On Wednesday, April 4, 2012 the stations participated in the Missouri Southern State University annual spring career fair. Promotions Manager Vance Lewis, Production Director Steve Holinsworth & Promotions Assistant Megan McLaughlin represented the stations at the Career Fair. The employees spoke with students about employment & internship opportunities at the stations. The mission of the MSSU Career Services office is to empower Missouri Southern State University students and alumni to develop self-assessment and job-search competencies, to successfully link with employers and to learn how to actively manage their own career development in a global workplace once they graduate. For additional information about the Career Fair please contact Career Services, Suite 207, Missouri Southern State University, 3950 E. Newman Road, Joplin, MO 64801. Hi Vance,

I spoke to Tom and the 5th will work out great for us. I will be bringing 10 students. We should arrive between 11:15 and 11:30 a.m. Thank you so much for allowing us to bring our students over every spring!

We'll see you on the 5th!

Subject: Studio Tour Request - LCC Mass Media and Public Relations Classes

Hello Vance and Steve,

I wasn't positive who I should check with to see about scheduling a tour of the KOAM studio for the Labette Community College Mass Media and Public Relations Classes so I decided to e-mail you both. I think I've usually "bugged" Vance with my request in the past, but I know Steve had the chore of showing us around last spring.

Tom Duran and I would like to bring students over for the tour and then stick around for the noon news like we have done in the past. The students last spring were so excited to see what all goes on in the control room and even more excited for the opportunity to set in on the news and see the news anchors in action.

Our classes meet back to back on Tuesday/Thursday so if at all possible we would like to see about scheduling on a class day. Next week is Spring Break, but I thought I would ask about the possibility of coming over on Thursday, March 29th or the following Tuesday or Thursday which would be April 3rd or April 5th.

Hope to hear from you soon!

-Tonya

Community Support

On Tuesday, April 10, 2012 Promotions Manager Vance Lewis & Promotions Assistant Megan McLaughlin were invited to be part of the US Army Grassroots Advisory Board which met in Springfield, MO. The Advisory Board is part of a local effort of the US Army to increase the recruiting success. During the meeting Army leadership discussed the successes and challenges of Army recruiting in the Central and Southwest Missouri areas. The advisory board is formed to help the Army strengthen its ties to the community through local business, civic and education leaders to help insure the Army has enough qualified men and women to lead it into the future.

For additional information please contact CPT Mary Beth Griffin at her contact info below or Lieutenant Colonel Vernon E. Jakoby, Commander of the US Army Kansas City Recruiting Battalion at 10300 NW Prairie View Rd., Suite 400, Kansas City, MO 64153.

Re: Job Fair & Transfer Day

Dear : ShellySaporito Administrative Assistant

The Career Service Center is looking ahead to provide our graduates, as well as our new students with a Job Fair & Transfer Day. We are looking to you for help to serve as consultants in your company's specialty area or educational informational area to assist students in their career choice and/or choices.

We feel that your participation is vital to make this event successful. The information that you hold will help our students either choose a career or continue on their path to prosperity. This is why we are asking you to save the date of Tuesday April 19, 2011. Please mark your calendar because you are needed to make this successful. The time is set for 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. For convenience you may register on HireCrowderFirst.com or we have attached a printable form to this email. Also, we want you to know that we are here for you as well as for our students. So, if you have any ideas before this event takes place, please do not hesitate to give us a call or you can email questions and comments to Career Services & Student Success Center 601 Laclede Avenue - Neosho, MO 64850 - 417-455-5618 - FAX: 417-455-5619. Dear Mr. Lewis,

I have a troop of sixth grade Girl Scouts in Carl Junction. We would like to come tour the TV station and work on our Digital Movie Maker badge.

Some of the requirements to earn the badge are:

- * Learn digital video basics-work with a local expert to learn filming basics
- * Learn about shot selections-wide shot, establishing shot, cutaway shot, close-up, tracking shot
- * Careers to explore-camera operator, newscaster, TV show director or producer

We would like to come in May (April is super busy!). We toured the station two years ago, so some of the girls will have already been, but would love to tour it again! Please let me know if this is possible.

Thanks in advance for your help,

Jamie Keith

Subject: Joplin Memorial Run Water Station

Hi Vance,

I am the coordinator for this years water stops in the Memorial Run (formerly Boomtown). This event is taking place on Saturday May 19th. You are on a contact list from the 2011 event which was converted to a day of caring.

Are you still interested in participating as a water stop support?

What we need from you:

- Need 5-10 volunteers at the stop to hand out water
- Keep cups picked up as runners drop them
- You will need to be in place by 5:30am and should be finishing up around 10am.

What we provide:

The supplies needed and we will be delivering these to the stops this year. We will be driving around to pick up the supplies.

Brief online training for convenience.

Please visit www.joplinmemorialrun.com for more details on the event.

I look forward to your response and please call or email with any questions-

Kansas American Legion recognizes stations for 4-state heroes on Saturday, May 19, 2012. The Kansas American Legion honored the stations with its Commander's Americanism Award at the annual convention held in Great Bend, KS. Because of our commitments with the Joplin Tornado 1st anniversary we weren't able to attend in person. Commander Dale Allen of Chanute delivered & presented the award to the stations the following week.

Issue: Community Service

On Saturday, May 26, 2012 KFJX-TV sponsored RestoreFest, a benefit concert for Convoy of Hope held at Joplin, MO Landreth Park. On a Mission to Restore Hope – Restore Fest and the Convoy of Hope

May 22, 2011. Joplin residents remember the day well, as a devastating tornado ripped through the city and claimed more than $2 billion in damages, along with numerous casualties. Lives were changed forever. But if the Convoy of Hope, and its concert festival, Restore Fest, have a say in the matter, many of those lives will be changed for the better.

The idea for Restore Fest came in 2011 from a Joplin resident who felt led by God to coordinate a concert event for the community following the tornado. And in just 45 days that vision became a reality, with the first-ever Restore Fest hosting more than 10,000 people in 100+ degree temperatures with one distinct mission: To celebrate God's hand in the restoration in the Joplin community and to be a catalyst for further growth.

This year's Restore Fest, the second annual, will once again be held in Joplin, Mo. on May 26 at Landreth Park. With a lineup that includes numerous musical acts and a family oriented itinerary of activities, it's sure to be a memorable event.

"Restore Fest 2012 is a chance for us to bring the people of Joplin together and at the same time, raise funds to help them in their continued recovery efforts," says Jeff Roman, partner relations director for Convoy of Hope.

The giving theme covers a multitude of elements for the festival. For starters, for every ticket sold, the Convoy of Hope will donate one to an at-need member of the community. And volunteers will provide thousands of people with services such as free groceries, hot meals, haircuts, health & job fairs and many activities for children. In fact, the city of Joplin has declared May 26 as 'Convoy of Hope Day' to recognize the organization's effort to provide assistance to its citizens.

"We've been with the city of Joplin since just hours after the tornado and we're honored to be there as the city recognizes the storm's one year anniversary," says Hal Donaldson, president of Convoy of Hope.

KFJX set up a popcorn stand and sold bags of popcorn for a donation to Convoy of Hope. The station made a $150.00 donation to the community service organization.

Hi Katie,

Yes, June 12 at 1:30 is great for us too. Would you consider another day when your group could tour the facility and then watch our Noon News live in the studio? Students really seem to enjoy watching the live newscast. If not, then Jun 12 at 1:30 will work fine for us.

Thank You!

Vance

Mr. Lewis,

I am with the MSSU Educational Talent Search program. We work with students in and around the Joplin area and are currently planning our summer visits for the next few months. On Tuesday, June 12 we will be visiting Pitt State with 20-30 8th grade students. We are focusing our summer on colleges and careers and I thought it would be a great opportunity to tour the KOAM TV studios south of Pittsburg with our students. I wasn't sure of what all your tours included, but if we could learn about the studio and the different careers involved with KOAM that would be awesome.

We are finished at Pitt around 12:45, so if we can do a 1:30pm tour that would be great. Please let me know if you need any more information or if that date/time doesn't work. Thanks!

Physical Fitness

Rufus Racing Big Time Youth Triathlon was held Saturday, June 23, 2012. Angela Greenwood, Megan McLaughlin & Stephanie Marsh volunteered at the station-sponsored water station. The Joplin Triathlon weekend is June 22-24, 2012 and includes the Big Time Youth Triathlon for traditional youth 5-14 and youth with autism and the Summer Roundup Triathlon with Sprint & Olympic races for ages 15+. In addition to these races there are pre and post race activities all weekend. Big Time Youth Triathlon will be held Saturday June 23 8 AM from Missouri Southern State University campus. Rufus Racing will be partnering with Ozark Center for Autism to produce an event specifically for youth with autism that will be in addition to our traditional youth event for 5-14 year olds. This was a new addition in 2011 and was a great success. In 2012 we're hoping to expand our reach to families affected by autism and provide a positive experience, raise awareness, and raise funds to fight autism. A portion of the proceeds from the whole weekend will benefit the Ozark Center for Autism.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/07/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Family's Honor" In October of 2009, 20-year-old Noor Almaleki and Amal Khalaf, the mother of her boyfriend Marwan, walked out of a Peoria, Arizona DES office and were struck by an SUV driven by Noor's father and Iraqi immigrant, Faleh Hassan Almaleki. Detective Chris Boughey suspected this to be an "honor killing". Honor killing is a practice found in some cultures, that allows a father to kill his daughter if he believes she acted in a dishonorable or disrespectful way. Amal Khalaf survived; however, Noor died from her injuries. The Almaleki family had moved from Iraq to Arizona in the mid 1990's, and Faleh wanted his children to adhere to Iraqi traditions -- but Noor wanted to be a typical American girl. She had been brought back to Iraq to enter an arranged marriage when she was 17, but she left the marriage, returned to the United States, and eventually moved in with her boyfriend, Marwan Khalaf and his mother Amal. Noor's parents made numerous verbal threats to her to return home, but she refused. Soon afterwards, her father struck her with his SUV. Faleh fled the country, but was later apprehended in London, and returned to the United States. He claimed that hitting the two women was an accident, but evidence of incriminating tire marks at the scene and the fact that the vehicle had no brake problems, seemed to indicate otherwise. However, these facts and other incriminating evidence were not enough to convince a jury that Noor's father was guilty of first degree murder. Instead, the jury found Faleh guilty of the lesser charge of second-degree murder, meaning they did not agree the attack on Noor was premeditated, or an honor killing. Judge Roland Steinle sentenced Faleh to 34-and-a-half years in prison for killing Noor and gravely injuring Amal. On-Screen Graphics: While members of Noor's family were questioned about the crime, no one other than her father was charged. Interviewed: Peoria, Arizona Police Detective Chris Boughey; CBS News Consultant Abigail Pesta; Adhi, Noor's friend; Amal Khalaf, Noor's boyfriend's mother; Marwan Khalaf, Noor's boyfriend; Nuha, Noor's friend; Jasvinder Sanghera, founder, Karma Nirvana; Lina, Karma Nirvana caller; Laura Reckart, prosecutor; Elizabeth Mullins, defense attorney; Jeff Kirchler, defense attorney; Charles Cooper, witness; Shaneil Nakamoto, witness; Ali, Noor's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 04/14/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Stranger Beside Me" - On March 18, 2010, Jamie Laiaddee vanished from her home in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Her live-in boyfriend Bryan Stewart told everyone she had moved to Denver, Colorado to take a new job. When detectives started searching for Jamie, they discovered Bryan was a con man, and suspected he was also her killer. Jamie and Bryan met through a University of Michigan Alumni Club, and dated for more than two years. Bryan lied to Jamie about most of his life. His real name was Rick Wayne Valentini; he never attended the University of Michigan; he served two years in military prison; and he had three ex-wives and two daughters. When detectives searched Bryan/Rick's apartment they found Jamie's wallet and a small white envelope containing Jamie's driver's license, some credit cards, and her University of Michigan Alumni card, cut up into pieces. Moreover, Bryan/Rick was using her credit cards for online dating websites. He continued to claim Jamie took $100,000 and moved to Colorado for a new job, but this claim was dismissed after Jamie's new boss showed up in court detailing how he had just hired Jamie - in Arizona. A jailhouse snitch took the stand and said Bryan/Rick told him that the police knew he killed Jamie. Bryan/Rick testified last and claimed he and Jamie communicated via e-mail and telephone after her disappearance, but the prosecution forced him to admit he had not seen or spoken to her. On March 24, 2011, a Grand Jury indicted Bryan/Rick on charges of second-degree murder of his girlfriend, Jamie Laiaddee. He was also charged with fraud for using her credit cards without her permission. On-Screen Graphics: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini. His sentence for murder and fraud: 54 years. Interviewed: Sheila Dubs, Gweneth Newman and Jennifer Langguth, Jamie's college friends; Vunnee and Jimmy Laiaddee, Jamie's parents; Marlene Buffa, University of Michigan Alumni Group President; Burke Files, private investigator; Troy Spielman, detective; Nate Moffat, detective; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Andrea Aardsma, witness; Kevin Tierney, who would have been Jamie's new boss; David Beauchamp, lawyer; Valarie Shafer, juror; Max Covil, attorney; Leon Lead, juror. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Judy Rybak)
- 04/21/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Mystery on Twin Peaks Drive" - a report on the December 16, 1998 death of Ronda Reynolds, whose husband found her lifeless body with a gunshot wound to the head in her home on Twin Peaks Drive in Toledo, Washington. The death was quickly ruled a suicide. Refusing to accept the findings, Ronda's mother, Barb Thompson, launched her own investigation. She enlisted the help of world-famous true crime writer Ann Rule, who eventually wrote the bestseller "In the Still of the Night", about the case. Their investigation led Washington State authorities to revisit the case by holding a coroner's inquest -- a rare and unusual proceeding -- to determine the cause of death and who might be responsible. The inquest resulted in the death being reclassified as a homicide and it determined that she had died at the hands of either her husband Ronald A. Reynolds and/or Ronald's son, Jonathan A. Reynolds. However, the Lewis County prosecutor announced he would not prosecute either man because most of the evidence had been destroyed after Ronda's death. The case remains an open investigation. On Screen Text graphic: The Reynolds family is contemplating suing Barb Thompson, Ann Rule and the Lewis County Coroner. Changes were proposed to Washington State's law following the Reynold's case. A judge or prosecutor would have to approve any coroner's arrest warrant. Interviewed: Barb Thompson, Ronda Reynolds' mother; Ann Rule, author; Ron Reynolds, husband; Jonathan Reynolds, Ron Reynolds' son from a previous marriage; Detective Jerry Berry and Detective Sergeant Glade Austin, members of the Lewis County Sheriff's Department; Coroner Warren McLeod. 04/28/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death Wish" - a report on questions surrounding the July 2009 death of Jeffrey Locker, whose body was found slumped over the steering wheel of his car in Harlem, New York. Initially, it appeared that Locker had simply been in the wrong place at the wrong time; however, when authorities tracked Locker's ATM card to Kenneth Minor and questioned him, Minor said Locker had begged Minor to kill him. 48 HOURS MYSTERY interviewed Minor in depth and he described how Locker was circling around a block in Harlem and approached Minor about how to find a gun. Then, Locker told Minor that he wanted him to shoot him. Minor asked for $60, went to buy drugs, and later called Locker and told him he couldn't find a gun. Minor questioned Locker as to why he needed Minor to kill him and Locker explained that he wanted his family to collect millions from his life insurance policies and if he committed suicide, there was no payment on the policy. Furthermore he told Minor how he was caught in a Ponzi scheme and had several lawsuits against him. Minor was promised money from Locker if he helped to kill him, and Locker gave him his ATM card and PIN. As they sat in Locker's car, Minor was asked to get a knife out of the glove compartment, and Locker asked him to hold it at the steering wheel, and Locker lunged at the knife numerous times, killing himself. To help prove Minor's story, his defense lawyer found another man, Melvin Fleming, who said Locker had approached him days prior, with the same request. Instead, Fleming decided to con Locker and did not help him. During Minor's trial, the defense argued that this was a case of assisted suicide. Evidence revealed during the trial highlighted Locker's severe financial troubles, pending lawsuits, and most notably, a multimillion-dollar life insurance policy that Locker had purchased months before his death. The prosecution challenged the assisted suicide claim and argued that Minor was simply a cold-blooded killer. After hours of deliberation, Minor was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 20 years to life. On-Screen Graphics: Locker's widow is suing to get $4 million worth of life insurance from a policy he bought a month-and-a-half before his death. As for the other $8 million in policies, the insurance companies refuse to say whether they paid the family. Interviewed: Robert Stewart, NYPD detective; Laura Italiano, New York Post reporter; Steve D'Annunzio, Locker's friend; Robert Miller, insurance executive; Al Brodbeck, who hired Locker as a business coach; Kevin Flynn and Jeff Hershman, detectives; Kenneth Minor, murder suspect; Dan Gotlin, Minor's defense lawyer; Melvin Fleming, Harlem resident; Murray Weiss, police reporter and CBS News Consultant; Peter Casolaro, prosecutor; Michael Barry, investigator; Cyril Wecht, forensic scientist; Kirt Markle, jury member. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"What They Believe" - a report on the deep traditions, beliefs, and interesting spiritual histories of three religions not well known in the United States -- Hinduism, Zoroastrianism, and the Bahá'í faith. (1) Hinduism is the world's oldest faith tradition that does not have a prophet, a common creed, or doctrine. North America is home to an estimated 1.5 million Hindus, with the majority of adherents living in India. (2) Zoroastrianism is a 3,500-year-old faith tradition based on the teachings of the prophet Zarathustra in ancient Persia, now Iran. Zoroastrians believe in one God (monotheism) and that through the acts of good thoughts, words, and deeds one can triumph over evil. Their population was once in the millions, but today it is estimated at about 125,000 worldwide with an estimated 25,000 Zoroastrians in the United States. (3) The Bahá'í faith was founded by Bahá'u'lláh in 19th-century Persia (now Iran). Bahá'ís believe that there is only one religion which has been progressively revealed by a series of Divine Messengers of which their prophet, Bahá'u'lláh, is said to be the latest in a succession that includes Krishna, Abraham, Zoroaster, Moses, Buddha, Christ and Mohammed. Includes comments from: John H. Hawley, Professor of Religion, Barnard College; Anand Venkatkrishnan, Columbia University, Doctoral Student of Religion; Dr. Uma Mysorekar, President, Hindu Temple Society of North America; members of the Rivetna family: Rohinton Rivetna, Founder & Former President, Federation of the Zoroastrian Association of North America (FEZANA); his wife, Roshan Rivetna, Former Editor of Fezana, a publication dedicated to Zoroastrianism in North America; and their son Cyrus Rivetna, an architect; Glen Fullmer, Director of Communications, Bahá'í National Center; Scott Conrad, Project Manager, Bahá'í Temple Restoration. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

05/05/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Writing on the Wall" - a report on the investigation into the May 5, 2009 murders of the wife and two children of Christopher Coleman, the security chief for televangelist Joyce Meyer Ministries. In Columbia, Illinois on the morning of May 5, Coleman called his neighbor, police detective Justin Barlow, and asked him to check on his wife, Sheri, and their two young sons, Gavin and Garrett, after his own calls had gone unanswered. In months prior he had made local police aware of explicit death threats he was receiving regarding his involvement in Meyer's ministry. Barlow entered the house that morning through an unlocked basement window and upon entry he found spray-painted messages on the walls, with the phrases "you have paid" and "punished", and when he went upstairs he discovered the bodies of Coleman's family strangled to death in each of their beds. An investigation began and soon after police discovered Coleman was having a serious affair with cocktail waitress Tara Lintz, a high school friend of Sheri's. Sheri's friends came to her defense telling police Sheri said her husband was having an affair and if anything happened to her, Chris did it. Moreover, the crime scene lab found the handwriting on the wall matched up to Coleman's script. Two weeks after the murders police had enough evidence to charge Coleman with first-degree murder of his family. The trial for Coleman began two years later and the prosecution's computer experts discovered the e-mail threats came from Coleman's laptop, and one can of the spray paint used on the walls of his house was purchased at a local hardware store with a computerized signature linked to Coleman. The jury needed more evidence though, and it came from one of the jurors who noticed the date on a picture of Coleman and Lintz kissing which proved Coleman lied to them about when the affair began. After a guilty verdict, the judge sentenced Coleman to life in prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke to Coleman by phone and he denied planning to divorce Sheri to marry his mistress and said he did not know who murdered his family. On Screen Text Graphics: Sheri's family is suing Joyce Meyer Ministries. They claim the murders might have been prevented if the Ministries had investigated the threats more seriously. May 5th is the three-year anniversary of the murders of Sheri, Garrett and Gavin Coleman. Interviewed: Chris Coleman; Justin Barlow, detective; Joe Edwards, Columbia Police Chief; Major Jeff Connor, Major Case Squad, St. Louis; Vanessa Riegerix, neighbor; Nick Pistor, St. Louis Post-Dispatch reporter; Kathy LaPlante, Sheri's friend; Angela DiCiccio, Sheri's mother; Meegan Turnbeaugh, Sheri's friend; Connie and Ron Coleman; Chris' parents; Ed Parkinson, prosecutor; Bill Margulis, Chris's lawyer; Gina West, juror; Olivia Shopinski, juror; Jonece Pearman, jury foreperson. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/12/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Ransom" - a report on the mysterious 2008 disappearance of Robert Wiles, the son of millionaire business owner Tom Wiles, who received an e-mail ransom note demanding $750,000 for the safe return of the 26-year-old, who had been working at the family business, National Flight Services in Lakeland, Florida, an aircraft maintenance company with offices and clients worldwide. On April 3, Tom Wiles opened an e-mail from his son Robert. It was a ransom demand signed, "Group X", and asked for Tom to put $750,000 in Robert's office if he ever wanted to see his son alive again. Robert was last seen by his co-worker Stobert (Toby) Holt on April 1, 2008, and the kidnappers set a deadline of April 8th to receive the money. Tom involved the FBI with the ransom note, and when Tom arrived in Florida they set up a sting operation in Robert's office to try to find out who the kidnappers were. After monitoring a box placed in Robert's office filled with coffee that weighed the same as $750,000, days started to pass by with no one entering the room. Toby Holt, Operations Manager, was handpicked by Tom to assist the FBI in monitoring Robert's office. There were no leads in the case until agents tracked Robert's phone records to see which cell towers were used, and this lead them to subpoena the Florida Turnpike Authority to view video of toll booths on the Polk Parkway. When Tom viewed the tape, he recognized Toby Holt's car pass through a toll. In the picture Toby's right arm looks to be in a position of holding a phone, and when agents went through Holt's phone record, it showed his number was not in use while going through the tolls, piquing the FBI's interest. This is when the investigation, which had been focused on the Wiles' family and an alcoholic ex-employee, Steve Lindsey, turned solely towards Toby Holt. When agents brought Holt in for questioning they determined his whereabouts on the night of Robert's disappearance were unsubstantiated and he lied when he said he didn't have any guns in his car when they found a handgun under the hood. Moreover, Holt was cheating on his wife with at least a dozen women. The FBI called in reinforcements to help move along the case with local police and detectives, and this group discovered Holt and Robert's phones were traveling together to make for a good circumstantial case. On December 19, 2009 agents arrested Toby Holt for extortion, kidnapping, and first-degree murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke with Holt while he was in South County Jail through television cameras and monitors, and he maintained his innocence. The trial opened in January 2012 and the prosecution used phone records as evidence in addition to work e-mails, showcasing a contentious relationship between Robert and Holt as a motive. Holt's lawyer said he was taking a sip of Diet Dr. Pepper when the photo was taken of him going through the toll booth, not using a phone; he pinned everything on ex-worker Steve Lindsey. However, Steve Lindsey died of lung cancer while the case was under investigation. The jury spent four hours deliberating and the judge read, "...the defendant is guilty of manslaughter." Holt was sentenced to 30 years in prison for manslaughter and extortion. Robert's body has yet to be found. On Screen Text Graphics: Toby Holt is appealing his conviction based on insufficient evidence. Holt is currently scheduled for release in 2039. He will be 72 years old. Interviewed: Tom Wiles, Robert's father; Audra Wiles, Robert's sister; Pamela, Robert's mother; Tierney Wiles, Robert's sister; David Palmisano, Robert's friend; Jim Bucenell, FBI Special Agent; Dan Kelly, FBI Special Agent; Janie Beard, Robert's barber; Joel Valle, airplane engine repair company owner; Tommy Ray, Florida Special Agent; Cass Castillo, prosecutor; Howardene Garrett, Assistant Public Defender; Stobert (Toby) Holt, NFS worker; Beverly Holt, Toby's ex-wife. 05/19/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" - a report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots rung out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. On Screen Text Graphics: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Jr. were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Nick hopes to one day finish the class he started and become an EMT. Interviewed: Isabella Lovadina, victim; Nick Koenig, victim; Rose Whitrock, Nick's aunt, victim; Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, victim; Sgt. Roger Engelhardt, St. Louis Police Dept.; Officer Lori Brewer, St. Louis Police Dept.; Beth Orwick, prosecutor; John Bird, prosecutor. (Producers: Shoshanah Wolfson, Sara Rodriguez)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "One of Their Own" - a follow-up report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expect to begin shortly. 05/22/10 onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. 07/19/11 updated onscreen text graphic: Stephanie Lazarus's trial is set for August. The 05/26/12 follow-up covers the trial of Stephanie Lazarus: The defense maintained the DNA evidence was mishandled for two decades while prosecutors still had a strong circumstantial case. After four weeks and over 60 witnesses, Lazarus was found guilty. At her sentencing Sherri's mother, sister, and husband spoke to the court describing their own pain and highlighting the type of person Sherri Mae Rasmussen was. John Ruetten apologized to the Rasmussen family, feeling particularly sorry it was someone connected to him who committed the murder. A judge sentenced Lazarus to 27 years to life in the state penitentiary with a chance of parole after 16 years. On Screen Text Graphic for the 05/26/12 follow-up: The Rasmussen's sued the LAPD for covering up a murder committed by one of their own. A judge dismissed the case. The family is appealing that decision. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin, LA Times reporters; Sherri's sister Teresa Lane; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg and Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/29/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The OC" (10:00-11:00p) - an updated rebroadcast of a report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life; moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. 10/29/11 on screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. The 05/29/12 update includes: At trial, Nanette Johnston was found guilty of murder. Eight months after his conviction, Eric Naposki contacted 48 HOURS with information which he said would reveal who really killed Bill McLaughlin. After pouring over evidence while incarcerated, he believes that Nanette arranged a hit for $50,000 with a Hollywood producer he had done business with and introduced her to. Police have investigated, but they consider the producer an unlikely suspect. Nanette Johnston was recently sentenced to life in prison. Naposki continues his appeal. On Screen Text Graphic: Eric Naposki is now scheduled to be sentenced in August. Included interviews with: Matt Murphy, Orange County Assistant District Attorney; daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voth; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Dave Matthews, Leonard Jomsky, Rob Frias, friends of Eric Naposki's; Angelo McDonald, Gary Pohlson, John Pappalardo, Naposki's defense attorneys; Larry Montgomery, investigator; Dave Byington, retired detective. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

06/02/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head -- with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia -- more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over: she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and a half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Facebook Detectives" (10:00-11:00p) - A report about three Texas housewives, Tammy Markle, Joni Shannon and Tina Wiley, who call themselves the "Facebook Detectives" and who used the Internet to try to find their friend Lisa Stone, who disappeared from her Dallas home in June 2010. The four women had been friends in high school, but now kept in touch with each other via Facebook. Lisa posted every day, and her friends became worried when she abruptly stopped posting in June 2010. They confronted Lisa's former life partner Sherry Henry, who said that Lisa was out of town. That is also what she told the police. The three friends did not believe her and feared for Lisa's safety. They formed a Facebook page dedicated to finding Lisa. One evening when Joni Shannon was going back to question Sherry Henry, she realized that Sherry was in the car next to hers and she followed her. Sherry pulled in to a 7-11 parking lot, took things out of her car and put them into a dumpster. When Sherry left, Joni examined the dumpster and found personal items which had belonged to Lisa, including her birth certificate. When the women brought this new information to the attention of the police, they agreed to take another look at the case. The police confronted Sherry Henry, who still insisted that she did not know where Lisa was. She said that Lisa had financial problems and was dependent on medication for depression. Sherry claimed she was also using cocaine. Sherry said Lisa often went off for a few days, and that is why she didn't file a missing persons report. Homicide detective Jim Gallagher believes that Lisa Stone is dead. He feels that Sherry Henry is a person of interest in the case, but does not have enough evidence against her. Sherry Henry insists she is innocent and does not know where Lisa is. Lisa's friends are continuing their investigation on Facebook. Onscreen text graphics: The Facebook Detectives have a foundation helping others to use the power and community of Facebook to find missing people. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Odem, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Ampour Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. The 06/09/12 v/o epilogue: A year after the verdict, the DA's office decided to take another look at the physical evidence in this case, and compare it to two similar crimes in Austin from the 1980s. They will search for DNA to see if it matches that of a suspect in those cases. ADA Mark Pryor says he's "happy to have a look" but, he says, he's confident the jury convicted the right man for murdering Natalie Antonetti. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Name, Rank, Serial Killer?" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on Colonel Russell Williams, a highly-regarded Canadian military officer, and a crime spree that began with a series of bizarre thefts of lingerie and ultimately led to the discovery that he was a serial killer. In 2007, a series of crimes occurred in and around the town of Tweed, Ontario, where Col. Williams lived. In 2009, Laurie Massicotte, one of Williams' neighbors, was sexually terrorized in her home. Shortly afterwards, Marie France Comeau, a corporal at Trenton Airbase, where Williams was stationed, was beaten, raped, and suffocated to death. There were no leads in either case. Two months later, Jessica Lloyd went missing in the nearby town of Belleville, and authorities discovered their first solid clues: tire tracks and boot prints. In 2010, Col. Williams was stopped at a random roadblock. Police noticed his tire tracks matched the ones found near Jessica Lloyd's home. He was brought in for questioning and the ensuing battle of wits between the colonel and Det. Sergeant Jim Smith, the police interrogator from the Ontario Provincial Police, would uncover the details of his chilling double life. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed, and told police where they could find videos of the crimes. The most surprising evidence however, were the trophies Williams kept to commemorate his crimes: thousands of underpants, bras and camisoles, found in his garage, and photos of him modeling the items. Authorities also found child pornography on his computer. In a deal that almost fell apart over the pornography issue, Williams pleaded guilty to the murders of Comeau and Lloyd, to two sexual assaults and to eighty-two counts of breaking and entering -- the bizarre underwear thefts that started it all. The judge sentenced him to the maximum, life behind bars, which he is serving at the penitentiary in Kingston, Ontario. Although the Canadian government stripped Williams of his rank, burned his uniform and crashed his car, he got to keep his air force pension. Concluding onscreen graphic: Laurie Massicotte is planning to sue the Ontario police for failing to protect her from Russell Williams. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/02/11 rebroadcast: Russell Williams' first assault victim is suing for 2.6 million dollars in damages. Laurie Massicotte is also suing Williams for damages; and she is suing the Ontario provincial police for failing to protect her. Onscreen text graphic for the 06/12/12 rebroadcast: Jessica Lloyd's family, Laurie Massicotte and the first assault victim are all suing Russell Williams for damages totaling more than $13 million. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "House of Secrets" - On September 4, 2006, Kathy Wangler, wife of anesthesiologist Dr. Mark Wangler, died from carbon monoxide poisoning in their home in Lima, Ohio. Their thirty-year marriage had been falling apart; three years later, in 2009, investigators came to the conclusion that Dr. Wangler had murdered his wife. They did not believe his story that the death was caused due to a faulty water heater. On the night in question, Mark was sleeping downstairs with the window open and had a fan blowing. Fourteen months after Kathy's death, Mark had gotten remarried to Esther Erkman, a woman he met at church. Esther, along with Mark and Kathy's two son's, believed him to be innocent. Kathy's mother and sisters felt that since Mark was familiar with gasses that he was able to plan and execute the perfect murder. Mark was arrested and the case was brought to trial. The jury found him guilty of aggravated murder and he was sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen text graphics: Mark Wangler will be eligible for parole in twenty-five years. 06/19/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder at the Manor" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about Harold "H" Landry, a self-made Cajun millionaire who left behind his life in Louisiana to pursue an international romance with a British woman he met online and how this seemingly perfect relationship ended when Lucy Landry was murdered at their home in February 2010. Landry confessed to stabbing his wife to death. Landry, or "H", as he is known to his friends, is a larger-than-life man who, after making a fortune in Louisiana, went looking for love online at the age of fifty-three. In 1989, he met Lucy Davies, a 28-year-old woman with a child who lived in the United Kingdom. His friends thought the romance seemed more like a business deal, and when Lucy became pregnant, Landry settled into a new life as a retiree and new father. Ten years later, Lucy asked for a divorce. According to his friends, he was in a terrible state and didn't know what to do. Then Lucy Landry was dead. He didn't deny that he killed her. The trial began for "the American Millionaire Murderer", as he was known in England, and the past came back to haunt him. In 1994, Landry had shot a man named Chris Pine, the angry husband of his girlfriend at the time. According to his attorney, who subsequently became a friend, his defense was that it was self-defense. He listened to his lawyer and was found guilty of the much lesser charge -- aggravated battery. He appealed, and eventually all he got was probation, a fine and some community service. Shortly afterwards, he began his new life with Lucy, who, he says, knew all about his previous crime. According to his friends, the marriage was collapsing because Landry believed Lucy was having an affair. He went to Mexico to cool off and when he returned, she had moved her boyfriend into the house. He was furious; divorce proceedings began -- and then Lucy Landry was dead. Shortly afterwards, the trial began, with Landry receiving an initial advantage: the Chris Pine shooting was ruled as inadmissible. His lawyers argued that the fight was the latest and last example of Lucy goading him with never-ending financial demands and threats. In a relatively brief trial, very different from American standards, that lasted eight days, Landry was convicted of murder. On screen text graphic: Landry is planning to appeal both murder conviction and sentence, a process which may take years. Interviewed: Harold "H" Landry; Lucy Landry's son James, from a previous marriage; Landry friends Wanda and Ernie Richardson; Pat Fanning (lawyer and friend); Helen Knifton; Police Officers Steve Elcocks, Ian Booth, Barney Tyrney; Kristin Harton (Landry family babysitter from 1994); Richard Vernalls, reporter, Worcester News; Andy Childs, one of Landry's attorneys. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a followup report to "Long Island Serial Killer" (OAD: 07/12/11; 1st rebroadcast: 12/17/11) on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannan's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelemy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelemy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast or the 06/23/12 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. The 06/23/12 followup includes: an interview with John Ray, attorney for the Gilbert family. Authorities still believe Shannan was not a victim of foul play. Ray put the police's theory to the test by traveling into the marsh at the same time of year and day on what police believe was Shannan's path. Ray highlights houses nearby where Shannan most likely would have traveled to, the harshness of the marsh indicating Shannan would not have taken off her clothes, and shallow waters where her body was found making it unlikely for her to have drowned. Ray and his team did this to further defend his theory that Shannan was murdered in connection with the serial killer and believes her remains were dumped 100 ft. off of Ocean Parkway. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Pvt. Needham's War" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham had returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He also suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He had known Villagomez, who had also struggled on and off with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him; his drinking escalated after that. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend, Renee Stoner, came to the house, which upset Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in Stoner's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez and he was never able to provide a clear explanation for the killing. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. To make his case, Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but that he needed to be held accountable for what he did. On screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. On screen text graphic for the 06/26/12 rebroadcast: On the anniversary of Jacque's death, the Savino sisters tossed flowers in the ocean in her memory. 06/30/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Showdown in the Bedroom" - a followup to "Shootout at the Hills" (OAD: 11/27/10), a report on the November 14, 2006 shooting of Danny Hill, by his wife, Charlene. Charlene claimed that their seemingly happy life together was a facade and that she shot him in self-defense. Charlene's years of suffering physical abuse from Danny was well documented by police reports and hospital visits. Their children even admitted that their father, Danny, was abusive, but that he had mellowed after he and their mother had survived a near-fatal motorcycle accident in August 2003 and that their mother had often instigated the arguments, leaving Danny with no choice but to react the way he did. At the trial, prosecutors questioned Charlene's claim of self-defense and claimed that the multi-million dollar estate was the motive. The jury deliberated for two days, before the judge declared a mistrial. Prosecutors decided to try her for a second time. In January 2011, the second trial began. Prosecutors decided the focus would be on science and not sentiment. They presented a case based on forensics and had crime scene investigators and medical examiners testify. Charlene Hill again testified about why she believed her life was in jeopardy. The jurors even took a field trip to Charlene and Danny's bedroom. When deliberations began, it seemed to be another mistrial. The judge encouraged attorneys to broker a plea deal. They came to an agreement: no prison time but Charlene must admit that she murdered her husband. Charlene initially resisted, but agreed to the deal. When she was about to sign the agreement, the jury announced they had reached a verdict. Without reading the verdict, the judge made a decision -- he let both sides seal the deal. After the plea, it was found out that the verdict was guilty, and Charlene would have been sentenced to jail. The jurors were satisfied -- they believed that Charlene was guilty, but had suffered enough. Today, Charlene is trying to build a new life; however, her son Jeremy wants nothing to do with her, but her daughter Jamie has decided to forgive her after a bitter estrangement. On screen text graphic: Charlene Hill is on probation for 10 years. She's required to speak before battered women's groups, but she's forbidden from ever saying that she shot Danny in self-defense. Interviewed: Charlene Hill; her children, Jamie and Jeremy Hill; friends of Charlene's, Jennifer Hinch and Susan Watts; Charlene's defense attorneys, George Parnham and Dee McWilliams; Silvia Less-Sie, juror in the original trial who thought Charlene was innocent; original trial Bailiff Mary Charles; Judge James Shoemaker; Jose Trevino, Fort Bend, Texas Sheriff's Deputy; second trial prosecutors Jill Stotts and Chad Bridges; investigators Lester Phipps and Jeremy Goodrich; Dr. Sara Doyle, Medical Examiner; Dr. Stephen Pustilnik, Galveston County (TX) Medical Examiner.
