

Quarterly Issues – Program List

First Quarter

January 2021

UWEX January 6 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Dan Marzu, UWEX Agriculture Educator joined us for a talk about the care and feeding of the Christmas plants we just displayed in our homes to keep them blooming and healthy all year, instead of just tossing them in the trash. Poinsettias, Christmas cactus were the main focus.

Tomahawk Historical Society January 7 Morning Conversation 9:35 15 minutes

Dixie Zastrow, and Elaine Koth were on to talk about some of the new items procured and donated for display at the historical museum. With the hope it will be open again this upcoming summer, the ladies highlighted some new exhibit displays. They also talked about a new book based on automotive history of our town.

Health Department Update January 13 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Lincoln County Health Dept, Director Shelly Hersil gave us an update on the covid 19 fight here in Lincoln County. She pleaded for people to listen to science and facts, not hearsay and rumor put out by some media. Testing continues, hoping vaccines are not too far away.

School District News January 14 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Tomahawk School District Administrator Terry Reynolds was on to update us on the status of learning in our Tomahawk schools. Remote learning is the rule, but in class and hybrid learning is also being done. So far, no major outbreaks, just a few issues of quarantine so far.

Tomahawk Police Department January 19 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Chief Al Elvins caught us up on city law enforcement challenges, hopes for Coffee with a Cop returns soon, and a new Canine Officer will be replacing Vali, who is now retired. All funds raised for new dog were donated by a private party.

Catholic Schools Week January 27 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

St. Mary's School Principal Rita Lee previewed next week's Catholic Schools Week here in Wisconsin. The kids will have different theme dress up days, a "virtual" Grandparents Day, and even Mass with the Bishop.

February 2021

Dunn Financial Services February 1 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Mike Kriewalt, now sole owner of Dunn Financial Services of Tomahawk came to say a final farewell to his partner John Dunn, who just passed away from Covid 19. He assures us that it will be business as usual as we approach deadlines for Medicare and ACA. He will keep the name Dunn on the business.

Wolves February 3 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Conservation Congress member Lori Groskopf joined us with information on the wolf hunt, why it's needed, and how property and animal owners can keep their animals and property safe from wolf predation.

County Health Dept February 9 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Shelly Hersil is the Director of the Lincoln County Health Dept and gave us a covid update. Numbers are getting much better as testing continues through March at least, with the help of the Army reservists.

Tomahawk Schools February 11 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Terry Reynolds is the Tomahawk District Administrator and we talked about the upcoming referendum to keep the status quo in our schools. The vote is on April 6, and a yes vote keeps everything we have in school now. A no vote will mean big cuts in programs and personnel.

Mel's Trading Post February 16 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Mitch Mode was on to talk about the upcoming spring season. Unfortunately, it's not business as usual as the pandemic has had a negative effect on his ability to order inventory. Bikes, and ammo, are just 2 of the areas that will take a while to bounce back to normal.

ADRC February 26 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Scott Seegar was on from the Aging and Disability Resource Center was on to talk about benefits available through the ADRC, even during the pandemic. They are just doing more remote help now than face to face, so please call if help is needed.

March 2021

Lincoln County Health March 3 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Shelly Hersil, Lincoln County Health Dept Director came on the show to update us on vaccine rollouts, new group will be eligible next week.

Local Mom-Kidney March 5 Morning Conversation 9:35 15 minutes

We were made aware of a local boy who needs a new kidney. His parents took them to Milwaukee to get the transplant, and it wasn't a match. Our community stepped up with lots of donations to help the family. Paulette came on the air to tell her families story, and thank the community for all the help and support.

Tree Care March 10 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Ted Foley of Foley's Tree Service discussed winter damage to our shrubs and trees, and how to deal with them. he gave us our oak pruning window for the spring, and said it's time to place summer campfire wood orders.

Tomahawk School District March 11 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Administrator Terry Reynolds, and school board member Deb Valoux were on to make a final ask for a yes vote on next month's referendum to maintain current programming at Tomahawk schools.

Headwaters Builders March 18 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

We spoke with Jeff Visner, from Design Build by Visner. He talked about his business, and why he is a part of Headwaters Builders Association.

Dunn Financial March 24 Morning Conversation 9:35 25 minutes

Mike Kriewalt was on to talk about Medicare changes. He advised to call his office for free help and information for people over 65.

Veteran's Memorial March 31 Morning Conversation 9:35 20 minutes

Bill Barcalow educated us on the history of our Veteran's Memorial here in town. He announced the finishing touch plaques will go on the bridge in the next few months as donations come in and the engraving is complete.