On July 25, 2001, Emily suddenly stopped breathing while in this trusted babysitter's care. Chris tried CPR to no avail and Emily was rushed to the hospital where she died two days later. Upon examining Emily, doctors found she had been shaken hard enough to cause a fatal brain injury, and claimed that there were also signs of sexual molestation. Chris was arrested and spent nearly a year in a juvenile facility. At his trial, defense witnesses, including Dr. Joseph Burton and Dr. Kris Sperry, chief medical examiner for the state of Georgia testified that Emily had not been the victim of sexual molestation and that her death was the result of natural causes. 05/23/03 "The Alibi" - in September 2000, David Camm, a former Indiana State Trooper from New Albany, returned home from a basketball game and claimed that he found his wife Kim and their two children shot dead in the garage. Two days later, Camm was arrested for the murders. Eleven witnesses testified that Camm was playing basketball at the time of the murders; however, the examination of microscopic drops of blood found on his T-shirt and basketball shoes gave evidence to his involvement in the murders. A jury, who also suspected Camm of sexually abusing his young daughter, found him guilty of the murders. He was sentenced to 195 years in prison with no chance of parole. In Indiana, an appeal is automatic for a murder conviction. Segments include: "Disturbing The Peace"; "Telling Time"; "In His Court"; "8 Tiny Drops"; "A Jury's Trial" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Alec Sirken, David A. However, one night, her husband claims that she left home, saying that she needed time alone, and was never heard from again. After Janet's disappearance, Perry March and Janet's parents searched for her for two weeks before filing a missing persons report with the police. Investigators found Janet's car parked a few miles away from her home with her belongings inside. Perry, the only suspect in case, moved with his children to Ajijic, Mexico where he remarried and began a new life. Janet's parents are convinced that Perry killed their daughter but, with no hard evidence that a crime was committed it is unlikely that Perry March will be brought back from Mexico to face trial. Segments include: "Family Matters"; "Into The Night"; "Missing Mommy"; "Borderline"; "Home Free?" (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Joe Halderman, Richard Barber) (OAD: 11/01/02)

Watson, who was raising the couple's two children, insisted that he was innocent. Police who searched the Watson home found no evidence but noticed that Jim was wearing makeup to conceal what appeared to be fingernail scratches on his face. A little more than two years after Beverly disappeared, 12 of her bones, including her skull, were found about 20 miles from the Watson home. Despite the fact that the cause of death was ruled undetermined by the medical examiner, the prosecutor, Sheila Ross, got an indictment from a grand jury and brought Jim Watson to trial for the murder. A jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to life in prison. The Watson children, Ashley, 18 and Todd, 12, stand by their father who is seeking a new trial. Segments include: "Life With Father"; "Dead End"; "Friends in Need"; "Face Off"; "We The Jury" (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Paul LaRosa, Sara Ely Hulse) (OAD: 11/22/02)
