| The following is a list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with significant treatment of those issues. This list is not exhaustive and the order in which these issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance. | | | | | |
| Veterans/Military | On-going campaign—Veterans & Military | 10.1.13-12.31.13 | Continuous | N/A | The station recognizes a "4-State Hero" in each of its daily newscasts. The Hero is a veteran, living or dead, or a servicemember currently working in any branch of the military. |
| Public and Community Service Announcements | Issues addressed during the quarter include Health, Veterans, Developmentally Disabled, Humane Society, Education, Children, Bullying, Teen Safety, Environment, Housing, Family, Marriage, Joplin Tornado Recovery, Safety, and more. A few samples of the public service efforts of the station are found within, or attached to, this report. | 10.01.13-12.31.13 | 51 Hours, 52 Minutes, 20 Seconds | $552,887 | Issues addressed during the quarter include, but not limited to: Health, Veterans, Developmentally Disabled, Humane Society, Education, Children, Bullying, Teen Safety, Environment, Housing, Family, Marriage, Joplin Tornado Recovery, Safety, and more. A few samples of the public service efforts of the station are found within, or attached to, this report. |
| Local News and Community Affairs | Local News | 10.01.13-12.31.13 | 19 Hours Weekly | N/A | KOAM-TV is committed to providing local news and information for the Joplin/Pittsburg DMA. The station airs, on average, 19 hours of locally produced news, weather, sports, and information each week. Please see attached documents providing narration of some of the issues addressed within local newscasts. |
| Dr. Phil | Dr. Phil Show | 10.01.13-12.31.13 | 3:00pm-4:00pm Monday-Friday | N/A | Dr. Phil, the Emmy-nominated syndicated program, airs on the station from 3:00pm to 4:00pm weekdays. McGraw's success stems from his signature "get real" approach to helping his guests solve their problems, stripping through their emotional clutter, helping them to get down to the bare bones of their issues and giving them the challenge they need to move ahead. McGraw champions those who suffer from such silent epidemics as domestic violence, child abuse, depression, racism, substance abuse and other health issues that are prevalent in society, but go largely undiscussed by their victims. Sample show synopses are attached to this report. |
| Children, Education, Employment | Station Tours | Continuous | Various | N/A | The station provides free tours of its broadcast facility to scout troops, students, community service organizations, and the general public. Guests tour the newsroom, master control area, control room, & main studio. They usually watch a live newscast. They may learn about the history of the stations, and which professions at the television stations require a college degree and which ones do not. The guests ask questions of news anchors, reporters, news assistants, assignment editor, & others working in the newsroom as well as master control operators, directors and graphic artists who work in broadcasting at KOAM & KFJX. The high school and college age groups are informed about internship opportunities available at the television stations. The tours last approximately 90 minutes. 48 HOURS

- 11/02/13 48 HOURS: "Relentless" - a report on the murder of Nicole Pietz, and how Gael Schneider, the victim's mother, waged a one-woman campaign of psychological warfare on her daughter's alleged killer. In January 2006, Nicole Pietz disappeared from her suburban Seattle, Washington home. Nine days later her body was discovered in a wooded field near the airport. The investigation into the murder revealed that Nicole's life was not as perfect as it appeared. She suffered from painful medical issues and had been addicted to medication. Her husband, David Pietz, told police he suspected she was possibly abusing drugs again. David was also unfaithful. Police had few clues and the case went cold. From the beginning, Gael Schneider believed David knew more than he was saying and started a six-year campaign of harassment: she confronted David at work, left messages at his home and continued to urge investigators take another look at the case. Eventually, two new detectives pieced together enough evidence to arrest David Pietz for murder. They were convinced David strangled her. He was charged with second-degree murder. In September 2013 the case went to trial: David Pietz was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: On Thursday, David Pietz will be sentenced. He faces ten to eighteen years in prison. Gael and her husband plan to move back to Seattle to be close to her daughter Tonia. Interviewed: Gael Schneider, Nicole's mother; Tania Zurcher, Nicole's sister; Tamara Van Der Heyden and Dave Tilzer, Nicole's friends; Sabrina Strieck, David Pietz's girlfriend; Jake Pavlovich and Mike Mollis, detectives, King's County Sheriff's Department. - 11/16/13 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "As It Happened: John F. Kennedy - 50 Years" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, on November 22, 1963 in Dallas, Texas. This program presents a portrait of Kennedy's presidency up until the day of his assassination, and the subsequent fear and tension in the days after, through selected interviews and file footage from CBS News. Included are: interviews with Sandy Socolow (CBS News Producer); Robert Caro (author/ historian); Bob Huffaker (KRLD/Dallas Times Herald reporter); Dr. Kenneth Salyer (doctor/ Parkland Hospital); Philip Shenon (author); Dale K. Myers (computer animator/ Kennedy expert) as well as file footage from CBS News featuring Walter Cronkite, Dan Rather, Harry Reasoner, Mike Wallace, Charles Collingwood, Robert Pierpoint, Roger Mudd, George Herman, Charles Kuralt and Eddie Barker. (Anchor: Bob Schieffer - Producers: Pamela Mason Wagner, Taigi Smith, Catherine Harrington)
- 11/16/13 48 HOURS: "The Devil's Twin (10:00-11:00pm) - an investigation into the July 24, 2003 disappearance and murder of Heather DeWild, who was never seen again after a visit with her children to her estranged husband Dan DeWild's house, and how television crime dramas may have given her killer enough information to keep police from quickly solving the case. Police immediately suspected Dan DeWild, but there was no murder weapon, no fingerprints, no blood. His identical twin, David DeWild quickly married his girlfriend, Roseanne. Heather's body was found one month later, bound and buried on a canyon road. Police came to the realization that Dan DeWild and his identical twin brother David were most likely responsible for her murder, but the case grew cold due to lack of evidence. In 2009, Russ Boatright was assigned full-time to the circumstantial case. Investigation led to a sex tape, and Dan's fascination with bondage and rope. Heather was found bound in a similar manner. In 2011, Dan DeWild, David DeWild and his wife Roseanne were arrested and charged with murder. David DeWild broke down and admitted that his brother Dan had killed Heather and that he had participated in the crime. Prosecutors then learned that the brothers had been watching television crime dramas and forensic shows. They believed that Heather had gone to the house to retrieve the sex tape and then was killed. David DeWild took investigators to the crime scene and re-enacted what happened. David had to pass a polygraph test in order to secure a plea deal. Roseanne's charges were dropped due to lack of evidence. Dan DeWild's trial hinged almost entirely on his brother's testimony and with the lack of physical evidence, prosecutors hoped it was enough. In the end, it wasn't. Jurors deadlocked on the first degree murder charge, but agreed on the lesser charges. Plans were started for a retrial, but a month after the conviction, Dan DeWild pled guilty to second degree murder in a plea deal. On-screen text graphic: The identical twins have been separated...they are housed in different prisons. David DeWild will be eligible for parole in less than four years. Interviewed: Dave and Carole Springer, Heather DeWild's parents; Rebecca Barger, Heather's sister; Mark Crider, detective, Denver Police Department; Al Nelson, deputy sheriff; Curtis Johnson, highway worker; Russ Boatwright, investigator-in-charge; Robert Weiner, prosecutor; Tom Ward, Dan DeWild's defense attorney; jurors Vicki, Chris and Scott (no last names); Roseanne DeWild, Dave's wife. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/23/13 48 HOURS: "Hollywood Secrets" - a report on the investigation into the 2008 murder of Juliana Redding, an aspiring actress and model, and the eventual subsequent trial. Redding was found dead in her Santa Monica, California home. According to authorities, the killer hoped to erase any evidence of the crime; the killer tried to blow up the entire crime scene by leaving the gas on and a candle burning. This did not happen, and there was plenty of DNA evidence remaining at the scene. A sometime boyfriend, John Gilmore, who had a history of violent behavior had an alibi and was cleared. Further investigation led to the discovery that Redding had recently broken up with her wealthy boyfriend, Dr. Munir Uwayda after learning he had a wife and children in Lebanon. Investigators also learned of a lucrative business deal offered to Redding's pharmacist father. Less than a week after the deal fell apart, Redding was dead. Inside the home, police found evidence of a struggle and DNA evidence that led to a woman: Kelly Soo Park. Park was in the employ of Dr. Uwayda. She was arrested and within days Uwayda had vanished. Five years later, the trial commenced. While authorities thought the case was an easy win, the defense, with the help of jury consultant Lee Meihls, presented a bold argument of DNA transference. The eventual outcome: Park was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: The fraud investigation of Doctor Munir Uwaydah continues. His California Medical license has been canceled. Kelly Soo Park is living in Southern California managing a restaurant. Interviewed: Alan Jackson, former Los Angeles prosecutor; Jack Leonard, LA Times writer; Birgit Jarsen, attorney; Cindy Ogden, real estate agent; Genevieve Stewart, friend of Redding; Dr. Nathan Lents, professor, John Jay College; Lee Meihls, jury consultant. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Greg Fisher)
- 11/30/13 48 HOURS: "Walking Free" - a followup to "Murder on Lockhart Road" (OAD: 12/09/06) which itself was a followup to "The Alibi" (OAD: 10/11/02) detailing the story of David Camm, who was convicted in two murder trials -- each eventually overturned -- and was found not guilty in his third trial for the murder of his wife and two children. Camm was found guilty of murder in 2002 but the conviction was reversed in 2004. Following the appeal, a critical piece of evidence was tested: unknown DNA was put through a national database which led to ex-con Charles Boney. Police believed both Boney and Camm worked together. They went on trial separately and both were convicted. In 2009, the Indiana Supreme Court overturned Camm's second conviction. Boney's conviction still stood. His wife's parents still believed Camm was guilty. The State decided to try him a third time. Defense attorneys used a different strategy, involving DNA. In this trial, Boney testified that he provided Camm with the gun and that any of his DNA was put there by Camm. Camm was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: David Camm is working with the group "Investigating Innocence," based in Illinois. He's a case worker helping others who have been wrongfully convicted. David Camm's legal team is exploring a potential lawsuit against the State of Indiana. David Camm hopes to reconcile with Jane and Frank Renn, Kim's parents. Interviewed: David Camm; Stacy Uliana and Rick Kammen, defense attorneys; Stan Levco, special prosecutor; Frank Renn, Kim's father; Sam Lockhart, David Camm's uncle; Richard Eikelenboom, DNA scientist; Charles Boney, convict; Roger Drew, prosecution detective; Eugene Liscio, crime reconstructionist. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Shoshanah Wolfson, Paul LaRosa, Alec Sirken, Tom Seligson). - "Survivor" – a report on Operation Red Wings, the covert mission carried out by a four-man Navy SEAL team in June 2005 during the war in Afghanistan. The team's target was Ahmad Shah, a terrorist leader with close ties to Osama bin Laden. Former Navy SEAL Marcus Luttrell recalls the battle he alone survived, a firefight which resulted in the largest loss of life (nineteen men) for Naval Special Warfare since WWII. Luttrell penned a book, co-authored with Patrick Robinson, titled "Lone Survivor", and a Hollywood movie based on his book with the same title opens later this month. Also includes interviews with: Ret. Vice Admiral Joe Maguire; director Peter Berg; and Mohammed Gulab (through translator), the Afghan villager who helped protect Luttrell from being captured. - 12/15/13 "Inside the NSA" – a report on the inner workings of the National Security Agency (NSA). 60 MINUTES was granted access to the NSA's heavily protected headquarters in Fort Meade, Maryland. Americans are questioning the U.S. intelligence agency's protocol after details of some of its most secret programs were leaked by contractor Edward Snowden. General Keith Alexander clarifies the NSA's job responsibilities as foreign intelligence and defending the USA from future terrorist attacks. NSA analysts revealed a secret computer weapon called the BIOS Plot, engineered in China, which had the capability to destroy a computer's foundational component, but the NSA quietly worked with computer manufacturers to eliminate this vulnerability. Includes interviews with: General Keith Alexander, Director of the NSA and U.S. Cyber Command; Stephen Benitez, NSA analyst; Rick Ledgett, NSA investigator and leader of the Snowden task force; Howard (Howie) Larrabee, Director of NSA operations center; Debora Plunkett, NSA Information Assurance Director; and Chris Inglis, NSA Deputy Director. Also includes comments by various NSA analysts introduced solely by first name. (C: John Miller – P: Ira Rosen, Gabrielle Schonder) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- "The Copts" – a report on the ongoing political violence in Egypt which has resulted in unprecedented attacks on the country's Coptic Christian minority. Copts were the target of revenge by Muslim mobs this summer after Egypt's first Islamist president, Mohammed Morsi, was overthrown in a military coup. In the aftermath, over 40 Christian churches in Egypt were gutted by arson. Includes interviews with Pope Tawadros II, pope of Coptic Christians; Febe Armanious, Copts expert; Heba Morayef, Human Rights Watch Egypt Director; Youssef Sidhom, editor-in-chief of Watani, the only Christian newspaper in Egypt; and Redha Girgis, a caretaker (through translator). Also includes comments by Father Angelos Shenouda, pastor at Abu Serga Church (translated by Febe Armanios); Father Maximous el-Antony, monk at St. Anthony's; and Bishop Thomas, senior cleric at a Coptic Church. (C: Bob Simon – P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)
- Update: "Huawei" (OAD: 10/07/12)
- 12/22/13 "Susan Rice" – an interview / profile of President Barack Obama's national security advisor, Susan Rice. Rice discusses the NSA leaks by Edward Snowden, Iran, Syria, and the 2012 terrorist attack in Benghazi. Also includes an interview with Rice's husband, Ian Cameron. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)
- "Rocky Mountain High" - a report on Colorado's state-legalized cultivation and sale of medical marijuana, a thriving industry -- and an activity still illegal under federal law. Includes interviews with: Matt Cook, former Colorado narcotics officer, now a consultant to the medical marijuana industry; Ean Seeb, owner of Denver Relief, a medical marijuana dispensary; Kristi Kelly, investor in a dispensary; Tripp Keber, CEO of Dixie Elixirs, which makes cannabis-laced edibles; Sam Kamin, law professor, University of Denver; Stan Garnett, Boulder County district attorney; James Cole, U.S. Deputy Attorney General. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 10/21/12; includes an update.)

12/07/13 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Nelson Mandela: Father of a Nation" (9:00-10:00p) – a review of the life of Nelson Mandela, anti-apartheid leader and former president of South Africa. CBS News journalists who covered his story first-hand use CBS News' rich archive of material to explore the cultural, social and political impact his life had on the world. Includes: (1) Martha Teichner, who reported from South Africa during Mandela's years in prison, recalls Mandela's 1990 release. People rejoiced and celebrated the impossible: after 27 years in prison, Nelson Mandela greeted the world. Includes an historical perspective on Apartheid, Mandela's political life, his prison sentence, and the negotiations that led to his release. Interviewed: fellow political prisoner Mac Maharaj; former Time magazine editor/Mandela collaborator Rick Stengel; Archbishop Desmond Tutu. (2) Bob Simon reports on Mandela's journey from prisoner to president of South Africa, the end of Apartheid in South Africa and Mandela's legacy of forgiveness and reconciliation. Interviewed: former U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young; Congressman and civil rights leader John Lewis (D- GA). (3) Mark Phillips reports on the reaction to Mandela's passing. After long years of decline, the people were prepared for his eventual death. Today, they dance and sing for the man, his life and his legacy. (4) CBS News cultural correspondent Wynton Marsalis and South African musician Hugh Masekela talk about the importance of music in South Africa and how it became a catalyst to freedom. They perform the South African national anthem together. (5) Two young South African filmmakers, Nina Oosthuizen and Lulama Bongobi, one white, one black, reflect on Mandela's legacy to his country. (6) Anchor Scott Pelley discusses the schedules for the national memorial service and the funeral. (Correspondents: Scott Pelley (anchor); Martha Teichner, Bob Simon, Mark Phillips, Wynton Marsalis). Senior Executive Producer: Susan Zirinsky. Producer: Marcelena Spencer)

12/14/13 48 HOURS: "Love, Hate & Obsession" - a report on the investigation into the 2011 murder of one-time millionaire Lanny Horowitz, who was shot nine times while taking a shower in the bathroom of his upscale Jupiter, Florida home. Only three people were in the home at the time: Lanny Horowitz, his ex-wife Donna Horowitz, whom he had divorced twice, but had reconciled with, and his son, Radley, who also resided there. Both had strained relationships with Lanny. The investigation led investigators to the knowledge that theirs was a deeply troubled family. Both Radley, a former gun dealer, who also served a stint in prison, and his mother Donna, who was bothered by her ex-husband's close relationship with female business partner Francine Tice, were considered suspects. Eventually, Donna was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. At the trial, the defense ultimately blamed her son, Radley. The jury made a quick decision: Donna was guilty. Radley Horowitz has mixed feelings about her defense, but forgives her. On-screen text graphic: Lanny Horowitz has a $500,000 life insurance policy. He left $200,000 to Francine Tice. Radley sued Francine for her share of the insurance payout. Francine settled for $90,000. As part of the settlement, both have agreed never to speak badly about each other publicly. Interviewed: Horowitz' son, Radley Horowitz; his brother, Barry Horowitz, his sister Sheila Goldberg;; Jupiter, Florida Police Department detective Eric Frank; Assistant State Attorneys Aleathea McRoberts and Lauren Godden; CSI investigator Tracie McClendon; defense attorney Grey Tesh. 48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" - A report on the more than twenty girls and women, who since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears". Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. On Screen Graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. 12/21/13 Updated Text Graphic: Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in 2014. In the Madison Scott case, the Canadian police have cleared everyone at the lake party the night Maddy disappeared. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamsteeker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garrett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. Wayne Clary, RCMP; Claudia Williams, Alberta's sister; Matilda Wilson, Ramona's mother; Tom Chipman, Tamara's father; Kevin and Shawn MacMillen, Colleen's brothers; Ron Benson, Investigator. 48 HOURS (continued)

12/28/13 48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: a two-hour presentation, comprised of two rebroadcasts of separate "LIVE TO TELL" episodes, formatted as a two-hour edition:

"The Year We Disappeared" (9:00-10:00p) - On August 31, 1979, John Busby, a Falmouth, Massachusetts police officer, was ambushed in his car by a gunman in a passing car who shot him point blank in the face with a shotgun. Although brutally wounded, Busby was able to write a note for police at the scene that said "Not an accident. Mel Reine." Melvin Reine, a convicted arsonist and suspected murderer of three people, was a local thug whose brother, John Reine, had been arrested by John Busby. For undetermined reasons, Melvin Reine had long intimidated the Falmouth police, and the attempted murder of John Busby was not aggressively investigated. Fearing for their safety, the Busby family moved to an undisclosed location in Tennessee. Twenty-four years after the shooting, in 2003, John Reine confessed to the police that his brother Melvin had indeed shot John Busby while he, Melvin, drove the car. However, because of the statute of limitations, the Reines will remain unpunished. Melvin is now institutionalized, in a state of dementia. On screen text graphic: John Busby and his daughter Cylin have written a memoir together, entitled "The Year We Disappeared". Additional text graphic for 12/28/13 rebroadcast: Melvin Reine died in November, 2013. Includes narration by John Busby; Cylin Busby, his daughter; Kellie Collier-Driscoll, his niece; Polly Busby, his wife; Rick Smith, Falmouth police officer. (Producers: Chuck Stevenson, Liza Finley, Katherine Davis, Chris Young) (Producer for the 12/28/13 rebroadcast: Liza Finley) (OAD: 02/14/09)

"The Stranger You Know" (10:00-11:00) - a report about Marti Hill, who was savagely beaten in her Prairie Village, Kansas home -- and her attacker, who refuses to say why. Hill did not show up for work one day in September 2010, and her co-workers grew concerned when she did not answer texts or phone calls. Police were summoned after Hill's boss drove to her home and found her car still in the driveway. She was found by police, at the bottom of the basement steps, barely breathing and covered in blood. Believing she was dying, Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin tried to coax out of her who was behind the vicious attack. Doctors were not sure that she would survive; she was beaten and her throat slashed open. They spent hours treating her. Police found out that Marti was a workaholic, and if she was not working, she was at home. Her ex-husband was ruled out as a suspect. Hill's mother alerted police towards Brian Pennington, a construction worker whom both she and Marti had hired to do work. Police questioned him and became suspicious, but needed to hear Marti's side of the story. They soon learned she was recovering and able to talk to police. She confirmed to police that Brian Pennington had attacked her; he was arrested for attempted first-degree murder. Frustrating to police was the fact that Pennington apparently had absolutely no motive. However, they found that he had a record of over sixty contacts with law enforcement officers, including several domestic violence incidents involving women. During the preliminary hearing, Pennington eventually agreed to a plea deal; the only issue would be how long he would be held in the Kansas State prison system. It took months, but finally a twenty-eight-and-a-half year prison sentence was agreed upon. To this day, no one knows why Pennington attacked Marti Hill. Onscreen text graphic: We wrote to Brian Pennington to ask why he attacked Marti Hill. He did not respond. Marti has created a website to help women recover from traumatic events. Interviewed: Marti Hill; Tom Mai, Marti's boss; co-workers Stephanie Scheibler, Jan Schul; Dr. Harry Wilkins III, trauma surgeon; Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin; Prairie Village Police Detectives Luke Roth and Jason Wakefield; Shirley Roth, Marti's mother; Mackenzie Hill, Marti's daughter; Cami Gill and Monica Gill, Marti's sisters; Dr. Kim Poecker; Prosecutor Vanessa Riebli. - 12/15/13 "Living in the Shadows: Religion's Response to Human Trafficking" - a report on efforts by faith communities to educate the public on the prevalence of human trafficking - forced labor and sexual exploitation. The International Labor Organization conservatively estimates that worldwide, including the United States, there are twenty-one million enslaved people. Labor and sex trafficking is the third largest illegal "business" in the world, after drug and arms trafficking. The topics include: (1) The effort to raise awareness about the occurrence of sex trafficking in the hospitality industry. Includes comments from: Sister Patricia Daly, OP, Tri-State Coalition for Responsible Investment; and Carol Smolenski, ECPAT USA. Also highlighted is a volunteer training session at St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church on the Upper Eastside of Manhattan, attended by high school students from St. Ignatius Loyola, other local faith leaders, and concerned community members. (2) United Methodist Reverend David Schilling of the Human Rights and Resources for the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility (ICCR), details his organization's efforts to raise the awareness of corporations about global supply chain abuses, highlighting their recent work in Bangladesh. (3) Rabbi Rachel Kahn-Troster describes the efforts of the Jewish human rights organization T'ruah, in partnership with the Coalition of Immokalee Workers, to protect migrant workers on tomato farms in Florida. (4) The Damayan Migrant Workers Association is a grassroots advocacy organization for domestic workers from the Philippines in the New York area. Founding member Linda Oalican, and campaign and case manager Leah Obias, discuss the alliance of the faith community with their organization. Also includes comments from: Lydia Catina Amaya, staff community organizer; Karen Prudente, a member of United Methodist Women; and Susie Johnson, an executive for Public Policy with United Methodist Women. (5) In January 2013, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops created a pilot program called the Amistad Movement. Hilary Chester, Associate Director for Anti-Trafficking Services, highlights how this new educational program works with at-risk communities in identifying those most vulnerable to exploitation and trafficking. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Pilar Belendez-DeSha. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. "A 26-Year Age Divide: Can This Couple Be Saved?" Show #12049

(TV 14 (L))

Ashley, 24, and Dean, 50, say most of their five-year relationship has been volatile, and as a result, they've both served time in jail for domestic assault. Ashley says Dean has bitten her on the arm, driven off with her on the hood of his car and even choked her while she was pregnant with their now 3-year-old daughter — claims he denies. Dean says Ashley is often violent with him, and once hit him in the face with a glass, requiring 26 stitches. He also says she's immature and goes out partying instead of being a mother to their child — but Ashley says that she only goes out occasionally. Hear from Dean's 20-year-old daughter, Morgan, and ex-wife, Jody, who say Ashley is the problem. What's at the root of the couple's anger? Dr. Phil weighs in and offers help for them moving forward as a couple and individuals. Can Ashley and Dean stop the violence — for the sake of their daughter? And, should they stay together? This program contains strong language. Viewer discretion advised.

"A Husband's Betrayal: Lies, Secret Videotapes and Financial Ruin" Show #12075 (TV 14 (L) (S) (D))

Carmen says she thought she had the perfect husband in Dennis, until earlier this year, when she discovered that, for most of their 10-year marriage, he had been cheating on her with at least 15 women he met online — and secretly videotaping the encounters. She says that Dennis pretended to be a retired sheriff and a pimp to lure the women, many of whom he says were prostitutes — and nearly emptied their life savings to fund his secret escapades. After he admitted to his indiscretions, Carmen says she took Dennis back — but why? And, how does Dennis explain his actions? Dr. Phil sends international Christian evangelist and author Paula White, who counsels couples in crisis, to Carmen and Dennis' home, where she says she uncovered something that left her very concerned for the couple's 13-year-old daughter. Then, Jacob and Lucy say in 2010, their 18-month-old son, Izaiah, was struck by a 17-year-old drunk driver, while his grandfather pushed him in a stroller, leaving him partially paralyzed and brain damaged. With medical bills topping $1 million, the young parents say they're struggling financially, despite being awarded a $55 million judgment — money they will likely never receive. For the first time, the parents speak to the driver, who spent 480 days in a juvenile detention center for the crime. Will his words offer any comfort? Plus, don't miss Dr. Phil's big surprise for Izaiah's parents! This program contains sexual content. Viewer discretion advised.

"Haunted By the Evidence: Why Was My Brother Killed?"

Dr. Phil talks to two families who are torn apart by tragic deaths. First, Rod says two-and-a-half years ago, his brother, Jerry, was shot six times and left to die in an alley. No charges were ever filed, and Rod says he's working nonstop to find justice for his brother. He says he always protected Jerry in life, and to stop his investigative efforts would feel like a betrayal to his brother. Rod's wife of 20 years, Lori, says her husband is consumed by details of the case and has become so withdrawn, it's destroying their marriage. Is he willing to give up his fight in order to save their union? Hear from Rod's daughters, Karina and Taylor, who say they fear their father's obsession could lead to his untimely death. Is Rod in danger? Then, Rob and Veronica say their marriage is on the brink of divorce after their 13-year-old son, "Little Rob," was shot and killed by a friend nearly three years ago. The death was ruled accidental, but the parents say they're not convinced. What do they believe happened? The couple admits they feel guilty about their son's death and have been taking their anger out on each other. Can they learn to grieve as a united front and save their marriage?

"Obsessed and Over It" Show #12072 (TV PG (L))

→ Twenty-one-year-old Samantha says that four years ago, she began obsessively picking at her skin, leaving her with scabs and scars all over her face and body. She confides that she hates her appearance so much that she even wears makeup to bed. She says that she desperately wants help to stop her picking, especially since her younger sister, Rachel, has also started doing it within the last year. What does Dr. Phil think is at the root of the siblings' behavior? How can they overcome their compulsion -- and reclaim their lives? Then, Stormy says that her boyfriend, Keven, is obsessed with order, cleanliness and having everything done his way -- and it's tearing their relationship apart. Keven insists that he's not the problem and says that Stormy lacks attention to detail and thoroughness when it comes to keeping things clean and orderly. When confronted with some of his many demands for their household, will Keven see things differently? Plus, Cindie says she'll do anything to avoid going to the doctor, despite having a family history of heart attacks, breast cancer and early deaths. Dr. Freda Lewis-Hall, Chief Medical Officer of Pfizer, stresses the importance of getting regular checkups. Will her words make an impact on Cindie?
