We are all hurting right now, the pain caused by racial and economic injustice, and a deadly virus is deep. I'm Jamie Harrison. People are wanting to be seen to be heard to be understood. It's moments like these that define who we are as Americans, we must use this moment to come together to create real meaningful change. To some those may just be words, to me. It's personal. I've always found comfort in the moment Jesus said, Peace Be still. And there was a great call, no matter your religion, we all hope for that peace. But hope is not enough. We must act together now. When we're unified, we can solve any problem. I believe in the promise of America. And when that promise falls short, we must recommit ourselves to come together, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. I'm Jamie Harrison, and I approve this message paid for by Jamie Harrison for US Senate.
