48 HOURS

10/04/14

48 HOURS: "Mommy Dearest" - a report on the case of Linda Cooney, a woman who became the center of attention in two shootings - two decades apart - both with the same gun. Linda Cooney, shot her ex-husband, attorney James Cooney, while her 10-year-old son Kevin, peeked out of a hole in his bedroom door. The case rocked their exclusive Palm Beach, Florida enclave and captivated locals when the aspiring socialite went on trial for murder. Investigators say she was found not guilty, largely on the weight of Kevin's testimony. Locals believed she had gotten away with murder. Cooney left Palm Beach, ending up in Las Vegas with her sons. In 2011, Linda Cooney reported another shooting; this time her son Kevin had a gunshot wound to the neck and would end up being paralyzed. Investigation revealed the gun used to shoot Kevin was the same one that had been used to shoot his father. Authorities were shocked when they found out she had asked to have the gun returned to her after the acquittal. Prosecutors believed Linda Cooney was desperate to control her grown sons and tried to kill Kevin because he wanted to move out. The defense painted a different story: Kevin was mentally unstable and accidentally shot himself. But the story that Kevin actually tells about his mother at trial startles everyone -- he himself claims that it was an accident, even though he had told the nurses in the hospital the opposite. However, in the end, it is not enough and Linda Cooney is found guilty on all charges. On-screen text graphic: After the verdict, Bob Cooney tried to visit Kevin. Kevin refused to see him. Interviewed: Las Vegas Detectives Robert Schmidt and Lance Landholm; Las Vegas prosecutors Shanon Clowers and Michael Staudaher; Bob Cooney, brother of James Cooney; Palm Beach gossip columnist Jose Lambiet; Lt. Scott Smith; former girlfriends of Kevin Cooney, Karina Taylor and Clarita Kendall; Linda Cooney's attorney Michael Becker. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Patti Aronofsky, Jonathan Leach)

10/11/14

48 HOURS: "The Hit" - a report on the death of colorful entrepreneur and Las Vegas gambler Gary Triano, who was blown up in his car after finishing a round of golf at the exclusive La Paloma Country Club in Tucson, Arizona in 1996. His ex-wife, socialite Pamela Phillips, speaks out for the first time and proclaims her innocence. The Trianos were a power couple who were part of the local social set and hobnobbed with Donald Trump. Triano had made a fortune in the tribal gaming business, but the bottom fell out and he was pushed out of the business. The income loss put a strain on the couple. He owed millions of dollars to creditors. The Trianos separated in 1993 and eventually divorced. He was killed in 1996. Was it a mob hit? Were friends or family involved? Investigation led to endless leads, curious characters and many theories. Eventually the investigation led to the involvement of Ron Young, once an acquaintance and possible lover of Pamela Phillips. He was arrested along with Pamela Phillips on charges of conspiracy and murder. In separate trials, Young denied everything, and was found guilty. Pamela Phillips was portrayed as a desperate woman out for life insurance at her trial. Her attorneys said that someone else was responsible. She too was found guilty. On-screen text graphics: Gary Triano's family sued Pam Phillips and Ron Young for wrongful death. They were awarded $10 million dollars. Interviewed: Pamela Phillips; one-time friend of the couple Laura Chapman; Pima County Investigator Gene Reedy; ATF Special Agents Tom Mangan and Tony May; Detective James Gamber; Triano friend Dr. Lawrence D'Antonio; defense attorney Paul Edkerstrom. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 10/18/14 48 HOURS: "Kristen's Secret" - a report about Kristen Cunnane, a former All-American swimmer who kept quiet about years of sexual abuse by a trusted female teacher and how her decision to go public led to the revelation that she was not alone: by speaking out, she gave three other women at the same school the strength to come forward. Cunnane was a student at Joaquin Moraga Intermediate School in Moraga, California. She caught the eye of gym teacher Julie Correa and they became close friends. Two years later, Correa began her abuse; Cunnane felt powerless to do anything about it. Correa became increasingly obsessed with Kristen, even slipping into the girl's home and hiding in the closet. In 2010, Cunnane's memories resurfaced. She was diagnosed with PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder). Eventually, with the help of her former high school sweetheart, now-husband, Scott, she went to the police. Despite being in possession of physical evidence, the police asked her to call Correa and attempt to get her to confess to the abuse. She cooperated and Correa was arrested. Cunnane then went public with the story and as a result, three other women who also attended the same school came forward: the three had been sexually abused - in the same time period - by a different teacher, Dan Witters, a popular science teacher. It was discovered that administrators knew of Witter's abuse and did nothing. In the fall of 1996, Witters, in the midst of allegations of misbehavior, committed suicide and the story died too. The Moraga School District eventually paid out a multi-million dollar settlement to the women, and the current administration apologized to the women who were abused. Julie Correa worked out a plea deal and was sentenced to eight years in prison. On-screen text graphic: The School District paid out a total of $18.65 million to Kristen Cunnane and the three other victims who filed civil lawsuits. Julie Correa is eligible for parole in 2018. In May 2013, Kristen gave birth to her first child, a baby girl. Interviewed: Kristen Cunnane; Scott Cunnane (husband); Maggie Rinow (friend and classmate); Dave Ring (attorney for Jane Doe); Jeanne Lewis (Kristen Cunnane's mother); Malaika Fraley and Matthias Gafni (journalists, Bay Area News Group); Berch Parker (Detective, Lafayette Police Department) (C: Tracy Smith - P: Paul LaRosa)
- 10/25/14 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "I Remember Everything" (9:00-10:00p) - a report about Angela Rose (no last name given) and Delaney Henderson, two women, tied together by having survived sexual assaults and who, by going public, hope to help others. In 1996, Angela Rose was a teenager heading to a Chicago suburban high school graduation party after work. She never made it. Angela was abducted by a man with a long history of criminal acts. He put her in his car, and eventually stopped at a forest preserve where he sexually assaulted her in the car. She survived. Police knew they had a strong case, but it took four years for her attacker to be convicted. Angela Rose turned to activism. She founded an organization called PAVE (Promoting Awareness Victim Empowerment) to help others. One of those she helped was Delaney Henderson, a young woman from California, who in 2011, was sexually assaulted by two schoolmates in her family home. She hid her attack from her parents and the police, fearing she would be further attacked or even killed because one of her attackers was a popular athlete at school. Everything changed when she learned that he had allegedly raped another, younger girl. Eventually the accused, Shane Villalpando, was convicted of three counts of sex with a minor in the younger girl's case and later accepted a plea deal in Delaney's case, leading to one more count. He was sentenced to one year in jail, five years probation and must register as a sex offender. On-screen text graphic: Angela Rose does not want her last name used to protect her family's privacy. Delaney and her parents plan to move from California for a fresh start. Interviewed: Angela Rose (no last name given); Delaney Henderson; Gary Ciccola (Sergeant, Schaumburg, Illinois Police); Richard Benbow (Sergeant, Wheeling, Illinois Police); former prosecutor Lawrence M. Lykowski; Kym Henderson (Delaney's mother); Deputy District Attorney Jennifer Karapetian. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Clare Friedland)

10/25/14 48 HOURS: "The Pact" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the murder of 15-year-old John McCabe of Tewksbury, Massachusetts, who was murdered after a dance in 1969, and his family's decades-long quest to find out what really happened to him. Police launched a massive investigation; there were suspicions that John's schoolmates may have been involved. One, Walter Shelley, was driving in a car that matched the description of a car spotted near the crime scene, but there was no forensic evidence and the case went cold. In 2000, Bill McCabe got a tip from John's childhood friend, Jack Ward: he heard at a BBQ, that the motive for the murder was jealousy and John had been flirting with Shelley's girlfriend, Marla Shiner. The case stalled again. In 2007, a new investigation was launched which led to Edward Alan Brown, who shared details of what happened that night. Mike Ferreira and Walter Shelley were arrested for the murder. Ferreira was tried first and was found not guilty: the jury did not believe Brown's story. Bill McCabe died four days after the verdict. Evelyn McCabe took up the quest for justice. Walter Shelley stood trial. This jury believed Brown and he was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic: Evelyn McCabe has filed a wrongful death suit against Michael Ferreira, Walter Shelley and Edward Allen Brown. Interviewed: Bill and Evelyn McCabe (parents); Debbie McCabe, Roberta McCabe (sisters); Gerry Leone (former District Attorney); Mike Ferreira and his wife Nancy Williams; Jack Ward (childhood friend); Detective Linda Coughlin; Ken Lavalee (police); Eric Wilson (Ferreira's attorney); Michael Duquett (juror). CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

10/05/14 "Crime, Punishment & Redemption" – an interfaith special that examines how the faith community is assisting those individuals recently released from jail and their family members put their lives back together. This program features the work of the following organizations: (1) The Inner-City Muslim Action Network (IMAN) was founded in 1997 and is a Chicago-based community organization working for social change by addressing the causes of violence, poverty and urban decay. Executive Director Rami Nashashibi and one of its founding members, Rafi Peterson, discuss the Green Re-Entry project, which is vital to the rehabilitation of the neighborhood and the men who are returning from prison. Founded in 2010, Green Reentry converts foreclosed homes into green, environmentally sound transitional housing for the formerly incarcerated who are reentering society. The renovation of these homes provides on-the-job training and a living wage to these individuals while fostering a sense of good will through community improvement. (2) Reverend David T. Link, a lawyer turned Roman Catholic priest, is a volunteer chaplain in the Indiana state prison system. Reverend Link talks about his journey from husband, lawyer and father to widowed Catholic priest, as well as about the need for prison reform. The author Maura Poston Zagrans discusses her recently published biography of Reverend Link, entitled "Camerado, I Give You My Hand" and why she has become an advocate for reform. (3) Reducing the stigma experienced by returning citizens and their families led to the creation of the Healing Communities Prison Ministry, a national organization. The organization's director, Reverend Harold Dean Trulear, Ph.D., is an ordained Baptist Minister and Associate Professor of Applied Theology and Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program at Howard University. Dr. Trulear discusses what led to the creation of the organization. Their programs, designed to bring hope, healing and reconciliation in families impacted by crime and mass incarceration, have been adopted by a number of churches across the United States: the Berean Baptist Church in North Philadelphia, PA, offers a "Social Justice Sunday" every five weeks. Senior Pastor Reverend James H. Buck discusses the power of the pulpit and the work of the Re-Entry and Redemption Ministry in helping returning citizens and their families; The United Methodists conduct workshops across the country with other faith communities. The Reverend Douglas Walker, M.Div., the United Methodist National Coordinator For Criminal Justice Reform, discusses why the United Methodists adopted their Healing Ministries plan. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. - 11/30/14 “War And Hunger” – a report from the borders of Jordan and Syria, where the United Nations, led by its World Food Programme (WFP), has undertaken the task of feeding and caring for millions of refugees from Syria’s civil war. Includes interviews with: Halima (through translator), refugee; Andrew Harper, Representative of United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) to Jordan; Ertharin Cousin, executive director of WFP; and Matthew Hollingworth, director for the WFP in Syria. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young, Katie Kerbstat)
- “Swiping Your Card” – a report on how hackers constantly infiltrate the computer systems of U.S. companies, stealing credit card numbers, which they then turn around and sell through online marketplaces to thieves, causing fraud amounting to several billion dollars annually for U.S. financial institutions. With no current solution, credit card companies are hoping to roll out new credit cards with computer chip technology next year, making counterfeiting cards nearly impossible. Includes interviews with: Dave DeWalt, CEO of FireEye, a cybersecurity company; Charles Carmakal, leads first responders for FireEye; Brian Krebs, cybersecurity journalist; Ed Lowery, U.S. Secret Service; Barry Abramowitz, CIO for Liberty Bank in Connecticut; Linda Swartz, head of security for Westfield Bank in Massachusetts; and Mallory Duncan, senior vice president at the National Retail Federation. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: David Schneider)
- “The Lion Whisperer” – a report on South Africa’s self-taught animal behaviorist, Kevin Richardson, his unique approach to interacting with lions, and his role in protecting the species. Tourists are paying money to pet lions in “lion parks”, but once these lions mature and become a burden to the zoo, they are sent off to “canned hunts”, where they are held in an inescapable area for hunters to shoot and kill. Richardson adopted 26 lions to prevent their demise. Includes interviews with: Kevin Richardson, animal behaviorist; Chris Mercer, director at Campaign Against Canned Hunting; and Rodney Fuhr, lion park owner. (C: Clarissa Ward – P: Randall Joyce)

11/01/14 PREEMPTION

11/08/14 PREEMPTION

11/15/14 48 HOURS: "Prison Diaries" (8:00-9:00p) - a followup to "Fatal Episode: The Producer's Story" (OAD: 02/25/12; Rebroadcast: 09/22/14), a report on former reality show producer Bruce Beresford-Redman, who was accused of murdering his wife Monica Burgos, while on a 2010 vacation in Cancun, Mexico. The 09/22/12 rebroadcast included a phone interview with Beresford-Redman, who maintained his innocence, from the Mexican prison where he was being detained while awaiting trial. Today, until the Mexican court system decides his guilt or innocence, Beresford-Redman remains incarcerated. Recently, over a period of four months, with a camera provided by 48 HOURS, he recorded diary entries in his cell and elsewhere around the prison compound and took viewers inside his life behind bars. Unlike many of his cellmates, Beresford-Redman has been able to pay for food to be brought in, but he describes the Mexican prison system as a dirty, rat-infested village with razor wire around it. There are about 1,800 men, women, and children living in a prison originally built for 700 people. Also included is the first sit-down interview with Beresford-Redman, as well as interviews with his parents, and his wife's sisters. On-screen text graphic: The judge can take as long as he wants to make a decision. Interviewed: Bruce Beresford-Redman, Jeanne and Carla Burgos (Monica's sisters); Juanita and David Beresford-Redmond (Bruce's parents); Sonya Tsiros (U.S. Consul General for the Cancun area); Jen Heger (Radar Online reporter); Pat Fanning (criminal defense lawyer); Jaime Cancino (one of Bruce's attorneys); and Emily Hamilton (tourist who was assaulted) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Josh Yager, Ana Real, Paul LaRosa)

11/15/14 48 HOURS: "Devil's Island" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the disappearance and death of Yvonne Baldelli, a California woman who moved to Panama with her boyfriend Brian Brimager, an ex-Marine trying to make a go of it as a bar singer, but who turned out not to be as perfect to her as he seemed. Baldelli routinely sent happy emails to family members, but they suddenly stopped. About a month after the last message, Yvonne's sister Michele Valenzuela got a text from Brimager saying he was back in the U.S., but without Baldelli. He had sent an email that he and Yvonne had broken up, which was somehow overlooked by her family. Police went to Panama and back to San Diego. The family learned that Baldelli and Brimager were not as happy as had been suggested. There were stories of heavy drinking and fighting. They learned Brimager was leading a second life and had gotten married to Kristin Werkoven. Even though Michele Valenzuela was sick with cancer, her hunch about the origins of an email allegedly from her sister Yvonne, set her on a mission to prove Brimager had murdered Yvonne. In Panama, police searched for a body. The FBI joined the investigation to search waters in Panama. Finally, forensic analysis yielded a positive result: Brimager was arrested by the FBI and is now in custody. Since the arrest, Yvonne Baldelli's remains have been found: she never left Panama. On-screen text graphic: Michele Valenzuela lost her brave battle to cancer last week. The United States is in talks with Panama to move the prosecution of Brian Brimager for Yvonne's murder to San Diego. Interviewed: photographer Jack English; Yvonne's sister Michele Valenzuela; her father and step-mother Jim and Lillian Faust; Yvonne's niece Lauren Beyer; local bar owners in Panama: Stephen and Joan Crabtree, Penny Tom, Jeff Salzman; Brian's friend Jim Mertens; and ex-U.S. intelligence officer Don Winner. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/22/14 48 HOURS: “The Girl Next Door” - a report featuring an exclusive interview with Tracey Grissom, who is on trial for the murder of her former husband, Hunter Grissom. Tracey details the abuse she claims to have suffered and the events that led her to shoot and kill him, in an Alabama parking lot in 2012. A young mother herself, Tracey and Hunter Grissom had eloped in 2004. Theirs was a troubled relationship from the beginning. In 2010 Tracey filed for divorce; she then says Hunter became abusive and in November, after she spent the night at a boyfriend’s house, Hunter raped her. He was arrested. Soon after, Hunter stopped paying spousal support and child support for his daughter, Anna Grace, claiming he was not working. One day, Tracey noticed his truck and wanted to take a picture to disprove his claim. She claims that he approached her car, intending to hurt her. She then shot six times. She was arrested on murder charges. The hour includes interviews with: Tracey Grissom’s friends; her attorney; Hunter’s mother and aunt; two of the employees who witnessed the incident that took Hunter’s life; and Hunter’s lawyer, who uncovered some damaging information about Tracey. The trial lasted two days, but before the case went to jury, the judge made a stunning reversal: he said it was a manslaughter case and if both sides could agree, he would let the jury consider manslaughter. They did, but Tracey did not agree and decided to take her chances of not being convicted of murder. The verdict: guilty. At sentencing, her lawyer argued that she was a battered woman, hoping to receive a lighter sentence. The judge gave her twenty-five years, neither the minimum, nor the maximum sentence. On-screen text graphic: Tracey Grissom must serve at least fifteen years of her sentence. She will be eligible for parole in 2029. Anna Grace will be twenty years old. Interviewed: Tracey Grissom; her attorney, Warren Freeman; her friend Loren Richards; her brother Travis Waters; Hunter Grissom’s mother Melanie Garner and his aunt, Gina Prisock; Tuscaloosa Times journalist Stephanie Taylor; Hunter Grissom’s employees William Dockery and Dale Dockery (brothers); Hunter Grissom’s attorney Shelly Standridge; social worker Marian Waters; and juror Janice Kelly. (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Chris Young Ritzen, Marc B. Goldbaum, Claire Anderson, Liza Finley, Susan Mallie, Judy Rybak)
- 11/29/14 48 HOURS: “The Sober Truth” – an investigation into the death of Karla Mendez Brada, a woman struggling with addiction, who sought help in an Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) program in California; the ex-con she fell in love with; and the circumstances that caused police to suspect him in her murder, when she was found dead in 2011, in the condo they shared. Also included is an examination of how judges around the country sentence some criminals to attend AA meetings, and that AA’s own non-disclosure guidelines put them side-by-side with those who are vulnerable in recovery. Brada battled an addiction to alcohol and prescription pills. She entered a program, got her life together, and bought a condo. Then she relapsed and re-entered a program where she was bussed to meetings of Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. Brada crossed paths with Eric Earle, who was in a sober living facility that required him to attend AA meetings. They fell in love and he moved in with her. She soon discovered he was abusive. The investigation into what happened to Brada exposes the risks of a recovery system that mixes convicted criminals in with the general population without the knowledge of many of those new to AA. Also included is what some AA members refer to as the secret “13th Step”, where male members take advantage of vulnerable women. In 2014, the case went to jury. Eric Alan Earle was found guilty of first-degree murder. Brada’s parents have filed a lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous, the organization they also hold responsible for their daughter’s death because they did not warn attendees that violent criminals could be at the same meetings they attend. On-screen text graphic: Alcoholics Anonymous has not filed a response to the Mendez family’s lawsuit. It is due December 1st. Interviewed: family members Sasha Mendez (sister), Jaroslava Mendez (mother), Hector Mendez (father); Jenny Rodriguez (best friend); Gabrielle Glazer (journalist); Johnny Dos Santos (friend of Earle); David Arrendondo (Earle’s attorney); Monica Richardson (documentary filmmaker); Judge Rogelio Flores; John Noland (Mendez’ civil attorney); and Elena Abramson (Deputy District Attorney) (C: Maureen Maher - P: James Stolz)

60 MINUTES

- 12/07/14 “The Spill at Dan River” - a report on Duke Energy, America’s biggest utility company, and its approach to handling the over 100 million tons of coal ash waste it has accumulated in thirty-two ash pits, or “ponds” in North Carolina. A spill in the Dan River in February 2014 has exacerbated this problem. There are no federal regulations in place for the removal of coal ash. Duke Energy is considering these removal options: using lined landfills, which entails lining the bottom and top of the ponds but leaving the ash there; or the less costly option of cap in place, which only covers the top of the pond. Includes interviews with: Lynn Good, Duke Energy CEO; Governor Pat McCrory (R-NC); and Frank Holleman, attorney for Southern Environmental Law Center. Also includes comments by Kemp Burdette, a local (NC) environmentalist. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On)
- “Disrupting Cancer” – a report on Los Angeles-based billionaire Dr. Patrick Soon-Shiong and his efforts to disrupt the conventional way cancer is treated: with cancer genome sequencing, accelerated cancer drug developments and approvals, immunotherapy, and the process of isolating tumor cells in the blood. Currently cancer is classified by location, such as breast cancer, and instead it would be labeled by its genetic mutation that fuels the specific cancer. Soon-Shiong has teamed with Blackberry to produce a device that will be available for patients and doctors early next year to help analyze tumors and treatment options. Includes interviews with: Dr. Patrick Soon-Shiong, NantHealth CEO and medical researcher; Dr. Derek Raghavan, oncologist and president of the Levine Cancer Institute in North Carolina; and David Roy, pancreatic cancer patient. (C: Dr. Sanjay Gupta – P: Draggan Mihailovich, Nathalie Sommer)
- “City of Music” – a report on the medieval Italian city of Cremona, which gave the world the famed Stradivarius violin. Artisans are still trying to replicate the sound of the multi-million-dollar violins by performing with them and hand-crafting violins in a similar way Antonio Stradivari did 300 years ago in the same city. Violinist Anastasiya Petryshak performs throughout segment. Includes interviews with: Paolo Bodini, director of Cremona’s Violin Museum and former Mayor of Cremona; Itzhak Perlman, violinist; Mathijs Heyligers, violin maker; Bruce Carlson, violin restorer; and Chris Kurz, student of violin making. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Tom Anderson)
- The Mail - selected viewer comments about the segment “The Lion Whisperer” (OAD: 11/30/14)
- 12/14/14 “Denied” – an investigation into the circumstances of long-term insurance coverage for the mentally ill in America. Long-term care for a mentally ill patient is often denied by insurance company doctors who never see the patient, resulting in some seriously ill patients being discharged from hospitals over the objections of psychiatrists, who warn that someone may die as a result. Included are recorded excerpts of Anthem Insurance-contracted psychiatrist Dr. Tim Jack, as he interacts with doctors during the claims process. Includes interviews with: Nancy West, whose daughter Katherine died after denied long-term care; Dr. Harold Koplewicz, psychiatrist and founder of the Child Mind Institute; Ashley, psychiatric patient with bi-polar disorder, and her mother Maria (their last name is withheld by their request); Kathryn Trepinski, attorney; and Dr. Paul Keith, Anthem Insurance’s former California medical director. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Michael Rey, Oriana Zill de Granados)
- “Inside Homs” – a report on the besieged Syrian city of Homs and the ongoing devastation there, a result of the Syrian Civil War. The report focuses on a small group of filmmakers who have documented the city’s descent into chaos as seen in the films, “Return to Homs” and “Silvered Water”, where first-hand video gives insight into dictator Bashar al-Assad’s violent crackdown on civilian protests. Abdul Basset al-Saroot, a Syrian soccer star, becomes the main subject in “Return to Homs”, where he is a leader in support of the rebels in Syria. Includes interviews with Talal Derki, film director; Orwa Nyrabia, film producer; Ossama Mohammed, film director; and Wiam Simav Bedirxan (through translator), filmmaker. (See also: “Aleppo” OAD: 10/14/12) (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon)
- “Mindfulness” – a report on “mindfulness”, a self-awareness meditation practice stemming from Buddhist roots which scientists say is healthy, but rarely achieved in today’s world of digital distractions. 60 MINUTES’ Anderson Cooper participated in a three-day retreat in northern California led by the founder of Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction, Jon Kabat-Zinn. Includes interviews with: Jon Kabat-Zinn, founder of Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR); Representative Tim Ryan (D-OH); Dr. Judson Brewer, psychiatrist and neuroscientist; Karen May, Google vice president; and Chade-Meng Tan, software engineer and motivator at Google. 12/21/14 "Cuba" – a report from Havana, Cuba as President Barack Obama used executive authority this week to re-open diplomatic relations between America and its Cold War enemy. President Obama and Cuban President Raul Castro exchanged captured spies -- negotiated with the help of Pope Francis. The report focuses on the history between the two countries, the everyday life of Cubans under Communist leadership and U.S. economic sanctions, and the future of US-Cuba relations. Includes interviews with: Orbert Davis, American jazz musician; Mark Ingram, American musician; Ernesto Lima, Cuban musician; Wendy Ora, Cuban musician; Hector Maseda Gutierrez, Cuban nuclear engineer and journalist; Wayne Smith, former U.S. diplomat in Cuba; Jeff DeLaurentis, U.S. diplomat in Cuba. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young, Oriana Zill de Granados, Andy Court, Robert G. Anderson)
"Senator Tom Coburn" – an interview / profile of Republican Senator Tom Coburn of Oklahoma, known as the "godfather of the Tea Party". He announced earlier this year that he has prostate cancer and will be ending his term two years early. Coburn discusses the unlikely friendship he and President Barack Obama formed during their first year in the Senate together and how they have maintained it from different sides of the aisle. Also includes interviews with: Stephen Spaulding, Policy Counsel at Common Cause; and Carolyn Coburn, Tom Coburn's wife. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Ira Rosen, Habiba Nosheen)
"Reese Witherspoon" – an interview / profile of Oscar-winning actress Reese Witherspoon. She discusses starting her own production company, Pacific Standard, with producer Bruna Papandrea. Their film projects feature interesting, complicated women in leading roles and its first two films, "Gone Girl" and "Wild" are getting Oscar attention. Also includes interviews with: Betty Witherspoon, Reese's mother; and Bruna Papandrea, producer. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Ruth Streeter, Kaylee Tully)

12/28/14 PREEMPTED FOR 60 MINUTES PRESENTS: "Inside The Vatican"

48 HOURS

12/06/14 48 HOURS: "Last Chance" (8:00-9:00p) - an interview with Damon Thibodeaux, who was wrongfully convicted of the 1996 murder of his 14-year-old cousin Crystal Champagne and who spent 11 years in Louisiana's notorious Angola prison. Thibodeaux, a distant cousin who was staying with the Champagne family, was immediately questioned by police after the girl disappeared. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed to murdering - and raping - the girl. Thibodeaux says he confessed to police after an intense interrogation and because he was sure he would be cleared during trial. When he met with attorneys hours later, he denied having anything to do with the crime. At the 1997 trial, he was convicted and sentenced to death by lethal injection, even though none of the 84 pieces of physical evidence were ever tied to him. His case caught the eye of attorney Denny LeBoeuf, who specializes in cases getting inmates off death row. LeBoeuf sought the help of Minneapolis attorney Steve Kaplan. Their investigation revealed that Crystal Champagne had never been raped. Together, they came up with a risky plan to present their evidence to Jefferson Parish District Attorney Paul Connick. Connick agreed to re-examine the physical evidence and Thibodeaux was freed two years later. 48 HOURS interviewed various individuals to piece together what may have happened to Champagne. On-screen text graphic for 03/29/14 and 12/06/14 rebroadcast: After Thibodeaux was released he earned his GED. He now works for a commercial trucking company. Thibodeaux was invited to testify before Congress about conditions on death row. Last year he became a grandfather. Interviewed: Damon Thibodeaux; his attorneys Denny LeBoeuf and Steve Kaplan; Crystal Champagne's mother Dawn Champagne; private eye Jen Vitry; John Tomlinson, family friend who found the body; retired forensic pathologist Fraser Mackenzie, psychologist Dr. Michael Welder, attorney Barry Sheck of the Innocence Project; and son Josh Thibodeaux. - 12/06/14 48 HOURS: "Crazy Love" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the investigation into the 2009 murder of millionaire Ben Novack, Jr. in Rye Brook, New York. Novack was the son of Bernice and Benjamin Novack, Sr., who once owned the famed Miami hotspot, The Fontainebleau Hotel, where the rich and famous came to stay in the 1960s. When the family lost their fortune and the hotel in the 70's, Benji was inspired to start his own business, planning conferences for corporate clients, which earned him millions. Friends described him as a brat who ruled his empire by fear and who had a lot of enemies. Police suspected his wife Narcy, but did not have enough evidence to charge her; then they received a letter, in Spanish, which stated that Narcy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were responsible for the crime. Police believed that Veliz had hired two men, Alejandro Garcia and Joel Gonzalez to kill Benji Novack. After arresting the two, Gonzalez implicated Novack and Veliz, along with Garcia. They were arrested on murder charges. A year later, reporter Julie Brown began looking into the circumstances of Bernice Novack's death, said to be from a fall. Convinced she had discovered a murder, she took her findings to the Fort Lauderdale police department. And as investigators were making a deal with Alejandro Garcia to testify against Narcy and Cristobal, he revealed he had also been hired to attack Bernice. Novack and Veliz were once again charged with murder. The motive: Narcy Novack knew Benji was having an affair and the pre-nuptial agreement only guaranteed her $65,000 in the event of a divorce. She had to kill Benji and his mother to get all the money. On-screen text graphic: Narcy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. Detective Alison Carpentier retired from Westchester County Police after the arrests. Ben Novack's fortune is still tied up in a Florida probate court. Revised on-screen text graphic for the 07/13/13 rebroadcast: Narcy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. They plan to appeal their convictions. Detective Alison Carpentier retired from Westchester County Police after their arrests. Ben Novack's fortune is still tied up in a Florida probate court. On-screen text graphic for 12/06/14 rebroadcast: Narcy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. - 12/13/14 48 HOURS: "The Two Faces of Todd Winkler" - a report on the investigation into the February 2012 death of Rachel Winkler, who was fatally stabbed with scissors by her husband, Todd Winkler, a former fighter jet pilot, in their Cameron Park, California home. He claims it was self-defense, triggered by an extreme psychotic episode -- they were fighting. He told police she was stabbed during the prolonged struggle when she grabbed the scissors. Investigation revealed: a fractured marriage; Rachel's affair; a potential divorce; and Todd Winkler's shocking past which prosecutors believe held clues to what happened to Rachel. Rachel's father, renowned impressionist painter Don Hatfield, believes Todd killed Rachel because she knew his secrets: a past that included possible psychotic outbursts and erratic behavior to get out of problems in the military and in his professional life, and that there was more to the story behind the fiery crash which claimed the life of his previous wife, Catherine Winkler. Todd Winkler's mental health became a major issue when he seemed to have a psychotic outburst during the trial. Prosecutors suggested he was faking and that it was a ploy to sway the jury. The verdict: guilty of the crime of first-degree murder as charged. On-screen text graphic: Todd Winkler plans to appeal. He says evidence of Catherine's death should not have been allowed at trial. Interviewed: Don Hatfield (Rachel's father); Brandy Stanley (close friend of Rachel's); James White (Rachel's boyfriend); Lisette Suder (prosecutor); Peter Hecht (Sacramento Bee reporter/CBS News Consultant); Woody DePew and Michael Hodnett (campers); Christina Carlisle (Catherine Winkler's sister); Rich Johnson (deputy sheriff); David Weiner (defense attorney); Dr. Frank Lossy (psychiatrist/expert witness for the defense); and Phil Albee (pilot). 48 HOURS (continued)

12/27/14

48 HOURS PRESENTS: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" (9:00-11:00p) – This originally aired as a TWO-PART program. A report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Recently divorced from Linda Opdycke, Stover still operated their lucrative business, "Island Dog Adventures" on Kiket Island, Washington. In 2009, Mark moved his business to Anacortes, Washington. Linda became romantically involved with Michiel Oakes, a weapons expert she had originally hired to analyze her security situation, based upon the fact that Mark had been charged with stalking Linda ever since she initiated their separation. They believed that Stover was obsessed with their relationship, as well as with the children from Michiel's previous marriage. On the morning of October 28, 2009, an employee of Mark's discovered traces of blood in the driveway of the business, Mark's white station wagon missing, and Mark's dog Dingo, shot three times in the face. Based upon a report of trespassing involving two vehicles, one a white station wagon, the other a black SUV, police apprehended the SUV, only to find the driver was Michiel Oakes. The following day, Michiel was arrested at Linda's home on suspicion of murder, after he attempted to dispose of a pistol. Michiel Oakes was charged with the murder of Mark Stover. Michiel claimed that Mark had invited him to his house and that the shooting was in self-defense because Mark pulled a gun on him. After the shooting, Michiel removed Mark's body from his house and drove to the home of his ex-wife, Jennifer Thompson. Jennifer told police that Michiel implied that he had been hired by someone as a hitman to kill someone. Linda Opdycke briefly spoke to police the night Oakes was arrested, but the next day she refused to answer any questions on the advice of her attorney. Oakes was freed on bail, he and Linda were forbidden by court order to see each other or communicate. During the trial, Oakes testified in his own defense. Linda Opdycke testified that Mark Stover could be very dangerous. During her testimony, prosecutors told her if Oakes was found to be acting in self-defense, then she herself would not have any liability. Linda told them that she did not have any liability in this case. Prosecutors have never charged her with any crime. After four days of deliberation, the jury came to a unanimous verdict. Michiel Oakes was found guilty of premeditated murder. He was given the maximum sentence of 26 years, with no chance of parole. The case is still open and Linda Opdycke has not been charged with being an accomplice. Interviewed: Andrea Franulovich (client and friend of Mark's); Vickie Simmons (Mark's sister); Linda Opdycke (Mark's ex-wife); Nancy Corbin (Linda's mother); Danny Jensen (man who claims Mark threatened him); Sheriff Frank Rogers; Chief Deputy Dave Rodriguez; Ruthie Hagemeister (Linda's neighbor); Julia Simmons (Mark's niece); Michiel Oakes; Amanda Oakes (Michiel's daughter); Teresa Vaux-Michael (Mark's fiancée); Leigh Hearon (private investigator); Amber Baker and Stephanie Poor (Mark's employees); Tami Gilden (Mark's neighbor); Jennifer Thompson (Michiel's ex-wife); Sergeant Gene Davis; Dan Luvera (lead detective); Leigh Hearon (private investigator); April Oakes (Michiel's daughter); Corrie Oakes (Michiel's mother); John Henry Brown (defense attorney); Rich Weyrich (prosecutor); Meghan Magaya (Mark's employee); Heidi Toussint and Tom Jenkins (jurors); Judge Mike Reichardt. On-screen graphics: Vickie Simmons has posted a $50,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of accomplices in her brother's murder. Michiel Oakes is appealing his conviction. Stover's dog, Dingo, survived her gunshot wounds, but died months later of cancer. On-screen text graphic for 12/27/14 rebroadcast: Vickie Simmons has posted a $50,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of accomplices in her brother's murder. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/14/14 "World Religions: Sikhs, Seventh-day Adventists & Mennonites" – an interfaith special that looks at three faiths -- Sikhs, Mennonites, and Seventh-day Adventists -- highlighting their beliefs, traditions, histories, and modern voice. (1) The Sikh faith originated more than 500 years ago in South Asia, in a region called Punjab. Simran Jeet Singh, a Religion Doctoral Candidate at Columbia University, discusses the tenets of the Sikh tradition, common misconceptions, and how this sometimes leads to discriminatory practices in the United States -- particularly since the terrorist attacks of September 11th. Also includes footage from services at the Sikh Cultural Society in Queens, NY. (2) The Mennonite tradition dates back to 16th century Europe. This broadcast includes an interview with John L. Ruth, a Mennonite Author and Historian, and a descendent of the first early Mennonite settlers in the United States, who settled in Pennsylvania in the 1600s. Joel Alderfer (Collections Manager) and Forrest Moyer (Archivist) discuss the collection at the Mennonite Heritage Center in Harleysville, PA. (3) The Seventh-day Adventists are a Protestant denomination that began in America in the mid-1800s. In Silver Spring, MD, Dr. Ella Simmons, Vice President of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, discusses what it means to live as an Adventist today. Dr. Bill Knott, editor of the Adventist Review and Adventist World, speaks about how the religion was first founded. Also includes an interview with Richard Duerksen of Maranatha Volunteers International, who shares his reflections on the faith and the mission work his organization is doing all over the world. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Roman Catholic Organizations.)

The Bright Futures initiative in the Joplin R-VIII school district We currently have over 7,000 students enrolled in Joplin Schools. Each one of them has a name, a face, and a story. 54% of them live in poverty, but they all have hopes and dreams, and each and every one of them deserves a bright future. That's where Bright Futures comes in! By helping to create important structures around kids that they need to be successful learners and successful community members. Bright Futures is actively addressing high school dropout rates and the future of Joplin students. One high school dropout can have a ripple affect on the entire community through the loss of productive workers and more. Dropouts are much more likely than their peers who graduate to be unemployed, living in poverty, receiving public assistance, in prison, unhealthy, divorced, and single parents with children who repeat the pattern and drop out of school themselves. Through Bright Futures, we can change dropout rates and reshape Joplin's future by working together. Bright Futures is a grass roots, community based program that creates partnerships and utilizes community resources for the common goal of helping our kids and strengthening our families and community. Bright Futures has created a system of support for our kids that educators can utilize. Bright Futures is about cultural change and building a community where education is important and valued. Each and every student is priceless and it's up to us to help them succeed. As a community, we are responsible for supporting Joplin children. It isn't just up to the parents, the schools, the business community, faith based organizations, or human service agencies to respond to these needs. Together, we can use our resources to make a lasting impact. Together, we can make a difference.

The weeks schedule and contact information is attached. This was a free program to the schools with the cost being underwritten by the station and its sponsors. Several employees of the station attended each program including Education Reporter Lisa Olliges, KFJX General Manager Darren Dishman, Promotion Manager Vance Lewis, and Promotion Assistant Megan McLaughlin. The purpose of the Media Guy company is to use clips from popular songs, movies, celebrities, and "everyday heroes" to present an entertaining message which motivates students to consistently make good choices every day. Topics addressed include drug abuse, peer pressure, healthy living, relationships, values, and spiritual relationships. New programs are produced annually to keep the messages as current as possible. Program length is from 30-to-45 minutes with introduction and closing comments. The Media Guy is a 501c3 not-for-profit organization. As part of the Livin' Life Tour a couple schools were able to write and produce public service announcements which will air from October through the school year, May, 2015. The messages were targeted to children & adults about getting exercise and a teen don't drink & drive psa

The Bright Futures initiative in the Joplin R-VIII school district We currently have over 7,000 students enrolled in Joplin Schools. Each one of them has a name, a face, and a story. 54% of them live in poverty, but they all have hopes and dreams, and each and every one of them deserves a bright future. That's where Bright Futures comes in! By helping to create important structures around kids that they need to be successful learners and successful community members, Bright Futures is actively addressing high school dropout rates and the future of Joplin students. One high school dropout can have a ripple effect on the entire community through the loss of productive workers and more. Dropouts are much more likely than their peers who graduate to be unemployed, living in poverty, receiving public assistance, in prison, unhealthy, divorced, and single parents with children who repeat the pattern and drop out of school themselves. Through Bright Futures, we can change dropout rates and reshape Joplin's future by working together. Bright Futures is a grass roots, community based program that creates partnerships and utilizes community resources for the common goal of helping our kids and strengthening our families and community. Bright Futures has created a system of support for our kids that educators can utilize. Bright Futures is about cultural change and building a community where education is important and valued. Each and every student is priceless and it's up to us to help them succeed. As a community, we are responsible for supporting Joplin children. It isn't just up to the parents, the schools, the business community, faith based organizations, or human service agencies to respond to these needs. Together, we can use our resources to make a lasting impact. Together, we can make a difference.

Pittsburg, KS 66762

Dear Vance Lewis,

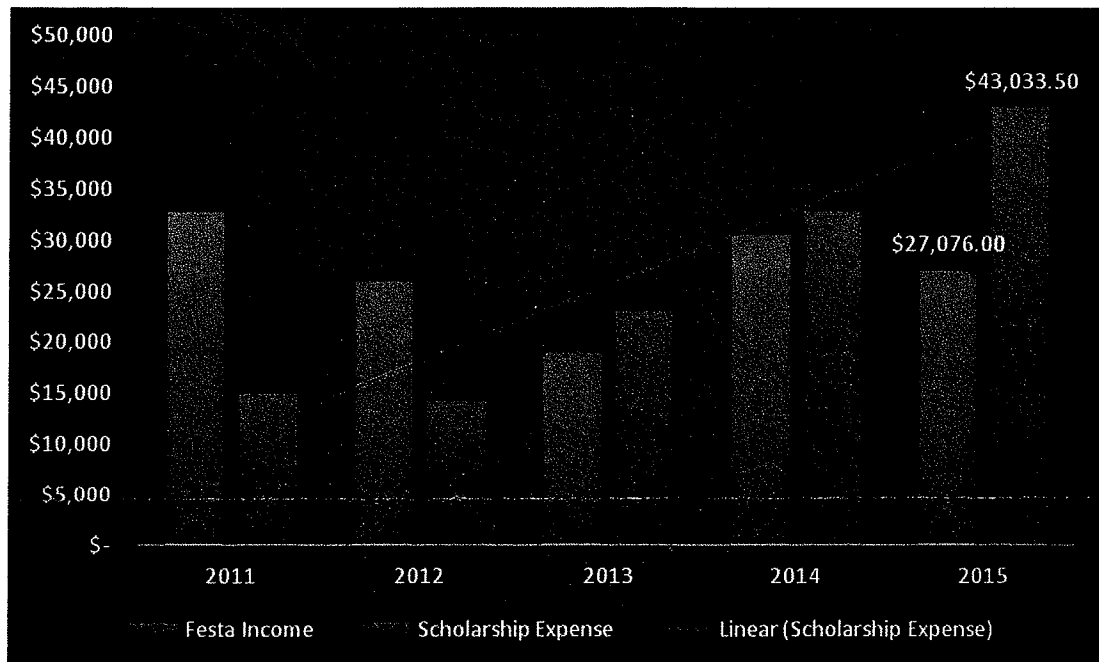

The Frontenac Education Foundation would like to thank you for your support of the Foundation and Festa Italiana. As many know, Festa Italiana is our largest fundraiser of the year and the dollars earned from that event go into our scholarship fund so that the tradition of giving EVERY Frontenac graduating senior a $150 per semester scholarship for their post-secondary educational endeavors may continue. The Foundation is proud of all that has been given to the students and staff of USD 249. This happens because of the strong community we are fortunate to be a part of.

In 2014, we gave:

- The Foundation approved & disbursed $10,700 in Teacher Grants
- The Foundation donated $42,000 to the 1:1 Initiative
- The Foundation paid $12,150 in Spring 2014 and $18,450 in Fall 2014 for Semester Scholarships
- The Foundation awarded $1,250 in Service Scholarships
- The Foundation gave $1,580 to the Spanish Club for their trip to Europe
- Utilizing the Degree in Life funds, the Foundation awarded $1,000 in scholarships, paid for elementary planners, LIME time, various fields trips and other Leader in Me programs
- The Foundation also donated approximately $2,500 to USD 249 employees to support other various initiatives

That is a total of $92,730!!

Festa Italiana 2014 raised $30,557.22 for our students. Thank you to our sponsors, cooks and other members of this great community for making it a success! The following is a chart with projected numbers for scholarships and Festa. The numbers for 2015 are an average of the previous years.

This chart displays the challenge that the Foundation faces in future years with the class sizes growing. The Foundation is excited to announce our 1st Annual Fund Drive which will begin on February 1, 2015! The goal for this fund drive is $50,000!

The Foundation is extremely excited about what the future holds and could never do it without the support of the community. Thank you for continuing to stand by the Frontenac Education Foundation and our mission to create brighter futures through character education programs, educational grants and scholarships for all graduates of USD 249.

Sincerely,

Ashleigh E. Hamblin

KOAM-TV

Attention: Vance Lewis

Dear Vance,

Thank you for your support of this year's Southern Media Showcase on December 4. We had more than 300 area high school students in attendance. Your support of the pens for giveaway items for the students was greatly appreciated.

I have enclosed a program booklet, to let you see the program for that day.

We appreciate your continued support.

Sincerely,

Judy Stiles

General Manager, KGCS-TV

III. Description of KOAM-TV Public Service Announcement efforts which provide significant treatment of local community issues.

Following is a sample list of some of the significant Public Service Announcement community issues responded to by the station along with significant treatment of those issues. The list is not exhaustive and the order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

The following is a list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with significant treatment of those issues. This list is not exhaustive and the order in which these issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Issues addressed during the quarter include Health, Veterans, Developmentally Disabled, Humane Society, Education, Children, Environment, Housing, Family, Marriage, Safety, and more.	Public Service Announcement	10.1.14-12.31.14	51 Hours, 19 Minutes, 45 Seconds	$401,963	Issues addressed during the quarter include, but not limited to: Health, Veterans, Developmentally Disabled, Humane Society, Education, Children, Bullying, Teen Safety, Environment, Housing, Family, Marriage, Safety, and more. A few samples of the public service efforts of the station are found below and within this report.
Health	Public Service Announcement	10.1.14-12.31.14	1 Hour, 34 Minutes, 5 Seconds	$9,650	The station aired a series of PSA's titled "ADHD Own It" providing information for adults who have questions or may wonder if they suffer from Adult Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder. The PSA's direct viewers to a web site where they can get more information. ADHD is a medically recognized disorder that can be managed. A person does not have ADHD simply because he or she becomes distracted or engages in impulsive behavior. Only a trained health care professional can accurately diagnose ADHD.
Health, Children	Public Service Announcement	10.4.14-12.31.14	26 Minutes, 15 Seconds	$2,932	The station aired a series of PSA's during the quarter to Autism awareness by NASCAR driver Jamie McMurray. The Jamie McMurray Foundation (JMF) promotes awareness of, and raises funding for, the research, education, and support for individuals and families afflicted with autism. JMF is dedicated to bringing the financial backing and support of the NASCAR community, together with the passion and commitment of the autism community, to promote better understanding of this challenging disability. To make a donation, please send your check payable to the Jamie McMurray Foundation to P.O. Box 3460, Mooresville, NC 28117-3460.
Children, Families, Health	Public Service Announcement	10.1.14-12.27.14			The station airs an on-going campaign in support of Ronald McDonald House of the Four-States located in Joplin, MO. Ronald McDonald House is the cornerstone program of Ronald McDonald Charities of the Four States. It is a "home-away-from-home" for the families of seriously ill children (0 - 18 years) and ill expectant mothers being treated at nearby Freeman Hospitals and Mercy Hospital Joplin. Ronald McDonald House of the Four States opened July 27, 1998. Since registering our first guest on August 20, 1998, our House has served over two thousand five hundred families from thirty-six different states and two foreign countries. Our House has served families from over two hundred and forty-five communities in our Four State area of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas. Over one hundred and thirty active volunteers help with all aspects of the House, including support and services to families, and night managerial duties. Ronald McDonald House of the Four States is part of the only worldwide service of 337 Ronald McDonald Houses in 35 countries and regions.

Children, Families	Public Service Announcement	10.1.14- 12.30.14	1 Hour, 10 Minutes	$11,675	The station aired PSAs in support of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Crawford County, Kansas and Jasper and Newton Counties in Missouri. Big Brothers Big Sisters of America is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose goal is to help all children reach their potential through professionally supported, one-to-one relationships with volunteer mentors. Big Brothers Big Sisters is one of the oldest and largest youth mentoring organizations in the United States. Big Brothers Big Sisters mentors children, all ages in communities across the country. The station also videotaped and produced a local PSA featuring Pittsburg State University men's basketball coach urging viewers to support Big Brothers Big Sisters of Crawford County.
Veterans	Public Service Announcement	10.1.14- 12.31.14	5 Hours, 40 Minutes, 20 Seconds	$37,545	The station airs many PSAs in support of Veterans and veterans causes. Current campaigns include Wounded Warrior: Wounded Warrior Project is a veterans service organization that offers a variety of programs, service and events for wounded veterans of the military actions following the events of September 11, 2001. Veterans Crisis Line: The Veterans Crisis Line connects Veterans in crisis and their families and friends with qualified, caring Department of Veterans Affairs responders through a confidential toll-free hotline, online chat, or text. Veterans and their loved ones can call 1-800-273-8255 and Press 1, chat online, or send a text message to 838255 to receive confidential support 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Support for deaf and hard of hearing individuals is available. Paralyzed Veterans of America Our veterans are our heroes for life. After serving our country, serious injury shouldn't stop them from living the full, rewarding lives they deserve. At Paralyzed Veterans of America, we fight for better health care and benefits, aid in the search for a truly satisfying career, and provide the path to adventure through adaptive sports. What's more, we are committed to ongoing care by educating clinicians about spinal cord injury, and we're deeply invested in the future—a cure for paralysis. Air Force Reserve:
Teen Safety	Public Service Announcement	10.1.14- 12.30.14	1 Hour, 45 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$11,155	The station aired PSA's provided by the Department of Transportation targeted to teenage and young adult drivers titled "Teens Drive Smart." Safety is everyone's business, and Bridgestone Americas believes an important way for us to make a difference is by educating young drivers behind the wheel. Teens Drive Smart is one way that Bridgestone is equipping the next generation of drivers with the knowledge and skills to become safer on the roadways.
Adult Education, Literacy	Public Service Announcement	10.01.14- 12.13.14	30 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$5,015	Joplin NALA (Neighborhood Adult Literacy Action) Mission Our mission is to foster and strengthen literacy skills enabling learners to reach their full potential. Vision To close the book on illiteracy. Objectives 1. Recruit and tutor adults who need help in reading, writing, math and/or English as a Second Language. 2. Recruit and train volunteers. 3. Provide programs to increase the family's awareness of the value of reading. 4. Promote literacy awareness. 5. Coordinate with community resources
Safety	Public Service Announcement	12.31.14	4 Minutes	$595	On News Year's Eve, December 31, 2014 the station joined other broadcasters across the country in airing the National Association of Broadcasters "Roadblock" public service announcements. Local broadcasters support the Project Roadblock initiative to combat drunk driving by donating on-air, online and mobile advertising assets to the PSA campaign, which will take place Dec. 26-31, the holiday period with some of the highest incidences of drunk driving fatalities. Broadcasters will add an advertising roadblock to this year's campaign by running a Buzzed Driving PSA at 10 p.m. on New Year's Eve on every participating station across the country.
