

WJJQ FM Issues/Programs Fourth Quarter

Redeemer Church October 6 Morning Conversation 24 minutes

Pastor Mark Gass and Becky Wagoner came on to talk about the new Children's Learning Center being open. Helping with over crowding of child care services.

Team PIE October 7 Morning Conversation 22 minutes

Jennifer Turkiewicz came on to talk about the Partners In Education program. It's a mentoring program involving local business, and students in middle school and high school.

St. Croix Rod & Reel Company October 8 Morning Conversation 25 minutes

Jason Brunner of St. Croix Rods was on t talk about the rod winding program, and that an office would be opening here in Tomahawk. A great program for part time employment.

Park City Credit Union October 11 Morning Conversation 18 minutes

Val Mindek from Park City CU came on to talk about the grand opening of the new Dr. Bobbi Voermans Community Room at the Park City Credit Union. This room is names in honor of the late Dr. Bobbi. It can be used by members of the community, or groups in the community who need a public space for meetings.

Tree Care October 13 Morning Conversation 25 minutes

Ted Foley of Foley's Tree Service talked about prepping for winter, and how to be ready to address summer issues like mold or bugs as soon as leaves begin to appear in spring.

Insurance October 14 Morning Conversation 10 minutes

Paul Bishop from Calhoun Insurance made a quick visit to remind people 65 and up about Medicare deadlines, and a workshop he is hosting to help people make the right Medicare choices.

Operation Shoe Box October 15 Morning Conversation 18 minutes

Maria Nakhla from Samaritan's Purse came on to talk about filling a shoebox with items to benefit kids in 3rd world countries. WJJQ happy to be involved again this year in this program.

Insurance October 19 Morning Conversation 25 minutes

Mike Kriewaldt from Dunn Financial Services came to talk in depth about the Medicare and Marketplace deadlines approaching. He offers free help to make sure people are covered the right way.

Christmas Spirit October 20 Morning Conversation 22 minutes

Chris Copiske (Mrs. Clause) was here to talk about Lincoln County Christmas Spirit drive. This program asks people to fill out a form and explain what their kids needs might be for Christmas.

Headwaters Builders October 21 Morning Conversation 24 minutes

Ron Volz of Pella Windows of Wisconsin came on to talk about the pace of building here in the area, window trends, and supply chain issues. Also mentioned that people looking to build should seek out the HBA website to find the right contractor for their job.

ADRC October 22 Morning Conversation 17 minutes

Mary Rheinschmidt from the ADRC was on to talk about new office hours in Tomahawk, monthly talks at the senior center, and Medicare basics classes. Services of all types available for our seniors.

UWEX October 25 Morning Conversation 25 minutes

Art Lersch talked about the UWEX staffing changes, programs being offered, and how they are operating during the pandemic. Many programs are now being offered again.

Chiro Kids October 28 Morning Conversation 20 minutes

Dr. Zoie Mohr from the Hometown Chiropractic Clinic was here to talk about Chiro Kids Month. It is shown to help with many childhood maladies like ear infections, constipation, sleep issues and more. She encouraged parents to learn more and ask questions.

November 2021

Tomahawk School District November 3 Morning Conversation 15 minutes

Acting school district administrator Joe Innis came on to re-introduce himself to the community. He talked about dealing with the pandemic, the upcoming referendum in spring, and the search for a new permanent administrator. Discussed community forums starting soon.

Main Street November 4 Morning Conversation 22 minutes

Jen Turkowicz from Tomahawk Main Street was on to talk about a new Holiday promotion for downtown called "We Give Thanks". This promotion will have a contest for participants, while also raising money for Tomahawk area non-profits.

Kwahomot's November 5 Morning Conversation 25 minutes

Dave Koth and Keith Hanse came in to talk about the fundraising going on at Kwahamot Park. The long-time ski team members are renovation the site to better serve spectators.

Health in Motion November 9 Morning Conversation 22 minutes

Dr. Whitney and her staff came on to talk more about the other services offered at Health in Motion Clinic. Along with their physical rehab programs, they also offer personal training, and she explained the difference. Also, the Nuebie is now not only being used in Tomahawk, but also in Wausau. Great programs for our seniors.

War Memorial November 10 Morning Conversation 19 minutes

Paul Helbach is a Vietnam vet from Brule WI. He has been behind a different type of memorial to salute the veterans who have served in Vietnam. The Price Of War Memorial will be dedicated on Veteran's Day tomorrow in Brule.

Haven Shelter November 12 Morning Conversation 22 minutes

Kim West is the director at the Haven Shelter in Merrill. She talked about how victims of abuse can find help and shelter if they need it. She explained why the holidays can be the most dredged time of the year for people in abusive relationships. Volunteers are always needed at the Haven.

OSH Shelter November 15 Morning Conversation 15 minutes

Maggie from Our Sisters House came on to talk about needs for the holidays at our counties homeless shelter in Tomahawk. Volunteers always needed at OSH.

Medicare November 16 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Mike Kriewalt from Dunn financial Services in Tomahawk was on again to remind about Medicare and marketplace enrollment deadlines, and why it's always a good idea to have a local person help them navigate these sometimes confusing and difficult waters, and free of charge.

Bell Ringers November 17 Morning Conversation 20 minutes
Windy Mannering and Hellen Hoover from the Salvation Army were on to talk about the need for bellringers this holiday season. They told about how much the Salvation Army does in our community, and the need continues to grow.

Headwaters Builders November 18 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Randy Nillson from the Headwaters Builder's Association used his time to talk about his company, Great Lakes Builders and why they use the concept of passive home building. It's a home built to use minimum amounts of energy to keep it warm or cool. Very interesting topic!

NWCR November 19 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Jackie and Kieth from Northwood's Community Realty were on to give reminders about moving off the fence when it comes to listing a home for sale. Buyers are still looking to buy, even now that the cold weather has arrived. They gave tips to absent home owners to keep their property safe till spring.

Lights November 29 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Don Hoppe from Rhinelander talked about a new feature at Hodag Park this Christmas season, The Lights of the Northwoods. This year there are over a million lights strung through Hodag Park on Boom Lake in Rhinelander. This year there will be bonfires, live music and concessions on Friday evenings. It's free, but canned goods are requested for the food pantry.

Cherie's Sweets November 30 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Cherie Krueger from Cherie's Sweet Sensations talked about her new and growing downtown business. She started at home, now has the sweetest store in downtown Tomahawk. Great gift ideas too.

December 2021

Fundraiser December 1 Morning Conversation 15 minutes
Gerry Dvorak from the VFW stopped in to talk about this weekend's fundraiser for Hetch Lund, who has spent the last year in and out of hospitals fighting covid.

Medicare December 1 Morning Conversation 2 25 minutes
Mike Kriewaldt from Dunn Financial Services came in again to remind listeners about Medicare changes and enrollment deadline.

Christmas program December 2 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Mom and daughter team, Ann Steckman and Katie Taylor came in to talk about the Oh Tannenbaum Tour in Merrill. 2 days of touring a collection of various Christmas trees.

Hometown Christmas December 8 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Dalpa Halverson and Mary Smith were on the show to introduce Hometown Christmas in downtown Tomahawk. Christmas parade, carolers, live window displays and lots of sales this Friday night in Downtown Tomahawk.

Tomahawk Schools December 15 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Acting school administrator Joe Innis came in with an update from the school board meeting. He talked about the final numbers for the spring referendum, and Christmas programs at school.

Real Estate December 17 Morning Conversation 25 minutes
Keith and Jackie from Northwoods CommunityRealty were in to talk about first time home buyer credit, and some stories about property owners who did not take the proper precautions for their property over winter. Jackie talked about the upcoming Star Splash fundraiser too.

Service business December 21 Morning Conversation 22 minutes
Mike "Hob" Habech was on the show to talk about Hob's Service. Hob was the parts and service man at an area dealership for years, and now he is on his own. He services any outdoor motorized toy.

ADRC December 23 Morning Conversation 20 minutes
Erin Wells of the ADRC of Central WI was on to talk about volunteer opportunities in 2022. Many people are needed to assist in the upcoming years programs.

Snowmobile Clubs December 30 Morning Conversation 22 minutes
Mark McDonald from Northwoods Riders and Gary Hilgendorf from Knight Owls Snowmobile club discusses the upcoming snowmobile season. Many issues of riders leaving the trails and could jeopardize the future of snowmobiling. Thank the land owners. Stay on the Trails. Ride Safely and not drinking and snowmobiling!