Guest: President George W. Bush

60 MINUTES

- 01/01/06 "The New Space Race"- followup to "The New Space Race" (OAD: 11/07/04), an interview with Burt Rutan, an aeronautical engineer about his efforts to develop a commercial travel business in space by providing flights that are cheap enough and safe enough for ordinary people. In 2004 Rutan won the $10 million Ansari X prize. Subsequently, Richard Branson, the English billionaire, signed a $120 million deal with Rutan to build five spaceships for Virgin Galactic, the world's first spaceline. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)
- "Fighting AIDS"- 60 MINUTES followed former President Bill Clinton as he traveled to Yunnan Province in China where health officials have documented the largest number of AIDS cases. Clinton talked about the work of his charitable foundation and his own efforts to convince China it has an AIDS problem; the dramatic spread of AIDS during his presidency; his work with the Bush administration; and his wife, Hillary Rodham Clinton's political aspirations. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
- "Immortality" - an interview with Dr. Aubrey de Grey, a scientist at Cambridge University who believes that science will soon enable us to grow old without aging. Includes interviews with Dr. Jay Olshansky, who feels that Dr. de Grey's predictions are more science fiction than science; and Dr. Christian Sell, a research scientist at Drexel University in Philadelphia, who is working to produce a so-called ageless mouse. (C: Morley Safer - P: Bruce Ferguson)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Planning" - what to do first when you get to the office (OAD: 06/03/01)

- 01/08/06 "Mafia Cops?"- ex-New York detectives Stephen Caracappa and Louis Eppolito, are charged with the murders of 10 people, murders committed on the orders of a Mafia boss. In an interview, Caracappa calls the charges ludicrous. Includes a portion of an interview ("The Most Feared Gangster" OAD: 09/20/98) with mob boss Anthony "Gaspipe" Casso; and an interview with Ed Hayes, Caracappa's attorney. Louis Eppolito (not interviewed) also contends that he is innocent of all charges. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky, Tanya Simon, Patti Aronofsky)
"Sir Howard" - an interview with Sir Howard Stringer, the Welsh-born CEO of Sony who, six months ago, took on the job of turning the company around. Includes an interview with Professor Hirotaka Takeuchi, dean of one of Japan's most prestigious business schools. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
"Bode" - Bode Miller, the 28-year-old U.S. skier who won the World Cup title last March and is expected to win gold at the 2006 Winter Olympics, talks about his unorthodox style; his childhood; his opinion that athletes should only be tested for drugs which are dangerous to their health; and the fact that he has skied while drunk. Includes an interview with Bode's mother, Jo Miller. (C: Bob Simon - P: Catherine Olian)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Gets An Earful" - angry mail following Andy's segment on the quality of American cars
- 01/15/06 "John Murtha"- an interview with 73-year-old Rep. John Murtha (D-PA), a decorated war hero from Vietnam and Korea who claims that mounting pressure from constituents in this election year will force Congress to pass legislation withdrawing all U.S. troops from Iraq by the end of the year. Murtha insists that U.S. troops are caught in the middle of an Iraqi civil war and not, as President Bush claims, a fight against terrorists. (D-PA). (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"The Hermit Kingdom" - a rare look inside the reclusive communist dictatorship of North Korea. Includes interviews with: Gen. Ri Chan Bok, who says he will use nuclear weapons in the event of a U.S. invasion of his country; chief North Korean negotiator, Kim Gae Gwan; as well as a visit to the U.S.S. Pueblo, now a tourist attraction, whose capture in 1968 was one of the most visible and serious incidents of the Cold War. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
"Felicity"- an interview with 43-year-old actress Felicity Huffman who has a hit TV show, "Desperate Housewives," and new movie, "Transamerica" which is generating talk of an Oscar nomination. Includes an interview with actor Bill Macy, the actress' husband and former teacher. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: David Browning)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Happy Birthday?" - Andy wonders why people think birthdays are happy

- 01/22/06 "The Oil Sands"-- a report on the oil boom in Alberta, Canada, where the oil sands produce a million barrels a day and hold reserves eight times those of Saudi Arabia. The oil companies, which pay some of the highest salaries in North America, are faced with problems including the shortage of labor and charges by environmentalists that they are destroying both the atmosphere and the land. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich)
"Kinky For Governor"-- an interview with irreverent Jewish country singer Kinky Friedman, who, despite his lack of experience is campaigning as an independent to be the next governor of Texas. Includes an interview with Friedman's campaign manager Dean Barkley. (C: Morley Safer - P: Alden Bourné)
"Fatality"-- an interview with Jonathan Wendel, a 24-year-old professional video game player who uses the pseudonym 'Fatality' - pronounced as "fatality" and spelled "Fatality" (sic). Wendel, who lives in Kansas City, Missouri, has won 41 tournaments and has traveled, all expenses paid, to every continent except Antarctica. Includes interviews with: Professor Edward Castranova, who teaches the economics and sociology of video games at Indiana University; marketing guru Mark Walden; and Sundance DiGiovanni who, with Mark Sepso, runs Major League Gaming. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andrew Court)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Solution To Overpopulation" - we should be flexible in the way we use the hours of our day
- 01/29/06 "Worst-Case Scenario" - a report on the U.S. Government's lack of medical preparedness in the event of a nuclear attack. Focuses on Hollis-Eden, a small San Diego-based biotech company whose drug Neumene was approved by the Pentagon as a treatment for radiation exposure. Last September, the Department of Health and Human Services announced that it would commit to purchase the drug, but only 100,000 doses, an amount considered by experts to be totally inadequate. Includes interviews with: Bob Marsella, vice president of Hollis-Eden; Richard Hollis, CEO of Hollis-Eden; Lee Hamilton, vice chairman, the 9/11 Commission; Rep. Tom Davis, (R-VA). (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Joel Bach)
"Prisoner Of Pain"-- a report on Richard Paey, an accident victim who was convicted for drug trafficking and sent to prison for 25 years for his use of massive amounts of painkillers to fight chronic pain. Includes interview with Paey's wife Linda; Scott Andringa, Florida State prosecutor; and Dr. Russell Portnoy, Chairman, department of pain medication at New York's Beth Israel Hospital. (C: Morley Safer - Deirdre Naphin, Katy Textor)
"Off The Scale"-- an interview with opera singer Deborah Voigt who, having been denied a part because of her weight, opted for gastric bypass surgery. Also includes an interview with conductor James Conlon. (C: Bob Simon - P: David Browning)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Antique Computers?" - Andy wants the people who invent things to slow down so we can catch up

48 HOURS

01/03/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Blood Feud" - Nancy Seaman, an award-winning teacher living in Farmington Hills, Michigan, an exclusive Detroit suburb, was accused of the 2004 hatchet/stabbing murder of her husband, Bob. She admits killing him, but says it was self-defense, claiming that he had been mentally and physically abusing her for years. The couple's two sons -- Greg and Jeff -- differ concerning their parent's marriage and the life they all shared. Greg sympathizes with his mother, claiming that his father was abusive and that his mother's life was in danger. Jeff, who testified for the prosecution, denies that his mother was a battered wife. Nancy Seaman was tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to life in prison. This past August, the judge in the case ordered Nancy Seaman's conviction reduced from first to second-degree murder. If the ruling is upheld Nancy's life sentence could be reduced to as little as seven and a half years. Includes interviews with: Nancy Seaman; her sons Greg and Jeff; defense attorney Larry Kaluzny; Lisa Ortlieb, prosecutor in the case and director of Oakland County's Domestic Violence Unit; and Dr. Lenore Walker, an expert on abused women. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Katie Boyle - P: Nancy Kramer) (OAD: 04/09/05, with an update) No individual segment titles were used in this episode.

01/07/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door"- reports on two instances in which forensic sculptors were called upon to help identify murder victims:
1) on the night of May 1, 2003, a teenage girl's body was found in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. The gruesome discovery became detective Scott Dudek's obsession and touched the entire community, which came to call the young girl "Castro Valley's Jane Doe." The community rallied to raise money to bury her. Then, two years after "Jane" was found, as a last-ditch effort to identify the girl, Detective Dudek of the Alameda County Sheriff's office made the decision to exhume the body to search for clues that might have been missed. Forensic artist Gloria Nusse created a forensic reconstruction of Jane's face based on nothing but the skull in the hope that someone might recognize her. Detectives have tracked down over 800 leads to identify "Jane", and more than 350 missing girls have been ruled out.
2) an interview with forensic sculptor Frank Bender of Philadelphia whose facial reconstruction helped solve another murder. Gregory May disappeared in January 2001 from Bellevue, Iowa -- his children suspected foul play. When May's antique collection turned up for auction, police found the seller to be May's former friend and house-mate Doug DeBruin. Subsequently police found a skull at a truck stop hundreds of miles from Iowa. Bender was brought the skull to reconstruct the face -- and authorities later identified it as May. Other portions of May's body were located providing sufficient evidence to bring DeBruin to trial for murder. Includes an interview with Ellen Leach of the Doe Network, a group of amateur detectives dedicated to helping law enforcement solve cold cases by scouring the Internet searching for missing persons and unidentified persons and matching them up. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Clare Friedland, Jay Young)

01/14/06 PREEMPTION

01/21/06

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Phone Call"- when Shannon Melendi, a 19-year-old sophomore at Emory University in Atlanta disappeared in March 1994, authorities believed she had either run away or had taken part in a college prank. Melendi's roommate, Athena Perez, became worried when her friend didn't return to the dorm room the evening of March 26. The next day, Perez and her friends found Melendi's abandoned car with the keys in it and called police. Following an extensive police search of the area that turned up no signs of the missing girl, the Melendi family and friends began their own aggressive search, offering a $10,000 reward for information and tapping into celebrities Andy Garcia and Bo Jackson who appeared on national television programs in an effort to help find Shannon. Nearly two weeks after Melendi vanished, an anonymous male phoned the Emory University counseling center claiming he had Shannon. The FBI traced the call to a pay phone where police found evidence that was intentionally left behind by the caller, a package containing a ring that belonged to Melendi. Only then did authorities treat the case as a kidnapping. Investigators managed to trace pieces of the package to Colvin "Butch" Hinton III, an umpire at the softball field where Melendi worked the day she went missing. Authorities searched Hinton's home and property but found no human remains and nothing that could be linked to Shannon. They did uncover the fact that Hinton had a violent criminal past covering decades. In late 2003, a new prosecutor took up the case, and more than ten years after Shannon Melendi disappeared, police and FBI agents arrested "Butch" Hinton and charged him with her murder. Hinton was tried, found guilty of kidnapping and murder, and sentenced to life in prison. Yvonne and Luis Melendi, Shannon's parents, have set their sights on a new mission, seeking longer prison sentences for sexual predators, especially repeat offenders like Hinton. 01/28/06

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Rage On The Run" - bodybuilder David Bieber of Ft. Myers, Florida started using steroids in high school and as an adult began selling them to support his expensive career. Bieber went into business with fellow bodybuilder Markus Mueller, a German who was able to smuggle the drugs into the U.S. from Europe. Bieber had an affair with Mueller's girlfriend, Danielle LaBelle, and subsequently married her. In February 1995, Bieber drove LaBelle to Mueller's home to retrieve her purse while he waited in the car. When LaBelle found Mueller dead in the doorway she suspected that Bieber had killed him. Two men admitted to police that Bieber had hired them to kill Mueller, but before he could be arrested, Bieber disappeared. He bought the birth certificate of a deceased child, Nathan Wayne Coleman, and took on his identity and, in 1996, fled to Leeds, England where he was undiscovered for almost eight years. On Dec. 26, 2003, Leeds police approached a car that was parked strangely on the side of the road. The vehicle turned out to be stolen and the driver, Coleman, in the process of being handcuffed, opened fire on the three unarmed arresting officers and escaped. One officer died of his wounds and a nationwide manhunt was launched. Bieber was finally apprehended, tried for the murder of the police officer, and sentenced to life in prison. Danielle LaBelle divorced Bieber in 2003. There are no plans to try him for the murder of Markus Mueller. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Tanya Simon, Michael Radutzky)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy On Man's Best Friend" - a visit to the dog show

48 HOURS

02/04/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Blaming The Babysitter"- thirteen-year-old Ashley Howes, a Seattle area girl, was a mother's helper for Morningstar Garden, a family friend, over a holiday weekend in 2005. A change of plans put Ashley in sole charge of two children -- five-year-old Madeline and 19-month-old Freya. When Morningstar and her boyfriend Gracian Cline were out, Ashley said she heard a thud from the room where Freya was sleeping. On finding Freya in a fetal position groaning, Ashley called 911, and an ambulance rushed the child to a hospital where, two hours later, she was pronounced dead. Doctors told police that it appeared that the toddler had been violently shaken: she had major head injuries, including a blood clot in her brain. Ashley, having been interrogated by police for hours without the presence of a parent or an attorney, was tried for the child's murder. Because of the lack of evidence the case was dismissed and Ashley can never be retried for the murder of Freya Garden. Her parents are considering a civil law suit against the state of Washington. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Ian Paisley, Lourdes Aguiar, Mead Stone)

02/11/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Mind For Murder" - Professor Thomas Murray of Kansas State University was married to Carmin Ross for 18 years. They met at Ohio State University, where he had been her teacher. Ross earned a law degree, but after a few years, became a mediator and, later a healer. After 13 years of marriage, the couple had a baby girl, Ciara, despite the fact that Murray apparently didn't want children. Later Ross met Larry Lima and divorced Murray. The former couple shared custody, but in November 2003, Ross told Murray she wanted Ciara to live with her and Lima. On the following night Ross was found beaten and stabbed in her home. Evidence showed that Thomas Murray had been researching how to hire an assassin and how to get away with murder. Murray was tried, found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. He is appealing his conviction. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul Ryan, Ian Paisley, Gayane Keshishyan) (OAD: 05/14/05)

02/18/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dream Killer"- Kent Heitholt, the popular sports editor of The Daily Tribune in Columbus, Missouri was found bludgeoned and strangled near his car on Halloween night 2001. Two years later, 19-year-old Charles Erickson told a friend that he had a dream about his involvement in the crime. Although his memory of events was hazy, Erickson told police about events leading up to the murder and implicated his high school friend Ryan Ferguson. He said that he and Ferguson were out drinking the night of the murder and, when they ran out of money, decided to rob someone. When they approached Heitholt, things got out of hand. Both Erickson and Ferguson were taken into custody and charged with murder. Four years after Heitholt's death, Ferguson, who claimed innocence, was tried for murder. The state's star witness was his former friend, Erickson, who admitted his involvement in the crime but claimed that Ferguson was the instigator. Found guilty of second-degree murder and first-degree robbery, Ryan Ferguson was sentenced to 40 years in prison. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Chuck Stevenson)

02/25/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "What They Did For Love" - in 1994, 25-year-old Toni Dykstra of Los Angeles, a single mother of two, met and married Carlo Ventre, a 46-year-old Italian businessman. After the birth of their child, Santina, the couple's relationship soured. Despite a court custody order, Carlo fled to Italy with Santina in January 1998. Toni went to Italy where an Italian court ordered the baby returned to the U.S., but the day before she was to return home, Toni was found dead of head injuries in Carlo's apartment. Carlo claimed that he acted in self-defense when Toni attacked him. Toni's twin sister, Teri Martinez, believing that Toni had been murdered, was determined to get justice for her sister and enlisted the help of attorney Gloria Allred, who took on the case pro bono. Allred traveled to Italy six times since 1998 seeking justice for Toni and custody of Santina. Carlo Ventre, having been deported to Italy, was finally charged with voluntary murder in the first degree; and will go to trial on March 2006. If he is acquitted, U.S. prosecutors plan to extradite him to stand trial for plotting to kill Toni's father and stepmother, Milt and Betty Dykstra. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Katherine Davis, Abra Potkin Rabhan)

Guests: Sen. Edward Kennedy (D-MA) (1); Stephen Hadley, White House Security Adviser (2)

60 MINUTES

03/05/06

"Is The Price Right?" - a report on problems arising from the fact that hospitals across the U.S. are routinely charging uninsured patients far more for the same procedures than insured patients. Includes interviews with: KB Forbes, head of an activist force called the Council for United Latinos; Gerald Anderson, a professor of public health at Johns Hopkins University; Carmela Coyle, senior vice president for policy for the American Hospital Association; and Sen. Charles Grassley (R-IA). (C: Dan Rather - P: Michael Rosenbaum)

"The Court-Martial Of Willie Brand" - Willie Brand, a guard at a U.S. military prison in Bagram, Afghanistan was court-martialed and convicted of assaulting and maiming two Afghan prisoners who then died. Brand, whose only penalty was a reduction in rank, claims that he was not guilty of torture, but was doing what he was trained to do. Includes interviews with: Captain Christopher Beiring, Brand's commanding officer; and Col. Lawrence Wilkerson, former chief of staff to Secretary of State Colin Powell. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran)

"The Prince Of Pot" - Marc Emery, aka "The Prince of Pot," is leader of a marijuana legalization movement in Canada. Emery has been running a thriving mail-order marijuana seed business with little interference from Canadian officials. However, officials in the DEA want him extradited to the United States where he can be prosecuted for selling drugs to Americans. Includes interviews with John McKay, U.S. Attorney for the western district of Washington State; and Rodney Benson, DEA Special Agent. (C: Bob Simon - P: Catherine Olian)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Take On Outsourcing" - Andy wonders why the U.S. seems to have lost the ability to do anything for itself

03/12/06

"Brutal" - an interview with Kevin Weeks, 49-year-old south Boston native and former right-hand man to James "Whitey" Bulger, once leader of Boston's Irish mob and currently a fugitive from justice. Weeks, who has written a book called "Brutal" about his association with Bulger, tells about his reaction to learning that Bulger was an FBI informant, and his own decision to cooperate with authorities. Also includes an interview with Howie Carr, a columnist for the Boston Herald newspaper whose efforts to expose Bulger and his gang almost led to his murder. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Graham Messick, Michael Karzis)

"Al Qaeda's Town" - a report on how the U.S. military took control of the Iraqi city of Tal Afar, formerly a stronghold of al-Qaeda terrorists. Includes interviews with: Col. H.R. McMaster, a soldier-scholar who served as a top advisor on fighting the Iraqi insurgency; Michael Ware, Baghdad bureau chief for Time magazine; and Captain Jesse Sellers, who regularly patrols the city. (C: Lara Logan - P: Josh Yager)

"Gay Or Straight?" - a report on scientists' efforts to discover the factors which determine whether an individual will be heterosexual or homosexual, focusing on a study of same-sex twins. Includes interviews with: Michael Bailey, professor of psychology at Northwestern University; researcher Gerulf Rieger; and Dr. Marc Breedlove of Michigan State University who is doing research with rats. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Oscar Winners" - Andy hands out his own awards for some unusual categories

03/19/06 "Defending New York" - the New York City police department, 37,000 strong and larger than the standing armies of 84 countries, has, in the aftermath of the 9/11/01 attacks, transformed itself from a traditional crime-fighting organization into one with a strong emphasis on fighting terrorism. Includes interviews with: Chief Vincent Giordano, chief of a counterterrorism operation called a "surge"; NYPD Commissioner Ray Kelly; intelligence experts David Cohen and Michael Sheehan; and members of a cyberunit drawn from New York City policemen with Middle Eastern and South Asian backgrounds. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry Radcliffe)
"Rewriting The Science" - an interview with James Hansen, NASA's top scientist studying climate, who accuses the Bush administration of restricting what he can say about global warming. Also includes interview with Ralph Cicerone, president of the National Academy of Sciences; and Rick Piltz, the Federal Climate Change Science program. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Catherine Herrick, Bill Owens)
"Family Ties" - every year, an estimated 30,000 children are born in the U.S. to women, a number of them single or in lesbian relationships, who have been artificially inseminated with sperm from anonymous donors. Most of the children grow up never knowing their biological fathers. Now, with the help of sperm bank records and the Internet, some of them are finding and building relationships, not only with 'donor siblings' -- half-brothers and sisters sired by the same donor, but on occasion, with their anonymous fathers. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mitch Weitzner)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Let's List The Lottery Losers" - Andy thinks the lottery encourages the people who can least afford it to gamble.

03/26/06 "Betting On A Fall" - Biovail Corporation, a Canadian pharmaceutical company, is claiming in a lawsuit that SAC Capital Advisors, a large hedge fund, orchestrated a negative stock analysis report about Biovail in order to depress its stock and then sell it short. Includes interviews with: Eugene Melnyk, CEO of Biovail, and Richard Blumenthal, Connecticut Attorney General. Also includes interviews with several former salesmen from Camelback Research Alliance, the stock analysis firm which issued a SAC-commissioned report on Biovail. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Janet Klein)
"Tiger" - a two-part segment profiling golf pro Tiger Woods, focussing first on his family background and rise to fame, and then on his creation of the Tiger Woods Learning Center, where children can get learning experiences, not available to them in their own schools, which will help prepare them for college and careers. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
And Rooney Topic: "Girl Scout Cookies" - Andy looks at the variety of Girl Scout Cookies and their ingredients.

48 HOURS

03/04/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Highest Stakes" - In October, 2005, Christie Wilson, a 27-year-old Sacramento, California woman went alone to Thunder Valley Casino to gamble -- and vanished. Four days after she was declared missing, police found that the casino's security system showed that she had left with Mario Garcia, a 53-year-old married father of two. It was discovered that Garcia had a prior criminal record including charges of rape, assault with a deadly weapon and spousal abuse. After lengthy investigation, police felt they had a case based on the following evidence: hairs found in Garcia's car; the casino video; and Garcia's appearance -- a black eye and facial scratches. Despite the absence of a murder weapon, eyewitnesses and physical evidence to prove that Christie Wilson is dead, Mario Garcia was arrested, charged with murder and will go to trial in April. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul LaRosa)

- 03/11/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Texas Confidential" - followup to "The Bookie's wife" (OAD: 01/11/02), a report on the 1997 murder of Doris Angleton, the wife of a successful Houston, Texas bookie. Doris' husband Bob, who claimed that his brother Roger was Doris' killer, was tried for the crime in state court and acquitted. More than three years later, federal prosecutors once more charged him with murder, planning to introduce new evidence -- an audio tape made by Vanessa Leggett, a true-crime writer who had interviewed Roger Angleton in jail. Four days before Bob's federal murder trial was to begin, he fled to Amsterdam where he was arrested by Dutch officials and charged with entering the country with forged documents. Angleton's lawyers cited an international treaty prohibiting the Dutch government from extraditing him to Texas to face murder charges a second time. In September 2004, Bob Angleton was brought back to the U.S. He pled guilty to passport and tax fraud and was sentenced to 12 years in federal prison. Once out of prison, the only way he can avoid another murder trial is to leave the U.S. permanently. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Loen Kelley)
- 03/18/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dark Side Of The Mesa" - in November 2001 Michael Blagg, returned to his Grand Junction, Colorado home to find a bloody bed and an empty jewel box -- but no sign of his wife Jennifer or their six-year-old daughter Abby. When investigators learned that Blagg and his wife had argued over his addiction to hard-core pornography, Blagg became the prime suspect. When a search of the county landfill produced Jennifer's remains, the District Attorney charged Blagg with first degree murder. Michael Blagg was tried for murder in March of 2004, convicted and sentenced to life in prison. Abby has never been found. Includes interviews with: Steve King, Mesa County Sheriff's investigator; the Reverend Art Blankenship, pastor of the Blaggs' Evangelical Church, and his wife Rhonda; Marilyn Conway, Jennifer's mother; David Loman, her brother; David Eisner, Blagg's attorney; and District Attorney Frank Daniels. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Peter Henderson, Martin Zied - Sr. P: Katie Boyle) (OAD: 10/09/04)
- 03/25/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Natalee Holloway: New Clues In Paradise" - a report on new details into the search for Natalee Holloway, a U.S. teenager who disappeared on May 30, 2005 during a post-graduation trip in the Caribbean island of Aruba. Includes an exclusive interview with Gerald Dompig, the deputy chief of police in Aruba who is leading the investigation. Also includes interviews with Beth Holloway Twitty, Natalee's mother, and Dr. Ruben Cruz, head of Aruba's search and rescue team. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Doug Longhini, Josh Gelman, Miguel Sancho). Also included in this episode: "Nightmare In Honduras" - a report on the 2002 gunshot death of Randall Latona at his villa in Honduras. Honduran officials classified the death as a suicide. Latona's family disagreed, and filed a wrongful death suit against his former girlfriend, Leslie Ann Spiering. The family was awarded a $2.5 million judgment and, though they do not expect to get any of the money, they hope to use the court judgment as leverage with Honduran officials to reopen the investigation into his death and prosecute Spiering for murder. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Chuck Stevenson, Jay Young, James Stolz)

Vance,

Pitt State's SAPS organization is having a photography conference at the end of Feb. I just joined the organization and they wanted me to assist in getting them on the morning show, and possible see if FOX or KOAM could donate in prizes for their contest. I hate to keep bothering you...but whatever you could donate would sure help out. Just to give you an idea, some area restaurants are giving meal certificates. Others are giving gift certificates from area businesses, so if you could donate a shirt or mug that would be great!

Thanks so much,

Juliana

Approximately 18 students from Girard, Kansas High School video production class toured the KOAM/KFJX offices & studios on Monday, March 13, 2006. The students arrived at 11:00 am and were shown the production, news & master control areas. Their main interest was production & editing. Several employees discussed with the students our production/editing facilities and the education needed to work in television broadcasting. The students watched KOAM News at Noon live in the studio and in the control room to get a feel of what a live show entails. They learned that many different occupations are available in broadcasting and the amount & type of education needed to each.

On Wednesday, March 22, 2006 a broadcast communications class from Northeastern Oklahoma A & M College in Miami, Oklahoma toured the KOAM & KFJX studios. There were nine students with varying interests in broadcasting. Several employees discussed the education needed for their specific job in television. The students watched the Noon news live in the studio & then in the control room to better understand the persons needed to produce a live newscast.
