Prosecutors say she influenced Roy, via text messages, to kill himself. On July 12, 2014, Conrad Roy died of carbon monoxide poisoning after sitting in his truck with a gas-powered water pump running in the backseat. Prosecutors say Roy was driven to kill himself through hundreds of incessant messages from Carter, who was more than 30 minutes away at the time he died. Carter was later charged with involuntary manslaughter. Her defense team maintains Roy decided to kill himself on his own. As seen through his own videos, Conrad Roy talked about his own struggles with social anxiety, depression and thoughts of suicide. His mother Lynn Roy, also talks about the death of her son and the pain she lives with. Though they lived an hour apart in Massachusetts, the couple communicated almost exclusively via texts, online and by phone. The prosecution maintained Carter could have done something to stop Roy. The heart of the case is the question of whether Carter's texts and messages pushed Roy to take his life, or would he have done it anyway. Prosecutors argued Carter played on Roy's mental health and her actions were reckless; she knew what she was doing and just wanted attention. The defense maintains Carter had her own psychological problems and was involuntarily intoxicated by the antidepressant drug Celexa: she was enmeshed in the delusion that it was a good thing to help him die. The prosecution hoped the judge paid attention to the text Carter sent to her friend a week after his death, in which she admitted she could possibly go to jail. After three days of deliberation, the judge rendered his verdict, completely rejecting Carter's defense and finding her guilty. At sentencing, Michelle Carter could receive twenty years behind bars. The Roy family knows words have power, and they can forever change lives. UPDATE for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Nearly seven weeks after being convicted, Michelle Carter, arrives for sentencing. The prosecution asked that Carter serve 7-12 years in prison. Her attorney requests probation. Judge Lawrence Moniz sentences Michelle Carter to fifteen months behind bars – a sentence that does not please the defense, who will appeal the conviction. Her attorneys request to stay the jail sentence. The judge grants the stay, meaning Michelle will be out on probation until the appeal makes its way through the Massachusetts court system. Neither Michelle nor her family, have reached out to the Roy family. UPDATE for the 01/18/20 updated rebroadcast: In February of 2019, Michelle Carter's conviction was upheld and she began serving her 15-month sentence. Her lawyers appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court. This week, the court declined to hear her appeal. Lynn Roy's focus now is on changing laws. On-screen text graphic for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2 million wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. The goal is to establish a memorial for Conrad. On-screen text graphic for the 09/22/18 rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2-million-dollar wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. On-screen text graphic for the 01/18/20 updated rebroadcast: Conrad's Law, criminalizing suicide coercion, has been introduced in the Massachusetts legislature. 48 HOURS (continued)

01/18/20 48 HOURS: "Chacey Poynter: Witness to Murder" (10:00 – 11:00p) – In September 2016, University Park Fire Department Captain Robert Poynter was shot and killed while sitting in his wife Chacey Poynter's Jeep on a deserted county road in Royse City, Texas. Chacey told police she called her husband for help after her Jeep got stuck in the mud and when Robert got in to help move her vehicle, he was shot by an unknown man. Investigators were skeptical of her story. When questioned by the police, Chacey admitted to multiple affairs and ongoing marital problems, including abuse. She eventually confessed to knowing the identity of the man who killed her husband -- Michael Garza, one of her lovers. Chacey claimed it was Michael who set the trap, so he could confront Robert and demand he leave her alone. On September 10, 2016, Chacey was arrested and charged with conspiracy to commit murder. Michael turned himself in and was charged with murder. The shotgun used to murder Robert belonged to Michael's brother and was recovered by a farmer near where Robert was shot. Recovered digital evidence proved Chacey had groomed Michael. On July 10, 2018, Michael went on trial and testified that he believed Robert was abusing Chacey and implicated her as the shooter. On July 20th, Michael was found guilty and sentenced to 99-years in prison. At Chacey's trial, prosecutors maintained she was the mastermind and her motive was to collect Robert's life insurance policy; she was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison, with the possibility of parole in 30-years. On-screen text graphic: Robert Poynter's life insurance benefits were split among his three daughters. Chacey's mother and stepfather share custody of the couple's daughter with Robert Poynter's parents. Interviewed: Chacey Poynter, Robert's wife and convicted murderer; Detective Michael Burk, Royse City Police Department; Sergeant Shane Meek, Royse City Police Department; Jason Salisbury, Paul Falkenhagen, Mark McAdams, and Earl Starnes, firefighters, University Park Fire Department and friends of Robert's; Natalie and Nicole Poynter, Robert's daughters; Amy Poynter, Robert's ex-wife; Jeff Kovach, Assistant Hunt County District Attorney; Calvin Grogan, First Assistant District Attorney, Hunt County; Scott Cornuau and Frank Hughes, Chacey's defense attorneys. 01/25/20 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Murder on Prom Night" – On Sunday, April 30, 1989, police responded to a crime scene at the Lakeville, Indiana home of the Pelley family. Reverend Bob Pelley was found in an upstairs hallway; wife Dawn and young daughters Janel and Jolene were in the basement -- all shot at close range with a shotgun. Nine-year-old Jessica Pelley -- now known as Jessi Toronjo - returned from a sleepover at a friend's house to the news that her mother, stepfather, and sisters were murdered. Police questioned Bob's 17-year-old son Jeff and later learned Bob had grounded him over the prom; police believed they had a clear motive, but no forensic evidence to prosecute. Thirteen years after the crime, a new prosecutor believed there was enough evidence and Jeff was arrested and charged with four counts of murder. In 2006, he was found guilty and sentenced to a hundred and sixty years in prison. Jeff's defense lawyer filed an appeal and his convictions were set aside on a number of procedural grounds. He remained in custody and in February 2009, the Indiana State Supreme Court upheld the conviction. Currently, Jeff's new defense team is working on his release by filing a motion for post-conviction relief. Jessi changed her name and appearance as a way to cope with the tragedy. After she tried to kill herself, Jessi was diagnosed with DID, dissociative identity disorder. On April 29, 2019 -- the thirty year anniversary of the murders -- I am Jessica was published. On-screen text graphic: The Indiana University McKinney Wrongful Conviction Clinic is representing Jeff Pelley. Interviewed: Jessi Toronjo, survivor; Stephanie Fagan, Jessi's childhood friend; Jamie Collins, Jessi's cousin; Mark Sender, former Indiana State Police detective; John Botich, former St. Joseph County detective; Frank Schaffer, former chief deputy prosecutor; Alan Baum, Jeff Pelley's defense attorney; and Dakota Toronjo, Jessi's daughter. The Zimovs project aims to cool the permafrost by returning the land to its Ice Age appearance and reviving the extinct woolly mammoth using DNA. Interviewed: Sergey Zimov; Max Holmes, leading climate scientist and deputy director at the Woods Hole Research Center in Massachusetts; Nikita Zimov, Sergey's son; George Church, geneticist at Harvard University, who is assisting the Zimovs. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster) (OAD: 03/31/19; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/07/19)

Scientists blame climate change for the extended fire season, saying the environment has become increasingly hot and dry at an alarming rate. Includes interviews with Marilyn Mills, bush fire victim; Greg Mullins, a fire captain; Joelle Gergis, climate scientist at the Australian National University; and Malcolm Turnbull, former Australian prime minister. (C: Holly Williams – P: Draggan Mihailovich, Jacqueline Williams)

"The Server" – a report on President Trump's phone call to President Zelensky of Ukraine regarding a Democratic National Committee server, which ultimately led to his impeachment. After the 2016 election and Russian hack of DNC servers, U.S. intelligence agencies found the Russian government aided in Trump's win. When the DNC submitted a copy of the server data to the FBI, Trump attempted to discredit the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence's findings. This modern spin involves stripping down the original piece; there is no intermission and features a simple 'black box' performance space. A challenge to update due to its highly regarded status among musical lovers, the new musical attempts to meet expectations with a high performance quality – dances have been revamped to reflect street style and the cast reflects the city's diversity. Includes interviews with Ivo Van Hove, director; Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker, choreographer; Scott Rudin, producer; Shereen Pimentel, who plays Maria; and Isaac Powell, who plays Tony. After a complicated birth, Whitaker underwent eleven surgeries in an attempt to restore his eyesight with no success. 48 HOURS

02/01/20 48 HOURS: “The Death of Todd Stermer” – Linda Stermer, a Michigan woman accused of setting fire to her family home and murdering her husband, Todd Stermer, speaks out for the first time. On January 7, 2007, the Stermers’s house caught fire. Linda got out safely and went to the family’s van to get help. Todd made it out of the house but was horribly burned. After escaping the fire, Todd was run over by Linda. Though Linda maintains it was an accident, investigators were suspicious of her account. After the death of Todd Stermer, allegations of domestic abuse, battles over money, and accusations Linda was having an affair surfaced. In June 2009, Linda was charged with arson and murder. On January 5, 2010, Linda went on trial and maintained she doesn’t know how the fire started, and the running over of her husband was an accident. Prosecutors built their case on circumstantial evidence focusing on Linda’s actions before and after the fire. Her sons testified that on the day of the murder she pushed them out of the house and believe she drugged their father. A former friend of Linda’s testified she was having an affair with a co-worker. Linda was convicted of arson and murder and sentenced to life without parole. After serving 5 years, her appeal was denied in the Michigan Supreme Court. In 2016, her new attorney submitted her amended petition to the Federal Courts, blaming her conviction on her trial attorney’s decision to not hire a fire expert. In 2018, a Federal Judge Tarnow held Linda’s evidentiary hearing and two months later issued his ruling; after serving almost nine years in prison, Linda was released and her conviction overturned. The Michigan State Attorney General is appealing the Federal Court decision. Linda attended her hearing on December 3, 2019 and is currently awaiting the Federal Court’s decision. On-screen text graphic: FORTY-EIGHT HOURS will bring you the Federal Court’s decision as soon as it’s handed down. - 02/08/20 48 HOURS: "Karrie's Choice" (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the death of Michele Neurauter – a parent in the midst of a bitter custody battle who was possibly killed by her daughter. In 2017, Michele Neurauter was found hanging in her home in Corning, New York in what appeared to be a suicide. Police were troubled because a rope mark was found on her chin. Michele's mother, Jeanne Laundy, pointed the finger at Michele's ex-husband, Lloyd Neurauter, though he was in California at the time. Police later learned he stopped less than 100 miles away from the crime scene before he flew to California, after helping his daughter Karrie move into an apartment in Rochester, NY. Police began listening in to their conversations, which led to the father and daughter being charged with murder months later. Michele had accused Lloyd of trying to turn Karrie against her. Police believed Karrie was manipulated and brainwashed. Karrie pleaded guilty to second-degree murder charges. Weeks before the trial, Lloyd plead guilty and was sentenced to life without parole. The District Attorney had Karrie's charges reduced to second-degree manslaughter and she was sentenced to 1-3 years in prison. On-screen text graphic: Shortly after her sentencing in December 2018, Karrie Neurauter went before the parole board. Her parole application was denied. - 02/08/20 48 HOURS: "The Case Against Ezra McCandless" (10:00- 11:00p) – an investigation into the 2018 death of Alex Woodworth. On March 22, 2018, Ezra McCandless appeared at the home of dairy farmer Don Sipple, near Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Ezra claimed she was a victim of assault and Sipple called 911. Ezra's details were hazy at first, but eventually named ex-boyfriend Alex Woodworth as her attacker. Police discovered Woodworth's body on a deserted road near the dairy farm. Ezra told investigators Alex carved the word "boy" into her arm and then attacked her. The evidence did not match Ezra's account. Ezra was arrested and charged with first-degree intentional homicide. At the trial, Ezra took the stand in her own defense and tried to portray herself as a meek and timid young woman incapable of murder. Prosecutors believed Ezra committed the crime to attract the attention of her former boyfriend, Jason Mengel. Ezra is found guilty of first-degree intentional homicide and sentenced to life in prison. Ezra must serve a minimum of 50-years before she is eligible for release. Interviewed: Don Sipple, dairy farmer; Andrea Nodolf, Dunn County District Attorney; Jason Mengel, Ezra's ex-boyfriend; Marv Woodworth, Alex's grandfather; John Woodworth, Alex's father; Detective Ryan Prock, Eau Claire Police Department; Julia Post, Ezra's childhood friend; Woman #3, juror. - 02/15/20 48 HOURS: "The Plot to Kill Dr. Sievers" – a follow-up to "Eleven Hundred Miles to Murder" (OAD: 02/18/17), a report on the 2015 murder of Dr. Teresa Sievers, murdered in her Bonita Springs, Florida home and the subsequent investigation. Police initially suspected her husband Mark Sievers, but he had an airtight alibi. A tip led police on a 1,100-mile trek that took the case in an unexpected direction. Mark Sievers believed there might be a tie to other suspicious deaths of doctors around the country. Eventually, Mark Sievers became a person of interest. Two months after the murder, police arrested two men in Missouri and charged them with Dr. Sievers's murder: Curtis Wayne Wright and Jimmy Ray Rogers traveled from Missouri to Florida and murdered Dr. Sievers. Wright, a close friend of Mark Sievers, told police that Mark had taken out five life insurance policies on Dr. Sievers, had an open marriage, money problems, and other serious issues. Eight months after the murder, Wright admitted to killing Dr. Sievers and accused Mark Sievers of being the mastermind behind the crime. Mark Sievers was then charged with the murder of his wife. Curtis Wayne Wright plead guilty to the second-degree murder of Teresa Sievers and testified that it was Mark's idea to kill Teresa. In exchange for his testimony, he will serve 25-years in prison. In October 2019, Rodgers went on trial and was convicted of second-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. A month later while still maintain his innocence, Mark Sievers went on trial and was convicted of first-degree murder in the death of his wife. In addition to the guilty verdict, the jury asked the judge to sentence Sievers to death. On January 3, 2020, Mark Sievers was sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: The Sievers daughters, now teenagers, are being raised by Teresa's family. 02/22/20 48 HOURS: "In Jason's Name" (9:00 - 10:00p) – a report on the 2015 death of Jason Corbett, an Irish businessman, killed by his American au-pair-turned-wife and her father. After his wife died, Corbett hired American Molly Martens to care for his children. Their relationship soon turned romantic and they married, moving to the United States. Tracy Lynch, Corbett's sister, says that before his death, Jason professed his unhappiness in the marriage. She believes Molly acted in fear of the family's separation. Both Molly and her father, former FBI agent Tom Martens, maintain Jason had become abusive and they acted in self-defense when he tried to strangle Molly during an argument. The prosecution said it was murder. They were both convicted of second-degree murder in 2017, but have maintained their innocence. Lynch and the children went back to Ireland. In 2019, the state appeals court moved to allow oral arguments in the case. Lynch waits for the appeals court's decision and has written a book about the case. 02/22/20 48 HOURS: "The Life and Death of Amie Harwick" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on the death of Hollywood family therapist and author, Amie Harwick. On the morning of February 15, Los Angeles police responded to a call of a "women screaming;" they found 38-year-old Harwick lying unresponsive beneath the third-floor balcony of her home. Police found evidence of a struggle and forced entry. The cause of death was ruled to be blunt force injuries to the head and torso, with medical examiners finding evidence of strangulation. Harwick's friends led investigators to her ex-boyfriend, Gareth Pursehouse. After dating in 2011, the relationship allegedly turned abusive. In 2012, a restraining order was filed against Pursehouse by Harwick. At the time of her death, the restraining order against Pursehouse had expired. Four days after Harwick's death, Pursehouse was charged with one count of murder and first-degree residential burglary with a special circumstance allegation of lying in wait. He could face a minimum sentence of life in prison without the possibility of parole, and possibly the death penalty. He has not yet entered a plea. The death of Harwick, who was once romantically linked to THE PRICE IS RIGHT host Drew Carey, has put a spotlight on domestic abuse. This broadcast also contains follow-up interviews with stalking victims Peggy and Katherine, both former 48 HOURS subjects. On-screen text graphic: Amie's parents, Penny and Tom Harwick, provided this statement: "We are heartbroken. 48 HOURS: "The Case Against Sandra Garner" – a report on the murder of Jon Garner and the trial of his wife, Sandra, accused of the crime. In January 2018, Maypearl, Texas police responded to Sandra Garner's 911 call about her husband, Jon, having been shot by a home intruder. Officer Boyd Norton was aided in the investigation by Ellis County Sheriff Shane Thompson. After questioning Sandra and her son Wes, police began to consider her a suspect. They found suspicious search queries on her electronic devices as well as a gun matching the one used to kill Jon stashed under the front seat of her car. Sandra was arrested for Jon's murder. In September 2019, Sandra's trial began. In court, prosecutor Lindy Beaty mocked Sandra's story, but privately she and co-prosecutor Ricky Sipes, were unsure of the strength of their cases based on errors in the police's investigation: police took too long to respond to Sandra's call and secure the crime scene, they failed to fingerprint Sandra's car, and a series of crime scene photos Officer Norton took disappeared from his phone. Prosecutors also lacked a motive for Sandra, but could ascribe a financial motive to Wes, whose alibi also turned out to not be valid and proved much of the information against Sandra. After three hours of deliberation, the jury returned a not guilty verdict. Sandra was released, but much of her family still believes she is Jon's killer. Sandra and her daughter no longer speak to Wes. On-screen text graphic: Jon Garner's family believes Wes was not involved in Jon's murder. They remain close to him. Interviewed: Sandra Garner; Chief Boyd Norton, Maypearl Police investigator; Sheriff Shane Thompson, Ellis County Sheriff's Office investigator; Andrea Miller, Sandra's daughter; Jessica Garner, married to Jon's cousin; Tom Pappas, Sandra's trial attorney; Lindy Beaty, trial co-prosecutor; and Ricky Sipes, trial co-prosecutor. 48 HOURS: "Broken Hearts" – a report on how the death of Karen Ermert was connected to a lifesaving heart transplant for Eva Baisey. Gene Weingarten, a writer for The Washington Post, had the idea that reporting on any single day could encapsulate the entire human experience. He and Editor Tom Shroder, placed twenty years of dates into a hat and randomly chose December 28, 1986. This led Weingarten to Detective Tommy Lee, who had been holding onto the file for Karen Ermert's case for decades. In Fairfax County, Virginia in the 1980s, Karen was in a relationship with Mark Willey. According to Mark's friend Rich Lieb, Mark was very possessive and jealous; he stalked Karen and committed acts of physical violence against her. In 1986, Karen broke up with Mark. On the evening of December 26th, an intoxicated Mark climbed a tree and entered Karen's apartment in an attempt to reconcile; she refused. Mark retrieved a rifle from his car and killed her and then himself. Elsewhere in the county, Eva Baisey -- a 20 year old nursing student at Fairfax Hospital -- needed a heart transplant. At the time, it was illegal to perform the surgery at any Washington D.C. area hospitals. Dr. Ed Lefrak, chief of cardiac surgery at Fairfax Hospital, recruited celebrated surgeon Dr. Christiaan Barnard to lobby the state health commissioner on Lefrak's behalf. Barnard was successful -- all that was left was to wait for a donor. On December 27, 1986, a viable heart became available from Mark Willey, whose suicide had left him braindead, but his heart was still beating. The next day, Dr. Lefrak replaced Eva's heart. Though her procedure was successful, Eva was told she would never be allowed to work in healthcare due to fears over her susceptibility to disease. However, as Eva's life expectancy projection climbed, that restriction was removed and she was able to begin a career in nursing. Eva continues to have a celebratory anniversary call with her transplant team every December 28th. She finally learned the source of her heart when Gene Weingarten published his book in 2019; Eva expressed remorse and gratitude toward Mark's family. Rich Lieb was happy that Karen Ermert's death allowed Eva to live. On-screen text graphic: To sign up to be an organ donor visit the National Donate Life Registry at Registerme.org. Interviewed: Gene Weingarten, writer for The Washington Post; Detective Tommy Lee, Fairfax Police; Rich Lieb, friend of Karen Ermert; Dr. Ed Lefrak, chief of cardiac surgery, Fairfax Hospital; Mary Dellinger, surgical nurse; Deidre Carolan Doerflinger, Eva's primary care nurse; Eva Baisey, heart transplant recipient; Mary Beth Maydosz, transplant coordinator; Antonio Baisey, Eva's son. 03/21/20

48 HOURS: "The Troubling Case Against Kevin Cooper" (10:00 - 11:00p) – an update to a 2019 report on the controversial murder case against California death row inmate Kevin Cooper, who was convicted of the 1983 murder of Doug and Penny Ryen, their daughter Jessica, and friend Christopher Hughes in Chino Hills, California. Eight-year-old Josh Ryen, though seriously wounded, survived the attack. 48 HOURS has been investigating Kevin Cooper's case ever since he wrote to Erin Moriarty two decades ago, proclaiming his innocence. After the June 4, 1983 murders, Josh indicated to police three white people were responsible. Police eventually decided Josh was wrong with his identification and recent prison escapee Kevin Cooper seemed to fit the bill because he had hidden near the Ryen home. Cooper was paraded before cameras and the trial became racially charged because Cooper is black. Blood evidence, but none of Cooper's fingerprints, were found at the scene. The trial was moved to San Diego and Josh testified by video, but his memory was hazy and he no longer remembered the attackers. Cooper, who always denied the murders, was convicted and sentenced to death. Dr. Mary Howell, Josh's grandmother, was not convinced that Cooper was guilty. By 2000, Cooper was still on death row. Questions remained and Josh, then eighteen-years-old, was still unsure Cooper was there. Private investigator Paul Ingels felt the case deserved a second look; his investigation led to a number of new leads, including potential suspect Lee Furrow, who the police initially discounted. Furrow denied responsibility. In 2001, an agreement was made for additional DNA testing, but the 2002 post-conviction DNA test results did not exonerate Cooper, and significant issues were raised regarding the process. In 2008, Dr. Mary Howell died. After the state of California agreed to DNA testing, the lab results all pointed to Cooper, but many maintain the evidence was tampered with. After nineteen years on death row, the 9th Circuit federal appellate court stayed Cooper's execution. New York Times journalist Nicholas Kristof wrote an Op-Ed article about the case and former FBI agent Tom Parker was hired by Norman Hile, Cooper's defense attorney, to re-investigate. New attention was given to Lee Furrow, following information from witnesses that three white men splattered with blood, were seen in a nearby bar on the night of the crime. At the end of 2018, Governor Jerry Brown ordered new DNA testing and a retired judge was appointed to make sure the tests are done properly. 03/21/20 UPDATE: In March 2019, new California Governor Gavin Newsom ordered additional DNA testing, including a vial that contained Cooper's blood; he also suspended all state executions. The tests were carried out, however the DNA on the items -- except for on an orange towel -- was too degraded to provide conclusive results. The results from the towel did not match Cooper, Lee Furrow, or anyone in the CODIS national database. Defense attorney and DNS specialist Bicka Barlow discovered the vial containing Cooper's 1983 blood sample was empty. Investigator Tom Parker found two new witnesses who claim Furrow confessed to the crime. Cooper's defense team has asked Governor Newsom to look into their claims of evidence tampering. On-screen text graphic: Further test results are expected within the next few months. Interviewed: Paul Ingels (private investigator); Dr. Mary Howell (Josh Ryen's maternal grandmother); Floyd Tidwell (former San Bernardino County Sheriff); Josh Ryen (survivor, interviewed as a 28-year old); Dale Sharp (Deputy Sheriff); Dennis Kottmeier (District Attorney); Norman Hile (Cooper's defense attorney); Lee Furrow (suspect); Diana Roper (Furrow's former girlfriend, now deceased); Christine Slonaker and Mary Wolfe (witnesses at the bar); Nicholas Kristoff (journalist, The New York Times); Tom Parke (former FBI Agent); Judge William Fletcher; Michael Ramos (current District Attorney); Dr. Paul Krane (DNA expert); Kevin Cooper (telephone interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty); and Bicka Barlow (Defense attorney / DNA specialist) (See also: (48 HOURS MYSTERIES) "A Grandmother's Mission", OAD: 10/26/00; 1st rebroadcast: 08/03/01; 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Truth", OAD: 09/17/03 - a follow-up to "A Grandmother's Mission"; and 48 HOURS: "Letter from San Quentin" (9:00 - 10:00p) and "Was Kevin Cooper Framed?" 48 HOURS: “Lizzie Borden Took an Axe...” – a report detailing the 1892 murder accusations against Lizzie Borden and a mock trial with modern forensics experts, attorneys, and jurors. The Borden family lived in Fall River, Massachusetts. Despite his wealth, Andrew Borden was known to be very frugal. He lived in a house that lacked indoor plumbing and gas lighting, with daughters Emma and Lizzie, and second wife Abby. On August 4th, 1892, Lizzie alerted her neighbor that her father had been killed. The neighbor noted that there was no blood on her. When police arrived, they found Andrew in the sitting room and Abby in an upstairs room – both had been hacked to death. Emma had been away visiting friends and was not at the house. Five days later, Lizzie was able to give her version of events during the police inquest. Police were able to construct a timeline for the murders and when looking for a motive, focused on how Lizzie and Emma begrudged their father for his frugality and for buying a house for his wife’s sister, rather than the two of them. Other than around the bodies, the only blood found in the house was a spot on one of Lizzie’s undergarments and the bloody rags in the basement. Lizzie explained both were the result of her menstruating, and the primitiveness of forensics at the time did not allow for further testing. Police were also suspicious that the day after her father’s funeral, Lizzie burned a dress in the stove and claimed it was ruined from paint. Initially lacking a murder weapon, police later found a hatchet head covered with ash in the basement; the handle appeared to have been freshly broken off. Witnesses claimed to have seen Lizzie’s failed attempt to buy prussic acid, a powerful poison. Lizzie was arrested for murder at the close of the inquest. On June 5, 1893, Lizzie’s trial began in New Bedford, MA. Over the course of a week, the prosecution laid out their case with expert witnesses and medical testimony, but the judge did not allow them to mention Lizzie’s attempt to buy poison. The defense teams spent two days attempting to raise reasonable doubt. After two hours of deliberation, the all-male jury returned with a not guilty verdict. Following her acquittal, Lizzie and Emma used their inheritance to buy a large house in the rich part of town, however, Lizzie was shunned from the church that had brought her solace and Emma too eventually left her. She lived as a recluse until her death in June of 1927. Emma would pass away nine days later. Both were laid to rest near Andrew and Abby. Nevertheless, popular culture has cast Lizzie Borden as one of America’s most notorious killers. Los Angeles author Cara Robertson first became interested in Lizzie Borden when searching a subject for her college thesis; thirty years later, Simon & Schuster published her book, “The Trial of Lizzie Borden.” Using a jury recruiting firm and paid jurors, a modern Lizzie Borden trial is staged with Anna-Sigga Niccolazzi as prosecutor; Matthew Troiano for the defense; and Erin Rubas and Andrew Schweighardt as expert witnesses. Both attorneys would only be able to use evidence presented at the original trial. The eight jurors deliberated, with attorneys allowed to listen in. After one hour, a vote was taken: on the first count, the murder of Abby Borden, it was a hung jury with only one juror voting not guilty; on the second count, the murder of Andrew Borden, it was again a hung jury, with two not guilty votes. Interviewed: Cara Robertson, author; Anna-Sigga Niccolazzi, former prosecutor, Brooklyn district attorney; Matthew Troiano, defense attorney; Erin Rubas, crime scene investigator, former homicide detective; and Andrew Schweighardt, criminalist, New York City Office of the Chief Medical Examiner.
