10/03/15 48 HOURS: "The Doctor's Daughter" - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple's daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander's death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander's had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father's defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. Interviewed: Scott Kapral (NY Police Sergeant); Jim Stevens (attorney/CBS News Consultant); Bill Fitzpatrick (Onondage County DA); Dr. Mary Jumbelic (friend of Leslie Neulander); July Crosby (Neulander employee); Edward Menkin (defense attorney); Karen Green (forensic scientist). - 10/10/15 48 HOURS: "Shadow of Death" - a report on the murders of Andra and Brad Sachs, who in 2014 were killed during a suspected home invasion, in which their younger son was left paralyzed. Evidence in the crime points towards one of their older sons, Ashton Sachs, who was allegedly fascinated by the 1989 Menendez brothers murder case. The Sachs were a wealthy couple with five children, who had divorced, but continued to live together in upscale San Juan Capistrano, California. Investigation first led to the theory of a business deal gone bad, but a month after the shootings, then-19-year-old Ashton Sachs was charged with murder. Family members say that Sachs was an avid player of violent video games and had been fascinated with the sensational 1989 Menendez murders. Through interviews with various family members and experts, including highly respected child psychologist Ali Mattu of Columbia University, a portrait of Ashton Sachs emerges as a very troubled individual potentially suffering from mental illness. Warning signs of a troubled life were on the surface, and family dynamics played a part in the case. Sachs remains in a California jail and is scheduled to go on trial for the murders in March 2016. On-screen text graphic: Ashton Sachs is being held in solitary confinement. Authorities will not confirm reports he has tried again to take his own life. Interviewed: Orange County Register Meghann Cuniff; reporter/48 HOURS consultant Jack Leonard; Orange County realtor Monte Burghardt; Andra's close friend Nina Lifshultz; weapons expert Nabil Khattar; trauma surgeon Dr. Enrique Ginzburg; Ashton's friend Connor Ward; attorney Mary Fulginiti; Columbia University child psychologist, Ali Mattu; Andra's sisters Lesley Summers and Stephanie Garber. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Chuck Stevenson, Judy Ryback)
- 10/17/15 48 HOURS: "Vengeance in Vegas" - an investigation into the 2012 murder of Shauna Tiaffay, a Las Vegas casino cocktail waitress who was brutally beaten to death in her townhouse, while her husband George Tiaffay, a West Point military graduate and firefighter, worked an all-night shift at the firehouse. Investigation revealed that the Tiaffay marriage had begun to crumble; they had separated, but shared custody of their daughter. Police focused on the husband, but George had a solid alibi. Police also discovered an earlier robbery and a strange clue the robber left behind. Forty-eight hours into the investigation, detectives received a crucial tip from a local resident, William Pennix (aka "Big Will") - a friend had told him that he had just killed a woman. The tip led investigators to a homeless man named "Greyhound" (Noel Stevens) who lived in the desert away from the Las Vegas strip. Police believed that George Tiaffay had befriended Stevens, and manipulated his friend with the promise of cash if he would kill his wife. They also matched the murder weapon with merchandise that the two men are seen shopping for, on video footage acquired by the police. Stevens and Tiaffay were arrested. Stevens pleaded guilty in 2013 to Shauna's murder. In a pre-trial deal, he agreed to testify against George Tiaffay once prosecutors promised not to seek the death penalty against him. George Tiaffay was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Shauna's family is raising awareness for domestic violence through their group Justice4Shauna. Noel Stevens will be sentenced in November for Shauna's murder. He faces a maximum of life in prison without the possibility of parole. - 10/24/15 48 HOURS: "The Hunter" - a report on the 2012 disappearance of Kelli Bordeaux, a young army combat medic who went missing in Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and one local bounty hunter's own efforts to find her -- his first case after he receiving his private investigator's license. Bordeaux had gone to a local bar and never returned home. A massive search was conducted, but no clues turned up. Police had several suspects, including Mike Bordeaux, her estranged husband; Justin Thompson, a man she was dating; and Nicholas Holbert, a man who was last seen with her the night she went missing. Without telling the police, bounty hunter David Marshburn (now a 48 HOURS consultant), launched his own investigation. Alibis for Bordeaux and Thompson were airtight, so Marshburn befriended Holbert, putting him at ease and sometimes paying him to open up with information. Finally, Marshburn told police what he was up to and they told him to continue with his investigation. Holbert confessed to Marshburn, that Bordeaux had learned that Holbert was a sex offender, which offered a motive. In 2014, Marshburn decided time was up and convinced Holbert to lead him to Kelly Bordeaux's body. The footage shown from the subsequent arrest video is the first broadcast of a confession captured by a police officer's bodycam. On-screen text graphic: Under his plea deal, Nicholas Holbert waived all rights to an appeal. Nicholas Holbert will receive psychiatric counseling and substance abuse treatment in prison. David Marshburn is investigating a new missing person's case. Interviewed: David Marshburn (private detective/48 HOURS Consultant); Johnna Henson (Bordeaux's mother); Olivia Cox and Matt Henson (Bordeaux's sister and brother); Justin Thompson (boyfriend); Jeff Locklear (Fayetteville, North Carolina detective); Billy West (District Attorney). (C: Troy Roberts - P: Marc B. Goldbaum, Paul LaRosa, Jonathan Leach)
- 10/31/15 48 HOURS: "The Pact" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the murder of 15-year-old John McCabe of Tewksbury, Massachusetts, who was murdered after a dance in 1969, and his family's decades-long quest to find out what really happened to him. Police launched a massive investigation; there were suspicions that John's schoolmates may have been involved. One, Walter Shelley, was driving in a car that matched the description of a car spotted near the crime scene, but there was no forensic evidence and the case went cold. In 2000, Bill McCabe got a tip from John's childhood friend, Jack Ward: he heard at a BBQ, that the motive for the murder was jealousy and John had been flirting with Shelley's girlfriend, Marla Shiner. The case stalled again. In 2007, a new investigation was launched which led to Edward Alan Brown, who shared details of what happened that night. Mike Ferreira and Walter Shelley were arrested for the murder. Ferreira was tried first and was found not guilty: the jury did not believe Brown's story. Bill McCabe died four days after the verdict. Evelyn McCabe took up the quest for justice. Walter Shelley stood trial. This jury believed Brown and he was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: Evelyn McCabe has filed a wrongful death suit against Michael Ferreira, Walter Shelley and Edward Allen Brown. Interviewed: Bill and Evelyn McCabe (parents); Debbie McCabe, Roberta McCabe (sisters); Gerry Leone (former District Attorney); Mike Ferreira and his wife Nancy Williams; Jack Ward (childhood friend); Detective Linda Coughlin; Ken Lavallee (police); Eric Wilson (Ferreira's attorney); Michael Duquett (juror). - 10/31/15 48 HOURS: "The Bugs Bunny Defense" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the 2007 death of Patrick Duffey and the incredible story his wife, Linda told police about what actually happened: she and her husband had reenacted a moment from a Bugs Bunny cartoon and she accidentally shot and killed her husband with a gun. Police questioned whether what happened in the suburban Whittier, California home was a freak accident, or an intentional murder. The investigation dragged on for five years, and the case grew cold. Lindy Duffey remarried and was now living with her husband Larry Gwozdz, a well-known jazz musician in Mississippi. In 2012, with a new prosecutor urging them on, police arrested and charged Linda Duffey Gwozdz with murder. At the trial, her team used the Bugs Bunny defense and the case ended with a deadlocked jury. One year later, for her second trial, prosecutors did not rely on the interrogation videos in which Linda spoke about the cartoon defense. Instead they claimed that it was a pre-meditated, deliberate murder. In order to bring up the cartoon defense, Linda Duffey Gwozdz would have to testify herself. She declined to do so. She was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Linda Duffey Gwozdz is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: Shaun McCarthy and Shannon Laren (Los Angeles County detectives); Julie Prendergast (Linda Duffey's former friend); Katherine Hunt (Patrick Duffey's sister); Tracy Peck (Los Angeles Country firearms expert); Paul Delhauer (blood evidence expert); Robert Villa (Deputy District Attorney); Brandi Jones, Andrew Dixon, Danielle Wong, Patricia Enriquez (jurors from first and second trials). “Veterans Journey Home: Faith, Hope & War”: an interfaith special examining the issues veterans face as they transition to civilian life. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs, there are 22 million veterans in the U.S. This program highlights the stories of some of these men and women who have volunteered to serve their country. Featured on the program are: (1) Rev. Dr. Rita Nakashima Brock is founding Co-Director of the Soul Repair Center at Brite Divinity School in Ft. Worth, Texas. A widely recognized expert on the emerging study of moral injury and recovery, she talks about moral injury and what it takes to rebuild a moral identity. (2) Rev. Dr. Craig Combs, a retired chaplain with the Texas National Guard, served two tours in Iraq. Currently a Faith & Community Based Initiative Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network, he discusses how society needs to do a better job in helping veterans transition from a “war mind to a peace mind”. Also includes footage of Rev. Dr. Combs leading a discussion with a group of Texas veterans. (3) Traumatic brain injury and post-traumatic stress (PTS) are often referred to as the unseen wounds of war. It’s estimated that 500,000 veterans have returned from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan with symptoms of PTS. Less than half seek help for their condition, and many self-medicate with drugs and alcohol. Among the areas impacted is the criminal justice system in Denton County, Texas, where a Veterans Treatment Court Program is offered as an alternative to serving time in jail. Includes interviews with Judge David D. Garcia and Ginger Simonson, a Veteran Peer Services Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network. (4) Olivia Bush, Program Coordinator for The Lotus Project for Women Veterans, discusses the challenges that are unique to women vets. In addition to mental health referrals and basic needs support, the organization offers permanent, supportive housing options for disabled women veterans. Also features two female veterans who found permanent housing and support through the program. (5) Rev. Dr. Robert Lee Hill, Minister Emeritus of the Community Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Kansas City, Missouri, talks about how the faith community can help foster a “repair of the soul”. 11/21/15

48 HOURS: "The Accidental Husband" (9:00–10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about Harold Henthorn, a twice-widowed man from Colorado whose two wives both died in unusual accidents, and whose changing account of events led family members to suspect that he murdered them. In 2012, Harold Henthorn surprised his wife Dr. Toni Henthorn, a successful ophthalmologist, with a weekend hike in Rocky Mountain National Park to celebrate their anniversary -- only to have it end in her death from a fall. Henthorn's version of events to family members changed several times and they began to doubt his account of events and to suspect he was responsible for her death. While reporting on the case, investigative reporter Brian Maass received an anonymous email stating Henthorn's first wife died in a freak accident as well. Maass looked into the accident and discovered first wife Lynn Henthorn had died 17 years earlier in another freak accident. He found: (1) both accidents occurred in very remote locations in Colorado; (2) Henthorn was the only witness; (3) the accidents were extremely unusual; (4) he had told numerous versions of the events; and (5) both wives had large life insurance policies, with him as the sole beneficiary. Federal investigators also discovered that Henthorn had not worked for the past twenty years. He had also taken out a fraudulent policy worth millions on his ex-sister-in-law, Grace Rishell, who now believes she was to be his next target. In 2014, two years after Toni Henthorn's tragic death, federal authorities arrested and charged Harold Henthorn with her murder. His trial is scheduled to begin in the fall. On-screen text graphic: A judge will decide if Lynn's death can be included in Henthorn's trial for the murder of Toni. Henthorn has yet to receive any proceeds from Toni's life insurance. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. 11/21/15 UPDATE: This September, Henthorn's trial began. Prosecutors were confident they would win this largely circumstantial case. The defense rested without calling a single witness. Harold Henthorn was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for the 11/21/15 updated rebroadcast: Henthorn will be sentenced on December 8th. He faces a mandatory life sentence with no chance of parole. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. Original 04/04/15 interviews: Barry Bertolet, Yvonne Bertolet and Bob Bertolet (Toni Henthorn's brother and parents); Daniel Jarvis (friend of Harold Henthorn); Tammi Abbruscato, Christie Drews (Toni Henthorn's co-workers); Brian Maass (investigative reporter); Grace Rishell (ex-sister-in-law of Harold Henthorn and Lynn Henthorn) and daughter Laura Rishell; Ann McNally, Nancy Hodges (co-workers of Lynn Henthorn); Patricia Montoya (offered aid during first accident); Lora Thomas (Douglas County Coroner); Arnold Wheat (48 HOURS consultant/ accident reconstruction specialist). New 11/21/15 interviews: jurors Dawn Roberts, Marxy Miller-Zahn, Daniel Jarvis, Jerry Taboada; and Henthorn friend Daniel Jarvis. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/21/15 48 HOURS: "The Strange Case of Kurt Sonnenfeld" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation of Kurt Sonnenfeld, a man wanted for the 2002 murder of his wife, Nancy Sonnenfeld, in the United States, and who is now living with a new life with a new wife in Argentina, a country that has yet to agree to extradite him to the United States. He claims that the United States government wants to silence him for what he saw at Ground Zero following the 2001 terrorist attacks. He also maintains that his wife committed suicide after a New Year's Eve celebration on January 1, 2002. Police believed it to be a homicide. Her death came during a troubled time in their marriage; Nancy had filed for separation and intended to divorce Kurt. He was arrested for murder, but the charges were dropped shortly before he was to go to trial due to insufficient evidence. The investigation continued, and police eventually refiled the murder charge. By that time, Sonnenfeld had moved to Argentina, remarried and had launched a campaign to clear his name by giving interviews to the local media. He claims that he is wanted in the United States because of something he saw while working as a cameraman for FEMA at the World Trade Center Ground Zero site, and also claims that he is facing the death penalty -- which he is not. The case now drags on through the Argentine court system, and the President of Argentina even says that Kurt Sonnenfeld will not be extradited. On-screen text graphic: Tomorrow is Argentina's presidential election. It's not clear whether the decision to keep Sonnenfeld in Argentina will stand. Interviewed: Paula Sonnenfeld (second wife); Amy Leek (Nancy's sister); Leslie Lindberg (Nancy's cousin); Jonathan Priest (retired Denver detective); Dr. Amy Martin (Denver assistant Medical Examiner); Carrie Thompson (defense attorney); Bill Ritter (District Attorney); Robert Dreyer (informant); Bill Owens (former Colorado governor); Dolores and Jorge Richar (Sonnenfeld supporters/ through translation); Adolfo Perez Esquivel (Nobel Prize winner, Sonnenfeld supporter); Rolondo Grana (Argentine TV personality); Kirk Mitchell (Denver Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant). (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Anthony Venditti, Clare Friedland)
- 11/28/15 48 HOURS: "Road to Redemption" - a report about Jeanne Bishop, who for more than two decades struggled to move on after losing both her sister and brother-in-law, Nancy Bishop Langert and Richard Langert -- murdered in their suburban Chicago home in 1990 by 16-year-old David Biro. In seeking closure to the crime, she pursued a face-to-face meeting with Biro in prison -- which she eventually had. In 1990, Nancy and Richard Langert were found dead in their Winnetka, Illinois home, in what seemed like a home invasion/robbery. Their killer was identified months later as David Biro, a local high school student, who bragged to a friend that he had done it. Biro was tried as an adult and convicted of murder. He was sentenced to two mandatory life terms for the murders of Nancy and Richard Langert, and the judge gave him a discretionary life sentence for the death of their unborn child. For Jeanne Bishop, the crime was a life-changing moment: her actions during the investigation made authorities think she was uncooperative, and, because of the way she was treated by police, she changed careers, going from being a high-powered corporate attorney to a public defender. Still, for 23 years, in order to forgive, she felt she needed to know what motivated David Biro, thus lifting the crushing burden victims often live with. Biro agreed to meet with her, at Pontiac Correctional Center, where he is serving his time. In June of 2012, the U.S. Supreme Court decision deeming mandatory life sentences for juveniles as "cruel and unusual punishment." meant that David Biro could qualify for a reduced sentence, or even be released. The ruling guarantees that there will be a re-sentencing. Jeanne's mother and sister have ideologically different views about forgiveness and the Supreme Court decision, but have agreed to disagree. On-screen text graphic: David Biro is one of approximately 80 offenders convicted as juveniles awaiting re-sentencing in Illinois. Across the country, more than 1,000 offenders may qualify for resentencing under the Supreme Court ruling. Interviewed: Jeanne Bishop (sister); Joyce Bishop (mother); Jennifer Bishop-Jenkins (sister); Gene Kalvaitis (Sergeant, multi-town task force); Patty McConnell (Sergeant, Winnetka Police Department); Gera-Lind Kolarik (true-crime writer); Mark Osler (law professor). 48 HOURS: "Dear Savanna" - a report on how Dorothy Lee Barnett ("Lee Barnett") eluded the FBI for over two decades after fleeing the United States with her daughter Savanna, after losing custody of the child. Their 1994 disappearance launched an international search for Barnett and Savanna that did not end until she was arrested in Australia. Lee Barnett was in the midst of a bitter divorce with then-husband Harris Todd. Barnett had married him even though he said he did not want children. Problems began after she became pregnant. They went to counseling, and during this period a doctor diagnosed her as having hyperthymic temperament, a form of bipolar disorder. After Savanna was born, she filed for divorce. Harris counter-sued. The judge sided with Todd. Barnett then started to make plans to leave with 11-month-old Savanna. She obtained fake documents (birth certificates and passports) and disappeared. An FBI manhunt ensued. She was vilified in the press. In 1999, Harris Todd told 48 HOURS that she was mentally ill. Barnett countered with her side of the story: she cut off all contact with her family and headed to Europe, then Malaysia, Singapore, South Africa, Botswana and Australia. Along the way, she met and married Alex Geldenhuys, and had another child, Reece. Unbeknownst to Savanna, she became Samantha Geldenhuys. While they were on the run, Barnett also kept a secret diary for her daughter, planning one day to tell her the story of her life. In 2011, the FBI got a tip that Barnett was living in Australia. Samantha learned about her past from the agents. In 2013, Barnett was extradited to the United States. Samantha has read all the transcripts and the diaries and has a new understanding of her mother. Barnett pled guilty to all charges and spent 21 months in prison. Samantha eventually met her father and described it as a surreal experience. She remains open to a relationship, but stands behind her mother. On-screen text graphic: Samantha graduates college in Australia next year. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. Lee is living with friend in Charleston. Interviewed: Lee Barnett; Samantha Geldenhuys (Savanna); Reece Geldenhuys (son); Susie Poag, Bruce Michell, Patty Roth, Gordon King, Ken Gizzard (Lee's friends); Cliff Barnett (brother); Chris Quick (FBI agent); Nathan Williams (assistant U.S. Attorney); Harris Todd (1999 interview). 48 HOURS: "The Two Faces of Todd Winkler" - a report on the investigation into the February 2012 death of Rachel Winkler, who was fatally stabbed with scissors by her husband, Todd Winkler, a former fighter jet pilot, in their Cameron Park, California home. He claims it was self-defense, triggered by an extreme psychotic episode -- they were fighting. He told police she was stabbed during the prolonged struggle when she grabbed the scissors. Investigation revealed: a fractured marriage; Rachel's affair; a potential divorce; and Todd Winkler's shocking past which prosecutors believe held clues to what happened to Rachel. Rachel's father, renowned impressionist painter Don Hatfield, believes Todd killed Rachel because she knew his secrets: a past that included possible psychotic outbursts and erratic behavior to get out of problems in the military and in his professional life, and that there was more to the story behind the fiery crash which claimed the life of his previous wife, Catherine Winkler. Todd Winkler's mental health became a major issue when he seemed to have a psychotic outburst during the trial. Prosecutors suggested he was faking and that it was a ploy to sway the jury. The verdict: guilty of the crime of first-degree murder as charged. On-screen text graphic: Todd Winkler plans to appeal. He says evidence of Catherine's death should not have been allowed at trial. On-screen text graphic for the 12/12/15 rebroadcast: Todd Winkler is appealing his conviction. He says evidence of Catherine's death should not have been allowed at trial. Interviewed: Don Hatfield (Rachel's father); Brandy Stanley (close friend of Rachel's); James White (Rachel's boyfriend); Lisette Suder (prosecutor); Peter Hecht (Sacramento Bee reporter/CBS News Consultant); Woody DePew and Michael Hodnett (campers); Christina Carlisle (Catherine Winkler's sister); Rich Johnson (deputy sheriff); David Weiner (defense attorney); Dr. Frank Lossy (psychiatrist/expert witness for the defense); and Phil Albee (pilot). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 12/19/15 48 HOURS: "Murder in Aspen" – a updated rebroadcast on the 2013 murder of Nancy Pfister, an Aspen, Colorado socialite / ski resort heiress, and the investigation to find her killer. Pfister came from a family of high achievers, but was also known for a demanding demeanor; even her friends were treated with disrespect, as friend Kathy Carpenter had personally experienced. Nancy Pfister was found dead from blunt force trauma, in the bedroom closet of her home by Kathy Carpenter. She had been alerted that something was amiss by Nancy Styler, who had recently rented the place with her husband Trey Styler, and was in the process of moving out. Police focused on the Stylers because they were involved in a public dispute with Pfister involving the rental home. Pfister came back three months earlier than expected, saying the couple had owed her a large amount of money. Police believed Nancy Styler harbored anger over the way Pfister treated the couple. They also believed Trey Styler, who suffered from a neurological disorder, was incapable of killing anyone. Days after the murder, both were arrested and charged with murder. Soon after, Kathy Carpenter was also arrested, and charged with murder. Police believed the women had bonded over Pfister's seeming indifference to them. Three months later, a bombshell: Trey Styler confessed and said that he and he alone had killed Nancy Pfister. He agreed to tell the details of the crime in exchange for a 20-year sentence and his wife's unconditional freedom. The charges were dropped against both women, but they claim that the prosecution's continued insistence that they were somehow involved in the murder has convicted them in the court of public opinion. Kathy Carpenter still faces the threat of prosecution should more evidence be found. Nancy Styler can never be charged. Original on-screen text graphic: Nancy Styler has filed for divorce, gone back to take her maiden name and moved to another state. Epilogue for the 12/19/15 rebroadcast: After thirteen months behind bars, Trey Styler sat down with author Dalleen Berry, who is writing a book with Nancy Styler in an effort to clear her name. He insisted he had acted alone. Four months after the interview, Trey Styler hanged himself in his prison cell. Nancy Styler changed her name, and moved to another state. Interviewed: Nancy Styler; Kathy Carpenter; Mark Seal (writer/48 HOURS consultant); Tim Mooney, David Koffend, Michael Cleverly (Pfister friends); Juliana Pfister (daughter); Andrea Bryan (Assistant District Attorney); Lisa Miller (DA Chief Investigator); Sherry Caloia (District Attorney); Greg Greer (Carpenter defense attorney); Garth McCarthy (Styler defense attorney). - 12/26/15 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Love and Death In Alaska" (9:00-11:00p) - an updated rebroadcast of the 09/13/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY rebroadcast of "Love and Death In Alaska". On May 2, 1996, the body of Kent Leppink was found off a deserted road 90 miles south of Anchorage, Alaska. He had been shot three times. Police investigation discovered that he had been involved with Mechele Hughes, a young woman who worked as a stripper in a club called the Great Alaskan Bush Company. Mechele was also involved with two other men -- John Carlin III and Scott Hilke. Ten years later, after further investigation, Mechele (now Mechele Linehan) and John Carlin were indicted for Leppink's murder. At his trial, Carlin was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to 99 years in prison. At her trial, she was also found guilty of first degree murder. She awaits sentencing. Among those interviewed are: Mechele Linehan; Linda Branchflower, detective; Ken and Betsy Leppink, parents of Kent; Scott Hilke, salesman; John Carlin III; John Carlin IV; Megan Holland, reporter, Anchorage Daily News; Tina Brady, stripper; Kristina Hermach, friend of Mechele Linehan; Colin Linehan, Mechele's husband; Pat Gullufsen, special cold case prosecutor; Sydney Billingslea, lawyer for John Carlin III; Kevin Fitzgerald, lawyer for Mechele Linehan. 08/07/10 Update: In February 2010, an appeals court reversed Mechele's conviction for murder and she will be given a new trial. John Carlin III was involved in a prison fight in 2008 and beaten to death. Because his appeal was pending at the time he died, the court has thrown out his entire case. In Mechele's new trial, prosecutors can't mention Carlin ever was convicted. Onscreen graphics update: Mechele Linehan's retrial is expected to begin next year. Epilogue for the 12/26/15 updated rebroadcast: In 2011, nearly two years after the court reversed her conviction – authorities dismissed Mechele Linehan's murder indictment, and it is unlikely that she will be charged again. John Carlin's son sued the State of Alaska for wrongful death and was awarded a $160,000 settlement. Today, Mechele and Colin are living apart, though they work together. Kent Leppink's mother struggles with the feeling that nobody was really held accountable for his murder. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager, Mark H. WEST COAST ONLY - "Hands Off The Wheel" – a report on the advancement of self-driving cars powered by a form of artificial intelligence. In Silicon Valley, Bill Whitaker takes a test drive in the Mercedes-Benz self-driving automobile and sits inside Google's version of the driverless car. Unlike current cars, the issues consumers will face with self-driving cars will be related to cybersecurity and privacy. The car industry plans to automate the driving experience feature-by-feature first, before a driverless car is introduced to the market. Mercedes-Benz shared their vision for a car in the year 2030, the F015, a design where the driver turns its back to the steering wheel. (Includes an excerpt from an Infiniti ad) Includes interviews with: Ralf Herrtwich, director of driver assistance and chassis systems at Daimler AG/Mercedes-Benz; Chris Urmson, director self-driving cars at Google; Jaime Waydo, systems engineer at Google; Peter Lehmann, engineer at Daimler AG/Mercedes-Benz; and Mark Rosekind, Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). "The Spy Among Us" – an interview / profile of Jack Barsky, a former spy for the Soviet Union's KGB, assigned to the United States during the last years of the Cold War, with the aim of infiltrating President Jimmy Carter's White House. Barsky, born Albrecht Dittrich in East Germany, was recruited by a Russian KGB agent. Failing at his original mission, he then worked at MetLife in IT, where he stole IBM source code for the Soviets. He also led a double life, with a wife and son in Germany and a wife and daughter in the United States. Recalled by the KGB in 1988, he made the decision to stay in the U.S. with his daughter. He lied to the KGB by telling them that he was dying of AIDS. He had another child, a son, and settled down with his family in Mount Bethel, Pennsylvania. The FBI started observing Barsky, and in May of 1997 had gathered enough evidence to question him. After the interrogation, the FBI concluded that his spy days were over and that he would be most useful in supplying information as to how the KGB operated. He now lives in upstate New York as director of software development for an undisclosed company that manages New York's high-voltage power grid. Also includes interviews with: Joe Reilly, former FBI agent; and Chelsea (last name not disclosed), Barsky's daughter. For over 14 years the couple avoided an international manhunt by living a quiet, secluded life in Santa Monica, California posing as "Charley and Carol Gasko". Federal law enforcement trackers explain how a breast augmentation by Greig and the couple's shared love for animals led to their arrest. Includes interviews with Josh Bond, manager of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Janus Goodwin and Barbara Gluck, tenants of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Scott Garriola, Rich Teahan, Tommy MacDonald and Phil Torsney (Ret.), FBI Special Agents; and Neil Sullivan, Deputy U.S. Marshall. Also includes comments by his lawyer, Charles Carnesi, who was present during the interview. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen) (OAD: 04/11/10 as a DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT; includes an update)
"The FBI's Wise Guy" - an interview with Joaquin "Jack" Garcia, the Cuban-American FBI agent who infiltrated the Gambino crime family as Jack Falcone, an Italian gangster character he created in 2002 to take down one of the most powerful mobsters in America. Extremely successful, he gained the trust of Gambino capo Greg DePalma, who offered to make Falcone a "made member" of the Mafia -- a proposal which would have made him the first law enforcement agent in history to ever achieve that position. Recently retired after 26 years, he is the author of "Making Jack Falcone". (C: Armen Keteyian - P: Pat Milton, Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 10/12/08)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/13/15 “Marriage, Religion & Modern Life” – an interfaith special that looks at how the tradition of matrimony has evolved throughout the ages and what it looks like today. Marriage is a ritual that is celebrated in many different religions and cultures all over the world. Today, nearly 30 percent of adults are married or living with a partner who has a religion different than their own and there is a growing population of families who are making a conscious choice to raise their children in both faith traditions. Featured are: (1) Historian Stephanie Coontz (author, “Marriage, A History” and “The Way We Never Were”) and sociologist Dr. Andrew J. Cherlin (author, “Labor’s Love Lost”, Sociology Prof., Johns Hopkins University) discuss how marriage has evolved over the centuries and why the public debate around same-sex marriage went from unfavorable to favorable. (2) Changes in attitudes toward marriage and religion are also evident among millennials, who are increasingly deferring the decision to tie the knot. Reverend Dale Rosenberger (author, “Sex and the Spirit”) is the Senior Pastor of the First Congregational Church of Darien, Connecticut. He discusses how the culture of marriage has changed in the United States, how this affects millennials’ spiritual lives, and how he ministers to young couples who are ready for this commitment. (3) The Interfaith Family Project (IFFP) of Greater Washington in Washington, D.C. is an educational organization for families who want to raise their children both Christian and Jewish. IFFP’s spiritual leaders, Reverend Julia Jarvis and Rabbi Rain Zohav, discuss why more families are intentionally raising their children with an understanding of both traditions. IFFP member Susan Katz, author of “Being Both: Embracing Two Religions in One Interfaith Family”, explains why more and more families are embracing this grassroots movement. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. The following is a list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with significant treatment of those issues. This list is not exhaustive and the order in which these issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.
United Way	E Station involvement in community	10.2.15	7am-9am + PSA time of 1 Hour, 46 Minutes, 10 Seconds	Donation value $250 + PSA value $20,066	The station participated in the United Way of Southwest Missouri and Southeast Kansas First Friday Coffee held at its offices in Joplin, MO. The coffee was a thank you to supporters of United Way. The station provided its photo booth during the coffee providing free photographs for attendees. The Mission of United Way is to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities around the world to advance the common good. The Goals of United Way of Southwest Missouri and Southeast Kansas: In 2008, United Way World Wide initiated a 10-year program designed to achieve the following goals by 2018: •Improve education, and cut the number of high school dropouts — 1.2 million students, every year — in half. •Help people achieve financial stability, and get 1.9 million working families — half the number of lower-income families who are financially unstable — on the road to economic independence. •Promote healthy lives, and increase by one-third the number of youth and adults who are healthy and avoid risky behaviors. These goals are ambitious, but with your help, and by utilizing our core strengths — a national network, committed partners and public engagement capacity — we can achieve them. The station also produced and aired public service announcements during the quarter promoting the mission of United Way.
Pittsburg State University	E Station involvement in community	10.3.15	9am-11am	N/A	The station parade float and about 10 staff members were part of Pittsburg State University's (Pittsburg, KS) Homecoming Parade.
Education, Children, Families	E Station involvement in community	10.4.1	1pm-7pm	Donation value estimated at $400	The station provided its photo booth free of charge to the Soaring Heights Elementary School Fall Festival on Saturday, October 4, 2015. The festival is a fundraiser for the school's parent teacher organization which helps provide supplies, activities and programs for the school's 400 students and their families. Soaring Heights is also the station's Bright Futures partner school. We currently have over 7,000 students enrolled in Joplin Schools. Each one of them has a name, a face, and a story. 54% of them live in poverty, but they all have hopes and dreams, and each and every one of them deserves a bright future. "Children are the world's most valuable resource and its best hope for the future." — John F. Kennedy- That's where Bright Futures comes in! By helping to create important structures around kids that they need to be successful learners and successful community members, Bright Futures is actively addressing high school dropout rates and the future of Joplin students. One high school dropout can have a ripple affect on the entire community through the loss of productive workers and more. Dropouts are much more likely than their peers who graduate to be unemployed, living in poverty, receiving public assistance, in prison, unhealthy, divorced, and single parents with children who repeat the pattern and drop out of school themselves. Through Bright Futures, we can change dropout rates and reshape Joplin's future by working together. Bright Futures is a grass roots, community based program that creates partnerships and utilizes community resources for the common goal of helping our kids and strengthening our families and community. Bright Futures has created a system of support for our kids that educators can utilize. Bright Futures is about cultural change and building a community where education is important and valued. Each and every student is priceless and it's up to us to help them succeed. As a community, we are responsible for supporting Joplin children. It isn't just up to the parents, the schools, the business community, faith based organizations, or human service agencies to respond to these needs. Together, we can use our resources to make a lasting impact. Together, we can make a difference. Think about what you can do to help Bright Futures, the future of our community depends on it.

Dear Vance,

The Communication Department at Missouri Southern State University is working on plans for our annual "Media Showcase Day" for local high school media students and the "Regional Media Hall of Fame Awards" program recognizing media professionals. You have supported our programs in the past, and we are hoping you may be able to do so again this year.

Media Showcase Day is scheduled for Thursday, December 3. It will bring hundreds of high school media students to the Missouri Southern campus for a day of presentations and awards. The Hall of Fame awards will be presented in April 2016.

Continued support from sponsors for these events helps us provide a first-class program. Last year KOAM - TV provided promotional items for Showcase Day. I hope you will be able to once again help us out with a similar contribution. Your contribution is recognized in our program booklets and news releases.

Please contact me at 417-625-9777 or via e-mail at stiles-j@mssu.edu if you have questions.

Dear Southern Media Showcase Supporter:

Thank you for your financial support of this year's Southern Media Showcase event at Missouri Southern State University. The day was a success, thanks to your support.

We had more than 300 high school students from throughout the region attend the event. The competition featured more than 400 entries in the print and video categories. Our guest speakers this year focused on visual media: Noppadol Paothong from the Missouri Department of Conservation shared his experiences with nature photography and Alonzo Medcalf from KMOV-TV shared experiences as a news videographer.

Your funds helped support the various aspects of the event, including the awards presentations, promotional items, and lunch for students in attendance. We appreciate the support! Our next event will be the Regional Media Hall of Fame awards, set for April 2016. We will be honoring professionals for their career accomplishments.

I have enclosed a copy of the program booklet from Media Showcase Day. We also have a listing of the winning entries on our website, www.mssu.edu/kgcs - under the "Media Showcase" drop box.

Sincerely,

SMART Goals for 2015-2016 Marketing Pathway

11.17.15

Vance

Partnerships – the cornerstone of a CTE program for student involvement in the community and workplace with local and regional businesses. Partnerships are also connections with all educational partners, who include other teachers, parents, the community, organizations, post-secondary institutions/faculty, and industry.

Over the next 3 years, the pathway will work to increase the number of business partners with classes, students and activities by 1 new business partner per year. To increase partnerships, we will update existing and potential partners monthly on student accomplishments and activities such as BPA conferences and class projects. We will also offer opportunities to tour the classrooms and computer labs throughout the school year. During the 2015-2016 school year, we will also discuss and begin planning to place students in local business internships. In 2016-2017, we will place 3 students in internships. In 2017-2018, we will place 5 students in internships.

Physical Environment – the CTE classroom, shop or lab setting where the instruction takes place. It should reflect the needs of the discipline, industry alignment, instructional methods and student needs.

During the 2015-2016 school year a new projector will be installed into the classroom to increase productivity and instructional time. During the 2016-2017 school year, computers will be updated to the most current Microsoft Office software and Adobe Dreamweaver will be installed on 5 computers. During the 2017-2018 school year, Adobe Dreamweaver will be installed on 10 computers.

Professional Development – the continual, pathway-focused training and education required to keep (a) teacher(s) highly qualified. Teacher(s) are ultimately the individual(s) who ensure the other components of a quality pathway are in place consistent with the needs of the educational partners and continually improving.

In the 2015-2016 school year, I will be attending the KBEA conference, the State BPA conference and the BPA National Conference in Boston to further my education of instruction and CTSOs. In the 2016-2017 school year, I will be attending the KBEA conference, the State BPA conference and the BPA National Conference in Orlando to further my education of instruction and CTSOs. In the 2017-2018 school year, I will be attending the KBEA conference, the State BPA conference and the BPA National Conference in Dallas to further my education of instruction and CTSOs. I also plan on beginning the masters program at Pittsburg State University.

Instructional Strategies – the practices used to reach all students in a CTE pathway experience. These strategies enhance the learning experience through the implementation of research-based concepts and innovation.

During the 2015-2016 school year, a sports and marketing computer simulation will be incorporated into the Marketing and Sports and Entertainment marketing class to better engage students. During the 2016-2017 school year, mock interviews will be held with the Marketing and Business Communications to equip students with real-life experience in the workforce. Another simulation will be purchased to be used in the Business Communications class. During the 2017-2018 school year, all business classes will participate in the mock interview process and a third simulation will be purchased to be used in the Integrated Marketing Applications class.

Dear Vance Lewis,

You may remember the movie "It's A Wonderful Life" toward the end, after the community has responded to meet George Bailey's need, he's holding his daughter, Zuzu, in his arms. She hears a bell ring on the Christmas tree and says, "Teacher says, when a bell rings an angel gets his wings." George's reply? A quiet "Atta boy, Clarence."

George was remembering how Clarence (his guardian angel working for his wings) had just taught him a valuable lesson. George was not only celebrating how his community had responded to meet his need, he was also celebrating how his community was so much better because they cared for one another and helped each other in times of need. He saw what life would be like if people did not care, and he didn't like it.

Today, I am celebrating like George did. I watched our community as it responded to student needs. I've seen families given a Christmas who might not have had one. I've seen students who needed coats, gloves or shoes receive them from our generous community. I've watched people drive up with sacks of new items they had just purchased for Joplin students. Their comment was, "I'll be back! I heard that another store in town is having a great sale on children's coats. I'll go get some more!" And they came back, with more.

It seems that I am hearing more and more bells this year. Each time I hear one, I remember Zuzu's clear statement of an angel getting his wings. I find myself, just like George, giving an "atta boy."

George had Clarence. Me? I have you. People, like you, who have gone out of their way to make a difference in a young person's life. People who are getting their wings and changing the future by caring and giving. When we say "atta boy" or "atta girl," it's because we are thankful for you.

Thank you for your generous gift of promotional items. We simply could not do what we do without caring people like you.

Serving together,

Dale Peterson

Compass Quest is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation that assists veterans and their families in the Southwest Missouri region. Our mission is to remove barriers that hinder the pursuit of wellness by providing navigational assistance to veterans in the community to obtain local, regional, and national services. Compass Quest also engages in supportive programs that include veteran peer support, art and writing therapy, medical transportation, referrals, team building activities and Veteran Affairs claims assistance. Compass Quest was founded by two veterans to provide peer to peer support to other veterans. Compass Quest is effective at providing compassionate understanding that has an impact on the veterans we serve. Our concept has attracted like-minded individuals to join this endeavor and our Board of Directors is comprised of other passionate veterans. Therefore, Compass Quest adheres to our maxim: "Veterans Helping Veterans Find the Way Forward". Veterans face unique issues that include reintegration, belonging, usefulness, homelessness, coping difficulties, Post-Traumatic Stress, and higher unemployment or under-employment. We help them overcome the obstacles they face and connect them with services that assist with these issues. The pursuit of wellness is more than an individual endeavor. Social, environmental, economic and other external factors significantly influence the wellness of both individuals and the communities of which they are a part. We are pursuing a Veteran Wellness Model that aids in recovery and adjustment and provides a foundation for physical and psychological well-being. We believe this is a community effort and we are harnessing the appropriate local resources so we have engaged and collaborative business, nonprofit, Veteran Service Organizations and municipal agencies. Our vision is to have a veteran walk-in community center that can be a single stop shop for information, support, referral, activities, as well as a safe haven when needed. It will be family friendly and it will be operated by veteran volunteers that understand the issues and speak from a common background.

In 2006, with a rapidly expanding waiting list, the program transitioned to commercial airline carriers to accommodate more veterans. That same year Honor Flight partnered with Honor Air in Hendersonville, North Carolina and Hero Flight in Provo, Utah to establish the national "Honor Flight Network" which has expanded aggressively to include cities across the nation. By 2007 official Network hubs had been established in 32 cities, including Springfield, MO, to localize community commitment, operational planning, and fund-raising. Today, there are 132 regional hubs in the United States. There are also several thousand veterans on a national registry waiting up to one year to secure a Honor Flight in their area. We believe people are basically good but sometimes just need a reminder. We also believe that the positive values we live by are worth more when we pass them on. The goal of The Foundation for A Better Life is to offer inspirational messages to people everywhere as a contribution toward promoting good values, good role models and a better life. We choose values we hope most individuals would find encouraging and relevant. Then we provide an uplifting message based on each value, in an effort to encourage people to bring out the best in themselves. As a nonpartisan, nonsectarian organization, we carefully design our public service messages to have general universal appeal. The foundation's small staff works with a network of writers, art directors and production professionals. These individuals represent a wide range of ideals, viewpoints and cultural backgrounds. Their diversity enriches the idea that values can serve as common ground for all. As a nonprofit organization offering public service announcements, we receive the generous support of air time and media space from many TV, radio and billboard companies. The Foundation does not pay for air time or media space, but rather benefits from donated media space which allows these messages to be seen and heard around the world. About the Pass It On® TV Commercials: The Foundation for A Better Life has produced award-winning public service television messages, which are designed to uplift viewers with positive values.
