60 MINUTES

10/07/18      "The Kavanaugh Vote" – an interview with Senator Susan Collins (R-ME) and Senator Heidi Heitkamp (D-ND), who both explain their critical votes for and against, respectively, Judge Brett Kavanaugh's confirmation to the U.S. Supreme Court. Collins discusses the internet donation campaign against a potential opponent; Heitkamp talks about how her initial decision changed. (See also: "The Compromise", OAD: 09/30/18) (C: Scott Pelley – P: Andy Court, Ashley Velie, Howard L. Rosenberg)

"John Green" – an interview/profile of writer John Green, best-selling author of numerous young adult novels. Green discusses his YouTube stardom, success, and mental illness (OCD and anxiety), a topic that his books attempt to destigmatize and normalize for teenagers. Includes interviews with: Sarah Urist Green, wife; five unidentified but self-labelled "nerd fighters," young attendees at the VidCom conference created by Green; Hank Green, brother. (C: Jon Wertheim – P: Sarah Koch, Chrissy Jones)

"The Pavarotti of Pasta" – an interview/ profile of Massimo Bottura, famed Italian chef and owner of Osteria Francescana in Modena, Italy. Once met with backlash over his deconstructionist take on the classic regional cuisine, Bottura now operates the number one restaurant in the world as well as numerous refettorios, or soup kitchens that feed the poor and alleviate food waste. Includes interviews with: Lara Gilmore, his wife. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin, Sabina Castelfranco)

The Mail - selected viewer comments on the first broadcast of the fifty-first season: "The Compromise", "Inside The Epidemic" and "Paul McCartney" (OAD: 09/30/18)

- 10/14/18      “President Trump” – an interview with President Donald Trump, conducted at the White House on Thursday, 10/11/18 -- nearly two years after he was first elected. Topics of the wide-ranging conversation included: his reluctance to confirm the existence of global warming despite the onslaught of hurricanes in the U.S.; the newly reported disappearance of Washington Post reporter Jamal Khashoggi in Saudi Arabia; trade deals in China; Trump’s amicable relationship with controversial leaders Kim Jong-un of North Korea and Vladimir Putin of Russia. President Trump also addresses his sole regret: exiting NAFTA too late; and opines the treatment he receives from the press. He stands by his immigration tactics and his treatment of the Judge Brett Kavanaugh accuser Dr. Christine Blasey Ford. (See also: “The Republican Ticket”, OAD: 07/17/16; and “The 45th President”, OAD: 11/13/16) (C: Lesley Stahl – Producers listed at the beginning of Part I and Part II: Ruth Streeter, Richard Bonin, Graham Messick; Producers listed at the end of Part I: Ayesha Siddiqi, Kaylee Tully, Jack Weingart) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

"Inside the Secret Archive" - a report on the discovery of documents kept by the Catholic diocese in Buffalo, New York detailing sexual accusations against priests and how they were ignored by Bishop Richard Malone, who failed to act; and a first time television interview with the whistleblower who anonymously exposed this information. The Buffalo diocese is under federal investigation. Bishop Richard Malone refuses to resign and accused priests remain part of the Catholic Church. Includes interviews with: Siobhan O'Connor, whistleblower and former executive assistant to Bishop Malone; Father Bob Zilliox, former Bishop's counsel; and Paul Snyder, hotel owner/Deacon, Buffalo Diocese. (C: Bill Whitaker - P: Guy Campanile, Lucy Boyd)

"America's War Against ISIS" - a report on the current state of the war on ISIS (ISIL/Daesh) and the city of Raqqa, Syria, which continues to rebuild since the terrorist group lost control of it last year. With the aid of U.S. weapons and training, Syrian Democratic Forces (SDP), a civilian militia consisting of mostly Kurds and many women, has taken back a third of the country. While they protect U.S. forces, and keep the world safe from potentially dangerous extremists by holding ISIS detainees, the city struggles in a state of uncertainty, lacking civilian aid. Includes interviews with: Leila Mustafa, head of civilian counsel of Raqqa; General Mazlum Kobane, SDP leader; Senators Jean Shaheen (D-NH) and Lindsay Graham (R-SC); Adrien Guihal, ISIS detainee. (C: Holly Williams - P: Keith Sharman, Omar Abdulkader)

"Jaap" - a profile / interview of Jaap van Zweden, the new conductor of the New York Philharmonic. The Dutchman who quit his post as first chair violinist to pursue conducting at age 37 was a surprise pick to lead the storied orchestra. Includes interviews with: Deborah Borda, president of New York Philharmonic; his wife, Aaltja; and comments by his son Benjamin. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein, Magalie Laguerre-Wilkinson)

The Mail - selected viewer comments on last week's broadcast and praise for what they didn't see -- politics.

48 HOURS

10/06/18

48 HOURS: "Hollywood Horror Story" - a report on the brutal murder of Iana Kasian, a woman killed by a perpetrator who left the crime scene like something out of a graphic novel. Kasian, a tax attorney, in what seemed like a charmed life, immigrated to the United States to be a translator. While living in California, she met Blake Leibel, the son of a wealthy Canadian real estate family. He lived a complicated life, but longed to make it big in the Hollywood film industry. Almost a year before he met Kasian he was obsessed with the notion that his family would be harmed by someone tied to his brother Cody, who had big gambling debts. At the time Kasian was killed, Leibel was divorcing his wife, living with Kasian and his newborn daughter Diana. He was also romantically involved with another woman. Kasian's mother, Olga Kasian, became concerned when she could not reach her daughter. She called the police, who eventually gained access to the home she shared with Leibel -- authorities were shocked by what they found. Leibel was barricaded inside a bedroom and Kasian was discovered dead in the bathroom. Her body covered with a blanket, she was extremely pale, and she was scalped. It was a horrible, sadistic killing, just like a scene in one of Leibel's movies. Police arrested Leibel. Investigation led to the discovery that Kasian's body was drained of blood. It took 6-8 hours for her to die. Leibel stood trial and the scenes from his graphic novel and the film he directed took center stage. He was found guilty of first-degree murder without parole. On-screen text graphic: Olga has filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Blake Leibel. Any proceeds would go to Diana. Diana is an American citizen. Olga is still hoping to raise her in the United States. Interviewed: Scott Johnson (Hollywood Reporter writer/48 HOURS consultant); Olga Kasian (mother); Jake Finkel (Kasian family attorney); Jake Edminston (National Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Rob Martindale and William Cotter (Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department investigators); Leslie Thompson (Los Angeles Sheriff's Department crime scene specialist); Kris Mohandie (forensic psychologist/48 HOURS consultant). 10/13/18

48 HOURS: “Dead Ringer” – a report about former pro boxer Ramon Sosa, the potential victim in a murder-for-hire scheme, who with the help of law enforcement agents, managed to survive -- all the while setting up a sting operation to catch those responsible. Sosa owned the popular Woodlands Boxing and Fitness in Montgomery County, Texas. He had a family and a beautiful second wife who helped him run their booming business. After six years together, things began to sour between Sosa and his wife -- he learned of a divorce attorney and missing money from the business. And then someone wanted him dead. A friend of Sosa’s named Mundo, who worked out at the gym, overheard Sosa’s wife Lulu and was sure she had murder on her mind. They came up with a sting operation to protect the boxer, in which Mundo posed as a hit man. When they had evidence, they contacted the police, who then took over the case. Mundo still played along, agreeing to kill Sosa, and provided photographic proof of the death. Police staged the death scene, with Sosa’s “dead body” photographed in a ditch with a bullet hole in the head. Lulu Sosa was arrested, and claimed she was innocent. She was charged with solicitation of capital murder. After 15 months, she gave up the fight and agreed to a plea deal to reduced charges and twenty years in prison. On-screen text graphic: Lulu Sosa comes up for parole once a year. This past Tuesday, she was denied parole for a second time. Interviewed: Ramon Sosa; “Mundo”; Beth Blair (friend of the Sosa’s); Raul Marquez (former Olympic boxer/friend of Ramon’s); Natasha Flores (friend of Lulu’s); Julio Joglar (Lulu’s divorce attorney); Mike Atkins (Lieutenant, Precinct Three Constable’s Office, Montgomery, County, Texas). 48 HOURS: “The Fitbit Alibi” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the groundbreaking 2016 murder case of Nicole Vander Heyden that was solved using 21st century technology. Vander Heyden went out with her live-in boyfriend Doug Detrie and other friends for a night on the town in Green Bay, Wisconsin and never made it home. A day later, she was found beaten and strangled in a field. Her live-in boyfriend became the prime suspect and was arrested because he had separated from the group during the barhopping and went home without Nicole. Detrie was wearing a Fitbit device and the data recorded during the time of Vander Heyden’s murder corroborated with what Detrie had told police, therefore clearing him of suspicion. He was released 18 days after his arrest. Over the next several months, clothes and other items found at the murder scene were processed by the police for DNA, which led police to George Steven Burch, a man who had moved from Virginia to Green Bay for a fresh start. Burch was questioned about a hit-and-run and had handed over his cell phone to police. The phone was an Android device with a Google account, which stores and tracks a person’s exact location within Google’s servers and is viewed with a tool called Google Dashboard. Investigators got a warrant to view Burch’s account and discovered that on the night of the murder, the data tracked him to Nicole’s house – the crime scene – where he stayed for nearly an hour. He was arrested and charged with first-degree intentional homicide. On February 19, 2018, George Burch went on trial for Nicole’s murder. The technology evidence from Fitbit and Google played an important part of the proceedings. Also in the courtroom, the sister and fiancé of Joey White, a man Burch killed in Virginia twenty years ago. Neither is surprised that Burch is on trial again. Only this time, they hope he is found guilty, and is not acquitted. It took the jury three hours to find Burch guilty. On-screen text graphic: Doug Detrie continues to raise Dylan, now two. George Burch will be sentenced on May 4, 2018. He faces life in prison. Interviewed: Vicki and Brandon Meyer (Nicole’s mother and brother); Brian Slinger and Richard Loppnow (Police Sergeants); Kate Briquelet (journalist); Shawn Vander Heyden (Nicole’s former brother-in-law); Tiffany Hoffman (Nicole’s friend); and Shayna Stowe and Carla Rhods (fiancé and sister of Joey White). 10/20/18      48 HOURS: "Cold-Blooded Killer" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report about Mike Williams, a missing Florida man who was believed to have been eaten by alligators in December 2000, and his mother's belief that something sinister happened. Williams, a successful real estate appraiser, left home to go duck hunting on Lake Seminole on his sixth wedding anniversary. When he did not return home, his wife Denise started looking for him. A massive search ensued. It ended after 44 days with Williams listed as "still missing." People wondered if he had run off. After six months, his waders, hunting license and a flashlight were discovered at the lake and another explanation was offered: he was eaten by alligators. Mike's mother, Cheryl Williams, always believed there was more to the story. For nine years, she wrote to the governor of Florida urging him to re-open the case. She even contacted wildlife experts, who told her that alligators do not feed in cold winter months. In the meantime, Denise Williams moved on with her life, cashed in life insurance policies and completely cut off contact with Mike's mother. She eventually married Mike's best friend Brian Winchester. Seven years later, the re-opened investigation led to suspicions that both Cheryl and Brian were involved, but police could do nothing because they were married to each other. Soon after, their marriage disintegrated. Police saw an opportunity when Brian cracked after assaulting and kidnapping Denise, to which he pleaded guilty and cut a deal with prosecutors: he finally admitted to killing Mike Williams. Brian revealed the location of the body, with the understanding he that would not be charged with murder. He said it was all Denise's idea -- she was not willing to be divorced, but wanted to be with Brian. She was arrested and charged with murder and is currently awaiting trial. On-screen text graphic: Denise Williams is scheduled to stand trial for the murder of her husband on December 10, 2018. Mike and Denise's daughter is nineteen and in college. She is said to be close with Denise's sisters. Interviewed: David Arnette and Alton Ranew (Florida Department of Law Enforcement officers); Scott and Anessa Dungey (Mike's high school friends); Clay and Pattie Ketcham (Mike's real estate appraiser/co-worker and wife); Brett Ketcham (high school friend); Jennifer Portman (48 HOURS Consultant/journalist, Tallahassee Democrat); Matt Aresco (alligator expert); Derrick Webster (Jackson County Sheriff's Office); Tim Jansen (Winchester's attorney); Ethan Way (Denise Williams' attorney) (C: Richard Schlesinger – P: Josh Gelman, Jaime Hellman)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

10/07/18      "How We Remember" – an interfaith special examining the ways we choose to remember our shared history and why. Featured: (1) Three years after a white supremacist murdered eight congregants and their pastor at Charleston's Mother Emanuel AME Church, the congregation grapples with both the memory of loss and the struggle against white supremacy in America. Following the massacre, Dr. Maxine Smith, a life-long member of Mother Emanuel AME Church, was a key liaison between the public and the church, and is now a leader on the memorial steering committee. She discusses the meaning of remembrance in her community and why the congregation decided to memorialize the death of its members. New York-based architect Michael Arad was chosen to design a memorial that will honor the lives of the nine slain members as well as the survivors. The Reverend Eric Manning, pastor of Mother Emanuel AME Church, discusses the resilience of the community, the legacy of white supremacy in America and why we need to remember. Also includes comments from Lee Bennett, Jr., Mother Emanuel AME Church Historian. (2) Historian and public scholar Judith Dupre, author of the 2007 book Monuments: America's History in Art and Memory, discusses the history of monuments in America and why remembering is a part of the human condition. (3) Just blocks away from the September 11 memorial, the last vestiges of what was once Little Syria, one of America's most religiously diverse neighborhoods and the epicenter of the Arab literary movement, is threatened by the sprawl of skyscrapers erected in a recent construction boom. Joseph Svehlak is a tour guide and member of the Friends of the Lower West Side, a group of activists whose mission it is to preserve and landmark historic buildings in the former Little Syria region. Also featured is Todd Fine, a historian and co-founder of Save Washington Street, a coalition of preservationists and concerned citizens formed to protect the historic legacy of the Lower West Side. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Jennie Kamin. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. - 11/10/18      48 HOURS: “In the Name Of Hate” - a report on the 2018 murder of Blaze Bernstein, a brilliant Ivy League student. Allegedly slain because he was gay and Jewish, this report examines the rise of hate-fueled crimes in the United States; the influence these hate groups have; background information on the group Atomwaffen Division; and how the Bernstein family has used the death of their son to attempt positive change. Bernstein, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, returned to his California home after finishing the fall semester. He disappeared shortly thereafter. The investigation led to former high school classmate Sam Woodward, who was ultimately charged with his murder. The charges have been elevated to hate crime status, based on information found on Woodward's personal computer, social media feeds and cellphone. Woodward was a member of Atomwaffen Division, a neo-Nazi hate group whose members praised Bernstein's murder. Also included is an interview with a member of the group, who provides information on the case of Nick Giampa. Giampa murdered Scott Fricker and Buckley Kuhn Fricker, of Reston, Virginia -- the parents of his girlfriend, who had told their daughter to stop dating Giampa because of his beliefs and support of Atomwaffen Division. Interviewed: Jeanne Pepper Bernstein and Gideon Bernstein (parents); Raiah Rofsky (childhood friend of Blaze); Claire Velau (classmate of Blaze); Eric Tyron, Philip Schwadron (teachers); Amy Marcus, Grayson (college friends); Rabbi Arnold Rachlis; Tony Rackaukas (Orange County, DA); Joanna Mendelson (Anti-Defamation League, Los Angeles office); Richard and Leah Bernstein (grandparents); Deb Merriner (friend/assistant to Buckley Kuhn Fricker); Justin Jouvenal (Washington Post reporter) (C: Tracy Smith – P: James Stolz, Gayane Keshishyan Mendez)

11/17/18

48 HOURS: "Operation Murder" (9:00 - 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about two doctors Valerie McDaniel and Leon Jacob, involved in a 2017 murder-for-hire plot to kill their ex-partners. Moataz Azzeh, a former U.S. Army soldier describes how he was hired to complete the plot during an elaborate sting operation the Houston Police Department used to arrest the couple. Dr. Valerie McDaniel and her ex-husband were in the midst of an ugly custody battle; Dr. Leon Jacob was facing felony charges for stalking an ex-girlfriend. Jacob sought out Moataz Azzeh to eliminate the problems. Azzeh initially took the job, but disappeared with Jacob's money. Jacob turned to a local bail bondsman, who was looking for Azzeh himself, and he called the Houston Police. Azzeh eventually went on to help undercover agents with the case, which included staging the deaths of the intended targets, McDaniel's ex-husband Marion "Mack" McDaniel and Meghan Verikas. During the sting operation, which included the use of bodycam footage, the couple was arrested. Included are excerpts of the bodycam footage, and of a recorded diary McDaniel started after being released on bail. She took her own life sixteen days later. Leon Jacob has pleaded not guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Valerie's daughter inherited her estate and now lives with her father, Mack McDaniel. "Taz" Azzeh, the "Hit Man" accepted a plea deal in his theft case and is currently on probation. He hopes to become a Houston Police Officer. UPDATE for the 11/17/18 updated rebroadcast: In 2018, Leon Jacob stood trial. He claimed to only being a womanizer. Both of his intended targets Meghan Verikas and Marion "Mack" McDaniel testified otherwise. Jacob's own words came back to haunt him and he was found guilty on all counts. His sentence: life in prison on each count, solicitation of capital murder for Meghan Verikas and Mack McDaniel. On-screen text graphic for the 11/17/18 updated rebroadcast: Leon Jacob will be eligible for parole in the year 2047. He will be 69 years old. Interviewed: Leon Jacob; Moataz Azzeh ("Hit Man"); Cody Bernard (Valerie's cousin); Greg Holloway (Valerie's friend); Brittany King (Valerie's co-worker); Samantha Knecht (Harris County Assistant District Attorney); Nathan Moss (Assistant District Attorney); Detective Javier (undercover Houston Police officer); George Parnham (Jacob's defense attorney). 11/17/18

48 HOURS: "What Happened In Apartment 4C?" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on the 2016 disappearance and murder of Joey Comunale after a night of partying in New York City. While out clubbing, Comunale accepted an invitation to a party at a Sutton Place apartment with men and women he had just met. That was the last time he was seen. His family and friends turned to social media sites like Instagram and Facebook to locate him. The search led to Larry Dilione, who had been with Comunale at the Grand Sutton apartment of James Rackover, an aspiring model and the surrogate son of Jeffrey Rackover, the so-called "Jeweler to the Stars". Dilione provided information that made no sense to Comunale's father or his friend Max Branchinelli, who had located Dilione on Instagram. Dilione then provided information about Rackover and Max Gemma, whose father was once the mayor of Oceanport, NJ to the police. The investigation revealed that after the murder, Comunale's body was dumped out of a window at the Sutton Place address, driven to Oceanport, NJ and left in a hole in the ground in a wooded area behind a florist shop. Rackover and Dilione were charged with the brutal murder of Comunale and other crimes. Max Gemma was charged with hindering prosecution and tampering with physical evidence. After the arrest, police discovered that Rackover, was not really the son of the celebrity jeweler, but an ex-con from Florida named James Beaudin, who Jeffrey Rackover had befriended, explaining that he was the son he never knew about. At trial, both Rackover and Dilione said the other was responsible. The star witness in the case was Louis Ruggiero, the troubled son of popular New York television anchor Rosanna Scotto. Ruggiero, a close friend of Rackover's, testified about what Rackover told him happened that night, becoming the first witness who directly implicated James Rackover in the crime. On November 2, 2018, the jury reached a verdict: the former James Beaudoin, now James Rackover, was convicted on all counts for the murder. Dilione's trial is set for January, with Gemma being tried at a later date. On-screen text graphic: James Rackover will be sentenced on December 5th. Jeffrey Rackover has moved out of the Grand Sutton and has cut ties to James Rackover. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/24/18      48 HOURS: “The Mysterious Death Of Casey Kasem” – a report on the 2014 death of legendary radio broadcaster Casey Kasem; the family feud involving the battle for Kasem’s fortune; the pending wrongful death suits involving his widow Jean Kasem and the adult children from his first marriage: Julie Kasem, Kerri Kasem and Michael Kasem. The radio legend was heard by millions around the world as host of “American Top 40” and he was also the voice of Shaggy in the cartoon classic “Scooby Doo”. At the time of his death, his estate was estimated to be worth between $80- $100 million. Jean, married to Kasem for 34 years, and the children from his first marriage went to war over the money. Each side accuses the other of hastening his death and both sides have filed wrongful death suits. Jean Kasem claims her husband had cut off the children financially because they were only interested in his money. Kerri Kasem and her siblings blame her father’s death on Jean’s actions, claiming elder abuse. Kasem was diagnosed with Lewy Body Dementia before his death and his condition left him unable to speak during his final months. Jean prevented contact with his children, but they fought to see him, saying they were in charge of his health care. Each side accuses the other of neglect. Nothing was ever proven. After Kasem’s death, as the widow, Jean Kasem was in charge of the body, eventually having him buried in Norway in an unmarked grave. On-screen text graphic: The Kasem family’s wrongful death suit against Jean is scheduled for court next spring. Jean has filed a counter wrongful death suit. The outcome of the case could decide who inherits Casey Kasem’s fortune. Casey Kasem’s radio show can still be heard in syndication around the world. Interviewed: Jean Kasem (widow); Julie Kasem, Kerri Kasem (adult children); Shasta Bartleheim (Jean Kasem’s friend). (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Chuck Stevenson, Resa Matthews)

48 HOURS: “Defending DJ” - a report about Danroy “DJ” Henry and the dedication and struggles his family endured trying to restore their son’s reputation after he was shot dead in Pleasantville, New York, by police officer Aaron Hess in 2010. This event triggered a seven-year journey for the family as they searched for answers about what really happened. During a night out with his teammates, a fight broke out among other restaurant patrons and police were called to the scene. DJ and his friends decided to leave. They were waiting in his car in a fire lane prior to their departure. Police approached the vehicle and told DJ he should move; his friends said DJ started to slowly move away. The police claim that DJ tried to mow officers down with his car when Officer Hess approached and that was how Officer Hess ended up on the hood of the car, shooting his weapon and fatally injuring DJ as he sat behind the wheel. The police claimed Officer Hess shot because he feared for his life. DJ’s friends painted a far different version of the incident. Witnesses agreed, also saying that medical attention was slow to respond. The Henry family vowed to learn the truth – even it was bad. They wanted to know what happened to their son and filed a lawsuit. Four years after the shooting, the family was still hopeful. In 2016, the Henry family accepted the decision in a wrongful death suit against the Village of Pleasantville and Aaron Hess and were awarded $6 million. In 2017, they settled a wrongful death suit with the town of Mount Pleasant for an undisclosed amount and something more valuable to them: a public apology. Seven years after DJ’s death, they cleared his name. No criminal charges were brought in the case. Today, Aaron Hess works in private security. The Henry family has founded the DJ Henry Dream Foundation to honor their son’s memory. On-screen text graphic: Chief Louis Alagno retired in 2013. In 2015 New York State law changed. 12/08/18

48 HOURS: "Dear Savanna" - a report on how Dorothy Lee Barnett ("Lee Barnett") eluded the FBI for over two decades after fleeing the United States with her daughter Savanna, after losing custody of the child. Their 1994 disappearance launched an international search for Barnett and Savanna that did not end until she was arrested in Australia. Lee Barnett was in the midst of a bitter divorce with then-husband Harris Todd. Barnett had married him even though he said he did not want children. Problems began after she became pregnant. They went to counseling, and during this period a doctor diagnosed her as having hyperthymic temperament, a form of bipolar disorder. After Savanna was born, she filed for divorce. Harris counter-sued. The judge sided with Todd. Barnett then started to make plans to leave with 11-month-old Savanna. She obtained fake documents (birth certificates and passports) and disappeared. An FBI manhunt ensued. She was vilified in the press. In 1999, Harris Todd told 48 HOURS that she was mentally ill. Barnett countered with her side of the story: she cut off all contact with her family and headed to Europe, then Malaysia, Singapore, South Africa, Botswana and Australia. Along the way, she met and married Alex Geldenhuys, and had another child, Reece. Unbeknownst to Savanna, she became Samantha Geldenhuys. While they were on the run, Barnett also kept a secret diary for her daughter, planning one day to tell her the story of her life. In 2011, the FBI got a tip that Barnett was living in Australia. Samantha learned about her past from the agents. In 2013, Barnett was extradited to the United States. Samantha has read all the transcripts and the diaries and has a new understanding of her mother. Barnett pled guilty to all charges and spent 21 months in prison. Samantha eventually met her father and described it as a surreal experience. She remains open to a relationship, but stands behind her mother. Original on-screen text graphic: Samantha graduates college in Australia next year. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. Lee is living with friend in Charleston. On-screen text graphic for the 07/16/16 rebroadcast: Samantha is studying nursing and criminology in Australia. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. Lee is living with friends in Charleston. On-screen text graphic for the 12/08/18 rebroadcast: Samantha works as a nurse now. She's getting married this summer. Reese will graduate from Auburn University in Alabama in May. Lee has written a memoir which will be published this spring in Australia. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 12/15/18      48 HOURS: “Don’t Scream” (9:00 - 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast on Tiffany Mead of Davis County, Utah, a young mother who called 911 claiming she had sliced her own throat while her ex-husband and child watched. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn’t suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertman being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. Original on-screen text graphic: Kristopher Ertmann's next parole hearing is set for May 24, 2018. Captain Jen Daley and Lieutenant Bob Thompson will be there with Tiffany. 12/15/18 Update: Four years after Ertmann’s plea he appears before the parole board. - 12/15/18      48 HOURS: “FindJodi” (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on new information in the search for Iowa television anchor Jodi Huisentruit, who disappeared on her way to work on June 27, 1995. When Huisentruit did not arrive at the station for her morning assignment, police were alerted. Outside her apartment, they found signs of a struggle, but her car was still at the scene. An extensive search was conducted, but she was never seen again and her body has never been found. An investigation led authorities to information that Jodi had reported a possible stalker nine months before her disappearance. Several people became suspects, including close friend John Vansice, who some of her friends suspected wanted a romantic relationship, despite their 22-year age difference. Another was Tony Jackson, a serial rapist who lived nearby at the time of Jodi’s disappearance. Throughout the years, friends and family members have kept up the search for Jodi, despite her family declaring her dead in 2001 as a means to settle her estate. In 2003, a group of journalists created a website to keep the story alive and to crack the case. As of 2017, John Vansice, living in Phoenix, is still considered a suspect. Mason City police believe they are close to solving the case. On June 5, 2018, which would have been Jodi’s 50th birthday, four billboards were unveiled in Mason City, Iowa, keeping her memory alive with the hope of solving her disappearance. On-screen text graphic: FindJodi. Are you someone who can crack the case? Please call the Mason City Police Department at 641-421-3636. Interviewed: Doug Merbach (1995 news director); Robin Wolfram (1995 news anchor); Amy Kuns (1995 producer); Jack Schlieper (1995 Police Chief); Joann Nathe (Jodi’s sister); Staci Steinman and Kim Feist (Jodi’s good friends); John Vansice (friend and suspect - seen in 1995 interviews); Ani Kruse (Mason City friend); LaDonna Woodford (friend of John Vansice); Caroline Lowe (WCCO-TV investigative journalist); Gary Peterson, John Benson (journalists); Jay Alverio (retired detective); Jeff Brinkley (current Mason City Police Chief) (C: Jim Axelrod – P: Clare Friedland, Ruth Chenetz, Chris Young Ritzen)

12/22/18

48 HOURS: "Cold-Blooded Killer" – an updated rebroadcast about Mike Williams, a missing Florida man who was believed to have been eaten by alligators in December 2000, and his mother's belief that something sinister happened. Williams, a successful real estate appraiser, left home to go duck hunting on Lake Seminole on his sixth wedding anniversary. When he did not return home, his wife Denise started looking for him. A massive search ensued. It ended after 44 days with Williams listed as "still missing." People wondered if he had run off. After six months, his waders, hunting license and a flashlight were discovered at the lake and another explanation was offered: he was eaten by alligators. Mike's mother, Cheryl Williams, always believed there was more to the story. For nine years, she wrote to the governor of Florida urging him to re-open the case. She even contacted wildlife experts, who told her that alligators do not feed in cold winter months. In the meantime, Denise Williams moved on with her life, cashed in life insurance policies and completely cut off contact with Mike's mother. She eventually married Mike's best friend Brian Winchester. Seven years later, the re-opened investigation led to suspicions that both Cheryl and Brian were involved, but police could do nothing because they were married to each other. Soon after, their marriage disintegrated. Police saw an opportunity when Brian cracked after assaulting and kidnapping Denise, to which he pleaded guilty and cut a deal with prosecutors: he finally admitted to killing Mike Williams. Brian revealed the location of the body, with the understanding he that would not be charged with murder. He said it was all Denise's idea -- she was not willing to be divorced, but wanted to be with Brian. She was arrested and charged with murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Denise Williams is scheduled to stand trial for the murder of her husband on December 10, 2018. Mike and Denise's daughter is nineteen and in college. She is said to be close with Denise's sisters. 12/22/18 Update: The trial began in December 2018. The prosecution's star witness, Brian Winchester, admitted he killed Mike Williams. Defense attorney Ethan Way was so confident the state had no hard evidence that he did not want the jury to consider any charges less than murder one. The jury took eight hours to reach a verdict: Denise Williams was guilty on all counts. Mike Williams' mother can now lay her son to rest. On-screen text graphic for the 12/22/18 updated rebroadcast: Denise Williams is scheduled to be sentenced in February. She is facing life in prison. Brian Winchester will be eligible for release in 2033. He will be 63-years-old. Interviewed: David Arnette and Alton Ranew (Florida Department of Law Enforcement officers); Scott and Anessa Dungey (Mike's high school friends); Clay and Pattie Ketcham (Mike's real estate appraiser/co-worker and wife); Brett Ketcham (high school friend); Jennifer Portman (48 HOURS Consultant/journalist, Tallahassee Democrat); Matt Aresco (alligator expert); Derrick Webster (Jackson County Sheriff's Office); Tim Jansen (Winchester's attorney); Ethan Way (Denise Williams' attorney) (C: Richard Schlesinger – P: Josh Gelman, Jaime Hellman) (OAD: 10/20/18)

- 12/29/18      48 HOURS: "Breaking Point" (9:00 – 10:00p) – the first hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. At the time of his death, Ryan Poston was a young successful attorney with a bright future ahead of him. Shayna Hubers' family and friends also thought she would be successful in all she did. The couple met on Facebook and dated on and off for 18 months. Ryan was busy with his career and not ready to settle down, but found it hard to let go of Shayna. According to Ryan's friends, Shayna's behavior became obsessive. He told her he was not seeing her on the weekend of October 12, 2012, but did not tell her that he had a date with another woman. He did not make the date: a 911 call to police was made by Shayna, telling police she had shot her boyfriend in self-defense. Police were suspicious from the start. She had shot him six times. Shayna also talked endlessly during the 3-hour interrogation video and then, when alone, she danced and sang songs. Friends said Ryan was not an abuser. She was charged with murder. Investigation revealed that, after the shooting, she waited 10 minutes to call 911. She also texted endlessly; there were thousands of text messages to Ryan, most of which he did not answer. Yet, because of Kentucky laws, he could not get a restraining order. Prosecutors believe that Shayna could not deal with Ryan's rejection and that her rage sent her over the edge. She believed it was over for good and would have none of it. Now it is 2014, and she has been jailed since 2012 awaiting trial. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley and his assistant Lori Zimmerman; Shayna's friend, Sarah Robinson; Ryan's neighbor, Nikki Carnes; Lieutenant Dave Fornash; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhaur; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and neighbor Doris West. (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 04/23/16; 1st rebroadcast: 07/15/17)
- 12/29/18      48 HOURS: "Obsessed" (10:00 – 11:00p) - the revised second hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. In 2014, two and a half years after the crime, the trial is set to begin. Central to the trial is what Shayna told police. Prosecutors believe the only person in danger that night was Ryan Poston, and that Shayna acted out of hate. Ryan did not want to see Shayna anymore. There were no signs of a violent struggle, as Shayna had suggested happening. Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers, cannot comprehend what is happening to her daughter. The defense must convince the jury that Ryan was the aggressor. A verdict is reached: guilty of murder. The court re-convenes for sentencing. Shayna Hubers, who has been diagnosed as a narcissist, addresses the court, but never apologizes to Ryan's family. Shayna Hubers is sentenced to 40 years. 07/15/17 Epilogue: One year later, a surprising development: a new trial is ordered. The verdict was overturned due to a problem with the jury. Shayna will be tried all over again, in about a year. Ryan's family is ready. 12/29/18 Update: In August, 2018, newly married Shayna Hubers is prepared. She now claims that Ryan was abusive and she suffers from a borderline personality disorder. Her stories about that night have changed as well, and the prosecutor hones in on that. The jury finds her guilty. The next day, after the victim impact statements, the jury calls for life in prison -- more time than Shayna received in the original trial. Original on-screen text graphic: Shayna Hubers' appeals attorney is asking for a new trial. A convicted felon served on the jury and should have been disqualified. On-screen text graphic for the 07/15/17 rebroadcast: Shayna Hubers remains in jail without bond. On-screen text graphic for the 12/29/18 rebroadcast: Judge Dan Zalla upheld the jury's life sentence. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhaur; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and Ryan's cousin Carissa Carlisle. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/02/18      “Deconstructing My Religion” – an interfaith special looking at what happens when people have doubts about the faith tradition in which they were raised, and how the sharing of personal stories can be a means to heal from spiritual trauma. Featured: (1) Linda Kay Klein is the author of Pure: Inside the Evangelical Movement that Shamed a Generation of Young Women and How I Broke Free. While sexual shame is not exclusive to evangelical Christian culture, Klein’s experiences are based on her formative years in the movement. Her book explores how this culture of shame had an impact on her understanding of herself, and why it eventually led to her leaving evangelicalism. (2) Blake Chastain and Christopher Stroop grew up in conservative evangelical homes and experienced a crisis of faith in their youth. In 2016 they created an online movement in response to white evangelicals’ support for President Trump during and after the election. Chastain popularized the term “exvangelical”. Self-described “exvangelicals” reject evangelicalism. Some are in various stages of “deconstruction,” a process that describes the act of reconciling what they learned growing up in a religious household with how they experience life today. Also featured is Julie Ingersoll, Ph.D, professor of religious studies at University of North Florida in Jacksonville and author of Building God’s Kingdom: Inside the World of Christian Reconstruction. Ingersoll sees the “exvangelical” movement as an important development because not only does it paint a more complete picture of white evangelical subculture, but also it spotlights stories that are compelling and need to be heard. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Yuti Joshi. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in Consultation with Interfaith organizations, clergy, and Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, and Sikh scholars.)
- 12/24/18      “A Bold New Love: A Christmas Eve with Middle Collegiate Church” – a Christmas Eve special from Middle Collegiate Church, a 1,200-member, multiracial congregation in Manhattan’s East Village. The Middle Collegiate Church was founded in 1628 by Dutch immigrants, and is now co-affiliated with the United Church of Christ and Reformed Church in America. This Christmas Eve celebration features gospel and classical music, four choirs, two dance companies, and a spoken word artist. Tituss Burgess conducts the Art & Soul Chorus and the church’s 50-member gospel choir is joined by dancers from Dendy/Donovan Projects, Rod Rogers Dance Company, and the children of Middle Collegiate Church. The Rev. Dr. Jacqui Lewis, the senior minister of Middle Collegiate Church, offers a powerful sermon: “A Bold New Religion Called Love”. (Executive Producers for CBS: Elizabeth M. Kineke, John P. Blessington. Executive Producer: The Rev. Jacqueline J. Lewis, Ph.D. Director: Charles Randolph-Wright. Producer: Michael Hanna.)
