On Monday, January 18, 2010 a Girl Scout Troop toured the KFJX-KOAM main studio. The Girls & their leaders toured the newsroom, master control area, control room, & main studio. The students learned a little bit about the history of the stations. They also learned which professions at the television stations require a college degree and which ones do not. The students were able to ask questions of news anchors, reporters, news assistants, assignment editor, & others working in the newsroom as well as master control operators, directors and graphic artists who work in broadcasting at KOAM & KFJX. The Scouts main focus was on weather safety, technology & forecasting. They spent a lot of time with Chief Meteorologist Doug Heady then watched the 5:00 Newscast. The tour lasted approximately 90 minutes.

Hi Jamie!

How about January 18? If you & the Scouts could be here by 5:15 or 5:30 we could tour the station then watch the 6:00 News live, in the studio. After the news there will be plenty of time to visit with Doug and the other anchors. Our Main Studio is located in Southeast Kansas on Highway 69/400 about 3 miles north of Crestline. From Joplin it takes 20-25 minutes.

Let me know if this sounds o.k. and we'll get it on our calendar. We look forward to seeing you!

Could you plan a tour of the TV station on one of the dates below? Either before or after, Mr. Heady is going to help us earn a badge, so we need to make sure we don't cut in to his TV time!

We are out of school January 18 and February 15—we could come whenever it is convenient for you. Or we get out early on January 27 or February 24—we could be there about 2pm

Thanks in advance for your help,

Jamie Keith

Jamie if you would like a tour of the station contact our promotion guy, his email is ylewis@koamtv.com.

Now if the kids need help with the weather badge I can do that. They can come in and look around and ask questions and I can go over what you need me to do. 4:00 is a very busy time for me as I am getting ready for the newscasts. 2:00 or after the 6:00 news would work the best. Let me know and through some possible dates out to me.

Thanks,

I have a troop of 4th grade Girl Scouts. We are interested in doing a tour of the TV station, but also working on our weather badge. Would you or someone at the station be able to help us do that? We could come one day after school (about 4), an early out day (around 2), or possibly a Saturday. Please let me know what you think, or who I should talk to!

Thanks in advance for your help,

On Tuesday, January 26 & Wednesday, January 27 KFJX & KOAM participated in the Joplin Area Chamber of Commerce Business Expo held at The Convention Center in Joplin, MO. Tuesday was dedicated to the Business Community where employees visited with business owners about opportunities to increase sales. Then Wednesday was open to the public where employees visited with the general public about many issues. The one issue that continues to rise to the top is that of the digital conversion and problems & solutions associated with the conversion & viewers problems receiving the signal of the stations.

Health & Safety

On Wednesday, January 27, 2010 KFJX & KOAM Promotion Manager Vance Lewis was a guest speaker at a student Smokebuster's Event held on the campus of Missouri Southern State University. About 200 junior high & high schools students attended the event. Vance shared with the students ways they could incorporate television, through news, special events & public service campaigns, to educate the public (including children & teenagers) about the risks of choosing to smoke tobacco products. He led them through the process of writing & producing a public service announcement and showed examples of other student written & produced PSA's that the station was currently airing. For additional information please contact Janice Dunaway at 417.621.1735. Janice was the MSSU faculty director of the Smokebusters Program.

Also, how do you feel about attending the MSSU Spring Job Expo on March 10th? Did you see the email I sent you? Gee whiz, they have your picture on the job expo web page. I feel a little obligated to attend, don't you?

Issue: Crime & Safety

On Wednesday, Feb. 17, 2010 KOAM & KFJX Promotion Manager Vance Lewis, Station Intern Smile, Account Executives Laurie Rush & Patrece Wecker, and others attended a community Issues Forum at the KOAM Joplin office. This meeting of community purpose was talking about how to find the sponsor to support KOAM to create a commercial which is to reduce the problem of theft from vehicle. The Director of Communications Ron Cook from local business Tamko, and Sergeant Patrol Bureau Chad Allison with the Joplin Police Department discussed there are over 30% of people who didn't lock their car door, and it increased criminal theft from vehicle percentage. KOAM & KFJX are working to help inform the community about the problem and the need for viewers to lock their vehicles.

On Thursday, February 18, 2010 Station Commercial Videographer Krystal Albright & Promotion Manager Vance Lewis attended the kick-off of the 2010 March for Babies, the major annual fundraiser for the March of Dimes. They videotaped testimonials from March of Dimes volunteers to use to promote the March for Babies. Then Sonya Parker, commercial producer, created several spots to promote the event. The estimated donation for production is $150.00. In addition the stations aired public service announcements in support of the March of Dimes. Affidavits are attached to this report. Here is the mission of the March of Dimes as displayed on its website: Our mission is to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects, premature birth, and infant mortality. We carry out this mission through research, community services, education and advocacy to save babies' lives. March of Dimes researchers, volunteers, educators, outreach workers and advocates work together to give all babies a fighting chance against the threats to their health: prematurity, birth defects, low birthweight.

Underage drinking prevention

On Thursday, Feb 18, 2010 KOAM & KFJX Promotion manager Vance Lewis and station Intern Pu Yu Xuan attended a community Issues at the Alliance of Southwest Missouri. This meeting of community leaders was talking about teen safety which is how to reduce the drug abuse, driving problem, and underage3 drinking problem. As we know that teens may steal or take drug from their parents or other place to stay together and have fun together which we call "farm party." As this reason, the community wants to remind people to luck their drug all the time. Meanwhile, KOAM will help them to shoot a video and put it into air to remind people notice these problems. During this meeting, they help people can bring their drug which at April 24th, and police man will help to destroyed these drugs.

On Saturday, March 6, 2010 KFJX & KOAM sponsored and participated in the Sign-Up Saturday event held at the Leggett & Platt Athletic Center on the campus of Missouri Southern State University, Joplin, MO. Organizers lined up 44 vendor booths and expected close to 3,000 people at the event, which promoted healthy lifestyles for children and gave families the chance to enroll in spring and summer sports activities, according to Ryan Melton, manager of sports medicine at St. John's-Mercy Regional Medical Center. "We want them to find something they can be part of," Melton said. "Kids that are involved in groups are physically, socially and emotionally healthier." In addition to running no-charge announcements for the event KFJX General Manager Darren Dishman & KOAM Promotion Manager Vance Lewis hosted a baseball/softball toss encouraging kids to be physically active. I've attached the Rock CTOWN flyer if you all have a slow news day and need a story. Also, we are in need of "Easter eggs" for an event. We are only asking for 100 eggs filled with goodies. (I put a drug free living sticker in our eggs.) The cost equals about $20. Is there any way you could pass along this request to someone who is "in charge" of these sort of things. Or if someone does not have time they could give me the stuffing and I could purchase eggs and find a volunteer to stuff them. Please? We need about 5000 and have about 1000.

Issue: Health & Fitness

On Monday, March 22, 2010 Tammy Blaylock with The Alliance of Southwest Missouri visited with employees of KOAM & KFJX to discuss the upcoming "Live Smart" employee health & fitness campaign. Tammy measured a 1-mile track at the station which employees are encouraged to walk. About 17 employees have signed-up to participate in the Live Smart program during April & May, 2010. The LiveSmart Challenge is a friendly eight week competition designed to help individuals establish a more healthy and active lifestyle through regular exercise and healthy eating. The challenge is for people of all ages and abilities. Area communities members, businesses, and churches are encouraged to register and compete against one another. At the end of the challenge, the community, business and church with the greatest amount of participation will each be awarded a Champions Cup.

TITLE: LiveSmart Mayor's Challenge Kick-off Walk in the Park

LiveSmart will be hosting the Mayor's Challenge Kick-off Walk in the Park at 10:00 am Saturday, March 27 at Campbell Parkway Park. Mayor Gary Shaw will speak to encourage Joplin residents to Eat Right and Move More by joining the LiveSmart Mayor's Challenge. The city of Joplin is challenging the city of Neosho in a friendly competition. The city with the largest percentage of participation in the challenge will be awarded the LiveSmart Mayor's Challenge Cup. LiveSmart t-shirts will be given away and attendees will walk a lap of the Campbell Parkway Trail.

LiveSmart is a healthy behavior initiative of the Jasper and Newton Counties Community Health Collaborative. A recent study in Newton and Jasper counties found that 60% of area residents are either overweight or obese. To address this multiple county problem, the LiveSmart initiative is striving to create a healthy community by educating and encouraging residents to exercise at least 30 minutes 5 days a week and consume 5 servings of fruits and/or vegetables each day.

For more information contact Tammy Blaylock at 417-782-9899.

Vance,

Would you please pass this on to the correct person? You can come too.

Thank you!!

On Thursday, March 25, 2010 KOAM & KFIX Commercial Videographer Krystal Phillips & promotion manager Vance Lewis videotaped, free-of-charge, public service announcements for the upcoming Race 4 Hope for the Hope 4 You breast Cancer Foundation of Joplin. The Race is one of the organizations major fundraisers of the year. HOPE is an acronym for Help, Outreach, Prevent and Educate. This is what our foundation stands for as well. The purpose of the Hope 4 You Breast Cancer Foundation is to raise awareness, provide support, offer education and instill hope for those affected by breast cancer in our local area. It is our goal, our HOPE, that we would ultimately help to find a cure for breast cancer. There are many national and international organizations that assist in the eradication of breast cancer. The individuals and corporations who founded Hope 4 You wanted to determine where help can be provided "locally".

I have talked with Kristi and the date that works best for both of us is Thursday, March 23rd at 12:30 or 1:00 pm. Does this work for you? We have two suggestions of where to video. She said her office is very pinked out with Breast Cancer Stuff and might make for a good back drop or the other was out at the mall. Kristi is just worried that the space might not work for you all. Could you go her work "Blood Tax Service" and make sure the office was not too small? If so we will know that the mall is the better location. I will wait to here from you. Thanks, Dana Hutson

48 HOURS MYSTERY

01/02/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Kidnap on Highway 1" - In November 2007, Chris and Debra Hall, and their children, Tyler and Divinia, were driving back to California from Mexico, when they were pulled over a few miles from the U.S. border by what they thought were police. A man in a military uniform approached and suddenly put a gun to Chris' head. Moments later the family was ambushed by a second car of gunmen. As the kidnappers drove them onto a dirt road in the mountains outside Tijuana, they began asking about a race car. While in Mexico, Chris and Tyler worked as part of a pit crew at the Baja 1000. When Chris explained that there was no race car, the men ransacked the family's trailer and then took them farther into the mountains. The gunmen put the family in a ditch and threw sleeping bags over them. As the Hall family lay hugging in the ditch, the men drove away. Ultimately the Halls crawled through the brush in the night to a house where a woman took them in and called police for help. Despite her assurances that they could trust these officers, the family could not help but fear they were in danger all over again. The authorities rushed them to the border. For the moment they were safe, but with the gunmen in possession of their drivers' licenses and their address, they will carry the memory of that traumatic night with them. Mexican authorities never investigated the kidnapping, and the Halls still don't know who their assailants were. Drug gangs in Mexico are known to wear police uniforms as a way to trap their victims. The story is narrated by Divinia, Chris, and Debra Hall. Other contributors: Lt. Dave Myers of the San Diego Sheriff's Department, John Schardt, Divinia's schoolmate; and "Maria", the Mexican woman who helped them. (P: Chuck Stevenson, Anthony Venditti, Gayane Keshishyan)

01/09/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Innocence Lost" - a followup to "Who Killed These Girls" (OAD: 03/25/92) and "Deadly Encounters" (OAD: 09/14/98). In December 1991, four teenage girls were found murdered in an Austin, Texas yogurt shop. The girls had been tied up, stripped down, at least one was raped, shot in the head and their naked bodies were stacked in a corner then set on fire. In the weeks after the murders, authorities received countless tips, many false confessions and even interrogated teenagers Maurice Pierce, Michael Scott, Robert Springsteen and Forrest Welborn. With no solid evidence, they were released. There were no developments in the investigation until 1999, when new detectives assigned to the case made the announcement that they had made four arrests: the same four suspects, whom police had interrogated to eight years earlier. The charges against Welborn and Pierce were dropped. Scott and Springsteen each stood trial for murder. Both were convicted, with Springsteen sentenced to death and Scott sentenced to life in prison. On appeal, the convictions were overturned when DNA evidence did not match any of the suspects. It was from an unknown male. The Travis County District Attorney, Rosemary Lehmberg, says there is no statute of limitations for murder, and they will continue the investigation until the person(s) responsible for these murders are brought to justice. For now Scott and Springsteen are free; and the girls' families are still dealing with the deaths of their daughters. Interviewed: John Jones, lead detective in 1991; Mike Huckabay, Jones' partner; Bob Ayers, Pam Ayers, Barbara Ayers-Wilson, Maria Thomas, parents of the victims; suspects Forrest Welborn, Robert Springsteen; Jim Sawyer, Springsteen's attorney; District Attorney Rosemary Lehmberg; Saul Kassin, psychology professor at John Jay College for Criminal Justice (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Peter Henderson)

- 01/23/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Buried Secrets of Las Vegas" - a report on the death of gaming tycoon Ted Binion, who was found dead in his Las Vegas home more than a decade ago. The son of legendary gambling impresario Benny Binion, Ted was a brilliant casino operator himself. Paranoid about his wealth, he stashed millions of dollars worth of silver in a hidden vault in Pahrump, Nevada. Ted was also addicted to smoking heroin. Prior to his death, he became involved with Sandy Murphy, and it was she who told police in September 1998 that she had found him dead of an apparent drug overdose. However Binion's sister, Becky Binion Behnen, insisted to police that this was no drug overdose and demanded an investigation. Police discovered that Sandy was having an affair with Rick Tabish, and theorized that they were trying to steal Ted's buried treasure. Both were charged with his murder and both were found guilty of murder in the first degree. While imprisoned, Sandy contacted Alan Dershowitz, who agreed to take on her appeal. The Nevada Supreme Court agreed with Dershowitz's arguments and overturned both convictions. After the second trial, both Murphy and Tabish were found not guilty of murder, but were found guilty of stealing Binion's buried silver from the Pahrump vault. Many believe that much of Binion's money is still missing. 48 HOURS retained ground sonar experts to search the Binion estate, which had remained empty since his death; nothing was found. Tabish remains in prison because of a prior record; Murphy returned to California where she married an art dealer. Tabish's latest bid for parole is under consideration. Murphy is suing the state of Nevada, alleging false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. Interviewed: Sandy Murphy; Wayne Newton, Las Vegas entertainer; Glenn Pait, author; Becky Binion Behnen, Ted's sister; Christine Lefkowitz, Las Vegas realtor; Wayne Peterson, the Las Vegas Police Lieutenant who led the investigation; Ed Howard, Nye County Police Lieutenant, who saw Tabish digging up the vault in Pahrump; Attorney Alan Dershowitz; Rainey Williams, evidence custodian; and Jared Lampe, ground penetrating radar technician. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: James Stolz, Chris O'Connell, Jenna Jackson)
- 01/30/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret" - a report on the March 2007 disappearance of 911 operator Theresa Parker of LaFayette, Georgia. Theresa had recently separated from police officer husband Sam Parker, whom she had married in 1993. One night, after visiting her sister Christina Hall, Theresa vanished. Police found her car at Theresa and Sam's house, but there was no sign of her and no obvious signs of foul play. Police investigation revealed that Sam was an abusive husband with a drinking problem. When investigators found vacuum marks, Theresa's blood and Sam Parker's DNA in the back of Theresa's SUV, he was arrested and charged with his wife's murder. Prosecutors believed that Sam had murdered Theresa, drove off and disposed of her body. Parker insisted he had not killed his wife and suspected that she had run off to Mexico. The jurors said the task of deciding Sam Parker's fate was particularly daunting because they had an overwhelming amount of circumstantial evidence, but not much else. After three days of deliberation, the jurors seemed hopelessly deadlocked. The judge urged them to give it one more try. After a closer look at cell phone records, the jury found him guilty of first-degree murder. He was immediately sentenced to life in prison. Theresa's family believes that Parker may be the only one who holds the key to finding Theresa's body, but he still insists that he did not kill her and does not know where she is. Interviewed: Christina Hall; Sam Parker; Rhonda Knox, Theresa's friend and co-worker; Walker County Sheriff Steve Wilson; Special Agent James Harris of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Kenneth Parker, Sam's brother; FBI Special Agent Marc Venzey; Defense Attorneys David Dunn and Doug Woodward; Prosecutor Leigh Patterson; Keila Beard, Sam Parker's former wife; unidentified members of the jury. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

02/06/10 "Thou Shalt Not Kill" - a report on the November 1994 murder of Farah Fratta, whose body was discovered in the garage of her Humble, Texas home. She had been shot twice in the head. At the time of her death, Farah was in the midst of a divorce. To the outside world, her husband Bob Fratta was an upstanding citizen, who worked in public safety as both a police officer and a fireman. But divorce documents were about to make his dark side public, revealing his strange sexual requests that not only embarrassed Farah, but also sickened her. Bob Fratta seemed the likeliest suspect in his wife's murder, but he had a seemingly airtight alibi: he was at church with their three children as his wife was being murdered. Investigators worked to build their case against Fratta, and four months later they got an unexpected break. Tracing his phone records from the night of his wife's murder led them to a mysterious woman, Mary Gipp, who claimed that she could have prevented Farah's murder. She knew that her boyfriend had been hired by Fratta to kill his wife. Informed by police that she would be charged with murder, she made a deal and was given immunity for her testimony. Her boyfriend, Joe Prystash, had been hired by Fratta to arrange the murder and Prystash had hired Howard Guidry to be the trigger man. Guidry and Prystash were arrested and confessed. Fratta was arrested and charged with murdering his wife. After the trial, it took less than one hour to convict him. He was sentenced to death, along with Prystash and Guidry. Thirteen years after the murder, a federal judge threw out Fratta's conviction and ordered a new trial because the judge said there was testimony linking Fratta to the murder that should never have been admitted. At the new trial, after two days of jury deliberation, Fratta was found guilty of capital murder. The jury decided to send Fratta back to death row. He now plans to appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Lex and Betty Baquer, Farah's parents; Kitty Waters Sneed, Farah's co-worker and closest friend; Detective Larry Davis; Bradley, Daniel and Amber Baquer, Farah and Bob Fratta's children; Mike Edens and Jimmy Podhorsky, who worked out at the gym with Fratta; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; Mary Gipp, Prystash's girlfriend; social worker Judy Cox; Mike Charlton, Fratta's; Denise Bradley and Mia Magness, prosecutors for the second trial; Randy McDonald and Vivian King, Fratta's attorneys for the second trial. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

02/13/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Time To Kill" - A report on the September 12, 2001 disappearance of Michele Harris, a resident of Tioga County, New York. Michele, a mother of four, was involved in a bitter divorce with her husband, Cal Harris. He claimed she did not return home on the evening of September 11, 2001; her empty van was discovered at the end of their driveway the next morning. Cal denied any involvement and when no evidence was found during a search of the Harris home, he suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at Michele's personal life. Investigators uncovered that Michele was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen Michele the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, a forensic specialist was sent to the Harris home and found tiny specks of blood on a kitchen doorway, something that had been overlooked during the initial investigation. With the discovery of a possible crime scene, as well as Cal's refusal to take a polygraph, focus was placed on Cal, who began a relationship with a former girlfriend just eighteen days after Michele's disappearance. On September 30, 2005, Cal Harris was arrested and charged with murder. The trial began on May 21, 2007 and ultimately, he was found guilty of second degree murder. Just days before Cal Harris was to be sentenced, a new witness came forward and claimed to have driven past the Harris driveway around dawn on September 12, 2001 and had seen a man and a woman, who appeared to be arguing. According to this new eyewitness, the woman resembled Michele, but the man did not look like Cal. With this new information, the judge threw out Cal's conviction for the murder of his wife and ordered a new trial. It will be at least a year before Cal Harris is tried again. Update for this second rebroadcast: In July of 2009, Cal Harris once again went on trial. After a three-week trial, the jury found him guilty again. Harris was sentenced to twenty-five years to life in prison. He plans to appeal for a third trial. The search for Michele's body continues. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Marc B. Goldbaum) (OAD: 11/10/07; 1st rebroadcast: 06/24/08, which includes brief update in the form of an onscreen text graphic at the conclusion; this 2nd rebroadcast (02/13/10) includes new video footage and an updated text graphic from the second (2009) trial.)

02/20/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Guessing Game" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the January 11th, 1999 murder of Belinda Temple and her unborn child. A resident of Katy, Texas, Belinda was married to David Temple, once the celebrated defensive linebacker at his high school and now a successful and respected football coach, and mother to their one son, Evan. After an afternoon of errands with Evan, David returned home to what appeared to be forced entry and found Belinda in the couple's bedroom closet, shot in the head. Homicide detectives believed that the crime scene had been staged -- nothing was stolen from the home and the way the pieces of glass fell from the broken back door of the Temple's home seemed unusual, as if the glass was broken with the door already opened. Detectives were also troubled when they learned that David was having an affair with a fellow teacher, Heather Scott, who eventually became his second wife. Three months after the crime, a grand jury was convened, but nobody was indicted. With no DNA evidence, no eyewitnesses, no murder weapon, and no incriminating fingerprints linking David Temple to the crime, years passed until 2004, when Scott Peterson was convicted of killing his pregnant wife in a trial that captured the nation's attention. The similarities in both murders gave authorities a renewed confidence in their circumstantial case against David. Prosecutor Kelly Siegler finally got some forensic evidence, when after years of laboratory snafus and delays, a critical FBI report came back and indicated traces of gunshot residue on David's jacket. On November 29th, 2004, David was arrested for the murder of his wife, Belinda. After a contentious trial with David's attorney, Dick DeGuerin, David was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2037, when he will be 69 years old. David Temple has appealed his conviction. He is waiting for the decision. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 02/20/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lies and Whispers" (10:00-11:00p) - A followup to "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" (OAD: 11/12/05) and "Truth On Trial" (OAD: 11/15/08), detailing the third trial of Daniel Wade Moore, who was first convicted of murdering Karen Tipton, a mother and wife of psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, in her Decatur, Alabama home in 1999. As detailed in "Truth On Trial", eight months after his conviction, in 2005, the verdict was reversed by the same judge who had sentenced him to death. A second trial was held, ending in a hung jury. This report details his third trial (2009) in which his lawyers made use of new evidence to turn suspicion back to Dr. Tipton, by using an FBI report that said Karen Tipton was having multiple affairs and may have known her killer. After a month of testimony, Moore is found not guilty of the crime. Moore has moved away from Alabama after receiving death threats and plans to sue the city of Decatur and police for violating his right to a fair trial. Interviewed: Daniel Wade Moore; Sherman Powell, Moore's attorney; presiding Judge Glenn Thompson; Dr. David Tipton; Ken Collier, former chief of investigations for the Decatur Police who is now the police chief; Sparky Moore, Moore's uncle; Pam Smith, a Tipton neighbor; Co-prosecutor Corey Maze; Virginia Byrd, Moore's mother. - 02/27/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Cry for Innocence" - A report on Damien Echols, who has been on death row in Arkansas for the past 16 years, convicted of murdering three eight-year-old boys: Stevie Branch, Chris Byers and Michael Moore. At the time, amidst a country-wide media-fueled hysteria about Satanic cults, Damien, because of his affinity for long hair and dressing in black became a prime suspect, along with friends Jason Baldwin and Jesse Misskelley. The trio, known as the West Memphis Three, were convicted of triple-murder: Misskelley and Baldwin sentenced to life in prison, while Damien Echols received the death penalty. The police had no evidence linking Echols to the crime until Misskelley, whose lawyer says he has the mental capabilities of a five-year-old and barely knew Echols, confessed to helping him and Jason Baldwin commit the murders -- although many of the facts he recounted about the crime were incorrect. Misskelley was tried first, convicted and sentenced. Echols and Baldwin went on trial together; Misskelley refused to testify against them, and by law his confession could not be used against them. Still, they were convicted. As word of this case spread, so did the outrage over what many believed was a grave injustice. Members of the entertainment community, including actor Johnny Depp and musicians Natalie Maines and Eddie Vedder, came to their support. An HBO documentary, "Paradise Lost", and a book by Mara Leveritt entitled "Devil's Knot", detailed flaws in the case and now, forensic scientists have challenged the causes of the wounds inflicted on the victims, and sworn affidavits have revealed possible jury misconduct and new DNA evidence points away from the three convicted men and towards someone unexpected -- Terry Hobbs, Steve Branch's step-father at the time of the murders. As Echols prepares to take his case to federal court, he has some unexpected support from the parents of two of the victims: Mark Byers and Pam Branch, who now agree that justice has not been served. Interviewed: Damien Echols; Lorri Davis, a landscape architect from New York, who married Echols after researching the case; actor Johnny Depp; victims' parents Pam Branch and Mark Byers; Jerry Driver, West Memphis juvenile officer; Don Stidham, Misskelley's lawyer; Dennis Riedman, attorney now heading Echols' legal team; Rachael Geiser, private investigator; Terry Hobbs, Stevie Branch's former step-father; Debbie Moyer and her daughter Jannie Ballard, former neighbors of the Branch family. 03/07/10 PREEMPTION

03/14/10 "Inside The Collapse" - an interview with author Michael Lewis, a former Wall Street bond trader who, in his newest book, "The Big Short: Inside the Doomsday Machine", discusses the collapse of the subprime mortgage business through the eyes of a handful of Wall Street outsiders who saw it coming and made a fortune from it. Among those was Dr. Michael Burry of Cupertino, California, who discusses how he came to anticipate the collapse, and bought 'credit default swaps' - inexpensive insurance contracts on mortgage-backed securities that would pay off handsomely should the securities fail. Lewis also discusses Wall Street's bonus culture, and why he thinks it is no longer sustainable. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
"Derek" - a profile of thirty-year-old British musical savant Derek Paravicini. Born more than three months premature, Derek is blind and has severe cognitive impairment - and also has a brilliant musical ability at the piano. Also interviewed is Adam Ockelford, Derek's teacher, and Nic Paravicini, Derek's father. (See also: "Musically Speaking" (OAD: 09/28/03); "Rex" (OAD: 10/23/05); and "Rex" (Part I and II) (OAD: 06/25/06 - an expanded version of "Rex"). (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "What's Happening To The Post Office?" - Andy's has gotten wind of potential changes to the postal service and he's not a fan (OAD: 10/04/09)

03/21/10 "Chief Of Staff" - an interview and profile of Rahm Emanuel, President Obama's Chief of Staff, who discusses the nature of his job, his daily activities and his relationship with the President. Also interviewed is his brother Zeke Emanuel, an oncologist and bioethicist who is also one of President Obama's top health care advisors. (C: Katie Couric - P: Draggan Mihailovich, Jennifer Yuille)
"The Lost Children of Haiti" - a report on the plight of children in post-earthquake Haiti, half a million of whom are still living on the streets, in crowded orphanages or in makeshift camps. They are also vulnerable to becoming "restaveks" - child slaves, legal in Haiti. Includes interviews with Joe Knitting, Moise Vaval and Mike Fox of the Global Orphan Project; Marie de la Soudiere of UNICEF; Renise, a former child slave; Jean-Robert Cadet, a former child slave. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Solly Granatstein, Nicole Young)
"Doubles" - a profile and interview with Mike and Bob Bryan, identical twins who are pro tennis' leading doubles champions. Also includes comments by their father, Wayne Bryan, and by tennis player brothers Patrick and John McEnroe. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Finding A Good Job" - Andy reflects on the challenging job market

03/28/10 "The Case Against Nada Prouty" - a profile and interview with Nada Prouty, a former FBI and CIA terrorism fighter. Born in Lebanon, she came to the U.S. at age nineteen and arranged a sham marriage as a shortcut to citizenship. In 2005, FBI agents questioned her about her connections with her brother-in-law, a Lebanese restaurant owner named Talal Chahine, who was associated with Hezbollah, which was backed by Iran and on the U.S. terrorism list. She was accused of viewing classified information in the FBI ACS computer system without authorization. The CIA, however, did its own investigation and completely exonerated her of any wrongdoing. At the conclusion of her trial, Federal Judge Avern Cohn blasted the U.S. Attorney's Office for its overly zealous pursuit, but, because of the law regarding Prouty's sham marriage, he was forced to revoke her citizenship. She was fined nine hundred and seventy-five dollars, and released. The judge also blocked her deportation to Lebanon. Also interviewed is Bob Grenier, former CIA station chief in Pakistan. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick)
"The Russian Is Coming" - a profile and interview with Russian billionaire Mikhail Prokhorov, who will soon conclude a deal to acquire eighty percent of the New Jersey Nets, the worst team in the National Basketball Association. Also includes comments by Yulia Latynina, a Russian business journalist, and David Stern, NBA Commissioner. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Robert Anderson)
"The Sharkman" - a profile and interview with Mike Rutzen, a South African who studies the great white shark and, with his cameraman Morrie Hardenberg, makes a practice of swimming with them - unprotected by a cage. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Michael H. Gavston, Paul Bellinger)
Andy Rooney Topic: "How Funny Are The 'Funny Papers'?" - Andy laments the demise of funny papers, now called comic strips

48 HOURS MYSTERY

03/06/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lady In The Pool" - on July 22, 2008, Michael Roseboro, a funeral director in Denver, Pennsylvania, called 911 to report that he had just found the body of his wife, Jan, at the bottom of their swimming pool. Less than an hour later, she was pronounced dead at the hospital. An autopsy revealed that she had been strangled, beaten and then drowned; her death was ruled a homicide. As police conducted their investigation, an unexpected tip revealed that Michael was having an affair with Angela Funk, a married mother of two who lived near the Roseboro funeral home. Ten days after Jan's death, Angela informed Michael that she was pregnant with his child. On the following day, Michael Roseboro was arrested and charged with the first-degree murder of his wife. His trial began on July 13, 2009. The District Attorney stated that Roseboro's obsession with Angela Funk was his motive for killing his wife. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic update: Michael Roseboro's motion for a new trial was denied. Last month, the Roseboro family sold the funeral home they had owned for more than a century. Interviewed: Dr. Wayne Ross, forensic pathologist; Ann Roseboro, Michael Roseboro's mother; Mark and Ros Basner, Beck Donahue, Frank Tobias - friends of Michael and Jan Roseboro; Angela Funk, Roseboro's mistress; Sgt. Larry Martin, East Cocalico Police Department; Angela Funk, Roseboro's mistress; Melissa Voler, Roseboro's sister; Allan Sodorusky, Roseboro's attorney; Sam Roseboro, son of Michael Roseboro; Craig Stedman, Lancaster County District Attorney; Allison Van Zant, Jan Roseboro's niece. Michael Roseboro read a statement for 48 HOURS, on camera from prison, declaring his innocence. (C: Harold Dow - P: Allen Alter, Sarah Huisenga)

03/13/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Who Knew Too Much" - a report on the 1992 murder of 19-year-old Michelle Lawless, whose bloodied body was found in an abandoned car on a desolate strip of highway in Benton, Missouri. As Deputy Sheriff Rick Walter was working on the crime scene, a local man, Mark Abbott, reported that he had seen the young woman in her car, and also told investigators that he saw a white car driving near the crime scene. Police questioned Lawless' boyfriend, Leon Lamb, but could find nothing to tie him to the crime, and he passed a polygraph. Four months into the investigation, investigators got a break: 17-year-old Joshua Kezer had been held briefly in the county jail on assault charges, where, according to several inmates, he confessed to killing Lawless. Then Mark Abbott identified Kezer from a photo lineup as the driver of the white car he had seen near the crime scene. Police then charged Kezer with first-degree murder. During the trial, a young woman, Chantelle Crider, identified Kezer as having been at a party where he had words with Michelle. However, no DNA, fingerprints or murder weapon linked Kezer to the scene. Nevertheless, Kezer was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. The case haunted Rick Walter and in 2005, now sheriff, he re-opened the case. Soon the foundation on which Kezer's conviction was built began to crumble, as witnesses admitted to lying and evidence was questioned. Judge Richard Callahan agreed to review the case and was so disturbed by what he saw that instead of ordering a new trial, he declared Josh Kezer an innocent man. But someone killed Michelle and high on the list of suspects is that local man, Mark Abbott, who was once a star witness for the prosecution. In fact, there are two Abbotts, Mark and his identical twin Matt. To this day, Walters is not sure which Abbott brother came in to report finding Michelle, and two people in the office say that it was his brother Matt. Leon Lamb also remains a suspect. With the help of forensics experts at a "crime farm" in the Netherlands, who have examined DNA evidence, Walters hopes further investigation will allow him to bring the case to a grand jury. On screen text graphic update: Josh Kezer is suing former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. Interviewed: Sheriff Rick Walter; Joshua Kezer; Melissa Gaines, Michelle's best friend; Mark Abbott; Jason Lawless, Michelle's brother; Leon Lamb; Valerie Eubanks, Michelle's sister; Esther Lawless, Michelle's mother; Chantelle Crider; Brandon Caid, investigator; Dawn Pierce, host of the party; Jane Williams, church volunteer at the Missouri State Prison; Judge Richard Callahan; Ron Burton, friend of Mark Abbott; Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, Dutch forensics experts. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 03/20/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "In Too Deep" - a followup to "In Too Deep" (OAD: 01/22/08), presenting a further examination of the story of Laura Hall, who was convicted and sent to prison for the crime of dismembering the body of Jennifer Cave in 2005. As previously detailed, she admitted to going to the apartment of her boyfriend Colton Pitonyak, at his request, and was confronted with the dead body of Cave in the bathtub. She then -- out of fear for her own life, she says -- drove Pitonyak, at his insistence, to Mexico. After their arrest, Hall was interrogated and charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. At his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. Put on trial for this crime, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. However, after 17 months in jail, Laura Hall was released because a court ruled that her sentencing hearing wasn't fair. Her conviction was upheld and she is out on bond while prosecutors fight to put her back in jail. She could be sentenced to more time or released. And Pitonyak's new lawyer, says that they have new evidence and that Hall is also responsible for the murder. At Hall's new hearing, the judge rules against her: she's going back to jail. Her sentencing is set for May 2010, where she faces up to ten years in prison. Unless he wins a new trial, Pitonyak will be eligible for parole in 2033. Included interviews with Laura Hall; Sharon and Jim Sedwick, Jennifer Cave's mother and step-father; Loren and Carol Hall, parents of Laura Hall; Joe James Sawyer, Hall's attorney; Bill Bishop, prosecutor; Joe Turner, Pitonyak's attorney. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Jenna Jackson, James Stolz)
- 03/27/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld" - A report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her 2006 divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff's Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige's friends and family were far more suspicious of the children's father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Her family suspected she had money issues. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige's car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige's secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. On screen text graphic update: Paige Birgfeld's parents sought custody of her children, but the courts ruled they would remain with their father, Rob Dixon. The investigation is continuing into the disappearance of Paige Birgfeld. (C: Harold Dow - P: Loen Kelley, Sara Ely Hulse, Ira Sutow) (OAD: 06/10/08 as 48 HOURS VANISHED: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld"; 1st Rebroadcast 02/28/09 as a 48 HOURS MYSTERY, which included a brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)
