During the week of October 3-October 7 and on Tuesday, October 11 & Wednesday, October 12, 2011 KFJX & KOAM sponsored the "Livin' Life Tour" in area schools. The stations, along with The Alliance of Southwest Missouri, Missouri Southern State University and McDonald County Telephone Company provided the free school assembly to schools throughout the market. The "Livin' Life Tour" was a name the stations gave to Media Guy Assemblies (MGA) which features clips from today's most popular movies, music videos, and incredible sports footage. MGA shows are generating the highest student responses to character-education and responsibility-improvement messages. MGA themes include: decision-making, conflict resolution, drug prevention, traffic safety, & personal excellence. Additional information is attached to this report. KFJX & KOAM provided the programs at no-charge to the schools. The stations paid the $5,000 MGA fee plus meals & miscellaneous expenses for Tom Guy, the MGA Presenter. In all about 5,500 students viewed the programs during the week. Additional information is attached including comments from students & teachers. The stations also offered production and airing of public service announcements for students to write & produce. Students were given the opportunity to write & produced a public service announcement which addressed the issues important to students in their school. The psa's will air for the entire school year. For air dates & times of the psa's please see additional information attached to this report. McDonald County, MO High School students wrote their PSA about making good choices when it comes to friends & activities & education. Wyandotte, OK Schools incorporated elementary, middle & high school students to produce a PSA about good sportsmanship.

On Saturday, October 8, 2011 KFJX & KOAM-TV were partners with the Frontenac, KS Education Foundation "FESTA" celebration & fundraiser. Employees Laurie Rush, Mike Olmstead, Zach Fletcher, & Darren Dishman attended the event & hosted the Kids Zone area where children & youth could come & play games. The Festa Italiana is a fundraiser hosted by the Frontenac Education Foundation. The funds are used to provide scholarships for every graduate of Frontenac High School that attends a post-secondary school. Also, due to the great success of the project, some money is also being used for equipment and Grants in Frontenac schools.

The Festa Italiana is held at the Raider Sports Complex once each fall. Festa provides a great opportunity for people to celebrate their heritage and show what made southeast Kansas what it is today. Many cooks and major vendors help out each year by providing food, prizes and live music for all. The different foods include traditional Italian, Mediterranean, French, Mexican, American Greek, Slovenian, Italian-Cajun, Bohemian and German dishes. Some new events to treat the public included a silent auction and bingo. Nearly 3,000 people attend Festa yearly as the Foundation sets a money raising goal. Previous year's Festa raised nearly $ 70,000. The event is the brainchild of the Frontenac Education Foundation. Frontenac High School graduates are eligible for a Frontenac Education Foundation Scholarship. The scholarship is available to all graduates who are attending a post-secondary school. Started in 1999 by the Frontenac Education Foundation, Festa Italiana continues to grow, bringing the flavors of Italy and other European nations to Frontenac to tempt area residents each fall as a fundraiser for the Education Foundation. Over the years, the event has raised tens of thousands of dollars for grants for special projects, mobile computer labs to put new technology into the hands of students, furnishings for a new wing on the elementary school, and an eight-semester scholarship for each graduating senior who goes on to college — some 1,500 having been awarded to date. The stations produced and aired no-charge promotional spots promoting the event. For additional information please see attached documents. Contact Ron Marone at RONM@MARRONESINC.COM or (620) 232-4442.

Issue: Health Tourism

On Sunday, October 9, 2011 station staff volunteered to host a hydration station during the 2nd Annual Mother Road Marathon run. Employees who volunteered were Vance Lewis, Amanda Stanley, Diane Cunningham, & Ashley Maddern. The responsibility of the employees was to provide water &/or Gatorade to the 700 runners who were running the full or half marathon. For additional information on the Mother Road Marathon and please contact Steve Herman, 417.439.5548 or seheman1947@yahoo.com. In response to several inquiries from around the country, organizers of the Joplin-based Mother Road Marathon have announced they are continuing plans for the race in the wake of the May 22nd tornado that devastated a large portion of the city. The course for the 2nd Annual Mother Road Marathon, along with the city's lodging facilities, was not directly impacted by the storm and the race remains scheduled for October 9, 2011. "Similar to running a marathon, we are going to endure some tough challenges but we will rise to the challenge," says Patrick Tuttle, Executive Director of the Joplin Convention & Visitors Bureau. "We hope runners will show their support by being a part of our rebuilding process." The Mother Road Marathon is a unique point to point race that runs through three states along historic Route 66. It is the only race in the nation that offers a tri-state course along the famed highway. It is a locally planned and organized event operated by the Joplin Convention & Visitors Bureau in partnership with the cities of Joplin, Missouri; Commerce, Oklahoma, Quapaw, Oklahoma; Baxter Springs, Kansas; Riverton, Kansas; and Galena, Kansas. Though only in its sophomore year, the Mother Road Marathon has already garnered national attention and was recognized in 2010 by Marathon and Beyond as having one of the top 25 marathons in the country. During the 2010 event, 1,647 participants representing 37 states and 3 countries took part in various race day events. For more information contact Lenny Brubaker at the Joplin Convention & Visitors Bureau: 417.625.4789 or lbrubake@joplinmo.org.

On Friday, October 21, 2011 KOAM-TV aired a live simulcast with KCTV (Kansas City) of the Joplin High School & Raymore Peculiar High School football game which was held at Arrowhead Stadium (home of the Kansas City Chiefs) in Kansas City, Missouri. The game was aired as a way to share the stories and needs of Joplin High School and the city of Joplin following the tornado of May 22, 2011. Students were interviewed as well as school administrators. In addition, KOAM-KFJX employee Jordan Aubey, who survived the tornado, was also interviewed by announcer Mitch Holthus during half time of the game. Viewers were able to support Joplin rebuilding efforts through a financial donation to the reconstruction fund which will support the needs of the High School athletic & music departments.

Issue: Developmental Disabilities

On Tuesday, October 25 & again on Wednesday, November 2, 2011 a group of developmentally disabled residents of Mosaic in Pittsburg, KS toured the KOAM & KFJX Main Studios. The residents toured the newsroom, master control area, control room, & main studio. They watched a live newscast. They learned about the history of the stations. They visited with news anchors, reporters, news assistants, assignment editor, & others working in the newsroom as well as master control operators, directors and graphic artists who work in broadcasting at KOAM & KFJX. The tour lasted approximately 90 minutes. We have a variety of clients with needs, some in chairs and some not.

When I get the sign up sheet for each day I will let you know. Thanks so very much. I am looking forward to visiting with you again!

Issue: Prescription Drugs
Health & Safety
Children

On Saturday, October 29, 2011 from 10am to 2pm KFJX & KOAM-TV were media sponsors of the bi-annual Prescription Drug Take Back sponsored by the Safe Teen Coalition of The Alliance of Southwest Missouri. The drug take back allows residents of the area to turn in all outdated or unused drugs found in their homes. The goal is to keep the drugs out of the environment (people throwing them in the trash or flushing down the toilet) and also to keep them away from teenagers who may abuse over-the-counter & prescriptions medications. The station ran no-charge public service announcements promoting the event and drop-off locations. Please see additional information attached to this report or for more information contact The Alliance of Southwest Missouri, The Alliance of Southwest Missouri:

On Friday, November 18, 2011 KOAM-TV & KFJX-TV were media sponsors of "Overflow." The event is a fundraiser for Watered Gardens, a ministry that helps homeless people in the area. Since the May 22 tornado, the ministry's resources have been stretched thin & "Overflow" earned an estimated $40,000 for Watered Gardens. The stations aired no-charge Public Service Announcements promoting the event. The invoices are attached to this report.

Issue: Children & Families

On Saturday, November 19, 2011 KFJX & KOAM sponsored "Free Pictures With Santa" at The Bridge in Joplin, MO. Santa Doug Portwood from Lonestar Santas volunteered his time & talents as well as Lagow Portrait Designs. The goal was to provide free pictures with Santa to area families who may have lost their photos during the May 22, 2011 tornado in Joplin. About 150 families participated in the program. The station made the pictures available on the station website and also printed 4"x6" prints and mailed them to each family. This service was free to everyone. Some families brought canned food to donate to KFJX Feed The 4-States project and/or toys to KOAM Toybox campaign.

KOAM-TV's annual Toybox campaign which provides new toys to children aged birth to 16 kicked-off on November 25, 2011 and included "Toybox Tuesday Telethons" with the goal of informing the public about the need of area Salvation Army chapters during the holiday. The telethons were held on 3 consecutive Tuesday starting November 29. Area Salvation Army Captains were present during the telethon, which aired from 5:00pm to 6:30pm each night. The captains were interviewed by KOAM News anchor Lisa Olliges. In addition the station accepted, on behalf of the Salvation Army, donations & pledges to the Toybox project. Over $10,000.00 was donated and the money was used to purchase gifts for children & teens. In addition the campaign, in its 23rd year, viewers were encouraged to donate new, unwrapped toys to the Toybox. Toys were kept in the county in which they were donated. In those counties where there was not an active Salvation Army ministry then a similar social service organization was asked to distribute the toys to needy families. The station aired many promotional announcements informing viewers about the campaign as well as educating them about the needs of the Salvation Army & other social service groups. To help promote the Toybox station staff attended 11 area Christmas parades where toys & donations were also accepted. Many area schools, social groups, businesses, & families "adopted" Toybox for their project. Once the toys were collected station personnel picked-up and delivered toys in each of 15 counties served by KOAM-TV. For additional information about the Toybox campaign please see attached letters, no-charge invoices or contact station promotion manager Vance Lewis at 417.624.0233 or 620.231.0400.

On Friday, December 16, 2011 33 5th grade students from Erie, KS Elementary school toured the KFJX & KOAM Main Studios. The students toured the newsroom, master control area, control room, & main studio. They watched a live newscast. The students learned about the history of the stations. They also learned which professions at the television stations require a college degree and which ones do not. The students were able to ask questions of news anchors, reporters, news assistants, assignment editor, & others working in the newsroom as well as master control operators, directors and graphic artists who work in broadcasting at KOAM & KFJX. The group was informed about Internship opportunities available at the television stations. The tour lasted approximately 90 minutes. For additional information please contact teacher Sondra Harris at 620 244 5161.

- 10/08/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Playing with Fire" (9:00-10:00p) - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden - at the time Hollywood's hottest nightclub - and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio's girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multi-million dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as "Mister Big". Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla's lawyer; Michelle Branna, Internet madam; Mike Dognan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O'Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. Onscreen graphics: The Los Angeles City Council has renewed a $75,000 reward for information leading to a conviction in this case. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chris O'Connell, Ira Sulow, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 02/19/11)
- 10/08/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Amanda Knox: The Untold Story" (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to "A Long Way From Home" (OAD: 04/12/08) and "American Girl: Italian Nightmare" (OAD: 04/11/09), the story of Amanda Knox, an American exchange student who was convicted, along with her Italian boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito, of murdering Amanda's British roommate, Meredith Kercher in 2007. On Monday (10/03), Knox and Sollecito had their convictions overturned and were acquitted. This report details the manipulation and sexual intimidation Amanda endured while behind bars, in her own words, from a letter she wrote. Also included, are exclusive video diaries, collected over the course of ten months, from Madison Paxton, Amanda's best friend, who moved to Italy to support her friend. Interviewed: Madison Paxton (friend); Bob Graham (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Curt Knox (Knox's father); Edda Ellis (Knox's mother); Nina Burleigh (author, investigating the case). (See also: "A Long Way From Home" (OAD: 04/12/08); "American Girl, Italian Nightmare" (OAD: 04/11/09), which was a followup to "A Long Way From Home"; and "American Girl, Italian Murder: The Verdict" (OAD: 12/05/09), a followup to both "American Girl, Italian Nightmare" and "A Long Way From Home"). 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 10/15/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Oden, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Amparo Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Chuck Stevenson, Sarah Prior)
- 10/22/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Killing Fields" - a report about a desolate strip of land between Houston and Galveston where over 30 young women and girls have disappeared or have been murdered, and a followup to "Killer in Friendswood" (OAD: 05/01/97), which detailed the disappearance and death of 12-year-old Laura Smither. With this weekend's release of a film entitled "The Texas Killing Fields", attention has been rekindled about some of the cases, including the story of Krystal Baker. In 1996, Baker, whose great-aunt was movie star Marilyn Monroe, disappeared from Texas City and was found two weeks later near the Louisiana border, beaten to death and sexually assaulted. In 1997, Laura Smither went out to jog and disappeared and her body was found weeks later. When another young woman disappeared, the Smithers joined the search, as did Tim Miller, whose daughter, Laura Miller, was kidnapped and murdered when she was sixteen. Laura was one of four young women murdered and dumped along a remote area that earned the name "the killing fields". Journalist Skip Hollandsworth chronicled the case for Texas Monthly, in which a brilliant scientist, Robert Abel, became a suspect, but police could never find a connection. Police detectives Brian Goetschius and Michael Land are investigating, but as Hollandsworth says, it's clear that it has been various men who have done different things to these women, not one serial killer. As the movie is released, there is the reality that many of these cases remain unsolved. The actors hope that the film will help make a difference. Just after the film wrapped, a big break came up in the Krystal Baker case: DNA was submitted to a nationwide computer data bank, and a Louisiana man, Kevin Edison Smith, arrested on a drug charge, came back as a match. He has been charged with murder and will go on trial in December. The Smithers don't have DNA evidence, but they believe they know who killed their daughter: William Reece, the prime suspect in another case. Motivated by his loss, Tim Miller founded the rescue group Equisearch, which over the years, has helped look for missing people and located scores of bodies. For now, the killings seem to have stopped: no new cases of murder have arisen. Included interviews with: journalist Skip Hollandsworth; screenwriter Don Ferrarone, actor Sam Worthington; investigators Brian Goetschius and Michael Land; Jeanie Baker, mother of victim Krystal Baker; Bob and Gay Smither, parents of victim Laura Smither; Tim Miller, father of victim Laura Miller. (See also: "Killer in Friendswood", OAD: 05/01/97 and "Prime Suspect", OAD: 10/23/97) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Alex Sicken, Jenna Jackson, Chris O'Connell)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In 'The OC'" - A report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life, moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnston Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. On screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. Included interviews with: daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voith; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Angelo McDonald, defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

11/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Pvt. Needham's War" - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham had returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He also suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He had known Villagomez, who had also struggled on and off with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him; his drinking escalated after that. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend, Renee Stoner, came to the house, which upset Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in Stoner's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez and he was never able to provide a clear explanation for the killing. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. To make his case, Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but that he needed to be held accountable for what he did. On screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. Interviewed are: Villagomez's close friends Sarah and Spencer Savino; Mike Needham, Sr. (father) and Mike Needham, Jr. (brother); Joe Gaul, Orange County homicide detective; Michael de Yoanna, investigative journalist and CBS News consultant; Dr. Richard Friedman, Professor of Psychiatry, Weill Cornell Medical College; Michael Becker, public defender; Steve McGreevy, Orange County prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "Vanity Fair: Hollywood Scandal" - a trio of investigations presented by staff writers of Vanity Fair magazine. 1) "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage" - Sam Kashner reports on the just re-opened case of actress Natalie Wood's death by drowning. This past weekend, after thirty years of rumors, the Los Angeles police department has re-opened the investigation. On Thanksgiving weekend in 1981, Natalie Wood, her husband Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken, her co-star in her latest film, were boating off of the coast of Catalina Island, on Wagner's vessel, the Splendour. Hours later, Wood's body was found floating in the Pacific Ocean. An investigation found no suggestion of foul play and it was ruled an accidental drowning. Now, based on new information, the police have re-opened the case. Interviewed are: Dennis Davern, the captain of the boat, who now admits that he lied to police about that night; Marti Ruffi, a longtime friend of Davern's who has spent thirty years investigating the death; Mart Crowley, a close personal friend of Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner; Marilyn Wayne, who was on a nearby boat that night; Detective Duane Rasire, the original investigator on the case. In a written statement, the Wagner family says that it supports the investigation and trust the new information will be judged on the credibility of the source. 2) "The Gangster and The Goddess" - Patricia Bosworth reports on the 1958 stabbing death of gangster Johnny Stompanato. Actress Lana Turner was a much-married, Academy Award-nominated actress who became involved with Stompanato, not knowing he was gangster Mickey Cohen's bodyguard. She tried to break off the relationship, and during an argument between the two at her Beverly Hills home, he was stabbed to death by her daughter Cheryl Crane. Crane was charged with murder, put on trial and the event was eventually ruled a justifiable homicide. Turner continued her career and died at age 75, though many still believe that Turner was the one who did the stabbing. Today, Cheryl Crane writes murder mysteries. Interviewed are: Cheryl Crane, Turner's daughter; Hollywood producer George Schlatter; John Ibrahim, the son of Johnny Stompanato, who doubts the official account of the crime; Eric Root, hairdresser to the stars, who says that Turner admitted to him that she did it. 3) "The Miranda Obsession" - Brian Burrough reports on Miranda Grosvenor, a woman who for the past forty years was known to have befriended, over the telephone, dozens of Hollywood actors, directors, rock stars and politicians. Self-described as a leggy, beautiful blonde, she was viewed as something of a muse to many of these powerful men. Writer Buck Henry was one of those who became a friend, and after a time he realized she was misrepresenting herself. Music producer Richard Perry became obsessed with her and demanded to meet her. When he did, in a darkened hotel room in New York City, it was clear she was not the person she was presented herself to be. He soon ended the relationship. Whoever she was, she was not a stalker -- she just called people on the phone and developed ongoing telephone relationships. For the first time since Burrough located her twelve years ago, she agreed to an interview, with the understanding that her real name not be revealed. Featured are interviews with Buck Henry; Richard Perry; and Miranda Grosvenor. Special correspondents for this 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Sam Kashner, author, "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage", Vanity Fair; Patricia Bosworth, author, "The Gangster and The Goddess", Vanity Fair; and Bryan Burrough, author, "The Miranda Obsession", Vanity Fair. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

11/26/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder at the Manor" - a report about Harold "H" Landry, a self-made Cajun millionaire who left behind his life in Louisiana to pursue an international romance with a British woman he met online and how this seemingly perfect relationship ended when Lucy Landry was murdered at their home in February 2010. Landry confessed to stabbing his wife to death. Landry, or "H", as he is known to his friends, is a larger-than-life man who, after making a fortune in Louisiana, went looking for love online at the age of fifty-three. In 1989, he met Lucy Davies, a 28-year-old woman with a child who lived in the United Kingdom. His friends thought the romance seemed more like a business deal, and when Lucy became pregnant, Landry settled into a new life as a retiree and new father. Ten years later, Lucy asked for a divorce. According to his friends, he was in a terrible state and didn't know what to do. Then Lucy Landry was dead. He didn't deny that he killed her. The trial began for "the American Millionaire Murderer", as he was known in England, and the past came back to haunt him. In 1994, Landry had shot a man named Chris Pine, the angry husband of his girlfriend at the time. According to his attorney, who subsequently became a friend, his defense was that it was self-defense. He listened to his lawyer and was found guilty of the much lesser charge - aggravated battery. He appealed, and eventually all he got was probation, a fine and some community service. Shortly afterwards, he began his new life with Lucy, who, he says, knew all about his previous crime. According to his friends, the marriage was collapsing because Landry believed Lucy was having an affair. He went to Mexico to cool off and when he returned, she had moved her boyfriend into the house. He was furious; divorce proceedings began - and then Lucy Landry was dead. Shortly afterwards, the trial began, with Landry receiving an initial advantage: the Chris Pine shooting was ruled as inadmissible. His lawyers argued that the fight was the latest and last example of Lucy goading him with never-ending financial demands and threats. In a relatively brief trial, very different from American standards, that lasted eight days, Landry was convicted of murder. On screen text graphic: Landry is planning to appeal both murder conviction and sentence, a process which may take years. Interviewed: Harold "H" Landry; Lucy Landry's son James, from a previous marriage; Landry friends Wanda and Ernie Richardson; Pat Fanning (lawyer and friend); Helen Knifton; Police Officers Steve Elecks, Ian Booth, Barney Tyrney; Kristin Hutton (Landry family babysitter from 1994); Richard Vernalls, reporter, Worcester News; Andy Childs, one of Landry's attorneys. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" (9:00-10:00p) - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogacic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 12/03/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head - with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia -- more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over; she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and-a-half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed. Onscreen text graphic: Wesley Earnest's first appeal was denied. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. Included interviews with: Wesley Earnest; his mother Patricia Wismer; his girlfriend Shameka Wright; Jocelyn Earnest's sister Laura Rogers, mother Joyce Young and father Bill Branham; Marcy Shepherd, close friend of Jocelyn's; investigators Mike Mayhew and Gary Bobb; Joey Sanzone, defense lawyer; prosecutors Wes Nance and Randy Krantz; Wesley Earnest's friends Tim McGovern, Sonya Stevens; Jocelyn Earnest's friend Jennifer Kerns. - 12/10/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Three Days Before Christmas" - the story of sisters Linne and Tricia Tiede who in December 1990, were held hostage by two men - Von Lester Taylor and Edward Steven Deli. Taylor and Deli invaded the family cabin in Oakley, Utah and shot their mother, father and grandmother. The sisters owe their lives to their quick-thinking uncle, Randy Zorn, and their heroic father, Rolf, whose fierce determination gave him the super-human strength needed to ignore his own pain and save his daughters. The Tiede family had gone to spend Christmas at the family cabin. Sisters Linne and Tricia Tiede, only twenty and sixteen years old respectively, were forced to witness the murders of their mother and grandmother. They also planned to burn down the home and take the sisters hostage. The sisters drove the men on snowmobiles past their Uncle Randy, who realized something was dreadfully wrong. His brother, Rolf, though wounded, was somehow able to get on a snowmobile and alert Randy as to what had happened and Randy called 911. The police caught Taylor and Deli and rescued the girls. Taylor and Deli were charged with the murders, aggravated kidnapping, arson and the high-speed chase. Taylor eventually pled guilty to two counts of capital murder. He opted to go before a jury instead of a judge, and was sentenced to death for the two murders. Deli went to trial. The sisters testified at the trial, as did their father, whom Deli had not realized had survived. Deli was convicted of second degree murder, with no option for the death penalty because of a jury member holdout. Today, the family continues to return to the cabin, enjoying their life there. In November 2008, Rolf Tiede died from cancer. On screen text graphic: Von Lester Taylor, sentenced to death for two murders, has been fighting for his own life ever since. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 12/17/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a followup report on the disappearance of professional escort Shannon Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannon led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dornier appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannon's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelmy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannon; Michael Pak, Shannon's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannon's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sara Gilbert, Shannon's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dornier (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannon's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannon ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelmy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelmy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. - 12/24/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder - and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. Updated concluding text graphic for this 12/24/11 rebroadcast: Tim Masters was exonerated in June by the Colorado Attorney General. He has received $10 million in settlements for wrongful imprisonment. Jim Broderick is under indictment for perjury in the case. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/04/11 "Finding Common Ground" - a report focusing on how the interfaith movement has evolved over the years and become more mainstream, especially since the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Examples include: (1) The work of the Chicago, Illinois based "Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions", which hosts the world's largest interreligious gathering. Meeting every five years in a different part of the world, people of every faith are invited to share their religious identities and dialogue, as well as voice their hopes and concerns for the future. (2) The "Interfaith Youth Core" (IFYC), a nonprofit organization based in Chicago, focuses on the notion that the most powerful common ground between all faith traditions is the inspiration to serve others. IFYC works with college students as a means to thwart religious extremism and encourage interfaith understanding and leadership. In addition, IFYC advised and partnered with the White House on the "President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge". (3) The work of the student interfaith leaders of Albright College, a private liberal arts school in Reading, PA. Participating in President Obama's challenge, students apply what is achieved on campus to the larger community. (4) The leaders of the religious community in Reading, which has the largest share of residents living in poverty per capita, have come together in order to help alleviate the symptoms of poverty in their community. This partnership has reinforced the belief in the need for interreligious dialogue and cooperation at the local level. Includes interviews with: Reverend Dick Ficca, "The Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions"; Dr. Eboo Patel, Founder and President, "Interfaith Youth Core" (IFYC); Sharon Parker, Executive Director, "Berks Coalition to End Homelessness"; Michael Kaucher, "Reading Berks Conference of Churches"; Ann Marie Wallace, "New Journey Methodist Church"; Barbara Rosenzweig, "Reform Congregation of Oheb Shalom"; Rabbi Brian Michelson, "Reform Congregation of Oheb Shalom"; and El Sayed Elmarzouky, "Islamic Center of Reading and Berks County". (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kincke. Associate Producer: Jonathan Hall. Executive Producer & Director: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Catholic Organizations.)
- 12/24/11 CBS PRESENTS A CHRISTMAS SPECIAL: "Christmas in Chelsea Square" - a service of Lessons and Carols from the Chapel of the Good Shepherd at the General Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church in New York City's historic Chelsea district. Includes a homily by The Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church. The broadcast is introduced by Bishop Catherine Roskam, Bishop Suffragan of the Episcopal Diocese of New York, and includes a description of the Seminary's mission by the Dean of the Seminary, Bishop Peter James Lee.
