However, former users with felony charges struggle to integrate back into society due to their criminal records, and rehab facilities are filled to capacity. Includes interviews with: Angie Pelfrey, recovery administrator at New Beginnings Freedom Hall Recovery Center; Mike DeWine, Ohio Attorney General; (Ret.) Judge Scott VanDerKarr, who created a drug court in Franklin County, Ohio; former heroin addicts Caitlyn and Robert (real names undisclosed); Jenna Morrison, recovering heroin addict; Tracy Morrison, Jenna's mother; Todd Anderson, Jenna's lawyer; Bradford Bailey, prosecutor in Hardin County, Ohio; Wayne and Christy Campbell, whose son Tyler died of a heroin overdose. "Dialing For Dollars" – a report on the amount of time Congressmen spend fundraising at Democratic and Republican "call centers" on Capitol Hill, to raise money for their party and re-election campaigns. The Supreme Court's Citizens United decision in 2010 allowed unlimited spending by corporations, unions and individuals in elections, placing more pressure on candidates to raise money. Representative David Jolly (R-FL) introduced a bill called the Stop Act in February that would ban all federal-elected officials from directly soliciting donations, but only six colleagues are currently supporting his bill. With the help of a staffer at the Republican call center, 60 MINUTES gathered footage using a hidden camera to expose the inside of the call center. Includes interviews with: Rep. David Jolly (R-FL); Rep. Reid Ribble (R-WI), co-sponsor of the Stop Act; Rep. Rick Nolan (D-MN), co-sponsor of the Stop Act; and Rep. Steve Israel (D-NY). "Gold Star Parents" – a report on the annual gathering of California's Gold Star Parents, whose children died while serving in the military. At the event, Gold Star Parents can honor their fallen family member and relate to other people who share their pain. The event began eleven years ago in part by the Blue Star Moms of the East Bay area, whose children served in the military, by reaching out to the Marines' Memorial Association in hopes of providing comfort for grieving families. Includes interviews with: Gold Star Parents: Mary and Bill Shea (whose son Tim died), Yolanda Vega (whose son Jonathan died), Claire and Paul Good (whose daughter Alecia died), and Mike Anderson Sr. (whose son Mike Jr. died); Blue Star Moms of the East Bay area: Nancy Totman and Deb Saunders; and (Ret.) 04/02/16 48 HOURS: "Gone" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about Mark Castellano, a man who claimed to be so desperate to find Michelle Warner, the mother of his three-year-old son, that he agreed to talk to Dr. Phil McGraw on McGraw's daytime talk show regarding her 2012 disappearance. Within forty-eight hours, Castellano then told police a much different version of events. Warner had been living in Houston, Texas with Castellano, her on-again/off-again boyfriend. Castellano claimed Warner stormed out of the house after a fight and vanished without a trace, leaving her child behind. Warner's family did not believe it and filed a missing persons report. Houston homicide detectives later received the case. Castellano agreed to appear on "The Dr. Phil Show". Dr. Phil interviewed Castellano at his parents' home in West Texas; he wasn't buying Castellano's version of events and had serious doubts about his story. The police investigation continued, but there were few if any clues. Two days after the interview with Dr. Phil, Castellano voluntarily went in for an interview with the police. During the interrogation, Castellano finally cracked and admitted that he had killed Warner, put her body in his car, and buried it in a shallow grave outside of Midland, Texas. Local police and the FBI tried to locate her body but were unsuccessful. Eventually, using Apple's Face Time app and an iPhone, and with help from Castellano, police were able to scan the area and locate Warner's body. Castellano was arrested and charged with murder. Eight days later, "The Dr. Phil Show" aired its episode about the case. Also includes: Tracy Smith's interview with Mark Castellano in which he reveals deep-seated anger and resentment towards women and claims it was all an accident. At his trial, attorneys presented a new version of what he now says is the truth. After more than a week of testimony, Castellano was found guilty in the strangling death of Michelle Warner. Original on-screen text graphic: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in thirteen and a half years. He will be fifty-three years old. On-screen text graphic for the 04/02/16 rebroadcast: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in 2026. He will be 51 years old. 48 HOURS: "What Happened in Apartment 1601?" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2013 death of Mark Waugh, a 23-year-old man murdered in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland after a night of bar-hopping with two friends. Since neither of them could remember what had happened, police employed an unusual method of interrogation. Waugh was stabbed to death in the apartment where his friends Rahul Gupta and his girlfriend Taylor Gould lived. Both Gupta and Gould were bloody and drunk, according to police, and were immediately interrogated, with Gupta apparently confessing to the crime, saying he had caught Mark and Taylor together. Then after the alcohol wore off, everything changed, with both insisting they had no idea what had happened. Gupta and Waugh were longtime friends, with successful jobs. Police struggled to understand what had happened. Police initially believed Taylor Gould's version of events, but took the unusual step of putting Gupta and Gould together alone, and monitored their conversations. Gupta kept trying to blame Gould, yet police still believed Gould's version of events. Further investigation revealed Gupta had a temper and smoked marijuana. Investigation also discovered information from a phone call between father and son after Gupta was arrested in which he told his father what had happened. Gupta was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, Gupta's defense was to point the finger at Taylor Gould. She herself was not much help on the stand; but she never blamed Gupta; she just stated she did not kill Mark Waugh. The jury found Gupta guilty. Though Taylor Gould is legally not guilty, Detective Paula Hamill believes she may have played some role in what happened that night, and that she may have possibly been involved in a relationship with Waugh behind Gupta's back. On-screen text graphic: Rahul Gupta is appealing his conviction. Interviewed: Officer Dean Skiba and Detective Paula Hamill (Montgomery County, Maryland Police); Phil Armstrong and Jennifer Page (Gupta's defense attorneys); Jason Peters (childhood friend of Mark Waugh); Sherene Gupta Rapoport (sister of Rahul Gupta); Dan Morse (Washington Post reporter); Timothy Hagan and Patrick Mays (Prosecutors). 48 HOURS: "A Mother Accused" - an exclusive interview with Lacey Spears, a mother who, in 2014, was tried and convicted of poisoning her 5-year-old son Garnett with salt, and who claims she is innocent of the crime. Garnett Spears died after what Spears maintains was a lifetime of illness, and for which doctors struggled to find answers. His eventual death was due to a life-threatening level of sodium in his bloodstream which investigators believe was administered through a feeding tube Garnett used for nutrition. Investigators say Spears visited multiple medical facilities, often without sharing information about what doctors said. She also moved frequently, from Alabama to Florida and then to Rockland County, NY. 48 HOURS' discussion with Spears, her attorney, investigators and others uncovered allegations that Spears suffers from Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy and warning signs which might have been missed along the way that could have saved Garnett's life. Spears and her attorneys maintain she is innocent. Investigators and law enforcement thought otherwise. Spears was charged with murder and stood trial in Westchester County, New York. On-screen text graphic: Lacey Spears will be 46 when eligible for parole. Lacey Spears' attorneys are considering filing a malpractice suit against Garnett's medical providers. Interviewed: Lacey Spears; Shawna Lynch, Christy Burnham, Valerie Plauche (former Spears friends); Dr. Ivan Darenkov (doctor who treated Garnett); Dr. Mary Sanders (clinical psychologist, associate professor, Stanford University); Dan Carfi (Westchester detective); Kirk Budnick, Greg Dunn (Ramapo detectives); Johnny Coker (investigator, Decatur Alabama DA's office and childhood friend of Spears); David Sachs and Stephen Riebling (Spears' attorneys) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ruth Chenetz, Doug Longhini)

- 04/16/16 48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" - an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts which family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest, to trial for the crime. The night before Easter, Irene Garza went to church and disappeared. Five days later she was found dead in a canal. Police said she was sexually assaulted and suffocated. There was one immediate suspect: Father John Feit, the priest who admitted to hearing Garza's confession that night, but who has denied any involvement in the murder. Noemi Ponce Sigler, the original investigator's daughter, claims her father was told to step away from the case because a deal had been made between the Church and the police regarding Feit. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers Cold Case unit to re-examine the murder. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Joseph O'Brien, an assistant pastor at the church in 1960, also told investigators that Feit told him that he did it. Despite these new findings, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra doesn't believe the case is strong enough to take to court, though he would have prosecuted Feit in 1962 on the charges. Members of the Garza family have pinned their hopes on Ricardo Rodriguez, a candidate for Hidalgo County District Attorney, who has said he would look into the case. 04/16/16 Update: the new District Attorney Richard Rodriguez did as he promised: he looked into the case. Rodriguez says he has new facts and evidence and is confident that a jury will get past the threshold of beyond a reasonable doubt in this case. Fifty-six years after the murder, John Feit was flown back to Texas. Original (03/01/14) on-screen text graphic: The primary election for Hidalgo County District Attorney is Tuesday. On-screen text graphic for the 07/26/14 rebroadcast: Rene Guerra lost the election for Hidalgo County District Attorney in March 2014. District Attorney-elect Ricardo Rodriguez has promised to revisit the case when he takes office in January 2015. On-screen text graphic for the 04/16/16 updated rebroadcast: John Feit has pled not guilty. Prosecutors hope to take this to trial within the year. Interviewed: family members Noemi Ponce Sigler and Lynda De La Vana; journalist/48 HOURS consultant Pamela Colloff; Texas Ranger Rudy Jarmillo; McAllen Police Chief Victor Rodriguez; former monk Dale Tacheny; San Antonio Police Detective George Saidler; Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra. - 04/23/16 48 HOURS: "Breaking Point" (9:00 – 10:00p) – the first hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. At the time of his death, Ryan Poston was a young successful attorney with a bright future ahead of him. Shayna Hubers' family and friends also thought she would be successful in all she did. The couple met on Facebook and dated on and off for 18 months. Ryan was busy with his career and not ready to settle down, but found it hard to let go of Shayna. According to Ryan's friends, Shayna's behavior became obsessive. He told her he was not seeing her on the weekend of October 12, 2012, but did not tell her that he had a date with another woman. He did not make the date; a 911 call to police was made by Shayna, telling police she had shot her boyfriend in self-defense. Police were suspicious from the start. She had shot him six times. Shayna also talked endlessly during the 3-hour interrogation video and then, when alone, she danced and sang songs. Friends said Ryan was not an abuser. She was charged with murder. Investigation revealed that, after the shooting, she waited 10 minutes to call 911. She also texted endlessly; there were thousands of text messages to Ryan, most of which he did not answer. Yet, because of Kentucky laws, he could not get a restraining order. Prosecutors believe that Shayna could not deal with Ryan's rejection and that her rage sent her over the edge. She believed it was over for good and would have none of it. Now it is 2014, and she has been jailed since 2012 awaiting trial. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley and his assistant Lori Zimmerman; Shayna's friend, Sarah Robinson; Ryan's neighbor, Nikki Carnes; Lieutenant Dave Fornash; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and neighbor Doris West. 48 HOURS: "Obsessed" (10:00 – 11:00p) - the second hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. In 2014, two and a half years after the crime, the trial is set to begin. Central to the trial is what Shayna told police. Prosecutors believe the only person in danger that night was Ryan Poston, and that Shayna acted out of hate. Ryan did not want to see Shayna anymore. There were no signs of a violent struggle, as Shayna had suggested happening. Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers, cannot comprehend what is happening to her daughter. The defense must convince the jury that Ryan was the aggressor. A verdict is reached: guilty of murder. The court re-convenes for sentencing. Shayna Hubers, who has been diagnosed as a narcissist, addresses the court, but never apologizes to Ryan's family. Shayna Hubers is sentenced to 40 years. On-screen text graphic: Shayna Hubers' appeals attorney is asking for a new trial. A convicted felon served on the jury and should have been disqualified. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and Ryan's cousin Carissa Carlisle. 48 HOURS: "Blood in the Sand" - an investigation into the murders of two teenage girls, Barbara Nantais and Claire Hough, who were found dead on the same California beach, six years apart; the incredible similarities between the two killings; and the new technology that would lead police to ultimately investigate one of their own. In August 1978, 15-year-old Barbara Nantais was murdered on Torrey Pines State Beach, where she had gone camping with her boyfriend, Jim Alt. She was sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated. Then in August 1984, 14-year-old Claire Hough was found murdered on the same beach -- sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated in a similar way. Police had few clues to go on, but believed the cases were connected. Both cases were never solved. The cases went cold until 2012, when through improved technology, DNA hits from Hough's crime scene led to two suspects. The first was Kevin Brown, a criminalist who had worked for the San Diego Police Department crime lab and was well-known for his kinky behavior. The second was Ronald Tatro, a convicted rapist. Tatro died in a 2011 boating accident. Brown denied knowing Tatro. He took and failed a lie detector test. In 2014, as the case dragged on, he committed suicide. His wife Rebecca Brown and her attorneys say Kevin Brown was a man wrongly accused, and that his suicide was not an admission of guilt. After his death, San Diego Police publicly named Brown as one of two suspects in the Claire Hough murder case. For the Nantais family, there is no closure. Police had initially believed a suspect named William Wheeler was responsible, but have ruled him out as the killer, and the case remains unsolved. On-screen text graphic: Barbara Nantais' case remains open. The San Diego Police Department considers the Claire Hough case solved. Rebecca Brown's lawsuit against the City of San Diego is expected to go to trial in 2017. Interviewed: Jim Alt (Barbara Nantais' boyfriend); Rick Selga (friend of Jim Alt's); Ralph and Sue Nantais (parents); Judy Nantais (sister); Paul Ybarrondo (Sergeant, San Diego Police Department); Kim Jamer (Claire Hough's best friend); Penny and Sam Hough (parents); Rebecca Brown (Kevin Brown's widow); Jim Stam and John Durina (retired criminalists); Rocky Ferguson (photographer); Gretchen Von Helms and Gene Iredale (Brown family attorneys) (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Cindy Cesare)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

04/03/16

“Faith, Spirituality & the Future” – an interfaith special that looks at how spirituality is evolving in our culture and what it means for religious institutions. While more Americans move away from organized religion, many still profess a belief in God and consider themselves spiritual, claiming to encounter God and the sacred in nature and in their relationships with friends and family, rather than within the traditional setting of a church. Featured are: (1) Diana Butler Bass, theologian and author of “Grounded: Finding God in the World—A Spiritual Revolution”. Butler Bass believes this is one of the most important shifts happening in the history of religion and that religious institutions have to figure out new ways of talking about God. (2) One of the largest demographics driving this shift in spirituality are millennials, young people between the ages of 18 to 33. Tom Beaudoin, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Religion at Fordham University, discusses why many millennials do not want to be defined by one particular religious tradition, even if they were raised in one. (3) Meditation is on the rise, acting as a spiritual outlet for many people who are unaffiliated with traditional religious organizations. New York City’s first drop-in meditation studio – MNDFL -- was co-founded by Western Buddhist meditation teacher Lodro Rinzler and Ellie Burrows, and they discuss the growing interest in the practice. (4) Rev. Erik Martínez Resly, a Unitarian Universalist minister in Washington, DC, created The Sanctuaries in 2013. Comprised of both religious and secular participants, this group of artists and community organizers explore their spirituality through art and music with the hope that it inspires positive change for the greater good. “Faith, Spirituality & the Future” also includes comments from: Julie Pennington-Russell, Baptist minister, Senior Pastor at the First Baptist Church of the City of Washington, DC; Rev. Rich Tafel, pastor, The Emanuel Swedenborg Center, Church of the Holy City, Washington, DC; Luis Davila, yoga teacher at Brahman Yoga in West Harlem, NY; and those involved in The Sanctuaries: Erin Johnson, James Bevel, Osa Obaseki, Noreen Nasir, Kevin Akiva Landsman, and Alana Gardner. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with religious scholars, clergy and others including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, Sikh and various interfaith organizations.)

48 HOURS: "The Soldier's Wife" - an interview with, and a report about Skylar Nemetz, a former Army infantryman who admits that he shot his wife Danielle, in their Lakewood, Washington home in October of 2014, after returning home from a 3-week deployment. He maintains it was an accident and that he did not think the gun was loaded. Eighteen months after the shooting, Skylar Nemetz is on trial, awaiting a jury's verdict. The prosecution maintains a jealous Nemetz shot Danielle in the back of the head while she was seated at a desk looking at her computer. She died instantly. Skylar Nemetz's mother, Danette Heller, believes in her son, and he and his family see the incident as an accident. They have hired a top-notch legal team to defend Skylar. There is no dispute that Nemetz caused Danielle's death; the question is if it was murder or manslaughter. At trial, Skylar is portrayed as a jealous, angry, and controlling husband. The defense called Skylar to testify, and called for the jury to find him guilty of manslaughter, not murder. The case goes to the jury, who deliberated for seven days; the verdict: manslaughter in the first degree. Four jurors agreed to speak to Erin Moriarty about their verdict, and even though they felt Skylar was coached, rehearsed and theatrical, they could not see that the prosecution proved its case. Three weeks later, Skylar received the maximum sentence. On-screen text graphic: Skylar Nemetz is appealing the length of his sentence. Skylar Nemetz will be eligible for parole in 12 years. He will be 33 years old. Interviewed: Skylar Nemetz; Danette Heller (Skylar's mom); James Peltier (Danielle's former neighbor and father figure); Michaela Yingling (Danielle's best friend); Erin Mikolai (Danielle's coach); Anthony Faas (Skylar's army buddy); Greg Greer and Michael Stewart (Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys); Ralph Flick, Mike Duncan, Brad Hardesty, and Shane Vandervloedt (jurors). 48 HOURS: "Death of an Olympian" - a report about the August 2009 death of Olympian Dave Laut, shot to death by his wife, Jane in Oxnard, California. She claimed it was in self-defense. In her first television interview, she relates what happened that night and why she killed him. Dave Laut competed in the 1984 Games and was aiming for the gold when an injury upended his chances. He became a school teacher, athletic director, and coach; married his high school sweetheart Jane; and adopted a son. Jane Laut originally claimed Dave was shot by an intruder, but when detectives discovered a gun hidden inside a grandfather clock, she changed her story, claiming she killed Laut in self-defense. In her first television interview, she claims she never planned to kill her husband that night, but after years of psychological and verbal abuse, Laut went too far that night and she shot him. The Laut family says that Jane is a pathological liar. The police could not confirm any abuse. The evidence collected at the scene told a different story: Laut was shot from behind with a single action revolver -- every shot indicated pre-meditation. Forensic accounting concluded the couple was deeply in debt and that Jane was a reckless spender, in trouble with the IRS. Dave Laut was apparently unaware of their circumstances. In January 2016, the prosecution presented a case of pre-meditated murder with money and divorce as the motives -- and that Jane was never in physical danger from Dave Laut. Jane Laut testified in her own defense, explaining her motivation. After four days of deliberation, the jury found Jane Laut guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Jane Laut is expected to be formally sentenced in June. Interviewed: Jane Laut; Don and Rebecca Laut (Dave Laut's brother and sister-in-law); Dotty Laut (mother); Sonya Sanchez (Detective, Oxnard, California Police Department); Mike Young (lead detective); Nabil Khattar (gun expert); Ron Bamieh (defense attorney); Marjorie Hernandez (Ventura County Star reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Gail Pincus (executive director, Los Angeles County Domestic Abuse Center) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher, Chris Young Ritzen, Dena Goldstein)

Also included is information on the events leading up to the 9/11 terrorist attacks and the hunt for Osama bin Laden. The twelve directors featured are: former President George H.W. Bush, Stansfield Turner, William Webster, Robert Gates, James Woolsey, John Deutch, George Tenet, Porter Goss, Michael Hayden, Leon Panetta, David Petraeus, and John Brennan. - 05/28/16 48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" (9:00 - 10:00p) - An updated rebroadcast on the more than twenty girls and women who, since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. This week, Canada's Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has committed more than thirty million dollars to a new national investigation into the missing and murdered women. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears", and Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. Original On-screen text graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. On-screen text graphic for the 05/28/16 updated rebroadcast: The RCMP later charged Garry Handlen as the killer of twelve-year-old Monica Jack, the youngest victim on the Highway of Tears. Cody Legebokoff was convicted of first-degree murder for killing teenager Loren Leslie and three other women. He was sentenced to life in prison but just this Wednesday was in court asking that his convictions be overturned. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamsteeker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garrett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. 05/28/16 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Cal Harris: Final Verdict" (10:00 - 11:00p) – an updated rebroadcast of "Cal Harris: Deadlocked" (OAD: 05/23/15), itself a followup to "A Time to Kill" (OAD: 11/10/07). A review of the case against Cal Harris, whom prosecutors in Northern New York believe is guilty of killing his estranged wife Michele, to preserve his fortune. This followup report includes the first interview with Cal Harris. Twice, he has been tried and found guilty, and twice those convictions have been overturned. Harris has claimed that Michele did not return home on September 11, 2001. He denied any involvement in her disappearance and suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at her personal life. Investigation discovered she was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen her on the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, blood specks were found in the home, making it a potential crime scene. Focus shifted to Cal, and in 2005, without a body or a murder weapon, Harris was arrested for his wife's murder. He was tried and convicted in 2007, but while awaiting his sentencing, a new witness emerged, and the conviction was overturned. In 2009, a jury reached the same verdict. The case was overturned on appeal. In February 2015, Harris went on trial for the third time, but not in Tioga County where he lives, but in Schoharie, NY, with a new defense team, a new prosecutor, a new judge and new rules. Despite all this, after 12 days of deliberation, the judge was forced to declare a mistrial. Harris is out on bail, but his future is far from certain. UPDATE: On March 31, 2016, Cal Harris went back to court for his fourth trial. This time, he asked for a bench trial, which means a single judge, not twelve jurors, would decide his fate. The prosecution's case was essentially the same. The defense pinned their hopes on new witnesses because the judge, unlike earlier ones, allowed testimony pointing to other possible suspects. In the end, after deliberating for twelve hours, Judge Richard Mott reached a verdict: not guilty. Cal Harris' legal ordeal is over, but the mystery of Michele Harris still remains. Original on-screen text graphic: Lawyers are scheduled to meet in August to set a date for a fourth trial. On-screen text graphic for the 05/28/16 updated rebroadcast: Because of double jeopardy Cal Harris' criminal case is not officially over. Harris is considering a civil suit. Interviewed: Cal Harris and his children: Cayla Harris, Taylor Harris, Jenna Harris, Tanner Harris; Barb Thayer (nanny); Nikki Burdick (Michele's friend); Cindy and Tom Turner (friends of the couple); Greg and Shannon Taylor (Michele's brother and sister-in-law); Bruce Barket and Donna Aldea (Harris' attorneys); Sue Mulvey (NY State Police senior investigator); Mike Myers and Mike Young (investigators); Steve Anderson (NY State Police forensic specialist); Brian Earley (boyfriend of Michele Harris); Kevin O'Hara (Cal Harris' friend); Jerry Keene (DA, Tioga County); Kevin Tubbs (local farmer); Kirk Martin (District Attorney); Mark Lester (State Police Captain). "El Chapo" – a report on the recapture of drug lord Joaquin Guzman (aka "el Chapo") after he escaped Altiplano Prison in Mexico last July through a tunnel. Mexican and U.S. law enforcement reassembled the task force that caught el Chapo in 2014, and after some missed opportunities on both sides, el Chapo was captured in January 2016. Mexican marines infiltrated el Chapo's safe house, killing five cartel members and taking six into custody, while el Chapo and his associate Cholo Ivan escaped through a hidden tunnel. The two men popped out of a manhole and hijacked two cars before being picked up by federal police and taken to a motel, for unknown reasons. Mexican marines intervened and took el Chapo into custody and sent him back to Altiplano Prison. Includes interviews with: Peter Vincent, Director Counselor for International Policy at BORDERPOL; Jim Dinkins, Ret. Homeland Security Investigations, Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA); Juan Pedro Badillo, el Chapo's lawyer; and two unidentified Mexican marines who assisted with el Chapo's capture (through translator). St. Benedict's, whose students' race and religion now reflect the inner city neighborhood it is located in, has its students run much of the school programs, unlike most schools. 48 HOURS: "The Doctor's Daughter" (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple's daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander's death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander's had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father's defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. On-screen text graphic for the 06/04/16 rebroadcast: Robert Neulander plans to appeal his conviction. 48 HOURS: "Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections" (9:00-10:00p) - the first hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes ("Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil", 10:00-11:00p), into the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham. Included is evidence that links the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women; and a report on the life of Jesse Matthew, the man who is allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. This hour concentrates on Graham's disappearance, the national attention the case garnered, the social media aspects of the case and the subsequent connections between the disappearances and deaths of Morgan Harrington, Trina Murphy and an attempted rape of another young woman. Graham's mysterious disappearance spread far beyond the Charlottesville, Virginia area in the days following her disappearance, reminding people of the death five years earlier of Morgan Harrington, a Virginia Tech student in 2009. Her case became one of the first to use social media as a crime-fighting tool. After her body was found, clothing was recovered which contained unknown DNA which was eventually linked to the 2005 assault of another woman in Fairfax, Virginia. Still there were no answers. In 2013, when 17-year-old Alexis Murphy disappeared, Morgan Harrington's parents reached out to the family. Alexis Murphy's body was never found, but DNA evidence linked Randy Taylor to the crime; he was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. Now, the families have joined together to help the Graham family through their ordeal and the search for Hannah. Ultimately, police think they have a suspect: Jesse Leroy Matthew, Jr.. (No on-screen text graphic.) Interviewed: Neal Augenstein (WTOP Radio reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Laura French (WTVR reporter/48 HOURS consultant); John Graham (father); Craig Maniglia (Graham's coach); Leila Nasser (Graham's friend); Lloyd Snook (attorney); Gil and Dan Harrington (Morgan Harrington's parents); Lindsey Crisp (Harrington's friend); Michael Boone (detective); Mark Castro (witness); Trina and Laura Murphy (mother and aunt of Alexis Murphy); William Haith (Jesse Matthew's acquaintance); Jesse Matthew, Sr. (father of suspect); Lee Vandell (Matthew's landlady). 48 HOURS: "Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil" (10:00-11:00p) - the second hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes ("Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections", 9:00-10:00p), detailing the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham, and the evidence that linked the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women (Morgan Harrington, Alexis Murphy, and an unidentified rape victim). This hour concentrates on Jesse Matthew, the man who was allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. Other crimes in Virginia, in which he became a suspect, are also detailed. Matthew fled from police and was located in Galveston, Texas. He does not cooperate. Thirty-five days after Graham's disappearance, her body was found. The site is close to where Morgan Harrington's body was found, near Matthew's childhood home. The challenge now is to build a case against Jesse Matthew. Meanwhile, a detective believes Matthew could be the suspect in an unsolved rape case in Fairfax, Virginia. A DNA test is taken; it is a match and that DNA is also a match to unknown DNA from the Morgan Harrington case. Matthew is indicted and will stand trial for attempted capital murder and sexual assault in the rape case. Prosecutors are still building the Graham case. Questions are also raised to a connection in the Alexis Murphy case; no link has been found. In early 2015, the rape trial begins. The victim (identified only as R.G.) returns from Asia to testify. As the defense portion of the trial is about to begin, Matthew takes an Alford plea (a kind of guilty plea where the defendant admits guilt, but does not admit to committing the crime). Then, Matthew is handed an indictment for first degree murder in the Morgan Harrington case. The Graham trial is scheduled to begin next summer. No date has been set for the Harrington trial. On-screen graphic epilogue for the 06/11/16 rebroadcast: On March 2, 2016, a few months before the Hannah Graham murder trial was to begin, Jesse Matthew accepted a deal. In exchange for pleading guilty, Matthew no longer faced the death penalty. He will serve four consecutive life terms with not possibility of ever being released. Both the Harrington and the Graham families supported the plea agreement. Original On-screen text graphic: Jesse Matthew will be sentenced in the Fairfax rape case on October 2, 2015. Matthew's trial for the murder of Hannah Graham is scheduled for July 5, 2016. If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 19 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. On-screen text graphic for the 06/11/16 rebroadcast: If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 20 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. 48 HOURS: "Father and Son (9:00-10:00p) - a retitled rebroadcast of "Father and Son: The Verdict", itself a followup to "Father and Son" (OAD: 04/12/14). A report about the 2011 death of Uta Von Schwedler, and her son Pelle Wall's efforts to prove that his father, pediatrician Dr. Johnny Wall, was responsible for her death. Von Schwedler, a university research scientist, was found dead in the bathtub of her Salt Lake City, Utah home by her boyfriend Nils Abramson. The cause of death was listed as "undetermined", leaving open the possibility of suicide. Investigation revealed long-standing issues between the divorced couple. Pelle Wall believed his father to be responsible and was determined to prove it. He risked everything, including his relationship with his father and future financial security, by filing a wrongful death suit against his father. This caused the authorities to re-examine the case. Dr. Wall was charged with murder. The trial began in February 2015. DNA results did nothing to clarify things and the trial became a battle of expert witnesses, with the defense suggesting Nils Abramson was responsible. Although Johnny Wall did not testify in his defense, it was ultimately his own words, in an interview with police, which led to his conviction. Epilogue for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Following his conviction, Uta Von Schwedler's family and friends were reunited at the sentencing hearing for her ex-husband and convicted killer Johnny Wall. Wall, finally broke his silence with a message for his children, emphatically denying any involvement in his ex-wife's death. The jury recommended Wall serve a sentence of fifteen years-to-life and the Judge agreed. Pelle Wall, like his father plans to be a physician. Original on-screen text graphic: Johnny Wall is expected to stand trial for murder by the end of 2014. Tomorrow, April 13th, is Uta Von Schwedler's birthday. On-screen text graphic for the 05/09/15 followup: Just a week before her death Uta Von Schwedler had made a breakthrough in childhood leukemia. 48 HOURS: "The Strange Case of Kurt Sonnenfeld" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation of Kurt Sonnenfeld, a man wanted for the 2002 murder of his wife, Nancy Sonnenfeld, in the United States, and who is now living with a new life with a new wife in Argentina, a country that has yet to agree to extradite him to the United States. He claims that the United States government wants to silence him for what he saw at Ground Zero following the 2001 terrorist attacks. He also maintains that his wife committed suicide after a New Year's Eve celebration on January 1, 2002. Police believed it to be a homicide. Her death came during a troubled time in their marriage; Nancy had filed for separation and intended to divorce Kurt. He was arrested for murder, but the charges were dropped shortly before he was to go to trial due to insufficient evidence. The investigation continued, and police eventually refiled the murder charge. By that time, Sonnenfeld had moved to Argentina, remarried and had launched a campaign to clear his name by giving interviews to the local media. He claims that he is wanted in the United States because of something he saw while working as a cameraman for FEMA at the World Trade Center Ground Zero site, and also claims that he is facing the death penalty -- which he is not. The case now drags on through the Argentine court system, and the President of Argentina even says that Kurt Sonnenfeld will not be extradited. Original On-screen text graphic: Tomorrow is Argentina's presidential election. It's not clear whether the decision to keep Sonnenfeld in Argentina will stand. On-screen text graphic for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Nancy's family has written to the new president of Argentina asking him to reconsider the extradition of Kurt Sonnenfeld. 06/25/16

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "I Remember Everything" (8:00 - 9:00p) - a report about Angela Rose (no last name given) and Delaney Henderson, two women, tied together by having survived sexual assaults and who, by going public, hope to help others. In 1996, Angela Rose was a teenager heading to a Chicago suburban high school graduation party after work. She never made it. Angela was abducted by a man with a long history of criminal acts. He put her in his car, and eventually stopped at a forest preserve where he sexually assaulted her in the car. She survived. Police knew they had a strong case, but it took four years for her attacker to be convicted. Angela Rose turned to activism. She founded an organization called PAVE (Promoting Awareness Victim Empowerment) to help others. One of those she helped was Delaney Henderson, a young woman from California, who in 2011, was sexually assaulted by two schoolmates in her family home. She hid her attack from her parents and the police, fearing she would be further attacked or even killed because one of her attackers was a popular athlete at school. Everything changed when she learned that he had allegedly raped another, younger girl. Eventually the accused, Shane Villalpando, was convicted of three counts of sex with a minor in the younger girl's case and later accepted a plea deal in Delaney's case, leading to one more count. He was sentenced to one year in jail, five years probation and must register as a sex offender. Original On-screen text graphic: Angela Rose does not want her last name used to protect her family's privacy. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"Religion & Democracy" -- an interfaith special examining the challenges America is facing -- as one of the most diverse democratic countries in the world -- when it comes to religious hate and intolerance. In particular, the conditions that are fueling anti-Muslim sentiment are examined. Among those featured on the program: (1) Dalia Mogahed, Director of Research at the Institute for Social Policy & Understanding (ISPU). A recent ISPU survey revealed that last year Muslims reported more religious discrimination than Jews, Protestants and Catholics. Mogahed talks about how living in a climate of fear and intolerance affects the Muslim community and society as a whole. (2) Charles C. Haynes, Founding Director of the Religious Freedom Center at the Newseum Institute, is also a senior scholar at the First Amendment Center, as well as a leading advocate for teaching about religion in public schools. While Islam is the second-largest religion in the world, the majority of Americans are misinformed about the tradition. Haynes argues that the best way to counter intolerance is through religious literacy and that teaching young people about religion is more important now than ever. (3) Chris Murray, a teacher at Walter Johnson High School in Montgomery County, Maryland, says that most students have very little understanding about religion and that his class makes them better citizens and advocates. Includes a world-religions class discussion about how Islam is portrayed in the media, and how students have been affected by the class. (4) Ilhan Omar is a Somali American who is running for Minnesota State Legislature District 60B. Muslims in America are doing what they can to counter religious bigotry by becoming more civically engaged. She shares her story of coming to America as a young refugee and explains what prompted her to run for office in one of the most diverse communities in Minneapolis. Also includes comments from her husband Ahmed Hirsi. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with religious scholars, clergy and others including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, Sikh and various interfaith organizations.)

Nadine is a beautiful 36-year-old who says behind her smile is a woman traumatized by a lifelong obsession to be thin. She estimates that over the years, she’s gained and lost at least 1,000 pounds, and says all of the yo-yo dieting has left her with what she calls “Post Traumatic Diet Disorder,” which includes feeling jittery, sleep deprivation and a list of foods she thinks she can’t eat. Jeannea, a 41-year-old mother of two, says she keeps a stash of junk food and drinks two 16-ounce sodas a day because she fears losing weight may ruin her marriage. Her husband, Travis, says he thinks that’s just an excuse for Jeannea to be inactive. Can Nadine and Jeannea learn to adopt healthier habits? Then, a 25-year-old blames her weight for never having a boyfriend, and a young mom says her scale hasn’t budged since she had her second child. Can Dr. Phil help get their health and fitness back on track? Plus, Dr. Phil provides tips for enjoying meals while still minding your weight goals. (Original airdate: 12/7/15)

“We Think Our Mom is Cheating, Lying and Choosing Men Over Us! Should We Cut Her off or Cut Her Some Slack?” Show #14047RR (TV 14 (L)(S)(D))

Brittney, 18, and Katelyn, 19, claim that throughout their lives, their mom, Cheryl, has been “neglectful, full of excuses and absent,” and chooses to “party with men” rather than be a mom. The teens currently live with their grandmother, Sharron, who says she’s fed up with picking up the pieces of Cheryl’s bad choices. They all say they’re concerned with what they call Cheryl’s promiscuous behavior and wonder if her “revolving door of men” could be caused by a sex addiction. Cheryl adamantly denies their accusations and says she’s ready to cut ties if they don’t stop ganging up on her. She claims that Brittney and Katelyn are disrespectful, and says she believes Sharron’s enabling ways may have contributed to the overdose death of her son eight months ago. Brittney and Katelyn say that the tragedy of their brother’s death should have brought them together, but instead, it has pushed them further apart. Can Dr. Phil help get to the root of this family’s issues so they can start healing? (Original airdate: 12/14/15)

Thom, 61, is a former convict-turned-pastor who says he’s served time behind bars for crimes that include drug possession, carrying a concealed weapon, assault, forgery and grand theft. But now, he’s making headlines for a different reason: Thom says he’s a polygynist and he recently “wed” and is expecting a child with 19-year-old Reba - with the blessing of his 44-year-old wife, Belinda. Belinda says she believes bringing a “sister wife” into her marriage is a “beautiful thing” and she’s grateful to have the extra help around the house. Reba, who has known Thom since she was 11, says despite the 41-year age gap, she knows she’s with the love of her life. Thom claims the backlash to their lifestyle from the community and on social media has been so severe that he may lose custody of his unborn child – and even fears for his life. Is this an alternative union of true love? What does Dr. Phil think? And, Pastor Joel Osteen joins Dr. Phil to talk about his new book, The Power of I Am: Two Words That Will Change Your Life Today. (Original airdate: 12/18/15)

Dear Friends and Sponsors:

The SEK golf Classic, benefiting the Independence Kansas Food Bank, sponsors an annual golf tournament as our main fundraiser. This year's tournament, our 18th is scheduled for June 25, 2016. Monies raised from this tournament cover a portion of our cost to furnish food for those in need as well as the Food 4 Kids program that insures food insecure elementary and middle school children have food to take home on Fridays to help with their needs over the weekend.

We are again requesting any items you make be able to send us to either go into each golfer's bag (144) or be raffled off or be placed in our silent auction.

We will have coverage of the tournament by possibly two television stations and we have the participation of several local casinos.

We will be looking forward to hearing from you. We are so appreciative of your continued support of our efforts to feed food insecure people all over SE Kansas.

We are also enclosing an entry form for your team and an invoice for your convenience.

Yours truly,

Dear KOAM – TV,

This year at the Commerce's Days Quapaw Peewee/Midget Cheer sell tickets to people in the community, as a fundraiser for Quapaw Peewee/Midget Cheer to help pay for Cheer uniforms for the girls. The tickets are then used as a drawing for a chance to win prizes. The Quapaw Peewee /Midget Cheer was wondering if you would be able to donate something that they might be able to sell chances on. If you are able to help or have any questions please contact Laura Johnston.

Thank you for your time,

Dear Mr. Lewis,

Cherokee County American Legion Free Fair will be celebrating their 88th year serving Cherokee County. Every year Cherokee County looks for ways to better this week of fun. We have a raffle that the 4-H Fair King and Queen candidates, and their respected 4-H clubs will sell tickets for. In the past we have had the opportunity to raffle off a television that was donated by KOAM-TV Station, as well as numerous other prizes for such a great cause.

Cherokee County 4-H would be extremely thankful if we had the opportunity to raffle a television this year that was donated from KOAM-TV amongst our other prizes.

If your organization has any questions or would care to donate to this cause please feel free to contact me at kcurry@ksu.edu. All donations are tax deductible, and your generosity will play a role in the timeless 4-H motto "to make the best better".

The list is not exhaustive and the order in which these issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.
4-H Children, Youth	Public Service Announcement	4.19.16-6.30.16	2 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$445	The station aired Public Service Announcements in support of local county 4-H groups. 4-H believes in the power of young people. Every child has valuable strengths and real influence to improve the world around us. 4-H is America's largest youth development organization—empowering nearly six million young people across the U.S. with the skills to lead for a lifetime. 4-H empowers young people with the skills to lead for a lifetime. It's a research-based experience that includes a mentor, a hands-on project, and a meaningful leadership opportunity. Head, Heart, Hands, and Health are the four Hs in 4-H, and they are the four values members work on through fun and engaging programs.
Alcoholics Anonymous	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.30.16	2 Hours, 30 Seconds	$13,495	The station aired Public Service Announcements for Alcoholics Anonymous. Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) is an international fellowship of men and women who have had a drinking problem. It is nonprofessional, self-supporting, multiracial, apolitical, and available almost everywhere. There are no age or education requirements. Membership is open to anyone who wants to do something about his or her drinking problem. The PSA's provide information for people looking for help for themselves or a family member or friend.
Testing, Saving Children, Youth, Safety	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.28.16	10 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$760	The station produced and aired a Public Service Announcement from the Baxter Springs, KS Middle School which addresses the issues of texting and sexting among middle school students. The PSA touches on several issues: Text people online as if you are in person. Treat others as you would like to be treated. Be respectful, polite, and considerate to anyone you meet. Don't use anonymity to abuse your power online. Think before you post. Protect your reputation. Don't be a bully. Don't attack or disrespect anyone by swearing, insulting, harassing, or calling names. If something happens online that makes you uncomfortable, tell a trusted adult.
Catholic Charities, poverty, community support	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.30.16	2 Hours, 18 Minutes	$13,560	The station aired Public Service Announcements in support of Catholic Charities of Kansas and Southwest Missouri. The mission of Catholic Charities is to provide service to people in need, to advocate for justice in social structures, and to call the entire church and other people of good will to do the same. At Catholic Charities, we help people who are struggling by addressing the often complex issues at the root of their need. Through our national office's advocacy and disaster relief programs — and its support of our network of member agencies — we're making tangible progress toward better serving and loving our neighbors all across the country. The Catholic Charities network in the United States is designed to help people in need at both the local and national level. Our 164 member agencies faithfully serve the unique needs of communities in 2,631 different locations, while our national office, Catholic Charities USA (CCUSA), supports member agencies through knowledge-sharing and network gatherings. CCUSA also brings the voice of the network to the national stage through advocacy, media initiatives, and other communication partners, while member agencies work to implement our policy advances on the ground.

					Compass Quest is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation that assists veterans and their families in the Southwest Missouri region. Our mission is to remove barriers that hinder the pursuit of wellness by providing navigational assistance to veterans in the community to obtain local, regional, and national services. Compass Quest also engages in supportive programs that include veteran peer support, art and writing therapy, medical transportation, referrals, team building activities and Veterans Affairs claims assistance. Compass Quest was founded by two veterans to provide peer to peer support to other veterans. Compass Quest is effective at providing compassionate understanding that has an impact on the veterans we serve. Our concept has attracted like-minded individuals to join this endeavor and our Board of Directors is comprised of other passionate veterans. Therefore, Compass Quest adheres to our maxim: "Veterans Helping Veterans Find the Way Forward". Veterans face unique issues that include reintegration, belonging, usefulness, homelessness, coping difficulties, Post Traumatic Stress, and higher unemployment or under-employment. We help them overcome the obstacles they face and connect them with services that assist with these issues. The pursuit of wellness is more than an individual endeavor. Social, environmental, economic and other external factors significantly influence the wellness of both individuals and the communities of which they are a part. We are pursuing a Veteran Wellness Model that aids in recovery and adjustment and provides a foundation for physical and psychological well-being. We believe this is a community effort and we are harnessing the appropriate local resources so we have engaged and collaborative business, nonprofit, veteran service organizations and municipal agencies.
Compass Quest Veterans	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.30.16	33 Minutes, 25 Seconds	$4,138
Distracted Driving, Safety, Youth and Adults	Public Service Announcement	4.29.16-6.30.16	1 Hour, 15 Minutes	$3,710	The station aired a series of Public Service Announcements discussing Distractions behind the wheel while driving can be larger than life. According to the U.S. Department of Transportation, in 2013, there were approximately 424,000 people injured in distracted driving-related crashes in the U.S. Decide to Drive is a distracted driving awareness program from the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons (AAOS) and the Alliance of Automobile Manufacturers (Auto Alliance) that encourages drivers of all ages to decide to focus on driving each time they get in the car to keep their bodies and limbs intact. Since 2009, orthopaedic surgeons and automakers have urged drivers to "Decide to Drive" behind the wheel by avoiding texting, eating, talking on a hand held phone, applying make-up and other distractions while driving. Orthopaedic surgeons not only treat, but also want to prevent injuries that can result from distracted driving-related crashes and trauma. Your support of our PSAs will help your viewers stay safe on the road—and help us work together to continue raising awareness about the risks of distraction behind the wheel. Let's help all drivers decide to drive each time they get into the car by airing the PSAs "No Such Thing as a Small Distraction" (1:50), "Blue Rider" (1:30), "Construction Site" (1:30) and "Crossing the Street" (1:30). These spots humorously but effectively show how even the smallest everyday activities can be big distractions behind the wheel. The PSAs—with an end date of March 31, 2017—also encourage viewers to visit DecideToDrive.org for more information.
Empire District Electric Company, Environment, Safety	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.29.16	14 Minutes	$1,560	As part of the Ozarks Clean Air Alliance Clean Air Action Plan for Southwest Missouri the station aired Public Service Announcements provided by Empire District Electric Company. The first task of the Ozarks Clean Air Alliance was the development of a Clean Air Action Plan (CAAP). This was modeled after the Ozone Flex Program in place with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) at the time. The initial CAAP sought to capture all the activities taking place throughout the region that contributed to improving air quality. The previous accomplishments listed throughout this document capture the efforts highlighted in the original CAAP. The CAAP was adopted in 2009 and updated in 2010. This update of the Clean Air Action Plan coincides with the timing for the initial goals of the CAAP and will serve as the Path Forward document required as part of the EPA Ozone Advance and PM Advance programs.
FEMA, Emergency Preparedness	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.30.16	11 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$1,500	In order to encourage Americans to prepare themselves, their families, and their communities, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), in partnership with The Advertising Council, has sponsored public service advertisements (PSAs) that educate and empower Americans to prepare for and respond to all kinds of emergencies. The Ready Campaign has created suites of advertisements directed towards individuals and families, owners and managers of small and medium-sized business, and Spanish speakers. Because the Ready ads are PSAs, they run entirely in donated media space.

Homeland Security, Safety, Emergency Preparedness	Public Service Announcement	4.1.16-6.30.16	1 Hour, 47 Minutes	$8,570	The station aired Public Service Announcements provided by Homeland Security titled "Protect Your Everyday." Suspicious activity is any observed behavior that could indicate terrorism or terrorism-related crime. This includes, but is not limited to: Unusual items or situations. A vehicle is parked in an odd location, a package/luggage is unattended, a window/floor is open that is usually closed, or other out-of-the-ordinary situations occur. Eliciting information. A person questions individuals at a level beyond curiosity about a building's purpose, operations, security procedures and/or personnel, shift changes, etc. Observation/surveillance: Someone pays unusual attention to facilities or buildings beyond a casual or professional interest. This includes extended loitering without explanation (particularly in concealed locations), unusual, repeated, and/or prolonged observation of a building (e.g., with binoculars or video camera), taking notes or measurements, counting paces, sketching floor plans, etc. Some of these activities could be innocent—it's up to law enforcement to determine whether the behavior warrants investigation. The activities above are not all-inclusive, but have been compiled based on studies of pre-operational aspects of both successful and thwarted terrorist events over several years. If you See Something™ is a national campaign that raises public awareness of the indicators of terrorism and terrorism-related crime, as well as the importance of reporting suspicious activity to state and local law enforcement. Informal, alert communities play a critical role in keeping our nation safe. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is committed to strengthening homeland security by creating partnerships with state, local, tribal, and territorial (SLTT) governments and the private sector, as well as the communities they serve. These partners help us reach the public across the nation by aligning their messaging with the campaign's messages and distributing outreach materials, including Public Service Announcements (PSAs).
Performing and Fine Arts	Public Service Announcement	4.2.16-6.30.16	34 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$4,100	The station aired Public Service Announcements promoting the fine arts in the market. Joplin's first Thursday Artwalk occurs the first Thursday of each month from April through fall. Short Description: March 2008, Artwalk started in downtown historic Joplin MO, to bring entertainment value to vacant buildings, and walks for artists to show their works. Photobooth AT event

Dear Friend:

Hideout Harley-Davidson is pleased to announce that we will once again be joining the Muscular Dystrophy Association to host the 32ND Annual Ride for Life. Our tradition continues this year with the Cruise in party on June 11th and the Ride on June 12th. With the help of our many friends and vendors we raised over $35,000.00 during the 2015 Ride for Life. We are in the final stages of gathering donations for this awesome event and we hope that you can help us make our 2016 Ride even bigger.

The money collected provides direct services to over 750 families in the Ozark area. Many others benefit from the world-wide research seeking treatments and cures. Contributions will maintain the Association's hospital-affiliated clinic at Mercy Hospital in Springfield Missouri, which offers diagnostic and follow-up care for people with neuromuscular disorders. Clinic services include physical, occupational, and respiratory therapy evaluations. Other services provided by MDA include, assistance for repair for leg braces and wheelchairs, support groups, a fun-filled summer camp program, and flu vaccinations.

We need your help. Please consider donating an item for our silent or live auction. We appreciate your past support and look forward to many years of partnership in helping this great cause. With your donation you will help to make the Ride for Life one of the biggest events of the year. MDA receives no government funding or monies from United Way. So we extend our sincere gratitude to our friends and vendors who help to make this ride a success!

We welcome your questions and if you would like to attend this event or have a booth present, please don't hesitate to call Joyce at 417-623-1054. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Joyce Williams
