48 HOURS

04/01/06        PREEMPTION

04/08/06        48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Love Lost" - focuses on new evidence in the investigation of the July 2005 disappearance of honeymooner George Smith from the cruise ship Brilliance of the Seas. Four young men who had been drinking and gambling with Smith and his bride Jennifer in the hours previous to his disappearance were considered prime suspects. Includes an interview with Dr. Jerry Askins, a podiatrist whose son Josh, a college student from California, was one of them. Josh and his companions told police that they escorted a drunken Smith back to his cabin and left him on his bed and that his wife, Jennifer Hagel Smith, was nowhere to be found. Also includes interviews with George Smith's parents, Maureen and George Sr., and his sister Bree. George Smith is presumed to have gone overboard into the waters off Greece at approximately 4:30am, almost the exact moment when a crew member found Jennifer on the other side of the ship, slumped over on the floor with no memory of what happened. The families of George Smith and Jennifer Hagel Smith plan a joint wrongful death lawsuit against the Royal Caribbean cruise line. (C: Hannah Storm - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Clare Friedland, Mary Noonan Robichaux, Marc Goldbaum, Liza Finley)

04/15/06        48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Knock On The Door"- in 1982, in the town of Olathe, Kansas, a young banker named David Harmon was bludgeoned to death in his bed. His wife Melinda told authorities that two men intent on robbing the bank where David worked had broken into their home and committed the crime. Investigators believed, but could not prove, that Melinda was involved in a secret affair with family friend Mark Mangelsdorf, and that the two were involved in David's murder. Nearly 20 years later, armed with new forensic technology, police zeroed in on the couple: Mangelsdorf, an independent business consultant in New York City, is now married with five children and lives in Pelham, N.Y.; Melinda, now living in Columbus, Ohio is married to a dentist and is the mother of two. Melinda was tried and found guilty of murder and conspiracy to commit murder. Facing a sentence of life in prison, she offered the prosecutor information about what happened the night of the murder in exchange for a lighter sentence. Melinda and Mangelsdorf, who entered a guilty plea, will be sentenced on May 12. (C: Hannah Storm - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Lisa Freed, Deborah Grau)

04/22/06        48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Marilyn Tapes"- an investigation of the apparent suicide, on August 4, 1962, of actress Marilyn Monroe. In 1982, amid public outcry concerning allegations of conspiracy and a cover-up following Monroe's death, the Los Angeles District attorney was forced to re-examine the evidence. Using the California Public Records Act, 48 HOURS filed a petition and obtained 309 pages of internal documents and approximately five-and-a-half hours of audio taped interviews with key sources. Included are interviews with: Jeanne Carmen, a close friend of Monroe's; Anthony Summers, biographer and journalist who acted as a consultant to 48 HOURS; actor Tony Curtis; Playboy publisher Hugh Hefner; Dr. Hyman Engelberg, Monroe's personal physician; Eunice Murray, her housekeeper; Dr. Steven Karch, a forensic pathologist; Rick Stone and Ken Hunter, ambulance attendants who were dispatched to Monroe's home; and Daryl Gates, former Los Angeles Police Chief. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Nancy Kramer, Taigi Smith, Christopher Young)

48 HOURS (continued)

04/29/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Proposal" - in February 1999, Stephanie Pepper, a Louisiana Tech University professor, married David Sims, an accountant, ten years her senior. Two years into their marriage, David and Stephanie were growing apart. In November 2002, Stephanie and her friend, Ginger Steward, visited a local bar where Stephanie met Wayne Guidry, Jr. who claimed to be a professional golfer spending some time in the area hunting during the off season. Less than a week after Stephanie met Guidry, she told David she wanted to separate, and five weeks after the affair began, Stephanie disappeared. With the help of Erik Dufrene, a childhood friend of Wayne Guidry and Guidry's father, Stephanie's body was found in the Jackson Bienville Management Preserve. Guidry was arrested, tried and found guilty of the murder and sentenced to life in prison without parole. He is appealing his conviction. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Peter Henderson, Mead Stone)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

04/23/06      "A Fair Harvest"- an interfaith religion program about attempts to achieve dignity for migrant farm-workers, focusing on a story in southwest Florida (Immokalee) about a group of tomato pickers from Central America and Haiti who organized their own workers' coalition. Another story touched upon is the Mt. Olive Pickle Company in North Carolina where, with the help from the National Council of Churches, local councils and the Catholic Diocese of Raleigh, cucumber pickers in the Mt. Olive area succeeded in getting a boost in wages. Discussing these stories and some proposals being made for national immigration legislation are: Rev. Bob Edgar, of the National Council of Churches, and Rev. George Anderson, an editor of the Jesuit magazine "America." The migrant farm-workers' dignity and fairness issues are presented by Robert Mendez and Eusebio Rodriguez, both full-time pickers and part-time union activists for the Coalition of Immokalee Workers. Also included are comments by Lucas Benitez who helped found the Coalition and interviews with: Father Joe Clifford, pastor of St. Columbkille Catholic Church (Ft. Myers); Rev. Jim Boler, (Sanibel Is.) UCCC; Rev. James McDonald, Vanderbilt Presbyterian Church, Naples, Fla.; Rev. Noelle Damico, liason between the national Presbyterian Church and the Coalition of Immokalee Workers; and Bert Perry, of the National Farm-workers Ministry. (Executive Producer/Director: John P. Blessington - Producer/Narrator: Ted Holmes)

48 HOURS

05/06/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Last Dance"- in July 2002, 18-year-old Catherine Woods left her home in Columbus, Ohio to pursue a career as a dancer in New York City. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend Catherine was savagely murdered. David Haughn, a rap musician and Catherine's live-in boyfriend was the initial suspect. In the fall of 2004 Catherine had met Paul Cortez, a 25-year-old vocalist in a rock band. He called her parents, Jon and Donna Woods, and told them that Catherine was performing at a topless bar, and suggested that she was involved with both drugs and prostitution. Police say that Paul Cortez' fingerprints match one bloody print found in Catherine Woods' apartment and, on December 23, 2005, he was charged with her murder. Prior sexual assault charges against Paul Cortez were dropped, but he is expected to go to trial next fall for the murder of Catherine Woods. If convicted he could be sentenced to life in prison. 05/13/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Cheatin' Heart"- Randy Hardison, a successful country songwriter, was assaulted outside his Nashville apartment on June 1, 2002; he died three days later. He had been helping Catina Skipper, an aspiring singer. They began an affair and, according to Hardison's friends, Skipper's husband, Ronnie, threatened Hardison. Police considered Ronnie Skipper to be the prime suspect but, three days into the investigation, a man calling himself 'Julius' called the homicide bureau claiming that he had been hired to beat up Hardison by a Dr. Jones. The lead proved groundless, and Ronnie Skipper and Orlando Smith, one of his employees, were brought to trial. Despite Catina Skipper's claim that she was responsible for Randy Hardison's death, both Skipper and Orlando were found guilty of aggravated assault. After serving seven months in jail, they were released. Catina Skipper was convicted of perjury and served two months in jail. Includes interviews with country music stars Lee Ann Womack and Darryl Worley. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Jay Young, Mary Noonan Robichaux)

- 05/20/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Duty, Death, Dishonor"- 25-year-old U.S. Army Specialist Richard Davis, from a military family, began his career in the Army as a peacekeeper in Bosnia and was later assigned to the 3rd Infantry Division based in Fort Benning, GA. and took part in the March 2003 invasion of Iraq. Davis survived his tour of duty in Iraq and returned to the U.S. on July 13, 2003. After celebrating his homecoming with four Army buddies in Columbus, GA, Davis disappeared and was listed by the Army as AWOL. In September, two months after Davis' disappearance the Army opened an official investigation and on November 7th, 2003, a tip led to the discovery of his body. Nearly four months later, four soldiers who were last with Davis -- Jacob Burgoyne, Alberto Martinez, Mario Navarette and Douglas Woodcoff -- were arrested. Jacob Burgoyne, previously diagnosed with PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder), identified Alberto Martinez as the sole killer. Douglas Woodcoff agreed to cooperate with authorities once murder charges against him were dropped. A jury found Alberto Martinez and Mario Navarette guilty of murder with a sentence of life in prison. Jacob Burgoyne, who pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter, received a twenty year sentence. Douglas Woodcoff pled guilty to concealing a death and was sentenced to five years of probation. Both Navarette and Martinez are seeking new trials. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul Ryan, Daria Hirsch)
- 05/27/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Pretender" - a report on Christian Longo, a man on the run, charged with killing his wife and three children, who assumed the identity of Michael Finkel, an award-winning New York Times reporter. Finkel, who admitted to fabricating a portion of a story on child slavery in West Africa, was subsequently fired by the newspaper. Curious to learn why someone would want to steal his identity, Finkel met with Longo and, based on conversations, a series of letters and phone calls, put together an account of events leading up to the murders and Longo's apprehension. Christian Longo was tried, found guilty of all four murders and sentenced to death. He has since changed his story and is working on an appeal. The broadcast was based on an excerpt of "True Story: Murder, Memoir, Mea Culpa" a book on the murders written by Michael Finkel. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Miguel Sancho, Chris Young) (OAD: 05/31/05)
- 05/30/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Obsession"- Carl "Charlie" Brandt, a Big Pine Key, Fla. man appeared to be devoted to his wife of 17 years, Teri, and close to her family. When Hurricane Ivan threatened the Florida Keys in September 2004, the Brandts sought refuge in the Orlando home of Teri's niece, Michelle Jones, a television executive at the Golf Channel. A few days after the Brandts' arrival, police discovered the bodies of: Teri Brandt who had been stabbed to death; Michelle Jones, also dead and brutally dismembered; and Charlie, who had hanged himself in the garage. Lead investigator Rob Hemmert's first clue came when Brandt's older sister Angela revealed that in 1971, Charlie, then 13, had shot both his father and mother in their Ft. Wayne, Ind. home. Brandt's mother, eight months pregnant, died of her injuries. Because Brandt was a juvenile, state authorities never charged him with murder but sent him to a mental institution for a little more than a year. Further investigation indicated that Brandt had committed a number of other murders. Michelle's parents, Bill and Mary Lou are pushing for a public database to include anyone of any age who killed another person, regardless of the circumstances. Investigator Rob Hemmert is trying to win the release of Charlie Brandt's mental health records in an effort to understand the motivation of a serial killer. Andy Rooney Topic: "If The Shoe Fits" - it's so hard to get shoes that fit perfectly

06/11/06      "Plan B - Levonorgestrel" - focuses on the FDA's failure to approve over-the-counter sales of the emergency contraceptive Plan B. Includes interviews with: Dr. Susan Wood, former FDA director of women's health, who is critical of the agency's decision; "Evelyn," a rape victim who was not offered the drug by St. Vincent's Hospital in New York; and Dr. David Hager, a gynecologist, who claims that promotion of the product would result in increases both in teenage sexual activity and sexually transmitted diseases. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen Sughrue) (OAD: 11/27/05)

"The Hobbit"- a report from the Indonesian island of Flores where a team of Australian and Indonesian archeologists announced in Nature magazine that they had unearthed the bones of a previously unknown humanoid species. The scientists decided to call them Hobbits because of their diminutive height and the small size of their skulls. Includes interviews with: Douglas Hobbs, an Australian archeologist; Professor Mike Norwood, lead scientist on the Australian team; and Dr. Teuko Jacob, dean of Indonesian paleontology. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon) (OAD: 05/01/05)

"Mel Brooks On Broadway"- interview with actor/producer Mel Brooks about "The Producers," the Broadway musical based on his Academy Award-winning film, and the impact of his Jewishness on his life and work. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jay Kernis) (OAD: 04/15/01)

- 06/25/06      "The Oil Sands"- a report on the oil boom in Alberta, Canada, where the oil sands produce a million barrels a day and hold reserves eight times those of Saudi Arabia. The oil companies, which pay some of the highest salaries in North America, are faced with problems including the shortage of labor and charges by environmentalists that they are destroying both the atmosphere and the land. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 01/22/06)
- "Rex" (Parts I & II) - followup to "Musically Speaking" (OAD: 09/28/03), a report on Rex Lewis-Clack, an eight-year-old boy whose incredible musical ability coexists with blindness and severe mental impairment. Part I of the followup consists of recent interviews with Rex, now ten-years-old; his mother, Cathleen and David Pinto, one of Rex's piano teachers. Part II consists of expanded interviews with Rex's mother Cathleen, and with Derek Paravincini, another musical savant and his teacher Adam Ockelford. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (expanded version of "Rex" OAD: 10/23/05)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "When Did This Become Art?" - modern art in public places (OAD: 01/02/05)

48 HOURS

- 06/03/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets & Lies On Grapevine Lake" - in April 2002, the body of successful real estate agent David Nixon of Grapevine, Texas, was discovered in a storm drain in a nearby town. He had been shot in the heart and his remains burned beyond recognition. At the time of the murder Nixon and his live-in girlfriend Tracy Frame were in the process of splitting up and were fighting over the house where they both lived. Police investigating the crime focused on Frame who denied any wrongdoing. Three years after Nixon's death, Tracy Frame was tried, found guilty of murder and sentenced to 40 years in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 20 years. She is appealing the verdict. Includes interviews with: Tracy Frame; Donna Lella, David Nixon's first wife; Nicholas, their son; Jerry Vowell, a used car dealer, who was scheduled to meet David Nixon the night he disappeared; Detective Larry Hallmark; Donald Feare, Tracy's defense attorney; and the prosecutor, Assistant D.A. Sean Colston. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Peter Henderson) (OAD: 10/22/05)
- 06/06/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" - Karen Tipton, a mother of two and the wife of prominent psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, was found stabbed to death in her Decatur, Alabama home in March 1999. Police quickly ruled out the husband as a suspect, and a month later arrested 24-year-old Daniel Wade Moore, who worked for the alarm company that had installed a security system in the Tipton home. Moore, a drug user, had initially confessed to his uncle to being present at the scene of the murder, but later retracted his statement. Despite the lack of physical evidence, Moore was tried, convicted and sentenced to death row. Eight months following the conviction, Moore's defense attorneys discovered that prosecutors had withheld potentially conclusive information in the case including an FBI report suggesting that Karen was having multiple affairs, and may have known her killer. In a stunning reversal in February 2005, the same judge who sentenced Moore to death released him from prison. The state appealed the decision and Daniel Moore is now awaiting a new trial that could set him free. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Pater Schweitzer - P: Katherine Davis, Marc B. Goldbaum, Susan Mallie) (OAD: 11/12/05)
- 06/10/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Scared To Death" - Jim and Vickie Barton, a Springboro, Ohio couple owned and lived on a horse farm. Jim was lieutenant with the Springboro police department, with aspirations of becoming police chief, and Vickie was a head nurse at the local hospital. In April 1995, Jim came home from work and found Vickie had been shot to death. For three years there were virtually no leads in the case and no arrests, but in 1998 Gary Henson, a career criminal, told police that his half-brother, Will Phelps shot Vickie by accident while he and an unidentified accomplice were in the process of burglarizing the Barton home. Four months later, Phelps committed suicide. In 2003, a county-wide cold case team was formed to take a second look at Vickie's murder. The squad discovered a portion of audiotape from Jim's 911 call which revealed a discrepancy in his testimony. Subsequently, Gary Henson told police that Jim Barton was responsible for his wife's death because he had sent Phelps to the house to scare Vicki in hopes of driving her to live in town where Jim supposedly needed to live to become police chief. A jury found Jim Barton guilty of involuntary manslaughter and he will serve at least 15 years in prison. He plans to appeal the verdict. There is no legal requirement for the Springboro Police Chief to live within city limits. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Jay Young, Jamie Stolz) (OAD: 10/29/05)

- 06/17/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Written In Blood" (9:00-11:00p)- an expanded version of "Written In Blood" (OAD: 09/25/04), a report on the brutal 1994 murders of the Rafay family -- Sultana Rafay, her husband Tariq and their autistic daughter, Basma -- in Bellevue, Washington, focusing on the pursuit and arrest of the two primary suspects: Atif Rafay, the only surviving family member, and his friend Sebastian Burns. Focuses on the key role of the Canadian Mounted Police in the investigation and the elaborate sting operation put in place by the CMP in order to obtain confessions from Rafay and Burns. Having taken refuge in Canada, Rafay and Burns, who had written the script for a film called "The Great Despisers," whose plot paralleled the 1994 murders, were extradited to Seattle to face murder charges. They were tried in November 2003, found guilty of murder and sentenced to three consecutive life terms -- one for each life that was taken. The Burns family has launched a campaign for a new trial. Includes interviews with the two accused men; Carol and Dave Burns, Sebastian's parents; Jimmy Myoshi, a friend of the suspects; Detective Bob Thompson; Sgt. Haslett, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Jeff Robinson and Song Richardson, defense attorneys for Sebastian Burns; Roger Davidheiser and James Konat, King County's prosecuting team. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Nancy Kramer - P: Nancy Kramer, Jenna-Jackson, Gayane Keshishyan) (OAD: 08/06/05)
- 06/24/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Back From The Dead" - a report from Rockhampton, Queensland, Australia where a community lived in fear of a serial killer following the disappearance of nine-year-old Keyra Steinhart; 14-year-old Natasha Ryan; 19-year-old Sylvia Benedetti; 37-year-old Beverly Leggo and 39-year-old Julie Turner. Police picked up Leonard "Lenny" Fraser, a meat cutter at a local slaughterhouse, who had previously served prison time for assault. Fraser claimed innocence, but a search of his car revealed traces of Keyra Steinhart's blood as well as other human blood. Fraser led police to the nine-year-old's body but refused to admit to the other murders. Subsequently, police received an offer of help from Allan Quinn, a con man and a fellow prison inmate of Fraser's who not only got Fraser to confess to the killings, but to lead police to the bodies of three of his other victims. Despite the fact that Natasha Ryan's grave was not located, Fraser was brought to trial for all the murders. On the 12th day of the trial it was revealed that Natasha Ryan was not a murder victim but had run away from home with a boyfriend and had been living in hiding nearby. At the conclusion of the trial Fraser was convicted and sentenced to prison for the other killings. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Chuck Stevenson, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 09/24/05)
- 06/27/06      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "'Strange Truth"- in the early morning hours of March 21, 2003, Romona "Mona" Krotine left an office party just outside Cleveland, Ohio, and was never seen alive again. Nearly 24 hours later, she was found in the trunk of her car, beaten and shot to death. At first, police suspected a botched robbery because Mona was carrying the cash receipts from working at a concession earlier that day. Subsequently, Mona's husband, Jeffrey, began acting suspiciously, and the focus of the police investigation shifted to a domestic murder. Authorities believed that Mona had actually returned home after the party and that Jeffrey, having killed her, attempted to cover up the crime by destroying evidence, including portions of bedroom carpet and a large headboard. The case, largely circumstantial, went to trial twice, both times resulting in a hung jury. The jury at a third trial found Krotine not guilty. Officially, the murder of Mona Krotine remains an open case, but Jeff Krotine can never be retried for his wife's murder. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul LaRosa, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 10/08/05)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

06/25/06      "Sacred Arts, Ancient Sounds" - a CBS religion special examining the ways in which the arts are manifested in different religious cultures. The program features a performance by the Multiphonic Singers of Drepung Loseling Monastery, a group of Tibetan monks living in exile in Southern India. It also looks at the art of sand mandala-painting, where grains of varied colored sands are used to create intricate designs. The Venerable Thupten Chosang-la explains the basic tenets of Buddhism and how they are reflected in the rituals of this Eastern faith tradition. The broadcast visits a Choral Evensong Performance with the Men and Boys Cathedral Choir at the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. The segment features interviews with the Cathedral Director of Music, Michael McCarthy, and Rev. Canon Carol L. Wade, the Canon Precentor. The broadcast includes a report on calligraphy, considered a sacred form of art in the Islamic tradition including an interview with Mohammed Zakariya, an Islamic calligrapher. Also includes an interview with Lisa Sokolov, a New York jazz vocalist, improviser, composer, and Jewish Cantor. (Narrator: Ted Holmes - Writer/Producer: Liz Kinecke - Director: John P. Blessington)

On Monday, April 3, 2006 a tour was given to 18 4th grade students from Mound Valley, Kansas Elementary School.

The students learned about the history of KOAM & KFJX, visited with employees in our news room, master control, control room and watched the noon news live in the studio & control room. Several employees discussed the educational requirements for their jobs & the students learned that there are positions in broadcasting which need no post-high-school education to other jobs which require a college degree. Some of the students were even given the opportunity to push buttons and operate the computers in master control and the control room.

Vance,

I was emailing to schedule a field trip for my 4th grade class. We are from Mound Valley (18 students) and have taken a trip to KOAM TV for the past 2 yrs. I was hoping to be able to take a tour of the station and then watch the noon broadcast if possible. Sometime the week of April 3-7 would work really good for us. If you could let me know if any of these dates are open, I would appreciate it!

Thank you,

Tammy Hayward

On Tuesday, April 4, 2006 KOAM & KFJX employees, including Chief Meteorologist Doug Heady, provided a free "Strong Skies Tour" program to approximately 160 North Middle School (Joplin, Missouri) 7th grade students. The assembly began at 2:15 and lasted until 3:00 PM. During the program the students were able to reinforce math, science, education, & safety knowledge. The students learned what contributing factors were needed to produce lightning, severe thunderstorms, flooding, hail, and tornados. And they were given the proper safety procedures for each severe weather situation.

Several students were used in educational demonstrations and following the program they were allowed to ask Doug specific questions relating to weather (science & math), what it takes to become a meteorologist (education) and a broadcast meteorologist, and specific questions about safety in their home (safety).

On April 7, 8 & 9, 2006 KOAM-TV & KFJX-TV co-sponsored the grand opening celebration at The Bridge, a teen & pre-teen business & ministry at 3405 S Hammons BLVD in Joplin, MO. The Bridge provides a non-threatening, non-alcoholic & drug-free environment for teens & children. KFJX donated a minimum of $4,000.00 in air-time and KOAM-TV donated a minimum of $1,000.00 in air-time to invite parents & kids to come experience The Bridge. The above times do not include the airtime during newscasts on both stations. In addition KOAM & KFJX purchased a skate kit which included a skate board, safety helmet, ball cap and t-shirt (valued at $150.00) as a giveaway at our booth during the event.

The primary purpose of The Bridge, as outlined on their website www.thebridgejoplin.com is: The Bridge is equal parts ministry and attraction. On the one hand, we are striving to be the new Main Street. The place where you go to be with your friends. A lidless environment where you can live and be and grow and meet and shine. On the other hand, The Bridge is a ministry where the exchange of ideas is not limited to acceptable social subjects, but includes subjects (like faith and politics) which have been too taboo to mention in other years or settings. Behind the scenes, staff members and volunteers are listening, connecting, loving, sharing, and sacrificing to bring the hope of Christ to everyone through actions, attitude, and words. We will not relegate Christ to our apparel or our overhead sound system. His Spirit is alive in us and you should see that. Our ultimate hope and purest joy will be to see some of the people that come through The Bridge and its affiliate ministries one day become believers in Christ and members of a community of the Christian Faith. Our promise is to never exclude anyone based on belief, custom, nationality, race, disability, or political alignment. We simply want to chance to hear your ideas and to share our lives and hope with you. A primary passion of ours is to connect teens with area churches.

On Saturday, April 8 a tour was given to 8 middle school & high school-aged girl scouts from Pittsburg, Kansas.

The tour lasted from 5:30 to 7:15 pm. The scouts & leaders learned about jobs available for women in broadcasting including anchors & reporters. The scouts spoke with KOAM Anchor Lisa Olliges-Green and KFJX Anchor Tawnya Bach about their careers. They also discussed what they believe qualifies as "news." The scouts also learned what education is needed for other jobs at a television station including master control operators, news assistants, & directors. And because a portion of the 6:00 News was preempted by the network the young women were able to watch many of our employees work under pressure as they worked to shorten the newscast from 30 minutes to 12 minutes. Strong Skies Tour/FCC Children's Report/Issues & Programming Report.

On Thursday, April 13, 2006 KOAM & KFJX employees, including Chief Meteorologist Doug Heady, provided a free "Strong Skies Tour" program to approximately 260 Jefferson Elementary School students in Iola, Kansas. Grades attending the program were Kindergarten through 5th grades. The assembly began at 2:15 and lasted until 3:00 PM. During the program the students were able to reinforce math, science, education, & safety knowledge. The students learned what contributing factors were needed to produce lightning, severe thunderstorms, flooding, hail, and tornados. And they were given the proper safety procedures for each severe weather situation.

Several students were used in educational demonstrations and following the program they were allowed to ask Doug specific questions relating to weather (science & math), what it takes to become a meteorologist (education) and also a broadcast meteorologist, and specific questions about safety in their home (safety). Mr. Lewis

This sounds great!

We have about 45 kids in this group, but I am concerned that would be too large of a group at one time. Is it possible to handle that many?
If we need to split the group 3 ways we can and rotate through but that would absorb a larger amount of your time.

As far as times go watching the noon news and then chatting with Doug around 1:00 would work great for us. We are looking to start in the afternoon with the project so we it would be great if we could all start together at KOAM. Also, we will be doing this on the 10th of May to accommodate some other appointments.

Thanks for working with us, I will contact you soon with a final schedule. Have a great day!
