KOAM & FOX 14 FOCUS GROUP
ASSESSMENT MEETING OF COMMUNITY NEEDS
February 7, 2008
12:00 noon – 1:30 p.m.

The meeting was lead by Darren Dishman, KFJX General Manager and Danny Thomas, KOAM General Manager. Kristi Spencer, News Director and Dowe Quick, Senior Anchor were also in attendance and presented questions to the focus group.

The following leaders attended the focus meeting to help us decide some of the major issues in our community. Jeff McDonald, Girard Police Chief, was unable to attend.

Jane Wilson, Downtown Parsons Kansas. Issue: Strengthen independent ownership in retail.

Charles Cook, Salvation Army, Pittsburg KS. Issue: Raising children's expectations and standards to address poverty.

Dennis Burke, Baxter Springs Kansas Schools. Issue: Preparing children for the 21st century job skills.

Sandy Morris & Vicky Spears, Children's Advocacy Center, Pittsburg KS. Issues: Child abuse significantly higher. Access to quality healthcare. Lack of collaboration between agencies.

Kayla Joy, Mt. Carmel Medical Center, Pittsburg KS. Issue: Change of community leadership. Educate for someone to step up. Access to quality healthcare.

Brad Hodson, Pittsburg State University. Issue: Diminishing state funding hurting access to higher education.

Strengthen independent ownership in retail.

We need to strengthen the independent ownership of all businesses. Downtown retail cannot compete with Wal-Mart. It's a national issue. We need to keep and foster independent businesses. A solution would be education, training, webinars to help train business owners. Many owners are not doing emails or newsletters and some don't even own a computer.

Raising children's expectations and standards to address poverty.

We have an issue with the lack of education of our youth. Mom and Dad don't encourage their kids to do better. As far as education, they also need to be taught practical things such as having a checking account and a savings account. Catching this problem with young adults is too late. There is a problem with the home environment. Some think the school system should not only teach our children, but also take care of them. Children are formed by their upbringing and their surroundings. Families are setting low standards. We're not offering a solution to this problem.

We're a band-aid on society. It's easier to band-aid a problem than to come up with the solution. Don't think we are following through. We need to raise children's expectations and standards to address the poverty and lack of education. People who live in poverty have a whole different set of policies. We have to break the cycle. A lot of things people take for granted. We were taught education is important. We have so many poverty children. We have more poverty in Cherokee county per capita. We in the school system would like you to know we have a good education system. We have to raise not only the kids, but the parents as well. Kids need to have a higher vision of themselves.

Child abuse significantly higher.

Child sexual abuse awareness is an issue. Child abuse in this area is significantly higher. Awareness of child abuse and the Children's Advocacy Center is a problem. No one seems to know who we are or what we do. The abuse is significantly higher in Cherokee county. It goes along with poverty and drug abuse.

Preparing children for the 21st century job skills.

We need to do a better job at preparing our kids for 21st century job skills. We're trying to bridge the poverty gap a little bit and doing so with issuing every child a laptop.

Change of community leadership.

Community leadership development is a problem. We don't see ourselves as eligible to take leadership roles at all levels of the community. We need to make everyone aware of their ability to be a leader in our community regardless of how much money you have or what house you live in. We ask ourselves where our city fathers have gone, and realize, it's us. Who makes the decisions now? Pittsburg has changed their leadership program. It used to be that the city fathers were entrepreneurs and owners of large companies.

Diminishing state funding hurting access to higher education.

Breaking the cycle of poverty and secondary pricing for tuition is a problem. With diminishing state support we're not getting the funds we need. We need access to higher education. Diminishing state and federal funding for the Children's Advocacy Center is harming us. We've had to look at community funding. There is a lack of collaboration between same agencies with same goals.

Access to quality healthcare.

Darren asked the group how they felt about crime and drug abuse.

We all know that crime is a national problem. We have a lot of burglaries in this area that have to do with drugs. We also have a lot of child abuse cases that are related to drugs.

Cold medicines and prescription drugs are a problem in schools. There are a lot of kids on antidepressants and kids with bipolar situations.

Dowe: The station has a huge presence in this community. All of the issues seem to have an economic basis; lack of prosperity and guidance of young people. What role should the media have to improve the needs?

The group suggested doing things that will encourage young people since it's hard to get them to listen. Educate young people. An example was given by Sandy of the Children's Advocacy Center where they bought a curriculum and sold it to the schools. Many schools purchased it. It deals with inappropriate treatment by another person. Sandy said they are frustrated by the no child left behind project because there isn't time to teach about living and preventing abuse of a child. People in the past just didn't believe we had a problem with child abuse. It was something no one would talk about. It's up to all of us adults to help with this problem. We need great community awareness that there is a problem. Maybe there is a way to incorporate the abuse issue with the Kansas Health Foundation since there is a lot of emphasis into child development right now and a lot of funding for it.

There were comments about how the TV station has done a lot of segments and has done a good job. Issues have been timely and the TV station has the ability to put it out there and it makes it accepted by the community. Jennifer does a good job covering court cases.

Dowe: Is raising the issue of awareness enough?

Maybe we should put more help numbers out there.

Darren, Danny, Dowe: We have done public service announcements in the past following a focus meeting. We've also come up with lists and posted them on our website. Statistics were also mentioned. Statistics are shocking regarding child abuse. Statistics are powerful. We also did a call to action to our website. We had positive feedback with the teen pregnancy issues. We are not a service agency, but we have a huge megaphone.

There was discussion about consequences of the abusers. We live in a world of little consequences. We need to hold people accountable for not enforcing the consequences.

Dowe: How has the local media portrayed your service or business?

PSU gets a lot of positive coverage.

For Mt. Carmel, if we don't tell you, how would you know?

Children's Advocacy Center would like to see more PSAs on child abuse and domestic abuse. There are some PSAs that have been very touching. They need to have phone numbers on them. That's how the station can help; a higher visibility not connected to a news story.

We have a common theme and it is kids. Crawford County has a youth leadership program for 6th graders. Those types of programs are important and it's important to make people aware. Maybe other counties would want to do more of that.

Mr. Burke with Baxter Springs Schools feels they have good communications with the TV station. Appreciates that we don't publicize bomb threats.

Mr. Cook with The Salvation Army said most TV communication has been positive with KOAM/FOX and across the region, thinks we do a good job keeping it honest.

Ms. Wilson with Downtown Parsons said we've had coverage in Parsons and the TV station was there. She talked about the National Night Out Against Crime program. She said the station's coverage helped them try to find a better solution. With the Night Out program you bring the community together with your law enforcement, fire department, etc. With the TV station there, they were very visible. August 6th is the National Night Out Against Crime. Parsons Night Out is September 11th.

Find a focus in the community and work to solve it. Parsons has the 365 day program that they do with a partner, where you solve a problem in 365 days.

Dowe: It is easier to find problems, not solutions. Identifying problems is sometimes the first step to solving a problem. We try to expose the problem.

Mr. Hodson with PSU wanted to make a plea for balance. If it's crime and such all of the time, instead of something positive, it takes a downward spiral.

Ms. Joy with Mt. Carmel feels we do a good job of covering the celebrations and successes.

Dowe: Are role models important?

Danny mentioned Leadership Awards. It was a marketing idea to send a message to others to do more.

The Heroes spots are good. The kids see a lot of people they know.

We should focus on students to do more. Students need to know they are leaders now.

Dowe: Our 1st focus seems to be the influence on young people and our 2nd is economic conditions. How does this impact the other issues? Is there something we can do as broadcasters?

We have a disproportionate percentage of working poor that are not eligible for opportunities or don't have the means to better themselves. There's a lack of opportunities here. There is the working poor and underinsured. It spirals. We have Healthwave insurance in Kansas. It is still under-utilized. TV stations could tell what jobs are out there, what skills are needed, and where you go to get the skills. People are looking for jobs that help their family. It would be helpful if they knew what jobs were out there. Here's financial help. People want to do well for their family. People in poverty see their kids as possessions. We need to get something that people find valuable and are attainable and turn on the incentive for them.

Darren mentioned that statistics can help tell a story. Also helpful are stories where a life has been changed. It speaks volumes.

Dowe: We show stories from different angles. We may tell the story from the abuser. We may tell a success story from a family that's turned their life around. This has greater impact. These things inspire people. We may come to you to help us find these stories.

Kristi: That gives you the balance that was mentioned. If we don't have the human element, that story may not be told. It's not worth the time unless it has an emotional effect.

Ms. Morris with The Children's Advocacy Center talked about a presentation they participated in for high school kids where 20 girls got up on stage and told their experiences. It was really powerful. They talked about date rape and domestic violence.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

SATURDAYS 9:00 PM

- 01/01/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Right Or Wrong" - Susan Wright, a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas stabbed her husband, Jeff, 193 times. She claims she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on Jan. 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. They questioned why it took Susan five days to report the crime; why she buried Jeff's body in the backyard; and why she tried to clean up evidence of the death. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Includes interviews with: Susan's sister, Cindy Stewart; the victim's father, Ron Wright and his brother, Ron Wright Jr.; prosecutor Kelly Seigler; and attorneys for the defense Neal Davis and Richard "Racehorse" Haynes. Segment titles: "Buried Secrets"; "Night Of Terror"; "Family Portrait"; "Disorder In Court"; "Final Secret" (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Marc Goldbaum, Paul LaRosa, Jenna Jackson) (Sr. P: "Right Or Wrong?": Katie Boyle) (OAD: 04/24/04 - includes an update to the first rebroadcast (07/23/05), which itself included an update.)
- 01/05/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death Without Mercy" - On November 29, 2005, firemen put out a fire in a house in Morgantown, West Virginia -- and discovered in a bedroom the charred remains of Jimmy Michael, who lived there with his second wife Shelly, a registered nurse. A medical examiner's report found that Jimmy was dead before the blaze had even started, and that he had been injected with a lethal dose of a drug called rocuronium, used in hospital procedures when doctors need to temporarily paralyze muscles. Police investigation led to the arrest of Shelly Michael for the murder of her husband. At her trial, the jury found her guilty of first degree murder, but included a recommendation of mercy. She will be eligible for parole in 2027. Among those interviewed are: Shelly Michael; Paul Mezzanotte, Morgantown police detective; Stephanie Estel, first wife of Jimmy Michael; Dennis and Ruth Michael, parents of Jimmy Michael (C: Susan Spencer - P: Tim Gorin)

- 01/19/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of Palm Beach" - a report about the murder of Linda Fishman, a wealthy widow found murdered in her Florida home. The childless woman had always been known for her generosity and at first it was suspected that her nephew was responsible for the crime. As the investigation continued, police learned that there was no shortage of men in the life of Linda Fishman -- a financially strapped nephew, a former lover, a registered sex offender. Police were stymied, until an anonymous letter made them aware of Frederick Kretzmer, a man with whom Linda had had a relationship. After their breakup he joined the Navy, served time in prison, then resurfaced and he looked up an old girlfriend, Gissele Ospina. It was she who wrote the anonymous letter giving detectives their break. Kretzmer gave a full confession in open court and was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Included are interviews with Fishman's nephew, Michael Jamrock; Police Officers Eric Keith, Tim McCabe, Richard Loundsbury, Kenneth Buss; prosecutor Angela Miller; Kretzmer's former roommate Mario Segura; former girlfriend Gissele Ospina. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux)
- 01/22/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "In Too Deep" - An account of the investigation into the August 2005 murder and mutilation of 21-year-old Jennifer Cave in Austin, Texas, in the apartment of her friend Colton Pitonyak. Pitonyak was tried for the murder, found guilty and sentenced to 55 years. Laura Hall, Pitonyak's girlfriend, admitted that she had gone to his apartment, at his request, right after the murder -- but claims that she did not know that she was going to be confronted there with a dead body in the bathtub. She then -- out of fear for her own life, she says -- drove Pitonyak, at his insistence, to Mexico. After their arrest in Mexico, Hall was interrogated, charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. In his testimony at his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. The prosecution afterwards came up with witnesses who said that Laura told them that she was involved in the dismemberment. Put on trial for that, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. She is appealing her conviction. Includes interviews with: Laura Hall; Sharon and Jim Cave, Jennifer's parents; Bill Bishop, Travis County prosecutor; Loren and Carol Hall, Laura's parents; Joe James Sawyer, Laura Hall's attorney (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Jenna Jackson)
- 01/26/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lost in Paradise" (9:00-10:00p) - on October 14, 1976, Deborah Gardner, a young Peace Corps worker from Tacoma, Washington, was murdered while on assignment in the South Pacific island nation of Tonga. Dennis Priven, a 24-year-old fellow Peace Corps worker from Brooklyn, N.Y., who appeared to be obsessed with Gardner, was charged by Tongan police. At his trial, Priven faced death by hanging if found guilty. His attorney argued that he was a paranoid schizophrenic and was therefore not guilty by reason of insanity. A Tongan jury agreed, but with no Tongan facilities available to treat Priven, Peace Corps officials and State Department officials arranged for him to be returned to the U.S., where they promised he would be admitted to a psychiatric institution. Having returned to the U.S., the Peace Corps learned that they had no legal authority over Priven. A psychiatrist who examined Priven said that the murder was committed during a psychotic episode and that he was no longer a threat to anyone. With that diagnosis, Priven was free and returned to Brooklyn. Includes an interview with Philip Weiss, author of "American Taboo" and with other Peace Corps volunteers.(C: Susan Spencer - P: Lisa Freed) No individual segment titles are used in this episode. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 01/26/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fight For The Truth" (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to "Prime Suspect" (OAD: 04/07/04, updated 03/12/05 and 07/15/06), a report on Marty Tankleff, who as a 17-year-old, was convicted of murdering his adoptive parents Seymour and Arlene Tankleff in their Bell Terre, Long Island home. Marty initially confessed, but quickly recanted. He has fought for years for his innocence, especially as new witnesses have surfaced who could potentially exonerate him. On December 19, 2007, 17 years after Marty went to prison, the Court overturned his conviction and he was released, pending a new trial. Just six days after his release, the Suffolk County D.A. announced he intended to drop all charges and it was announced the prosecution against Mary Tankleff was over. Marty's celebration is tempered by the fact that New York's governor has asked for a special prosecutor to investigate the case; in the meantime, he is a free man, about to start college. Included are interviews with several key witnesses in the case: James McCready, the lead detective; Assistant District Attorney Leonard Lato; Tankleff's investigator Jay Salpeter, who took the case on a pro bono basis; and Richard Ofshe, an expert in interrogation tactics who believes in Tankleff's innocence. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman)
- 01/29/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Trigger Point" - In May 2004, Jenny Eisenman, an elementary school teacher and mother from Houston, Texas, shot and killed her estranged husband Drew in her apartment. She claimed that she had suffered abuse at the hands of her husband for years and that the shooting was in self-defense. However, based on her erratic behavior and her own confession just hours after the crime had occurred, prosecutors believed that Jenny was a woman scorned and had shot her husband out of anger. Prosecutors questioned why immediately after she had shot Drew, she went shopping at Wal-Mart, where she purchased several suspicious items; why she cleaned and made repairs to her apartment before police arrived; why Drew's body was placed in a storage bin and dragged outside; and why hours went by before she dialed 911. Based on testimony and the fact that her defense attorney never called an expert in domestic violence, Jenny was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 23 years in prison. After the trial, Correspondent Richard Schlesinger met with seven members of the jury, who stated that had they been permitted to hear testimony regarding her life with Drew, it may have affected the outcome. Among those interviewed are: Detectives Larry Davis and Mark Reynolds; Mia Magness, assistant district attorney in Harris County, Texas; Ron Watson, Jenny and Drew's friend who claimed that Drew confessed to abusing Jenny; Shelby Moore, a law professor and expert in domestic violence; Vonda and Jim Harvey, Jenny's parents; and Drew's parents, Tom and Becky Eisenman. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 02/02/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghosts Of El Segundo" (9:00-10:00p) - in July 1957 Richard Phillips and Milton Curtis, two young police officers on a routine stop in the Los Angeles, CA suburb of El Segundo, were gunned down by a man who, unknown to the police, had just committed robbery and rape at a nearby lover's lane. With only a fingerprint and the belief that one of the officer's bullets hit the killer, investigators searched for more than 45 years for the man who murdered two of their own. Important clues, including the gun used in the murders, were uncovered but almost 3,000 suspects were checked, all leading to dead ends. Two things helped police to crack the case: a call in 2002 from a woman who identified her uncle as the murderer and the use of forensic technology unavailable at the time of the crimes. Finally, investigators were able to track down the killer -- Gerald Mason -- an unsuspecting 69-year-old family man living in Columbia, S.C. Having pled guilty to murder, Mason was sentenced to prison and will be eligible for parole in 2017. Includes an interview with Darren R. Levine, Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County as well as other officers who were involved in the case. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Josh Gelman - Sr. P: Al Briganti) No individual segment titles are used in this episode. (OAD: 10/02/04 - includes a brief updated graphic on screen to the first rebroadcast (07/05/05), which itself included a brief updated graphic on screen)
- 02/02/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "No Way Out" (10:00-11:00p) - In August 2005, after Hurricane Katrina had passed over southeastern Louisiana, many people thought the region had been spared from the most severe damage. But the worst was yet to come: on Monday, August 29th, the region's protective levees started to fail, and entire communities were overwhelmed by floodwater. In St. Bernard Parish, just southeast of New Orleans, thousands had evacuated the region, but others had stayed behind to shelter in place, including the residents, staff, and operators of St. Rita's Nursing Home, Sal and Mabel Mangano. The Mangano's and their staff saved 24 of the residents and got them to safety, but the wall of water and its aftermath left 35 of the residents dead. But when the bodies were discovered at the nursing home, no one thought of the Manganos as heroes. Having been evacuated to Texas, Sal and Mabel returned to Louisiana, where they were each arrested and charged with 35 counts of negligent homicide and 24 counts of cruelty to the infirm. Prosecutors claimed that the Manganos had no intention of evacuating, based on the inadequate evacuation plan on file with the state; the fact that the other three nursing homes in the parish had made the decision to evacuate; that the parish government adequately stressed the importance of evacuation; that telephone calls made by parish officials to the Manganos went unheeded; and that the Manganos turned down an offer of buses to help evacuate their residents. At the trial, several family members of the deceased testified that the Manganos had told them they would evacuate the nursing home before Hurricane Katrina struck - something both Sal and Mabel deny. The defense strategy was to make the trial about the government failures that led to the flooding of St. Bernard Parish -- and it was successful: they were both found not guilty on 118 counts. Among those interviewed are: Sal and Mabel Mangano; Joe and Cheryl Gallodoro, whose father T.J. died at St. Rita's; St. Bernard Parish clerk Polly Boudreaux; St. Bernard Parish coroner Dr. Bryan Bertucci; prosecutors Julie Cullen and Paul Knight; and defense attorney Jim Cobb. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

02/09/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Where's Our Baby?" (9:00-10:00p) - in November 1997, Marlene and Steve Aisenberg, a Tampa, Florida couple, reported their five-month-old daughter Sabrina missing from her crib. The police began to search for the baby, but soon the investigation began to focus on the parents as authorities became convinced that they knew more about their baby's disappearance than they admitted. Sheriff's detectives planted secret recording devices in the Aisenberg's home. After listening to and recording thousands of hours of conversations, the federal government brought an indictment against the couple, charging them with conspiracy and lying to investigators: charges which, if proven true, could send the Aisenbergs to prison for 30 years. Eventually, a pair of judges reviewed the case and the charges against the Aisenbergs were dropped. The couple still believe that Sabrina will be found alive and returned to them. Includes interviews with Bill McGinty, reporter for WTSP, the CBS affiliate in Tampa; Graham Brink, a reporter for the St. Petersburg Times; and Barry Cohen, the Aisenbergs' attorney. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul LaRosa, Taigi Smith) No individual segment titles were used in the episode. (OAD: 01/15/05)

02/09/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Who Killed the Beauty Queen?" (10:00-11:00p) - On December 15, 2005, 19-year-old college student and aspiring beauty queen Nona Dirksmeyer was found murdered inside her Russellville, Arkansas apartment. Nona's boyfriend Kevin Jones said he had been trying to reach her numerous times by phone but that his calls and messages had gone unanswered. Eventually, he and his mother decided to stop by Nona's apartment, where they discovered Nona's body. Police determined that she had been murdered, beaten to death with the heavy metal base of a floor lamp and left in her blood-spattered living room. Investigators questioned Kevin and he agreed to take a polygraph, which he failed. That, along with Kevin's palm print in Nona's blood on the murder weapon, kept the investigation focused on Kevin. Police believed that he flew into a murderous rage when he discovered a condom wrapper on her kitchen counter. After police questioned and cleared Nona's other sexual partners, Kevin became their only suspect. At the trial, prosecutors based their case on the blood evidence found on the light bulb. However, the texture of the blood was crucial to the case and police described it as being tacky. That description supported the defense claim that the print was left when Nona's body was discovered and was still sticky when police arrived at the crime scene. The jury agreed and Kevin Jones was found not guilty. Recently, Kevin's defense team found a match to the DNA found on the condom wrapper and a special prosecutor has been appointed to look into the case. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 02/16/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Rage On The Run" (9:00-10:00p) - bodybuilder David Bieber of Ft. Myers, Florida starting using steroids in high school and as an adult began selling them to support his expensive career. He went into business with fellow bodybuilder Markus Mueller, a German who was able to smuggle the drugs into the U.S. from Europe. Bieber had an affair with Mueller's girlfriend, Danielle LaBelle, and subsequently married her. In February 1995, Bieber drove LaBelle to Mueller's home to retrieve her purse while he waited in the car. When LaBelle found Mueller dead in the doorway she suspected that Bieber had killed him. Two men admitted to police that Bieber had hired them to kill Mueller, but before he could be arrested, Bieber disappeared. He bought the birth certificate of a deceased child, Nathan Wayne Coleman, took on his identity and, in 1996, fled to Leeds, England where he was undiscovered for almost eight years. On December 26, 2003, Leeds police apprehended a stolen car; the driver was Bieber. In the process of being handcuffed, he opened fire on the three unarmed arresting officers and escaped. One officer died of his wounds and a nationwide manhunt was launched. Bieber was finally caught, was tried for the murder of the police officer, and sentenced to life in prison. Danielle LaBelle divorced Bieber in 2003. There are no plans to try him for the murder of Markus Mueller. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul Ryan, Andrew Sheldon, Gayane Keshishyan, Sarah Hey) (OAD: 01/28/06 - includes brief updated graphic on screen)
- 02/16/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Addicted To Love" (10:00-11:00p) - When police arrived at the Franklin, Tennessee apartment of Lesa Buchanan on the Fourth of July weekend in 2005, they were surprised by what they found in her home: a cache of prescription drugs and sex toys. Lesa and her boyfriend, Dr. Christ Koulis, had spent most of that final weekend in her bedroom, having sex. Koulis, a plastic surgeon, had called 911 when she stopped breathing, and said he performed CPR, but that there was no pulse. When Lesa was rushed to the emergency room, the doctors trying to save her life said Dr. Koulis told them nothing about the drugs she had been using -- information that could have been crucial in saving her life. With Lesa dead, investigators quickly focused on drugs. At her apartment, detectives discovered used syringes with traces of oxycodone -- a powerful narcotic used to kill pain and available only from a prescribing physician. After a five month investigation, Dr. Koulis was arrested on four charges -- ranging from simple assault to second degree murder. At the trial, prosecutors alleged Dr. Koulis had injected Lesa with oxycodone during the course of the weekend, which eventually led to her death. But the defense claimed Lesa injected herself, and that she had a drug problem - a claim her family and investigators disputed. Ultimately, Dr. Koulis was found guilty of criminally negligent homicide. He will likely remain free until 2009, pending his appeal. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ira Sutow, Taigi Smith)

- 02/23/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Beyond the Boardwalk" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the deaths of four women: Tracy Ann Roberts, Kim Raffo, Barbara Briedor, and Molly Jean Dilts, all suspected prostitutes and/or drug addicts. They were all found on November 20, 2006, in a ditch, facing east, without their shoes on, near the Golden Key Motel on the outskirts of Atlantic City, NJ. Police suspect a serial killer but clues in the case have led to little information. As of now, no one has been arrested or charged in the homicides. A person of interest, Terry Oleson, a handyman who lived at the motel and worked odd jobs to pay the rent, has been arrested for an unrelated offense - videotaping a minor in the nude with a hidden camera. His house has been searched and he has now been asked to provide DNA samples. (C: Harold Dow - P: Miguel Sancho) (OAD: 05/19/07 - includes an update.)
- 02/23/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The McGuire Diaries" (10:00-11:00p) - Melanie McGuire, on trial for the murder of her husband Bill, was provided by 48 HOURS MYSTERY with a video camera, so that she could record her intimate thoughts as she stood trial. Excerpts of her video diary are interspersed throughout the broadcast. In May of 2004, his dismembered body was found in three suitcases in Chesapeake Bay. He had been shot with a .38 caliber gun. Melanie claimed that Bill had vanished weeks before, after an argument. She had never filed a missing person's report and without having heard from Bill, she later filed for divorce. She claimed that he had been abusive and suggested that his disappearance and murder were the result of his gambling problem and that his frequent trips to Atlantic City had put him in contact with shady characters. However, a blanket wrapped around Bill's torso was the same kind of blanket used at the fertility clinic where Melanie worked as a nurse, making her a suspect. After extensive searches, police were unable to find a murder weapon or tool used to cut up Bill's body, and there was no evidence of a crime scene. Soon afterwards, police learned that Melanie had purchased a Taurus .38 special revolver just 48 hours before Bill had disappeared. Melanie, however, claimed that she had purchased that gun for Bill at his own request. She claimed he wanted it for his own protection, but couldn't buy it himself because of a felony conviction. Believing her to be guilty, Prosecutor Patti Prezioso intensified her investigation and had Melanie put under surveillance. This soon revealed two of Melanie's secrets -- she had been carrying on an affair for more than two years with her boss, Dr. Brad Miller, and she had been in Atlantic City the night after she claimed Bill had left her. She later stated that she had gone to Atlantic City in search of Bill, had found his car and moved it out of spite. Thirteen months after the suitcases were found, Melanie McGuire was arrested for the murder of her husband. Nine months after her arrest, the trial began. After seven weeks and more than seventy witnesses, Melanie McGuire was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 2073, when she would be 100 years old. 1) Interview with Governor Deval Patrick. Topics include: the Reverend Jeremiah Wright controversy for Senator Barack Obama and the Geraldine Ferraro controversy for Senator Hillary Clinton; the role of superdelegates in selecting the Democratic nominee / the possibility of Senator Obama being denied the nomination, even though he will probably go into the convention with the larger share of the popular vote / opinion regarding the delegates from Florida and Michigan / reaction to Senator Clinton's campaign manager's (Mark Penn) recent comment claiming that Senator Obama can not win the nomination if he loses Pennsylvania / how Senator Obama not securing the nomination would impact African-American voters

2) Interview with Leon Panetta. Topics include: the role of superdelegates and the need for them to exercise independent judgement / what denying Senator Obama the nomination at the convention would do to the atmosphere at the convention and the Democratic Party / the issue of race at the convention and in the Democratic campaign for president / the recent negative turn in the campaign; the possible necessity of a combined Clinton-Obama dream ticket in order to bring the Democratic party together

3) Campaign quick check with Clarence Page and David Brooks. Topics include: the Reverend Wright and Geraldine Ferraro controversies / reaction to Senator Obama's recent speech on race; the upcoming Pennsylvania primary and the possible re-vote in Michigan and Florida; the role of race at the convention / how Senator Obama not securing the nomination would impact African-American voters / the political pressure on Senator Clinton to choose Senator Obama as her running mate, should she win the nomination, in order to secure a big African-American turnout / an overview of other fractious political pairings

1) Interview with Senator Lindsey Graham and Senator Jack Reed. Topics include: the level of progress made in Iraq; predictions as to what would happen if Senator Hillary Clinton or Senator Barack Obama's timeline for troop withdrawal from Iraq were followed / how long American troops should remain in Iraq; the cost of the Iraq war and its effect on the American economy; Senator Graham's interest in the position of vice president for Senator John McCain / Senator Reid's interest in being a running mate with Senator Clinton or Senator Obama

2) Campaign quick check with Ana Marie Cox, Roger Simon, and Doyle McManus. Topics include: Senator Clinton's chance in securing the Democratic nomination and what that would do to the Democratic party; President Bill Clinton's recent "two people who love this country" remark and the Obama campaign's reaction to it / the Reverend Jeremiah Wright controversy and how it could be used against Senator Obama; Senator McCain's comment mistakenly accusing Iran of training al-Qaeda and sending them back to Iraq / the need for Senator McCain to focus more on the economy; Senator McCain's pledge to keep the race for president civilized; Governor Bill Richardson's endorsement of Senator Obama and James Carville's negative reaction to it

Guests: Senator Lindsey Graham (R-SC), Armed Services Committee (1); Senator Jack Reed (D-RI), Armed Services Committee (1); Ana Marie Cox, Washington Editor, Time.com (2); Doyle McManus, Washington Bureau Chief, Los Angeles Times (2); Roger Simon, Chief Political Columnist, Politico.com (2)

Topics include: Senator Hillary Clinton's decision to stay in the race / how the nomination should be decided after June 3rd, when the primary season is over; reaction to James Carville's comments comparing him to Judas Iscariot / reasons behind his endorsement of Senator Barack Obama / Senator Obama's handling of the Reverend Jeremiah Wright controversy
2) Interview with Mayor Michael Nutter. Topics include: Senator Obama's handling of the Reverend Jeremiah Wright controversy; reaction to former Governor of New York Mario Cuomo's recent piece stating that whoever gets the Democratic nomination should promise to put the other person on the ticket; the role and process of the superdelegates / how Senator Obama not securing the nomination would impact African-American voters / the need to let the voters decide and for this election to not just evolve into a discussion about race
2) Campaign quick check with Joe Trippi and John Dickerson. Topics include: reaction to Governor Richardson's decision to put country above party loyalty; the Obama campaign's decision to back away from calling on Senator Clinton to withdraw from the race / Senator Clinton's decision to stay in the race; the dispute over the delegates from Michigan and Florida; how the Obama campaign should address the Reverend Wright controversy in order to ward off potential problems
Guests: Governor Bill Richardson (D-NM), Obama Supporter (1); Mayor Michael Nutter (D-Philadelphia), Clinton Supporter (2); Joe Trippi, Political Strategist (3); John Dickerson, Chief Political Correspondent, Slate Magazine (3)

60 MINUTES

03/02/08 "Ohio" - A report on the upcoming Ohio primary, a bellwether of American politics. Focusing on the town and residents of Chillicothe, this political microcosm reflects the problems and challenges facing the United States and its middle class. Includes interviews with Democratic presidential candidates Senator Hillary Clinton of New York and Senator Barak Obama of Illinois. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine / Tanya Simon / Michael Radutzky)
"The Pentagon's Ray Gun" - a report on the highly effective and nonlethal weapon developed by the Pentagon for crowd control. The ray gun, an Active Denial System (ADS) which shoots out an intense blast of heat, will be ready to go to Iraq this summer, even though it faces opposition and goes against the culture of the American military. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
"Lifeline" - Remote Area Medical (RAM), founded by Stan Brock in 1992 to bring free medical care to remote parts of the world, now does 60% of its work in urban and rural America. Among those interviewed are founder Stan Brock and Dr. Ross Isaacs. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster)
Andy Rooney topic: "So You Want To Be President!" - Andy wonders why anyone would want to be president

- 03/09/08 "McCain" - an interview/profile of Arizona Senator John McCain, 2008 Republican Presidential Nominee. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Tom Anderson)
"A 26 Year Secret" - a report on Alton Logan, an innocent man convicted of killing a security guard at a McDonald's in Chicago. Two lawyers, Dale Coventry and Jamie Kunz, bound by client-attorney privilege, kept secret their knowledge that their client, Andrew Wilson had committed the murder -- which resulted in an innocent man being sent to prison. Among those interviewed are Alton Logan; Dale Coventry; Jamie Kunz; and public defender Harold Winston, who represents Logan. (C: Bob Simon - P: Robert G. Anderson, Casey Morgan)
"The Icahn Lift" - an interview/profile of billionaire investor Carl Icahn, whose reputation as a sure-fire moneymaker who pumps up the value of companies he thinks are poorly run and trading below value by purchasing large amounts of stock, has led to a phrase that describes his Midas touch: the "Icahn lift". (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen M. Sughrue)
Andy Rooney topic: "What Are They Advertising?" - Andy "fashions" himself into an ad critic
- 03/16/08 "The Wrong Medicine" - an interview with actor Dennis Quaid and his wife Kimberly, whose newborn twins nearly died of an overdose when they were mistakenly given two doses of the blood thinner Heparin, instead of Hep-lock, the pediatric version of the drug. Those interviewed include Diane Cousins, vice president of US Pharmacopeai; Debra Bello, a senior director at Baxter International, which manufactures the Heparin product in question; and Thomas Priselac, the president and CEO of Cedars-Sinai Hospital. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen)
"The Science Of Sleep" - a report on how scientists are discovering that sleep is far more critical to human health than previously believed. They have linked sleep deprivation to serious problems such as diabetes, obesity and heart disease. Among those interviewed are Matthew Walker, director of the Sleep and Neuroimaging Lab at the University of California - Berkeley; Dr. David Dinges, the scientist in charge of the NIH-funded study at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine; Dr. Eve Van Cauter, an endocrinologist at the University of Chicago School of Medicine; and Dr. Scott McRobert, a scientist at St. Joseph's University. 60 MINUTES (continued)

- 03/23/08 "The Doomsday Vault" - a report on the Svalbard Global Seed Vault, built to warehouse a billion and a half seeds from all the world's crops. Located deep inside a mountain near the North Pole, this safe house stores the seeds necessary to protect agriculture against crop extinction, global warming, and population growth. Among those interviewed are American scientist Cary Fowler, who runs the Global Crop Diversity Trust and Mike Bonman, a Supervisory Research Plant Pathologist at a government storehouse in Idaho. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran, Catherine Herrick)
- "The Stone Box" - an update of "The Stone Box" (OAD: 03/27/05), a report on the controversy aroused by the discovery, in the Tel Aviv apartment of Israeli antiquities collector Oded Golan, of an ossuary -- a stone box used to hold the bones of the dead some 2000 years ago -- inscribed with the Aramaic words "James, son of Joseph, brother of Jesus." Included is a report on the discovery in Golan's home, two months later, of a stone tablet said to be the only remnant of the Temple of King Solomon. Update: Investigators have determined that Marko Sammech, an Egyptian, worked for Oded Golan and was responsible for the forgeries. He has denied working on the James ossuary, but has admitted to working on several stone tablets. Israeli police need Sammech's testimony in order to convict Golan, but Egyptian authorities won't let him go. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon, Drew Magratten) (Update of "The Stone Box" OAD: 03/27/05. This segment itself had been a followup to a previous segment on the same subject - also entitled "The Stone Box" OAD: 12/19/04.)
- "David Beckham" - an interview/profile of soccer superstar and Los Angeles Galaxy player David Beckham, who came from England to try and jumpstart professional soccer in America. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Keith Sharman)
- Andy Rooney topic: "Andy's High Regard For Doctors" - Andy has some advice for doctors
- 03/30/08 "Five Years" - Three months after 9/11, nineteen-year-old Murat Kurnaz was arrested in Pakistan, en route to the airport to fly home to Germany. An innocent man with no connection to terrorism, he was kept in U.S. military custody under false terrorism charges for five years -- first in Afghanistan and then at Guantanamo Bay -- where he says he was tortured. Includes an interview with Baher Azmy, Kurnaz's lawyer and a professor of constitutional law at Seton Hall Law School. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick and Michael Karzis)
- "The Gore Campaign" - an interview with former vice president, former presidential candidate, and Nobel Peace Prize winner Al Gore, about his Oscar-winning documentary, "An Inconvenient Truth", and his ongoing campaign to make the world aware of global warming. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
- "Stat Man" - an interview/profile of Bill James. Employed as the senior adviser for baseball operations for the Boston Red Sox, James is the inventor of sabermetrics -- a new way of analyzing baseball statistics through objective evidence. Among those interviewed are NBC commentator Bob Costas and Red Sox manager Terry Francona. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin Curran)
- Andy Rooney topic: "What's A Fleeting Expletive?" - Andy on words best left unspoken

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 03/01/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Long Road" (OAD: 12/17/05 under the title "Who Killed The Newlyweds?") - a followup to "Impossible Mission" (OAD: 05/15/00), a report on newlyweds Dyke and Karen Rhoads of Paris, Illinois who, in 1986, were murdered and their house set on fire. A year after the incident, juries handed down guilty verdicts to suspects Randy Steidl and Herb Whitlock. Feeling that a miscarriage of justice had occurred, Professor David Protess of the Medill School of Journalism and four of his students began their own investigation of the 13-year-old murder. The Northwestern students graduated five years ago without finding a solution to the case. The Rhoads family has requested that the FBI take over the investigation; a federal judge ruled that Randy Steidl's original attorney made a big mistake in not challenging the credibility of two eyewitnesses. Now a free man, Steidl has asked the Governor of Illinois for a pardon to clear his name, but prosecutors could reinstate murder charges against him; after several unsuccessful attempts Herb Whitlock has filed another appeal. The followup includes an interview with Michale A. Callahan, a former police detective who had reviewed the Paris murder investigation in 2000. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Doug Longhini, Ira Sutow) (OAD: 12/17/05 as "Who Killed The Newlyweds?") (This 03/01/08 airing of "The Long Road" contains the following update: On January 8, 2008, Herb Whitlock's conviction was overturned and he was released from prison. The Dyke and Karen Rhoads murder investigation has been reopened.)
- 03/08/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Love and Death in the Wild" (9:00 - 11:00p) - On May 2, 1996, the body of Kent Leppink was found off a deserted road 90 miles south of Anchorage, Alaska. He had been shot three times. Police investigation discovered that he had been involved with Mechele Hughes, a young woman who worked as a stripper in a club called the Great Alaskan Bush Company. Mechele was also involved with two other men -- John Carlin III and Scott Hilke. Ten years later, after further investigation, Mechele (now Mechele Linehan) and John Carlin were indicted for Leppink's murder. At his trial, Carlin was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to 99 years in prison. At her trial, she was also found guilty of first degree murder. She awaits sentencing. Among those interviewed are: Mechele Linehan; Linda Branchflower, detective; Ken and Betsy Leppink, parents of Kent; Scott Hilke, salesman; John Carlin III; John Carlin IV; Megan Holland, reporter, Anchorage Daily News; Tina Brady, stripper; Kristina Hermach, friend of Mechele Linehan; Colin Linehan, Mechele's husband; Pat Gullufsen, special cold case prosecutor; Sydney Billingslea, lawyer for John Carlin III; Kevin Fitzgerald, lawyer for Mechele Linehan; (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Yager, Mark H. Smith)

- 03/15/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Stolen Dreams" - In November of 2003, Jeanne Callahan of Rockville Centre, Long Island waited for her husband, Stephen Trantel, to return home from a day of fishing. Hours later, she received a call telling her that Stephen was alive, but was under arrest -- police told Jeanne that Stephen had committed ten bank robberies. To the people who knew Stephen, he was the least likely to rob a bank - for one, he was the son of a New York City cop. And because he was a trader on Wall Street in the big money world of commodities, he wouldn't have to steal anything. But those closest to him didn't know that he was living a secret life. Stephen had worked for a trading company, but had become self-employed and was betting his own money on the future price of oil. He was doing well, but he didn't plan ahead. He purchased Jeanne her dream home and their mortgage tripled. As their other expenses increased, Stephen struggled to keep up. He lost so much money that the commodities exchange barred him from the floor. Afraid to tell his wife, Stephen decided that in order to hold on to the lifestyle he and Jeanne had grown accustomed to, he was going to have to steal money to maintain it. After doing research on the internet, Stephen robbed his first bank in July of 2003. By the time Stephen was caught four months later, he had stolen more than $60,000. In exchange for information and an admission of guilt, Stephen Trantel was sentenced to nine years in prison. Shortly after Stephen entered prison, Jeanne divorced him. He is scheduled to be released from prison in 2012. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Patti Aronofsky)
- 03/22/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Right To Kill" (WEST COAST ONLY) - Cherry Hammock of Crawford, Georgia claims that she killed her husband Jay, in self-defense in September 2001. A year after Jay was killed, Cherry was brought to trial in Crawford County, found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. Two years later, the conviction was overturned due to a High Court ruling that a juror acted inappropriately during deliberations. Having been granted a new trial, Cherry chose to plead guilty to involuntary manslaughter and was sentenced to five years in a penitentiary. Includes interviews with Assistant District Attorney Biff Tillis and Laura and Frank Hogue, Cherry's attorneys. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Ian Paisley, Mead Stone) No individual segment titles were used in this episode. (OAD: 11/06/04 - includes brief updated graphic on screen.)
- 03/29/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Mind For Murder" (WEST COAST ONLY) - Professor Thomas Murray of Kansas State University was married to Carmin Ross for 18 years. They had met at Ohio State University, where he had been her teacher. Ross earned a law degree, but after a few years, became a mediator and, later a healer. After 13 years of marriage, the couple had a baby girl, Ciara, despite the fact that Murray apparently didn't want children. Subsequently Ross met Larry Lima and divorced Murray. The former couple shared custody, but in November 2003, Ross told Murray she wanted Ciara to live with her and Lima. On the night following the conversation, Ross was found beaten and stabbed in her home. Evidence showed that Thomas Murray had been researching how to hire an assassin and how to get away with murder. Murray was tried, found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. He is appealing his conviction. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul Ryan, Ian Paisley, Gayane Keshishyan) No individual segment titles were used in this episode.
