- 01/11/15 “Colorado Pot” – a report on Colorado’s progress after becoming the first state to legalize the recreational use of marijuana as of January 1, 2014. Dispensaries of the green drug are thriving, however most banks refuse to handle the profit due to federal regulations, causing marijuana businesses to be conducted almost entirely in cash. Nebraska and Oklahoma are suing to have the U.S. Supreme Court declare Colorado’s recreational pot market unconstitutional, claiming marijuana is crossing their borders. Includes interviews with: Meg Sanders, CEO of Mindful, a chain of four marijuana retail stores; Phillip Hague, Mindful’s master grower; John Jackson, Greenwood Village Police Chief; Andrew Freedman, Colorado’s Director of Marijuana Coordination; and Governor John Hickenlooper (D-CO) (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)
- “Obamacare” – a report on the controversy surrounding certain aspects of the Affordable Care Act, or “Obamacare”, namely its failure to control costs involving hospital care and profits for prescription drug companies. Interviewed are: (1) Steven Brill, author of “America’s Bitter Pill”, who contends that although more Americans are obtaining health insurance, “Obamacare” neglects to drive down the cost of health care and leaves taxpayers left to cover the bill. (2) Stephanie and Sean Recchi, “Obamacare” participants who signed up for Medicaid in Ohio, their home state. Sean Recchi was treated for cancer at MD Anderson in Houston and is now facing a bill for eighty-four thousand dollars -- because Texas does not recognize their plan. (3) Jeffrey Romoff, CEO, University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, who advocates the decision of his top-ranked medical research center to have its own health insurance company. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)
- “Up” – a report on The Heroes Project, founded by former Hells Angels biker Tim Medvetz. Its rigorous mountain climbing program challenges and helps wounded war veterans heal emotionally, as they fight to ascend some of the world’s tallest summits. The report focuses on Afghanistan war veteran Marine Corps Private First Class Isaac Blunt, and his journey to climb Mount Kosciuszko (Australia) with Medvetz, two years after losing his legs. Includes interviews with: Tim Medvetz, founder of The Heroes Project; PFC Isaac Blunt; and three other participants in The Heroes Project: Marine Corporal Kionte Storey; Staff Sergeant Mark Zambon; and Corporal Brad Ivanchan. (C: Lara Logan – P: Coleman Cowan, Max McClellan)
- 01/18/15 PREEMPTED
- 01/25/15 “The Republican Leaders” – an interview with Speaker of the House of Representatives John Boehner (R-OH) and Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY), recorded at the Capitol after President Obama’s State of the Union address on January 20th. Among the topics they discuss are: State of the Union address; taxes and income inequality; free college tuition; minimum wage increase; foreign policy; immigration reform; the Tea Party within the Republican Party; terrorist threats like ISIS (ISIL); and Iran’s nuclear program. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)
- “The Cleveland Division” – a report on the division between the police and the public in the city of Cleveland, Ohio. The Cleveland Police Department is under investigation by the Justice Department for widespread use of excessive force. Protesters echoed this notion after the recent killing of twelve-year-old Tamir Rice, who was shot and killed by a rookie Cleveland police officer. The city’s chief of police, Calvin Williams, is attempting to reform the department. Includes interview with: Cleveland Police Chief Calvin Williams; Cleveland officers Shane Bauhof and Eric Newton; Cassandra and Joell Anderson, the mother and brother of Tanisha Anderson, a mentally ill woman who died after the use of excessive force by police in an attempt to take her to a hospital. 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Soul Survivor" - a report about Robin Doan, who as a young girl in 2005, played dead to live through the murders of her entire family as they slept in their beds. Before that night, the now 20-year-old Doan was a typical 10-year-old girl in a hardworking family of farmers in Pampa, Texas. They became the targets of an intruder who enjoyed killing just for the thrill of it. The immediate investigation yielded few clues. Doan, however, had a remarkable ability to recall the details of that traumatic night. Investigators would later learn that the gunman who killed Doan's family had killed before, hundreds of miles away in Missouri. A day before the Pampa shootings, Orlie McCool and his daughter-in-law Dawn were killed and the family pickup stolen. Levi King was later found behind the wheel of the stolen vehicle in El Paso, Texas. He also told law enforcement that there were four more bodies in Texas. King told law enforcement officers that the feeling he got from killing the McCools was better than any drug he had ever done. This was the lead needed to solve the Pampa murders. Robin Doan was willing to help by testifying about the night her family was gunned down while they slept. King took a plea deal in Missouri -- to avoid execution he agreed to two consecutive life sentences without the possibility of parole. In Texas, he also took a guilty plea, but the DA refused to take the death penalty off the table. Robin testified at the trial. There was one holdout for the death penalty; King received a life sentence. He will serve his time in Missouri. Robin Doan is satisfied. On-screen text graphic: Robin has decided to leave Pampa. She plans to visit often. Interviewed: Robin Doan; Chad Brooks (former deputy sheriff); Gary Henderson (former Sheriff, Hemphill County); Lynn Switzer (former District Attorney); Lynn Hancock (Pastor, Briarwood Church); Jay Foster (Texas Ranger); Matthew McCool (McCool family member); Michael Hall (sheriff); Don Ruby (former deputy sheriff); Joe Marr Wilson (defense attorney); Denise Mackie (Robin's friend) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ruth Chenetz)

48 HOURS: "The Ultimatum" - a report on the investigation into the murder of Vanessa Mintz, who was gunned down at the family-owned Saluda Mountain Lodge, in Saluda, North Carolina on Saturday, February 19, 2011. Mintz, whose family had long-standing ties to the area, had married early in life, divorced and raised two daughters, Jessica Freeman and Andrea Little Gray, as well as becoming a respected businesswoman, realtor and mentor to young girls. Police investigation at the lodge found a crucial piece of evidence only the killer could have left, but questions remained: did Mintz know her killer or was it a random robbery that went bad? The investigation took the case in another direction when police found out that her husband, Travis McGraw, was secretly dating Mary Beth Fisher. His cell phone records revealed he was sending intimate text messages to Fisher. Fisher claims McGraw had told her he wasn't married, and the relationship, though intimate, was not sexual. Fisher found out the truth and gave him an ultimatum -- make up your mind by Sunday. Mintz was shot dead on Saturday. Travis McGraw willingly turned over his cache of guns to police. One of his guns matched the cartridge found at the scene and he was arrested for murder. Mintz's daughters emerged as powerful advocates for their mother, and prosecutors, after consulting with them, offered a plea deal to McGraw: second-degree murder with a sentence of 16-20 years. He accepted, but at the last moment changed his mind about pleading guilty. Three years after the murder the trial began. McGraw was found guilty of first-degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Mary Beth Fisher and Vanessa's daughter Andrea work at the same hospital. They occasionally cross each other's paths. Andrea and Jessica are creating a local family justice center and a trauma intervention program in honor of their mother. Interviewed: Carl Mintz (father); Jessica Freeman and Andrea Little Gray (Mintz's daughters); Willie McGraw (father of Travis McGraw); Marcia Blythe Cunningham (Mintz's friend); Heather Waldbart (mentoring student); Steve Modlin (Chief Investigator); Alex Bass (Prosecutor); Mary Beth Fisher (McGraw's girlfriend); Shane Greene (State Bureau of Investigation) (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Alec Sirken, Elena DiFiore, Michelle Feuer)

48 HOURS: "Death in the Parsonage" (8:00-9:00p) - an updated rebroadcast on the suicide of Joseph Musante; the eventual discovery of his wife, Cindy's secret affair with A.B. Schirmer, the pastor of the Readers United Methodist Church in Readers, Pennsylvania; and the eventual investigation to determine if the deaths of the pastor's previous wives were really accidental. Musante's sister, Rose Cobb, knew something wasn't right and pressed authorities to keep looking. Musante's daughter, Samantha, told police that she had discovered the affair between her mother and Schirmer and had told her father. Further investigation revealed Musante's death was truly a suicide. This led to questions regarding the death of the pastor's second wife, Betty Schirmer, just three months earlier in an auto accident. Her death was determined to be suspicious and police suspected Schirmer. Questions then arose about the death of Schirmer's first wife, Jewel. The cause of her death, from a fall, was initially classified as undetermined, but was now ruled a homicide. A.B. Schirmer was arrested and charged with the murder of his second wife, Betty. At trial, A.B. Schirmer was found guilty of murder. Cindy Musante continues to stand by him. Original on-screen text graphic: Schirmer is awaiting trial for the murder of his first wife, Jewel. Sam's mother, Cindy told the court she believes "one hundred per cent" in Schirmer's innocence. Epilogue (for the 01/17/15 rebroadcast): a year and a half after his conviction for the murder of his second wife, Betty, A.B. Schirmer struck an unexpected deal with prosecutors. He pled no contest to the charge that he murdered his first wife, Jewel, saying he only took the plea to spare his family the trauma of going through another murder trial. Schirmer was sentenced to twenty to forty years in prison, the maximum allowed, on top of his life sentence. New on-screen comments by Jon Behney, (Jewel Schirmer's brother), James Fully, Julie Campbell (Schirmer's daughter), Tina Fultz (Betty Schirmer's sister). On-screen text graphic for this 01/17/15 rebroadcast: A.B. Schirmer lost an appeal of his conviction for murdering his second wife. Sam's mother Cindy told 48 HOURS she still believes "one hundred percent" in Schirmer's innocence. Interviewed: Rose Cobb, Musante's sister; Samantha, Musante's daughter; Detectives Jim Wagner and Wendy Serfass; Julie Campbell and Amy Wolfgang, Schirmer's daughters by his first wife Jewel; Betty Schirmer's sisters Sandy Weikel and Tina Fultz; Good Samaritan Stan Dickerson; Dr. Wayne Ross, medical examiner; Schirmer's attorney Brandon Reish; and Prosecutor Mike Mancuso. 01/17/15

48 HOURS: "Murder in Pinyon Pines" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the triple murders and the long quest for justice for Vicki Friedli, her boyfriend Jon Hayward, and Vicki's daughter Becky Friedli. In 2006, in Pinyon Pines, California, Friedli and her boyfriend were shot dead and their house set on fire. Outside the home, investigators found the charred remains of Becky Friedli, in a wheelbarrow. She was burned so badly, they could not determine how she died. Retired policeman Ron Friedli, Vicki's ex-husband and Becky's father, had a theory about what happened: Becky was deathly afraid of fire and he suspected she knew her killer. Police searched for clues but the case went cold. Years later, Luis Bolanos, a private investigator and a former colleague of Ron's, asked if he could get involved; he said he could get the case back in the news. He did just that. Seven years after the murders, police arrested Becky's ex-boyfriend Robert Pape and his best friend Christian Smith and charged them with murder. Their families say they are innocent. But an unexpected courtroom twist turned the case upside down. The District Attorney said there was an "issue" in the grand jury proceedings against Pape, and dropped the charges against them both. However, it may not be completely over; the investigation continues. On-screen text graphic: A new DA was sworn in last week. He says he will review the case "with an open mind". Christian Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. Interviewed: Tanya Friedli, Drew Friedli, Ron Friedli (Becky's sisters and father); Katie Hayward (Hayward's daughter); Daniela Zermeno (Becky's cousin); Luis Bolanos (private investigator); Kathleen Pape and Christy Pape (mother and sister of Robert Pape); John Conrad Smith (Smith's father); Brandon Kugler-Harrison (friend of Pape and Smith); Richard Blumenfeld (Pape attorney); Eduardo Roy (attorney for Becky's friend Javier Garcia Junior) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Peter Shaw)

- 01/24/15 48 HOURS: “Kiss of Death and the Google Exec” - an investigation into the 2013 drug-related death of Google executive Forrest Hayes and an investigation of Alix Tichelman, the woman charged with killing him, whose ex-boyfriend also died of a lethal overdose. Hayes, a successful, wealthy, married Santa Cruz, California technology genius was found dead from a heroin overdose aboard his 46-foot yacht. The yacht had been outfitted with a sophisticated security system, which eventually led investigators to Alix Tichelman, a young woman with whom he had a secret liaison aboard the yacht. Hayes and Tichelman met on an online dating service known for connecting wealthy men with women looking to be spoiled. The video footage recorded Tichelman injecting Hayes, cleaning up the scene and stepping over him to leave. At issue is whether Tichelman knew Hayes was in distress when she left, as police maintain, or if his death was accidental, as public defenders representing Tichelman claim. Tichelman led a troubled life which included eating disorders, drugs, and specialized schools. Investigators learned that just months before Hayes’ death, Tichelman’s then-boyfriend, Dean Riopelle, an Atlanta night club owner, also died from a heroin overdose. After an elaborate sting, Tichelman was arrested for the death of Forrest Hayes. Riopelle’s death, originally classified as accidental, is being given a second look by Georgia authorities. On-screen text graphic: Alix Tichelman pleaded not guilty to manslaughter in the death of Forrest Hayes, and pleaded not guilty to prostitution and drug charges. Tichelman’s next court appearance is on February 23, 2015. If convicted of manslaughter, Tichelman could face a maximum of fifteen years in prison. Interviewed: Stephen Baxter (Santa Cruz Sentinel/48 HOURS Consultant); Michael Daly (Daily Beast investigative reporter/48 HOURS Consultant); Steve Clark (Santa Cruz Deputy Police Chief); Brandon Wade (“Seeking Arrangement” dating website owner); Chad Cornell (Tichelman’s boyfriend); Ashley Kent (dorm mate at the Hyde School); Khristina Bocker (Dean Riopelle’s former assistant); Jerry Christense and Larry Biggam (Tichelman’s public defenders); Alex (no last name/schoolmate); Todd (no last name/friend of Riopelle’s) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Allen Alter, Patti Aronofsky, Elena DiFiore)
- 01/31/15 48 HOURS: “The Millionaire, The Model & The Hit-Man” - an investigation into the relationship between Dino Guglielmelli, a millionaire health supplement distributor/ wannabe rock star, his model wife, Monica Olsen, his business partner/presumed hitman Richard Fuhrmann, and the $80,000 “hit” Guglielmelli ordered on his wife. In 2008, Olsen, a model-turned-housewife, wanted to re-start her career, Guglielmelli was not happy. He became very controlling, dating other women and eventually filing for divorce. He tried various schemes to discredit his wife. In 2012, when he couldn’t get his way in the divorce, he confided his problems to business associate/friend Richard Fuhrmann, asking him to “take care” of his wife; Fuhrmann told Guglielmelli that he would take the job. Instead of murdering Olsen, he went to the authorities in Los Angeles, California, and agreed to wear a wire. In October 2013, Fuhrmann got Guglielmelli to repeat that he would pay $80,000 to have Olsen killed. To the authorities, it was a clear-cut case of murder for hire; Guglielmelli was arrested. Guglielmelli, in a telephone interview from jail, claims he is the victim; he was conned by Richard Fuhrmann. Authorities agree that Fuhrmann is a con man, but the conspiracy to kill Olsen was very real. In a surprise move, they offered Guglielmelli a plea deal: plead guilty to attempted murder in the second degree and serve only nine years in jail. He accepted. In a telephone interview from prison, Guglielmelli discusses his decision. Olsen is proceeding with the divorce and worries about the future. Fuhrmann fears what will happen when Guglielmelli is released from prison. On-screen text graphic: Because Dino took a plea deal he cannot appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Dino Guglielmelli; Monica Olsen; Rick Fuhrmann; Emilio Guglielmelli (brother), Gino Guglielmelli (brother); Letitia Devine (Dino’s ex-wife); Olya Banar (Monica’s friend); Emily Cole (Deputy District Attorney) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher)

“DARPA Dan” - a report on the U.S. military’s Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) and their efforts to maintain America’s military technological superiority, with the highest effort on securing the Internet, which they are credited with helping to create. Dan Kaufman, former video game developer and “Medal of Honor” series creator, heads its software unit and discussed: cyber warfare program Plan X; dark web navigator Memex and how it helps to combat terrorists like ISIS (ISIL); and the hacking vulnerability of devices (phones, cars, etc.) that are connected to the Internet of Things (IoT), with DARPA’s research focused on inventing unhackable code for military drones. Includes interviews with: Dan Kaufman, Director of the Information Innovation Office for DARPA; Christopher White, DARPA Program Manager/inventor of Memex; and Cyrus Vance Jr., Manhattan District Attorney. Also includes comments by: Kathleen Fisher, DARPA Project Manager; and DARPA researchers Carl and Patrick (last names not given). (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On)

“The Swiss Leaks” – an investigation conducted by 60 MINUTES and the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists into the biggest leak in Swiss banking history. Herve Falciani, a former HSBC computer security specialist in Switzerland, stole -- with questionable motives -- computer files with over one hundred thousand names tied to Swiss bank accounts in 2007 and gave it to the French government. The list is being used to go after tax cheats, arms dealers, and drug smugglers around the world. HSBC declined to respond on camera about the files, but acknowledged the bank had been used to evade taxes in the past and says it will no longer engage in those activities with future clients. Falciani is now a fugitive living in France because Swiss authorities charged him with industrial espionage. Includes interviews with: Jack Blum, former U.S. Senate staff investigator; Herve Falciani, former HSBC computer security specialist; Christian Eckert (through translator), France’s Secretary of State for the Budget; and Serge Michel, editor of French newspaper Le Monde. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Ira Rosen, Habiba Nosheen)

“Selma” – a report on the movie, “Selma” with a focus on its director, Ava DuVernay, and her film celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr. and the civil rights movement. The movie was filmed in Selma, Alabama where actors reenacted the 1965 “Bloody Sunday” march for African-American voting rights over the Edmund Pettus Bridge. DuVernay also addresses concerns that her film’s portrayal of President Lyndon B. Johnson was inaccurate. Includes excerpts from: the movie “Selma”; Oscar-nominated song, ‘Glory’ performed by John Legend and Lonnique Rashid Lynn, Jr. (Common); and from CBS News correspondent Bill Stout, who reported on Selma in 1965. Includes interviews with: Ava DuVernay, filmmaker; Darlene Maye, Ava’s mother; Zenobia Whiting, Ava’s aunt; and Murray Maye, Ava’s father. (C: Bob Simon – P: David Browning)

“ZMapp” – a report on the development of ZMapp, a promising drug to combat Ebola, which has killed nine thousand in West Africa. There are no approved vaccines or drugs available to fight the disease and although researchers believe ZMapp is the cure, randomized trials have not yet been conducted to confirm this. It takes six weeks to produce enough ZMapp to cure only dozens. The process consists of dousing the main ingredient, tobacco plants, with three different antibodies and giving the plants time to harvest and duplicate antibodies repeatedly. Includes interviews with: Dr. Gary Kobinger, virologist, researching cure for Ebola; Dr. Kent Brantly, medical missionary and first American with Ebola; Hugh Haydon, President of Kentucky Bioprocessing; Larry Zeitlin and Kevin Whaley, founders of Mapp Biopharmaceutical; Dr. Robin Robinson, Director of Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority (BARDA); and Dr. Robert Kadlec, biodefense expert. (C: Bob Simon – P: Tanya Simon) (Scott Pelley reads introduction into the segment)

“A New Kind of Terrorist” – a report on the three men who carried out deadly terrorist attacks in Paris, France at the office of satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo and a kosher grocery store in early January 2015: brothers Cherif and Said Kouachi and Amedy Coulibaly. This new type of terrorism is described as a hybrid between jihad and petty criminals. The Kouachi brothers grew up in Epinay, a poor French suburb, which is feared to have become a recruiting ground for radical Islamists seeking foot soldiers. Cherif and Amedy met while they were incarcerated for non-terrorist crimes at the Fleury-Merogis Prison, and came under the influence of al Qaeda operative Djamel Beghal. Although the Kouachi brothers declared allegiance to al Qaeda and Coulibaly to ISIS (ISIL), it is believed to be more of a psychiatric problem with the men, than terrorist notions. Includes interviews with: Xavier Raufer, criminologist; Vincent Ollivier, Cherif Kouachi’s lawyer in 2005; Alain Chouet, former head of security intelligence at DGSE (France’s CIA) (C: Clarissa Ward – P: Randall Joyce)

“Bradley Cooper” – an interview / profile of actor Bradley Cooper, who recently received his third Oscar nomination in as many years for his performance as the late Navy SEAL Chris Kyle in the movie, “American Sniper”. Cooper is currently starring on Broadway, playing deformed British man John Merrick in “The Elephant Man”. Also includes comments by: Gloria Campano, Cooper’s mother; and Clint Eastwood, director of “American Sniper”. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Michael Karzis)

48 HOURS: "Gone" - a report about Mark Castellano, a man who claimed to be so desperate to find Michelle Warner, the mother of his three-year-old son, that he agreed to talk to Dr. Phil McGraw on McGraw's daytime talk show regarding her 2012 disappearance. Within forty-eight hours, Castellano then told police a much different version of events. Warner had been living in Houston, Texas with Castellano, her on-again/off-again boyfriend. Castellano claimed Warner stormed out of the house after a fight and vanished without a trace, leaving her child behind. Warner's family did not believe it and filed a missing persons report. Houston homicide detectives later received the case. Castellano agreed to appear on "The Dr. Phil Show", Dr. Phil interviewed Castellano at his parents' home in West Texas; he wasn't buying Castellano's version of events and had serious doubts about his story. The police investigation continued, but there were few if any clues. Two days after the interview with Dr. Phil, Castellano voluntarily went in for an interview with the police. During the interrogation, Castellano finally cracked and admitted that he had killed Warner, put her body in his car, and buried it in a shallow grave outside of Midland, Texas. Local police and the FBI tried to locate her body but were unsuccessful. Eventually, using Apple's Face Time app and an iPhone, and with help from Castellano, police were able to scan the area and locate Warner's body. Castellano was arrested and charged with murder. Eight days later, "The Dr. Phil Show" aired its episode about the case. Also includes: Tracy Smith's interview with Mark Castellano in which he reveals deep-seated anger and resentment towards women and claims it was all an accident. At his trial, attorneys presented a new version of what he now says is the truth. After more than a week of testimony, Castellano was found guilty in the strangling death of Michelle Warner. On-screen text graphic: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in thirteen and a half years. He will be fifty-three years old. Interviewed: Mark Castellano; Dr. Phil McGraw (television personality / psychologist); Donna Malone (Michelle Warner's mother); David Chaffin (Michelle Warner's brother); Fil Waters (Houston homicide detective); Sergeant Brian Harris (Houston homicide detective). 02/14/15

48 HOURS: "Dangerous Games" - a report on the events that led to the 2012 death of Lizzi Marriott, a 19-year-old New Hampshire woman lured into the dark world of BDSM (bondage, discipline, and sadomasochism) and who twice refused to take part in bondage and S&M sex with her co-worker Kat McDonough and her boyfriend Seth Mazzaglia. Marriott accepted an invitation from McDonough to hang out with her and her boyfriend and watch a movie -- and she never returned home. Mazzaglia used McDonough to bring other women into their relationship for his pleasure -- and that, for him, involved ropes and bondage gear, a fantasy brought into the mainstream by the book series and current motion picture, "Fifty Shades of Grey". Police investigation led to Mazzaglia and McDonough. During interrogation, Mazzaglia said Marriott died accidentally during a BDSM encounter. McDonough told police Marriott was never there, but later, in a plea deal, changed her story. She said Mazzaglia killed Marriott when, after playing strip poker, she twice turned down his requests to initiate sex. After Marriott's death, they disposed of her body in the ocean. At Mazzaglia's 2014 trial, McDonough's testimony was critical. Ultimately, Mazzaglia was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life without parole. On-screen text graphic: Lizzi's family has set up a scholarship in her memory, The Lizzi Marriott Intrepid Ocean Explorer Fund. Kat McDonough will be released from prison in July, 2016. Interviewed: Bob and Melissa Marriott (parents); Becki and Tony Hanna (Marriott's aunt and uncle); Nate McNeal (Marriott's friend); Catherine (no last name given, ex-girlfriend of Mazzaglia); Rod Doherty (former Foster Daily Democrat Executive Editor); Richard DiMario (McDonough friend); Andrew Cotrupi (McDonough attorney). 48 HOURS: "Fall From Grace" - an investigation into the October 2012 death of Bethany Deaton -- whether her death was a suicide, the fundamentalist Christian religious group to which she belonged, her marriage to the group's leader, and the quest by her family for answers. Bethany Deaton was a young wife and nurse, whose lifeless body was found in the backseat of a minivan, in Grandview, Missouri -- a plastic bag over her head, a suicide note, and an empty pill bottle nearby. Deaton's mother believed it was not a suicide and that someone else had a hand in her daughter's death; possibly someone involved in the fundamentalist Christian religious group to which she belonged, and which some people likened to a cult. While in college, and devoted to religion, Bethany was drawn to Tyler Deaton, the leader of the group called "The Community", which was associated with the International House of Prayer (IHOP). Deaton told members what to wear, when to eat and even controlled their romantic relationships. One member says the group had become a full-blown cult. Bethany eventually married Tyler, but the marriage wasn't perfect. There were questions about Tyler's own sexuality; Bethany fell into a deep depression. Police did not believe Bethany killed herself. After the Medical Examiner ruled it a suicide, Micah Moore, another member of "The Community", told police that he had killed Bethany, and was subsequently charged with murder. The case was upended when he recanted his confession. Investigators were unable to substantiate his confession and just weeks before the trial was to begin, charges were dropped against Micah. Questions remained. Was Micah manipulated? Did Tyler have something to do with it? Tyler is ready to admit he played a role in her death, but to what end? Did Bethany really commit suicide, or was it murder, as her mother believes? On-screen text graphic: Tyler has filed a claim to Bethany's forty thousand dollar life insurance policy. He plans to pay back the Leidleins for the wedding. Interviewed: Carol Leidlein (Bethany's mother); Tyler Deaton (her husband); Boze Herrington (friend of Tyler and Bethany); Teryn O'Brien (lifelong friend of Bethany's); Penny Cole and Ben Kenney (Jackson County Sheriff's Detectives); Melanie Morgan (Micah Moore's attorney); Eric Leidlein (Bethany's father). 48 HOURS: "End of the Trail" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 2008 murder of educator/artist Carol Kennedy, who was brutally beaten in her home outside Prescott, Arizona. Kennedy's ex-husband, stockbroker Steven DeMocker, became the chief suspect. Police investigation revealed a man who was a serial philanderer, who was struggling with a heavy financial burden, and had a toxic relationship with his ex-wife. Police arrested DeMocker saying they had a strong circumstantial case, but legal maneuvers, court delays and the death of a judge would prolong the case for five years. DeMocker's girlfriend, Renee Girard, then revealed critical information about DeMocker's activities after Kennedy's death: he lived in fear of being arrested for a crime and revealed information about an insurance policy. His large family, including his two daughters Charlotte and Katherine, believe he is innocent. Prosecutors believe he killed Kennedy to avoid paying alimony and to gain access to an estimated $750,000 life insurance payout. After five years, and nearly $2 million in taxpayer money, the trial commences. Steven DeMocker is found guilty of first-degree murder; he is sentenced to life in prison without parole. On-screen text graphic: Charlotte graduated from college this month with a degree in finance. Katherine will finish law school next year. She hopes to pursue a career as a federal prosecutor. On-screen text graphic for the 02/28/15 rebroadcast: Charlotte graduated from college in 2014 with a degree in finance. Katherine will finish law school this year. Interviewed: Steven DeMocker; Jan Wheeler, Barb Willis, Betsy Petit (friends of Carol Kennedy); Michael, Mary and Sharon DeMocker (brother and sisters of Steven DeMocker); Rich Robertson (defense team investigator); Larry Hammon (defense attorney); Renee Girard (DeMocker's girlfriend); Joseph Moura (private investigator/48 HOURS consultant); Jim Knapp (friend of DeMocker); Julie Corwin (ex-girlfriend of Knapp); Craig Williams (new defense attorney); Tricia Greer and Kathy Reay (jury members) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Sara Ely Hulse, Clare Friedland, Asena Basak) (OAD: 05/26/14)

48 HOURS: "Blaming Melissa" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation into the 2009 case of Melissa Calusinski, a young woman who claims she did not murder 16-month-old Ben Kingan while working at a day care center in Lake County, Illinois, despite having confessed to the crime. Also examined are police interrogations, what happens after a confession, and what can happen when a key player in the investigation admits he made a life-altering mistake. Two days after Ben Kingan's death, Calusinski was brought in for questioning; police told her Ben died from a blunt-force trauma to the head and that she was the last adult to have seen him alive. She was interrogated for nine hours, never asked for a lawyer, and eventually confessed to dropping the child in a way that may have led to a head injury. She was convicted of murder, largely on the fact that she had confessed and that the Medical Examiner's report said that the child suffered from fresh injuries to his head. Her family persuaded a newly-elected coroner, Dr. Thomas Rudd, to re-examine the evidence. His findings revealed an older head injury -- a significant discovery. Eventually, state pathologist Dr. Eupil Choi, admitted to missing the old injury in his report. With this information, attorney Kathleen Zellner, who specializes in cases pertaining to false confessions, says that Melissa Calusinski did not receive a fair trial. Advocates say that, under extreme conditions, 60% of people confess to crimes they did not commit. The police say they played by the rules. Two courts have allowed the conviction to stand. Attorney Zellner believes the medical evidence needs to be re-examined, but the State Attorney will not pass it on. Family and friends vow not to give up. On-screen text graphic: Melissa lost her first appeal. She plant to try again based on the new medical evidence. Interviewed: Melissa Calusinski; Paul and Cheryl Calusinski (parents); Crystal Calusinski (sister); Ruth Fuller (journalist); Dr. Thomas Rudd (Lake County coroner); Kathleen Zellner (attorney); Deborah Teurkheimer (law professor); Michael Nerheim (States Attorney). “Who Killed the Prosecutor” – a report on the questions surrounding the death of Argentine prosecutor Alberto Nisman, who died of a gunshot wound to the head the night before he was to present evidence that the country’s President, Cristina Kirchner, had secretly conspired with Iran to cover up Iran’s involvement in Argentina’s worst terrorist attack -- the 1994 suicide bombing of AMIA, a Buenos Aires Jewish community center. Some theories about Nisman’s death are: suicide; government aided murder; revenge murder by former Argentine government spy Jaime Stuisso; or murder by Nisman’s coworker, Diego Lagomarsino, who says he gave Nisman the gun for self-defense. Includes interviews with: Diego Lagomarsino, (through translator), Nisman’s coworker; Gustavo Perednik, author; and Hector Timerman, Argentine Foreign Minister. Also includes comments by Rodolfo Canicoba Corral, Argentine Judge. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On)

“Coming Home” – a report on the former members of Golf Company, 2nd Battalion of the 8th Marines, a US Marines unit which suffered high casualties in the Afghanistan War. Five years after the first segment “Golf Company” (OAD: 10/11/09), the men held their annual reunion in Washington, D.C., where they visited the graves of their fallen comrades at Arlington National Cemetery. For some of the veterans the war was a defining, motivating experience, while others are struggling with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and other effects from going to battle. Includes interviews with Golf Company veterans: Lance Corporal Jonathan Quiceno; Corporal Rory Hamill; Colonel Christian Cabaniss; Second Lieutenant Dan O’Hara; and Devin Jones. Also includes an excerpt of First Sergeant Robert Pullen calling the roll of the dead in 2009. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster)

“The Maestro” – an interview / profile of New York Metropolitan Opera Music Director James Levine. The conductor fell in 2011 and fractured his spine, leaving him partially paralyzed and on an indefinite leave of absence from the opera. Levine returned to the Met in 2013 with the help of a portable podium to accommodate his motorized wheelchair, much to the delight of the singers and musicians. Includes excerpts from performances at The Metropolitan Opera. Also includes interviews with: Peter Gelb, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera; Placido Domingo, opera singer and conductor; and Stephanie Blythe, opera singer. Also includes comments by opera singers: Angela Meade and Mary-Jane Lee. (C: Bob Simon – P: Ruth Streeter, Kaylee Tully)

“Dead or Alive” – a report on the errors of the Social Security Administration’s Death Master File. Those who are alive and mistakenly put onto the list, can be cut out of existence by banks, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Medicare, credit agencies and the like. On the other hand, there have been continued payments to deceased citizens whose names were never put on the list. To combat these errors, the Social Security Administration has started cross-checking with a Medicare list to see who is using Medicare, and if a citizen has been off the list for three years, they gather more information to see if they are dead or alive. Includes interviews with: living Americans declared dead by the Social Security Administration: Don Pilger, Kristina Pace, Betty Denault, and Judy Rivers; Patrick O’Carroll, Social Security Administration’s inspector general; and Sandra Kimbro, who pleaded guilty to accepting her mother’s Social Security benefits, but says it was done so unknowingly. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Gabrielle Schonder)

“A Few Good Women” – a report on the Marine Corps, which is under orders to open up its ground combat units to women -- one of the last all-male bastions in the military. A female has yet to complete its three month Infantry Officer Course. 60 MINUTES followed the course that begins with a combat endurance test in Quantico, Virginia and ends with a hike through the mountain ridges of the Mojave Desert in California. Includes interviews with: Marine General George Smith, in charge of the experiment of integrating women into ground combat units; Second Lieutenant Melissa Cooling, who attempted the infantry officer course; Major George Flynn, who oversees the Infantry Officer Course; Private Nisa Jovell, who completed the enlisted infantry course; Major Scott Cuomo; 2nd Lieutenant Nicholas Boire; and 2nd Lieutenant Zachary Barbero. (C: David Martin – P: Mary Walsh)

“Back To The Wild” – a report on Damian Aspinall’s project to release once-captive gorillas back into the wild, specifically into a forest in Gabon, West Africa. The multimillionaire of Kent, England runs a conservation group, the Aspinall Foundation, and believes keeping animals locked up in a zoo is immoral. After attempting this experiment for a year, and just one month after placing the gorillas into the wild, they discovered five females and one child gorilla died, proving Aspinall’s critics correct: the wild is a not necessarily a place where it is safe for domesticated animals to roam. Includes interviews with: Damian Aspinall and Tara Stoinski, president of the Dian Fossey Gorilla Fund. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On, Alexandra Poolos)

“Iraq’s Christians” – a report from Northern Iraq, where up to 125,000 Christians have been forced to flee from ISIS (ISIL) terrorist violence. Christian homes in Iraq’s second largest city, Mosul, have been marked by ISIS with the Arabic letter ‘N’ for Nasara, an Islamic term for Christians, forcing its residents to either convert to Islam, pay an extortion tax, or be killed. Inhabitants of surrounding villages and towns across the region, known as the Nineveh Plains, have fled the area and are living as refugees in Erbil. Includes interviews with: Father Joseph Ibrahim, monk at Monastery of St. Matthew; Archbishop Nicodemus Sharaf, Archbishop of the Syriac Orthodox Church in Mosul; Issah Al Qurain (through translator), resident who had his house marked; and Archbishop Bashar Warda, Archbishop of Erbil. Also includes comments/footage of Brett Felton, an American veteran of the Iraq War and a man only identified as Khamis - both there to train and assist Christian volunteers. (C: Lara Logan – P: Max McClellan, Jeff Newton, Richard Butler)

“Rare Earth Elements” – a report on how China has become the world leader of rare earth metals, essential ingredients used in everything from smart phones and computers, to cars and missiles. The U.S. began the cultivation of these materials at Molycorp, Inc.’s mine in Mountain Pass, California after geologists identified rare earth elements in the Mojave Desert, but it was shut down in 1998 due to environmental concerns. Meanwhile, China took over the industry since they have less environmental constraints around mining and lower labor costs, which translates into lower pricing. Molycorp Inc.’s Mountain Pass mine reopened in 2010. Includes interviews with: Constantine Karayannopoulos, chairman of Molycorp, Inc.; Daniel McGroarty, principal of Carmot Strategic Group; and Ed Richardson, president of the U.S. Magnetic Materials Association. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Graham Messick, Kevin Livelli)

“Star-Struck” – an interview / profile of astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson, director of the American Museum of Natural History’s Hayden Planetarium. With millions of followers on Twitter, he is perhaps America’s most popular scientist. Tyson hosts a weekly radio show, “StarTalk” and hosted the 2014 television documentary series, “Cosmos: A Spacetime Odyssey”. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Robert G. Anderson, Aaron Weisz)

“Bashar al-Assad” – an interview with the President of Syria, Bashar al-Assad, who sat down with Charlie Rose in Damascus last week to discuss how the Syrian government has lost control over significant amounts of its territory to terrorist groups like ISIS (ISIL), al Qaeda or Syrian rebel groups during the three-year-old civil war. The dictator is questioned about: attacks on civilians with chemical and “barrel bomb” weapons, the future of his relationship with the United States, and his characterization of surrounding countries in the Middle East. (C: Charlie Rose)

“Killing Cancer” – a report on a Duke University clinical trial of an immunotherapy that uses a re-engineered polio virus to kill cancer cells in brain cancer patients, specifically those diagnosed with glioblastoma, a deadly type of brain tumor. So far, 11 of 22 patients treated have died, but the remaining 11 have seen their tumors shrink, and two people introduced in this report have been declared cancer free: Stephanie Lipscomb, the first patient in the trial and Dr. Fritz Andersen, the second. A third patient Donna Clegg died, most likely due to too much of the polio virus injected into her tumor, creating too large an immune response. However this helped guide doctors to lower the dosage for another featured patient, Nancy Justice, who appears to be on the same track to remission as Lipscomb and Andersen, as her tumor continues to shrink with each MRI. Includes interviews with: Dr. Annick Desjardins, neuro-oncologist at Duke; Dr. Henry Friedman, deputy director of Duke’s Brain Tumor Center; Dr. John Sampson, chief of neurosurgery at Duke; Dr. Matthias Gromeier, molecular biologist at Duke and creator of the modified polio virus used in the trial; Dr. Peter Marks, deputy director for the FDA; Dr. Darell Bigner, director of Duke’s Brain Tumor Center; and trial patients: Stephanie Lipscomb, Dr. Fritz Andersen, Nancy Justice, and Donna Clegg. Also includes comments by: Greg Justice, Nancy’s husband and Wayne Clegg, Donna’s husband. 48 HOURS: "Murder in Aspen" – a report on the 2013 murder of Nancy Pfister, an Aspen, Colorado socialite/ski resort heiress, and the investigation to find her killer. Pfister came from a family of high achievers, but was also known for a demanding demeanor; even her friends were treated with disrespect, as friend Kathy Carpenter had personally experienced. Nancy Pfister was found dead from blunt force trauma, in the bedroom closet of her home by Kathy Carpenter. She had been alerted that something was amiss by Nancy Styler, who had recently rented the place with her husband Trey Styler, and was in the process of moving out. Police focused on the Stylers because they were involved in a public dispute with Pfister involving the rental home. Pfister came back three months earlier than expected, saying the couple had owed her a large amount of money. Police believed Nancy Styler harbored anger over the way Pfister treated the couple. They also believed Trey Styler, who suffered from a neurological disorder, was incapable of killing anyone. Days after the murder, both were arrested and charged with murder. Soon after, Kathy Carpenter was also arrested, and charged with murder. Police believed the women had bonded over Pfister's seeming indifference to them. Three months later, a bombshell: Trey Styler confessed and said that he and he alone had killed Nancy Pfister. He agreed to tell the details of the crime in exchange for a 20-year sentence and his wife's unconditional freedom. The charges were dropped against both women, but they claim that the prosecution's continued insistence that they were somehow involved in the murder has convicted them in the court of public opinion. Kathy Carpenter still faces the threat of prosecution should more evidence be found. Nancy Styler can never be charged. On-screen text graphic: Nancy Styler has filed for divorce, gone back to take her maiden name and moved to another state. Interviewed: Nancy Styler; Kathy Carpenter; Mark Seal (writer/48 HOURS consultant); Tim Mooney, David Koffend, Michael Cleverly (Pfister friends); Juliana Pfister (daughter); Andrea Bryan (Assistant District Attorney); Lisa Miller (DA Chief Investigator); Sherry Caloia (District Attorney); Greg Greer (Carpenter defense attorney); Garth McCarthy (Styler defense attorney). 48 HOURS: "Bruce Beresford-Redman: The Verdict" (9:08 - 10:08p) – an updated followup to "Prison Diaries" (OAD: 11/15/14), itself an update of "Fatal Episode: The Producer's Story" (OAD: 02/25/12; Rebroadcast: 09/22/12), a report on former reality show producer Bruce Beresford-Redman, who was accused of murdering his wife Monica Burgos, while on a 2010 vacation in Cancun, Mexico. This broadcast includes the verdict: Beresford-Redman has been found guilty of homicide and sentenced to twelve years in prison. Included are new interviews with his mother Juanita Beresford-Redmond, his wife's sister Carla Burgos and her attorney, Allison Treesle. The 09/22/12 rebroadcast included a phone interview with Beresford-Redman, who maintained his innocence, from the Mexican prison where he was being detained while awaiting trial. Today, until the Mexican court system decides his guilt or innocence, Beresford-Redman remains incarcerated. Recently, over a period of four months, with a camera provided by 48 HOURS, he recorded diary entries in his cell and elsewhere around the prison compound and took viewers inside his life behind bars. Unlike many of his cellmates, Beresford-Redman has been able to pay for food to be brought in, but he describes the Mexican prison system as a dirty, rat-infested village with razor wire around it. There are about 1,800 men, women, and children living in a prison originally built for 700 people. Also included is the first sit-down interview with Beresford-Redman, as well as interviews with his parents, and his wife's sisters. 11/15/14: On-screen text graphic: The judge can take as long as he wants to make a decision. 03/14/15: No On-screen text graphic for this broadcast. Interviewed: Bruce Beresford-Redman, Jeanne and Carla Burgos (Monica's sisters); Juanita and David Beresford-Redmond (Bruce's parents); Sonya Tsiros (U.S. Consul General for the Cancun area); Jen Heger (Radar Online reporter); Pat Fanning (criminal defense lawyer); Jaime Cancino (one of Bruce's attorneys); and Emily Hamilton (tourist who was assaulted) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Josh Yager, Ana Real, Paul LaRosa)

- 03/14/15 48 HOURS: COLD CASE: "Who Killed Amy Gellert?" (10:08 - 11:08p) - the first in a new short-run series focusing on long-unsolved murders. Each broadcast will go in-depth into a hard-to-close case and present new reporting along with the existing evidence. This report focuses on a 1994 home invasion in Cocoa Beach, Florida, which led to the murder of 21-year-old Amy Gellert. Gellert had interrupted an intruder holding her parents hostage. Startled, the masked man stabbed her mother Charlotte (Bunny) Lehton and her stepfather, Robert Lehton. He fled, where he encountered Gellert in the driveway. Her killer was never caught. Multiple suspects have emerged since that fateful night. The cold case team of Major Todd Goodyear, Lt. Carlos Reyes, Marlon Buggs and Wayne Simock discuss their theories about the case: the unusual weapons used (a dagger and a prop gun), the intruder (characteristics, accent, etc.), and the possibility of a targeted attack. Ultimately, two main suspects have emerged: Scott Manley (someone who Gellert had met in drug rehab) and Dominic Kanuika (who admits to driving by the crime scene) and a possible connection between the two men. On-Screen Text Graphic: If you have information about Amy Gellert's murder contact: The Brevard County Homicide Unit. Email: majorcrime@beso.us. Call: Central Florida Crimeline: 1-800-423-TIPS. Interviewed: Charlotte and Robert Lehton; Mark Gellert, Ryan Gellert (brothers); Andrea O'Dell (Amy's best friend); Major Todd Goodyear, Marlon Buggs, Wayne Simock, Lt. Carlos Reyes. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed)
- 03/21/15 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "The Bizarre Saga of Robert Durst" - a report on new details in the case of millionaire Robert Durst (and a followup to 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Mystery of Robert Durst" (OAD: 03/17/04, Rebroadcast 09/09/04). Durst was recently arrested in New Orleans for the 2000 murder of his friend Susan Berman, following the broadcast of the six-part HBO documentary "The Jinx". He still remains a suspect in the disappearance of his first wife, Kathie Durst. Also included is an exclusive interview with his attorney Dick DeGuerin, who tells 48 HOURS Correspondent Erin Moriarty that he's eager to go to court and that the prosecution has a "weak circumstantial evidence case" against Robert Durst. Durst, the son of a prominent New York City real estate family, is no stranger to controversy. He remains a suspect in the 1982 disappearance of his first wife, Kathie Durst. At the time of Berman's death, Durst was hiding out in Galveston, Texas, masquerading as a woman and trying to avoid authorities who wanted to talk to him about his wife's disappearance. Berman, the daughter of a well-known Las Vegas mobster, was shot dead in her Los Angeles home; police suspected a mob hit. Durst was not considered a suspect until he became involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston, claiming he accidentally killed Black in self-defense, then cut up his body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Now, the HBO documentary has raised questions regarding Berman's death, and police now believe that a destitute Berman was possibly blackmailing Durst because she knew details about Durst's disappearance, and that comments made by Durst during the program will lead to a conviction. Durst's attorney Dick DeGuerin comments on the current publicity, the evidence, and how Durst is eager to get to California to prove his innocence. Included interviews with: Dick DeGuerin (attorney); Paul Coulter (Los Angeles Detective); Jim McCormack (Kathie Durst's brother); Jack Leonard (Los Angeles Times writer); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (Forensic Psychiatrist); Lisa DePaulo (New York Magazine writer); Steven Silverman (Berman friend) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Chuck Stevenson, Judy Rybak, Liza Finley, Greg Fisher, Lisa Freed, Linda Martin)

48 HOURS: "The Pretender" - an updated rebroadcast of "The Pretender" (OAD: 05/31/05), a report on the case that has inspired the 2015 theatrical film "True Story", which recounts how Christian Longo posed as discredited New York Times journalist Michael Finkel, while on the run in Mexico -- after murdering his wife and children in Oregon in 2001. At the time, Finkel, who admitted to fabricating a portion of a story on child slavery in Africa, was fired by the newspaper and had retreated to Montana in disgrace. Christian Longo, a married father of three, was living in Oregon where he moved for a fresh start, after committing a series of crimes in Michigan. In reality, Longo was a pathological liar and con man. Soon after, Longo was on the run, charged with killing his wife MaryJane and his three children. It was then that Finkel and the police learned that Longo had assumed Finkel's identity. Finkel, curious to learn why someone would want to steal his identity, met with Longo and, based on conversations, a series of letters and phone calls, put together an account of events leading up to the murders and Longo's apprehension, which he used as a way to resurrect his ruined writing career. Christian Longo was tried, found guilty of the murders and sentenced to death. He has since changed his story and is working on an appeal. Finkel authored a book, "True Story: Murder, Memoir, Mea Culpa", which is the basis for the theatrical release starring Jonah Hill and James Franco. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors say Christian Longo's appeals are likely to last five to ten years. Oregon now has a moratorium on the death penalty. Michael Finkel took Longo's advice and married his girlfriend, Jill. The couple now has three children. Interviewed: Michael Finkel; Christian Longo; Jill Barker (Finkel's girlfriend); Trish Miller, Fred Farkas (detectives); Penny Dupuie, Sally Clark (MaryJane Longo's sisters); Denise Thompson (Longo babysitter); Tom Taff, Janina Franke (met Longo on the run); Dick Hoch (truck driver); Josh Marquis (Oregon District Attorney). When 24-year-old Andee (link: <http://www.drphil.com/shows/show/2172/>) last met with Dr. Phil more than a year ago, she was struggling with drug addiction -- and her parents, Pam and Ed, were at odds, blaming each other. Pam claimed her ex-husband, Ed, was an alcoholic who enabled Andee by giving her money for drugs, while Ed accused Pam of treating their daughter like a child. Dr. Phil gave the parents specific instructions on what their next steps should be, and Andee went straight to rehab after the show taping. Did Pam and Ed follow his advice? Andee says she completed 90 days of rehab but later relapsed and is now desperately in need of Dr. Phil's help once again. With her parents still pointing the finger at each other, who really is responsible for Andee's downward spiral? And, Andee says she recently moved across the country to live with her new boyfriend -- is he enabling her? Dr. Phil has words of warning for the couple. Is Andee finally ready to commit to staying clean?

It's a new year -- are you ready for a new you? Nicole says she wants to lose weight but says her "fitness freak" husband, George, has no compassion or empathy for her struggles, and his intense, drill-sergeant ways aren't helping. George says Nicole is her own biggest obstacle to losing weight -- he says she's lazy, makes excuses and gives up too easily -- and all his efforts to help her have only strained their relationship. How can he motivate his wife? And, Dominique says she knows she needs to lose weight but says her mom, JoAnn, won't stop nagging her about it. Could JoAnn be sabotaging her daughter with her constant comments? Then, Charles says ever since his identical twin brother, Adam, lost 90 pounds, he has become an arrogant jerk who loves to embarrass Charles about his body. Adam says his brother resents him for getting healthier and needs a serious wake-up call about his weight. Can these brothers heal their relationship while getting to a healthier place?

Rachel says her mother, Dixie, is "controlling, narcissistic and pure evil" and has turned her 18-year-old daughter, Abbie, against her. She says Dixie is buying her daughter's loyalty and affection and claims that's the only reason Abbie chooses to live with her grandmother. Rachel -- who hasn't spoken to Dixie in eight months -- admits she was a party girl when she was younger and often wasn't around for Abbie, but she insists she has changed. How can she repair her relationship with her mother and her daughter? Dixie says she doesn't trust that Rachel is really a changed woman, and she feels Abbie is better off living with her. What does Abbie have to say about her living situation -- and her relationship with her mother? Dr. Phil reunites the three generations. Can they hit the reset button and move forward in a peaceful, healthy way?

Allen and Cheryl say their 9-year-old son, Steve, is terrorizing their family. They say he has threatened to harm his siblings multiple times, tells his teachers that he wants to blow up his family's home and shows no empathy for others or remorse for his bad behavior. They say Steve has been diagnosed with 18 mental illnesses and has been placed in three mental hospitals in the last year alone, but nothing seems to help for long. The parents turn to Dr. Phil for answers. What's at the root of Steve's bad behavior? Cheryl's mother and two sisters say they believe the boy is overmedicated and under-parented -- and they say Cheryl's blog about her parenting challenges is also a cause for concern. How does Cheryl respond? Then, Dr. Phil sits down with Steve for a one-on-one conversation. Does he see room for change? And, world-renowned child clinical psychologist Dr. Alan Kazdin shares a suggested plan for changing behavior in the child -- and the parents. Ashley says she is desperate to get help for her older brother, Justin, 32, who she says is addicted to everything -- including sex, alcohol and pain pills. Justin admits he has slept with at least 300 women and struggles with substance abuse, but he blames his mother, Laura, for his problems -- which he claims stem from his rocky childhood. Laura admits she wasn't the best mother to Justin, whom she had when she was only 18, at times prioritizing men and partying over parenting. She also says she has a history of being involved in abusive relationships, which her children witnessed. Still, she thinks Justin needs to get over the past and stop making excuses for his own bad behavior. Dr. Phil sits down with the family in search of a resolution -- and has some tough questions for everyone involved. Is there a family pattern that needs to be broken? Will Laura finally accept the role she plays in Justin's struggles? And, can Justin -- who is now a parent himself -- commit to getting clean and getting his life back on track?

MONDAY

January 12 – Show #13007 (TV 14 (L))

“Wild Teen Behavior Caught on Camera”

ALL-NEW! Dr. Phil looks at the troubling trend of wild behaviors being recorded and posted online for the world to see. Hear from Emily, 15, who became an Internet sensation after she hit a girl with a shovel and video of the incident went viral. Plus, a man who set himself on fire in hopes of gaining video views -- why would anyone do such a thing? And, Dr. Phil has a special anti-bullying challenge for seven teens.

TUESDAY

January 13 – Show #13201 (TV 14 (D)(L)(S))

“Pretty, Young and Violent”

ALL-NEW! In part one of a special two-part series, meet seven teenage girls -- some who say they've been bullied, and others who admit they've been bullies themselves. When sent to live together in The Dr. Phil House, will they get along -- and learn from each other's experiences?

WEDNESDAY

January 14 – Show #13017 (TV 14 (L)(D))

“Why is My Mom Faking Cancer?”

ALL-NEW! Jessica says her mother, Patricia, claims she is defying the odds by becoming a record-setting weight lifter while simultaneously battling Stage 3 brain cancer -- but Jessica doesn't buy it. She says her mom is lying about being sick to gain sympathy and attention. Can Dr. Phil get to the truth and help fix this mother-daughter relationship?

THURSDAY

January 15 – Show #13068 (TV 14 (L))

“My Mother Refuses to Cut the Cord with My Mama's Boy Brother”

ALL-NEW! Andraya says her 32-year-old brother, Tony, is addicted to prescription pills and has a gambling problem with losses that she believes could be more than $100,000 -- and their mother, Linda, is enabling him. Linda says all she wants to do is take care of her “little boy” and refuses to listen to anyone bad-mouth her baby. Can Linda learn to stop supporting her son's dangerous lifestyle before he ends up back in prison -- or dead?

FRIDAY

January 16 – Show #13082 (TV 14 (L))

“Yes, I Abandoned My Children, But I'm Not a Bad Mom”

ALL-NEW! Jamie says her longtime girlfriend, Aleasha, was an abusive and irresponsible mom who abandoned her and their five children more than two years ago to start a new life with a man she had known for only a few days -- and she hasn't seen Jamie or the kids since. Aleasha admits she walked out on her family but denies being abusive. A 10 says she thought her resident wasn't living with Jamie. Why hasn't she seen her children all this time?

From "girl fights" gone viral to the so-called "fire challenge," Dr. Phil looks at the troubling trend of wild behaviors being videotaped and posted online for the world to see. First, hear from 27-year-old Catherine, who says she was attacked by a former co-worker while bystanders watched and recorded -- but did nothing to help. Then, Emily, 15, became an Internet sensation after she was recorded throwing a shovel at another girl, during a fight. Hear why she says all the attention has changed her life. And, meet the classmate who was behind the camera -- why didn't he stop recording and step in? Then, Dr. Phil talks to a young man who lit himself on fire in hopes of gaining video views -- hear his strong warning for others. Plus, Lisa and Tom say their 15-year-old daughter, Katie, is a violent "mean girl," and they fear she'll end up in a fight video -- or worse. What's at the root of her behavior? Dr. Phil has a special challenge for Katie and six other teens who say they have experiences with bullying. Tune in to see this social experiment!

In part one of a special two-part series, meet seven teenage girls who say they have either been victims of bullying or have been bullies themselves. One girl says she was punched in the face by a classmate; another was accused of sending harassing text messages to a former friend, who eventually took her own life; and another says she is just too pretty for other girls to like her. The teens, who have never met, and their mothers head to The Dr. Phil House for a special retreat. But before the activities can even begin, the drama kicks into high gear when a group activity goes awry! Plus, Dr. Phil sits down with the girls. How do the alleged bullies of the group explain their behavior? And, will they have a change of heart? Plus, don't miss part 2 tomorrow!

Andreya says her 32-year-old brother, Tony, is addicted to prescription pills and has a gambling problem, with losses that she believes could be more than $100,000 -- and their mother, Linda, is enabling him all the way. She says their mother lets Tony live with her for free, works two jobs to pay all his bills, refuses to kick him out and turns a blind eye to his drug use. Linda says all she wants to do is take care of her "little boy" and refuses to listen to anyone bad-mouth her baby. Tony admits he's a smooth operator and can use charm and personality to get anything he wants. He says he was even facing 45 years in prison for drug trafficking, but the arresting officer pleaded for leniency, and Tony served only a little more than three years. Find out what happened while he was behind bars that could be driving his destructive behavior. And: can Linda learn to stop supporting her son's dangerous lifestyle before he ends up back in prison -- or dead? Don't miss Dr. Phil's plan for both mother and son!

“Yes, I Abandoned My Children, But I’m Not a Bad Mom” Show #13082 (TV 14 (L))

Jamie says his longtime girlfriend, Akealia, was an abusive and irresponsible mom who abandoned him and their five children more than two years ago to start a new life with a man she had known for only a few days -- and she hasn't seen Jamie or the kids since. Akealia admits to smacking her children in the face and calling them names but denies being abusive and says she thought they were better off living with Jamie. Tensions run high when Dr. Phil brings the exes together for the first time in more than two years. Why hasn't Akealia seen her children all this time? Does she want a relationship with them? Plus, hear from Akealia's sister, Josephine, who says Jamie isn't innocent in the situation. Why does she blame Jamie for causing Akealia to leave? Plus, Jamie and Akealia both say their 12-year-old daughter's behavior has gotten out of control to the point where she's a threat to her siblings. Can these parents put their differences aside and work toward getting their family back on track?

<http://drphil.com/assets/d/dcc45f6e189e76eb38efcdc39f203e73.jpg>

Dr. Phil explores potential new clues in the cold cases of two missing women. First, 14-year-old Ashley Summers vanished in 2007 -- just blocks away from Ariel Castro's Cleveland "House of Horrors" -- and aside from a brief phone call to her mother in 2008, she hasn't been heard from since. Ashley's mother, Jennifer, and step-grandmother, Linda, join Dr. Phil in search of answers. Could a newly-released FBI photo prove that Ashley is alive and well? Two facial recognition experts analyze the photo -- what do they conclude? Then, in November 2011, Michelle Parker disappeared without a trace after dropping off her 3-year-old twins at the home of their father -- the same day the bitter exes appeared together in an episode of People's Court. Michelle's father, Brad, says he believes Michelle's ex had something to do with her disappearance -- which her ex absolutely denies, despite having been named early in the investigation as the primary suspect. What happened to Michelle? Plus, when Dr. Phil last checked up on "Homeless Joe" (link: <http://drphil.com/shows/show/2310/>), he was missing in action after abruptly leaving rehab in Texas. After being tracked down, Joe returns to Dr. Phil -- how is he doing now?

<http://drphil.com/assets/0/06e58e10e005493777d4bfb816c86d37.jpg>

Amber, 24, says her mother, Julie, failed her as a parent, and she wants an apology for what she claims were years of verbal, emotional and physical abuse. Amber claims that when she was between the ages of 7 and 14, her mother slapped her, punched her and threw items at her several times a week. Julie completely denies ever laying a hand on her daughter, except in self-defense, and says she doesn't understand why Amber recently cut her out of her life. She says Amber has always been dramatic, and she claims their problems started when Amber falsely accused her father of the unthinkable. Dr. Phil brings Amber and her mother together in hopes of a resolution. Is there a chance at fostering peace? Plus, don't miss an update on guests Candi and Lyndsey, (link: <http://drphil.com/shows/show/2319/>) who started Dr. Phil's 20/20 diet (link to: <http://www.drphil.com/shows/page/2020DietBook>) two months ago. How are they now?

Siblings Karina, Nicole, Amber and Chase say their mother has blacklisted them from their family and won’t let them see their father, who is dying of bone cancer. They claim their mother won’t give them a current address and even deletes their voicemails and text messages to their father. Their mother strongly denies these accusations and points the finger back at her oldest children, who she claims have isolated themselves from the family and abandoned their father in this time of need. Emotions run high when this fractured family comes together on Dr. Phil’s stage – and these four children reunite with their father. What does he say about the situation? What’s at the root of this family feud? And, can everyone put an end to the fighting before it’s too late? (Original Airdate: 11/12/14)

<http://drphil.com/assets/d/dee3cf599467c7288c9041a92654d179.jpg>

Ilene, 20, says her boyfriend of two years, Matt, 20, is destroying their relationship with his jealous and controlling behavior. She says he constantly accuses her of cheating on him, and nothing she has done to prove her faithfulness has eased his suspicions -- including quitting her job, deleting her social network profiles and passing a lie detector test. She says Matt's lack of trust in her has turned to anger, and he often calls her demeaning names. She says he even cheated on her in retaliation and sent her an audio clip of the act. With a 1-year-old child together and another on the way, how can Ilene convince Matt she has been faithful? Matt admits he makes Ilene prove herself all the time but claims he is certain she has cheated -- and he even doubts that the baby she's carrying is his. What's behind Matt's trust issues? Tune in to hear Dr. Phil's theory. Can this relationship be saved?

WEDNESDAY

“Adoption Nightmare: ‘I Want My Baby Back’” Show #13114

(TV 14)

Kristen, 22, says two years ago, she feels that she was manipulated into placing her newborn for adoption with her ex-stepfather, Adam, and his new wife, Stacy, who took her in while she was pregnant. Kristen says the two promised her she could be involved in the child's life but claims they kicked her to the curb a week after her daughter was born, and she hasn't seen the child since. She calls Stacy “evil” and “psycho crazy”-- and even says she could have been drugged, because she says she has no recollection of signing the adoption papers. Adam and Stacy deny Kristen's accusations and say she was in no way ready to care for a child -- which is why they stepped up. They are adamant they followed the letter of the law and communicated openly with Kristen. Emotions run high when Dr. Phil brings everyone together in search of answers and a resolution to this adoption drama. Are Adam and Stacy freezing Kristen out? Has she given them reason to? And, is there any hope of fostering peace moving forward? Plus, Kristen is now pregnant again -- what are her plans for this baby?

"In Sickness and in Health: 'Should I Get a Divorce from My OCD Wife?'" Show #13105 (TV PG (S))

Brian says when he married his wife, Laura, and vowed to stay with her "in sickness and in health," he never expected 10 years later to be married to her OCD, too. Now, he says his wife's condition is taking a huge toll on their relationship and family, to the point he's considering divorce. Brian says Laura's compulsions began six years ago, after the birth of their second child, and have become all-consuming -- she even sleeps with a mask on and won't let Brian touch her, for fear of contamination. Brian says he loves Laura, but he feels frustrated and alone, and he also worries about the effect her disorder is having on their children. Laura says she has a list of 91 different fears and rituals, which have turned her life upside down. She worries she is losing her family but says she doesn't know what to do. Dr. Phil sits down with the couple in search of a way forward. What is driving Laura's compulsions? Plus, Laura says her parents have no idea how bad her OCD has become -- how will they react when they learn the truth? How can Laura manage her OCD and reclaim her life?

TUESDAY

"Our 7-Year-Old Son Threatens to Kill Us!" Show #13075 (TV 14 (L))

Kim and her ex-husband, Ryan, say they're terrified of their 7-year-old son, Rylan, whom they adopted when he was an infant. They say Rylan has a fascination with knives, talks to an imaginary friend named "Bleeder" -- who tells him to kill his entire family -- and has even sent two teachers to the hospital. Desperate for help, the parents turn to Dr. Phil. What might be causing Rylan's aggressive behavior? Could information about their son's birth parents provide some clarity? Plus, Dr. Phil reviews home video of Rylan's interactions with his parents and the police. Is he as dangerous as his parents fear?

WEDNESDAY

NATIONAL TELEVISION EXCLUSIVE

March 11, 2015

"Exclusive: Bobbi Kristina's Boyfriend, Distraught and Out of Control: The Nick Gordon Intervention" Show #13415 (RATING TBD)

In a national television exclusive, Dr. Phil conducts an emotionally-charged intervention with Nick Gordon, boyfriend of Bobbi Kristina Brown, the 22-year-old daughter of singer Bobby Brown and the late Whitney Houston. With his mother, Michelle, at his side, Nick expresses to Dr. Phil the mental anguish he says he has been suffering since Bobbi Kristina was found unresponsive in a bathtub in January, as well as from the tragic loss of Whitney Houston three years ago. Why does he say he has not been able to visit Bobbi Kristina, who remains on life support in an Atlanta hospital? And, why does he blame himself for not being able to save Bobbi Kristina or Whitney? Michelle says she fears for her son's life, as he battles drug and alcohol addiction and has become increasingly self-destructive. Will Nick accept Dr. Phil's offer of help?

Children, Abuse	Staff participates in local not-for-profit fundraising	2.7.15	46 Minutes, 30 Seconds	PSA's valued at $12,945	On Saturday, February 7, 2015 the stations were part of the Children's Center of Southwest Missouri Gala. The Gala is a major fundraiser for the Children's Center. Employees Darren Prather and Kelley Foust volunteered on the committee which organized the event. The station also hosted a photo booth at the Gala in support of Children's Center. The event raises nearly $100,000 for the center. Children's Center is a not-for-profit organization providing a safe, child friendly setting for the investigation of child abuse in Southwest Missouri. The allegations that bring children to our center include sexual and/or physical abuse, living in a drug-endangered environment, neglect, exploitation through the internet or child pornography, and/or witnessing a serious crime. As a child advocacy center, we provide children two critical services - Forensic interviews and Sexual Assault Forensic Exams by trained professionals. Behind the scenes at our center, a multidisciplinary team of law enforcement, Children's Division, the juvenile office and medical professionals observe the interview, share information, discuss outcomes and determine a course of action that best serves the interest of the child. We are proud of the work we do and invite you to get involved.

It was a major fundraiser for Special Olympics Kansas. The event raised over $30,000 in support of Special Olympics efforts. The Polar Plunge aka/ Polar Bear Plunge, consists of brave souls that raise money to "plunge" into icy water in Kansas during winter. Costumes are encouraged, because who wants to get their good clothes soaking wet? Plus, it helps disguise the fear in your eyes! Plungers are required to raise a minimum of $75 and there is a toolkit to help them in their fundraising efforts. In 2015, nine Kansas communities will host a Polar Plunge. Get a team together or go it alone. Teams should have a minimum of two but there is no maximum number of participants. The team must raise the $75 fee for each participant. (I.e., 10 team members must raise $750 together.) The individual Plunge fees must be raised by the day of the Plunge, however, fundraising can continue up to 30 days after the event. Toe dippers This "unbearable" event is a unique opportunity to show your bravery as you support Special Olympics athletes by running, walking, jumping or ice dipping into frigid waters. We don't care how wet you get, just as long as you get what it's all about. Many of our plungers repeat the wacky event year after year. The station had almost 10 employees volunteer to make the plunge. The station donated over $150 to the plunge in addition to public service announcements aired in support of the Plunge and Strut.

Children, Teens, Poverty, Education	E Station involvement in community	1, 13, 15	2 Hours.	N/A	On Tuesday, January 13, 2015 station promotions assistant Megan McLaughlin attended the Joplin R-VIII Bright Futures Partner gathering held at Joplin High School. The goal of the event was to plan activities for the remainder of the school year. We currently have over 7,000 students enrolled in Joplin Schools. Each one of them has a name, a face, and a story. 54% of them live in poverty, but they all have hopes and dreams, and each and every one of them deserves a bright future. That's where Bright Futures comes in! By helping to create important structures around kids that they need to be successful learners and successful community members, Bright Futures is actively addressing high school dropout rates and the future of Joplin students. One high school dropout can have a ripple affect on the entire community through the loss of productive workers and more. Dropouts are much more likely than their peers who graduate to be unemployed, living in poverty, receiving public assistance, in prison, unhealthy, divorced, and single parents with children who repeat the pattern and drop out of school themselves. Through Bright Futures, we can change dropout rates and reshape Joplin's future by working together. Bright Futures is a grass roots, community based program that creates partnerships and utilizes community resources for the common goal of helping our kids and strengthening our families and community. Bright Futures has created a system of support for our kids that educators can utilize. Bright Futures is about cultural change and building a community where education is important and valued. Each and every student is priceless and it's up to us to help them succeed. As a community, we are responsible for supporting Joplin children. It isn't just up to the parents, the schools, the business community, faith based organizations, or human service agencies to respond to these needs. Together, we can use our resources to make a lasting impact. Together, we can make a difference.

During the spring semester at Joplin High School we are looking to give students some unique opportunities to really explore some careers and gain more of an understanding of their career pathway and what all that encompasses. One way we hope to accomplish that is by having professionals come speak to the students about their career, what they do and how they got to where they are in that profession. I am writing to you today to see if that is something you would be interested in doing. We are looking to have speakers come once a month representing each career pathway. Below I will list the dates/times we have available. If you wouldn't mind coming to speak to our students, would you please email me back with which of the dates would best work for you? If that is something you aren't comfortable with or are just not available to do, then we look forward to working with you in other ways in the future. Each of the following days the timeframe will be from 10:45-11:45am, planning on a presentation/Q&A session lasting around 30 minutes.

The following is a list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with significant treatment of those issues. This list is not exhaustive and the order in which these issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.
Issues addressed during the quarter include Health, Veterans, Developmentally Disabled, Humane Society, Education, Children, Environment, Housing, Family, Marriage, Safety, and more	Public Service Announcement	1.1.15-3.31.15	46 Hours, 38 Minutes, 20 Seconds	$470,832	Issues addressed during the quarter include, but not limited to: Health, Veterans, Developmentally Disabled, Humane Society, Education, Children, Bullying, Teen Safety, Environment, Housing, Family, Marriage, Safety, and more. A few samples of the public service efforts of the station are found below and within this report.
Service to Community, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.	Public Service Announcement	1.1.15-1.25.15	31 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$7,010	On January 19, 2015, our nation will celebrate MLK Day- honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King devoted his life to equality, social justice, economic advancement and opportunity for all. He challenged us to build a more perfect union and taught us that everyone has a role to play in making America stronger. Dr. King consistently said life's most persistent and urgent question was, "What are you doing for others?" To help inspire more Americans to get involved, we have created MLK Day PSAs for television and radio (in English and Spanish) that remind us to keep Dr. King's legacy of service alive by volunteering. Thank You Anne Benzel Corporation for National & Community Service. In addition the station was a sponsor of the Missouri Southern State University Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration held on Monday, January 19, 2015 in the Billingsly Student Center on campus in Joplin, MO. The station donated $200 in support of the event and several employees attended the celebration.
Education, Children, Youth	Public Service Announcement	1.17.15-2.14.15	33 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$6,479	The station produced and aired a 30 & 15 seconds PSAs to promote the Thomas Jefferson Independent Day School's annual dinner-auction, Escapade, held Thomas Jefferson Independent Day School's annual dinner-auction. Escapade benefits the school by raising funds to ensure that adequate resources are available to maintain and expand educational opportunities for Joplin area students. This event is one of two major fundraisers each year that fund the school's current operational costs which include expenses like textbooks, supplies, faculty salaries, and facility maintenance. Last year, your generosity and participation helped us raise operating funds for the school, including money for purchasing technology upgrades and enhancements for students in all grades. Your continued support and participation makes a difference in the lives of hundreds of children each year, and everyone appreciates what you do for TJ.
Black History Month	Public Service Announcement	1.31.15-2.28.15	33 Minutes, 15 Seconds	$5,844	Black History Month, also known as African-American History Month in America, is an annual observance in the United States for remembrance of important people and events in the history of the African diaspora. The station aired a series of remembrances from CBS Cares. The following is a list of those PSAs which aired on the station: LL Cool J on athlete Auther Ashe, Aisha Tyler on explorer Matthew A. Henson, Aisha Tyler on athlete Wilma Rudolph, Jeff Probst on athlete Wilma Rudolph, Wayne Brady on playwright Lorraine Hansberry, Rocky Carroll on orator Frederick Douglass, Shemar Moore on inventor Elijah A. McCoy, Reno Wilson on singer Marian Anderson, and others. Dr. King devoted his life to equality, social justice, economic advancement and opportunity for all. He challenged us to build a more perfect union and taught us that everyone has a role to play in making America stronger. Dr. King consistently said life's most persistent and urgent question was, "What are you doing for others?"

Community Support, Disabilities, Children, Families	Public Service Announcement	1.31.15- 3.31.15	1 Hour, 1 Minute, 0 Seconds	$11,370	The station airs an on-going PSA campaign for Community Support Services whose mission is: "To foster and promote maximum independence, quality of life, personal growth, health and safety for the individuals we serve." Community Support Services of Missouri offers an array of supportive programs for children and adults with developmental disabilities; those with special health and medical needs, and in-home assistive services for individuals of all ages throughout the Southwest Missouri area.
Employment, Jobs, Careers	Public Service Announcement	1.1.15-1.25.15	1 Hour, 1 Minute, 30 Seconds	$14,325	The station aired a series of PSA's in support of the non-profit Workforce Investment Board which held Jobfest 2015 on January 26, 2015 at The Convention Center in Joplin, MO. The prime mission of Southwest Missouri's Workforce Investment Board (WIB) is to enrich the region's economy by preparing businesses and the workforce for global competitiveness. We're a progressive workforce intermediary that leverages resources to increase the value of the region's human capital portfolio (the workforce) to fuel economic momentum. The WIB is a non-profit corporation that operates a business-driven framework for economic growth on a regional basis. We oversee employment and training programs in the seven counties of Barry, Barton, Dade, Jasper, Lawrence, McDonald, and Newton in Southwest Missouri. Through our Heartland 411 partnership, we join forces with neighboring WIBs in Southeast Kansas, Northeast Oklahoma, and Northwest Arkansas to enhance the greater Four-States area labor market. The WIB's role with the Joplin Regional Partnership further links the WIB's resources with economic development tools to help our regional communities in pursuit of prosperity. Guiding principles that support our mission are engagement, innovation, leadership, accountability, and focus. The WIB's official Strategic Business Plan further defines those principles and translates our goals into action for regional prosperity. The mission statement of the WIB is easily translated into three areas of strategic focus: Business Development, Talent Development, and Global Competitiveness. The WIB offers an array of products and services delivered as solutions for businesses, enhancements of the workforce, and economic development for the region. Services come in the form of project initiatives, such as Certified Work Ready Communities, as well as day-to-day services.
Children, Teens, Families, Mentoring	Public Service Announcement	1.1.15-3.31.15	49 Minutes, 40 Seconds	$9,444	Throughout the quarter the station aired several PSA campaigns in support of Big Brothers Big Sisters events and activities going on the region. Those include Bowl for Kids Sake in Crawford County, KS on February 28, 2015, Masquerade Bowl for Jasper and Newton Counties, MO on March 7, as well as generic PSA's featuring Pittsburg State University head men's basketball coach, Kevin Murff. For more than 100 years, Big Brothers Big Sisters has operated under the belief that inherent in every child is the ability to succeed and thrive in life. As the nation's largest donor and volunteer supported mentoring network, Big Brothers Big Sisters makes meaningful, monitored matches between adult volunteers ("Bigs") and children ("Littles"), ages 6 through 18, in communities across the country. We develop positive relationships that have a direct and lasting effect on the lives of young people. Vision: all children achieve success in life. Mission: provide children facing adversity with strong and enduring, professionally supported one-to-one relationships that change their lives for the better, forever. Accountability: By partnering with parents/guardians, volunteers and others in the community we are accountable for each child in our program achieving. Higher aspirations, greater confidence, and better relationships, Avoidance of risky behaviors and Educational success.
Healthcare, Open Enrollment	Public Service Announcement	1.10.15- 2.14.15	40 Minutes, 5 Seconds	$10,246	Mercy Hospital, Joplin, MO provided free help to people needing to understand and/or enroll for the Affordable Healthcare Act. The station aired a series of PSA's providing information to viewer on how to receive the free assistance.

Younglife, Children, Teens	Public Service Announcement	1.16.15-2.8.15	38 Minutes, 10 Seconds	$8,925	The station aired PSA's in support of Younglife Joplin and their Cupid 5k event used as a fundraiser for the organization. Young Life doesn't start with a program. It starts with adults concerned enough about kids to go to them, on their turf and in their culture, building bridges of authentic friendship. These relationships don't happen overnight — they take time, patience, trust and consistency. So Young Life leaders log many hours with kids around the world — where they are, as they are. Leaders faithfully attend football practices in the Minneapolis suburbs, mingle with teenagers at a mall in Stockholm and play pick-up soccer with former child-soldiers in Liberia. We listen to their stories and learn what's important to them because we genuinely care about their joys, triumphs, heartaches and setbacks. We believe in the power of presence. Kids' lives are dramatically impacted when caring adults come alongside them, sharing God's love with them. Because their leader believes in them, they begin to see that their lives have great worth, meaning and purpose. This is the first step of a lifelong journey: the choices they make today, based upon God's love for them, will impact future decisions ... careers chosen, marriages formed and families raised. All riples from the time when a Young Life leader reached out and entered their world.
Literacy, Adult Education	Public Service Announcement	1.1.15-3.14.15	11 Minutes, 0 Seconds	$1,960	The station aired a public service announcement for Joplin, MO Adult Education and Literacy, a 501(c)(3) informing the community about its available services. At Adult Education and Literacy (AEL), we help adults improve their basic reading, math, and writing skills for the purpose of finding a better job, entering college, or beginning a technical training program. We also teach English as a Second Language (ESL). FREE classes for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •High School Equivalency and ACT test preparation •Workplace readiness: self-assessment, goal setting, resumes, cover letters, and interviewing techniques •Learning to speak the English Language All services are free and confidential. Students work at their own pace with an individualized learning plan. Morning, afternoon, and evening classes are available.
Developmental Disabilities	Public Service Announcement	3.3.15-3.31.15	48 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$6,970	MOSAIC of Southeast Kansas public service announcement reminding viewers about the services MOSAIC offers to the developmentally disable residents of the community. MOSAIC's Mission is: "Embracing God's call to serve in the world. Mosaic advocates for people with intellectual disabilities and provides opportunities for them to enjoy a full life." Mosaic is a faith-based organization serving people with intellectual disabilities. We believe that every individual is a person of worth. Together Mosaic staff members, volunteers and the people we support work as partners.
Hearing Impaired	Public Service Announcement	1.1.15-3.31.15	13 Minutes, 0 Seconds	$2,460	Oklahoma Relay for Hearing-Impaired Services to residents living in our northeast Oklahoma viewing area. Oklahoma Relay Service is a statewide service that connects standard (voice) telephone users with deaf, hard-of-hearing, deaf-blind, speech-disabled, or late-deafened people who use text telephones (TTYs) or voice carry-over (VCO) phones. This service allows TTY or VCO users to communicate with standard telephone users through specially trained Communication Assistant. Calls can be made to anywhere in the world, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year with no restrictions on the number, length, or type of calls. All calls are strictly confidential and no records of any conversations are maintained. Anyone wishing to use Oklahoma Relay simply dials the relay number to connect with a Communication Assistant. The Communication Assistant will dial the requested number and relay the conversation between the two callers.

Teens, Adults, Driving Safety	Public Service Announcement	1. 15-3-29, 15	1 Hour, 3 Minutes, 50 Seconds	$7,928	The station aired a series of Public Service Announcements for Texting and Driving Prevention. "Stop the Texts, Stop the Wrecks" One million people chat and text while driving each day. People feel pressure to remain in constant contact, even when behind the wheel. What drivers do not realize are the dangers posed when they take their eyes off the road and their hands off the wheel, and focus on activities other than driving. This campaign targets adult drivers with a focus on texting and driving prevention. Adults live in a connected world where multitasking is the norm. This manifests in the car where they recognize texting and driving is dangerous, but do it anyway. The average text takes a driver's eyes off the road for nearly five seconds. When traveling at 55mph, that's enough time to cover the length of a football field. The message being conveyed is that texting while driving isn't multitasking, it's essentially driving blind. - See more at: http://www.adcouncil.org/Our-Campaigns/Safety/Texting-and-Driving-Prevention#sthash.SNNbU0RG.dpuf

"Helping Animals; Benefitting People Since 1973"

Dear KOAM/ Fox 14,

Thank you for becoming a 2015 Business Member of the Southeast Kansas Humane Society. Your support allows us to continue to help the homeless animals in our community.

Thanks to you the residents at the Humane Society shelter will be given a second chance to feel secure, cared for, and loved. Without your support this would not be possible. We are very grateful for your continued support!

Thank you,

Erica Wilson

Subject: Senior Seminar

I would like to thank you for helping us out with the Senior Seminar for our Transitions Classes. The date and time for the sessions is Thursday, March 26th and would like for you to be at JHS at 10:30 a.m. This will give us time to show you where you will be and set up time. Many of you have asked about talking points for your session, below you will find a list to guide you. If you could send us a brief description about yourself and your job by Monday, February 9th so we can give them to the students to make their seminar choices that would be awesome.

Your session will start at 11:10 a.m. and the students should start coming into your room between 11:02-11:10 a.m. You will have around 30 to 35 minutes to speak to the students and answer questions that they may have about your field. If you have a video or power point to show if you would let me know ahead of time so I can make sure we have everything set up for you in your room that would be great. When you get to the school you can call 417-439-3091 and let me know you are here so I can take you to your presentation room. Once again thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to help our students.

Talking Points:

- * Overview of your job
- * Degree must have for this job.
- * What is a day in the life of your job.
- * What other ways can you use this career?
- * What do you wish you would of known before getting into this career?
- * Interesting facts about your job.

If you have any other questions don't hesitate to call Amanda Rich or myself.

Dear Local Business,

Last year the SEK Humane Society found loving homes for 533 animals. We couldn't have done it without support from local businesses. Willa, Kamo, Liz and all residents at the Humane Society shelter were given a second chance thanks to generous members of our community. Every animal deserves to know what it feels like to have love, care, and security.

Your business membership makes second chances possible by providing food, shelter, spay/neutering and many programs to assist these pets in becoming part of a family again. Many of these lovely pets were abandoned at the gate or along some highway. Others were abandoned because of life style changes of their master to whom they had been so loyal.

WHAT WOULD HAVE HAPPENED TO ALL OF THE PETS LAST YEAR if the Humane Society had not been there??? We receive many letters and e-mails telling us of the wonderful companionship that one of these sweet pets has brought to a child, a family, or an elderly person.

At this time, the Society is conducting a membership drive to keep this program alive. The Society depends largely upon its membership for its existence. For the past forty-one years, the residents of southeast Kansas have shown that they care by opening their checkbooks and hearts to support these voiceless creatures.

Enclosed is a 2015 membership card. We strongly encourage you to become a 2015 Business Member. All business members will receive a window cling to display at your business showing your support for the homeless animals.

Please complete the membership card and send it along with your check to: SEK Humane Society, P.O. Box 783, Pittsburg, KS 66762. You can also drop your membership card off at the Doggie Bag. Please disregard if you have already sent in your membership for 2015.

Thank you for caring!
