half hour series that features the celebration of the inventor's spirit - from historic scientific pioneers throughout past centuries to the forward-looking visionaries of today. Each episode is produced to educate and inform children 13-16 and tells the dramatic stories behind the world's greatest inventions - and the perseverance, passion and price required to bring them to life. Featuring the 'what if it never happened', 'the innovation by accident,' and a strong focus on 'junior geniuses' who are changing the face of technology, this TV series will appeal to young viewers and their families.

RECIPE REHAB

In this weekly half-hour competition-style series developed and produced to educate and inform viewers ages 13-16, it is chef against chef in a recipe makeover challenge. Viewers will submit their favorite, decadent, high-calorie, classic family recipes and two acclaimed chefs will face off in a head-to-head competition to give the recipes a low-calorie twist. The audience will learn the value of healthy, wholesome ingredients and how healthy food choices can have positive effects on our quality of life. Special guests will serve as judge and jury.

Series: Outback Adventures with Tim Faulkner

6/20/16

RE: PROGRAM CONTENT

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to provide television stations with certified documentation that the producers of Outback Adventures with Tim Faulkner series design the program to educate and inform children 13-16 years of age.

Litton Entertainment is the producer of Outback Adventures with Tim Faulkner series.

This is a live action, half-hour television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children.

Produced for ages 13-16, this educational and informational program is hosted by wildlife expert Tim Faulkner. Viewers will be provided an eye-opening experience as Tim, animal expert and wildlife park operations manager, showcases the beauty and wonder of the natural world. Audiences will be brought closer to the natural world as Tim explores the habitats and adventures of creatures of all sizes, including a giant Galapagos tortoise, a baby wombat, the flying fox, and even a newly discovered species of birds.

In order for parents, children, and listing services to clearly identify the programs as ones that fulfill the FCC programming requirements that meet children's educational television needs, each episode is closed-captioned and contains an E/I icon for the duration of the program with the recommended parental rating icon – typically, if not always, TV-G.

Sincerely,

Dave Morgan

Re: PROGRAM CONTENT

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to provide television stations with certified documentation that the producers of the Rock the Park series design the program to educate and inform children 13-16 years of age.

Litton Entertainment is the producer of Rock the Park series.

This is a live action, half-hour television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children.

Rock the Park taps into America's love affair with our national parks. Our hosts, Jack Steward and Colton Smith, come face to face with nature and some of the most awe-inspiring places on earth. The series will inspire Americans to get on the road and remind viewers that the national parks are one of America's greatest national gifts to the world.

In order for parents, children, and listing services to clearly identify the programs as ones that fulfill the FCC programming requirements that meet children's educational television needs, each episode is closed captioned and contains an E/I icon for the duration of the program with the recommended parental rating icon – typically, if not always, TV-G. Additionally, this E/I programming includes Video Description, which provides enhanced detail of the program's visual content and allows the program to be more accessible to a wide range of viewers including those with learning disabilities, autism, and visual impairments.

Sincerely,

Dave Morgan
