FACE THE NATION 9:30 AM SUNDAYS

04/06/08

1) Interview with Howard Dean. Topics include: the need for the remaining superdelegates in the Democratic Party to announce which candidate they are going to support by July 1st; fear that the battle for the Democratic nomination is benefiting Republican Senator John McCain / speculation regarding the rumor that former President Bill Clinton and Senator Hillary Clinton are telling the superdelegates that Senator Barack Obama can't win and perhaps can't win because he is African-American; commitment to having the Michigan and Florida delegations seated at the convention in some way; belief that a McCain presidency would essentially be four more years of George W. Bush

2) Report from Baghdad with Lara Logan. Topics include the current situation in Iraq as General David Petraeus returns to Washington, DC to present his report.

3) Interview with Nancy Youssef and Rajiv Chandrasekaran. Topics include: the need for Iraqi Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki to step up and take a leadership position / Prime Minister Maliki's decision to go after anti-American cleric Muqtada al-Sadr and his militia in Basra / the failure of the operation and how it will impact the gains of the surge / Iran's influence on the security and the politics in Iraq; speculation regarding the report from General Petraeus and how the recent fighting in Basra could impact the report's content

Guest Correspondent: Lara Logan, CBS News Chief Foreign Correspondent (2)

1) Interview with Robert Gates. Topics include: what needs to happen in Iraq in order for the United States to leave / possible time frames regarding a United States withdrawal / reaction to Zbigniew Brzezinski's -- former President Jimmy Carter's national security adviser -- belief that the longer the United States stays in Iraq, the greater the likelihood of a head-on confrontation with Iran; who the enemy is in Iraq and the status of al-Qaeda; the strain on the military troops in Iraq and how that will impact what needs to be done in Afghanistan / the role of NATO in Afghanistan

2) Interview with Representative Nancy Pelosi. Topics include: the need to focus attention on the real war on terror in Afghanistan / how a withdrawal of troops from Iraq will force the Iraqi government to take responsibility for its country / President Bush's policy in Iraq and how it undermines the capability of the military to protect the American people / Congress' role in changing the current policy; her decision to block a vote on the trade agreement with Colombia; reaction to the rumors that Bill Clinton is trying to undermine Senator Hillary Clinton's candidacy by continuing to discuss her admitted erroneous recall of the circumstances surrounding her arrival in Bosnia / belief that there are greater concerns facing the American people than this type of political gossip

Guests: Robert Gates, Secretary of Defense (1); Representative Nancy Pelosi (D-San Francisco, CA-8th District), Speaker of the United States House of Representatives (2)

60 MINUTES

SUNDAY 6:00 PM

04/06/08

"Sovereign Wealth Funds" - an interview with Gao Xiqing, President of China Investment Corporation, China's government-controlled $200-billion sovereign wealth fund. Only five months old, highly secretive, and the fifth largest fund in the world, Xiqing discusses its investment philosophy and addresses concerns that China will try to use the fund to control the companies and countries it invests in. Includes interviews with economist Peter Navarro and former Treasury Secretary Lawrence Summers. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)

"The Path To War" - an interview with Douglas Feith, former Undersecretary of Defense for Policy and the number three man at the Pentagon. One of the main architects of the Iraq War, he was intimately involved in both pre-war strategy and post-war planning and says the attack on Iraq was more a defensive move against possible future threats from Saddam Hussein than a retaliation for the 9/11 attacks. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Michael Rosenbaum)

"A Bigger Leap For Mankind" - With the Space Shuttle program ending soon, NASA is planning to return men to the moon in preparation for a manned flight to Mars. Among those interviewed include Dr. Rick Gilbrech, NASA's exploration chief; Dr. Mike Griffin, NASA's director; Steve Squyres, principal investigator for the Mars rovers Spirit and Opportunity; and Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA), who tried to halt the Mars program. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich)

Update: "The Prosecution Of Governor Siegelman" (OAD: 02/24/08)

Andy Rooney topic: "Andy At The Auto Show" - Andy checks out the latest automotive offerings

04/13/08

"State Of Corruption" - followup to "The Mother of All Heists", (OAD: 10/22/06). An interview/profile of Judge Radhi al-Radhi, Iraq's former commissioner of public integrity and once the most public figure in the battle against corruption, who was forced to leave Iraq and is now a refugee seeking asylum in the United States. Includes an interview with James Mattil, former chief of staff of the State Department's Office of Accountability and Transparency in Iraq. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court, Keith Sharman)

"The Kanzius Machine" - Leukemia patient John Kanzius, a former radio and television executive, invented a radiowave machine that kills cancer cells without the need for drugs or surgery and without side effects. Currently, the radiowave machine is in the laboratories of two major research centers -- the University of Pittsburgh and M.D. Anderson, but Kanzius hopes to see his invention go into clinical trials and maybe help other people beat a disease he probably won't. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Tanya Simon)

"El Sistema" - a report on El Sistema or The System, Venezuela's radical approach to music education. Through a system of early training and local orchestras, Venezuela provides an uplifting musical experience for its at-risk youth and in the process, has developed the world famous Simon Bolivar National Youth Orchestra. Among those interviewed are Dr. Jose Antonio Abreu, founder of El Sistema; Rafael Elster, who runs a local branch of the program; and Gustavo Dudamel, conductor and product of El Sistema. (Includes an excerpt from "The Orchestra", OAD: 11/19/00.) (C: Bob Simon - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)

- 04/20/08 "Ambush In Afghanistan" - A report on the June 2006 battle between U.S. Army Special Forces and Taliban fighters near Kandahar, Afghanistan. On a mission to locate a Taliban commander, the Green Berets and other American and Afghan soldiers were ambushed by a large number of well-armed and highly disciplined Taliban fighters. Badly outnumbered, they managed to defeat the enemy forces and make it back to their patrol base, but stress that their story is also a wake-up call to the growing strength of the enemy in Afghanistan. (C: Lara Logan - P: Tom Anderson / Max McClellan / Jenny Dubin)
- "The Bypass Effect" - A report on the positive effects of gastric bypass surgery -- an operation performed primarily to reduce weight in the obese-- on type 2 diabetes, sleep apnea, high blood pressure, coronary artery disease, and even cancer. Among those interviewed are Dr. Neil Hutcher, a bariatric surgeon; Italian surgeon Dr. Francesco Rubino; and Dr. Eugenia Calle, an epidemiologist at the American Cancer Society. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
- "The Lost Leonardo" - A profile of Italian art detective Maurizio Seracini and his quest to find the lost Leonardo DaVinci mural, "The Battle of Anghiari". Considered to be the masterpiece of the Renaissance, it was commissioned to celebrate a victory by Florence over Milan. Assumed destroyed, Seracini believes that it lies protected between two walls in the Palazzo Vecchio -- the town hall of Florence, Italy -- right where it's always been for 500 years. (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning)
- Andy Rooney topic: "Andy's "Campaign" Against Flight Delays" - Andy tackles the issue of chronically delayed flights
- 04/27/08 "The IAF" - a report on the Israeli Air Force, the best in the Middle East, and the threats Israel faces -- not only from crude homemade rockets launched from Gaza by Islamic militants, but from Iran's nuclear program. Among those interviewed are Major General Eliezer Shkedy, commander of the Israeli Air Force, and Colonel Ziv Levy. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon / Drew Magratten)
- "Justice Scalia" - an interview and profile of Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia. Also includes comments by his colleague, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg; his wife, Maureen Scalia; and Bryan Garner, co-author with Scalia of a new book, "Making Your Case: The Art of Persuading Judges". (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Ruth Streeter) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- Andy Rooney topic: "Andy Ponders The Pope's Visit" - Andy talks about Pope Benedict XVI's recent visit to the United States

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/05/08 PREEMPTION

04/12/08 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "The Lord's Boot Camp" (8:00-9:00p) -
In the summer of 2007, Tabitha Taylor, Nicole Scrivener and Valerie Smith were among the 700 American teenagers who attended a two-week session at The Lord's Boot Camp, a no-frills training camp in central Florida where the participants face physical and mental challenges as they prepare to embark on Christian evangelical missions in the U.S. and Africa. The cameras follow each of the three girls as they individually experience and express their reactions to their training, their subsequent missions in Africa or Indiana, and their eventual return home. Commentary is given by: Tabitha Taylor, of Bellwood, PA; Nicole Scrivener, of Tallahassee, FLA; Valerie Smith, of Las Vegas, NV; Bob Bland, founder, The Lord's Camp; Linda Maher, pre-teen coordinator, The Lord's Camp; Doug Peterson, director of the Zambia Mission, Ndola, Zambia, Africa. (Executive Producer: Susan Zirinsky. Producers: Steven Reiner, Gregory F. McLaughlin)

04/12/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Long Way From Home" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the strange case of Amanda Know, a 20-year-old honors student who had gone to Perugia, Italy, to study abroad...only to be arrested in connection with the November 2007, murder of her roommate Meredith Kercher, a fellow exchange student from England. Initially, Amanda and her boyfriend Raffaele Sollecito aroused suspicion with the police because of their strange behavior. Days after the murder, Amanda, Raffaele and her employer, Patrick Lumumba (who Amanda named as the murderer) were arrested after Amanda signed a statement following intense police interrogation. Italian Police have developed a theory: Kercher was murdered after refusing to join Amanda, Rafael and Patrick in four-way sex. Soon, the Italian and British press corps were all over the story. Italian police eventually released Lumumba because he had an airtight alibi for the night of the murder: he was at his bar. The case took another dramatic turn when police found a fingerprint that didn't match any of the suspects, but did match Rudy Guide, a fixture - and often a nuisance - on the local bar scene. After a two-week European manhunt, Guide was tracked down in Central Germany and returned to Perugia. After months of silence, he now blames Amanda and her boyfriend for the murder. 48 HOURS brought Chicago private investigator Paul Ciolino into the case, and he believes Amanda is being railroaded: he says that everything in the case points to Rudy Guide. The lead investigator, Edgardo Giobb, has told 48 HOURS that the case against all three suspects is solid and that Rudy didn't act alone. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 04/15/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Letter" - On December 3, 1998, police in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin were called to the home of Mark and Julie Jensen. Mark said he had found his wife dead in her bed. Initially, police thought suicide was a strong possibility. But a letter written by Julie before her death expressed her suspicion that Mark might kill her. A series of toxicology tests revealed in Julie's stomach a small amount of ethylene glycol, the main ingredient in antifreeze. In March 2002, Mark was arrested and charged with the first degree murder of his wife. Initially, the judge would not allow Julie's letter to be introduced as evidence in the trial. The prosecutor appealed this decision, ultimately to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Five years passed; the appeal was successful. In January 2008, Mark went on trial Julie's murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole. Includes interviews with: Julie Jensen's brothers Patrick, Paul, Mike and Larry Griffin; Florence and Dan Jensen, Mark's parents; Theresa DeFazio, teacher of one of Julie's sons; Ted and Margaret Wojt, friends of Julie Jensen; Robert Jambois, former Kenosha County District Attorney, now special prosecutor; Angie Gabrielle, Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Mary Mainland, Kenosha County medical examiner; Ed Klug, business associate of Mark Jensen; Aaron Dillard, prosecution witness. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Peter Henderson, Linda Martin)
- 04/19/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dream Killer" (9:00-10:00p) - Kent Heitholt, the popular sports editor of The Daily Tribune in Columbus, Missouri was found bludgeoned and strangled near his car on Halloween night 2001. Two years later, 19-year-old Charles "Chuck" Erickson told a friend that he had a dream about his involvement in the crime. Although his memory of events was hazy, Erickson told police about events leading up to the murder and implicated his high school friend Ryan Ferguson. He explained that he and Ferguson were out drinking the night of the murder and, when they ran out of money, decided to rob someone. When the two young men approached Heitholt, things got out of hand. Both Erickson and Ferguson were taken into custody and charged with murder. Four years after Heitholt's death, Ferguson, who claimed innocence, was tried for murder. The state's star witness was his former friend, Erickson, who admitted his involvement in the crime but claimed that Ferguson was the instigator. Found guilty of second-degree murder and first-degree robbery and Ryan Ferguson was sentenced to 40 years in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2040. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Chuck Stevenson) (OAD: 02/18/06 - includes brief update in the form of an onscreen text graphic at the conclusion.)

04/19/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadline For Justice" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the cold cases of two young women, both new to the areas where they lived, who were both raped and murdered. In the first case, in 2002, young television reporter Jennifer Servo was found murdered weeks after moving to Abeline, Texas to begin a new job at KRBC-TV. Co-workers suspected an ex-boyfriend, Ralph Sepulveda, who had moved to Texas with her, but with whom she had recently broken up. Investigators also suspected a fellow reporter, Brian Travers, who had recently begun a romantic relationship with Jennifer. In the five years since the murder, police have not been able to make an arrest but vow not to give up until the case is solved. In the second case, Patty Scoville moved to Vermont in September 1991 to become a children's ski instructor, but just three weeks later, she disappeared and was found raped and murdered on a local scenic hiking trail. The investigation turned up more than 20 suspects: men Patty knew or those who had been in the park that day. The best evidence in solving the murder would be DNA, but Vermont was one of the last states to have a DNA data base. After seven years of lobbying by her parents, the Vermont DNA database was enacted into law. Seven additional years after it was established, and fourteen years after the murder the case was solved: Howard Godfrey, a 59-year-old window installer, was charged and found guilty. (C: Harold Dow - P: Josh Gelman, Shoshanah Wolfson)

04/26/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Last Take" - an investigation into the unsolved 1977 murder of actress Christa Helm, who was found stabbed and bludgeoned outside her agent's home in West Hollywood, California. Police at first thought her murder might be connected to the sensational killing of actor Sal Mineo, murdered exactly one year before in the same neighborhood. Detectives also found out about her infamous "love diary" -- but it had vanished. The diary was not the only way she had kept track of her lovers; there were tape recordings of her sexcapades with her celebrity boyfriends, but those tapes also disappeared. The hunt for the tapes led to actor Tony Sirico (now best known as 'Paulie Walnuts' on "The Sopranos"), who had been sent by Helm's friends to remove them from her residence. In 2006, when investigators finally spoke to Sirico, he was less than cooperative, but the missing items turned up in the possession of Lennie Barin, Helm's closest friend. Now 31 years into the case, detectives have discovered a long string of boyfriends and girlfriends of Christa's, and suspect that jealousy may have been the motive in her murder. However, recent information has led back to the Sal Mineo connection, and his murderer, Lionel Williams, who served 12 years for the crime. After sifting through all the drama of Christa's life, could the detectives discover that she was simply the victim of a random street robbery at the hand of a career criminal? Her daughter hopes that the murder will be solved, whatever the reason. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Paul F. Ryan)

~~"The Price Of Bananas" - Chiquita Brands International of Cincinnati, Ohio has admitted that it paid nearly $2 million dollars to protect its employees in Colombia -- first to the Marxist guerillas known as FARC and then to the paramilitaries who rose up to fight them, the AUC. Critics say that the money Chiquita paid may have kept their employees safe, but also helped to buy the weapons and ammunition used to massacre other people, making Chiquita complicit in those deaths. Among the interviewed are: Fernando Aguirre, Chief Executive Officer and President of Chiquita Brands International and Salvatore Mancuso, former leader of the AUC. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court)

- 05/18/08 "The List" - Millions of Iraqis have fled the war and their homeland, many of them labeled as collaborators and marked for death by the insurgents, all because they worked for the United States. Kirk Johnson, a young American employed in Iraq by the US Agency for International Development, was successful in helping a co-worker escape. Word got out and he continues to be contacted by others looking for aid. Believing that the United States owes these refugees a speedy resettlement, he began The List Project and pleads their cases to the State Department. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran)
"Garden of Eden" - a report on the Foja Mountains of New Guinea, where the mountain rain forest is home to many species found nowhere else on earth. Interviewed is Bruce Beehler, the lead scientist from Conservation International, who pleaded with the Indonesian government for 24 years for access to the wildlife sanctuary. Finally granting him his wish in 2005, the initial visit yielded the discovery of dozens of new species. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 12/16/07)

05/03/08

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Caught In The Crossfire" (9:00-11:00p) - an expanded and updated report (OAD: 02/24/07; updated 06/12/07) about Charla and Darren Mack of Reno, Nevada, a married, childless couple who were swingers who liked to attend group sex parties. After their daughter Erika was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging and their marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the U.S. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. More than a year later, the trial began. The defense tried a unique strategy: self-defense in the murder of Charla and insanity for the attempted murder of Judge Weller, citing that Weller was biased towards women and was having an affair with Charla Mack. When it came time for the defense's turn, instead of taking the stand, Darren took a deal, admitting to Charla's murder, and admitting there was enough evidence to find him guilty in the attempted murder of Judge Weller. Then, three weeks later, he withdrew his guilty plea and demanded a new trial, alleging his attorneys were in it just for the money. A new trial began, and by calling his former lawyers to the stand, Darren waived his right to attorney-client privilege; the damning revelations began. Mack took the stand, insisted he acted in self-defense and was coerced and confused when he took the plea bargain. The judge ruled against Darren's motion to withdraw the plea and he was sentenced to at least 36 years for his crimes. He still insists he acted in self-defense. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Preacher's Wife" - In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Paramedics arrived within minutes, but it was too late. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Cassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. In a county with no medical examiner, police described the case over the phone to a justice of the peace, who determined that no autopsy was needed. Kari's parents, Jim and Linda Dulin, had no choice but to believe Matt. However, Linda's sisters, Nancy, Kay, and Jennifer, and niece Lindsey believed otherwise. Dubbed "Charlie's Angels", they began their own investigation. After uncovering a possible motive, Linda hired Bill Johnston, a dogged former federal prosecutor, had her daughter's body exhumed and autopsied, and filed a wrongful death suit against Matt. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide and police subsequently arrested and charged Matt with murder. Believing Matt would be tried in criminal court, Linda dropped her wrongful death suit. After six months, the district attorney still hadn't taken Matt's case to a grand jury -- a requirement under Texas law. Linda eventually refiled the wrongful death suit, shortly before attorney Guy James Gray filed a successful motion to dismiss Matt's criminal case, as a grand jury indictment had not been returned within 180 days. Matt Baker is no longer charged with any crime, though the district attorney continues to investigate and could refile criminal charges. There is no statute of limitations for murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/17/08

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Point Blank" - On October 15, 2003, police were called to the Brownsville, Texas, home of Scott and Traci Rhode. Inside, in the couple's bed, lay Scott with a gunshot wound to the head. Traci told police that she rose early, went for a walk, took a shower, and then heard a moaning sound. It was then that she discovered her husband was wounded. Scott was still alive, but later died at the hospital. Traci maintained Scott shot himself, distraught over their troubled marriage and portrayed him to police as a man who was extremely jealous -- so afraid of losing his wife, that he moved the family five times in thirteen years. It wasn't until the move to Brownsville, that Traci met someone -- a co-worker named Sean Michaels. Authorities used that information, bloodstain evidence and the fact that Scott had met with a divorce lawyer and was prepared to take custody of the children, as a motive. She was arrested for murder on August 11th, 2005 - what would have been her 15th wedding anniversary. Four years after Scott's death, Traci went on trial. The prosecution maintained that her relationship with Sean, and Scott's threat of taking the children, left Traci with the notion that she had to be free of her husband. To prove her guilt, the prosecution showed that the holster and gun fit neatly into the bloodstain on the piece of carpet and maintained that Traci dropped the gun when she shot Scott. However, the defense attorney argued that the evidence was tainted in the hours after the shooting, as it was an emergency medical scene before it was a crime scene -- and had pictures he believed cast serious doubts on the prosecution's perfect fit. The jury found Traci guilty. In Texas, the defense has the option of letting the jurors decide the punishment as well as the verdict, and her attorney opted for a jury sentence. For the second phase of testimony and for the first time, Traci took the stand, as did her two oldest sons. The prosecution asked for sixty years, but the jury sentenced her to a fine of $10,000 and ten years probation. The jury's decision was legal and binding and the state's case against Traci Rhode was over. Traci Rhode continues to maintain her innocence and has decided to take the first steps to file an appeal. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Puppet Master" - A report on the marriage of Heather and Ron Samuels, who, even after divorcing, were involved in a bitter custody battle. In October 1997, newlyweds Heather and John Grossman were shot at while driving. John survived the shooting but a bullet severed Heather's spinal cord, leaving her a quadriplegic. Heather was immediately certain that ex-husband Ron was involved in the crime, as he had once threatened to make her pay for leaving him. Investigators were able to track down three men who they believed were involved in the assault: Hugh Estess, the car owner; Eddie Stafford, the driver, and Roger Runyon, the shooter. Also implicated was Geoff Pollock, who was present at meetings when the crime was discussed. Ron Samuels was named as the man behind the crime - the puppet master. In exchange for complete immunity, police got the co-conspirators to acknowledge Samuels' lead role in the crime. Before Samuels could be arrested, he fled to Mexico. He ran afoul of the law there when police found six kilos of cocaine in his car. He was imprisoned and, five years later, still proclaiming his innocence, he was extradited to the U.S. to stand trial for the attempted murders. He was found guilty of all charges and sentenced to life in prison for the attempted murders, plus an additional 120 years for the other charges. The court ordered Samuels to pay Heather restitution, but he claims that he's broke. Investigators are tracking any remaining assets. He is planning to appeal his conviction. - 06/22/08 "Alhurra" - a joint investigation by 60 MINUTES and ProPublica on Alhurra (Arabic for "The Free One"), a commercial-free, Arabic language satellite television network for the Middle East, created and funded by the United States Government and devoted primarily to news and information. Originating from Springfield, Virginia, and created to improve America's image in the Middle East, Alhurra has come under scrutiny for a raft of problems, including broadcasting unchallenged anti-Israel commentary. Among those interviewed are former Alhurra news director Larry Register and Brian Conniff, president of Alhurra. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick/Michael Karzis/Dafna Linzer)
- "Life Saver" - a profile of the ready-to-eat, vitamin enriched paste called Plumpynut. Developed by a nutritionist, it is saving malnourished children in the developing world -- particularly in Niger, where Doctors Without Borders has made it Plumpynut's proving ground. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Robert G. Anderson, Casey Morgan) (OAD: 10/21/07 - includes an update.)
- "Fish Fuss" - a report on the failure of the U.S. government's multi-billion dollar effort to save the salmon of the Pacific Northwest, scores of which are falling victim to the hydroelectric dams that provide inexpensive irrigation, transportation and electricity to the area. The issue...dams vs. salmon...has become so contentious that the Clinton Administration has put off a verdict for another five years. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

06/03/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a resident of Oakland, California. Nina, a mother of two, was separated from her husband, computer whiz Hans Reiser, whom she met through a dating service in Russia. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped her two children off at their father's house on Labor Day weekend and mysteriously vanished in the hours that followed. Her body has never been found. Friends tried calling Nina on her cell phone, but when Nina didn't pick her two children up from school, best friend Ellen Doren called police to file a missing person's report. With police standing by, Ellen called Hans and informed him that she had his children and that Nina was missing. When asked if he knew anything about her disappearance, Hans replied that he wanted to speak to his lawyers. With biological trace evidence pointing directly at Hans Reiser, as well as his erratic behavior, Hans is arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance. But just when all of the evidence is pointing directly at Hans, Sean Sturgeon, Hans' ex-friend and Nina's ex-lover confessed to the district attorney that he had killed several people. Police investigated Sean and looked into his incredible confession, but without credible evidence, he cannot be charged with a crime. A year after Nina's disappearance, Hans Reiser went on trial for the murder of Nina Reiser. Prosecutors used blood evidence, as well as Hans' own words against him. The defense portrayed Nina as a conniving Russian bride who was looking for a free ride to America and that she planned her disappearance. Rory Reiser, just off the plane from Russia, took the stand against his father and testified against him. After three days of deliberation, the jury found Hans Reiser guilty of first degree murder and he's facing 25 years to life. There are reports he may lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a lesser sentence. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Paul LaRosa, Gayane Keshishyan, Allen Alter)

06/07/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death of a Dream" - a follow-up to "The Last Dance", OAD: 05/06/06. In 2002, Catherine Woods, an aspiring dancer, left Ohio at age 17 and went to New York in search of fame and fortune, but ended up becoming a stripper to pay the rent. While in New York, she became involved with fitness instructor Paul Cortez, who, at first, was unaware of her exotic dancing career, while continuing to live with her ex-boyfriend David Haughn. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend, Catherine was savagely murdered. The two men became suspects in her murder and it was then that her exotic dancing career came to light to the police and to her family. Police concluded that Paul Cortez, due to his jealous nature, was the prime suspect. He was arrested and ultimately convicted of Catherine's murder. He was sentenced to 25 years to life. Attorney Nathan Dershowitz is planning an appeal, claiming hair and other forensic evidence was never thoroughly tested. Included are interviews with David Haughn; Paul Cortez and his mother, Yvette Cortez; and Catherine's parents, Jon and Donna Woods. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 06/10/08 48 HOURS VANISHED: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her 2006 divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff's Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige's friends and family were far more suspicious of the children's father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Her family suspected she had money issues. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige's car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige's secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. (C: Harold Dow - P: Loen Kelley, Sara Ely Hulse, Ira Sutow)
- 06/14/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door" (2) (8:00-9:00p) - a follow-up to one of the two stories included in "The Girl Next Door" (OAD: 01/07/06). In that report, Detective Scott Dudek of the Alameda County (CA) Sheriff's Office was attempting to establish the identity of a teenage girl whose body was found on May 1, 2003 in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. Forensic sculptor Gloria Nusse created a reconstruction of the girl's face, based on nothing but her skull. After the initial 2006 report on 48 HOURS MYSTERY, a viewer called to say that the victim looked like a young girl who had been seen around Castro Valley with Miguel Castaneda, who had worked at the restaurant where the body was dumped. He had disappeared, but police received a tip that the girl and the man she had been seen with might have been from the same hometown in Mexico. Dudek and his team then went to Yahualica, Mexico. There they extensively publicized their search and handed out many fliers. A woman whose daughter was missing came forward, and a DNA sample would later confirm that she was the mother of the now-identified victim: Yesenia Nungaray. Yesenia was given a funeral in her hometown. The search for Miguel Castaneda continues. (C: Harold Dow - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 12/15/07)

- 06/21/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "In Too Deep" - An account of the investigation into the August 2005 murder and mutilation of 21-year-old Jennifer Cave in Austin, Texas, in the apartment of her friend Colton Pitonyak. Pitonyak was tried for the murder, found guilty and sentenced to 55 years. Laura Hall, Pitonyak's girlfriend, admitted that she had gone to his apartment, at his request, right after the murder -- but claims that she did not know that she was going to be confronted there with a dead body in the bathtub. She then -- out of fear for her own life, she says -- drove Pitonyak, at his insistence, to Mexico. After their arrest in Mexico, Hall was interrogated, charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. In his testimony at his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. The prosecution afterwards came up with witnesses who said that Laura told them that she was involved in the dismemberment. Put on trial for that, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. She is appealing her conviction. Includes interviews with: Laura Hall; Sharon and Jim Cave, Jennifer's parents; Bill Bishop, Travis County prosecutor; Loren and Carol Hall, Laura's parents; Joe James Sawyer, Laura Hall's attorney (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Jenna Jackson) (OAD: 01/22/08)
- 06/24/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Time To Kill" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the September 12, 2001 disappearance of Michele Harris, a resident of Tioga County, New York. Michele, a mother of four, was involved in a bitter divorce with her husband, Cal Harris. He claimed she did not return home on the evening of September 11, 2001; her empty van was discovered at the end of their driveway the next morning. Cal denied any involvement and when no evidence was found during a search of the Harris home, he suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at Michele's personal life. Investigators uncovered that Michele was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen Michele the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, a forensic specialist was sent to the Harris home and found tiny specks of blood on a kitchen doorway, something that had been overlooked during the initial investigation. With the discovery of a possible crime scene, as well as Cal's refusal to take a polygraph, focus was placed on Cal, who began a relationship with a former girlfriend just eighteen days after Michele's disappearance. On September 30, 2005, Cal Harris was arrested and charged with murder. The trial began on May 21, 2007 and ultimately, he was found guilty of second degree murder. Just days before Cal Harris was to be sentenced, a new witness came forward and claimed to have driven past the Harris driveway around dawn on September 12, 2001 and had seen a man and a woman, who appeared to be arguing. According to this new eyewitness, the woman resembled Michele, but the man did not look like Cal. With this new information, the judge threw out Cal's conviction for the murder of his wife and ordered a new trial. It will be at least a year before Cal Harris is tried again. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Sugar Land Conspiracy" - On December 10, 2003, the Whitaker family -- Kent, his wife Tricia, and their two sons, Bart and Kevin -- returned to their Sugar Land, Texas home from dinner at a restaurant. Upon entering the house, Kevin and his mother were fatally shot by a gunman inside the house. Kent and Bart were each shot in the shoulder. Police investigation revealed that the murders had been planned by Bart Whitaker, who had enlisted friends Steven Champagne and Chris Brashear to carry out the plot and had intended being shot himself as part of the scenario. Among those interviewed are: Kent Whitaker, who says he has forgiven his son; Marshall Slot, detective, Sugar Land Police Department; Jeff Strange and Fred Felcman, Fort Bend County prosecutors; Also includes: interviews with residents of Cerralvo, Mexico, who became acquainted with Bart Whitaker after he fled there and assumed the name 'Rudy Rios'; comments from other friends of Bart Whitaker who had previously been approached by him to help murder his family; and comments from several members of the jury who convicted Whitaker of murder and sentenced him to death. Postscripts: Chris Brashear, the trigger man, pled guilty to murder. He's eligible for parole in 30 years. Getaway driver Steven Champagne received 15 years in exchange for his testimony against Bart Whitaker. Friends involved in earlier plots against the Whitaker family were all granted immunity and are free. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young) (OAD: 10/20/07)

"Choosing To Forgive" - a presentation and discussion on the idea of forgiveness from both a religious and scientific point of view. In recent years, the subject has interested psychologists and is studied as a potentially effective means by which individuals may be able to get past wrongs and injustices done against them. The broadcast features Dr. Robert Enright, author and professor of educational psychology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, who has championed the cause of forgiveness therapy as a scientific tool. In consultation with his wife, Dr. Jeanette Knutson Enright, they have introduced forgiveness education in the curricula of elementary schools (the first being Belfast, Northern Ireland and then Milwaukee and Madison, Wisconsin), as a way of training children to cope peacefully with stress and challenge. Also included in the broadcast are interviews with a variety of individuals who have succeeded in getting on with their lives after terrifying experiences and include those who have done so through an act of faith, and others who have had therapy. Those interviewed include: Lynn McGuinn and Talat Hamdani, who lost loved ones in the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center; Eric Wurzel, whose mother deserted him as a child, and who became addicted to drugs and alcohol for 30 years -- he was able to forgive himself and his family; Reverend Walt Everett, whose son was murdered in 1987 and over time, befriended the killer -- the two have appeared together to tell their stories and speak about forgiveness; Ada Wolf, whose son was murdered by an off-duty airman in 1965 -- she grew over time to forgive and admire the killer; and Grace Roidt, who suffered for more than 30 years before talking to forgiveness therapists about her dysfunctional family and an older brother who raped her. Grace was able to get past the crimes of her youth with the help of Dr. Suzanne Freedman, an associate professor at the University of Northern Iowa. Produced in consultation with: The National Council of Churches; The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops; The Islamic Society of North America; The Union For Reform Judaism; and The New York Board of Rabbis. Dear Donation Coordinator,

Our mission at United Way Success By 6 is to bring together people from business, education, government and child development to help ensure that all children have the opportunity to enter school healthy, well adjusted and ready to learn.

We will be recognizing the Childcare providers with a banquet on May 2, 2008.

Currently, we are enlisting the aid of our generous business contacts to help show appreciation to the dedicated Childcare providers in our area. Donations should be any items of your choice that would enhance knowledge or the environment for the providers and children in areas of dramatic play, active play, block play, music and movement, art, science, or professional development. In addition, if you would like to send catalogs for the childcare providers, we will distribute them. Donors will be displayed for recognition. Thank you for being a part of this effort.

Sincerely,

Issue: Children/Health/AUTISM:

1. On Tuesday, April 29, 2008 station staff met with Mandy Commons, who is the president of the Kansas Chapter of the National Autism Association. Ms. Commons asked the station to get behind a project to bring a world-class autism conference to our market in June. She showed how autism is increasing as 1 in 150 children are now diagnosed with autism. From the February 7, 2008 Assessment Meeting of Community Needs held at the station, health education & quality healthcare for children was one issue brought up by the community leaders. To address that issue the station became a sponsor of the autism conference & donated its time & talents to help Ms. Commons promote the conference & autism education for emergency personnel, like police, fire & EMS, as well as teachers & the general public. On June 19 & 20 the first Autism Conference was held at Pittsburg, KS High School with noted doctors, authors, & experts in autism-related concerns. The station produced spots to promote the 2-day event & attended the conference in support of the child service agencies which attended. The station distributed DTVANSWERS.com 1-sheets to interested viewers. KOAM aired 1 hour, 8 minutes, 15 seconds of no-charge spots at a value of $7,137.00 & KFJX aired 1 hour, 5 minutes, 5 seconds at a value of $3,322.00. Issue: Veterans/Military

On Sunday, May 25, 2008 the station co-sponsored a HIDDEN HEROES benefit Barbeque & concert Noon-5pm Ozark Memorial Park Cemetery, Joplin, MO. All activities were free for the public. About $5,000 in donations were accepted for the Hidden Heroes Foundation which provides immediate emergency services for families of men & women deployed in the military. From www.hiddenheroes.org web site: Who Are The Hidden Heroes? They are the spouses and children of a National Guard or Reservist soldier whose unit has been activated and sent overseas to a combat zone. When this soldier is activated, their new monthly pay may be as little as one third of their civilian pay. This places great hardship on the family left behind who struggle to hold on until the soldier returns home. Unfortunately, while these activated soldiers serve our country overseas to protect our freedoms, many of their families do not have enough to eat, are having their cars repossessed, being evicted from their homes, and much more! The station produced & aired a public service spot promoting the event. Over 600 people attended the benefit. KOAM aired 22 minutes, 20 seconds of no-charge announcements at a value of $2,109.00 & KFJX aired 22 minutes, 45 seconds announcements at a value $1,308.00.

KOAM & FOX 14 FOCUS GROUP
ASSESSMENT MEETING OF COMMUNITY NEEDS
February 7, 2008
12:00 noon – 1:30 p.m.

~~48~~ QUARTER, 2008
2ND FCC
I+P
Children's

The meeting was lead by Darren Dishman, KFJX General Manager and Danny Thomas, KOAM General Manager. Kristi Spencer, News Director and Dowe Quick, Senior Anchor were also in attendance and presented questions to the focus group.

The following leaders attended the focus meeting to help us decide some of the major issues in our community. Jeff McDonald, Girard Police Chief, was unable to attend.

Jane Wilson, Downtown Parsons Kansas. Issue: Strengthen independent ownership in retail.

Charles Cook, Salvation Army, Pittsburg KS. Issue: Raising children's expectations and standards to address poverty.

Dennis Burke, Baxter Springs Kansas Schools. Issue: Preparing children for the 21st century job skills.

Sandy Morris & Vicky Spears, Children's Advocacy Center, Pittsburg KS. Issues: Child abuse significantly higher. Access to quality healthcare. Lack of collaboration between agencies.

Kayla Joy, Mt. Carmel Medical Center, Pittsburg KS. Issue: Change of community leadership. Educate for someone to step up. Access to quality healthcare.

Brad Hodson, Pittsburg State University. Issue: Diminishing state funding hurting access to higher education.

Strengthen independent ownership in retail.

We need to strengthen the independent ownership of all businesses. Downtown retail cannot compete with Wal-Mart. It's a national issue. We need to keep and foster independent businesses. A solution would be education, training, webinars to help train business owners. Many owners are not doing emails or newsletters and some don't even own a computer.

Raising children's expectations and standards to address poverty.

We have an issue with the lack of education of our youth. Mom and Dad don't encourage their kids to do better. As far as education, they also need to be taught practical things such as having a checking account and a savings account. Catching this problem with young adults is too late. There is a problem with the home environment. Some think the school system should not only teach our children, but also take care of them. Children are formed by their upbringing and their surroundings. Families are setting low standards. We're not offering a solution to this problem.

Darren asked the group how they felt about crime and drug abuse.

We all know that crime is a national problem. We have a lot of burglaries in this area that have to do with drugs. We also have a lot of child abuse cases that are related to drugs.

Cold medicines and prescription drugs are a problem in schools. There are a lot of kids on antidepressants and kids with bipolar situations.

Dowe: The station has a huge presence in this community. All of the issues seem to have an economic basis; lack of prosperity and guidance of young people. What role should the media have to improve the needs?

The group suggested doing things that will encourage young people since it's hard to get them to listen. Educate young people. An example was given by Sandy of the Children's Advocacy Center where they bought a curriculum and sold it to the schools. Many schools purchased it. It deals with inappropriate treatment by another person. Sandy said they are frustrated by the no child left behind project because there isn't time to teach about living and preventing abuse of a child. People in the past just didn't believe we had a problem with child abuse. It was something no one would talk about. It's up to all of us adults to help with this problem. We need great community awareness that there is a problem. Maybe there is a way to incorporate the abuse issue with the Kansas Health Foundation since there is a lot of emphasis into child development right now and a lot of funding for it.

There were comments about how the TV station has done a lot of segments and has done a good job. Issues have been timely and the TV station has the ability to put it out there and it makes it accepted by the community. Jennifer does a good job covering court cases.

Dowe: Is raising the issue of awareness enough?

Maybe we should put more help numbers out there.

Darren, Danny, Dowe: We have done public service announcements in the past following a focus meeting. We've also come up with lists and posted them on our website. Statistics were also mentioned. Statistics are shocking regarding child abuse. Statistics are powerful. We also did a call to action to our website. We had positive feedback with the teen pregnancy issues. We are not a service agency, but we have a huge megaphone.

There was discussion about consequences of the abusers. We live in a world of little consequences. We need to hold people accountable for not enforcing the consequences.

Dowe: How has the local media portrayed your service or business?

PSU gets a lot of positive coverage.

For Mt. Carmel, if we don't tell you, how would you know?

you go to get the skills. People are looking for jobs that help their family. It would be helpful if they knew what jobs were out there. Here's financial help. People want to do well for their family. People in poverty see their kids as possessions. We need to get something that people find valuable and are attainable and turn on the incentive for them.

Darren mentioned that statistics can help tell a story. Also helpful are stories where a life has been changed. It speaks volumes.

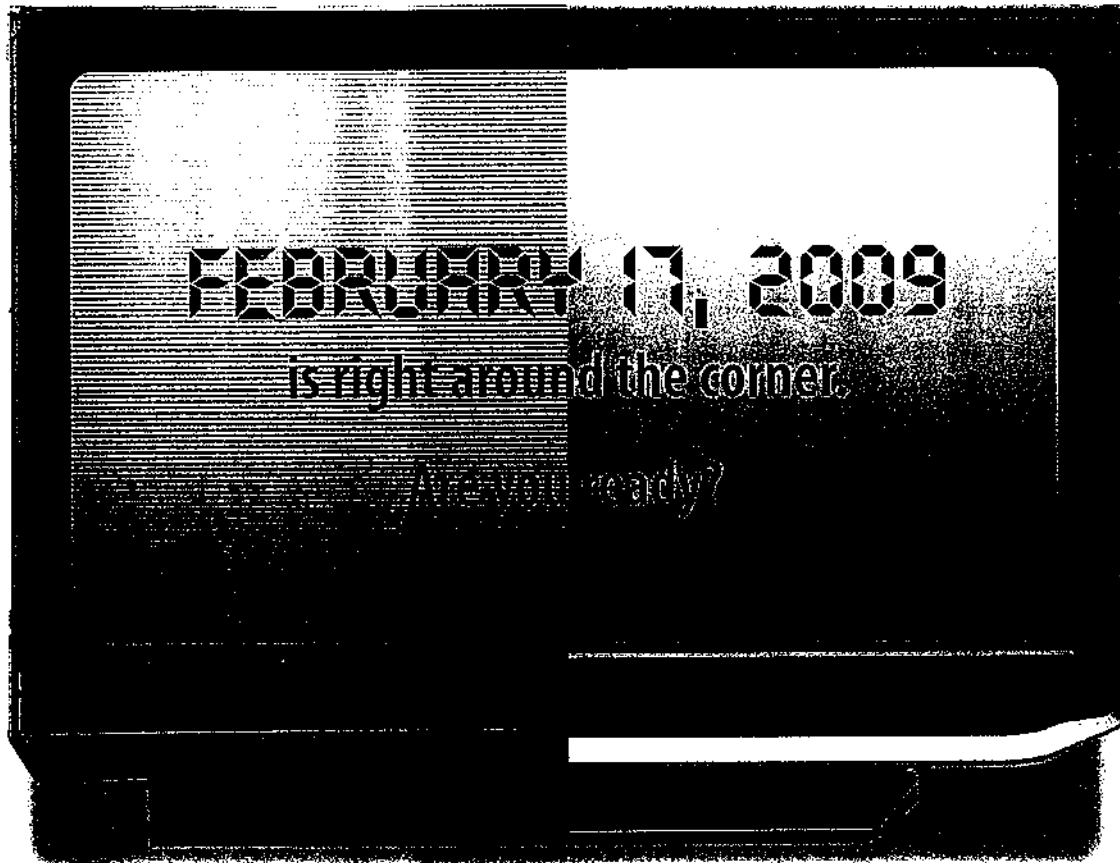

Dowe: We show stories from different angles. We may tell the story from the abuser. We may tell a success story from a family that's turned their life around. This has greater impact. These things inspire people. We may come to you to help us find these stories.

Kristi: That gives you the balance that was mentioned. If we don't have the human element, that story may not be told. It's not worth the time unless it has an emotional effect.

Ms. Morris with The Children's Advocacy Center talked about a presentation they participated in for high school kids where 20 girls got up on stage and told their experiences. It was really powerful. They talked about date rape and domestic violence.

America's broadcasting industry is in the midst of an exciting revolution as it transitions from analog to digital television technology. Since the late 1990s, television broadcasters have been preparing for the transition from analog to digital television (DTV) scheduled for February 17, 2009, as set by Congress. But as the transition draws near, are you ready?

Find out at: www.DTVAnswers.com

Get ready for the switch to digital television (DTV)

DTVAnswers.com

By law, full-power television stations nationwide must end their analog broadcasts and begin broadcasting exclusively in a digital format after February 17, 2009. Television sets connected to cable, satellite or a telephone company service provider will not be affected, and will continue to receive broadcast programming after that date. But TV sets that are not connected to a paid television service, or do not have a built-in digital tuner, will not receive a television signal after the date of the switch.*

Why is America Switching to DTV?

DTV is a more efficient way to broadcast, and it will free up the airwaves for a variety of new services. DTV also provides crystal-clear pictures and sound, more channels and even free, over the air high-definition television (HDTV) for consumers with HD television sets. DTV will also allow more services than ever before with free, broadcast television.

How do I upgrade to DTV?

You can upgrade to DTV by following one of three steps by February 17, 2009:

- DTV converter box: Purchase a DTV converter box that plugs into your existing analog TV set. A converter box will enable you to continue to receive free television reception, and the boxes, which are expected to cost between $40 and $70, will be available for purchase in early 2008. The federal government is providing $40 coupons that you may use toward the purchase of these boxes. For more information or to request a coupon, call 1 (888) DTV-2009 or 1 (877) 530-2634 (TTY), or visit www.DTV2009.gov.
- Digital TV set: Purchase a new television set with a built-in digital or Advanced Television Systems Committee (ATSC) tuner, which start at under $100. All TVs with digital tuners are able to receive digital signals broadcast by television stations, so you can continue to receive your free programming with no monthly fees.
- Paid service: Subscribe to cable, satellite or a telephone company service provider to continue using your analog TV set, if all desired local broadcast stations are carried by that service.

With more than 34 million households receiving over-the-air television signals in their homes, our goal is to educate all Americans about the switch to DTV.
