KMGV PROGRAMMING THAT ADDRESSES COMMUNITY ISSUES

THE COMMONWEALTH CLUB: 60 minute public affairs show that runs Sundays 6am-7am. No commercials. Produced by the Commonwealth Club of California, this weekly program deals with economic, political, social and environmental issues facing the United States and California.

CRIMESTOPPERS: 30 second segments that run 7 days a week at various times for a total of 275 minutes of programming dedicated to Crimestoppers in the fourth quarter. Crimestoppers is a cooperative effort between KSKS FM, KMJ FM, KMGV FM, KMJ AM, KWYE FM, KSEE 24 TV, and The Fresno Bee newspaper to help valley law enforcement bring criminals to justice. A different crime is outlined in a new segment each week with information about the crime, suspect and reward.

KSKS MORNING SHOW: Interviews on the KSKS morning show with representatives of community groups covering issues of concern and interest to the Valley. Dates, times, and subjects are listed under pertinent issue headings.

KSKS PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS: :60 and :30 second recorded or live announcements scheduled to run 7 days a week at various times during the day for the entire 4th quarter. If the announcements covered a significant issue of concern to the Valley and ran for a significant amount of time, it is listed under the pertinent issues heading with details. A complete list of these and all other PSAs broadcast during the fourth quarter can be found in the public service announcement list included with this report.

CRIME/LAW

CRIMESTOPPERS

October 1st, 2016 to December 31st, 2016. 30 second segments airing at various times 7 days a week. Total of 276 minutes.

Crimestoppers is a cooperative effort between KSKS FM, KMJ FM, KMJ AM, KMGV FM, KWYE FM, KSEE 24 TV, and the Fresno Bee. A different crime is spotlighted every week with details about the crime, suspects, rewards, and how to get in touch with authorities.

COMMONWEALTH CLUB

Sunday, October 23rd, 2016.

6am to 7am. 60 minutes of a 60 minute program. No commercials.

Making the Justice System Just

Paulette Brown—President, American Bar Association; Partner/co-chair, Diversity and Inclusion Committee, Locke Lord LLP

James Taylor, Ph.D.—Director of African American Studies and Professor of Political Science, University of San Francisco; Lecturer, African American and African Diaspora Studies Department, University of California Berkeley—Moderator

Paulette Brown is the first woman of color to become president of the ABA and has been recognized by the National Law Journal as one of the “50 most influential minority lawyers in America.” She has been a municipal court judge, in addition to focusing on all facets of labor and employment litigation. Brown has devoted her presidency to “rebuilding the nation’s confidence in our justice system” by “working to eliminate bias and enhance diversity and inclusion” and offer “tangible, sustainable solutions that will have a positive impact on the perception of our justice system.” Join an important discussion of what’s being done to ensure that the legal system can better represent the under-represented across the United States.

CHILDREN

TOTAL OF 1 HOUR & 40 MINUTES DEVOTED TO THE TOPIC DURING THE 4th QUARTER.

COATS FOR KIDS

KSKS; The Salvation Army; Fresno County Sheriff's Department; KSEE 24 Friday, December 2nd, 2016 through Saturday, December 3rd, 2016. 8am-6pm Friday; 10am-6pm Saturday.

Live call-ins twice an hour from the event for 18 hours. Live on-air mentions throughout the weekend. Live promos in the 2 weeks leading up to the event. A total of 100 minutes devoted to the topic.

Kiss Country teamed up with the Salvation Army, the Fresno County Sheriff's Dept, and KSEE 24 to collect coats and cash donations for children in the Central San Joaquin Valley as part of the annual Coats for Kids program. Kiss did live call-ins from the event and promoted it on-air in the hours we weren't on-site. The station also promoted the collection drive in the two weeks leading up to the event. Kiss was proud to once again be one of the driving forces in this annual effort to provide coats for kids in the Valley who might otherwise go without.

ANIMALS

TOTAL OF 1 HOUR & 5 MINUTES DEVOTED TO THE TOPIC DURING THE 4th QUARTER.

KSKS MORNING SHOW

"Kiss Critters"

Humane Educator, CCSPCA

October 7th, 2016 - December 30th, 2016. 5 minute in-studio interview Friday mornings at 7:20am, 65 minutes of airtime total in the quarter.

A representative from the Central California SPCA brings in two of the shelters "adoptables" every Friday morning to introduce them to the Kiss audience and encourage people to save animals by adopting rather than buying their pets. The CCSPCA also offers valuable information to listeners on spaying, neutering, fostering animals, education and training classes and more. KSKS also features "Kiss Critters" on the Kiss website- ksks.com.

Where are the Country and Economy Headed?

Steve Forbes-Chairman and Editor-in-Chief, Forbes Media; Author, Reviving America: How Repealing Obamacare, Replacing the Tax Code and Reforming the Fed Will Restore Hope and Prosperity

Duf Sundheim-Political Activist and Mediator; Former Chair, California Republican Party—Moderator

With a turbulent presidential election and Brexit on the horizon, a leading conservative voice offers his thoughts on the political and economic climate in the United States and the world. Steve Forbes is chairman of Forbes Media, which publishes Forbes magazine, with a circulation of nearly 1 million readers domestically and 5 million worldwide. In both 1996 and 2000, Mr. Forbes campaigned vigorously for the Republican nomination for the presidency. Key to his platform were a flat tax, medical savings accounts, a new Social Security system for working Americans, parental choice of schools for their children, term limits and a strong national defense. Forbes continues to energetically promote this agenda. Here's a chance to hear his views on how to make the country stronger and Americans more prosperous.

#Girlboss Sophia Amoruso

Sophia Amoruso-Author, Nasty Galaxy and New York Times best-seller #Girlboss; Founder and CEO, Nasty Gal; Founder, #Girlboss Foundation; Host, #Girlboss Radio
Alison Pincus-Co-Founder, One Kings Lane; Co-Founder, HelloMazel—Moderator

Amoruso launched her company, Nasty Gal, on eBay, reselling vintage clothes she scavenged from thrift stores. Nasty Gal quickly grew, growing from a makeshift store in Sophia's living room to a fashion powerhouse in less than a decade. Sophia's influence is evident on magazine covers, Pinterest, the runway and beyond. In 2016, Forbes named her one of the youngest and richest self-made women in America.

Sophia's success isn't just limited to fashion—she's creating an empire. Sophia champions aspiring female entrepreneurs through her #Girlboss Foundation, and shares stories of other creative, successful women on her popular podcast #Girlboss Radio, with guests like Charlize Theron. Her first book, #Girlboss, dubbed "Lean In for misfits," is a New York Times bestseller and is currently being turned into a Netflix original series. Sophia will give us the inside scoop about her unconventional approach to style, music, philosophy and advice.

COMMONWEALTH CLUB

Sunday, November 20th, 2016.

6am to 7am. 60 minutes of a 60 minute program. No commercials.

Founding Patagonia and Living Simply

Yvon Chouinard-Founder, Patagonia, Inc.; Author, Let My People Go Surfing: The Education of a Reluctant Businessman

Chouinard is a legendary climber, surfer and environmentalist. He is also the reluctant entrepreneur who founded Patagonia, Inc., one of the most respected eco- and socially conscious companies in the world.

To celebrate the re-release of his best selling memoir, Chouinard recounts his early days of selling climbing equipment out of his car and explains how that led to accidentally creating a multi-million dollar sporting goods company committed to environmentally responsible design and production.

Through Patagonia he has led the way with innovations in organic cotton, sustainable wool and traceable down. However, Chouinard has not been limited by textiles. He has also created a venture fund called 20 million & Change and spun out Patagonia Provisions, reflecting his belief that food and agriculture will help solve our biggest environmental challenges.

As companies and consumers seek a more sustainable economy, Chouinard will discuss how entrepreneurs can create greatness and achieve net positive social impact at a point where doing less-bad is no longer good enough.

A Field Guide to the 21st Century

Thomas Friedman-Columnist, The New York Times; Author, The Lexus and the Olive Tree, The World Is Flat, Thank You for Being Late: An Optimist's Guide to Thriving in the Age of Accelerations

In Conversation with Gavin Newsom-Lt. Governor of California

In his most ambitious work to date, Thank You for Being Late: An Optimist's Guide to Thriving in the Age of Accelerations, Thomas L. Friedman shows that we have entered an age of dizzying acceleration. A parallel explosion of economic interdependency has created new riches as well as spiraling debt burdens. Meanwhile, Mother Nature is also seeing dramatic changes as carbon levels rise and species go extinct, with compounding results. Today, it is easier than ever to be a maker (try 3-D printing) or a breaker (the Islamic State excels at using Twitter), but harder than ever to be a leader or merely "average."

Friedman concludes that nations and individuals must learn to be fast (innovative and quick to adapt), fair (prepared to help the casualties of change), and slow (adept at shutting out the noise and accessing their deepest values). Join Friedman for an engaging conversation on how we should think about and cope with all of these changes.

Disruptive Climate and Politics

Bill McKibben-Co-founder, 350.org

Terry Tamminen-CEO, Leonardo DiCaprio Foundation

As we careen toward unknown climatic changes and near the end of an equally unpredictable election cycle, what will the political and planetary climate be in 2017? Is climate disruption an issue high on the minds of the voters and political leaders? As co-founder of 350.org, Bill McKibben has been working to influence major policy decisions around the world with campaigns such as Stop the Keystone XL Pipeline, Frack Free California and Break Free from Fossil Fuels. Have those demonstrations actually kept carbon in the ground? What has his organization 350.org been focused on this election cycle, and what are his thoughts on 2017? Join us for politics, activism and stories from 30 years of writing and fighting.

The Art of Tough

Barbara Boxer-U.S. Senator (D-California); Author, The Art of Tough: Fearlessly Facing Politics and Life

Holly Kernan-Executive Editor, News, KQED—Moderator

"One goal of this memoir is to inspire people to fight for change. It takes what I call the Art of Tough and I've had to do it all my life." —Senator Barbara Boxer

Barbara Boxer has made her mark, combining compassionate advocacy with scrappiness in a political career spanning more than three decades. Now, retiring from the Senate, she continues the work to which she's dedicated 30 years in Congress. Her memoir, The Art of Tough, shares her provocative and touching recollections of service, and cements her commitment to the fight for women, families, quality, and environmental protection—all in a peaceful world.

Sometimes lauded, sometimes vilified, but always standing tough, Boxer has fought for her values even when her personal convictions conflicted with her party or the majority rule.

Bridging Islam and the West

Carla Power-Pulitzer Prize Finalist; Author, If the Oceans Were Ink: An Unlikely Friendship and a Journey to the Heart of the Quran

Jonathan Curiel-Journalist; Author—Moderator

Get inside of Carla Power's eye-opening story of how she and her longtime friend Sheikh Mohammad Akram Nadwi found a way to confront ugly stereotypes and persistent misperceptions that were cleaving their communities. Their friendship—between a secular American and a madrasa-trained sheikh—had always seemed unlikely, but now they were frustrated and bewildered by the battles being fought in their names. Both knew that a close look at the Quran would reveal a faith that preached peace and not mass murder; respect for women and not oppression. And so they embarked on a year-long journey through the controversial text.

A journalist who grew up in the Midwest and the Middle East, Power offers her unique vantage point on the Quran's most provocative verses as she debates with Akram at cafes, family gatherings, and packed lecture halls, conversations filled with both good humor and powerful insights. Their story takes them to madrasas in India and pilgrimage sites in Mecca, as they encounter politicians and jihadis, feminist activists and conservative scholars.

Armed with a new understanding of each other's worldviews, Power and Akram offer eye-opening perspectives, destroy long-held myths, and reveal startling connections between worlds that have seemed hopelessly divided for far too long.

Francis Ford Coppola: The Program You Can't Refuse

Francis Ford Coppola-Director, The Godfather; Author, The Godfather Notebook
In Conversation with Adam Savage-Maker and Retired Co-host, Discovery Channel's
"Mythbusters"

Francis Ford Coppola's The Godfather is universally praised as one of the greatest films ever made. The 1972 epic won best picture and best screenplay Oscars and was subsequently followed by two successful sequels. Join us for a rare conversation with Francis Coppola, who will take us behind the scenes of these legendary films, as spelled out in his just-published book, The Godfather Notebook. Here's a chance to learn about Brando, Pacino, the casting and the filmmaking, along with the personal and professional qualities that turned director Francis Coppola into an American icon. An offer you truly can't refuse.

KOED's Michael Krasny: Oy, Does He Have Jokes for You

Michael Krasny-Host, "Forum"; Author, Let There Be Laughter: A Treasury of Great Jewish Humor and What It Means

In conversation with Peter Coyote

Michael Krasny has been telling Jewish jokes since his bar mitvah, and it's been said that he knows more of them than anyone on the planet. He has now put together a compendium of Jewish jokes that packs the punches with hilarious riff after riff and also offers a window into Jewish culture. Let There Be Laughter borrows from traditional humor and such Jewish comedy legends and new voices as Jackie Mason, Mel Brooks, Joan Rivers, Larry David, Sarah Silverman, Jerry Seinfeld and Amy Schumer. With his background as a scholar and public radio host, Krasny also delves deeply into the themes, topics and form of Jewish humor: chauvinism undercut by irony and self-mockery, the fear of losing cultural identity through assimilation, the importance of vocal inflection in joke-telling, and calls to communal memory, including the use of Yiddish. Above all, come ready to laugh a lot.

How to Behave in the Modern World and Why Bother?

Jeremiah Tower-Chef; Author, Table Manners: How to Behave in the Modern World and Why Bother

In conversation with Amanda Haas-Culinary Director, Williams-Sonoma

Jeremiah Tower was a founding chef in the 1970s at Alice Waters' Chez Panisse restaurant and is widely credited as one of the creators of both New American Cuisine and California Cuisine. In 1984, Tower opened his own restaurant, Stars, in San Francisco. It was an overnight sensation and fostered the careers of numerous American chefs, including Mark Franz, Mario Batali, Tim Grable, Emily Luchetti and Jerry Traunfeld. The restaurant was among the top-grossing restaurants in the United States for close to a decade. Tower went on to win a James Beard Award as the best chef in America, hosted a PBS Series and opened restaurants in Singapore and Hong Kong. He holds a degree in architecture from Harvard.

Come hear his both witty and serious thoughts on manners in 2016—at the dinner party, the bar or in your own home. Tower has advice on everything: food allergies, RSVPs, iPhones, running late, thank-yous, restaurant etiquette, even what to do when you are served something disgusting.

POLITICAL COVERAGE

THE ONLY POLITICAL COVERAGE OUTSIDE OF REGULARLY SCHEDULED NEWSCASTS ON KSKS DURING THE 4th QUARTER OF 2016 WAS CONTAINED IN THE COMMONWEALTH CLUB. SEE POLITICS.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

During the fourth quarter of 2016 KSKS was involved again with spearheading the Coats for Kids program. On the first full weekend in December Kiss teamed up with the Salvation Army, the Fresno County Sheriff's Dept., and KSEE 24 to collect coats and cash donations for children in the Central San Joaquin Valley as part of the Coats for Kids holiday drive. Kiss personalities did live call-ins from the event and promoted it on-air in the hours we weren't on-site. The station also promoted the collection drive in the two weeks leading up to the event. Coats for Kids has been giving warm coats to disadvantaged children for more than a decade and KSKS was proud to once again be a driving force behind this worthwhile cause. See Children.
