Missouri Community Service Commission to Honor KOAM & FOX 14 For Community Service

JEFFERSON CITY – It has been said that one of the greatest gifts that people can give to each other is time.

According to Linda Jackson, executive director of the Missouri Community Service Commission (MCSC), nothing can compare to the benefits reaped when individuals come together with the goal of improving and enriching the lives of others. MCSC, with a vision to strengthen Missouri Communities through volunteerism and service, will pay special recognition to organizations and individuals who exemplify outstanding community service throughout the state at its annual awards banquet, April 12 in Jefferson City.

Bob Foos, co-owner and editor, Webb City Sentinel, for exceptional support and coverage of community organizations.

In the television category honorees include, Darren Dishman, general manager of KOAM TV and FOX 14, Joplin, for partnering with the Alliance of Southwest Missouri in promoting quality life decisions and highlighting safe, distraction-free driving as well as seat belt safety

The MCSC Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service Award will be presented to Cottey College, Nevada for its “Nourishing the Body, Mind and Spirit” project, a day of service and celebration in honor of Dr. King. Student organizations organized projects that included a food drive, a book drive, campus education, chapel service and a performance by the Harlem Gospel Choir.

The MCSC is composed of 15-25 governor-appointed commissioners with expertise in areas of community service and volunteerism. Commissioners and staff work together to encourage all Missourians to give of themselves to make Missouri a better place to live for all of its residents.

According to Jackson, many Missourians throughout the state have helped to achieve positive results in Missouri’s communities.

“Whether it is the AmeriCorps members serving their communities, or the volunteers who donate their time throughout the year and on ‘Make a Difference Day,’ the commission has had much success empowering individuals to ‘make a difference’ in Missouri communities,” Jackson said. “One of our goals for the coming year is to increase the number of volunteers to make an even greater impact throughout our state.” The awards ceremony will begin with a reception at 5 p.m. followed by dinner at 6 p.m. at the Truman Hotel, Jefferson City.

Harriet,

You may have already heard from Chris Kelly at KKOW/KBZI Radio. Last Thursday KKOW AM & FM/ KBZI along with KOAM & KFJX TV came together for a 2-hour (11am-1pm) live remote in the parking lot of Pittsburg's Pizza Hut. We promoted Pizza Hut donating a portion of their profits to the Greensburg victims & we also conducted a parking lot drive-through "boot block" with donations going to the American Red Cross Greensburg relief fund. About $2,000.00 was raised during the 2-hour boot block. KKOW/KBZI aired many live liners & KOAM/KFJX aired about 50 :05's urging folks to drive by & make a donation. KOAM Morning News anchors talked-up the event & Weather Anchor Dave Pylant was live during the Noon News. Later in the day on both KOAM & KFJX a summary of the efforts was broadcast during the newscasts.

Thanks!

48 HOURS MYSTERY

THURS 8PM

04/07/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghost of David Coffin" - In December 1996, Atlanta resident David Coffin, having spent the weekend with his girlfriend, Megan Lee, returned home to find his house ransacked and his Porsche stolen. Two days later the burned remnant of his body was found lying on its back in the charred remains of his home -- the intensity of the fire had left no immediate clues to the cause of his death. Meanwhile, on that same night, Megan Lee's estranged husband, Scott Davis, claimed he himself had been attacked by an assailant who warned him to stay away from Megan and who then tried to set Davis' house on fire. When interviewed by police, Davis said that he had not shot Coffin -- which immediately made him a suspect, as police did not know at that point just how Coffin had died. Davis was arrested for murder, but with no physical evidence linking him to the crime, all charges were eventually dropped. Nearly ten years later, after Davis tried to run for Governor of California, and because of the persistence of David Coffin's father, the Atlanta Police Cold Case Unit reviewed the case against him. He was arrested again and charged with murder. During the trial, jurors heard from Megan Lee about their failed marriage; his fixation with David Coffin; and his incriminating statements, both to Megan Lee and the police, about how David Coffin died. Despite the alibi provided by the testimony of his father, Dr. Dave Davis, a forensic psychiatrist, Scott Davis was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. He maintains his innocence; his attorneys plan an appeal. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Allen Alter, Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Daria Hirsch)

04/14/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Puppet Master" - A report on the marriage of Heather and Ron Samuels, who, even after divorcing, were involved in a bitter custody battle. In October 1997, newlyweds Heather and John Grossman were shot at while driving. John survived the shooting but a bullet severed Heather's spinal cord, leaving her a quadriplegic. Heather was immediately certain that ex-husband Ron was involved in the crime, as he had once threatened to make her pay for leaving him. Investigators were able to track down three men who they believed were involved in the assault: Hugh Estess, the car owner; Eddie Stafford, the driver, and Roger Runyon, the shooter. Also implicated was Geoff Pollock, who was present at meetings when the crime was discussed. Ron Samuels was named as the man behind the crime - the puppet master. In exchange for complete immunity, police got the co-conspirators to acknowledge Samuels' lead role in the crime. Before Samuels could be arrested, he fled to Mexico. He ran afoul of the law there when police found six kilos of cocaine in his car. He was imprisoned and, five years later, still proclaiming his innocence, he was extradited to the U.S. to stand trial for the attempted murders. He was found guilty of all charges and sentenced to life in prison for the attempted murders, plus an additional 120 years for the other charges. The court ordered Samuels to pay Heather restitution, but he claims that he's broke. Investigators are tracking any remaining assets. He is planning to appeal his conviction. - 04/21/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Nightmare In Napa" - an updated report on the October 2004 murders of former beauty queen Leslie Mazzara and her roommate, Adriane Insogna, in the upstairs bedrooms of their Napa, California home. A third roommate, Lauren Mianza, sleeping downstairs, was not harmed and was the only witness. After almost a year's investigation, one clue -- the discarded butts of Camel Turkish Gold cigarettes found at the scene -- led to Eric Copple, the husband of Insogna's best friend, Lily Prudhomme. Copple made admissions to the police that linked him to the crime. He was expected to stand trial in 2006 and could face the death penalty. Update: Copple and the District Attorney reached a deal and he pleaded guilty to two counts of first-degree murder, which spared him the death penalty. In January 2007, he was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. He forfeited all rights of appeal or clemency. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Paul LaRosa) (Update of "Nightmare In Napa" OAD: 11/19/05)
- 04/28/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The Fast Lane" - an updated report on the March 1988 murder of legendary racecar driver Mickey Thompson and his wife Trudy. Colleen Campbell, Thompson's sister and former mayor of San Juan Capistrano, CA, is convinced that Michael Goodwin, her brother's former partner, was the killer. Goodwin, earlier accused by Mickey Thompson of stealing hundreds of thousands from their business, denied that he hired two hitmen to commit the murders. He claimed that Campbell used her political influence to make him the prime suspect in the criminal investigation. He was arrested in December 2001 and was to stand trial in the summer of 2002. Update: After two and a half years, the case against Goodwin was dismissed by Orange County, but he was rearrested by authorities from Los Angeles County, who held him for another two and a half years. After five years of being held without bail, Goodwin wne on trial in Pasadena, CA - eighteen years after the murders. He was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to two consecutive life terms, with no chance for parole. He plans to appeal based on his inability to present other possible suspects. - 05/05/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Power, Passion and Poison" - a report on the death of 50-year-old Kathy Augustine, a career politician from Nevada. Questions arose about the cause of her death after police received a tip from her husband's co-worker that she may have been poisoned, and toxicology reports further confirmed the presence of the powerful paralytic drug Succinylcholine. That discovery led to further questions about the death three years earlier of her estranged husband, Charles Augustine; her subsequent and immediate marriage to Chaz Higgs, a nurse who had cared for him, and if politics played any part in her death. Upon further investigation, Chaz Higgs was arrested and charged with the murder of Kathy Augustine. He is currently free on bail and his trial is scheduled to begin next month. Nevada authorities are no longer investigating alleged threats against Augustine by political enemies. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend, Catherine was savagely murdered. The two men became suspects in her murder and it was then that her exotic dancing career came to light to the police and to her family. Attorney Nathan Dershowitz is planning an appeal, claiming hair and other forensic evidence was never thoroughly tested. Included are interviews with David Haughn; Paul Cortez and his mother, Yvette Cortez; and Catherine's parents, Jon and Donna Woods. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Patti Aronofsky)

Jennifer Corbin, involved in an online romance, had told her family that she was planning to leave Bart. Bart was arrested for the murder of both women. When Richard Wilson, a friend of Bart's, admitted to police that he had given Bart the gun which was found beside Jennifer's body, Bart admitted that he had killed both Dolly and Jennifer. But after their daughter Ericka was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging. The marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce; they fought over their daughter and over money. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, perceived by many to be biased towards women in family disputes, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, over the next five years, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the United States. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. The trial will not begin until later this year. In the meanwhile, after previously unresearched DNA evidence and a palm print found at the crime scene were run through a databank of convicted felons, a new suspect was found: Charles Darnell Boney. Boney had been released from prison just months before the murders. In 2005, Boney was arrested, resulting in charges against Camm being dismissed. But Camm was arrested minutes later for the murders, due to the belief by the prosecution that he and Boney acted together. They were tried separately and in January 2006, Boney was convicted for the homicides and sentenced to 225 years in prison. - 06/19/07 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghost of David Coffin" - In December 1996, Atlanta resident David Coffin, having spent the weekend with his girlfriend, Megan Lee, returned home to find his house ransacked and his Porsche stolen. Two days later the burned remnant of his body was found lying on its back in the charred remains of his home -- the intensity of the fire had left no immediate clues to the cause of his death. Meanwhile, on that same night, Megan Lee's estranged husband, Scott Davis, claimed he himself had been attacked by an assailant who warned him to stay away from Megan and who then tried to set Davis' house on fire. When interviewed by police, Davis said that he had not shot Coffin -- which immediately made him a suspect, as police did not know at that point just how Coffin had died. Davis was arrested for murder, but with no physical evidence linking him to the crime, all charges were eventually dropped. Nearly ten years later, after Davis tried to run for Governor of California, and because of the persistence of David Coffin's father, the Atlanta Police Cold Case Unit reviewed the case against him. He was arrested again and charged with murder. During the trial, jurors heard from Megan Lee about their failed marriage; his fixation with David Coffin; and his incriminating statements, both to Megan Lee and the police, about how David Coffin died. Despite the alibi provided by the testimony of his father, Dr. Dave Davis, a forensic psychiatrist, Scott Davis was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. He maintains his innocence; his attorneys plan an appeal. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Allen Alter, Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Daria Hirsch) (OAD: 04/07/07)

Justin himself sustained four bullet wounds in the incident, which he described as an attack by an unknown assailant. In July 2004, after an extended investigation, Justin Barber was arrested for the murder of his wife. At his trial in June 2006, he was found guilty of first degree premeditated murder, and sentenced to life in prison, without parole. His family hired a private investigator to re-examine the murder of April Barber. Afterwards, when she had recovered from the attack, Joan said she doesn't recall that nod and that Christopher is innocent. 48 HOURS follows the police investigation into the case, leading to Christopher Porco's trial and conviction. Includes interviews with: Mike McDermott, chief prosecutor, Albany County; Chris Bowdish, detective; Christopher Porco; David Rossi, prosecutor; Laurie Shanks, lawyer; Terry Kindlon, lawyer; Dr. Mary Dombovy, neurologist.
