WNTM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WNTM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Housing: Habitat for Humanity Southwest Alabama discusses programs for new homes and how a family qualifies for a Habitat Home (which involves sweat equity and a mortgage); programs for veterans who need help with housing repairs; and how to volunteer/support Habitat.
- Sexual Assault : New Angel Shot Program in downtown Mobile bars to prevent sexual assault. Lifelines Counseling and bar owners are training bartenders to provide help (from walking someone to their car, to calling police) based on the type of "Angel shot" drink ordered. Posters about Angel Shots are posted in the bar restrooms, so women know how they can get help if they feel they are in an unsafe situation with their date or someone they met at the bar.
- 9/11 Day Of Service: Families who turned their personal tragedies of 9/11 into promoting good work & service
- Breast Cancer Awareness ACS: American Cancer Society- Real Men Wear Pink; Local businessmen wear pink and raise money, as well as share their stories of family and friends who have battled breast cancer, during Breast Cancer Awareness Month.
- Community Development: Mobile United explains their community leadership programs, from Leadership Mobile to programs for young adults and future leaders at the high school level.
- Economy: Danny Corte Mobile Sports Authority talks economic impact of sports tourism, with a shift from spectator sports (like minor league baseball) to participatory sports. Sports tourism boosts hotel, restaurants, and shopping.
- Hunger: Feeding The Gulf Coast CEO talks about mission to feed the hungry in 24 counties of AL, MS and FL with school programs, summer meals, produce drops and mobile pantries, as well as providing low-cost food to pantries and other agencies that help the hungry.
- MENTAL HEALTH: Out of the Darkness Walk for Suicide Prevention organizer talks about the symptoms of suicide, where to get help, and how families can cope with mental illness.

- Severe Weather Preparedness: NBC 15 meteorologist Jake Dunne talks about weather issues on the Gulf Coast, including lightning and hurricane safety.
- Tourism: The Jubilee Festival of Arts in Daphne is hosted by the Eastern Shore Chamber of Commerce, to bring tourists to the Eastern Shore (Daphne/ Spanish Fort/ Fairhope).
- Women's Issues: Women's Forum 2018, sponsored by Community Foundation of South Alabama, focuses on women's issues in the local community
- Youthful Offenders: NEST of Mobile aims to Nurture Children, Equip parents, Strengthen families, and Transform communities. The program pairs teams of court approved volunteers with at-risk families who are in need of support, mentoring and skill development.
- Bullying/ Cyber Bullying: WBRC reporter delves into bullying and cyber bullying
- Education: 1,000 Dreams Fund founder talks about scholarship program for young women
- Disabilities: Alabama business that specializes in real-time text translations for people who are hard of hearing
- Healthcare: Dr Lewis, Brain Health Education and Research Institute, on the health benefits of CBD oil
- Historical Preservation: Historical archaeologist Linda Derry talks about Alabama's first capital, Cahaba
- Veterans /Military: Fundraiser and awareness program for Fisher House Foundation, which is best known for a network of comfort homes where military and veterans' families can stay at no cost while a loved one is receiving treatment. These homes are located at major military and VA medical centers nationwide, and in Europe, close to the medical center or hospital it serves.
