

Lists of donors supporting specific programs are available and WQCS will print them for you to make them current.

Lists of current national underwriters are available from the networks' websites and WQCS will provide them.

It is virtually impossible to maintain a current list due to the changing nature of underwriting. WQCS will make the names of corporate underwriters available in a reasonable period of time.

Currently Lawnwood Regional Medical Center and Heart Institute provides underwriting for Lifelines.

Jill Roberts

News Director