America's broadcasting industry is in the midst of an exciting revolution as it transitions from analog to digital television technology. Since the late 1990s, television broadcasters have been preparing for the transition from analog to digital television (DTV) scheduled for February 17, 2009, as set by Congress. But as the transition draws near, are you ready?

Find out at: www.DTVAnswers.com

Get ready for the switch to digital television (DTV)

DTVAnswers.com

By law, full-power television stations nationwide must end their analog broadcasts and begin broadcasting exclusively in a digital format after February 17, 2009. Television sets connected to cable, satellite or a telephone company service provider will not be affected, and will continue to receive broadcast programming after that date. But TV sets that are not connected to a paid television service, or do not have a built-in digital tuner, will not receive a television signal after the date of the switch.*

Why is America Switching to DTV?

DTV is a more efficient way to broadcast, and it will free up the airwaves for a variety of new services. DTV also provides crystal-clear pictures and sound, more channels and even free, over the air high-definition television (HDTV) for consumers with HD television sets. DTV will also allow more services than ever before with free, broadcast television.

How do I upgrade to DTV?

You can upgrade to DTV by following one of three steps by February 17, 2009:

- DTV converter box: Purchase a DTV converter box that plugs into your existing analog TV set. A converter box will enable you to continue to receive free television reception, and the boxes, which are expected to cost between $40 and $70, will be available for purchase in early 2008. The federal government is providing $40 coupons that you may use toward the purchase of these boxes. For more information or to request a coupon, call 1 (888) DTV-2009 or 1 (877) 530-2634 (TTY), or visit www.DTV2009.gov.
- Digital TV set: Purchase a new television set with a built-in digital or Advanced Television Systems Committee (ATSC) tuner, which start at under $100. All TVs with digital tuners are able to receive digital signals broadcast by television stations, so you can continue to receive your free programming with no monthly fees.
- Paid service: Subscribe to cable, satellite or a telephone company service provider to continue using your analog TV set, if all desired local broadcast stations are carried by that service.

With more than 34 million households receiving over-the-air television signals in their homes, our goal is to educate all Americans about the switch to DTV.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 07/01/08      48 HOURS VANISHED: "Stolen Beauty" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the October 2005 disappearance of Tara Grinstead, an 11th grade history teacher and beauty pageant queen from Ocilla, Georgia – and a similar case three months later, in January 2006, of Jennifer Kesse, a financial analyst from Orlando, Florida, who disappeared after she returned home from a vacation to St. Croix with her boyfriend. This account includes background details, surrounding circumstances, a possible link between the two cases, as well information regarding the ongoing investigation by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and the Orlando Police Department. Among those interviewed are: Connie Grinstead, Tara's stepmother; Gary Rothwell, special agent with the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Rob Allen, Jennifer's boyfriend; several members of Jennifer's family; Sergeant Roger Brennan and Detective Joel Wright of the Orlando Police Department. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Katherine Davis)
- 07/05/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "No Way Out" (9:00-10:00p) - In August 2005, after Hurricane Katrina had passed over southeastern Louisiana, many people thought the region had been spared from the most severe damage. But the worst was yet to come: on Monday, August 29th, the region's protective levees started to fail, and entire communities were overwhelmed by floodwater. In St. Bernard Parish, just southeast of New Orleans, thousands had evacuated the region, but others had stayed behind to shelter in place, including the residents, staff, and operators of St. Rita's Nursing Home, Sal and Mabel Mangano. The Mangano's and their staff saved 24 of the residents and got them to safety, but the wall of water and its aftermath left 35 of the residents dead. But when the bodies were discovered at the nursing home, no one thought of the Manganos as heroes. Having been evacuated to Texas, Sal and Mabel returned to Louisiana, where they were each arrested and charged with 35 counts of negligent homicide and 24 counts of cruelty to the infirm. Prosecutors claimed that the Manganos had no intention of evacuating, based on the inadequate evacuation plan on file with the state; the fact that the other three nursing homes in the parish had made the decision to evacuate; that the parish government adequately stressed the importance of evacuation; that telephone calls made by parish officials to the Manganos went unanswered; and that the Manganos turned down an offer of buses to help evacuate their residents. At the trial, several family members of the deceased testified that the Manganos had told them they would evacuate the nursing home before Hurricane Katrina struck - something both Sal and Mabel deny. The defense strategy was to make the trial about the government failures that led to the flooding of St. Bernard Parish – and it was successful: they were both found not guilty on 118 counts. Among those interviewed are: Sal and Mabel Mangano; Joe and Cheryl Gallodoro, whose father T.J. died at St. Rita's; St. Bernard Parish clerk Polly Boudreaux; St. Bernard Parish coroner Dr. Bryan Bertucci; prosecutors Julie Cullen and Paul Knight; and defense attorney Jim Cobb. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 07/05/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In 'The Fast Lane'" (10:00-11:00p) - an updated report (see "Murder In 'The Fast Lane'" OAD: 05/20/02) on the March 1988 murder of legendary racecar driver Mickey Thompson and his wife Trudy. Colleen Campbell, Thompson's sister and former mayor of San Juan Capistrano, CA, is convinced that Michael Goodwin, her brother's former partner, was the killer. Goodwin, earlier accused by Mickey Thompson of stealing hundreds of thousands from their business, denied that he hired two hitmen to commit the murders. He claimed that Campbell used her political influence to make him the prime suspect in the criminal investigation. He was arrested in December 2001 and was to stand trial in the summer of 2002. Update: After two and a half years, the case against Goodwin was dismissed by Orange County, but he was rearrested by authorities from Los Angeles County, who held him for another two and a half years. After five years of being held without bail, Goodwin went on trial in Pasadena, CA - eighteen years after the murders. He was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to two consecutive life terms, with no chance for parole. He plans to appeal based on his inability to present other possible suspects. (C: Bill Lagatutta - P: James Stolz) (OAD: 04/28/07; includes brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)
- 07/08/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "An Eye For An Eye" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the October 2004 murder of Dr. Brian Stidham, a pediatric eye surgeon in Tucson, Arizona, and the subsequent investigation which led to the trial and conviction of his colleague Dr. Bradley Schwartz. Includes interviews with: Andrea Depwe, Stidham's sister; Joyce Stidham, Stidham's mother; Dr. Joseph Miller, pediatric ophthalmologist, friend of Stidham; Detective Jill Murphy, lead investigator in the case; Lourdes Salomon Lopez, a former prosecutor who once dated Dr. Schwartz, and a witness in the case; Laurie Espinoza, office manager, Arizona Specialty Eye Care; Lisa Goldberg, who dated Dr. Schwartz; Sylvia Lafferty, prosecutor in the case; Brick Storis III, Schwartz's attorney. Postscript graphic: Bruce Bigger, the hired killer, was convicted of first degree murder and conspiracy. He received life in prison with no chance of parole. Bradley Schwartz will be eligible for parole in 22 years. The Arizona State Bar has recommended Lourdes Lopez should be disbarred. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Ian P. Paisley, Joe Halderman, Lourdes Aguiar) (OAD: 10/27/07; includes brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)
- 07/12/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder on Lockhart Road" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the ongoing investigation involving David Camm, a former Indiana state trooper, who was found guilty in 2002 of the September 2000 triple homicide of his wife and children. (Includes portions of "The Alibi", OAD: 10/11/02.) Camm's conviction was reversed in 2004. In the meanwhile, after previously unsearched DNA evidence and a palm print found at the crime scene were run through a databank of convicted felons, a new suspect was found: Charles Darnell Boney. Boney had been released from prison just months before the murders. In 2005, Boney was arrested, resulting in charges against Camm being dismissed. But Camm was arrested minutes later for the murders, due to the belief by the prosecution that he and Boney acted together. They were tried separately and in January 2006, Boney was convicted for the homicides and sentenced to 225 years in prison. In March 2006, Camm was found guilty of murdering his wife and children and was sentenced to life in prison without parole. Boney and Camm are serving their sentences in separate prisons, two hundred miles apart. A medical examiner's report found that Jimmy was dead before the blaze had even started, and that he had been injected with a lethal dose of a drug called rocuronium, used in hospital procedures when doctors need to temporarily paralyze muscles. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

08/02/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Addicted To Love" (10:00-11:00p) - When police arrived at the Franklin, Tennessee apartment of Lesa Buchanan on the Fourth of July weekend in 2005, they were surprised by what they found in her home: a cache of prescription drugs and sex toys. Lesa and her boyfriend, Dr. Christ Koulis, had spent most of that final weekend in her bedroom, having sex. Koulis, a plastic surgeon, had called 911 when she stopped breathing, and said he performed CPR, but that there was no pulse. When Lesa was rushed to the emergency room, the doctors trying to save her life said Dr. Koulis told them nothing about the drugs she had been using -- information that could have been crucial in saving her life. With Lesa dead, investigators quickly focused on drugs. At her apartment, detectives discovered used syringes with traces of oxycodone -- a powerful narcotic used to kill pain and available only from a prescribing physician. After a five month investigation, Dr. Koulis was arrested on four charges -- ranging from simple assault to second degree murder. At the trial, prosecutors alleged Dr. Koulis had injected Lesa with oxycodone during the course of the weekend, which eventually led to her death. But the defense claimed Lesa injected herself, and that she had a drug problem -- a claim her family and investigators disputed. Ultimately, Dr. Koulis was found guilty of criminally negligent homicide. He will likely remain free until 2009, pending his appeal. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ira Sutow, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 02/16/08 - includes brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)

08/09/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fight For The Truth" (9:00-10:00p) - a followup to "Prime Suspect" (OAD: 04/07/04, updated 03/12/05 and 07/15/06), a report on Marty Tankleff, who as a 17-year-old, was convicted of murdering his adoptive parents Seymour and Arlene Tankleff in their Bell Terre, Long Island home. Marty initially confessed, but quickly recanted. He has fought for years for his innocence, especially as new witnesses have surfaced who could potentially exonerate him. On December 19, 2007, 17 years after Marty went to prison, the Court overturned his conviction and he was released, pending a new trial. Just six days after his release, the Suffolk County D.A. announced he intended to drop all charges and it was announced the prosecution against Marty Tankleff was over. Marty's celebration is tempered by the fact that New York's governor has asked for a special prosecutor to investigate the case; in the meantime, he is a free man, about to start college. Included are interviews with several key witnesses in the case: James McCready, the lead detective; Assistant District Attorney Leonard Lato; Tankleff's investigator Jay Salpeter, who took the case on a pro bono basis; and Richard Ofshe, an expert in interrogation tactics who believes in Tankleff's innocence. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman) (OAD: 01/26/08; includes an update.) Update for this rebroadcast: Six months after Marty Tankleff was released from prison, the attorney general's office asked that all charges be dropped, due to insufficient evidence. The special prosecutor's investigation recently uncovered new blood evidence that was overlooked for two decades and which points away from Marty's guilt. Marty is currently in college, majoring in sociology, and plans on attending law school. A state commission is investigating how the Tankleff case has been handled and their report is expected this fall.

08/09/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY SPECIAL INVESTIGATION: "Where's Maddie?" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the May 3, 2007 disappearance and ongoing search for three-year-old Madeleine McCann. Maddie, the daughter of British doctors, Kate and Gerry McCann, disappeared while vacationing with her family in Praia da Luz, Portugal, when she, along with her younger brother and sister, was left sleeping and unsupervised in her parents unlocked apartment -- while they dined at a nearby tapas restaurant. Includes interviews with: Jane Tanner, a friend of the McCann's who dined with them the night Maddie disappeared and believes she may have witnessed the abduction in progress; Jon Corner, a filmmaker and close family friend who documented the McCann's quest to find their daughter; Joe Moura, a Boston-based private investigator, hired by 48 HOURS MYSTERY to determine if Maddie was abducted or if her parents were involved; Sitsan Healy, Kate's mother; and Francisco Marco, a Spanish private investigator hired by a wealthy supporter of the McCann family and who claims to know the identity of the kidnapper. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Doug Longhini, Joe Halderman, Liza Finley, Avi Cohen, Patti Aronofsky, Josh Gelman, Peter Henderson, Chris Young) (OAD: 11/17/07; includes an update.) Update for this rebroadcast: Just three weeks ago, Portuguese authorities cleared Kate and Gerry McCann as arguidos -- official suspects -- as well as British local Robert Murat. The Portuguese police have closed the case for now, unless there are any new developments to investigate. Francisco Marco now leads the McCann's own team of investigators and now will be able to search police files, hoping to trigger a new lead.

08/16/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Storm of Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, New Orleans was left with a breakdown of the city's infrastructure and a severely challenged justice system struggling to cope with the highest murder rate in the nation. This report on the escalating murder rate in New Orleans focusses on the January 2007 murder of filmmaker Helen Hill and the December 2006 murder of musician Dinerthal Shavers. Among those interviewed about Helen Hill are Paul Gailunas, her husband; her mother Becky and stepfather Kevin Lewis; her brother, Jake Hill. Among those interviewed about Dinerthal Shavers are Kevin George, principal of Rabouin High School; his mother, Yolande; his sister, Nakita; Shamarr Allen, Chad Honore, fellow musicians in the "Hot 8" brass band; and several of his students. Others interviewed include: Lt. Mike Glasser, Lt. Joe Meisch, New Orleans Police Department; William Boggs, New Orleans Public Defender; music professor Baty Landis; Garland Rabinette, New Orleans radio talk show host; Pastor John Raphael. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Joe Halderman, Deborah Grau, Stephen A. McCain) (OAD: 10/13/07; includes an update.) Update for this rebroadcast: In April 2008, David Bonds went on trial for the second-degree murder of Dinerthal Shavers. Once again, the prosecution's case fell apart when a key eyewitness refused to cooperate. Though another witness testified that she did see the shooting, the stark contradiction left the jury deadlocked. Ultimately, the jury cleared David Bonds of all charges in the killing of Dinerthal Shavers. Two months after David Bonds was acquitted for the Shavers murder, he was arrested and charged with attempted murder in another shooting. There still has been no arrest in the Helen Hill case.

- 08/16/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of Palm Beach" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about the murder of Linda Fishman, a wealthy widow found murdered in her Florida home. The childless woman had always been known for her generosity and at first it was suspected that her nephew was responsible for the crime. As the investigation continued, police learned that there was no shortage of men in the life of Linda Fishman - a financially strapped nephew, a former lover, a registered sex offender. Police were stymied, until an anonymous letter made them aware of Frederick Kretzmer, a man with whom Linda had had a relationship. After their breakup he joined the Navy, served time in prison, then resurfaced and he looked up an old girlfriend, Gissele Ospina. It was she who wrote the anonymous letter giving detectives their break. Kretzmer gave a full confession in open court and was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Included are interviews with Fishman's nephew, Michael Janzuck; Police Officers Eric Keith, Tim McCabe, Richard Lonnidbury, Kenneth Buss; prosecutor Angela Miller; Kretzmer's former roommate Mario Segura; former girlfriend Gissele Ospina. - 08/30/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghosts of Greenwich" - a report on developments in the investigation of the 1975 murder of Martha Moxley which supporters hope will lead to the exoneration of Michael Skakel. A witness has come to light with a story of two boyhood friends who apparently bragged about killing Moxley. Includes interviews with Prof. Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Law, Pace University and Michael's cousin; and Skakel's brothers - David, Stephen and John -- all of whom believe in Michael's innocence. Kennedy has written an article for The Atlantic Monthly, which outlines his reasons for claiming that Michael Skakel was wrongly convicted. Also includes interviews with: Len Levitt, New York Newsday; Dr. Michael Baden, forensics expert; Jonathan Denediet, prosecutor; Gene Roccio, attorney for Ken Littleton, also a suspect in the case; and Jeanine Pirro, former judge and now District Attorney in Westchester County, New York. Michael Skakel's attorney plans to file a motion for a new trial by the end of September 2003. (C: Lesley Stahl - St. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Anthony Batson, Mary Noonan Robichaux) (followup to "RFK, Jr.: A Family's Defense" OAD: 04/16/03, which itself was a followup to "Never Forget" OAD: 05/11/00) (OAD for "The Ghosts of Greenwich": 09/10/03; includes an update.) Update for this rebroadcast: An appeal to the Connecticut Supreme Court based in part on the 1975 statute of limitations on murder, was denied. As was a request to appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. Last year, a petition for a new trial was filed based on the allegations of Tony Bryant, but it was also denied. Since then, the Skakels have filed fresh appeals in both state and federal courts, and there is new action in the works questioning the effectiveness of Michael's first lawyer, Mickey Sherman. He will be eligible to apply for parole in 2013. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Josh Gelman - St. P: Anthony Batson)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 09/06/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Letter" - On December 3, 1998, police in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin were called to the home of Mark and Julie Jensen. Mark said he had found his wife dead in her bed. Initially, police thought suicide was a strong possibility. But a letter written by Julie before her death expressed her suspicion that Mark might kill her. A series of toxicology tests revealed in Julie's stomach a small amount of ethylene glycol, the main ingredient in antifreeze. In March 2002, Mark was arrested and charged with the first degree murder of his wife. Initially, the judge would not allow Julie's letter to be introduced as evidence in the trial. The prosecutor appealed this decision, ultimately to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Five years passed; the appeal was successful. In January 2008, Mark went on trial Julie's murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole. Includes interviews with Julie Jensen's brothers Patrick, Paul, Mike and Larry Griffin; Florence and Dan Jensen, Mark's parents; Theresa DeFazio, teacher of one of Julie's sons; Ted and Margaret Wojt, friends of Julie Jensen; Robert Jambois, former Kenosha County District Attorney, now special prosecutor; Angie Gabrielle, Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Mary Mainland, Kenosha County medical examiner; Ed Klug, business associate of Mark Jensen; Aaron Dillard, prosecution witness. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

09/20/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Who Killed the Beauty Queen?" - On December 15, 2005, 19-year-old college student and aspiring beauty queen Nona Dirksmeyer was found murdered inside her Russellville, Arkansas apartment. Nona's boyfriend Kevin Jones said he had been trying to reach her numerous times by phone but that his calls and messages had gone unanswered. Eventually, he and his mother decided to stop by Nona's apartment, where they discovered Nona's body. Police determined that she had been murdered, beaten to death with the heavy metal base of a floor lamp and left in her blood-spattered living room. Investigators questioned Kevin and he agreed to take a polygraph, which he failed. That, along with Kevin's palm print in Nona's blood on the murder weapon, kept the investigation focused on Kevin. Police believed that he flew into a murderous rage when he discovered a condom wrapper on her kitchen counter. After police questioned and cleared Nona's other sexual partners, Kevin became their only suspect. At the trial, prosecutors based their case on the blood evidence found on the light bulb. However, the texture of the blood was crucial to the case and police described it as being tacky. That description supported the defense claim that the print was left when Nona's body was discovered and was still sticky when police arrived at the crime scene. The jury agreed and Kevin Jones was found not guilty. Recently, Kevin's defense team found a match to the DNA found on the condom wrapper and a special prosecutor has been appointed to look into the case. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Allen Alter, James Stolz, Daria Hirsch) (OAD: 02/09/08; includes an update.) Update for this rebroadcast: Last month, police arrested 28-year-old Gary Dunn and charged him with capital murder. Dunn was a neighbor of Nona's. His arrest comes more than a year after Kevin Jones' acquittal for Nona's murder. Dunn's trial could begin in 2009.

09/27/08      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Kidnapped: Shawn Hornbeck's Incredible Story" - On October 6, 2002, eleven-year-old Shawn Hornbeck was kidnapped while riding his bicycle in his home town of Richwoods, Missouri. Over the course of the next four and a half years, he was held captive and sexually abused by his abductor, Michael Devlin. Threatened with death and the death of his parents, he took on the life Devlin dictated, posing as his son and even making friends with neighbors. Devlin wielded such terror that Shawn never revealed his real identity to anyone, despite numerous opportunities to ask for help. Then, in January 2007, Devlin abducted another youth, Ben Ownby. With the help of a witness to that abduction, the FBI was able to trace Devlin's car and confront him. When they went to Devlin's apartment, they found both Ben Ownby and Shawn Hornbeck. At his hearing, Devlin pleaded guilty. He was sentenced on multiple counts to 72 life terms and an additional 170 years in prison. Among those interviewed are: Shawn Hornbeck; his parents, Paul and Craig Akers; FBI agent Lynn Willett; and Dr. Marylene Cloitre, New York University psychologist and trauma specialist.
