

Harrison Family Spot

Thu, 8/27 9:39AM • 1:02

There's so much anxiety right now. I feel it. We're living it too. I'm Jamie Harrison, candidate for US Senate, raising two young boys worrying about childcare, school safety, the economic anxiety of so many lost jobs and how to care for older family members. They are all of our challenges. When we launched our volunteer service program Harrison helps last year. Our first project was to get school supplies to kids in my hometown, Orangeburg, South Carolina. Since then, Harrison helps volunteers have been all over the state cooking meals, supplying food banks and addressing barriers and hardships in our communities. My faith teaches me that we should bear each other's burdens. This campaign is not just about winning, but about building stronger communities in the process. We'll be taking Harrison helps to even more communities across South Carolina, and that's how we'll get through this together. I'm Jamie Harrison, candidate for United States Senate and I approve this message paid for by Jamie Harrison for US Senate.
