Joplin Audit

An audit of the City of Joplin revealed many finding of mismanagement by the city and city council member and agencies. Our extensive coverage included the following.

WB Detail

This story laid out the allegations and finding of the state Auditor's office. The findings included preferential treatment to Wallace Bijalli, ignored bad references, lack of authorization. The city says they will take steps to ensure future bid processes follow procedure and that future contracts protect the city.

Chamber Audit

According to the audit, one of the mistakes by city was giving the local chamber of commerce more money than is appropriate for an agency of its size and alleged the Chamber interfered with the hiring of a master contractor by giving preferential treatment. The chamber President denied those findings.

Public Response

The audit was revealed at a public forum, we spoke to those in attendance to get their opinions on the State Auditor's findings.

Woolston Speaks

We conducted a sit-down interview with former Joplin Mayor and Councilman Mike Woolston. Woolston is a realtor and his actions and land deals after the Joplin Tornado have come under scrutiny following an audit of the city.

“Dead or Alive” – a report on the errors of the Social Security Administration’s Death Master File. Those who are alive and mistakenly put onto the list, can be cut out of existence by banks, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Medicare, credit agencies and the like. On the other hand, there have been continued payments to deceased citizens whose names were never put on the list. To combat these errors, the Social Security Administration has started cross-checking with a Medicare list to see who is using Medicare, and if a citizen has been off the list for three years, they gather more information to see if they are dead or alive. Includes interviews with: living Americans declared dead by the Social Security Administration: Don Pilger, Kristina Pace, Betty Denault, and Judy Rivers; Patrick O’Carroll, Social Security Administration’s inspector general; and Sandra Kimbro, who pleaded guilty to accepting her mother’s Social Security benefits, but says it was done so unknowingly. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Gabrielle Schonder) (OAD: 03/15/15 - includes an update)

“Breeding Out Disease” - a report on how advances in the science and technology of reproductive genetics and in vitro fertilization are allowing scientists to weed out many dangerous diseases -- such as breast cancer, muscular dystrophy, and hemophilia -- from the gene pool. Includes interviews with: Dr. Mark Hughes, geneticist and founder of Genesis Genetics, who pioneered the technique of preimplantation genetic diagnosis (PGD), an embryo screening procedure; Melinda (no last name given), breast cancer victim and mother; Anne Morriss, mother and co-founder of GenePeeks, a computerized technique which uses DNA information from the saliva of prospective parents to create a thousand digital/virtual embryos; Lee Silver, molecular biologist, Princeton University, and co-founder of GenePeeks. (C: Norah O’Donnell - P: Tanya Simon) (OAD: 10/26/14)

“Steve Carell” – an interview / profile of Steve Carell, the Hollywood actor. He discusses his past career and his performance in the soon-to-be released psychodrama “Foxcatcher”. Carell has long been known for his roles in comedic movies and his hit TV series “The Office”, which concluded last year. Includes comments from Carell’s wife, Nancy Carell. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Michael Karzis) (OAD: 11/09/14)

“The Swiss Leaks” – an investigation conducted by 60 MINUTES and the International Consortium of Investigative Journalists into the biggest leak in Swiss banking history. Herve Falciani, a former HSBC computer security specialist in Switzerland, stole -- with questionable motives -- computer files with over one hundred thousand names tied to Swiss bank accounts in 2007 and gave it to the French government. The list is being used to go after tax cheats, arms dealers, and drug smugglers around the world. HSBC declined to respond on camera about the files, but acknowledged the bank had been used to evade taxes in the past and says it will no longer engage in those activities with future clients. Falciani is now a fugitive living in France because Swiss authorities charged him with industrial espionage. Includes interviews with: Jack Blum, former U.S. Senate staff investigator; Herve Falciani, former HSBC computer security specialist; Christian Eckert (through translator), France’s Secretary of State for the Budget; and Serge Michel, editor of French newspaper Le Monde. “Alive and Kickin’” – a report on the musical, “Alive: 55+ and Kickin’,” conceived and written by Vy Higginsen, founder of the Mama Foundation for the Arts in Harlem, New York and her husband, Ken Wydro, creative director at the Mama Foundation and a playwright. The musical features a full company of performers ages 55 and over with most of them experiencing their first time on stage while sharing personal stories with the audience. Higginsen has made it her mission to preserve African-American music, both gospel and popular music like soul and rhythm and blues (R&B). Includes excerpts from a performance of “Alive: 55+ and Kickin’”. Includes interviews with: Vy Higginsen; and performers Theo Harris and his wife, Phyllis Harris; Debbie Bingham; Renee Walker; Matthew Brown; and Matthew Burke. Also includes comments by Ken Wydro; Greg Kelly, pianist; and Roberta Ross, singer. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 01/04/15)

- 07/19/15      "Rare Earth Elements" – a report on how China has become the world leader of rare earth metals, essential ingredients used in everything from smart phones and computers, to cars and missiles. The U.S. began the cultivation of these materials at Molycorp, Inc.'s mine in Mountain Pass, California after geologists identified rare earth elements in the Mojave Desert, but it was shut down in 1998 due to environmental concerns. Meanwhile, China took over the industry since they have less environmental constraints around mining and lower labor costs, which translates into lower pricing. Molycorp Inc.'s Mountain Pass mine reopened in 2010. Includes interviews with: Constantine Karayannopoulos, chairman of Molycorp, Inc.; Daniel McGroarty, principal of Carmot Strategic Group; and Ed Richardson, president of the U.S. Magnetic Materials Association. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Graham Messick, Kevin Livelli) (OAD: 03/22/15 - includes an update)
- "Ending Life" - a report on the ongoing state-by-state battle over assisted suicide, focusing on an interview with Barbara Mancini of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, who was arrested and accused of helping her 93-year-old terminally ill father, Joe Yourshaw, to kill himself. Also interviewed: Barbara Coombs Lee, president, Compassion & Choices, an advocacy group on end-of-life issues; Dr. Ira Byock, professor, Dartmouth College, and head of the Providence Health System's Institute for Human Caring. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Andy Court) (OAD: 10/19/14)
- "All-American" – an interview / profile of "patriotic philanthropist" David Rubenstein, billionaire co-founder of the Carlyle Group -- one of the world's largest private equity firms, who is giving away most of his money to support the preservation of some of America's most iconic monuments and documents. Among his recipients: The Washington Monument; Thomas Jefferson's home, Monticello; the Declaration of Independence; the Iwo Jima Memorial; and the National Zoological Park's Giant Panda Habitat. Also includes interviews with: Warren Buffett, billionaire philanthropist and investor; and Jonathan Jarvis, director of the National Park Service; and comments from Bettie Rubenstein, David's mother. (C: Morley Safer – P: Katy Textor) (OAD: 05/03/15)
- 07/26/15      "The Gaskos" – a report on the capture of the FBI's most wanted man, Boston mobster James "Whitey" Bulger, and his girlfriend, Catherine Greig. For over 14 years the couple avoided an international manhunt by living a quiet, secluded life in Santa Monica, California posing as "Charley and Carol Gasko". Federal law enforcement trackers explain how a breast augmentation by Greig and the couple's shared love for animals led to their arrest. Includes interviews with Josh Bond, manager of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Janus Goodwin and Barbara Gluck, tenants of the Princess Eugenia Apartments; Scott Garriola, Rich Teahan, Tommy MacDonald and Phil Torsney (Ret.), FBI Special Agents; and Neil Sullivan, Deputy U.S. Marshall. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Tanya Simon) (OAD: 11/24/13 - includes an update)
- "Wikimania" – a report on Wikipedia, the free Internet encyclopedia, and how the non-profit Wikimedia Foundation has kept the website among the ten most popular advertisement-free sites. Jimmy Wales, founder of Wikimedia Foundation and co-founder of Wikipedia, discusses his vision of this charity and how he's trying to get more women involved as Wikipedians, the volunteers who write and edit Wikipedia's articles. Includes interviews with: Jimmy Wales; Sue Gardner, former executive director of the Wikimedia Foundation; Lila Tretikov, executive director of the Wikimedia Foundation; Amanda Levendowski, Wikipedian; and Duménil Ndubane, engineer and Wikipedian. Also includes comments by unidentified people attending Wikimania event. (C: Morley Safer – P: David Browning, Jonathan Schienberg) (OAD: 04/05/15)
- "Star-Struck" – an interview / profile of astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson, director of the American Museum of Natural History's Hayden Planetarium. With millions of followers on Twitter, he is perhaps America's most popular scientist. Tyson hosts a weekly radio show, "StarTalk" and hosted the 2014 television documentary series, "Cosmos: A Spacetime Odyssey". (C: Charlie Rose – P: Robert G. Anderson, Aaron Weisz) (OAD: 03/22/15)

48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Murder At Sea?" – an updated rebroadcast of a report on the disappearance of newlywed George Smith, who vanished in 2005 from a cruise ship in the Mediterranean while on his honeymoon, as first reported in "Love Lost" (OAD: 04/08/06) and mentioned in "Dark Voyage" (OAD: 09/23/06). This report uncovers the questionable alibis, failed polygraphs and a provocative video that involves the three men who last saw Smith alive. In the years since Smith went missing, his family has been seeking answers to what happened to him after a night of heavy drinking and gambling in the ship's casino. His disappearance was ruled a likely accident and the case has gone nowhere, despite reports of arguments on the stateroom balcony, furniture being moved and a bloodstain on the overhang of the lifeboats. Mike Jones, an attorney for the Smith family, is now trying to get the case moving again. He has gained access to Royal Caribbean's internal investigation and has learned about the existence of a videotape in the possession of the FBI, which was recorded just hours after Smith went missing by three of the four men to last see Smith alive: cousins Zach Rozenberg and Greg Rozenberg and their friend Rusty Kofman. The other passenger, Josh Askin, is not on the video. Attorneys for Rusty Kofman and Zach Rozenberg have declined to comment. Greg Rozenberg's attorney says his client just made stupid comments. While initially cooperating, Askin's attorney has now told him to take the Fifth Amendment in all questioning. All four men say they had nothing to do with Smith's death but the men are still on the FBI's radar in this cold case. Mike Jones believes that Josh Askin knows what happened. He continues to prod the FBI to re-open the case. On-screen text graphic: The FBI's field office has agreed to review the George Smith case.

EPILOGUE: On January 9, 2015, the FBI announced the closing of the case. His family stands by the reward offer and still believes it was murder. They are hoping the FBI will re-open the investigation.

On-screen text graphic introduction for the 07/05/14 rebroadcast: "9 years ago today George Smith disappeared from his honeymoon cruise. This week, his family announced a $100,000 reward for information leading "to the arrest and conviction of the person (s) responsible." - 07/11/15      48 HOURS: "The Hit" - a report on the death of colorful entrepreneur and Las Vegas gambler Gary Triano, who was blown up in his car after finishing a round of golf at the exclusive La Paloma Country Club in Tucson, Arizona in 1996. His ex-wife, socialite Pamela Phillips, speaks out for the first time and proclaims her innocence. The Trianos were a power couple who were part of the local social set and hobnobbed with Donald Trump. Triano had made a fortune in the tribal gaming business, but the bottom fell out and he was pushed out of the business. The income loss put a strain on the couple. He owed millions of dollars to creditors. The Trianos separated in 1993 and eventually divorced. He was killed in 1996. Was it a mob hit? Were friends or family involved? Investigation led to endless leads, curious characters and many theories. Eventually the investigation led to the involvement of Ron Young, once an acquaintance and possible lover of Pamela Phillips. He was arrested along with Pamela Phillips on charges of conspiracy and murder. In separate trials, Young denied everything, and was found guilty. Pamela Phillips was portrayed as a desperate woman out for life insurance at her trial. Her attorneys said that someone else was responsible. She too was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Gary Triano's family sued Pam Phillips and Ron Young for wrongful death. They were awarded $10 million dollars. Interviewed: Pamela Phillips; one-time friend of the couple Laura Chapman; Pima County Investigator Gene Reedy; ATF Special Agents Tom Mangan and Tony May; Detective James Gamber; Triano friend Dr. Lawrence D'Antonio; defense attorney Paul Edkerstrom. - 07/18/15      48 HOURS: "Blaming Melissa" (9:00 - 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast, after new evidence from the coroner's office is brought to light, detailing the investigation into the case of Melissa Calusinski, a young woman who claims she did not murder 16-month-old Ben Kingan in 2009, while working at a day care center in Lake County, Illinois, despite having confessed to the crime. Also examined are police interrogations, what happens after a confession, and what can happen when a key player in the investigation admits he made a life-altering mistake. Two days after Ben Kingan's death, Calusinski was brought in for questioning; police told her Ben died from a blunt-force trauma to the head and that she was the last adult to have seen him alive. She was interrogated for nine hours, never asked for a lawyer, and eventually confessed to dropping the child in a way that may have led to a head injury. She was convicted of murder, largely on the fact that she had confessed and that the Medical Examiner's report said that the child suffered from fresh injuries to his head. Her family persuaded a newly-elected coroner, Dr. Thomas Rudd, to re-examine the evidence. His findings revealed an older head injury -- a significant discovery. Eventually, state pathologist Dr. Eupil Choi, admitted to missing the old injury in his report. With this information, attorney Kathleen Zellner, who specializes in cases pertaining to false confessions, says that Melissa Calusinski did not receive a fair trial. Advocates say that, under extreme conditions, 60% of people confess to crimes they did not commit. The police say they played by the rules. Two courts have allowed the conviction to stand. Attorney Zellner believes the medical evidence needs to be re-examined, but the State Attorney will not pass it on. Family and friends vow not to give up. Update for the 07/18/15 rebroadcast: after a phone call suggesting x-ray images from the autopsy existed that contradicted testimony, Melissa's lawyer petitioned to void her conviction. The cause of death was changed from homicide to undetermined. In September, the trial judge will decide whether to hold a new hearing that could be a first step to a new trial. On-screen text graphic for the 07/18/15 rebroadcast: Melissa's parents visit her often. They are confident they'll bring her home one day. Interviewed: Melissa Calusinski; Paul and Cheryl Calusinski (parents); Crystal Calusinski (sister); Ruth Fuller (journalist); Dr. Thomas Rudd (Lake County coroner); Kathleen Zellner (attorney); Deborah Teurkheimer (law professor); Michael Nerheim (States Attorney). 07/18/15

48 HOURS: "The Girl Next Door" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report featuring an exclusive interview with Tracey Grissom, who is on trial for the murder of her former husband, Hunter Grissom. Tracey details the abuse she claims to have suffered and the events that led her to shoot and kill him, in an Alabama parking lot in 2012. A young mother herself, Tracey and Hunter Grissom had eloped in 2004. Theirs was a troubled relationship from the beginning. In 2010 Tracey filed for divorce; she then says Hunter became abusive and in November, after she spent the night at a boyfriend's house, Hunter raped her. He was arrested. Soon after, Hunter stopped paying spousal support and child support for his daughter, Anna Grace, claiming he was not working. One day, Tracey noticed his truck and wanted to take a picture to disprove his claim. She claims that he approached her car, intending to hurt her. She then shot six times. She was arrested on murder charges. The hour includes interviews with: Tracey Grissom's friends; her attorney; Hunter's mother and aunt; two of the employees who witnessed the incident that took Hunter's life; and Hunter's lawyer, who uncovered some damaging information about Tracey. The trial lasted two days, but before the case went to jury, the judge made a stunning reversal: he said it was a manslaughter case and if both sides could agree, he would let the jury consider manslaughter. They did, but Tracey did not agree and decided to take her chances of not being convicted of murder. The verdict: guilty. At sentencing, her lawyer argued that she was a battered woman, hoping to receive a lighter sentence. The judge gave her twenty-five years, neither the minimum, nor the maximum sentence. On-screen text graphic: Tracey Grissom must serve at least fifteen years of her sentence. She will be eligible for parole in 2029. Anna Grace will be twenty years old. On-screen text graphic for the 07/18/15 rebroadcast: On July 2, the Alabama court of criminal appeals unanimously upheld Tracey Grissom's murder conviction. Her defense has files for another hearing. Tracey will be eligible for parole in 2029. She'll be 47. Interviewed: Tracey Grissom; her attorney, Warren Freeman; her friend Loren Richards; her brother Travis Waters; Hunter Grissom's mother Melanie Garner and his aunt, Gina Prisock; Tuscaloosa Times journalist Stephanie Taylor; Hunter Grissom's employees William Dockery and Dale Dockery (brothers); Hunter Grissom's attorney Shelly Standridge; social worker Marian Waters; and juror Janice Kelly. 07/25/15

48 HOURS: "Paradise Lost" - an updated report on the investigation into the 2010 shooting death of Wall Street millionaire John Bender, who was killed in his exotic home in Costa Rica. His wife, Ann, is charged with the crime, but she claims innocence. After making a $100 million fortune on Wall Street, Bender and his wife bought land in Costa Rica where they built a nature preserve, along with an elaborate, four-story hilltop home with no walls or windows as the centerpiece. The couple seemed to have everything; but both suffered from severe depression, became isolated, and were not entirely welcomed by the locals. They lived in fear after an abduction attempt and a break-in, and were forced to arm themselves and hire a security team. On January 8, 2010, John Bender died from a bullet wound to the back of the head. Was it murder, suicide or accident? Prosecutors say it was murder. Ann Bender says her husband was trying to kill himself and had been suicidal for some time. Other issues in the investigation include: allegations that the trustee of the Bender's $100 Million fortune siphoned money from the trust, and the Bender gem collection, which to the Costa Rican authorities, looked like it could have been a smuggling operation. Nineteen months after the shooting, Ann Bender was charged with murder. At trial, Ann was found not guilty of murder; but in Costa Rica, there is no double jeopardy rule and Ann was brought up on the same charges again and this time was found guilty. 48 HOURS brought in the world-famous independent forensic team of Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, who, after examining all the evidence, say there were problems with the conclusion drawn by the prosecution. Today, Ann Bender is in prison continuing to fight for her innocence. Original On screen text graphic: The Bender gems, worth an estimated $20 million, were confiscated by the Costa Rican authorities. 07/25/15 EPILOGUE: Last February, nine months after Ann Bender was convicted, an appeals court overturned that decision. Its finding was that the prosecution's evidence was insufficient proof of murder. Ann was released from prison. The court has ordered a third trial. Her boyfriend, who fought to bring attention to her case, died while she was in prison. She must remain in Costa Rica, pending her next trial. On-screen text graphic for the 07/25/15 rebroadcast: The trial is scheduled to begin next month. Interviewed: Ann Bender; John Bender's friend Pete DeLisi; CBS News consultant/reporter Ned Zeman; prosecutor Edgar Ramirez; Ann's psychiatrist Dr. Carlos Lizano; Bender friend, Paul Meyer; Bender Trust administrator Juan Alvarez; Ann's current boyfriend Greg Fischer; Ann's attorney Fabio Oconitrillo; security guard Oswaldo Aguilar; Ann's brother Ken Patton; forensic experts Richard and Selma Eikelenboom. - 08/02/15      “Denied” – an investigation into the circumstances of long-term insurance coverage for the mentally ill in America. Long-term care for a mentally ill patient is often denied by insurance company doctors who never see the patient, resulting in some seriously ill patients being discharged from hospitals over the objections of psychiatrists, who warn that someone may die as a result. Included are recorded excerpts of Anthem Insurance-contracted psychiatrist Dr. Tim Jack, as he interacts with doctors during the claims process. Includes interviews with: Nancy West, whose daughter Katherine died after denied long-term care; Dr. Harold Koplewicz, psychiatrist and founder of the Child Mind Institute; Ashley, psychiatric patient with bipolar disorder, and her mother Maria (their last name is withheld by their request); Kathryn Trepinski, attorney; and Dr. Paul Keith, Anthem Insurance’s former California medical director. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Michael Rey, Oriana Zill de Granados) (OAD: 12/14/14 - includes an update)
- “The Battle Above” – a report on the US Air Force’s Space Command (AFSPC) and its task of launching and protecting the satellites in space on which our daily life and national security have come to depend. With no worldwide agreement regarding a code of conduct for space operations, the Chinese tested an anti-satellite weapon two years ago. Now AFSPC, with billions of dollars from the Pentagon, is making new satellites more maneuverable to evade attack and also more resistant to jamming. Includes interviews with: General John Hyten, Commander, AFSPC; Colonel Bill Cooley, Director of Global Positioning Systems (GPS) at the Space and Missile Systems Center; Lieutenant Colonel Todd Benson, Commander, 2nd Space Operations Squadron; Lieutenant General Jay Raymond, Commander, Joint Functional Component Command for Space; Brian Weeden, technical adviser to the Secure World Foundation; and Deborah Lee James, Air Force Secretary. (C: David Martin – P: Andy Court) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 04/26/15)
- 08/09/15      “War And Hunger” – a report from the borders of Jordan and Syria, where the United Nations, led by its World Food Programme (WFP), has undertaken the task of feeding and caring for millions of refugees from Syria’s civil war. Includes interviews with: Halima (through translator), refugee; Andrew Harper, Representative of United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) to Jordan; Ertharin Cousin, executive director of WFP; and Matthew Hollingworth, director for the WFP in Syria. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young, Katie Kerbstat) (OAD: 11/30/14 - includes an update)
- “TED Talks” – a report on TED (Technology, Entertainment, Design) Talks, an online lecture series that has become one of the Internet’s most popular and powerful platforms, utilizing the slogan, “Ideas Worth Spreading”. Includes interviews with the following people who have given TED talks: Bryan Stevenson, attorney; Jill Bolte Taylor, neurobiologist; Amy Cuddy, psychology professor at Harvard University; and Maysoon Zayid, comedian and cerebral palsy advocate. Also includes an interview with TED Curator, Chris Anderson. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Henry Schuster, Rachael Morehouse) (OAD: 04/19/15)
- “Back To The Wild” – a report on Damian Aspinall’s project to release once-captive gorillas back into the wild, specifically into a forest in Gabon, West Africa. The multimillionaire of Kent, England runs a conservation group, the Aspinall Foundation, and believes keeping animals locked up in a zoo is immoral. After attempting this experiment for a year, and just one month after placing the gorillas into the wild, they discovered five females and one child gorilla died, proving Aspinall’s critics correct: the wild is a not necessarily a place where it is safe for domesticated animals to roam. Includes interviews with: Damian Aspinall and Tara Stoinski, president of the Dian Fossey Gorilla Fund. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On, Alexandra Poolos) (OAD: 03/15/15)

- “The Unknown America” – an interview with famed deep sea explorer Robert Ballard as he works on his next project, “The Unknown America”. Ballard, credited with discovering the wreck of the Titanic, is currently exploring U.S. territorial waters with a keen interest in war wreckage. Aboard the Nautilus, a state-of-the-art ship for deep sea exploration, Ballard is mapping the journey and working with the Okeanos Explorer ship, operated by NOAA, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Also includes an interview with Larry Mayer, director of the Center for Coastal and Ocean Mapping at the University of New Hampshire. (See also: “The Great Explorer”, OAD: 11/29/09) (C: Lara Logan – P: Max McClellan) (OAD: 05/10/15 on a SPECIAL EDITION of “60 MINUTES”, 8:00 - 9:00p)
- 08/23/15      “A Crime Against Humanity” – a report on the August 2013 Sarin nerve gas attack on Syrian residents in the suburbs of Damascus which U.S. authorities estimate killed over 1,400 civilians, including many children. The rockets delivering the gas were types used by the Syrian army and launched from land held by the dictatorship under Syrian President Bashar al-Assad. No one has been held responsible. Includes interviews with: Kassem Eid, resident of Moadamiyah who shared video from the attack; Scott Cairns, chemist and lead inspector for the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons; and unidentified eyewitnesses of the attack. (See also: “Syria”, OAD: 09/15/13) (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young, Katie Kerbstat) (OAD: 04/19/15)
- “Senator Tom Coburn” – an interview / profile of Republican Senator Tom Coburn of Oklahoma, known as the “godfather of the Tea Party”. He announced earlier this year that he has prostate cancer and will be ending his term two years early. Coburn discusses the unlikely friendship he and President Barack Obama formed during their first year in the Senate together and how they have maintained it from different sides of the aisle. Also includes interviews with: Stephen Spaulding, Policy Counsel at Common Cause; and Carolyn Coburn, Tom Coburn’s wife. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Ira Rosen, Habiba Nosheen) (OAD: 12/21/14 - includes an update)
- “Misty Copeland” – an interview / profile of Misty Copeland, a solo ballerina with American Ballet Theatre (ABT), and one of ballet’s few African-American stars. Copeland overcame an underprivileged childhood in Gardena, California and a potentially career-ending injury with six stress fractures in her tibia to become one of the top classical dancers in the country. In 2014 the commercial she starred in for Under Armour went viral, garnering almost eight million views online. Also includes interviews with: Cindy Bradley, ballet instructor; and Kevin McKenzie, American Ballet Theatre director. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Patricia Shevlin) (OAD: 05/10/15 - includes an update)

08/30/15      "The Spy Among Us" – an interview / profile of Jack Barsky, a former spy for the Soviet Union's KGB, assigned to the United States during the last years of the Cold War, with the aim of infiltrating President Jimmy Carter's White House. Barsky, born Albrecht Dittrich in East Germany, was recruited by a Russian KGB agent. Failing at his original mission, he then worked at MetLife in IT, where he stole IBM source code for the Soviets. He also led a double life, with a wife and son in Germany and a wife and daughter in the United States. Recalled by the KGB in 1988, he made the decision to stay in the U.S. with his daughter. He lied to the KGB by telling them that he was dying of AIDS. He had another child, a son, and settled down with his family in Mount Bethel, Pennsylvania. The FBI started observing Barsky, and in May of 1997 had gathered enough evidence to question him. After the interrogation, the FBI concluded that his spy days were over and that he would be most useful in supplying information as to how the KGB operated. He now lives in upstate New York as director of software development for an undisclosed company that manages New York's high-voltage power grid. Also includes interviews with: Joe Reilly, former FBI agent; and Chelsea (last name not disclosed), Barsky's daughter. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Draggan Mihailovich) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 05/10/15)

"Li Na" – an interview / profile of the most successful Asian tennis player to date, Li Na of China. Li Na won two Grand Slam singles titles at the 2011 French Open and 2014 Australian Open, sparking a growth in the popularity of tennis in China and making her one of the most well-known athletes in the world. Revered by the youth of China for both her talent and her defiance of the unforgiving Chinese sports system, Li Na -- after multiple surgeries on her knees -- decided to retire at the age of thirty-two. Includes interviews with: Li Na (partly through translator); Jiang Shaan, aka Dennis, Li Na's husband; and Zhang Bendou, Chinese tennis writer. 48 HOURS

08/01/15      48 HOURS: "Murder in Pinyon Pines" (9:00 - 10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the triple murders and the long quest for justice for Vicki Friedli, her boyfriend Jon Hayward, and Vicki's daughter Becky Friedli. In 2006, in Pinyon Pines, California, Friedli and her boyfriend were shot dead and their house set on fire. Outside the home, investigators found the charred remains of Becky Friedli, in a wheelbarrow. She was burned so badly, they could not determine how she died. Retired policeman Ron Friedli, Vicki's ex-husband and Becky's father, had a theory about what happened: Becky was deathly afraid of fire and he suspected she knew her killer. Police searched for clues but the case went cold. Years later, Luis Bolanos, a private investigator and a former colleague of Ron's, asked if he could get involved; he said he could get the case back in the news. He did just that. Seven years after the murders, police arrested Becky's ex-boyfriend Robert Pape and his best friend Christian Smith and charged them with murder. Their families say they are innocent. But an unexpected courtroom twist turned the case upside down. The District Attorney said there was an "issue" in the grand jury proceedings against Pape, and dropped the charges against them both. However, it may not be completely over; the investigation continues. On-screen text graphic: A new DA was sworn in last week. He says he will review the case "with an open mind". Christian Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. On-screen text graphic for the 08/01/15 rebroadcast: A new DA was sworn in in January. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 08/01/15      48 HOURS: "Fall From Grace" (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the October 2012 death of Bethany Deaton -- whether her death was a suicide, the fundamentalist Christian religious group to which she belonged, her marriage to the group's leader, and the quest by her family for answers. Bethany Deaton was a young wife and nurse, whose lifeless body was found in the backseat of a minivan, in Grandview, Missouri -- a plastic bag over her head, a suicide note, and an empty pill bottle nearby. Deaton's mother believed it was not a suicide and that someone else had a hand in her daughter's death; possibly someone involved in the fundamentalist Christian religious group to which she belonged, and which some people likened to a cult. While in college, and devoted to religion, Bethany was drawn to Tyler Deaton, the leader of the group called "The Community", which was associated with the International House of Prayer (IHOP). Deaton told members what to wear, when to eat and even controlled their romantic relationships. One member says the group had become a full-blown cult. Bethany eventually married Tyler, but the marriage wasn't perfect. There were questions about Tyler's own sexuality; Bethany fell into a deep depression. Police did not believe Bethany killed herself. After the Medical Examiner ruled it a suicide, Micah Moore, another member of "The Community", told police that he had killed Bethany, and was subsequently charged with murder. The case was upended when he recanted his confession. Investigators were unable to substantiate his confession and just weeks before the trial was to begin, charges were dropped against Micah. Questions remained. Was Micah manipulated? Did Tyler have something to do with it? Tyler is ready to admit he played a role in her death, but to what end? Did Bethany really commit suicide, or was it murder, as her mother believes? On-screen text graphic: Tyler has filed a claim to Bethany's forty thousand dollar life insurance policy. He plans to pay back the Leidleins for the wedding. On-screen text graphic for the 08/01/15 rebroadcast: Bethany's parents are suing the DA for access to the evidence in her case. Tyler has said he planned to pay back the Leidleins for the wedding. He has not done so. Interviewed: Carol Leidlein (Bethany's mother); Tyler Deaton (her husband); Boze Herrington (friend of Tyler and Bethany); Teryn O'Brien (lifelong friend of Bethany's); Penny Cole and Ben Kenney (Jackson County Sheriff's Detectives); Melanie Morgan (Micah Moore's attorney); Eric Leidlein (Bethany's father). - 08/08/15      48 HOURS: "The Lost Daughter" (9:00 - 10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 1989 disappearance of college student Tiffany Sessions, a case which at the time generated one of the largest manhunts in the history of Florida -- and whether the Alachua County Sheriff's office has solved the mystery. What is known is that Tiffany Sessions left her home for her daily walk and never returned. A massive search was launched, driven in part by her father Pat Sessions, a marketing executive. It turned up nothing. In 2013, Alachua County Sheriff Sadie Darnell charged Detective Kevin Allen with the cold case investigation. Allen learned that three years after Sessions disappeared, Elizabeth Foster, another student, was found murdered and buried less than a mile away from where Sessions lived. Paul Rowles, the man convicted of killing Foster, denied having anything to do with the Sessions case. After his death in 2014, police found a phone book among his belongings, which included enough cryptic references to Sessions to name him a suspect in her disappearance and presumed murder. The Alachua County Sheriff's Office excavated an area where Foster was found, hoping to find a clue to Sessions' fate, but it produced no results. The belief of both the family and the sheriff's office is that Rowles murdered Sessions, even though they have not found her remains. On-Screen text graphic: Tiffany Sessions would be 45 years old. On-screen text graphic for the 08/08/15 rebroadcast: Tiffany Sessions would be 46 years old. Interviewed: Pat Sessions (father); Hillary Sessions (mother); Jason Sessions (half-brother); Kathleen Frezza (Tiffany's roommate); Jim Eckert (lead investigator); Wayne Black (private investigator); Sadie Darnell (Alachua County Sheriff); Kevin Allen (detective); Marshall Frank (retired detective); Dr. Michael Warren (forensic anthropologist). 08/08/15      48 HOURS: "The Ultimatum" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the murder of Vanessa Mintz, who was gunned down at the family-owned Saluda Mountain Lodge, in Saluda, North Carolina on Saturday, February 19, 2011. Mintz, whose family had long-standing ties to the area, had married early in life, divorced and raised two daughters, Jessica Freeman and Andrea Little Gray, as well as becoming a respected businesswoman, realtor and mentor to young girls. Police investigation at the lodge found a crucial piece of evidence only the killer could have left, but questions remained: did Mintz know her killer or was it a random robbery that went bad? The investigation took the case in another direction when police found out that her husband, Travis McGraw, was secretly dating Mary Beth Fisher. His cell phone records revealed he was sending intimate text messages to Fisher. Fisher claims McGraw had told her he wasn't married, and the relationship, though intimate, was not sexual. Fisher found out the truth and gave him an ultimatum -- make up your mind by Sunday. Mintz was shot dead on Saturday. Travis McGraw willingly turned over his cache of guns to police. One of his guns matched the cartridge found at the scene and he was arrested for murder. Mintz's daughters emerged as powerful advocates for their mother, and prosecutors, after consulting with them, offered a plea deal to McGraw: second-degree murder with a sentence of 16-20 years. He accepted, but at the last moment changed his mind about pleading guilty. Three years after the murder the trial began. McGraw was found guilty of first-degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Mary Beth Fisher and Vanessa's daughter Andrea work at the same hospital. They occasionally cross each other's paths. Travis McGraw is serving his life sentence under protective custody in a facility reserved for police and high profile prisoners. Interviewed: Carl Mintz (father); Jessica Freeman and Andrea Little Gray (Mintz's daughters); Willie McGraw (father of Travis McGraw); Marcia Blythe Cunningham (Mintz's friend); Heather Waldbart (mentoring student); Steve Modlin (Chief Investigator); Alex Bass (Prosecutor); Mary Beth Fisher (McGraw's girlfriend); Shane Greene (State Bureau of Investigation) (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Alec Sirken, Elena DiFiore, Michelle Feuer) (OAD: 01/10/15)

08/15/15      48 HOURS: "A Daughter, a Mortgage and Two Murders" - a followup to "The Mortgage and the Murder" (OAD: 11/22/08), a report on the investigation into the murders of Greg and Bernadette Ohlemacher in 2005. The Albuquerque, New Mexico couple had been shot dead in their home. Police immediately suspected their daughter, Renee, was involved. Family members also believed she knew more than she was telling and she was after the $1 million insurance policy. The investigation stalled. In 2006, mortgage loan processor Ron Santiago turned himself in to the Secret Service for a crime unrelated to the murders. Investigation led to a connection between Santiago and the Ohlemachers. A search of his home led to shell casings that matched those found at the Ohlemacher crime scene. Eight years of legal wrangling followed. Before the trial, the District Attorney's office asked Renee to take a polygraph test; results were inconclusive. The test would haunt prosecutors at trial when the jury was allowed to hear the results when she testified. Santiago was found not guilty. Family members still believe both Ron Santiago and Renee Olchmacher were involved in the crime. On-screen text graphic: Renee is working as a dog walker. The family dog "Sammy Jo," passed away a year after the murders. Ron Santiago lives in Albuquerque with his parents and is looking for a job. On-screen text graphic for the 08/15/15 followup: Albuquerque police say the case is now closed. They have no other leads or suspects. Renee is working for a dog walking business. The family dog, "Sammy Jo," passed away a year after the murders. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 08/22/15      48 HOURS: "Love, Hate & Obsession" (9:00 - 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the 2011 murder of one-time millionaire Lanny Horowitz, who was shot nine times while taking a shower in the bathroom of his upscale Jupiter, Florida home. Only three people were in the home at the time: Lanny Horowitz, his ex-wife Donna Horowitz, whom he had divorced twice, but had reconciled with, and his son, Radley, who also resided there. Both had strained relationships with Lanny. The investigation led investigators to the knowledge that theirs was a deeply troubled family. Both Radley, a former gun dealer, who also served a stint in prison, and his mother Donna, who was bothered by her ex-husband's close relationship with female business partner Francine Tice, were considered suspects. Eventually, Donna was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. At the trial, the defense ultimately blamed her son, Radley. The jury made a quick decision: Donna was guilty. Radley Horowitz has mixed feelings about her defense, but forgives her. On-screen text graphic: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. He left $200,000 to Francine Tice. Radley sued Francine for her share of the insurance payout. Francine settled for $90,000. As part of the settlement, both have agreed never to speak badly about each other publicly. EPILOGUE: Two years after her conviction, Donna Horowitz won her appeal for a new trial. The appellate judges said the prosecutor had made a mistake in her closing arguments. However, the final decision as to whether or not Donna Horowitz gets a new trial now rests with the Florida Supreme Court. On-screen text graphic for the 12/13/14 original broadcast; the 06/28/14 rebroadcast; and the updated 08/22/15 rebroadcast: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. - 08/22/15      48 HOURS: "Decades of Deceit" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 1989 murder of 16-year-old Amy Weidner, a young mother who was beaten, sexually assaulted and killed in the bedroom of her Indianapolis, Indiana home while she and Emily, her 2-year-old daughter, were home alone. Even though there was a bloody handprint on the bedroom wall, none of the leads led to an arrest and the case grew cold. In 2011, in response to a newspaper article about the case, the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Cold Case Unit called upon Detective Sgt. William Carter, a nuisance abatement officer, to help them to print pages from the "Remembering Amy Weidner" Facebook page. Carter became obsessed with the case, and on his own time, found a lead others had missed. After 24 years, this led to the eventual arrest of someone the family was familiar with: Rodney Denk. In 2012, Denk accepted a plea bargain and pled guilty to the murder and rape of Amy Weidner during a robbery gone bad. On-screen text graphic for 04/19/14 original broadcast and 08/22/15 rebroadcast: In January 2014, Bill Carter received the Indianapolis Police Department Award of Merit. Carter was offered the opportunity to join the homicide unit. He has decided to remain a nuisance abatement officer. On his own time, he is looking into another cold case of a murdered nineteen-year-old woman. Interviewed: Emily Weidner (daughter); Gloria Weidner (mother); Cassie Gardner (sister); Taunya Strauss (sister); John-Paul Weidner (brother); Jody George, (Weidner's teacher); Amy Somers, Angie Moore, and Joy Haney (Weidner's friends); Captain Jack Geilker, (former Indianapolis Police Department member, now with the Marion County Sheriff's Office); Lt. 60 MINUTES

- 09/06/15      "The Attack on SONY" -- a report on the cyberattack on Sony Pictures Entertainment's computer network by North Korea last November, and the cybersecurity questions for corporations going forward. The attack forced the company to immediately revert back to workplace practices used before the advent of the Internet. Sony declined 60 MINUTES request for interviews. Experts believe it will take a technological breakthrough in cyber warfare defense to fully secure computer networks. Includes interviews with: James Lewis, director at the Center for Strategic and International Studies; Kevin Mandia, president at FireEye, Inc.; Matt Zeitlin, business reporter at BuzzFeed.com; and Jon Miller, vice president at Cylance, Inc.. (C: Steve Kroft -- P: Graham Messick) (OAD: 04/12/15)
- "Cardinal Sean" -- an interview / profile of Cardinal Seán O'Malley, Pope Francis' closest American advisor, Archbishop of Boston and the head of the Roman Catholic Church's new commission to fight child sex abuse. Topics include: his work with the poor, immigration, what roles are available to women in the church, and the church's mishandling of child sex abuse. (C: Norah O'Donnell -- P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 11/16/14 - includes an update)
- "Mindfulness" -- a report on "mindfulness", a self-awareness meditation practice stemming from Buddhist roots which scientists say is healthy, but rarely achieved in today's world of digital distractions. 60 MINUTES' Anderson Cooper participated in a three-day retreat in northern California led by the founder of Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction, Jon Kabat-Zinn. Includes interviews with: Jon Kabat-Zinn, founder of Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR); Representative Tim Ryan (D-OH); Dr. Judson Brewer, psychiatrist and neuroscientist; Karen May, Google vice president; and Chade-Meng Tan, software engineer and motivator at Google. 60 MINUTES (continued)

- 09/13/15      "Iraq's Christians" – a report from Northern Iraq, where up to 125,000 Christians have been forced to flee from ISIS (ISIL) terrorist violence. Christian homes in Iraq's second largest city, Mosul, have been marked by ISIS with the Arabic letter 'N' for Nasara, an Islamic term for Christians, forcing its residents to either convert to Islam, pay an extortion tax, or be killed. Inhabitants of surrounding villages and towns across the region, known as the Nineveh Plains, have fled the area and are living as refugees in Erbil. Includes interviews with: Father Joseph Ibrahim, monk at Monastery of St. Matthew; Archbishop Nicodemus Sharaf, Archbishop of the Syriac Orthodox Church in Mosul; Issah Al Qurain (through translator), resident who had his house marked; and Archbishop Bashar Warda, Archbishop of Erbil. Also includes comments/footage of Brett Felton, an American veteran of the Iraq War and a man only identified as Khamis - both there to train and assist Christian volunteers. (C: Lara Logan – P: Max McClellan, Jeff Newton, Richard Butler) (OAD: 03/22/15)
- "The Shooting at Chardon High" – a report on the shooting on February 27, 2012 at Chardon High School in Chardon, Ohio that left three male students dead. The report focuses on Frank Hall, who was an assistant football coach at Chardon monitoring study hall that morning. Hall's actions of running towards the shooter to chase him out of the building saved an untold number of young lives. (The shooter's name is Thomas "T.J." Lane but the Chardon community asked 60 MINUTES to keep his name and face out of the segment.) Includes interviews with: Tim Armelli, Chardon teacher; Frank Hall, former Chardon assistant football coach and current coach at Lakeside High School and Frank's wife Ashley Hall; Chardon students Nick Walczak and Nate Mueller and Lakeside High School students Tyree Meeks and Damondre Haywood. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Robert G. Anderson) (OAD: 02/23/14 - includes an update)
- "The King of CrossFit" – an interview / profile of Greg Glassman, the creator of the CrossFit workout, a physical fitness program that mixes elements of weightlifting, calisthenics, and gymnastics. CrossFit has become the largest chain of gyms in history and a leading athletic brand through their partnership with Reebok. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Keith Sharman) (OAD: 05/10/15 on a SPECIAL EDITION of "60 MINUTES", 8:00 – 9:00p)
- 09/20/15      "President Rouhani" – an interview (through a translator) with the President of Iran, Hassan Rouhani. President Rouhani sat down with Steve Kroft in Tehran last week to discuss the controversial nuclear agreement between Iran and six countries: the United States, Russia, China, Britain, France, and Germany (P5 +1). Topics include: the years of mistrust between the U.S. and Iran that still exists; the prospects for a better relationship in the future, including economic cooperation; the possibility of a prisoner exchange for The Washington Post journalist Jason Rezaian; and Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei's harsh statements about America. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Michael Karzis)
- "Pope Francis" – a report on the security and logistics surrounding the pontiff's first visit to the U.S. next week, where he will make appearances in Washington, D.C., New York, and Philadelphia. Scott Pelley got a preview of what Americans can expect as he attended the crowded General Audience, held on Wednesdays in St. Peter's Square in Vatican City. Includes interviews with: Ken Hackett, U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See; David Yoder, photojournalist for National Geographic; Monsignor Guillermo Karcher, Argentinian priest and pontifical usher (through translator); Ignazio Marino, Mayor of Rome; Augusto Pellegrini, dean of papal ushers (through translator); and Urs Breitenmoser, sergeant in the Swiss Guard. Also includes comments by Pope Francis, some in English and some through a translator. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young, Sabina Castelfranco)
- "The Smartest Dog in the World" - a report on scientific investigation into the intelligence of dogs, focusing on John Pilley, a retired psychology professor, and his border collie, Chaser, who recognizes more than 1,000 words. Also interviewed are: Brian Hare, an evolutionary anthropologist at Duke University; Dr. Greg Berns, a physician and neuroscientist at Emory University, Atlanta, GA, who conducts brain scans on dogs. “President Putin” – an interview (through a translator) with the President of Russia, Vladimir Putin. President Putin invited Charlie Rose to meet him at his state residence outside of Moscow, ahead of his trip to the annual United Nations General Assembly this week. Topics include: Russia’s military presence in Syria and its support for President Bashar al-Assad; the battle against ISIS, al-Nusra, and other terrorist groups; conflict in Ukraine; and Putin’s feelings towards President Obama and the American people. Additionally, President Putin discusses being a former KGB agent and intelligence officer; his family; and the collapse of the USSR. (C: Charlie Rose – P: Andy Court) DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT

“Trump” – an interview with billionaire real-estate mogul and Republican Presidential candidate Donald Trump, who sat down with Scott Pelley last Tuesday in Manhattan. Topics include: his plan for taxes; immigration and the creation of a wall on the U.S. - Mexico border; breaking up the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) as a strategy to create new jobs for the middle class; repealing and replacing Obamacare with a new form of universal health care; Social Security reform; the media; and his family. (C: Scott Pelley – Robert G. Anderson, Aaron Weisz)

“The Greatest Escape” – a report on how the world’s most wanted man, Mexican drug lord Joaquin “El Chapo” Guzman, escaped from Altiplano Prison in Mexico on July 11, 2015. A construction crew from El Chapo’s Sinaloa Cartel dug a nearly-mile-long tunnel directly into the shower stall of his cell to help the prisoner escape -- for a second time. Includes interviews with: Jim Dinkins, retired Homeland Security Investigations, Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA); Chuck Rosenberg, acting chief of the DEA; and Joe DiMeglio, chief of the San Diego Tunnel Task Force. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Howard L. Rosenberg)

In addition, the following 2 segments were seen on a special WEST COAST ONLY 2-hour broadcast:

WEST COAST ONLY - “DARPA Dan” - a report on the U.S. military’s Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) and their efforts to maintain America’s military technological superiority, with the highest effort on securing the Internet, which they are credited with helping to create. Dan Kaufman, former video game developer and “Medal of Honor” series creator, heads its software unit and discussed: cyber warfare program Plan X; dark web navigator Memex and how it helps to combat terrorists like ISIS (ISIL); and the hacking vulnerability of devices (phones, cars, etc.) that are connected to the Internet of Things (IoT), with DARPA’s research focused on inventing unhackable code for military drones. Includes interviews with: Dan Kaufman, Director of the Information Innovation Office for DARPA; Christopher White, DARPA Program Manager/inventor of Memex; and Cyrus Vance Jr., Manhattan District Attorney. Also includes comments by: Kathleen Fisher, DARPA Project Manager; and DARPA researchers Carl and Patrick (last names not given). 48 HOURS: "Perilous Journey" (9:00 – 10:00p) - an investigation into the sometimes questionable practices in the business of international adoptions; the lengths some families will go to in order to bring children home to the United States; and how some overseas facilitators walk a fine line between adoption and child trafficking. This broadcast focuses on (1) Ryan and Jeri Lynn Owen's journey to the Democratic Republic of Congo, the questionable practices of the adoption agency Celebrate Children International (CCI), they had chosen, and their ultimate success in adopting their children Ava and Zoey. (2) The story of Betsy Emanuel and her attempt to adopt a child from Guatemala, through the same international adoption agency, CCI. This ultimately led to the discovery of Guatemalan children being in effect abducted for adoption. Emanuel travels to Guatemala to meet a mother whom Emanuel helped to reunite with the children who were taken from her and placed for adoption. (3) The practices of the international adoption agency Celebrate Children International, a small Florida agency, run by Sue Hedberg. Epilogue: Ava and Zoey have been here in the U.S. for two years now and are thriving. They remember Congo as a place of hurt and do not want to go back. On-Screen Text Graphic: 3 months after the Owens left Congo, local officials suspended all new adoptions. Just Last November Ava and Zoey's orphanage was destroyed in a fire. No children were injured. If CCI is not Hague-accredited by July, it will no longer be able to initiate international adoptions. On-screen text graphic for the 09/05/15 rebroadcast: Three months after the Owens Left Congo, local officials suspended all adoptions. CCI, denied accreditation, is no longer allowed to initiate international adoptions. They're permitted to finalize adoptions already in progress. Florida authorities say they do not plan to relicense CCI after June 2016. Interviewed: adoptive parents/CCI clients Ryan and Jeri Lynn Owen; adoptive parent/CCI client Betsy Emanuel; satisfied CCI client Sarah Grandstaff; Guatemalan mother Mildred Alvarado; investigative reporter/CBS News Consultant Erin Siegal; State Department Special Representative Susan Jacobs; adoption consultant Duni Zenaye; Congolese orphanage operator Elizabeth Fochive; Congolese attorney Jean-Baptiste Kombo; Sue Hedberg, operator of the agency Celebrate Children International. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/05/15      48 HOURS: “The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld” (10:00 – 11:00p) – An updated rebroadcast of the report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff’s Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige’s friends and family were far more suspicious of the children’s father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige’s car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige’s secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. On-screen text graphic: Paige Birgfeld’s parents sought custody of her children, but the courts ruled they would remain with their father, Rob Dixon. The investigation is continuing into the disappearance of Paige Birgfeld. 09/05/15 UPDATE: In 2007, five years after Paige went missing there was a break in the case: a hiker came across human remains which police eventually identified as Paige. Although the evidence is still circumstantial, Chief Deputy DA Dan Rubenstein, who is now heading the investigation, believes he has enough to make a case against Lester Ralph Jones. In 2014, Lester Ralph Jones was arrested and charged with her murder and kidnapping. Now, prosecutors must prove he killed her. On-screen text graphic for the 09/05/15 updated rebroadcast: Paige’s three children are living with their father on the east coast. Lester Ralph Jones’ trial is expected to begin in early 2016. (Original Correspondent: Harold Dow; Correspondent for the 09/05/15 Updated Rebroadcast: Erin Moriarty – Original Producers: Loen Kelley, Sara Ely Hulse, Ira Sutow; Producers for the 09/05/15 Updated Rebroadcast: Tom Seligson, Sara Ely Hulse, Lindsey Gutterman) (OAD: 06/10/08 as 48 HOURS VANISHED: “The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld”; 1st Rebroadcast: 02/28/09 as a 48 HOURS MYSTERY, which included a brief updated text graphic at the conclusion. 2nd Rebroadcast: 03/27/10 as 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld”)
- 09/12/15      48 HOURS: “Death on the Hudson” – a report on the case against Angelika Graswald, who has been charged with killing her fiancé Vincent Viafore, during a kayaking trip on the Hudson River in April 2015. New information and evidence may prove there was no murder. Ten days after Viafore’s death, Graswald was questioned by police for approximately 11 hours, then arrested for murder in the second degree. Investigators maintain Graswald killed Viafore for financial gain after their relationship soured. Her defense team argues his death was a boating accident. The case is examined through interviews with legal experts, friends of the couple and an examination of key evidence in the case. On-screen text graphic: Angelika has been in jail for more than four months. Her trial is expected in Spring 2016. Angelika’s family says they are giving their life savings to help pay for her defense. Interviewed: Amanda Hoysradt (Viafore’s former roommate); Sheri Parte (friend of Graswald’s); Monte Nesheiwat (Sheri Parte’s boyfriend); Michael Colin (Graswald’s former boyfriend); Buddy Behney (kayaker); Jeff Schaack (Cornwell Yacht Club Commodore); Michael Archer (defense expert); Jeff Chartier (defense attorney); Richard Portale (lead defense attorney); Jim Tranium (former detective/interrogation expert) (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Patti Aronofsky, Lourdes Aguiar, Elena DiFiore)

- 09/19/15      48 HOURS: "Dangerous Games" - a report on the events that led to the 2012 death of Lizzi Marriott, a 19-year-old New Hampshire woman lured into the dark world of BDSM (bondage, discipline, and sadomasochism) and who twice refused to take part in bondage and S&M sex with her co-worker Kat McDonough and her boyfriend Seth Mazzaglia. Marriott accepted an invitation from McDonough to hang out with her and her boyfriend and watch a movie -- and she never returned home. Mazzaglia used McDonough to bring other women into their relationship for his pleasure -- and that, for him, involved ropes and bondage gear, a fantasy brought into the mainstream by the book series and current motion picture, "Fifty Shades of Grey". Police investigation led to Mazzaglia and McDonough. During interrogation, Mazzaglia said Marriott died accidentally during a BDSM encounter. McDonough told police Marriott was never there, but later, in a plea deal, changed her story. She said Mazzaglia killed Marriott when, after playing strip poker, she twice turned down his requests to initiate sex. After Marriott's death, they disposed of her body in the ocean. At Mazzaglia's 2014 trial, McDonough's testimony was critical. Ultimately, Mazzaglia was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life without parole. On-screen text graphic: Lizzi's family has set up a scholarship in her memory, The Lizzi Marriott Intrepid Ocean Explorer Fund. Kat McDonough will be released from prison in July, 2016. Interviewed: Bob and Melissa Marriott (parents); Becki and Tony Hanna (Marriott's aunt and uncle); Nate McNeal (Marriott's friend); Catherine (no last name given, ex-girlfriend of Mazzaglia); Rod Doherty (former Foster Daily Democrat Executive Editor); Richard DiMario (McDonough friend); Andrew Cotrupi (McDonough attorney). (C: Troy Roberts - P: Sarah Prior, Sara Ely Hulse) (OAD: 02/14/15)
- 09/26/15      48 HOURS: "Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections" (9:00-10:00p) - the first hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes ("Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil", 10:00 - 11:00p), into the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham. Included is evidence that links the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women; and a report on the life of Jesse Matthew, the man who is allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. This hour concentrates on Graham's disappearance, the national attention the case garnered, the social media aspects of the case and the subsequent connections between the disappearances and deaths of Morgan Harrington, Trina Murphy and an attempted rape of another young woman. Graham's mysterious disappearance spread far beyond the Charlottesville, Virginia area in the days following her disappearance, reminding people of the death five years earlier of Morgan Harrington, a Virginia Tech student in 2009. Her case became one of the first to use social media as a crime-fighting tool. After her body was found, clothing was recovered which contained unknown DNA which was eventually linked to the 2005 assault of another woman in Fairfax, Virginia. Still there were no answers. In 2013, when 17-year-old Alexis Murphy disappeared, Morgan Harrington's parents reached out to the family. Alexis Murphy's body was never found, but DNA evidence linked Randy Taylor to the crime; he was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. Now, the families have joined together to help the Graham family through their ordeal and the search for Hannah. Ultimately, police think they have a suspect: Jesse Leroy Matthew, Jr.. (No on-screen text graphic.) Interviewed: Neal Augenstein (WTOP Radio reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Laura French (WTVR reporter/48 HOURS consultant); John Graham (father); Craig Maniglia (Graham's coach); Leila Nasser (Graham's friend); Lloyd Snook (attorney); Gil and Dan Harrington (Morgan Harrington's parents); Lindsey Crisp (Harrington's friend); Michael Boone (detective); Mark Castro (witness); Trina and Laura Murphy (mother and aunt of Alexis Murphy); William Haith (Jesse Matthew's acquaintance); Jesse Matthew, Sr. (father of suspect); Lee Vandell (Matthew's landlady). 48 HOURS (continued)

48 HOURS: "Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil" (10:00-11:00p) - the second hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes ("Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections", 9:00-10:00p), detailing the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham, and the evidence that linked the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women (Morgan Harrington, Alexis Murphy, and an unidentified rape victim). This hour concentrates on Jesse Matthew, the man who was allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. Other crimes in Virginia, in which he became a suspect, are also detailed. Matthew fled from police and was located in Galveston, Texas. He does not cooperate. Thirty-five days after Graham's disappearance, her body was found. The site is close to where Morgan Harrington's body was found, near Matthew's childhood home. The challenge now is to build a case against Jesse Matthew. Meanwhile, a detective believes Matthew could be the suspect in an unsolved rape case in Fairfax, Virginia. A DNA test is taken; it is a match and that DNA is also a match to unknown DNA from the Morgan Harrington case. Matthew is indicted and will stand trial for attempted capital murder and sexual assault in the rape case. Prosecutors are still building the Graham case. Questions are also raised to a connection in the Alexis Murphy case; no link has been found. In early 2015, the rape trial begins. The victim (identified only as R.G.) returns from Asia to testify. As the defense portion of the trial is about to begin, Matthew takes an Alford plea (a kind of guilty plea where the defendant admits guilt, but does not admit to committing the crime). Then, Matthew is handed an indictment for first degree murder in the Morgan Harrington case. The Graham trial is scheduled to begin next summer. No date has been set for the Harrington trial. On-screen text graphic: Jesse Matthew will be sentenced in the Fairfax rape case on October 2, 2015. Matthew's trial for the murder of Hannah Graham is scheduled for July 5, 2016. If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 19 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. Interviewed: Neal Augenstein (WTOP Radio reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Laura French (WTVR reporter/48 HOURS consultant); John Graham (father); Craig Maniglia (Graham's coach); Leila Nasser (Graham's friend); Lloyd Snook (attorney); Gil and Dan Harrington (Morgan Harrington's parents); Lindsey Crisp (Harrington's friend); Michael Boone (detective); Mark Castro (witness); Trina Murphy (mother and aunt of Alexis Murphy); Roy Murrough (Commonwealth attorney); Allen Qiu (Graham's friend). ### UPCOMING LOCALLY SPONSORABLE SPECIALS (JUNE – SEPTEMBER 2015)

For your programming and sales planning, here is a rundown of the free, locally sponsorable specials that are expected to be provided to you throughout the Summer.

These specials can have multiple runs in local time periods within their broadcast windows. Stations must run the program content as provided, but can fill the local breaks at their discretion with commercials, promos and/or PSAs. These specials will be available in stereo, HD, 16:9 and 4:3 title safe. They will have pulled up commercial blacks and be closed captioned.

Please note that the following information is subject to change.

AT THE TONYS WITH DANA TYLER (30 minutes)

This annual special produced by WCBS-TV New York ties into the Network's broadcast of the 69th annual Tony Awards on Sunday, June 7, which will be hosted by Tony Award Winners Kristin Chenoweth and Alan Cumming. Emmy Award-winning CBS 2 News/NY anchor Dana Tyler once again hosts AT THE TONYS, which spotlights this year's leading Tony Award nominees. In addition to interviews with the actors and actresses nominated in the musical and play categories, there will be highlights from the nominated productions.

The broadcast window will be issued with full details later this week. The format is expected to be the same as last year's special.

ALEX SCOTT: A STAND FOR HOPE 2015 (30 minutes)

This updated edition of the award-winning documentary produced by KYW-TV Philadelphia tells the story of Alex Scott, a cancer-stricken little girl who had the idea to start a lemonade stand that would help all children with cancer. The charity founded in her name now funds childhood cancer research efforts across the U.S. Lemonade stands are held all over the world in her honor. This is now the 11th year of National Lemonade Days, an annual June tradition that raises over $1 million for childhood cancer research through thousands of stands and activities. For more about the Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation, including the organization's corporate partners and tie-in events being held nationwide, please visit their website: <http://www.alexslimonade.org/>.

The broadcast window for this special (along with additional information) will be sent in early June. The format is expected to be the same as last year's special.

2014 PGA CHAMPIONSHIP HIGHLIGHTS (60 minutes)

This annual one-hour special produced by IMG Media will once again provide an in-depth look at the prior year's PGA Championship. Rory McIlroy's 1-shot come-from-behind victory (in near darkness) will be chronicled, along with interviews of key players. The broadcast window for this special (along with additional information) will be sent in early June. The format is expected to be the same as last year's special.

2015 CBS FALL PREVIEW (30 minutes)

The annual look ahead to the new primetime season on CBS will focus on the Network's new series for Fall 2015. Additional content details and the host(s) are TBD. The broadcast window is also TBD, but it usually starts after the special airs on the Network and concludes at the end of the first week of the new season (the week of Monday, 9/21/15). More information will be provided this Summer.

Additional details for these four specials, including closed circuit feed times, will be provided as soon as the information is available.

Closed Captioning - 2015-16 Season

Closed-Captioning

For deaf and hearing-impaired viewers, the CBS Television Network captions on average 100 hours a week of its regularly scheduled network programming. CBS has long been an industry leader and innovator in the field of captioning. Closed-captioned CBS Network programming includes:

The entire CBS primetime lineup is captioned, including all regularly scheduled series, specials, movies and mini-series.

CBS captions 60 MINUTES, 48 HOURS, the CBS EVENING NEWS with SCOTT PELLE, the Weekend Editions of the CBS EVENING NEWS, the Monday thru Friday and Saturday Editions of CBS THIS MORNING, CBS SUNDAY MORNING with CHARLES OSGOOD, CBS MORNING NEWS, CBS OVERNIGHT NEWS and FACE THE NATION, as well as CBS News Specials, CBS News Special Reports and breaking-news coverage. In addition, by updating captioning to Central, Mountain and Pacific time-zone broadcasts on an as-needed basis, CBS News ensures that all its viewers have equal access as required by the FCC.

One hundred percent of CBS Sports programming is captioned, including the entire NFL schedule plus SUPER BOWL 50 on Sunday, Feb. 7, 2016, when the event celebrates its golden anniversary at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., and the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship.

All children's programming on CBS is captioned, as is all daytime programming – THE PRICE IS RIGHT, THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS, THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL, THE TALK and LET'S MAKE A DEAL.

The LATE SHOW WITH STEPHEN COLBERT and THE LATE LATE SHOW WITH JAMES CORDEN are also captioned, as are religious specials.

FCC regulations which were effective Jan. 1, 1998, mandated that 100 percent of new nonexempt programming must be closed-captioned by Jan. 1, 2006. The CBS Television Network has been in full compliance with the 100 percent mandate since the mid 1990's, well ahead of the requirements of these regulations.

With the addition of closed captioning to the CBS OVERNIGHT NEWS, effective with the September 21, 2015 broadcast premiere date, 100% of our programs which are exempt from the FCC's closed captioning regulations are also voluntarily closed captioned.

CBS is also in full compliance with FCC regulations requiring Internet closed-captioning for programs published or exhibited on television with captions. CBS provides closed captions for Internet viewing of all full-length episodes of the Network's programming, including all of CBS primetime, daytime and late night programming, full episodes of CBS News programs, full broadcasts of CBS Sports programs and religious specials.

For more information on closed-captioning, call the CBS Captioning and Video Description Department at (212) 975-7917.

C. Syndicated:

1. Ag Day 5:00am-5:30am, Monday-Friday, the latest agriculture news related to farm policy, market trends, weather and events and human interest stories throughout farm country.

2. Dr. Phil, 3:00pm-4:00pm, Monday-Friday, makes psychology accessible and understandable to the general public by addressing important personal and social issues. Using the program as a teaching tool, he takes aim at the critical issues of our time, including the “silent epidemics” of bullying, drug abuse, domestic violence, depression, child abuse, suicide, and various forms of severe mental illness.

3. Storm Stories, aired at various days and times during the quarter. Storm Stories is a non-fiction television series that aired on The Weather Channel (TWC) and Zone Reality. It is hosted and narrated by meteorologist and storm tracker Jim Cantore. Storm Stories showcases various types of severe weather, such as tornadoes, hurricanes, and blizzards. Each episode features a famous severe storm, and survivors of it sharing their experiences. The program also features footage of the storm if it is available, but typically a re-enactment is used instead. The video of the storm is often shown while the survivors offer their accounts of it.

4. US Farm Report, 6:00am-7:00am, Sunday, agriculture business experts, meteorologists and correspondents report on the latest news and human interest stories that affect America's farmers.

5. Judge Judy, 4:00pm-5:00pm, Monday-Friday, a former New York Family Court judge known for her ability to cut through a dispute and get to the core of the emotional issue at hand, Judge Judy acts as a true moral compass for people seeking guidance, resolution and a little common sense in their often complicated lives.

6. Osiyo! Voices of the Cherokee People Sundays at 7:30am. Description: Stories about the people, history and culture of the Cherokee Nation. Hosted by Jennifer Loren. The Cherokee Nation is the federally recognized government of the Cherokee people and has inherent sovereign status recognized by treaty and law. For generations, Cherokee people have overcome adversity and excelled. Since the time Sequoyah established the syllabary to the building of a modern-day government, much knowledge has been preserved to ensure the Cherokee people move forward. Cherokee culture is rooted deep in the hearts of Cherokee elders and is passed on from generation to generation. Eye-catching art and voices of storytelling share Cherokee history and culture throughout the Cherokee Nation. The Cherokee Nation government operates near Tahlequah, Oklahoma, the capital of the Cherokee Nation. The tribe is investing millions of dollars to improve access to quality health care for its citizens. Cherokee Nation has reestablished its home building program, which provides Cherokee families the foundation for success. These are just a few services offered by the tribe that give families reassurance and hope for a prosperous future. With more than 300,000 citizens, 9,000 employees and a variety of tribal enterprises ranging from aerospace and defense contracts to entertainment venues, Cherokee Nation is one of the largest employers in northeast Oklahoma and the largest tribal nation in the United States.

MONDAY

July 6 – Show #13120RR (TV 14 (L)(S)(D))

“I’ve Divorced My Ex Twice, but I’m Still in Love”

Gwen says she has married and divorced Derrick twice – but she would consider a third trip down the aisle if he could just get some help and fess up to his mistakes. Derrick says Gwen is a “vindictive, sadistic succubus” who is out to ruin his life – but if she could stop being that way, he’d love to be a family again. With three children caught in the middle, does this couple have a future as spouses – or as co-parents only?

TUESDAY

July 7 – Show #13124RR (TV 14 (L))

“Falsely Accused of Murder and Now My Life is Spiraling out of Control”

Kezia says she is desperate to get help for her daughter, Derica, 27, who she says has spiraled out of control since witnessing her best friend’s murder nearly a year ago -- and then being wrongly accused of the crime. Derica says even though the charges were dropped, she has struggled to cope and turned to drugs. Now, with a baby on the way, can she get her life back on track?

WEDNESDAY

“Bob and Dorothy Return: ‘Should I Divorce My Wife for Harassing Me?’”

When Bob and Dorothy(link: <http://www.drphil.com/shows/show/2184>) last appeared on Dr. Phil, the quarreling couple agreed to tone down the cursing, screaming, hitting and accusations -- which they confessed happened frequently in front of their 12-year-old daughter. Now, they’re back – and admittedly worse than ever. Can these two finally calm the chaos?

THURSDAY

Ann Marie and Jackie say their sister, Colleen, lives in a world of make-believe where she constantly plays the victim and lies for money and attention. They say she once even paid a homeless man to try to kill her, so they would think she was dead. How does Colleen explain her behavior?

FRIDAY

July 10 – Show #13089RR (TV PG (L))

“Shocking Viral Video: Teen Says, ‘If Your Boyfriend Hits You, It’s a Sign of Love’”

Video blogger Romina, 18, sparked outcry when she posted a video telling girls that if a man hits a woman, it’s a “sign of love.” Can Dr. Phil help open her eyes to the danger of that mindset? Plus, Jessica made headlines after she accused an ex-boyfriend of being an abuser, stalker and arsonist – then admitted she fabricated evidence. After spending a year behind bars, she speaks out.

Gwen says she has married and divorced Derrick twice -- but she would take a third trip down the aisle if he would just get some help and fess up to his mistakes. Gwen claims that while married, Derrick hit her, stole from her, disappeared for months at a time and missed the birth of their child, among other offenses. Derrick says Gwen is "crazy" and a "vindictive, sadistic succubus" who is out to ruin his life -- but if she could stop being that way, he'd love to be a family again. What does Gwen say she found on Derrick's phone that she calls deeply disturbing? And, why would she still consider giving him another chance? Concerned for the children caught in the middle of the dysfunction, Dr. Phil combs through the accusations from each side. Does this couple have a future together as spouses -- or as co-parents only? Kezia says she is desperate to get help for her 27-year-old daughter, Derica, who she says has spiraled out of control since witnessing her best friend's murder nearly a year ago -- and then being wrongly accused of the crime. Derica says even though the charges were dropped, she has struggled to cope with the backlash in her hometown, and she admits she turned to drugs to escape reality. But now, Derica says she has been clean for five weeks, since learning she is pregnant -- although she admits she still smokes cigarettes. Emotions run high when Dr. Phil sits down with Derica, Kezia, and Derica's younger sister, Tristin. Can Derica get her life back on track? Tristin says Derica's dangerous behavior started long before the murder and claims their mother is a big part of the problem -- is she enabling Derica? Dr. Phil has some tough questions for Kezia -- and a sobering wake-up call for Derica about the effects smoking can have on an unborn child. Will it make an impact and help her stay clean? Can this family come together to help Derica heal and move forward? (Original airdate: 4/1/15)

Eighteen-year-old video blogger Romina sparked outrage after she made a video telling her many social media followers that if their boyfriend hits them, it's a "sign of love." Romina says she's a role model to her 153,000 fans -- but does she realize the danger of the message she's sending? And, after hearing a domestic violence survivor's harrowing story, will she change her mind? Plus, Jessica, 26, made headlines in 2011 when she accused an ex-boyfriend of abusing her, stalking her and even setting fire to her mother's house. But then, Jessica admitted she fabricated evidence, including letters and phone calls, and even confessed to starting the fire -- though she now claims her confession was coerced. After spending a year behind bars for public mischief and criminal harassment, Jessica is speaking out. Did she set her house on fire? And, why would she lie to police? Plus, while in prison, Jessica says she fell in love with a convicted torturer, who is currently serving an indefinite sentence. How does she say her mother, Barb, facilitated the romance -- and why? And, can Jessica learn to make better choices in men? (Original airdate: 1/28/15)

"I Married My Sister's Boyfriend, and It's Time She Moves On" Show #13032 (TV 14 (L)(S)(D))

<http://drphil.com/assets/e/e2ca6dcdfc303429993f226a243c3a77.jpg>

Amber admits she made a mistake several years ago when she had an affair with Brian, her sister, Angel's, then-boyfriend and father of their two children, and became pregnant. But she says she and Brian are now happily married – with two children and another on the way – and she believes Angel needs to let go of her anger once and for all for the sake of their family. Angel admits her relationship with Brian was rocky at the time, but she claims Amber took advantage by seducing Brian – and she feels Amber hasn't properly apologized for what happened. Tension runs high when the sisters confront each other on Dr. Phil's stage. Can Angel finally forgive her sister? And can the three adults learn to peacefully co-parent the kids who are caught in the middle? Then, Dr. Phil sits down with best friends Megan and Jenn who admit that their looks define who they are – but they're still not confident. What's driving their insecurities? Hear Dr. Phil's advice to these women. Can they learn to boost their self-esteem from within?

<http://drphil.com/assets/a/a131b4f1501b6789e4262774fb86078e.jpg>

In July 2013, 11-year-old Terry "Juju" Smith Jr. was found dead in a shallow grave near his home in California -- just days after he was alone with his then 16-year-old half-brother, Skylor, who later admitted to killing the boy. Their mother, Shawna, insists Juju's death was an accident and vehemently denies accusations that she helped cover up the crime. Dr. Phil brings Juju's parents together in search of answers. What happened to Juju? And, why does Juju's father, Terry Sr., believe Shawna should be held liable? Shawna claims her ex-husband is trying to capitalize on their son's death and rehash issues from their bitter divorce by suing her for gross negligence -- how does he respond? Plus, hear a letter from Skylor, who is currently serving up to six years in a juvenile facility. Find out why he says he's not "a monster."

"Stun Gun, Plastic Ties and Metal Handcuffs: 'My Husband is Accused of Serial Rape'" Show #12103 (TV 14 (L)(S)(D))

<http://drphil.com/assets/5/5f3e995efe2891b0085184ddd4417f9c.jpg>

Kari says her life changed forever when Lonnie, her husband of 15 years, was arrested in 2013 and accused of being a serial rapist. She says investigators found several items in Lonnie's car, including a stun gun, handcuffs, syringes and prescription drug vials -- some of which Kari says she also found around her home. Lonnie ultimately pleaded guilty to one count of forceful rape, along with three felony counts of kidnapping, and has been sentenced to 26 years in prison. How does Kari say Lonnie reacted when she confronted him? And, looking back, were there any red flags she might have missed? Plus, Kari says she blames herself for what happened and is struggling to remain strong for her four children. Dr. Phil calls on crisis expert Judy Smith for help. How can this family move forward?

<http://drphil.com/assets/f/fea3173450e68991b38d57f34b22d790.jpg>

Melisa claims her estranged husband, Chris, is a pathological liar who lies about anything and everything -- from small things, like what he had for lunch, to more elaborate lies, like posing as an airline pilot making $500,000 a year so he could view a luxury home. She says during their five years together, Chris also has struggled to hold a job, and she claims he has resorted to stealing money from her. Melisa and Chris currently are separated, but with a young child and another baby on the way, Melisa says she's desperate to make things work. Chris admits he has a problem with telling the truth and insists he wants to change -- but is that just another lie? Dr. Phil sits down with Melisa and Chris in search of a resolution. What's at the root of Chris' behavior? Chris' father, Steve, says his son has been lying since he was a child. Has Steve been enabling his son's behavior? And, should Melisa and Chris work on their relationship or call it quits? (Original airdate: 3/30/15)

<http://drphil.com/assets/0/0c4002c3d670ce9603c844e1748b7c93.jpg>

Alyssa and Steve say their daughter, Paige, had a promising future until she turned 18 and met Brandon, who they believe taught her how to shoot black tar heroin and led her down a dark and dangerous path. The parents say Paige, 21, is now a full-fledged addict, living with Brandon, 27, in a motel, working as a "sugar baby" to get money for drugs and shooting up several times a day. They say she has failed nine attempts at rehab and sobriety and has overdosed 16 times -- and they fear they could lose her forever. Alyssa and Steve say they've tried to get Paige away from her controlling "loser" boyfriend, but she always runs back to him and starts using again. Are Alyssa and Steve enabling their daughter's dangerous lifestyle? And, will Paige and Brandon accept Dr. Phil's help - and his one big condition? (Original airdate: 2/5/15)

(TV 14 (L)(S)(D))

<http://drphil.com/assets/b/b510d2aa58715b722b52a18be0676a7c.jpg>

Steve, 53, says in the past 29 months, he has sent more than $100,000 to "Kelly," his overseas "wife" whom he met on a dating website in 2012. Steve says "Kelly" is an American woman stuck in Nigeria trying to secure a $25 million fortune left to her by her parents. He admits she is also one of several clients who say they have large inheritances pending that he is trying to help -- deals Steve believes will make him millions. Despite never meeting "Kelly" in person and only talking to her on the phone a few times, Steve insists they are a "match made in heaven" -- which is why he sent her money for a marriage certificate. But Steve's sister and niece say they believe he is being scammed, and they want him to cut ties with "Kelly" -- and his other so-called clients. Dr. Phil digs deep in search of answers. Is "Kelly" really the woman of Steve's dreams, or is he being conned by a catfish? And, Steve has spent more than $135,000 so far on all of his clients -- is he ready to call it quits? <http://drphil.com/assets/9/9d572b0999cf1519b20ddcd68bbac99d.jpg>

Whitney and her ex-boyfriend, Todd, are embroiled in a bitter custody battle over their 4-year-old daughter. Whitney claims Todd is an unfit father who is addicted to drugs. She also accuses Todd of teaching their daughter to crush her candy just like she claims he crushes his prescription pills before snorting them -- and she says she has video proof. Todd admits he once snorted anxiety pills when he was running low during a supervised visit with his daughter, but he insists it didn't happen in front of the child and denies being a drug addict. Todd says he's a good father and claims Whitney is keeping their daughter from him out of spite because he cheated on her when she was pregnant. Dr. Phil brings the embattled exes together, alongside their families, in search of a peaceful resolution. Can they put their differences aside and move forward in the best interests of the child? Amber, 24, says her mother, Julie, failed her as a parent, and she wants an apology for what she claims were years of verbal, emotional and physical abuse. Amber claims that when she was between the ages of 7 and 14, her mother slapped her, punched her and threw items at her several times a week. Julie completely denies ever laying a hand on her daughter, except in self-defense, and says she doesn't understand why Amber recently cut her out of her life. She says Amber has always been dramatic, and she claims their problems started when Amber falsely accused her father of the unthinkable. Dr. Phil brings Amber and her mother together in hopes of a resolution. Is there a chance at fostering peace? Kim's 50-year-old sister, Julie, disappeared without a trace in May 2012, and Kim says she is convinced Julie's husband of seven years, Cregg, killed her in a fit of rage -- which he vehemently denies. Why does Kim say she fears the worst for her sister? Cregg insists he had nothing to do with his wife's disappearance and says he is tired of her family falsely accusing him. Tensions run high when Kim sits down with Dr. Phil alongside her sister-in-law, Jill, who also feels Cregg is hiding something. But Cregg refuses to join them and speaks to Dr. Phil only after Kim and Jill leave the stage. What does Cregg say happened the day Julie disappeared? And, why did he wait 10 days to report her missing? Cregg says he believes his wife is still alive, and he accuses her ex-husband, Steven, of being involved in her disappearance -- but Steven points the finger right back at Cregg. What happened to Julie? Then, in 2013, the partial remains of 14-year-old Dylan Redwine (link: <http://drphil.com/shows/show/1990>) were found near his father, Mark's, Colorado home - a few months after Mark and his ex-wife, Elaine, appeared on the show. Carie says her mother, Diane, was once a successful jewelry store owner who lived the high life in Las Vegas, but she gambled away $2.5 million and now lives in an RV -- and she blames Carie for her troubles. Carie says she has tried to help her mother get back on her feet and even gave her a car -- which she says Diane thumbed her nose at -- and she’s fed up with her mother’s mooching and manipulating. Diane says her daughter should want to help her, because she provided her with a lavish lifestyle growing up. She also claims Carie left her high and dry when she needed her most, and she wants an apology. Dr. Phil reunites mother and daughter for the first time in more than a year. Did Carie turn her back on her mom, or is Diane lacking accountability? Don’t miss Dr. Phil’s advice for mother and daughter. Can they make amends and move forward in peace? Agriculture, Economy, Farm Show	E Station involvement in community	7.17.15-7.19.15	7:30am-3pm daily	$1,000	To show its support of agriculture in the 4-State area the station participated in the 3-day 4-State Farm Show held near Pittsburg, KS, providing free cool rags and hand fans for visitors. Held each July, the Four State Farm Show brings thousands of farmers and ranchers to a 300-acre farm near Pittsburg, Kan., for three days of agricultural product displays and equipment demonstrations. With approximately 700 exhibits, the event features all of the major lines of farm machinery and equipment as well as innovative products from agribusiness firms across the country. The 25-acre Farm Show site will over-flow with a vast array of farm equipment, seed, feed, agri-chemicals, livestock, farm buildings, grain bins, livestock handling equipment, tires, tools, trailers and much more. The tremendous range of agriculturally-related goods and services annually provides farmers and stockmen with a unique opportunity to shop and compare in one location. In addition to acre after acre of farm implements and other agricultural items, the Four State Farm Show is a great place to see equipment in action. Forge producers will have an opportunity to compare big round balers, mowers, rakes and other bale handling equipment operating under field conditions in the Show's Hay Demonstrations each afternoon. For 2012 the Four State Farm Show will be giving away $500 each day at the end of the Hay Demo. This money can be applied to the equipment purchase from any company in the Hay Demo, or applied to an account for parts or service. The winner must be present at each days drawing. There will also be a Riding Lawn Mower Test Driving Range at the Four State Farm Show giving area farm and ranch families the opportunity to check out several makes and models.

With no previous resources, no prom dress, and no financial means to provide for herself, she was able to receive an unforgettable evening through the generosity of her foster parents. During graduate school, Tyleen was president of the Student Association of Social Workers (SASW). She initiated and led a prom dress project in which she collected over 200 dresses, $2,500 in cash donations, and several donated services. SASW served nearly 100 youth in foster care. Tyleen received special recognitions for this project including being recognized by the Hattiesburg, American newspaper as one of 12 people who made a difference in the community, named Social Work Student of the Year by the University of Southern Mississippi and she received the Claire Nowlin Social Work Student of the Year given by the Mississippi Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers. Tyleen continues her project and continues to serve the communities she lives in. Monarch Formal was the first organization of its kind to provide formalwear in Clorix, NM. Since establishing in 2008, Monarch Formal has provided hundreds of gowns for prom, homecoming, pageants, banquets, military events and provides resources for men as well. Tyleen strives to bring smiles to deserving individuals who receive a formal. The success of this project depends on the support from the communities. Tyleen is very involved in the community and hopes the community will continue to support Monarch Formal. Monarch Formal is also the platform for Founder, Tyleen Caffrey as she competed in the 2012 American Beauties Plus Pageant. She represented New Mexico in the Mrs. division in Atlanta, GA. Tyleen was crowned the inaugural American Beauties Plus Elite Woman of Achievement. The crown is based on a community service platform (Monarch Formal) in conjunction with the American Beauties Plus Pageant. In addition to her Elite title, she also won Miss Congeniality, first runner up in talent, Outstanding Demeanor, Scrapbook Award winner, Facebook Photo Contest winner, and Paloma Parry "Divas" Winner. Specifically, the Foundation anticipates that revitalization of the Colonial Fox Theatre will have a transforming impact on Pittsburg's downtown district and the economic development of surrounding communities. Founded in December, 2006 by the local general contractors, the Colonial Fox Theatre Foundation (CFTF) has grown into a organization of more than 300 community volunteers and sustaining donors. Foundation members have been driving the rescue and rehabilitation of the historic Colonial Fox Theatre since its inception. The Colonial Fox Theatre Foundation envisions the theatre to be a unique showcases for human creativity, arts and culture. The Theatre will be a vital asset to a livable and vibrant downtown community. We believe that the historic Colonial Fox Theatre is an irreplaceable social, economic, historic and cultural resource for the Southeast Kansas region. As an iconic, creative place of public assembly, it will build community loyalty, reinforce community identity and heritage, stimulate downtown revitalization, promote pride of place and anchor creative economies. Since our establishment in December, 2006, the Foundation has made consistent progress toward the realization of our vision.
Veterans and Veteran Services	Public Service Announcement	7.1.15-9.30.15	19 Minutes	$2,307	The station supported Compass Quest Veteran Services during the quarter with PSA's promoting two events the organization hosted: the first was a benefit golf tournament on May 16, 2015 and the second was a Run/Walk on Saturday, May 23, 2015. Compass Quest is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation that assists veterans and their families in the Southwest Missouri region. Our mission is to remove barriers that hinder the pursuit of wellness by providing navigational assistance to veterans in the community to obtain local, regional, and national services. Compass Quest also engages in supportive programs that include veteran peer support, art and writing therapy, medical transportation, referrals, team building activities and Veterans Affairs claims assistance. Compass Quest was founded by two veterans to provide peer to peer support to other veterans. Compass Quest is effective at providing compassionate understanding that has an impact on the veterans we serve. Our concept has attracted like-minded individuals to join this endeavor and our Board of Directors is comprised of other passionate veterans. Therefore, Compass Quest adheres to our maxim: "Veterans Helping Veterans Find the Way Forward". Veterans face unique issues that include reintegration, belonging, usefulness, homelessness, coping difficulties, Post-Traumatic Stress, and higher unemployment or under-employment. We help them overcome the obstacles they face and connect them with services that assist with these issues. The pursuit of wellness is more than an individual endeavor. Social, environmental, economic and other external factors significantly influence the wellness of both individuals and the communities of which they are a part. We are pursuing a Veteran Wellness Model that aids in recovery and adjustment and provides a foundation for physical and psychological well-being. We believe this is a community effort and we are harnessing the appropriate local resources so we have engaged and collaborative business, nonprofit, Veteran Service Organizations and municipal agencies. Our vision is to have a veteran walk-in community center that can be a single stop shop for information, support, referral, activities, as well as a safe haven when needed. It will be family friendly and it will be operated by veteran volunteers that understand the issues and speak from a common background.
Veterans and Veteran Services	Public Service Announcement	8.11.15-9.30.15	1 Hour, 1 Minute, 20 Seconds	$11,514	The station supports area veterans through airing Honor Flight of the Ozarks PSA's. Honor Flight of the Ozarks Honor Flight, Inc. and affiliated hubs in the national Honor Flight Network are private, not-for-profit organizations created solely to honor America's Veterans for their many sacrifices. Honor Flight first flew in May 2005 with six small planes flying twelve WWII veterans, departing from Springfield, Ohio. In 2006, with a rapidly expanding waiting list, the program transitioned to commercial airline carriers to accommodate more veterans. That same year Honor Flight partnered with Honor Air in Hendersonville, North Carolina and Hero Flight in Provo, Utah to establish the national "Honor Flight Network" which has expanded aggressively to include cities across the nation. By 2007 official network hubs had been established in 32 cities, including Springfield, MO, to localize community commitment, operational planning, and fund-raising. Today, there are 132 regional hubs in the United States. There are also several thousand veterans on a national registry waiting up to one year to secure a Honor Flight in their area. Every day we are losing several hundred WWII and Korean Veterans. Our sense of urgency is very real!
Health, Big Brothers Big Sisters	Public Service Announcement	7.1.15-9.30.15	7 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$2,190	The station aired PSA's to provide information about Big Brothers Big Sisters. Big Brothers Big Sisters is a mentoring agency that operates under the belief that every child has the ability to succeed and thrive in life. Several individuals of Crawford County believed this to be true and in December of 2002 Big Brothers Big Sisters was established in Crawford County. It currently has about 70 community-based matches and 30 children on the waiting list. It is the largest KSBBS agency in the Southeast Kansas area.

Health, American Heart Association	Public Service Announcement	7.1.15-9.26.15	15 Minutes	$2,138	The station is a sponsor of the American Heart Association Heart Walk held on September 26, 2015. The station aired PSA's for the event. KFJX General Manager Darren Dishman is on the organizing committee working on the event. The American Heart Association is the nation's oldest and largest voluntary organization dedicated to fighting heart disease and stroke. Founded by six cardiologists in 1924, our organization now includes more than 22.5 million volunteers and supporters. We fund innovative research, fight for stronger public health policies, and provide critical tools and information to save and improve lives. Our nationwide organization includes 156 local offices and more than 3,000 employees. We moved our national headquarters from New York to Dallas in 1975 to be more centrally located. The American Stroke Association was created as a division in 1997 to bring together the organization's stroke-related activities. What We Do: To improve the lives of all Americans, we provide public health education in a variety of ways. We're the nation's leader in CPR education training. We help people understand the importance of healthy lifestyle choices. We provide science-based treatment guidelines to healthcare professionals to help them provide quality care to their patients. We educate lawmakers, policymakers and the public as we advocate for changes to protect and improve the health of our communities.
Support Our Troops, Mental Health Awareness, Emergency/Preparedness	Public Service Announcement	7.1.15-9.30.15	27 Minutes	$3,250	The station aired Public Service announcements provided by the National Association of Broadcasters featuring two of our local elected officials, Lynn Jenkins and Pat Roberts. The PSA's included messages on Mental Health Awareness, Support of our Troops and Emergency Preparedness. The 2015 NAB Congressional PSA campaign is now underway. This year, NAB developed, produced and is distributing 30-second radio and TV PSAs featuring a record 307 members of Congress and their family members. Participants represent 49 states and three (3) U.S. territories. NAB encourages radio and television stations to air the PSAs through Dec. 15. This campaign, now in it's 30th year, provides a unique opportunity to deliver hundreds of positive, pro-social messages to millions of people. It is one of the many ways that broadcasters demonstrate their dedication to their local communities.
Driver Safety, Texting	Public Service Announcement	7.1.15-9.30.15	6 Minutes, 25 Seconds	$990	The station airs a series of PSA's reminding driver, young and old, to avoid texting and driving. One million people chat and text while driving each day. People feel pressure to remain in constant contact, even when behind the wheel. What drivers do not realize are the dangers posed when they take their eyes off the road and their hands off the wheel, and focus on activities other than driving. This campaign targets adult drivers with a focus on texting and driving prevention. Adults live in a connected world where multitasking is the norm. This manifests in the car where they recognize texting and driving is dangerous, but do it anyway. The average text takes a driver's eyes off the road for nearly five seconds. When traveling at 55mph, that's enough time to cover the length of a football field. The message being conveyed is that texting while driving isn't multitasking, it's essentially driving blind.
Foundation For A Better Life	Public Service Announcement	7.1.15-9.30.15	3 Hours, 6 Minutes, 15 Seconds	$26,610	The station continues to air a series of Public Service Announcements in support of the Foundation For A Better Life. The Foundation for a Better Life creates public service campaigns to communicate the values that make a difference in our communities. These uplifting messages, utilizing television, movie theaters, billboards, radio and the internet, model the benefits of a life lived by positive values. We believe people are basically good but sometimes just need a reminder. We also believe that the positive values we live by are worth more when we pass them on. The goal of The Foundation for a Better Life is to offer inspirational messages to people everywhere as a contribution toward promoting good values, good role models and a better life. We choose values we hope most individuals would find encouraging and relevant. Then we provide an uplifting message based on each value. In an effort to encourage people to bring out the best in themselves, as a nonpartisan, nonsectarian organization, we carefully design our public service messages to have general universal appeal. The Foundation's small staff works with a network of writers, art directors and production professionals. These individuals represent a wide range of ideas, viewpoints and cultural backgrounds. Their diversity reinforces the idea that values can serve as common ground for all. As a nonprofit organization offering public service announcements, we receive the generous support of air time and media space from many TV, radio and billboard companies. The Foundation does not pay for air time or media space, but rather benefits from donated media space which allows these messages to be seen and heard around the world. About the PSA: TV Commercials: The Foundation for a Better Life has produced award-winning public service television messages, which are designed to uplift viewers with positive values. Each message incorporates popular music to bring the message to life. The commercials are now seen in over 200 countries around the world. They are also currently aired in Spanish and Portuguese in 20 countries throughout Latin America. Some of the award-winning artists and writers who have donated their talents to our campaigns include the Black Eyed Peas, Aerosmith, Franklin, David Foster, Celine Dion, Jon Bon Jovi, Josh Groban, Diane Warren, Amy Grant, Kenny Chesney, Garth Brooks, Steppenwolf, Back Street Boys, Frank Sinatra and many others. We appreciate the generous support of The National Music Publishers' Association and are grateful for our strategic alliance with them. Some of the publishers and record labels who have contributed their music include BMG, Chrysalis, EMI, Peermusic, Sony, Universal and Warner/Chappell. Some of the networks which generously contribute airtime for our messages are ABC, CBS, FOX, NBC, Univision, Telemundo, CNN International, Discovery Channel, QTV, ION, Oxygen OVM, HGTV, SPEED, Travel Channel, BET, Food Network, CW, USA, Sci-Fi, Bloomberg, National Geographic, Bravo, Real TV, DIY Network, Sorpresa, Teletienda, PBS, the Armed Forces Network and many other independent stations. We could not do what we do without them.

Children, Families, Health	Public Service Announcement	7:15-9:30:15	3 Hours, 21 Minutes, 30 Seconds	$22,200	The station continues its long time support of Ronald McDonald House of the Four-States by airing PSA's for events and activities which enhance the mission of the House: To create, find and support programs that directly improve the health and well-being of children. The House To provide a 'home away from home' for families of seriously ill children (0-18) and ill expectant mothers being treated at Freeman Health System and Mercy Hospital.

Dear Vance:

On behalf of our Public Relations Team, Board of Directors of Ronald McDonald House Charities, staff, volunteers, and our guest families, I would like to thank you for your support of our Annual Media Night on July 28th. We truly had a "Grand Slam" event, with a total of 85 attendees including 57 representatives from media, 26 of whom were first-time attendees. Two Ronald McDonald House guest families, the Matney's and Dewey's, were introduced to the media. KSN/KODE provided live coverage, and KOAM/FOX-14 provided coverage and a photo booth for the enjoyment of all. Ronald McDonald joined the festivities, and was a big hit thanks to underwriting by the local McDonald's Co-Operative, as were the representatives of the Joplin Blasters, who provided logoed baseball bats, foam fingers and baseballs.

Post-event articles were carried in the Columbus News-Report, the Neosho Daily News and the upcoming Show Me Magazine. The Joplin Blasters held a Ronald McDonald House Charity Awareness Night on July 29, which was very successful (a summary is enclosed).

Thanks to those who provided items for our Prize Drawings:

- ♥ Blue Moon Market
- ♥ KOAM/FOX-14
- ♥ 95.1 MikeFM/KMXL
- ♥ The Joplin Blasters

Little Bird Marketing and Freeman Health System designed and underwrote our invitations, envelopes and coasters, and Heart of America Beverage Co., LLC provided the beer. Joplin Printing Co. provided Blasters team photos for all in attendance.

Once again, thank you for giving your support to families when they need it most...because healing happens together.

Dear friends at KOAM,
Thank you for helping make our TRYathlon an amazing event again this year. It means the world to us to have the support of local businesses for our program. We currently have about 60 kids paired with mentors who meet with them weekly in Crawford County. Parents tell us they see changes for the better in their kids. That translates to changes for the better in the community. Thank you for being a part of that!

Sincerely, Megan Corrigan

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS

80 YEARS - HAPPY, JOYOUS AND FREE

July 2-5, 2015 • Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Public Service Director,

I'm sure you've known someone who struggles with a drinking problem. Alcoholism cuts across all borders and demographics, and devastates the lives of not only the drinkers, but those around them. In the very communities you serve, those wrestling with alcoholism are often overwhelmed by guilt, despair and loneliness.

Providing alcoholics and their families with information about help – and hope – in their community offers a chance at a new beginning. That is why Alcoholics Anonymous® is requesting your station's support in airing our new public service campaign. The new PSAs titled “Doors” (:60, :30, 2:00) illustrate how alcoholism affects people from all walks of life and gives testimonials based on actual A.A. member experiences that bring hope to those who teeter on the verge of alcoholic destruction.

Currently celebrating its 80th anniversary, Alcoholics Anonymous has helped millions of men and women who want to stop drinking. Members of Alcoholics Anonymous have only one purpose: to stay sober ourselves and help other alcoholics to achieve sobriety. The fellowship of A.A. is non-professional, not affiliated with any other organization and has no opinion on outside matters.

Alcoholics Anonymous World Services, Inc., the publisher of A.A. literature (including these P.S.A.s) is a nonprofit organization. Our Federal Tax ID number is 13-1679617.

We hope that you will help us communicate our messages of support and hope to those battling alcoholism by airing these PSAs as soon and as often as possible. These PSAs have no end date for use.

If you have any questions regarding these PSAs, please feel free to contact our distribution representative, Shaliza Thomas at Connect360 Multimedia (phone: 212-624-9187; e-mail: sthomas@c360m.com).

Thank you in advance for your consideration and support of this life-saving public service campaign.

Sincerely,

Jim Malone

Festa Italiana

A fundraising event of
The Frontenac Education Foundation

June 9, 2015

Dear Sponsor:

The 17th Annual Festa Italiana is right around the corner and the Frontenac Education Foundation is proud to be hosting this wonderful event on September 26, 2015. Last year, with the help of many, Festa Italiana raised $30,000 for scholarships. This year, we have set a goal of $50,000! We are looking to the future and hoping to give more to the students of USD 249!

The Frontenac Education Foundation is proud to provide support to the educational efforts of USD 249 and its students and Festa Italiana is a major fundraising event to help us continue that effort. The proceeds from Festa Italiana support student scholarships, given to every graduating senior at FHS, who chooses to attend college or complete a post-secondary program. Since the inception of Festa Italiana, the Frontenac Education Foundation has given over $250,000 in semester scholarships to FHS seniors. This could not be done without the tremendous support of the Frontenac community as well as the surrounding communities.

Area communities and alumni have been strong supporters of Festa and USD 249 for the past 16 years. The Foundation hopes to build on these relationships so that new initiatives can come to light and we can continue to support the students and staff of USD 249 to the best of our ability. Festa sponsors receive recognition through area radio announcements, newspaper coverage and television recognition in the weeks prior to Festa. Enclosed is a listing of the sponsor levels and benefits. Please complete the worksheets fully so that receipts can be sent and proper credit can be given. All donations are greatly appreciated.

We are looking forward to this year's Festa Italiana and the feeling of famiglia that is expressed during this event. Helping the students of our school district is a worthy cause and we hope you will join us in making this the best Festa to date!

Sincerely,

Frontenac Education Foundation

Joplin, MO 64801

Dear Vance,

The 2015 Kimble Anders Celebrity Golf Classic was held this past Friday, and we had a GREAT time! This event happens each year to help raise awareness of the programs of Bright Futures Joplin, as well as to raise critical funds toward the work.

This year alone, we have helped meet 487 student needs! Over the five years we've been in existence, we've met well over 10,000 student needs. These needs vary in range from a pair of shoes, a winter coat, or school supplies – all the way to things like assistance with utilities or a bed. We make hundreds of referrals to community agencies and work together with our partners to ensure that every child has a champion and a chance to be successful. We also support critical programs such as TREK, Lunch Pals, Operation College Bound, All Pro Dads, Fusion, WEB, and so much more! This work simply could not be done without the partnership of people like you!

Thank you for your generous donation to the Golf Tournament Raffle of:

- 2 – Gift Baskets

Bright Futures Joplin is part of Joplin Schools, so your contribution is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. This acknowledgement letter confirms that no goods or services were provided in return for your contribution. If you plan to claim a tax deduction for this contribution, you are responsible for establishing the value of the donated item. Please consult your tax preparer for information regarding IRS requirements. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact our office at any time.

With your contribution and support, we will continue to create brighter futures for our Joplin kids. Thank you!
