

AL PUNTO FOR WUVN
1st QUARTER 2018
(January, February, March 2018)

QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAMS LISTS

Here follows a listing of some of the most significant issues responded to by AL PUNTO, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period February 2018. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM/ SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM/SEGMENT
U.S. Politics / Immigration Diaz-Rosillo discusses President Trump's controversial decision to release a memo drafted by the chairman of Congress's Intelligence Committee Rep. Devin Nunes, and delves into further detail on the president's proposed "4 pillars" framework for immigration reform.	AL PUNTO	02/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	8:05	Carlos Diaz-Rosillo, White House Director of Policy and Interagency Coordination Diaz-Rosillo talks about President Trump's approval to release the memo alleging FBI bias in the Russia investigation. He also offers insight into the president's four-pillar immigration policy introduced in the State of the Union address and the deal the president hopes to strike with Democrats to benefit Dreamers.
U.S.-Politics/ Immigration Following the deportation of her husband, Garcia talks about her concern for mixed-status families like her own, and what she hopes to hear on the subject of immigration during the president's first State of the Union address.	AL PUNTO	02/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:28	Cindy Garcia, Wife of Deportee Jorge Garcia Cindy Garcia talks about attending President Trump's State of the Union and her hopes that the President would have addressed the many families torn apart by deportation.

U.S.-Politics/ Immigration Wides-Muñoz, flanked by Dreamers Aldana and Klingenfuss, discusses how she illustrates the history of the Dreamer movement through the stories of 5 individual Dreamers featured in her new book. The trio also react to the president's State of the Union speech.	AL PUNTO	02/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:03	Laura Wides-Muñoz, Journalist and Author; U.S. Immigration Activists and Dreamers Alex Aldana and Melody Klingenfuss Wides-Muñoz introduces her book, "The Making of a Dream," which follows the lives of five Dreamers. Also, Aldana, who is a subject in Wides-Muñoz's book, and Klingenfuss, who attended the State of The Union address with House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi, share their thoughts on the President's speech.
Puerto Rico Politics / U.S. Politics Moreno describes the #MeToo movement as both powerful and long overdue. She also says politicians both in the U.S. and Puerto Rico have failed to adequately deal with the aftermath of Hurricane Maria.	AL PUNTO	02/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	9:16	Rita Moreno, Oscar, Emmy, Grammy and Tony Award-Winning Actress The legendary Rita Moreno on being Lydia Riera in Netflix's new dramedy, "One Day at a Time." She also talks about the #MeToo movement, Donald Trump's presidency, and post-Hurricane Maria Puerto Rico.
Mexico Politics Nieto gives his reaction to whether his removal from his work protecting the integrity of Mexico's elections was politically motivated, and his thoughts on how worried Mexicans should be about the potential of tampering and corruption impacting the country's upcoming presidential elections.	AL PUNTO	02/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:44	Santiago Nieto, Ousted FEPADE Prosecutor, Mexico Nieto discusses his removal from Mexico's electoral fraud commission, FEPADE, and whether he was ousted for investigating illicit ties between Brazil's construction giant, Odebrecht, and Mexico's ruling party, PRI (Institutional Revolutionary Party).

Honduras Politics Hernandez responds to accusations of violating his country's constitution by seeking re-election, as well as what some call his violent repression of citizens who protested the move.	AL PUNTO	02/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	1:11	Juan Orlando Hernández, President of Honduras President Hernández and Univision News Senior Editor, David Adams, discuss Hernández's re-election amidst widespread protests over the validity of his win.
U.S. Politics / Immigration Rev. Rodriguez says he is optimistic that a deal for the Dreamers is imminent following a bipartisan meeting on the matter at the White House.	AL PUNTO	02/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:53	Reverend Samuel Rodriguez, President, National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference Rev. Rodriguez talks about a probable bipartisan deal on immigration policy between the White House and Congress as well as Chief of Staff John Kelly's incendiary comments regarding Dreamers.
U.S. Politics / Immigration Castro explains why he is interested in running for the presidency in 2020, and gives his read on the status of negotiations seeking immigration reform that protects the Dreamers.	AL PUNTO	02/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	5:35	Julian Castro, (D) Former Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Secretary Castro discusses his 2020 presidential aspirations and the immigration policy negotiations that are underway.
U.S. Politics / Immigration Sanchez explains reacts to incendiary video of a border patrol agent destroying aid meant to reduce deaths from border crossings, and explains why the clip has been met with indignation by immigration activists on humanitarian grounds.	AL PUNTO	02/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:18	Ana Sánchez, Member of Advocacy Group "No More Deaths" Sánchez talks about the advocacy group's publicized videos that show border patrol agents destroying humanitarian aid.

World Art / Immigration Drexler shares his own immigrant story and explains the profoundly influential effect his life as an immigrant has had in shaping his music.	AL PUNTO	02/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	8:20	Jorge Drexler, Academy Award-Winning Composer Drexler discusses his new musical work “Salvavidas de Hielo” and the latest offering from the album, “Movimiento,” which tells the story of migrants seeking a better future.
World Art The musical sisters discuss their new album, and explain what compelled them to move to Mexico City in pursuit of their dream of becoming professional musicians.	AL PUNTO	02/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	8:50	Ha*Ash, Pop Duo The Pérez Mosa sister duo Hanna Nicole and Ashley Grace talk about their release “30 de Febrero” and newest single, “100 Años.” The duo also talks about growing up in Louisiana while pursuing artistic endeavors in Mexico.
U.S. Politics With her parents by her side, Stoneman Douglas student Isabella Benjumea describes the trauma of surviving a mass shooting and how she is coping with the loss of 17 of her fellow students and teachers in the aftermath of the tragedy.	AL PUNTO	02/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	10:22	Isabella Benjumea, Parkland, Florida School Shooting Survivor Liliana Palomino and Mauricio Benjumea, Parents of Isabella Parkland, Florida high school student and mass shooting survivor, Isabella Benjumea, talks about the horrendous experience and her parents join her to discuss school safety measures.
U.S. Politics / Immigration Sen. Menendez gives his take on whether the latest mass shooting will finally spur congress to act, and if he is hopeful that congress is close to reaching a deal that protects the Dreamers.	AL PUNTO	02/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	5:03	Senator Bob Menendez, (D) New Jersey Senator Menendez discusses Congress’ response to mass shootings, gun control legislation, as well as ongoing negotiations to benefit the Dreamers.

U.S. Politics / Immigration Rep. Kennedy talks about the possibility of gun control being taken up by congress in the wake of the tragedy in Parkland, the latest on a Dreamer deal, and whether he harbors presidential aspirations for 2020.	AL PUNTO	02/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:36	Congressman Joe Kennedy III, (D) Massachusetts 4th District Congressman Kennedy discusses developing immigration policy measures in the House of Representatives, the country's gun violence epidemic, and his 2020 presidential aspirations.
U.S. Politics / Immigration Jimenez and Patiño channel the frustration of their fellow Dreamers over the slow pace of progress towards an agreement that resolves their immigration status limbo, and also suggest possible avenues for political compromise that could lead to a solution.	AL PUNTO	02/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	10:12	Cristina Jiménez, Executive Director and Co-Founder of "United We Dream" Gaby Pacheco and José Patiño, Dreamer Advocates Jimenez, Pacheco and Patiño offer insight into the immigration policy debate and what Congress can do to protect Dreamers' parents from deportation.
World Art / Immigration Reminiscing over more than four decades spent together and making music, the Estefan's discuss their relationship, and also explain why they are such passionate defenders of the Dreamers.	AL PUNTO	02/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	9:34	Gloria Estefan and Emilio Estefan, Musicians On the eve of Univision's music awards show "Premio Lo Nuestro," which this year celebrates the Estefans' spectacular legacy, the couple talks about their four-decade-long musical partnership and marriage, how they overcame stereotypes and realized their own "American Dream."

U.S. Politics Rodriguez and Sanabria give a first-hand account of surviving the shooting at their Parkland high school, and vent their frustration at the political system's seeming inability to adequately address the issue of gun control.	AL PUNTO	02/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	8:45	Carlos Rodriguez and Lorena Sanabria, Parkland, Florida High School Students Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School mass shooting survivors, Rodriguez and Sanabria, discuss the horrific event and the need for gun control policy. They share their view on the response from political leaders and the changes they hope to see.
U.S. Politics The parents of Joaquin Oliver, who was killed during the Parkland shooting, share their pain but also their hope that their loss and this moment, with young people like their son's classmates becoming activists on the issue, can be the beginning of long overdue change.	AL PUNTO	02/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	10:27	Manuel Oliver and Patricia Padauy, Parents of Parkland, Florida High School Mass Shooting Victim Oliver and Padauy, parents of Joaquin Oliver –a casualty from the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School mass shooting– call out Congress for their inaction on gun control and talk about their plans to raise awareness and advocate for new and comprehensive policies.
Mexico Politics Castañeda goes in-depth on the state of the race in Mexico's upcoming presidential elections, and whether the growing momentum of the #MeToo movement in the country will have a political impact.	AL PUNTO	02/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	5:25	Jorge Castañeda, Mexico's Former Secretary of Foreign Affairs Castañeda addresses the onset of Mexico's own #MeToo movement across Entertainment and beyond, and Mexico's rapidly-approaching presidential elections.

World Art / Puerto Rico Politics PJ Sin Suela talks about the social responsibility he feels as an artist to address the social injustices he sees, particularly in his native country of Puerto Rico.	AL PUNTO	02/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:04	PJ Sin Suela, Musician Artist-with-a-message and “Sandunga” songwriter, PJ Sin Suela, talks about Art as a reflection of the world around us, the challenges facing Puerto Rico, and why he is not afraid to talk politics.
World Art Chavira explains why preserving the integrity of the Spanish language starts with appreciating the near infinite flexibility of hispanophones native tongue.	AL PUNTO	02/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	5:57	“Paulina Chavira, Journalist The self-described “curator of words” talks about the essence of the Spanish language and how it can be used to express anything without reverting to Spanglish.

QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAMS LISTS

Here follows a listing of some of the most significant issues responded to by AL PUNTO, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period March 2018. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM/ SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM/SEGMENT
U.S. Politics / Immigration Curbelo addresses various pieces of legislation making their way through congress, including gun control and DACA.	AL PUNTO	03/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:11	U.S. House Representative Carlos Curbelo, (R) Florida's 26th District Rep. Curbelo talks about Congress' gun control proposals, about receiving National Rifle Association (NRA) contributions, and legislators' lost urgency on DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals).
U.S.-Politics/ Immigration Hernandez offers advice for immigrants who fear being targeted by ICE, and explains the implications of the Supreme Court passing on a closely-watched DACA case.	AL PUNTO	03/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:35	Ezequiel Hernandez, Immigration Attorney Hernandez goes in-depth on the Supreme Court's decision to not take up a case regarding DACA. He also talks about ICE's California raids and the protections immigrants have should they be detained.
Mexico Politics/ World Art Suarez details the threats against his life that led him to censor his public political statements.	AL PUNTO	03/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:03	Hector Suarez, Mexican Actor and Comedian The actor-comedian known for his political comedy skits talks about steering away from political commentary since he was violently threatened.

Chile Politics Piñera details his election victory, and lays out the agenda he is pursuing, including how he intends to tackle the corruption endemic to South America.	AL PUNTO	03/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:43	Sebastian Piñera, Chile's President-Elect In an exclusive interview with Patricia Janiot, Chile's President-elect Piñera reflects on his victory, corruption across Chile, Venezuela and other South American countries, and how he foresees a relationship with the current U.S. president.
Colombia Politics McFarland gives an in-depth recounting of Colombia's history of extensive paramilitary activity.	AL PUNTO	03/04/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:30	Maria McFarland, Author The human rights activist and author talks about "There Are No Dead Here: A Story of Murder and Denial in Colombia," her newest book on Colombia's history at the hands of paramilitary organizations.
U.S.-Politics/ Immigration Hernandez describes the ordeal of being forced apart from her family as she seeks refuge from deportation in a church.	AL PUNTO	03/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:03	Carmela Apolonio Hernandez, Undocumented Immigrant Under the threat of deportation, Hernandez talks about finding refuge in a Philadelphia church that granted her and her four children sanctuary.
Mexico Politics Dresser gives the latest analysis on the state of the race in Mexico's presidential election.	AL PUNTO	03/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	8:37	Denise Dresser, Mexican Political Analyst and Journalist Dresser discusses Mexico's upcoming presidential elections and the reach of the #MeToo movement across the country.

Colombia Politics Petro talks about being the favorite in Colombia's upcoming presidential election, and the attack he believes was a targeted assassination attempt.	AL PUNTO	03/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:15	Gustavo Petro, Colombian Presidential Candidate Former Bogotá Mayor, Gustavo Petro, discusses the country's relationship with Venezuela as well as the alleged assassination attempt on his life while on the campaign trail.
U.S. Politics Rojas goes to a Utah to see first-hand the firearm training for teachers that is being proposed as a solution for gun violence in schools across the U.S.	AL PUNTO	03/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	2:30	Pedro Rojas, Univision News Correspondent Rojas reports on a Utah school where firearm-training for faculty members has begun amid calls from politicians to arm teachers in response to the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School deadly shooting in Florida.
U.S. Politics Vasquez, Ruido, and Franco offer their perspective as gun experts and teachers on both sides of the debate about arming teachers.	AL PUNTO	03/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	9:36	Wendy Vasquez and Liliana Ruido, Teachers Gabby Franco, Competitive Shooter and Instructor Vasquez, who favors arming herself and other teachers as a defense against school shooters, and Ruido, who opposes the idea, are joined by pro-gun advocate Franco for a dialogue on the controversial proposal.
World Art Vega discusses what it means for the movie she starred in to be recognized with an Oscar.	AL PUNTO	03/11/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	4:00	Daniela Vega, Actress Transgender actress Daniela Vega discusses her groundbreaking role in, "A Fantastic Woman," the Chilean movie she starred in and recent winner of the Academy Award for Best Foreign Film.

Mexico Politics Anaya responds to accusations of corruption, and says why he is the best person to be Mexico's next president.	AL PUNTO	03/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	13:23	Ricardo Anaya, Mexican Presidential Hopeful Anaya talks in depth about the controversial money laundering investigation looming over his campaign and how he would approach diplomatic relations with the current U.S. president should he become Mexico's president.
U.S. Politics / Immigration The Duarte twins talk about the trauma of children seeing their parents arrested and deported.	AL PUNTO	03/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:41	Yarely and Aracely Duarte, Activists Yarely and Aracely were witnesses to their undocumented parents' detainment. The twin sisters discuss the highly publicized detention of Perla Morales-Luna in front of her children, and why they are ready to fight for the many children who are undergoing these traumatic experiences.
South American Politics / U.S. Politics Feeley explains why he left his post as Ambassador to Panama, and how he sees the relation between Central and South America and the U.S. evolving under Trump's presidency.	AL PUNTO	03/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:26	John D. Feeley, Former U.S. Ambassador to Panama U.S. Diplomat and former Ambassador to Panama, John Feeley, talks about his short-lived tenure under the current administration as well as his Washington Post op-ed (opposite the editorial page), "Why I could no longer serve this president."

Costa Rica Politics Alvarado discusses his political leanings and how they distinguish him from his opponent prior to Costa Rica's presidential elections.	AL PUNTO	03/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	6:58	Carlos Alvarado, Costa Rican Presidential Hopeful Leftist Carlos Alvarado has moved to round two of voting for Costa Rica's presidency. He joins "Al Punto" to assert his stance on issues from same-sex marriage to gay rights, and to contrast his candidacy against hard-right opponent, the 43-year-old conservative preacher, Fabricio Alvarado.
World Art / Mexico Politics Higareda talks about her new Netflix series and why she feels every person should take their civic duty seriously.	AL PUNTO	03/18/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:31	Martha Higareda, Actor Mexican actor Martha Higareda discusses her role in the critically-acclaimed Netflix sci-fi series, "Altered Carbon," and explains why voting in Mexico's upcoming presidential election is critical.
Mexico Politics Zavala discuss her candidacy for the presidency of Mexico, and whether she is beholden to her husband Felipe Calderon's presidency.	AL PUNTO	03/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	13:19	Margarita Zavala, Mexican Independent Presidential Hopeful In an exclusive interview, the former First Lady and presidential hopeful talks about her historic candidacy, her position on numerous issues, and assesses her husband's administration – Former President Felipe Calderón.
U.S. Politics Rodriguez reports on the ground from Washington DC on the protests organized by Parkland students demanding gun control.	AL PUNTO	03/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	4:20	Janet Rodriguez, Univision News Correspondent Live from Washington D.C., Rodriguez reports on the student-led "March for Our Lives" rallies that demand immediate action on gun control.

U.S. Politics Calderon recounts the tragic shooting from his high school while describing the changes he would like to see in regard to gun control	AL PUNTO	03/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	4:46	Alfonso Calderón, Activist and Mass Shooting Survivor Calderón talks about the terror he experienced last February when Nikolas Cruz entered his High School campus with an assault weapon. He also talks about what it's like to be propelled into gun control activism.
U.S.-Politics/ Immigration Recently released from immigration detention, Morales-Luna describes the trauma of being arrested in front of her children.	AL PUNTO	03/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	8:24	Perla Morales-Luna, Undocumented Immigrant Morales-Luna, who entered the country illegally at age 15, talks in detail about her violent arrest by plain clothes immigration agents in front of her daughters, who are U.S. citizens
World Art / Mexico Politics La Arrolladora Banda discusses their new music, and what it is like to be recruited and subsequently avoid playing shows for drug traffickers.	AL PUNTO	03/25/2018	SUNDAYS 10:00 AM	7:12	La Arrolladora Banda El Limón, Musicians The popular Mexican band promotes their new release and its newest single, "Cantidad y Calidad." The band also talks about the pressure musicians face when they are sought after by drug traffickers for private parties.