08/06/22

48 HOURS: "Who Killed Jonelle Matthews?" (9:00 – 10:00p) - an update to "The Kidnapping of Jonelle Matthews" (OAD: 03/27/21), a report on the cold case of a missing Colorado girl and the Idaho gubernatorial candidate linked to her disappearance. On the evening of December 20th, 1984, 12-year-old Jonelle Matthews was dropped off at her Greeley home by friends. When her father, Jim Matthews, returned home less than two hours later, Jonelle was nowhere to be found. Police were unable to find any physical evidence related to Jonelle's disappearance, except for footprints left in the snow which appeared to have been raked over, in an attempt to cover them up. Despite prominent attention, including a mention from President Ronald Reagan, the case went cold. On July 23rd, 2019, a crew digging a pipeline in a remote area southeast of Greeley uncovered human remains with a gunshot wound to the head; the coroner confirmed it was Jonelle. In September 2019, police in Twin Falls, ID searched the home of Steve Pankey, a serial candidate for governor and sheriff in Idaho. A former Greeley resident, Pankey was known to Greeley police due to a prior arrest and other multiple allegations. Over the years, Pankey has intentionally inserted himself into the investigation of Jonelle's disappearance – he even contacted the FBI in Fort Collins, CO one month after she went missing and mentioned her in a 1999 Idaho Supreme Court case. On October 12th, 2020 Pankey was arrested for kidnapping and first-degree murder. Details in his indictment included Pankey's mention of raked footprints, a fact never publicized by the police. However, Pankey's defense attorney, Anthony Viorst, claimed Pankey received that information directly from law enforcement and stated Pankey is merely obsessed with true crime. Steven Pankey's trial is scheduled to begin on July 12th, 2021. 01/08/22 UPDATE: Steve Pankey went on trial in October 2021. His ex-wife, Angela Hicks, testified against him. The defense named Norris Drake as an alternative suspect; his mother and sister lived across the street from the Matthews home and he was at his mother's house the night Jonelle disappeared. Drake died in 2007. Pankey testified in his own defense. In his closing argument, Viorst raised questions about his client's mental health. In November 2021, jurors found Pankey guilty of making false reports to authorities but were deadlocked on the murder charges; the judge declared a mistrial. Prosecutors have announced they are ready for a new trial – they still believe Pankey murdered Jonelle Matthews. The update also includes new interviews with Greeley Mayor John Gates, reporter Kelly Werthmann and defense attorney Anthony Viorst. Original on-screen text graphic: In Loving Memory Josh Gelman. On-screen text graphic for the 08/06/22 rebroadcast: The retrial of Steven Pankey is scheduled for October 4, 2022. Interviewed: Darla Jentzsch, Jonelle's friend (2021 broadcast); Deanna Ross, Jonelle's friend (2021 broadcast); Jim and Gloria Matthews, Jonelle's father and mother (2021 broadcast); Jennifer Mogensen, Jonelle's sister (2021 broadcast); John Gates, current Greeley, CO mayor and former Greeley police officer (2021 and 2022 broadcasts); Kelly Werthmann, reporter and anchor, KCNC, Denver, CO (2021 and 2022 broadcasts); Anthony Viorst, Steve Pankey's defense attorney (2021 and 2022 broadcasts); Kevin Schneider, former guardian of Steve Pankey's son in Idaho (2021 broadcast); Ryan Horsley, political consultant and Steve Pankey's fellow church member in Idaho (2021 broadcast). 48 HOURS: “The Circleville Letters” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the unsolved case of the Circleville letter writer who, beginning in March 1977, terrorized residents in the small town of Circleville, OH. The threatening and anonymous letters, mostly postmarked from Columbus, OH, were received by residents for nearly two decades and exposed alleged secrets about neighbors and friends. The letters first focused on married school district superintendent Gordon Massie and his rumored relationship with school bus driver Mary Gillispie. On February 7th, 1983, Gillispie saw an obscene sign about her 13-year-old daughter on a fence. When she went to remove it, Gillespie noticed it was tied to a string, which led to a box with a gun rigged to go off. The gun was traced to her brother-in-law, Paul Freshour. Freshour’s estranged wife Karen Sue, who did not respond to requests for an interview for this broadcast, told investigators he was also the Circleville letter writer. Never charged with sending any of the letters, Freshour went on trial on October 24th, 1983 for the booby-trap. Found guilty, Freshour was sent to prison, but the letters continued, even though he was kept in isolation and not allowed pen or paper. The Circleville letters stopped in 1994, when Freshour was released. Freshour maintained his innocence and fought to clear his name. He claimed his gun had been stolen and suspected his son Mark, who died by suicide in September 2002. Freshour died June 28th, 2012. On-screen text graphic: No one has ever been charged with writing the Circleville letters...but the Pickaway County Sheriff’s office says the case is closed. Interviewed: Martin Yant, journalist; Marie Mayhew, podcaster, “Whatever Remains”; sisters June Whitehead and Janet Cassidy, grew up in Pickaway County, OH; Pam Stanton, family friend of Paul Freshour; Robin Yocum, author, former crime reporter, The Columbus Dispatch; Mary Ellen O’Toole, former FBI profiler; and Beverley East, forensic document expert. 48 HOURS: “The Online Life & Death of Bianca Devins” – a report on the murder of Bianca Devins, a 17-year-old popular social media figure, who was murdered by Brandon Clark in Utica, NY. Bianca met Brandon on social media; they briefly dated but were never exclusive. In July 2019, Brandon and Bianca traveled to New York City to see a concert. Bianca also invited Alex, a new friend, to meet her there and expressed on social media her concern that Brandon would be jealous. On July 14th, 2019, an image of Bianca’s lifeless body appeared on the social media platform Discord, which prompted calls from around the country. At first, friends thought it was a fake because Brandon posted it and it was not unusual for people on the platform to post disturbing images to get a rise out of others. That changed when Brandon called 911 and told the dispatcher he was on a dead-end road, not far from Bianca’s home. Responding officers arrested Brandon and found Bianca’s body under a tarp. Before the police could notify Bianca’s mother Kim Devins, someone texted her family the photo. While the family grieved, images of Bianca’s body spread across multiple social media platforms; online trolls relentlessly sent her family the photos and cruel memes and along with the photos, hateful messages blamed Bianca for what happened. Prosecutors searched Brandon’s phone and discovered that he made a video while he killed Bianca with a knife; additional evidence on his phone indicated the murder was not a crime of passion. Two weeks after Bianca’s death, Brandon was officially charged with second-degree murder. Shortly before Brandon’s trial began in February 2020, he pleaded guilty. Five months later, Brandon attempted to change his plea; the judge denied his request. On March 16th, 2021, Brandon was sentenced to 25 years to life. Original on-screen text graphic: Bianca’s family continues to work to get Bianca’s Law passed. The family still receives graphic photos of Bianca’s murder. On-screen text graphic for the 08/13/22 rebroadcast: This year, the New York state Assembly and Senate passed a law that criminalizes sharing personal images of crime victims. The law awaits the New York Governor’s signature. The Devins family still receives graphic photos of Bianca’s murder. Interviewed: Elizabeth, Bianca’s online friend; Kim Devins, Bianca’s mother; Frank Williams, Bianca’s grandfather; EJ Dickson, staff writer, Rolling Stone; Steven Crimando, behavioral scientist; Bryan Coromato, Utica Police detective; Michael Curley, Utica Police detective; Sarah DeMellier, prosecutor, Oneida County District Attorney’s office; and Michael Nolan, prosecutor, Oneida County District Attorney’s office. 48 HOURS: “The Tara Grinstead Mystery” – an updated rebroadcast of “The Tara Grinstead Mystery”, which includes an update on her murder and the subsequent investigation, as well as the tips ignored by law enforcement, which could have closed the case years earlier. Tara, a Georgia schoolteacher, was last seen in Ocilla, when she left a party on October 22nd, 2005. When Tara failed to turn up for work, police were contacted. Officers and Maria Woods Harber, Tara’s friend, entered her home to find it mostly undisturbed, save for a broken lamp. Outside, suspicions were aroused by a latex glove. Attention turned to the men Tara had been dating, however, they all had alibis. Weeks later Jannis Paulk, Tara’s neighbor, was told by an employee about overhearing two men - Bo Dukes and Ryan Duke - claiming to have burned her body, which she reported to police. In 2006, John McCullough was spending the holidays with Bo Dukes. After getting drunk, Dukes admitted his involvement with Tara’s disappearance. In February 2007, John reported this to three different police departments. Neither Jannis’ nor John’s tips were followed up on by law enforcement for years. In 2015, Bo Dukes began dating Brooke Sheridan. Eventually, he would tell her about his part in Tara Grinstead’s disappearance. At her urging, he confessed to the police that he had burned Tara’s body in a pecan orchard his family owned in an attempt to cover up her death at the hands of Ryan Duke during a botched robbery. Duke was arrested and confessed to Tara’s murder. DNA tests matched him to the latex glove found outside Tara’s home. In March 2019, Dukes went on trial for charges related to covering up Tara’s death. He would be convicted on all charges and sentenced to 25 years in prison. 08/20/22 UPDATE: In May 2022, Ryan Duke’s attorneys argued during his trial that the state had the wrong man. But the prosecution said they had evidence: audio and video of Ryan confessing to killing Tara, when he spoke to the GBI back in 2017. The defense said Ryan was under the influence of painkillers at the time and only took the blame because he was afraid of Bo Dukes. In the end, Ryan Duke was acquitted of all charges relating to Tara’s murder -- convicted only of concealing her death. At his sentencing hearing, Tara’s stepmother, Connie, read the family impact statement. Original on-screen text graphic: Ryan Duke’s trial has not been scheduled. It has been delayed by defense motions and the COVID-19 pandemic. (No on-screen text graphic for the 09/04/21 rebroadcast.) On-screen text graphic for the 08/20/22 updated rebroadcast: Ryan Duke was sentenced to 10 years in prison for concealing the death of Tara Grinstead. Bo Dukes is serving 25 years for concealing her death, hindering the apprehension of a criminal, and lying to investigators. Both men are awaiting trial in a neighboring county on charges related to burning Tara’s body. Interviewed: Jannis Paulk, Tara’s neighbor; Maria Woods Harber, Tara’s friend; Dana Wilder, Tara’s friend; Marcus Harper, Tara’s ex-boyfriend; Gary Rothwell, special agent, Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI); John McCullough, Bo Dukes’ friend; Brooke Sheridan, Bo Dukes’ girlfriend. 48 HOURS: "The Yogurt Shop Murders" (9:00 – 10:00p) - an update to "Innocence Lost" (OAD: 01/21/17), a report on the December 6th, 1991 murders of Eliza Thomas, Sarah and Jennifer Harbison and Amy Ayers in a yogurt shop in Austin, TX. All four girls were tied up and shot; the yogurt shop was then set on fire. In the weeks after the murders, authorities received countless tips, many false confessions and interrogated teenagers Maurice Pierce, Michael Scott, Robert Springsteen and Forrest Welborn. With no solid evidence, they were released. There were no developments in the investigation until 1999, when new detectives assigned to the case arrested the original four suspects. Charges against Welborn and Pierce were eventually dropped. Scott and Springsteen each stood trial for murder; both were convicted, with Springsteen sentenced to death and Scott sentenced to life in prison. On appeal, the convictions were overturned when DNA evidence did not match any of the suspects, leaving the case still unsolved. 02/05/22 Update: The DNA sample from the crime scene is not a complete DNA profile and just contains the male portion of DNA. In 2017, Austin police investigators thought they found a match on a public DNA database used for population studies. The seemingly matching sample on the public database had been submitted anonymously by the FBI. Restrictions in privacy made getting a name difficult. In 2020, advanced testing was allowed and came up with additional markers which ruled out the potential match. With DNA research advancing, investigators hope there will be a match that solves the case. Maria Thomas, Eliza and Sonora's mother, died in 2015. Original on-screen text graphic: If you have information about the Yogurt Shop Murders, call 512-472-TIPS. On-screen text graphic for the 08/27/22 rebroadcast: The Homicide victims Family Rights Act (sic.) was signed in to (sic.) law on August 3, 2022. Motivated by the yogurt shop murders, the law provides family members of cold case murder victims a way to officially request federal investigators review their case with the latest available technology. (Please note the correct title of the law is the "Homicide Victims' Families' Rights Act".) Interviewed: John Jones, retired, former detective, Austin Police Department; Sonora Thomas, therapist, Eliza Thomas' sister; Joe James Sawyer, defense attorney, represented Robert Springsteen; Amber Farrelly, member of the defense team for Michael Scott and Robert Springsteen; CeCe Moore, DNA expert, genetic genealogist; and Congressman Michael McCaul (R-TX). This update also includes excerpts and interview footage from prior broadcasts: Barbara Harbison, Jennifer and Sarah Harbison's mother (from 1992); Pam Ayers, Amy Ayers' mother (from 1996); Forrest Welborn (from 1999); Robert Springsteen (from 2009); Rosemary Lehmberg, former Travis County district attorney (from 2009); Maria Thomas, Eliza Thomas' mother (from 2009). 48 HOURS: “#LindasStory” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the cold case investigation into the death of 11-year-old Linda O’Keefe and how an innovative Twitter campaign, launched 45 years after her murder, helped in the quest to find her killer. Linda disappeared on July 6th, 1973, as she walked home from summer school; she was last seen talking to a man in a turquoise blue van in Corona del Mar, CA. Her body was found the next morning along a nature trail. There were few clues to what happened and after years of working on the case, the detectives eventually ran out of leads. On July 6th, 2018, the Newport Beach Police Department launched a series of tweets which told Linda’s story, and ended with the killer’s DNA composite released to the public. The unusual campaign went viral, accumulating more than 7 million impressions worldwide, and garnered national and international attention to the case. Inspired by the methods used to arrest the Golden State Killer, investigators applied genetic genealogy to Linda’s case and uploaded the killer’s DNA profile into GEDmatch, a public database. In January 2019, the DNA sample left by Linda’s attacker led to a perfect match in Monument, CO: James Alan Neal. Further investigation revealed that at the time of Linda’s murder, he lived in Orange County and that his real name was James Albert Layton. Soon after Linda was killed, he turned up in Florida under his new identity. James Neal’s criminal history contained petty crimes to serious offenses and included other sexual assaults. He was arrested and pleaded not guilty on all counts in Orange County Superior Court. 09/03/22 48 HOURS: "The Final Hours of Amie Harwick" (8:00 – 9:00p) - an update to 48 HOURS: "The Life and Death of Amie Harwick" (OAD: 02/22/20, Rebroadcast: 08/29/20), a report on the death of Hollywood family therapist and author Amie Harwick. In the early morning hours of February 15th, 2020, Los Angeles, CA police responded to a call of a woman screaming; they found 38-year-old Harwick lying unresponsive beneath the third-floor balcony of her home. Police found evidence of a struggle and forced entry. The cause of death was ruled to be blunt force injuries to the head and torso, with medical examiners finding evidence of strangulation. Harwick's friends led investigators to her ex-boyfriend, Gareth Pursehouse, who she met in 2008. Their relationship turned abusive – there were numerous police reports and two restraining orders Harwick obtained against Pursehouse and she ended the relationship in 2012. Four days after Harwick's death, police arrested Pursehouse and charged him with murder.

02/12/22 Update: In September 2021, Pursehouse appeared at the Los Angeles Superior Court for a preliminary hearing. Prosecutors presented DNA evidence which they said was a match to Pursehouse. A syringe found on Harwick's balcony was tested and the results revealed that it contained nicotine, which can be a lethal poison; police found a syringe in Pursehouse's home similar to the one filled with nicotine. After six days of evidence and arguments, the judge ruled there was more than enough evidence to bind Pursehouse over for trial for the murder of Amie Harwick. Her friends plan on attending. On-screen text graphic: If you or a loved one are a victim of domestic violence, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233. Amie's friends are planning to build a memorial to honor Amie and victims of domestic violence. Interviewed: Drew Carey, Harwick's former fiancé, host, THE PRICE IS RIGHT; Amie Harwick's friends: Robert Coshland, Miss Tosh, Grace Stanley, Sharon Little and Cleopatra Slough; Rudy Torres, Harwick's friend, Pursehouse's former friend; Kris Mohandie, forensic psychologist; and Rhonda Saunders, former Los Angeles deputy district attorney, reviewed court records at 48 HOURS' request. The broadcast also includes an excerpt of a 2014 interview for 48 HOURS with Dr. Neal Benowitz, a leading expert on nicotine. Dr. Benowitz wrote a report about the Harwick case. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/03/22 48 HOURS: “Mystery on County Road M” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the death of Barbara Kendhammer, a Wisconsin mother of two and the case against her husband Todd Kendhammer, who told investigators his wife was injured when a pipe flew off a truck and pierced the windshield of their car on September 16th, 2016. She later died at the hospital. Investigators were never able to find the truck and Todd gave police different accounts of where he was going that morning. Three months after Barbara’s death, Todd was arrested; he went to trial for his wife’s murder in December 2017. Found guilty, Todd was sentenced to life in prison, eligible for parole after 30 years. Four years after his conviction, Todd’s new legal team presented their findings at an evidentiary hearing this past summer. The judge in the case is expected to render a decision in the spring of 2022 on whether Todd Kendhammer will get a new trial. The broadcast features the first television interviews with the couple’s children, who believe their father is innocent. Original on-screen text graphic: A judge is expected to rule by the spring of 2022 if Todd Kendhammer will get a new trial. On-screen text graphic for the 09/03/22 rebroadcast: In May 2022, a judge denied Todd Kendhammer’s request for a new trial. Kendhammer is planning to appeal that decision. Interviewed: Jordan Kendhammer and Jessica Servais, Barbara and Todd’s son & daughter; Tim Gruenke, prosecutor, La Crosse, WI; Jerry Buting and Kathleen Stilling, husband and wife attorneys, Todd’s new legal team; Dr. Lindsay Thomas, forensic pathologist, asked by 48 HOURS to review the evidence; and Tim Brennan, jury foreman. (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Chris Young Ritzen, James Stolz, Dena Goldstein) (OAD: 01/29/22)
- 09/10/22 48 HOURS: “Death on Safari” - a report on the death of Bianca Rudolph, which occurred while she was on a safari vacation with her husband, Dr. Lawrence (Larry) Rudolph, and the international investigation that followed. The Rudolfs were getting ready to head back home after a safari vacation in Zambia in October 2016 when Bianca suffered a fatal gunshot wound to the chest. The couple were experienced hunters. Larry, a successful dentist with several offices near Pittsburgh, PA, told local authorities that he was in the bathroom of the couple’s two-room cabin when he heard a shot and found his wife dead in the next room. Larry said his wife was packing up a shotgun in a soft-shell gun case; he first told a local hunting scout that his wife had died by suicide, but later told investigators that the gun must have accidentally fired. After two days of investigating, Zambian police closed the case, calling it an accident. There were questions early on about how Bianca could have accidentally shot herself in the chest with such a long-barreled weapon. Larry had his wife’s body quickly cremated in Zambia, which led a friend of Bianca’s to doubt this was an accident. Soon after Bianca’s death, the friend called the FBI. According to an FBI complaint, she also said Larry was having an affair with Lori Milliron, who managed the dental offices, and that Larry had been verbally abusive to Bianca; the friend also told the FBI that the couple fought over money. It took investigators five years to investigate the case. In December 2021, Larry was arrested for the murder of his wife; he maintains his innocence. Lori was arrested in February 2022 and faces seven federal counts. Original on-screen text graphic: The joint trial of Lawrence Rudolph and Lori Milliron is scheduled to begin in July. On-screen text graphic for the 09/10/22 rebroadcast: On August 1, 2022, Larry Rudolph was found guilty of murdering his wife, Bianca Rudolph. Lori Milliron was found guilty of being an accessory after the fact to murder. Interviewed: Sherry Houck, worked as a dental assistant in Dr. Lawrence Rudolph’s Three Rivers Dental Group; Meghan Schiller, reporter at CBS’ Pittsburgh affiliate, KDKA; Spencer Kakoma, local game scout who accompanied the Rudolfs; Roston Yeyenga, now retired police commander, interviewed Dr. Rudolph in 2016; David Katz, ballistics expert, former special agent at the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA), owner, Global Security Group; Masuwa Musese, investigator, Kafue National Park, Zambia; Mary Fulginiti, former federal prosecutor, CBS News consultant; James Gagliano, retired FBI supervisory agent, CBS News consultant; and John Dill, Lori Milliron’s attorney. - 09/17/22 48 HOURS: “Gabby Petito: The Untold Story” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a reedited and updated rebroadcast of “What Happened to Gabby Petito?” (OAD: 09/25/21), which takes a deeper look at the murder of 22-year-old “van life” vlogger Gabby Petito, as well as raising awareness about the warning signs of domestic violence. Petito went missing in August 2021 during a cross-country trip with her fiancé, Brian Laundrie. Laundrie returned home to North Port, FL on September 1st, 2021; he and his parents did not speak to police. On September 17th, his parents reported that he left for a hike at the Carlton Reserve on the 14th and that they didn’t know where he was. Petito’s remains were found inside Bridger-Teton National Forest in Wyoming on September 19th, 2021. UPDATE: After a massive manhunt, Laundrie’s remains were found on October 20th, 2021; an autopsy revealed he had died from a self-inflicted gunshot to the head. A notebook was found belonging to Laundrie; his writings claimed that Petito’s death was a mercy killing by him of her because she was suffering after an accident. Petito’s parents are suing Laundrie’s estate for wrongful death, and his parents for intentional infliction of emotional distress; they are in the process of filing a lawsuit against the Moab Police Department in Utah, related to how they handled the domestic violence stop in 2021. An independent review of the officers’ actions that day found fault and recommended more training. On-screen text graphic: Gabby’s parents have formed the Gabby Petito Foundation, which has partnered with the National Domestic Violence Hotline. If you or a loved one are a victim of domestic violence, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233. Includes new interviews with: Mary Fulginiti, former federal prosecutor and defense attorney, CBS consultant; Dr. Kris Mohandie, forensic psychologist; Brian Stewart, attorney; and Patrick Riley, attorney. Also includes interviews from the 2021 broadcast: Rose Davis, Gabby’s friend; Nichole & Jim Schmidt, Gabby’s mother and step-father; and Jenn & Kyle Bethune, reported seeing the van in the Tetons to the FBI. - 09/17/22 48 HOURS: “The Shooting of Lauren Kanarek” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the case against Michael Barisone, a former Olympic equestrian and trainer, for the attempted murder of former student Lauren Kanarek and her boyfriend, Robert Goodwin. Barisone and Kanarek’s paths first crossed in March 2018, when Barisone hosted a clinic at his Florida horse farm. Soon, Kanarek was being trained and housed by Barisone and his staff at Hawthorne Hill, his Long Valley, NJ training center and farm. Their relationship eventually soured over the level of training Barisone provided personally to Kanarek, who retaliated by posting messages on Facebook branding him a bully, racist and antisemitic – allegations Barisone denies. The posts rattled and unnerved Barisone to the point where he called 911 four times and told police he “feared” for his life. Kanarek also filed a complaint with SafeSport, a watchdog group authorized by Congress. On August 7th, 2019, he confronted Kanarek and shot her in the chest; she managed to call 911 and after emergency surgery, survived. Charged with attempted murder and weapons charges, Barisone went on trial in March 2022; his attorney argued Barisone was driven temporarily insane by Kanarek’s attacks and then snapped. Kanarek testified during the trial that Barisone bullied her. The jury found Barisone not guilty by reason of insanity. Barisone claims to recall Kanarek’s social media posts about him but has no memory of the shooting; Kanarek and her family do not believe his story. On-screen text graphic: Michael Barisone was evaluated at the psychiatric hospital. Just last week, a judge ruled he should be transferred to a less restrictive facility. In six months, another hearing will be held to check his progress. Interviewed: Michael Barisone (his first television interview since the end of his trial); Lauren Kanarek; Jonathan Kanarek, Lauren’s father, retired Wall Street attorney; Christopher Schellhorn, prosecutor; Ed Bilinkas, defense attorney; Chris Deininger, defense attorney; Michael Poulin, rider, Olympic medalist; Phillip Dutton, rider, Olympic medalist; Boyd Martin, rider, Olympian; Jordan Osborne, former student; Lara Osborne, Jordan’s mother, former student, Barisone’s girlfriend; Chelsea Westra, former student; Corporal Derek Heymer, police officer; Dr. Steven Simring, forensic psychiatrist for the defense; and Dr. Charles Hasson, forensic psychiatrist for the defense. 09/24/22 48 HOURS: "A Man With A Past" – a report on the disappearance of Lori Slesinski and the case against her killer, Derrick Richard Ennis, aka Rick Ennis. Slesinski, a recent college graduate, disappeared on June 10th, 2006, from Auburn, AL. Four days after Slesinski vanished, her car was found engulfed in flames on a deserted street; she was nowhere to be found. Her friend, Rick Ennis, claimed Slesinski had gone to make a big drug deal. Investigators found no evidence of a drug deal and suspected Ennis, who police believed was the last person to be with her before she disappeared. Ennis moved away from Auburn after his third police interview and the case went cold. Investigators learned Ennis murdered his mother Dolly Flowers and stepfather Eddie Joe Flowers in 1993, when he was 12-years-old; he later claimed his mother molested him. It took 12 years before authorities made a case against him. In 2018, Ennis was charged with Slesinski's murder, even though her body was never found. Delayed by the pandemic, Ennis went on trial for the offense of capital murder and was found guilty almost 16 years after Lori Slesinski's disappearance. He was sentenced for a term of life without the possibility of parole. On-screen text graphic: Arlene Slesinski gained a new companion in 2021. Her dog, Daisey. Interviewed: Arlene Slesinski, Lori's mother; Jessica Ventiere, prosecutor; Lindsay Braun, Lori's friend; Mark Whitaker, special agent, Alabama State Bureau of Investigation; John Clark, former Alabama state trooper; Eddie Joe Flowers' daughters and Ennis' stepsisters: Angela Flowers, Tina Sexton and Donna Furr; JW Barnes, agent, Alabama State Bureau of Investigation, Mark Whitaker's partner; Sharon Morley, Rick Ennis' former employer; Alana Atkinson, Rick Ennis' fiancée; Terry Booth, Rick Ennis' former friend; and Rick Ennis (by phone). Show #20309 Summer Wells Disappearance: What Do the Parents Know? (TV PG)

<https://www.drphil.com/shows/summer-wells-disappearance-what-do-the-parents-know/>

Since the night of June 15, 2021, there have been no answers as to where Candus and Don's 5-year-old daughter Summer could be. The parents say they thought they were doing the right thing by requesting the public's help to find their little girl, but it backfired. Instead, the couple say they became targets of online bullies who accused them of involvement in the disappearance of their missing child. In part 2, Don and Candus speak out in their exclusive first national TV interview. Dr. Phil digs deeper into the story to discover whether there is any new information that might help solve the mystery of Summer's disappearance.

Show #21021 Carry to Bury: The Abortion Debate (TV PG (S) (D))

ALL-NEW! In June 2022, the United States Supreme Court stripped away constitutional protections for abortion that had stood for nearly a half-century. Pro-life supporters cheered on the ruling, while pro-choice supporters pledged to fight it. Now, in a post-Roe America, women are caught at the center of legal confusion because of these often-vague state laws. Nancy Davis says she was about 10 weeks pregnant when the fetus she was carrying was diagnosed with acrania, a fatal condition where the fetus' skull does not form inside the womb. She claims she tried to have an abortion, but doctors denied her, because in her home state of Louisiana, abortions are banned. In an exclusive interview with Dr. Phil, Nancy and her partner, Shedric, reveal what she had to do to get a legal abortion. Nancy's story is at the center of one of the decade's most controversial and heated debates: abortion. Today, hear from both pro-choice and pro-life advocates.

Show #21009 The Invisibility of Anti-Asian Hate (TV PG (L))

ALL-NEW! A mother says she was assaulted in front of her family at a fast-food restaurant, and a young man was beaten on a New York street in broad daylight. What do these incidents have in common? They were allegedly instigated by hate. In the U.S. in 2020, there were approximately 8,000 hate crimes reported to the FBI by law enforcement agencies. However, some Department Of Justice experts say they believe the number is closer to 250,000 per year. Dr. Phil speaks with parents, Gabriel and Nerissa, their daughter, Patricia, and their attorney, Sandy Roxas, who explain why they feel anti-Asian hate is often overlooked. The close-knit family says they are traumatized after a recent incident at a fast-food drive-thru involving a stranger who mocked them using a fake Asian accent. How do they claim the police reacted even with videotaped evidence? And, why do they say they feel ignored? They say they're sharing their heartbreaking testimony as a call for everyone -- no matter their background -- to stand up in solidarity against hate.

Show #21302 Fighting Anti-Semitism (TV PG (L))

ALL-NEW! Dr. Phil continues his conversation about the rise of hate crimes in America. Joey, a Jewish man, says he was assaulted in New York City by a gang who punched, kicked, and pepper-sprayed him on the street while shouting anti-Semitic slurs. Now, one year later, Joey says he's tried to move on but still can't understand that level of hatred. Find out what he says happened in the attack that made national news and landed Joey in the hospital. Then, Rabbi Aryeh Cohen shares some insight as to why hate crimes against Jewish people are sometimes ignored. Plus, meet a former white supremacist, Christian, who explains the psychology behind people who commit acts of violence due to extreme feelings of hate. And, Becky Monroe, Deputy Director of Strategic Initiatives and External Affairs for California, shares insightful information after tracking hate crimes across America, and law enforcement analyst Mark Powell explains why police officers do not immediately assume an incident is a hate crime, even with video evidence. You won't want to miss this revealing episode.

Show #21002 School Shooters: Is There a Solution? (TV PG)

ALL-NEW! This episode is a must-see for every parent sending their child off to school. On May 24, 2022, Ana dropped her 10-year-old daughter off at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. Twelve hours later, she found out the tragic news that her daughter was one of the 19 children shot and killed. No matter what political side you support, no one wants to see another headline about one more horrific school shooting again. Dr. Phil is joined by Rudy Perez, president of the National Association of School Resource Officers, psychologist Dr. Jillian Peterson, and sociologist Dr. James Densley of The Violence Project to get to the bottom of how we can slow down these tragedies.

Show #21003 Inclusivity or Indoctrination? What's Happening in Schools Today? (TV PG)

ALL-NEW! Jennifer says she had no idea her 11-year-old daughter was using he/him/they pronouns and a different name while at school. She claims this went on for months before it was brought to her attention. Jennifer says she believes she should have been involved in the conversation from day one, and questions whether school faculty members may have been encouraging her daughter's transition. Dr. Phil invites experts Eli Erlick, Dr. Yalda Safai, and Asra Nomani to dive into the complex debate over gender identity and transgender inclusivity in schools today.

ABOUT THE SHOW
2021-2022 - SEASON 20

DR. PHIL, the Emmy®-nominated hit syndicated, daily one-hour talk show hosted by America's most popular psychologist and lifestyle strategist, Dr. Phil McGraw, began its 20th season on September 13, 2021. DR. PHIL has remained the #1 daytime talk show since its 10th season.

Originally launched in the fall of 2002 with the highest ratings of any new syndicated show since the premiere of "The Oprah Winfrey Show" 16 years prior, DR. PHIL is enjoyed by millions of viewers across the nation and consistently ranks as the #1 daytime talk show among all first-run syndicated strips. Additionally, DR. PHIL is licensed to nearly 50 territories and countries worldwide.

Dr. McGraw's success stems from his signature "get real" approach to helping his guests solve their problems, stripping through their emotional clutter, helping them to get down to the bare bones of their issues and giving them the challenge they need to move ahead. Dr. McGraw champions those who suffer from such silent epidemics as domestic violence, child abuse, depression, racism, substance abuse and other health issues that are prevalent in society, but go largely undiscussed by their victims.

Over the course of more than 3,000 shows, Dr. McGraw has welcomed nearly 19,000 guests, received letters from over five million viewers asking for help, made available over $37 million in guest support services, referred 75,000 hours of therapy from a network of over 500 psychotherapists and, ultimately, impacted countless lives across the U.S. and worldwide. Dr. McGraw is the author of nine #1 New York Times bestsellers, published in 39 languages, with over 33 million copies in print.

DR. PHIL is produced by Peteski Productions in association with CBS Media Ventures, formerly known as CBS Television Distribution, which also distributes the show. Carla Pennington and Dr. Phillip C. McGraw are the executive producers.
