

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
January, February, March 2024

DATE	TOPIC	TIME AIRED
01/07/24	Show guest was Greg Killebrew who is the director of the Positive Brotherhood in Southeast Missouri. Mr. Killebrew spoke about the mission of Positive Brotherhood, as they try to help children growing up without active parents find a mentor and role model. He also spoke about how they need more volunteers due to the large number of youth that need their services in our area.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
01/14/24	Show guest was Jimmy French, with the Kennett Cruisers, and talked about the groups effort to help the Kennett Humane Department as their facility is overwhelmed with the number of animals they currently have. They are raising money for food and other needed supplies at the facility.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
01/21/24	Show guest was Darin Todd, who has filed for Dunklin County Circuit Judge. Mr. Todd spoke about what he believes is needed and the reason he decided to run for this position.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
01/28/24	Danny Ray, director of the Kennett Chamber of Commerce was the show guest. He spoke about the April 8 th eclipse, and all the events the chamber is planning for that date. They expect many to attend for this event.	6:00 am- 6:30 am

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
January, February, March 2024

02/04/24	Sara Garner with the Southeast Missouri Food Bank was the show guest. She talked about how many in our area have a difficult time providing food to their families, and how the food bank tries to help. She also spoke about how those interested could be a donor, or by providing produce or other food items from their farms.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
02/11/24	Missouri State Senator Jason Bean was the show guest. Senator Bean spoke about a new legislation that he has introduced regarding water supplies and water regulations, which are essential for area farms and factories.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
02/18/24	State Senator Holly Rader was the show guest, and gave a legislative update regarding all of the issues they are addressing in Jefferson City during the current legislative session.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
02/25/24	Tim Price with the Mid-South Farm and Gin Show talked about their annual upcoming show in Memphis. Mr. Price talked about how area producers could learn more about the latest innovations and farming practices which could help their farm produce more goods with less expense.	6:00 am- 6:30 am

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
January, February, March 2024

03/03/24	Missouri State Representative Cameron Bunting Parker was the show guest, and she spoke about new legislation that she has introduced, a hearing aid bill, designed to help provide affordable or free hearing devices to those who are in need, and who qualify. She spoke about how hearing loss can affect anyone, both young and old and the numbers affected in our listening area.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
03/10/24	Former Kennett Mayor Chancellor Wayne spoke about his upcoming trip to the Middle East, and what help they attempt to provide to those they meet each year.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
03/17/24	Julie Orf with the Dunklin County Library spoke about their annual book sale, and how this helps provide the libraries in all parts of the county with additional funding as well as making room for new materials at each location.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
03/24/24	Aaron Waynick, Candidate for Dunklin County Sheriff was the show guest. Mr. Waynick spoke about the reasons he filed for the position after the retirement of long time Dunklin County Sheriff Bob Holder.	6:00 am- 6:30 am

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
January, February, March 2024

03/31/24

Show guest was Eric Schrader with the Missouri Department of Transportation. He spoke about bridge safety, and how the department is currently in the process of replacing needed bridges in our area, and how traffic would be routed during the construction periods.

6:00am – 6:30am