01/26/03 PREEMPTION

60 MINUTES II

- 01/01/03 "The Lost Boys" - Fourteen years ago, Sudan's civil war resulted in the deaths of two million people. Thousands of boys, left orphans by the war, began a walk to safety which, in 1992, brought them to Kakuma, a refugee camp in Kenya. The American government has started a program by which the boys will be resettled in various parts of the U.S. where volunteer groups will help them to find housing, jobs and the opportunity to get an education. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggon Mihailovich) (OAD: 05/15/01)
"The Rolling Stones" -a profile of The Rolling Stones as the rock 'n' roll goes on tour to celebrate their 40th anniversary as a group. (C: Ed Bradley - P: John Hamlin) (OAD: 10/02/02)
Charles Grodin: Worked up over working out: President Bush's exercise regimen could be a model for the rest of us. (OAD: 12/04/02)

- 01/08/03 "The Predator" - a report on the Predator, an unmanned aircraft originally used for surveillance missions which has been equipped with missiles and transformed into a deadly weapon for the war against Saddam Hussein. Includes interviews with Gen. John Jumper, Air Force Chief of Staff; Chuck Vessels, Redstone Arsenal; and Barry Watts, former Pentagon official. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
"The Line" - with the recession, there has been a sudden leap in the number of people on emergency food assistance. The people found on food lines are not all unemployed, many are working full time but still don't earn enough to feed their families. Includes interviews with some of the people on lines in southeastern Ohio and with Bob Garbo of America's Second Harvest, a non-profit food distribution group. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Janet Klein)
George Clooney - an interview with actor/director George Clooney (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
Charles Grodin: No more sirens? Lowering the stress level
- 01/15/03 "Breaking The Silence" - Hollywood producer Jon Shestak and his wife Portia Iversen, the parents of an autistic child, started a research foundation called CAN (Cure Autism Now). They discovered that Tito Mukhopadhyay, an autistic boy they brought from India could, as a result of the Rapid Prompting Method formulated by his mother, Soma, write eloquently and independently about his condition. The method is being tested at the Carousel School in Los Angeles. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Miriam Weintraub)
"Hush Money" - a report on a movement by South Carolina judge to ban secret, court-approved lawsuit settlements. Includes interviews with: Dick Harpootlian, a lawyer who defends the practice, and Judges Joe Anderson and Jean Toal, both of whom are seeking reform. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
"The Greatest Singer You Never Heard Of" - an interview with singer Patti Austin who has been successful doing radio and television jingles and has recently released an album of songs associated with her idol, Ella Fitzgerald. (C: Charlie Rose - P: David Browning, Warren Lustig)
- 01/22/03 "The Streets Of Baghdad" - Iraqi citizens on the streets of Baghdad talk about Saddam Hussein and how they would react to a U.S. attack on their country. Includes interviews with: Mohammed Al Adhami, a member of the Iraqi Parliament; Widad Al-Orfali, a Baghdad restaurant owner; and Dr. Al Obaydi, Professor at Al-Mustansiriyya University. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
"Outbreak" - a report on the scientists who traced a foodborne bacteria called Listeria Monocytogenes which spread throughout the Northeast last summer, leaving eight people dead and scores violently ill. Includes interviews with: Dr. Sami Gottlieb, a disease detective; Dr. Bala Swaminathan, CDC (Centers For Disease Control); Vince Erthal, inspector for the U.S. Department of Agriculture; and Elsa Murano, Undersecretary For Food Safety, USDA. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Kyra Darnton, Jill Landes)
"Sir Maurice Micklewhite" - an interview with Sir Maurice Micklewhite, best known as Michael Caine, one of Hollywood's most enduring actors, who has appeared in 80 movies. Caine is a likely nominee for a third Academy Award for his role in "The Quiet American." (C: Ed Bradley - P: Barbara Dury, Ruth Streeter)
Charles Grodin: How do we know who to bomb? The U.S. seems to have serious problems with a number of countries.

01/29/03 "Life" - a report on California's Felony Murder Rule, which specifies that people found guilty of lesser crimes must be sentenced to life as murderers when they are in the company of someone who commits murder. Focuses on 17-year-old Brandon Hein who with three teenage friends was convicted of murder although only one of the group actually committed the crime. England, where the felony murder rule originated, revoked it in 1957. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber, Yvonne Miller)
"The Dark Side Of Lariam"- a report on the anti-malarial drug Lariam invented by the U.S. Army and routinely given to soldiers deployed overseas. Lariam has been known to cause neuropsychiatric adverse events which could trigger violent acts including murder. Includes interviews with Bernard Fischman and Paul Smith, attorneys for a couple who are suing Roche, claiming the pharmaceutical company had not warned them about the drug's side effects. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa Cohen, Elizabeth Pearson)
"Regina Carter"- an interview with Regina Carter who has become a world-renowned jazz violinist. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Alan Weisman)

48 HOURS INVESTIGATES

01/03/03 "Death In The Desert"- focuses on programs designed to help young people with disciplinary problems, including (1) "Dead End" - the investigation of the death -- from dehydration due to heat exposure and complications of near drowning -- of 14-year-old Anthony Haynes who was enrolled in America's Buffalo Soldiers Reenactors, a military-style boot camp in Buckeye, Arizona. Charles Franklin Long II, a self-proclaimed Colonel who founded and runs the boot camp, was arrested and charged with child abuse, aggravated and assault and second-degree murder. He is awaiting trial. Titles within this segment include: "Breaking Point"; "Colonel's Orders"; "Chain of Command". (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Randy Martin) (2) "Last Chance" - an innovative and intense alternative treatment program for troubled teenagers called MST (Multi-Systemic Therapy) which assigns a counselor to the household not only to work with the teenager, but also every influence in his or her life -- neighbors, teachers, friends and especially parents. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Patti Aronofsky (OAD: 06/28/02)

01/03/03 "The Colonel's Wife"- Ret. Col. George Maracek, a 69-year-old former Green Beret who served in Korea and Vietnam, has been charged with the 1991 murder of his Thai wife Viparet. The Czech-born Maracek, a concentration camp survivor who fled Europe after World War II, maintains that he is innocent. Having been brought to trial twice, Maracek won the right to a new trial on appeal. Despite his contention that the state was trying to use his military career against him and that the police used him as a scapegoat to cover a botched investigation, a jury found him guilty and he faces a 30-year prison sentence. Segments include: "American Hero"; "Colonel of Truth"; "Clues"; "Body of Evidence"; "I Spy"; "End Game". (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager) (OAD: 12/07/00)

- 01/08/03 "Kids For Sale"-- focuses on the exploitation of children on the Internet, including: (1) "Risky Business" - On the Internet, for a fee, anyone can view teens and pre-teens posing provocatively in revealing clothes. Includes interviews with Katie Ford, CEO of the Ford modeling agency; Kevin Yerudias, a theatrical agent; Curt Newbury, a professional photographer; and Dr. Fred Berlin, a psychiatrist at Johns Hopkins at University Hospital. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Paul Ryan) (2) "Star Search" - a report on a group of Palm Beach County, FLA teens who made a porno movie. Includes an interview with Lanna Belohlavek, assistant Florida state attorney who filed felony charges against the four boys and one girl who were involved. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Peter Doyle) (3) "Street Stories" - a report on young girls and prostitution, including an interview with Norma Hotalling, director of SAGE, a San Francisco group that helps girls get out of prostitution. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson) ("Kids For Sale" Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr.)
- 01/10/03 "Searching For Elizabeth" - report on the ongoing investigation of the kidnapping, last June, of 14-year-old Elizabeth Smart from her Salt Lake City home, focusing on new information that casts a fresh light on the abduction. Includes interviews with 10-year-old Mary Katherine Smart, the only eyewitness to the crime; Elizabeth's four other siblings; her parents, Ed and Lois Smart; Salt Lake City Police investigator Commander Cory Lyman; the Smarts' neighbor, Suann Adams; Angela Ricci, whose late husband Richard was the principal suspect in the case; and Neth Moul, an auto mechanic who shared critical information on the case. The FBI and Salt Lake City officials have announced that the amount of the award money being offered in the Elizabeth Smart case has been raised to $45,000. Segments include: "Taken"; "So Brave"; "Secrets In The Hills"; "Fresh Tracks"; "Dear Elizabeth" (C: Jane Clayson - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Nancy Kramer)
- 01/15/03 "Invitation To A Murder"-- Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. Seven years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Roger Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison. Segments include: "Shattered"; "A Hero's Tale"; "Dark Secret"; "Changing Tide"; "Hero Or Villain?" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Hal Gessner - P: Gail Zimmerman, Doug Longhini, Ian Paisley)
- 01/24/03 PREEMPTION
- 01/29/03 "Reasonable Doubt"-- in September 1999, Brian Eftenoff of Phoenix, Az. Was convicted of murdering his wife, Judi. It was alleged that Eftenoff forced more than a gram of cocaine down his wife's throat causing her to die of a cocaine-induced stroke. After a re-examination of the case, 48 HOURS presented the trial evidence to a panel of four forensic experts -- Dr. Lee Hearn, chief toxicologist for Miami-Dade County, Fla.; Dr. Edward Briglia, chief toxicologist for Suffolk County, N.Y.; Dr. Charles Wetli, Suffolk County chief medical examiner; and Dr. Don Reay, former chief medical examiner in Seattle -- not one of whom think that Judi Eftenoff was a murder victim, but concur in the belief that her death was due to a self-administered cocaine overdose. Segments include: "A Call For Help"; "Fatal Attraction?"; "Trying The Theory"; "Test Of Character"; "Reasonable Doubt?" (C: Erin

01/31/03 "To Hell And Back"- an interview with 17-year-old Jacque Marris who reveals new details about her abduction and how she and Tamara Brooks, another teenage victim, survived a harrowing 12-hour kidnapping on Aug. 1, 2002. The girls knew that their captor, Roy Dean Ratliff, was armed but managed, working together, to attack and stun him. Jacque then began to negotiate with Ratliff buying time until police helicopters came to the girls' rescue. Ratliff was subsequently fatally wounded in an exchange of gun shots with police rescuers. Tamara and Jacque, who were strangers before the incident, remain close today. Segments include: "Close To Death"; "Intent To Kill"; "Last Resort"; "Dead End"; "She Got Away" (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Judy Tygard, Taigi Smith)

- 02/12/03 "Mystery In Room 313"- on November 13, 1996, at a Sheraton hotel east of Los Angeles, 27-year-old Sandra Orellana of Houston, on a business trip with her 33-year-old boss Robert Salazar, went over a balcony and met her death. Salazar maintained that he was innocent of any crime and that the death was a result of a tragic accident. The Los Angeles district attorney's office did not prosecute the case, claiming that there was insufficient evidence. Detective Ray Rodriguez of the Los Angeles Police felt that a murder had been committed and continued to gather evidence against Salazar. Four years after Orellana's death, a new Los Angeles district attorney was voted in and Salazar was finally prosecuted for the crime. Nearly six years after Orellana's death, he was brought to trial for murder and found not guilty. Segments include: "Tragic Fall"; "Cause For Suspicion"; "A Closer Look"; "Full Disclosure"; "Making The Case"; "The Whole Truth" (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Joe Halderman)
