The Children's Television Act and the FCC's rules impose the following commercial limits:

1. Children's programming may not contain more than 10.5 minutes of total commercial matter per clock hour on weekends and no more than 12.0 minutes of total commercial matter per clock hour on weekdays.
2. On and after February 1, 2005, children's programming may not direct viewers to an Internet website unless the website offers a substantial amount of bona fide program-related or other noncommercial content; (ii) the website is not designed "primarily" for commercial purposes (that is, e-commerce or advertising); (iii) the website's home page and other menu pages clearly distinguish between the website's commercial and noncommercial sections; and (iv) the pages of the website to which viewers are directed is not used for e-commerce, advertising, or other commercial purposes (that is, the page has no links labeled "store" or direct links to other pages with commercial material).
3. On and after February 1, 2005, neither children's programming nor commercials aired during children's programming may display Internet website addresses that direct viewers to Internet website that utilize a program's characters to advertise, promote, or sell products or services.

After due review of station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, WVVH-CD hereby certifies that the amount of commercial matter set forth above complies with the commercial limits of the Children's Television Act and 47 C.F.R Section 73.670 (a)-(d). WVVH-CD complies fully with the FCC's commercial limits with respect to all children's broadcast during this time period that is subject to those requirements.
