We've witnessed the tragedy of Tamir Rice, Tatyana Jefferson, Sandra Bland, Walter Scott, and most recently Ahmad Arbery, Brianna Taylor and Shawn Reed. As a black man raising two young boys. It's my worst nightmare. What could happen someday while my sons are walking home from the store, jogging in the neighborhood or being pulled over by a police officer? Too many families, including my own have been devastated by violence, long prison sentences and a lack of opportunity. I'm Jamie Harrison, candidate for the United States Senate. This is personal to me. This is about the racial profiling, bias and over policing that have plagued our communities for generations. We can't just talk about this. We must act. As your senator I will work to reform the criminal justice system. End private prisons and cash bail and rebuild broken families devastated by unjust policies. I'm Jamie Harrison, candidate for US Senate and I approve this message
