

Second Quarter 2018 Issue/Program List For WJJQ-FM

Autism Awareness April 2nd, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35am 25 minutes

Betty McClusky, a local mental health specialist was here to talk about autism awareness and her personal experience and her upcoming seminar.

UWEX April 4th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35am 25 minutes

Dan Marzu, UWEX Ag Educator was here to talk about springtime pests in our gardens, and how to fight them off . Spring gardening tips.

State Senator April 6th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35am 25 minutes

Sen. Tom Tiffany was here for his monthly update on his work in Madison. Specifically about the school safety bill, and juvenile justice, and tort reform.

Volunteerism April 9th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35am 25 minutes

Joan Litwitz from the TAIV group spoke on community volunteers and their importance, and the TAIV spring fundraiser.

City of Tomahawk April 10th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35am 25 minutes

City of Tomahawk Public Works Director, John Cole was our guest talking about how we fared through the long winter, and upcoming spring projects on our city roads.

Tomahawk Schools April 11th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35 25 minutes

School District Administrator, Terry Reynolds spoke on the success of the winter sports teams, the upcoming spring sports and activities, and the recently passed referendum.

St. Mary's Gala April 12th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35am 25 minutes

School Principal, Rita Lee, talked about the upcoming Spring Gala, and what it means to the school's continuing mission to bring Christian education to the community.

Medicare basics April 16th, 2018 Morning Forum 9:35 15 minutes

Mary Reinschmidt was here to talk about help for seniors in navigating all the issues pertaining to Medicare during her upcoming seminar for seniors.

Lincoln County Board April 18th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Lincoln County Board chair Bob Lee updated us on last night's meeting. He noted several long serving employees and thanked them for their service. Also a budget update, and update on the nursing home project.

State Assembly April 20th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Mary Felzkowski joined us via telephone from Madison after a long legislative session. She updated school safety bill, child tax refund, and Fab Lab news from our district, including a patent recently granted to an area high school fab lab.

American Legion April 24th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Joe Story and Don Grundy were here to talk about Camp American Legion and the programs they run for veterans and their families, and how the public can keep helping.

Homeless Shelter April 25th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Tina Elvins came in to talk about how many homeless the shelter has served, the need for volunteers, and other needs in the house. Upcoming rummage sale and circus fundraiser.

VFW April 26th, 2018 Morning Forum 15 minutes

Dave Hubatch and Ray Webie came in to talk about the pool tournament and how to sign up.

ADRC April 27th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Erin Wells from the Aging and Disability Resource Center was here to explain some benefits that are often overlooked by people who need their help. Including how to be ready for all that will be in the mailbox as you reach the age of 65.

May 2018

Christian Ed May 1st, 2018 Morning Forum 25min

Becky Wagner and Pastor Mark Gass were here to talk about the Redeemer Lutheran Learning Center and who they serve, what they offer, and how parents can get their kids into the program.

American Legion May 2nd, 2018 Morning Forum 15 min

Jeannie Ossero was here to talk about the fundraiser being headlined by Tommy O, Tommy O joined us via phone to give a preview of what will be included for the price of a ticket.

Sara Park May 3rd, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Paul Garner was here to talk about some activities at Sara Park this summer. WauWei bingo is back for another season. Pickle ball will be back also. Leagues forming.

State Senate May 4th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

State Senator Tom Tiffany talked about recently passed bills, potential places for a mine now that moratorium has been lifted. State is continuing looking at the juvenile justice system being transitioned.

Main Street May 7th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Aimee Dickrell spoke on the upcoming Spring Fling and Wine Walk promotions for downtown Tomahawk.

City of Tomahawk May 8th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Public works director John Cole gave an update on the ongoing street projects for the summer season. King's Hill, Somo Ave.

Tomahawk Schools May 10th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

District Superintendent Terry Reynolds talked about the upcoming budget, school safety grants, and an end of school year set of congratulations, and upcoming, condensed spring sports schedule.

High School art Show May 15th, 2018 Morning Forum 20 minutes

Logan Evans and some of his fellow student artists joined us to talk about their art work and the High School art show being put on by the student artists at Tomahawk High School.

State Assembly May 18th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

State Assembly Rep Mary Felzkowski gave us an update on her work in Madison. Busy time in Madison right now, and looking forward to getting back in the district for listening sessions. She talked about bringing other reps up north to see how things are different up north. School Safety grants too.

Ski Show May 21st, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Mickey Loka from the Kwahomots here to preview the new ski show season and the theme for the year and competition dates. New boat with help from local businesses.

Main Street May 22nd, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Aimee Dickrell was here to talk about the Main Street Memories Car Show weekend. Once again, motorcycles and classic cars on display downtown. She thanked all the volunteer help, and said more are always needed.

Spirit Helicopter May 23rd, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

2 EMT'S and marketing rep Matt Thompson were here to talk about the men lost in the helicopter crash last month. They also thanked the community at large for the outpouring of support shown since the tragedy.

UWEX May 25th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Debbie Moellendorf gave us her annual 4H update and time for kids wanting to participate in the county fair need to get signed up soon. She talked about 4H role in the county fair, and it's long time association with the fair and things more than just age related.

Wishes May 30th, 2018 Morning Forum 10 min

Dave Duranceau with this year's announcement of times and location for their fundraiser. He said 2 kids from Tomahawk benefited from last year's event.

June 2018

State Senate June 1st, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

State Senator Tom Tiffany spoke on helping to create jobs by helping the forest industry workers, tort reform, and schedules of summer listening sessions. Looking forward to being back in the district for summer events.

Library June 5th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Annette Miller, children's librarian at the Tomahawk library was here to talk about summer reading programming. Including prize incentives for kids who read all summer.

Live Music June 11th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Cathy Meyer, and her committee announcing the lineup for the 11th annual concert series, Music on the River. Several special events like free food and ice cream nights, and public radio coming to do a special feature this year.

City of Tomahawk June 12th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

John Cole, PWD with the city with his street project update, and timetable for the rest of summer.

Tomahawk Schools June 13th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Terry Reynolds, school district administrator gave his end of school year synopsis and salute. What do educators do in the summertime? Submitted the districts application for the school safety grants from the state and what those monies would be used for.

State Assembly June 15th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

State Representative Mary Felzkowsk with more good news for the district fab labs, and new monies for schools to implement their own fab labs. More listening sessions scheduled. Reelection on the horizon...

Tomahawk History June 19th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

Dixie, and Gordy from Tomahawk Historical Society were in tom talk about the two museums and the summer schedule, and the new displays for this summer.

County Board June 20th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

County Board Chair Bob Lee was here to discuss last night's meeting. He recognized several long time county employees and the good jobs they do. County budget, and new supervisors brought up to speed on the old business and committee assignments.

Fire Dept June 26th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 minutes

The circus is coming for sure! Tina Elvins made it official, and gave an update on needs at Our Sisters House shelter. Jerry Dvorak of the VFW and Carl Luce, spoke on the sales of the Cowboy poetry CD to raise funds for the shelter. They also talked about the high numbers of homeless veterans that need out help.

ADRC June, 28th, 2018 Morning Forum 25 min

Michelle McDougal is a benefit specialist with the Ageing and Disabilities Resource Center. She spoke about what she does in her job to help adults get the help and benefits they need to cope and thrive in their situations.