WNTM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WNTM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Discussion in July, August and September on WNTM's Uncle Henry Show was dominated by several local elections: Mobile's Mayoral race, the special election for Alabama's First Congressional District, and a special election to fill a vacant state legislative seat.

July 2, independent congressional candidate James Hall was an in studio guest, and he talked about the challenges of running for congress without being a member of the two dominant political parties.

July 18. Congressional candidate Dean Young joined the Uncle Henry Show live at L.A> Subs in Malbis to talk about his candidacy.

July 26. Korean War veteran James McEachin visited the show to talk about the dedication of Mobile's new Korean War Memorial.

July 30, newspaper publisher and writer Rob Holbert of Lagniappe spoke about citizen access to government records and the Mobile Municipal election.

August 1st, State Representative Chad Fincher talked about his run for Congress.

August 3rd, Dee Dee Bonner talked about her son, University of Alabama Quarterback A.J. McCarron.

August 6, Congressional candidate Daniel Dyas talked about his effort to be elected to Congress.

August 8, Bradley Byrne talked about his candidacy for Congress.

August 22, Congressional candidate Wells Griffith appeared in studio.

September 13, former Pennsylvania Senator Rick Santorum spoke on the show about Obamacare, and also endorsed Quin Hilyer in the congressional primary

September 23. Congressional candidate Dean Young spoke about his campaign

September 23, candidate Quin Hillyer talked about his run for congress

September 24, State Representative Chad Fincher spoke about his campaign for congress

September 24, Congressional candidate Bradley Byrne talked about his run for office.
