The event is a fundraiser for the Cerebral Center of Tri-County in Webb City, Missouri. The ride took place in McDonald County, Missouri. Megan raised about $1,300 in support of the center. Cerebral Palsy of Tri-County was started in 1987 by family members of individuals with Cerebral Palsy. Approximately 5,000 handicapped and/or medically fragile children have been able to acquire services in the past 55+ years. This organization celebrated its 50th anniversary in January 2012. The Center serves as an area resource to other agencies and school districts. No child is turned away due to a family's inability to pay for services. When there is available space, The Center will allow children from low income families to attend the licensed day care and preschool facility. Comprehensive children's therapeutic services are provided each day. The organization's mission is to provide pediatric therapeutic services to children ages 6 months to 6 years, living in the counties of Jasper, Newton, and McDonald. Cerebral Palsy of Tri-County accepts children from outside the three county area if the parent provides transportation. Children with identified needs have access to the following therapies: early intervention, developmental, speech, language, physical, and occupational. When children are not in a therapy session they spend their day in a state-licensed pre-school environment. Bus transportation is provided within parts of Jasper County. The Center employs bilingual staff. Interpretation services are provided in Spanish as needed.

48 HOURS

04/06/13 PREEMPTION

04/13/13 48 HOURS: "Friends for Life" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report about Robyn Davis and Carol "Sissy" Saltzman, best friends for twenty years, who were charged with murder after Robyn's husband, Brian Davis, was found shot to death alongside his car on an isolated road in St. Charles, Louisiana. Brian had married Robyn, his third wife, in 2008, but continued to have an eye for women; Robyn was not happy with his cheating. On June 29, 2009, Brian Davis disappeared. According to Robyn and Sissy, he had left to go boat shopping and never came home. Police soon began to suspect Robyn. Then Sissy, too, came under scrutiny. An examination of their cell phone records convinced police the women were lying. Investigators discovered that Robyn had recently lost her job, had gambling debts, and was on the verge of losing her house. Police believed one or both of the women shot and killed Brian Davis. Three years after the murder, Robyn and Sissy went on trial together. Several jurors expressed in interviews the opinion that investigators hadn't done their jobs and they had trouble with contradictions in Robyn's story. Jurors also learned of a life insurance policy that Robyn tried to cash in just two weeks after Brian's death. The jury vote was eleven for guilty and one for acquittal. In Louisiana, only 10 jurors are needed for a murder conviction: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman were both convicted. They are both serving their time in the same correctional facility and see each other in the jail's church. Onscreen text graphic: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman plan to appeal the verdict. If the appeal is denied, Brian's life insurance, worth $645,000, goes to his family. Brian's former mistress, Fannie Dietz, is back together with her husband, Shane. Updated 04/13/13

Onscreen Text Graphic: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman are appealing their convictions. If their appeal is denied, Brian's life insurance, worth $645,000 goes to his children. Brian's former mistress, Fannie Dietz, is planning to remarry her ex-husband Shane. Interviewed: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman; Fannie Dietz, Brian Davis' mistress; Steve Dietz, her husband; Tony Mancuso, Calcasieu Parish Sheriff; Scott Davis, Brian's brother; Rick Bryant, special prosecutor; Marcy Wilson, a friend of both women; Shane Hinch, Saltzman's attorney; Glen Vamvoras, Robyn Davis' attorney; Jurors Felicia Ballard, Sherry Lusk, Shandrika Washington. 04/13/13

48 HOURS: "Power and Passion" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the death of Alabama real estate agent Angel Downs, who was found dead from a gunshot wound to the head, by her own weapon, outside her Gulf Shores, Alabama condo in 2010. At the time of her death, she was involved with Stephen Nodine, a well-liked Alabama politician with connections in Washington D.C. Though married and the father of a young son, Nodine dated Downs for six years. Friends and family say Angel wanted him to get a divorce, but he refused to give up his double life. On the night of her death, Nodine says he dropped Downs off, then left to go back to his wife. Within two weeks, Stephen Nodine was indicted for murder and arrested. The timing raised eyebrows, because District Attorney Judy Newcomb was up for re-election, something which Nodine's attorney says was an opportunity to have some high-profile prosecution immediately before the election. Nodine's problems multiplied: he was charged with a violation of the seldom-used federal statute which prohibits drug users from using guns. Much of the evidence in the case was circumstantial, including alleged stalking and beatings, and a previous suicide attempt by Downs. Even the state's own Medical Examiner Eugene Hart could not settle on the circumstances of death. He called it inconclusive. The Georgia State Medical Examiner was called in; he deemed Downs' death a homicide. Jurors deliberated and a mistrial was declared. Stephen Nodine was a free man for four months; he agreed to plead guilty to the federal gun charge -- possessing a gun while using drugs. After convening a new grand jury, the new District Attorney Hallie Dixon, made the decision that Nodine not be charged again with murder. The family then went over Dixon's head and demanded a Special Prosecutor. Nodine was to be retried for murder. Surprisingly, there was a plea deal and an admission -- the prosecutors did not have proof beyond a reasonable doubt in the case. The state of Alabama dropped the murder and stalking charges, Nodine pled guilty to perjury for lying on a legal form. He also agreed to plead no contest to a charge that he harassed Angel Downs with e-mails and text messages. On Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine is prohibited from having any contact with the family of Angel Downs. After serving his two year sentence, Nodine will be on supervised probation for three years. He says he has no plan to seek public office. Interviewed: Stephen Nodine; Angel Downs' younger sister, Susan Bloodworth, and her mother, Thelma Hinckley; retired Sheriff of Mobile County, Jack Tillman; Angel Downs' best friends Emily Simmons and Kayla King Donald; neighbor Roger Whitehead; neighbor/nurse Ann Myers; Nodine's attorney Denis Knizley; former District Attorney Judy Newcomb; newly-elected District Attorney Hallie Dixon; and Special Prosecutor David Whetstone. 04/20/13

48 HOURS SPECIAL REPORT: "Caught" - a report updating events in the last twenty-four hours surrounding the shootout and manhunt for Dzhokhar Tsarnaev, known as Suspect #2 in Monday's (April 15) bombing at the Boston Marathon. Both Dzhokhar Tsarnaev and his brother Tamerlan Tsarnaev, known as Suspect #1 (killed during the firefight on Thursday night) were on the run, after being identified as the bombers. Now that Dzhokhar Tsarnaev has been captured alive, the focus shifts to the dissecting of the bomb plot. That pursuit includes: (1) a report on Dzhokhar's condition, including information that one injury seems to have been from a suicide attempt, and the theory that the brothers were looking for a crowd of people for a final attack. Correspondent: John Miller. (2) questions of a larger conspiracy are investigated and dismissed, according to Watertown Police Chief Edward Deveau. Included is a summary of what happened in Watertown during the firefight that left Tamerlan Tsarnaev dead. Correspondent: Dean Reynolds. (3) questions about why the brothers became terrorists. They were natives of Chechnya who came to the U.S. as young boys. Dzhokhar was popular and fit right in. He became a U.S. citizen on September 11, 2012. Tamerlan, a boxer, had a more difficult time assimilating to a life in the U.S. Sparring partner Julian Pollard noticed a big change: he became strongly influenced by radical Islamic teachings. Includes interviews with: Larry Aaronson, history teacher at Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School; Francis Barry, a sophomore schoolmate of Dzhokhar's at the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth; Julian Pollard; unidentified woman (who spoke to CBS News by phone), whose friend became Tamerlan's wife. Correspondent: Jim Axelrod. (4) an interview with Ruslan Tsarni (who has shortened the family name), an uncle of the brothers, who says he believes that they became radicalized in recent years. Correspondent: Chip Reid. (5) a tour through the Franklin Street neighborhood of Watertown where police, media and the suspect converged. Includes interviews with residents Diane Tiernan, Nick Gianetti, Richie O'Connor, Tyler (no last name), and Stacy Raulf. Also interviewed: Boston Mayor Tom Menino. Correspondent: Peter Van Sant. (6) an account of the victims: four dead, more than 170 wounded. Interviewed: Somerville Deputy Police Chief Paul Upton; Lillian Campbell, grandmother of victim Krystal Campbell, Massport Fire Lieutenant Michael Ward. Correspondent: Terrell Brown. (7) a look at how the investigation turned the Internet into a worldwide dragnet, and an illustration of the power of social media. Interviewed: Lance Ulanoff, editor and chief of the website mashable.com; Eugene O'Donnell, professor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. Correspondent: Tracy Smith. (8) a timeline of these six historic days in Boston -- a city known for its history. Correspondent: Jim Axelrod. (9) a review of the recurring terrorist attempts in the United States since 9/11 and a look at the sophisticated surveillance technology employed in New York City. Interviewed: Bill Bratton, former police commissioner of New York, Los Angeles and Boston; current New York City Police Commissioner Ray Kelly. Correspondents: Troy Roberts and Peter Van Sant. (10) a remembrance of the loss of innocent lives. Correspondent: Richard Schlesinger. (Correspondents: Jim Axelrod (anchor, New York); John Miller (New York studio); Dean Reynolds (Watertown); Chip Reid; Peter Van Sant (Watertown); Terrell Brown; Tracy Smith; Troy Roberts; Richard Schlesinger.

48 HOURS: "Muscle and Mayhem" - a report about the crimes of the Sun Gym gang, a group of Miami, Florida drifters, petty thieves, and bodybuilders who kidnapped and killed wealthy people to fuel their lifestyle, which provided the inspiration for the recently released black comedy motion picture "Pain and Gain". The story began with the disappearances of Frank Griga and his girlfriend Krisztina Furton in 1995. Police investigation led detectives to a connection to the Sun Gym, a Miami health club, and its manager Danny Lugo and his protégé Adrian Doorbal. Police would discover that they were at the center of a complicated and deadly plot which involved kidnapping, money, and murder. Lugo's girlfriend Sabina Petrescu, played a crucial role as police gathered evidence connecting Lugo and Doorbal to the disappearance of Griga and Furton. In a bizarre twist, detectives in another Metro-Dade police department were also looking into Lugo and Doorbal in the kidnapping case of another Miami millionaire, Marc Schiller. Schiller told police that he had been grabbed by a gang and held for more than a month. Schiller also worked out at the Sun Gym, which provided the connection to Lugo and Doorbal. The plan was to kidnap Marc Schiller - a man who had many shady dealings -- have him write his own ransom note, and then kill him. There were several stupid attempts involving costumes, comic book code names, and a staged accident - all of which provided Hollywood with inspiration for the movie. While imprisoned, Schiller was forced to sign over his assets to the gang. They went through the money in about five months and decided to find a new target: Frank Griga. Almost four years after Marc Schiller was left for dead, he faced the Sun Gym gang in court, as Danny Lugo and Adrian Doorbal went on trial for the murders of Frank Griga and Krisztina Furton. They were found guilty of first-degree murder. However, Marc Schiller's ordeal was not over. He was arrested by the FBI on charges involving Medicare fraud. In another twist, the trial judge, Alex Ferrer (now a TV personality), described how important Schiller's testimony was in bringing down the Sun Gym gang. In a plea deal, he ended up serving two years in federal prison and paying $137,000 in restitution. On screen text graphics: Lugo and Doorbal remain on death row. Lugo and Doorbal have appealed their convictions multiple times over the past 15 years. Once their appeals have been exhausted, Florida's governor will sign a death warrant and they will be executed by lethal injection. Interviewed: Zsuzsanna Griga, Frank Griga's sister; retired homicide detectives/CBS News consultants Sam Garafalo and Felix Jimenez; Patty Barrientos, co-worker of Danny Lugo; Marc Schiller, victim; Miami-Dade prosecutor Gail Levine; Judge Alex Ferrer; private investigator Ed DuBois; State Attorney of Miami-Dade County Katherine Fernandez-Rundle. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"Religion & Spirituality in a Changing Society" - While America is the most religiously diverse country in the world, attitudes towards religion and spirituality are in the midst of great change. This program looks at these changes and explains how it happened and what it means for the future. (1) Diana Butler Bass, noted religious historian and author of "Christianity After Religion", discusses why this shift in attitudes towards organized religion is important and why religious institutions should care. (2) Bishop John Schol of the United Methodist Church, serving the Greater New Jersey Conference, believes religious institutions could do a better job of engaging young adults in things they care about and getting their voices heard. (3) Reverend Lillian Daniel, Senior Minister of First Congregation Church, United Church of Christ (Glen Ellyn, Illinois), talks about her recently published book, "When Spiritual But Not Religious is Not Enough: Seeing God In Surprising Places, Even the Church". (4) The Reverend Peter Morales, President of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations and Pastor Fred Small, Senior Minister at First Parish Unitarian Universalist in Cambridge, Massachusetts share what seems to be a counter-experience -- that their congregations are increasing in size at a time when so many are leaving organized religion. (5) At Harvard University, Elliott Wilson, president of the Harvard Humanists Student Community; Sarah Coughlon, vice president of the Harvard Humanists Student Community; and Humanist Chaplain Greg Epstein, all share insights about the student-led "Atheist Coming Out Week". The program also features comments and current insights about "spiritual but not religious" from actor and noted atheist Eddie Izzard as he accepts the Lifetime Achievement Award in Cultural Humanism at the university. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Kathleen Fieffe. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. - 05/04/13 48 HOURS: "Over the Edge" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the investigation into the 2009 disappearance of Dawn Viens, and why her husband, California chef David Viens, jumped off a cliff when he became a suspect in her disappearance. David Viens ran a successful restaurant in Lomita, California, working in the kitchen while Dawn was the hostess. After Dawn vanished, Viens promoted a young waitress, Kathy Galvan, to take Dawn's spot at work and in his personal life. Dawn's friends and family members turned to the police and a local newspaper reporter, Larry Altman (now a CBS News consultant) for help. Police worked methodically on the case, discovering that before moving to California, David was involved in the drug trade in Florida, and had helped authorities bust up a drug ring. After more than a year, as police were closing in, a frightened David Viens opened up to Kathy Galvan: he confessed that he killed Dawn, but claimed it was an accident. Then he recklessly drove on a California coastal highway, with Galvan in the car, to a scenic overlook, and jumped off a 200-foot-high cliff. Surprisingly, Viens survived the fall. His story was that Dawn had started using cocaine and crystal meth. They fought, and David Viens bound her (something he had done in the past), taping her mouth to keep her quiet, and went to sleep. He awoke and found her dead. While in the hospital he told police an incredible tale of disposing of Dawn's body in the way a chef knows best, by cooking her. He boiled her body in a pot for four days, broke down what would not boil down, and threw it away in the trash. Nineteen months after his leap, a wheelchair-bound Viens was in court to face murder charges. The defense said that Dawn's death was an accident -- manslaughter, not murder -- and that he did not cook her. After a two-week trial, David Viens was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Dawn Viens' body has never been found. David Viens is eligible for parole in 2023. Interviewed: Kathy Galvan, girlfriend/employee; David Papin, brother of Dawn Viens; Larry Altman, reporter, The Daily Breeze / CBS News Consultant; Joe Cacace, local businessman/friend; DEA agent Derek Pollock; Randy Barnett, Manatee County (FL) Detective; Richard Garcia, L.A. County Sheriff's Detective; Jackie Viens, daughter of David Viens, Sandy Viens, mother of David Viens; and David Viens. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Paul LaRosa, Sue McHugh)
- 05/11/13 48 HOURS: "Murder at Sea" - an updated report on the disappearance of newlywed George Smith, who vanished in 2005 from a cruise ship in the Mediterranean while on his honeymoon, which was first reported on in "Love Lost" (OAD: 04/08/06) and mentioned in "Dark Voyage" (OAD: 09/23/06). This report uncovers the questionable alibis, failed polygraphs and a provocative video that involves the three men who last saw Smith alive. In the years since Smith went missing, his family has been seeking answers to what happened to him after a night of heavy drinking and gambling in the ship's casino. His disappearance was ruled a likely accident and the case has gone nowhere, despite reports of arguments on the stateroom balcony, furniture being moved and a bloodstain on the overhang of the lifeboats. Mike Jones, an attorney for the Smith family, is now trying to get the case moving again. He has gained access to Royal Caribbean's internal investigation and has learned about the existence of a videotape in the possession of the FBI, which was recorded just hours after Smith went missing by three of the four men to last see Smith alive: cousins Zach Rozenberg and Greg Rozenberg and their friend Rusty Kofman. The other passenger, Josh Askin, is not on the video. Attorneys for Rusty Kofman and Zach Rozenberg have declined to comment. Greg Rozenberg's attorney says his client just made stupid comments. While initially cooperating, Askin's attorney has now told him to take the Fifth Amendment in all questioning. All four men say they had nothing to do with Smith's death but the men are still on the FBI's radar in this cold case. Mike Jones believes that Josh Askin knows what happened. He continues to prod the FBI to re-open the case. On-screen text graphic: The FBI's field office has agreed to review the George Smith case. Interviewed: George Smith's parents, George Smith III and Maureen Smith; his sister Bree Smith; cruise ship passengers Paul and Galina Kvitnisky; Emilie Rausch; Clete Hyman; Greg and Pat Lawyer; Christian Ruiz; Keith Greer, attorney for Josh Askin; Albert Dayan, attorney for Rusty Kofman; Phil Houston, an expert in detecting deception; Mike Jones, Smith family investigator/attorney. NOTE: In this broadcast, Zach Rozenberg, Greg Rozenberg, and Josh Askin all appear in interrogation videos. They are not specifically interviewed for this report. Rusty Kofman appears saying no comment. (C: John Miller - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Peter Shaw)

05/25/13

48 HOURS: "The Preacher's Wife" (9:00-10:00p) - In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Paramedics arrived within minutes, but it was too late. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Kassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. In a county with no medical examiner, police described the case over the phone to a justice of the peace, who determined that no autopsy was needed. Kari's parents, Jim and Linda Dulin, had no choice but to believe Matt. However, Linda's sisters, Nancy, Kay, and Jennifer, and niece Lindsey believed otherwise. Dubbed "Charlie's Angels", they began their own investigation. After uncovering a possible motive, Linda hired Bill Johnston, a dogged former federal prosecutor; she had her daughter's body exhumed and autopsied, and filed a wrongful death suit against Matt. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide and police subsequently arrested and charged Matt with murder. Believing Matt would be tried in criminal court, Linda dropped her wrongful death suit. After six months, the district attorney still hadn't taken Matt's case to a grand jury -- a requirement under Texas law. Linda eventually refiled the wrongful death suit, shortly before attorney Guy James Gray filed a successful motion to dismiss Matt's criminal case, as a grand jury indictment had not been returned within 180 days. Matt Baker is no longer charged with any crime, though the district attorney continues to investigate and could refile criminal charges. There is no statute of limitations for murder. Update for the 06/09/09 rebroadcast: On March 25, 2009, a grand jury indicted Baker for the murder of his wife, after a surprise witness -- Vanessa Bulls, a girlfriend of his -- came forward and testified. He will go on trial in September. Graphic postscript: Baker was released from jail on $250,000 bond, pending trial. He's again living in Kerrville, Texas, with his parents and daughters. 05/25/13

48 HOURS: "Dirty Little Secrets" (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to "The Preacher's Wife" (OAD: 05/10/08; 1st rebroadcast and update on 06/09/09; 2nd rebroadcast on 10/30/10; 3rd rebroadcast on 07/30/11; 4th rebroadcast on 05/25/13). In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Kassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. Linda Dulin, Kari's mother, was convinced she had been murdered and set out to prove it by hiring attorney Bill Johnston and his team of investigators, who had Kari's body exhumed and autopsied. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide. In September 2007, the police felt they had a homicide on their hands and Matt Baker was arrested and charged with murder. He was released on bond, thanks to attorney Guy James Gray, who took the case pro bono. However, six months later, assistant district attorney Crawford Long dropped the murder charges because the evidence was too speculative. Unwilling to give up, Linda Dulin decided to again sue Matt for wrongful death. Bill Johnston, assistant district attorney Long and prosecutor Susan Shafer continued to investigate. Armed with new information and damning testimony provided to the grand jury by Vanessa Bulls, a woman long suspected of having an affair with Matt before Kari's death, prosecutors were able to arrest Matt and charge him with murder. At the trial, it was revealed that Matt told Vanessa how he planned to murder Kari, the reason why, and even the exact date, but Vanessa chose not to notify the authorities. After seven hours of deliberation, the jury found Matt Baker guilty of first-degree murder. He was sentenced to 65 years with the possibility of parole. Matt still insists he did not kill his wife. The Bakers' daughters live with Matt's parents, where they want to stay. Kari's parents are now fighting for custody of the girls. Onscreen graphics: In January a jury will decide who will get custody of Kari Baker's daughters. No charges will be filed against Vanessa Bulls. After testifying, she lost her job as a teacher. Matt Baker is appealing the verdict. Interviewed: Linda Dulin, Kari's mother; Linda's attorney Bill Johnston; Texas Ranger Matt Cawthon; Assistant District Attorney Crawford Long; prosecutor Susan Shafer; investigator Abdon Rodriguez; Guy James Gray, Matt Baker's attorney; and Matt Baker. Updated text graphic for the 07/30/11 rebroadcast: Two weeks ago a jury awarded sole custody of the girls to Kari's parents, Linda and Jim Dulin. The 05/25/13 Update: the Baker's daughters now live with Kari's parents. They do not want them to choose who to love, but to be happy teenagers. Updated text graphic for 05/25/13 rebroadcast: No charges will be filed against Vanessa Bulls. Matt Baker lost all his state appeals. Now he plans to take his case to federal court.(C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Gail Abbott Zimmerman) (OAD: 10/30/10; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/30/11)

48 HOURS

- 06/01/13 48 HOURS: "fugitive@hotmail.com" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the three-year international manhunt and eventual capture of Dr. Yazeed "Yaz" Essa, a Cleveland doctor accused of murdering his wife, Rosemarie. In February 2005, Rosemarie, the mother of Essa's two children, was in a minor car accident. She suffered no physical injuries, but she passed out and shortly afterwards died in a Cleveland hospital. Her best friend, Eva McGregor, voiced her own suspicion that Essa had tampered with the calcium supplements that Rosemarie had taken on the morning of her death. Weeks later, tests of the calcium tablets proved that she had died of cyanide poisoning. Police went to charge Essa, but he had fled from the U.S. to Canada and eventually to Beirut, Lebanon, where he hid, knowing that he could not be extradited back to the U.S. In October 2006, he went to Cyprus, a country that does have an extradition treaty with the U.S. Interpol and the FBI alerted the Cyprus police that Essa was traveling under an alias; he was apprehended at the Larnaca airport and brought in for questioning and fingerprinting. His true identity was established, and he was arrested for using a doctored passport and held in a Cyprus prison. He fought extradition for two years but was returned to the U.S. In January 2010 his trial began. His protector in the Middle East and Essa's brother, Firas, both testified that Essa had told them that he had killed his wife by putting cyanide in her calcium pills. He was found guilty of aggravated murder and sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole in twenty years. Onscreen graphic at conclusion: The Essa family has asked to visit the children. For now, Rosemarie's family won't allow it. After the trial, the children were told that their father killed their mother. They haven't asked about him since. Includes interviews with: FBI Special Agent Phil Torsney; Leila Atassi, reporter, Cleveland Plain Dealer; Dominic DiPuccio, Rosemarie's brother; Dr. Bob Khadar, Essa's best friend; Firas Essa, Essa's brother; Alexandra Herrera, Essa's ex-girlfriend; Julie DiPuccio, Rosemarie's sister-in-law; Stephen Bradley, defense attorney; Detective Gary McKee; Jamal Khalife, Essa's protector in the Middle East; Nayla Souki, Essa's girlfriend in Beirut; Sergeant Mario Ioannou, Larnaca (Cyprus) Police; Matt Meyer, prosecutor; Ana Feralia, prosecutor; Mark Marcin, defense attorney. On screen text graphic update for the 06/25/11 Rebroadcast: While in prison Essa attempted to sneak in a woman posing as his attorney. In May, the Cuyahoga County Court rejected Essa's appeal. On screen text graphic update for the 06/01/13 Rebroadcast: Rosie's brother says her children are thriving in his family. They do not ask about their father. While in prison Essa attempted to sneak in a woman posing as his attorney. He was moved to maximum security. All of Yazeed Essa's appeals have been rejected. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/01/13 48 HOURS: "The Preacher's Passion" (10:00-11:00p) - Felicia Tang was an actress and model in Hollywood, CA. Her boyfriend, Brian Randone, was an inspirational preacher and one-time reality show contestant. Two months after they met in Las Vegas, Tang was living in Randone's Los Angeles home. After a night of passion, Tang was dead. On the morning of September 11, 2009, Randone summoned police because Tang wasn't breathing. He maintained she overdosed on the drug GHB (Gamma hydroxybutyric), which they both took before going to bed. However, police didn't buy the story. Police believed he beat Tang to death because they counted some 320 bruises, lacerations and abrasions on her body. The medical examiner who did the autopsy on Tang believes the bruising on her face and bite mark on her tongue were a result of Tang's struggle to breathe. Randone was charged with her murder and after prosecutors saw her body, they added another charge: torture. On November 14, 2011, two years after Tang's death, the trial began in a Pasadena courtroom. Prosecutors tried to prove Randone caused Tang's death, but the defense painted Tang as a drug addict and said she died of an overdose. The defense called former San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner Dr. Harry Bonnell to the stand. Dr. Bonnell said homicide is impossible in this case because the PEA (pulseless electrical activity) found in Felicia's body proves it. He went on to tell the jury there is no PEA in smothering victims and the causes of PEA are drugs or blood volume loss. Prosecution was denied the opportunity to rebut Dr. Bonnell's testimony. The jury came up with the verdict of not guilty of torture and not guilty of murder. Jurors, who did not want their names to appear on the episode, claimed Dr. Bonnell's testimony was crucial in declaring Randone not guilty. Several medical examiners "48 HOURS" consulted made clear they would have testified that Dr. Bonnell was incorrect, and PEA is possible in smothering. On screen text graphic: Brian Randone is suing various Los Angeles County law enforcement agencies for $21 million for false arrest, wrongful imprisonment, and emotional distress. Interviewed: Brian Randone, Felicia Tang's boyfriend; Detective Richard Doney; Detective Brian Schoonmaker; Christina (no last name), Felicia's best friend; Mike Ferrara, DSport Magazine; Patty and Terry Randone, Brian's parents; Mark Overland, Brian's defense attorney; Trinka Porrata, Ret. - 06/08/13 48 HOURS: "A Fatal Attraction" (9:00-10:00p) - Joanne Witt, a 47-year old engineer in El Dorado Hills, California was stabbed to death while she was sleeping on Thursday, June 11, 2009. One month prior to her death Joanne found her 14-year old daughter Tylar Witt in a compromising situation with 19-year old Stephen Colver. Joanne was a single mother and along the way had lost control of Tylar, but exposing her daughter's relationship with Stephen would prove to be their last fight. Joanne tried to stop the relationship once she was aware of it, but the couple denied any wrongdoing. When Joanne discovered Tylar's diary detailing the sexual encounters between the couple, she went straight to authorities, and an investigation was opened. Prosecutor Lissette Suder, in conjunction with Stephen's defense attorney Dain Weiner and Tylar's lawyer Mark Ralphs, outlined the unfolding sequence of events. Tylar and Stephen were afraid of statutory rape charges and after Joanne was dead they decided to rent a hotel room for the night in San Francisco. Stephen and Tylar wrote suicide notes, and ate rat poison hoping to die together. When the rat poison didn't work they were on the run until local police officers turned them in. Tylar ended up turning on Stephen once prosecutors got involved and at his trial, she testified against him. In the end Stephen was sentenced to life in prison without parole, and Tylar pleaded guilty to 2nd degree murder, receiving 15 years to life. On screen text graphic: Tylar Witt is not eligible for parole until 2024; she will be 29 years old. On screen text graphic for the 07/03/12 Rebroadcast: Tylar Witt is not eligible for parole until 2024. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/08/13 48 HOURS: "Secrets of the River" (10:00-11:00p) - Mackenzie Cowell was a high school senior and aspiring model who was studying at a beauty school when she made a dinner date with her father, Reid, in February 2010. Mackenzie never made dinner, and Reid received a call from police saying his daughter's car was found abandoned on a ranch, 40 miles from their home in Wenatchee, Washington. Four days later Mackenzie was found dead along the banks of the Columbia River. She had been strangled, stabbed and beaten. Investigators looked at a list of potential suspects, including her boyfriend, who failed part of a lie-detector test, though he had a solid alibi. They talked to her parents, who had gone through a bitter divorce. And police talked to her mother's boyfriend, with whom she had tangled with in the past. Liz Reid, a police informant, came forward claiming to have seen the actual murder on videotape -- shot by the killers. However as the task force began to investigate this, a tip came in about Chris Wilson, a classmate of Mackenzie's from the Academy of Hair Design. After police linked DNA at the crime scene to Wilson, he was charged with her murder. Wilson claimed he was innocent and his mother hired attorney John Henry Browne. Police dismissed Liz Reid's story after she changed it several times and they did not find a video. When the task force searched the apartment that Wilson lived in during the time of the murder, they found a stain which tested positive for Mackenzie's DNA. Prior to the trial, D.A. Gary Reisen made Wilson an offer -- plead guilty to manslaughter and serve only six-and-half years in prison -- but Wilson turned it down and the trial began. Fearing an unfair trial after the jury questionnaires came back believing Wilson was guilty, Chris Wilson accepted a new plea deal -- fourteen years in prison in exchange for agreeing to these words: "...I also did recklessly cause the death of Mackenzie Cowell by strangulation and by stabbing her with a knife". Chris Wilson believes he was framed by law enforcement. On screen text graphic: Christopher Wilson may be eligible for release from prison in 2023. He will be 42 years old. Former police informant Liz Reid recently received a scholarship to attend the University of Washington. Update for the 06/08/13 rebroadcast: Less than a year after the plea deal, Wilson filed a motion to withdraw the guilty plea, stating he did not fully understand the consequences of how much time he would spend in prison. On screen text graphic for 06/08/13 rebroadcast: Late yesterday, an appeals judge denied Wilson's motion to withdraw his guilty plea. He said Wilson provided no evidence he misunderstood the plea deal he signed. Chris Wilson's earliest possible release date remains August 2023. He will be 42 years old. Interviewed: Reid Cowell, Mackenzie's father; Sandy Francis, Reid's fiancée; Joaquin Villasano, Mackenzie's boyfriend; Detective John Kruse, Wenatchee Police Dept.; Robbin Wagg, Douglas County Chief Deputy; Liz Reid, police informant; Wendy Cowell, Mackenzie's mother; Christopher Wilson, Mackenzie's classmate; Jefferson Robbins, investigative reporter, The Wenatchee World, CBS News consultant; Kathleen Zornes, Wilson's mother; Amelia Savage, Wilson's best friend; John Henry Browne, Wilson's attorney; Emma Scanlon, Wilson's attorney; Gary Reisen, prosecutor; Emmanuel "Buddah" Cerros, accused by Liz Reid of Mackenzie's murder. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: James Stolz) (OAD: 11/10/12)
- 06/15/13 48 HOURS: "The Accuser" - a followup to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06) and "The Lost Night" (OAD: 03/26/11). Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder of sports editor Kent Heitholt and the bizarre circumstances that have put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime. Heitholt was found bludgeoned and strangled in 2001. Two years later, police got a tip that Charles Erickson had told a friend that he and Ryan Ferguson may have committed the crime because they were out drinking the night of the murder and had decided to rob someone, but his memory of the incident was foggy. Based on Erickson's confession, both were arrested and tried for murder. During the trial, Erickson offered key details in his testimony that were not part of his initial confession. Both were found guilty. Ryan Ferguson received a forty year sentence. Ferguson's father's unceasing efforts to prove his son's innocence led to the discovery of evidence contradicting Erickson's story. Then Jerry Trump, a trial witness, recanted his testimony. With the assistance of attorney Kathleen Zellner, a new hearing was secured. Then Erickson's story changed again. He agreed to speak exclusively to 48 HOURS to reveal new details about how his confession put both men in prison. He said he has lied before and exonerated Ryan Ferguson, but his new version of the story also had its problems. Jerry Trump said he felt pressured to lie during the trial and was haunted by his testimony. The appeal commenced. It was denied; the judge sided with the Missouri attorney general and said that Erickson was far more credible seven years ago than he is today. The conviction stands. On screen text graphic: Kathleen Zellner has appealed this latest decision. It's Ryan Ferguson's thirteenth attempt to overturn his conviction. Update for the 06/15/13 rebroadcast: The case caught the eye of one of the owners of the Los Angeles Rams inspiring him to produce a feature documentary. On screen text graphic for the 06/15/13 rebroadcast: Ryan Ferguson is appealing the judge's decision. Ferguson also applied to the governor of Missouri for a pardon. The request is being considered. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/22/13 48 HOURS: "Lina's Heart" - Lina Kaufman was a married mother of two when one morning her husband found her in the bathroom, slumped over a magazine rack. Adam Kaufman called 911 and unsuccessfully tried to revive her. Lina's death gripped Aventura, Florida because she was 33-years-old when she died in 2007, and the circumstances around her death were strange. For eighteen months, Adam says he badgered the Dade County, Florida medical examiner's office seeking a conclusive explanation for his wife's death. They thought she may have had an allergic reaction to a spray tan, but in April 2009, Adam was charged with killing his wife by "mechanical asphyxiation". The trial began in May 2012 and the prosecution led the jury to believe the couple had an unhappy marriage, and fought the morning of Lina's death. Adam's defense no longer blamed Lina's death on her spray tan because there wasn't enough evidence to support it, and instead they attacked what they believed to be a botched investigation by the police. There was bruising and abrasions found on Lina's arms and legs and the defense said this was from Lina being moved from room to room by firefighters, and not a struggle with Adam. Moreover the defense said Lina died of natural causes and undiagnosed heart failure, more specifically acute and chronic myocarditis. Adam himself, and Lina's mother, Frida Aizman, both testified about Lina's prior fainting spells. Frida Aizman shared her support and love for Adam while on the stand. After eight hours, the jury reached a verdict of not guilty. On screen text graphic: Adam Kaufman plans to write a book about his ordeal. Interviewed: Adam Kaufman, Lina's husband; Seth Kaufman, Adam's twin brother; Elaine Kaufman, Adam's mother; Frida Aizman, Lina's mother; Melissa Fedowitz and Jennifer Ben Sadon, Lina's friends; Kathleen Hoague, prosecutor; Michael Castro, first responder; Kimberly Burk, paramedic; Bill Matthewman, defense attorney; Al Milian, defense attorney; Anna Howell, crime scene technician; Joe Mansfield, prosecutor; Dr. Gregory Davis, medical examiner. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed) (OAD: 10/27/12)
- 06/29/13 48 HOURS: "The Hunt for Mr. Wright" - a report on George Wright, who was sentenced to prison for the 1962 murder of New Jersey service station owner Walter Patterson, and who after spending 8 years in prison, escaped, and spent 40 years on the run from the authorities. This report follows a five-decade search of the task force comprised of the FBI, U.S. Marshals and New Jersey Department of Corrections officers as they searched the world for him, and Ann Patterson's fight to bring her father's killer to justice. In 1962, George Wright and Walter McGhee pleaded no contest to the murder of Walter Patterson, who was beaten and shot during a robbery at his Wall Township, NJ, Esso station. McGhee got life because the fatal bullet matched his gun; Wright got 15-30 years. Eight years later, George Wright escaped from jail. In 1972, dressed as a priest, Wright smuggled a gun on an airplane as part of an elaborate hijack plot to hijack the airplane with members of a black militant movement. They demanded $1 million, one of the largest ransoms for a hijacking at that time. The hijackers also wanted a flight to Algeria, which they got, and George Wright disappeared again. He successfully dodged authorities and drifted around France, Germany and Portugal, until he found the perfect place to hide, the tiny west African country of Guinea Bissau. And unbelievably, he did good deeds and helped the poor while there, marrying the daughter of an influential Portuguese general and fathering two children. To many, his criminal past was an open secret. He lived there 13 years, eventually getting citizenship under an assumed name, Jose Luis Jorge Dos Santos. After almost 50 years, the task force hit paydirt and in 2011, George Wright was cornered in a Lisbon cafe. But the victory was short-lived: Portuguese authorities dismissed the U.S. demand for extradition, claiming that despite his phony identification, Wright was a Portuguese citizen and they were not obligated to turn him over. Last summer, with no obvious way to bring him to justice, the Patterson family made an appeal on Capitol Hill for help. And now, it seems that George Wright has disappeared again. On screen text graphic: The Justice Department says it did not pursue further appeals in this case. Updated on screen text graphics for the 06/29/13 rebroadcast: The U.S. government says it will continue to pursue the extradition of George Wright to face justice in the United States. Interviewed: Ann Patterson and her daughters Jackie and Terry; R. J. Gallagher, retired FBI agent; Dan Klotz, U.S. Marshall; Rick Cope, NJ Department of Corrections; Walter McGhee, accomplice; Mike Finkel, GQ magazine writer, who interviewed George Wright, who is heard on tape from the interview; Capt. William May, pilot of hijacked Delta Airlines flight; Elaine Ottevaere, passenger on hijacked plane; Curtis Reed, Guinea Bisseau aid worker; Hannes Stegemann and Pedro Dalman, both who knew Wright in Guinea Bisseau; John Blacken, former U.S. Ambassador to Guinea Bisseau (1986-1989); Jonathan Winer, former State Department official. "Weatherman's Real Life Hangover" Show #11072RR

(TV 14 (L) (S) (D))

<http://drphil.com/assets/a/a608c58a0eaa7c373cc815850ade273d.jpg>

Dr. Phil goes behind the headlines of two popular weathermen who lost their jobs amid scandal. Former Philadelphia meteorologist John Bolaris says he's become a laughingstock ever since he was drugged by two women and duped out of more than $43,000 while vacationing in Miami in 2010. He claims the media portrayed him as a womanizer instead of as the victim of an international crime ring. Find out what headline he says further humiliated him. Now unemployed, how can he regain his career and repair his reputation? Plus, hear from John's fiancée, Erica, who recently created another scandal for John by posting racy Tweets on his Twitter account. How does she explain the posts? Then, Zoel says she made headlines when her online sex chat with a married Connecticut meteorologist went viral – and he was fired from his job. Zoel says the media has painted her as a "home wrecker" and a "slut" and that her relationship with her 21-year-old daughter, Kayla – whom she recently reunited with after 19 years – has been damaged as a result. Can Zoel repair her reputation and prove to Kayla that she can still be a trustworthy mom? (Original Airdate: 12/12/12)

<http://drphil.com/assets/8/80b23a28a23351f1448069b8260e5e43.jpg>

Dr. Phil's guests say they're fed up with their loved ones who keep bullying them about their weight. First, Valinda says her husband, Doug, calls her "Fatty," "Wide Load" and "Big Girl" and even makes cow noises while she eats ice cream. She says the constant ridicule is not only damaging her self-esteem, but it's also destroying their marriage. Valinda says she's tried diets and has successfully lost weight, but claims that Doug's lack of support sabotages her progress. Doug says he's just trying to help motivate his wife to get healthy. Dr. Phil reminds Doug, who has a Ph.D. in behavioral psychology, that he's way off the mark. Then, Donna says she'll try to lose weight, but only if her son, Gary, stops picking on her about her size. Gary says his mom is lazy and needs to start exercising and stop eating junk food. Hear why his criticism may be adding more pounds to his mother's frame. Plus, Liz Vaccariello, author of The Digest Diet, discusses the power of positivity in weight loss. Don't miss her tips on shedding unwanted pounds. And, meet Adrienne, who has struggled with her weight since her teens. She says she has finally lost more than 60 pounds with Liz's help. Can she help inspire Valinda and Donna to get healthy? If you or someone you know is struggling with weight loss, tune in! (Original Airdate: 10/12/12)

"Intense Family Drama" Show #11306 (TV 14 (L))

<http://drphil.com/assets/0/0ef7b9872ab049969c2654de81462c21.jpg>

When America's Next Top Model contestant Jael first appeared on the show (<http://drphil.com/shows/show/1868/>), she was addicted to drugs, and her life was spiraling out of control. After one of the most explosive and unpredictable interventions in Dr. Phil history, Jael reluctantly agreed to travel to Los Angeles and see Dr. Phil -- but seconds before appearing onstage, she took off running. For the first time ever, Dr. Phil left the stage to go outside and speak with the 28-year-old behind a dumpster, and convinced her to stop running and seek treatment. It's been six months -- how is Jael now? Then, 41 years ago, Karin and Tommy placed their only child for adoption. Now, they say finding him is a matter of life and death. They contacted professional locator Troy Dunn (<http://drphil.com/shows/page/TroyDunn/>) to help with the search. Is he able to locate him? And, Tony says 15 years ago, his girlfriend left with their 3-year-old son, Mitch, and he's been searching for him ever since. Seven months ago, Tony was contacted by police and informed that 18-year-old Mitch was found wandering the streets of Los Angeles alone, emaciated and confused, after allegedly being held captive by his mother and stepfather. Where is Mitch now? And, why does Tony say he still hasn't been able to see his son?

<http://drphil.com/assets/c/c241f120ea121e66d60a033f79af349.jpg>

Terri says she trusted and thought she knew her 15-year-old daughter, Sierra -- who she believed was a popular teen, earning good grades -- until Sierra disappeared and was discovered by police, days later, after witnessing a murder. Terri says she then learned that Sierra had been living a very different life -- experimenting with drugs, meeting men online and having sexual relationships with them -- many of whom were twice her age. Despite Sierra's alleged traumatic experience, Terri says her daughter continues to travel down a troubled path. Can Dr. Phil get to the root of Sierra's behavior? What warning signs did Terri miss? And, how might she be enabling her daughter? If you're a parent, you can't afford to miss this powerful show! This program contains strong sexual content. Viewer discretion advised. (Original Airdate: 2/25/13)

<http://drphil.com/assets/5/51d0bafc3801561f82ad85c2069ba3ea.jpg>

From the outside, Tayler's life seemed picture perfect -- but no one could have imagined the disturbing secrets she was hiding behind her smile. From the ages of 6 to 17, Tayler says her dad, Russell, molested her, gave her drugs, and took her to Mexico on numerous occasions, where she was forced to do unspeakable things. How could these horrific events have occurred without anyone noticing? Tayler's mom, Deanna, says she was unaware of the alleged abuse and just thought Tayler and her father had a special father-daughter bond. Were there warning signs she missed? Now 19 and addicted to heroin, Tayler says she feels alone, abandoned and confused -- but she also admits that she misses her father. Can Dr. Phil help get her on a path to both emotional and physical recovery? Then, hear from Tayler's two younger sisters. What did they witness? Were they being groomed by their father? And, where is Russell today? If you're a parent, tune in to learn how to protect your child from a predator. *This program contains strong sexual content. <http://drphil.com/assets/f/f71abda6d06ace0cf24fd05d6fc3b678.jpg>

Christian says he is stuck in the middle of two women fighting over him: his fiancée, Beth, and his mom, Carol. Beth says her future mother-in-law is meddling, constantly berates her and is trying to destroy her relationship -- and if she doesn't butt out, Beth says she'll be forced to end her relationship with Christian. How did the bad blood begin? Carol admits she doesn't trust Beth and even hired a private investigator to spy on her. Why doesn't she approve of Beth? And, what did the private investigator discover? Christian, who says he once had a great relationship with his mother, says he and Beth have canceled their wedding twice, in part due to his mother's behavior. Is he prepared to choose between the two women in his life? And, will Carol ever accept Beth? Don't miss Dr. Phil's advice for this troubled family. Can they reach a resolution? "Never-Ending Abuse?" Show #11013RR (TV 14 (L) (S) (D))

<http://drphil.com/assets/0/0a7b30be948d1de912f703e6db09137d.jpg>

Erin says that when she was 8 years old, her stepfather, "Mr. Dave," began sexually abusing her, and that she also watched him molest her friends. Erin says that despite telling her mother, Lisa, what was happening -- a claim her mother denies -- the atrocities continued until she confided in a teacher, three years later. Erin's stepfather was arrested and is currently behind bars, and Lisa was convicted of sexual abuse of a minor for failing to protect her daughter. She served 13 months in jail and is now permanently on the sex offender registry. Erin, now 22, says she's struggling to let go of the anger and resentment she still feels for her mother. Face to face on Dr. Phil's stage, will Lisa take responsibility for not taking action? And, can Dr. Phil help Erin find forgiveness? Then, find out why Lisa's 14-year-old daughter may now be in need of her mom's protection, and if Lisa is up to the task. *This program contains strong sexual content. get fit TRYathlon

Dear Participant:

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Crawford County would like to invite you to be a part of the 2013 Get Fit TRYathlon & Get Fit 5k/10k presented by Ron's Supermarket & Tailwind Cyclists. In 2010, we made the decision to TRY something new and reach out to other kids in our community that our organization may not currently be serving. That is how the vision of the Get Fit TRYathlon was started. We wanted to bring something to our community that could potentially serve youth in the four state region.

We are gearing up for the 4th Get Fit TRYathlon at Pittsburg State University June 1st & 2nd. This is a multi-sport weekend event for ages 5-14 of all skill level & a 5k/10 for 15 and older. This event is about trying something new that can have long-term health and wellness benefits in a safe environment. We want to encourage, strengthen and mentor them on an individual basis that could make an impact in their lives.

The multi-sport weekend includes a clinic to go over swim, bike and run safety; along with tips and techniques. Then Sunday, will be the TRYathlon event where they can show off their skills.

New this year is the Post Race Celebration. This part of the event is to celebrate the kid's achievements and have fun. We are looking for vendors that cater to youth and families that want to show what you bring to our community. You may sell goods, put on a routine, and pass out freebies. We just ask that you pay a $25 booth fee. There is no charge if you are an Elite sponsor or higher it is included in your donation.

For any questions, contact Joanna Rhodes, event coordinator at 704-1396.

Sincerely,

Big Brothers Big Sisters Board of Directors

Pittsburg State University

March 6, 2013

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Department of Communication

To Whom It May Concern:

The Phi Theta Kappa alumni chapter of Pitt State is sponsoring the third annual Holden's Hope 5K on May 4th, 2013 at 9:15 a.m. on the Pitt State campus. The service project is to help raise funds for a local eight-year old boy, Holden Guilfoyle, who suffers from a rare genetic disorder called Mucopolysaccharidosis, type 6 (MPS VI).

Holden endures enzyme replacement therapy (ERT) through weekly infusions administered by Via Christi's Home Health Care and monthly visits to Children's Mercy Hospital for tests, monitoring, and sometimes surgeries. His medical costs are extremely high and insurance will only pay so much. The annual fundraiser helps with the additional costs for transportation to medical appointments as well as copays.

To ensure a successful fundraiser event, we need sponsors. If monetary donations are possible for your business, we have a couple of options. For $25, you can be named a race sponsor as a Holden's Hero. In addition, for $50 you can provide me with your logo design to add to our race t-shirt as a Holden's Hero. If monetary donations are possible, we could use small aid station cups, bottled water or post-race food, such as fruit, bagels or granola bars. Any assistance is greatly appreciated.

I'm the current advisor of the student organization and honor society of Phi Theta Kappa. In addition, as the race director I'm using this project as a public relations awareness campaign for my graduate studies course work in the Department of Communication at Pitt State. If you have additional questions, please notify me at juliana.hughes@pittstate.edu or 620-235-4490 (PSU office) 918-284-5949 (cell).

Sincerely,
