WNTM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WNTM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Breast Cancer Awareness ACS: American Cancer Society- Making Strides Walk. Information on 2018 Making Strides in Mobile on Oct 27. iHeart Mobile and WMXC co-sponsored the Walk, with Mary Booth emceeding the event at Bienville Square. Interview with breast cancer survivor Trattie Ollis and volunteer Ashley Morris (whose brother had breast cancer). Funds raised from the walk go toward research, education and local programs to support those going through breast cancer (including Look Good, Feel Better, which helps with wigs and makeup for those going through treatment; and Road to Recovery, which provides free rides to treatment). Children: Services provided to children by Children's of Alabama hospital
- Children and Families: Information on Trees for Hope, an event that helps kick off the Christmas season with beautiful trees and wreaths to bid on, November 27th at Dauphin Way Baptist Church. The event provides an opportunity to learn more about Alabama Baptist Children's Homes and the guiding role they play in our community, providing a home for children in foster care. COO Dana Watson talks about his experience, growing up at the Children's Home, which provided him with stability and care he had never had. The Home also provided scholarship opportunities for him to attend college.
- Drug abuse : The Pasco Home in Mobile County provides a safe and faith based transition for those who have struggled through addiction. Pasco Home recently opened a separate facility for women struggling with addiction.
- Fire Prevention: Mobile Fire Chief Mark Sealy and public information officer Stephen Millhouse about the Mobile Fire-Rescue Department achieving a new milestone in its ISO rating. Mobile FRD brought the rating down from a 3 to a 1, with emphasis on training and updating equipment, as well as checking hydrants for operation. The improvements mean better safety for citizens, as well as lower home owner insurance rates.
- Holiday Shopping Safety : Holiday shopping safety, online and in store, and protecting our homes. Mobile Police Commander Levy says one key to protecting your belongings is to lock your car and keep packages/purses/phones out of sight.

- Military/Veterans: Operation ReConnect. iHeart Radio Gulf Coast radio stations supported this program to provide free beach vacations for combat veterans and their families, when they return from deployment, to give them a chance to reconnect with each other. The program was developed by Ryan and Molly Charrier during his deployment to Iraq. The group solicits donations of time at beach condos, food from local restaurants and tickets for local attractions, as well as monetary donations, to provide a free week at the beach to these veterans and their families. Hundreds of veterans have been able to reconnect with their families since the program began 3 years ago. National Security: Resident agent in charge talks about Homeland Security in Alabama
- Racial Relations: Founder of Arrabon, a ministry that helps churches & organizations with racial reconciliation
- Smartphone safety for kids: Psychologist talks about smartphone safety for children and what parents should know
- Special Needs/The Disabled: : Melissa Harville with Goodwill Easter Seals talks about shopping at Goodwill for Halloween costumes, as well as everyday items. She explains how donating and shopping at these stores helps to provide jobs for the disabled, as well as local programs (including job training, special education preschool, GED training/testing, and Kaleidoscope program for adults with disabilities). iHeart's Ariel McSwain (107.3 The Beat and 100.3 Hallelujah) talks about how Goodwill Easter Seals has helped her autistic child make big advances in the past year with speech therapy and preschool.///
- Candice Dodson, Program Director of the Exceptional Foundation Gulf Coast, talks about Night To Shine, a prom night for the disabled, through the Tim Tebow Foundation. Local churches (3 in Daphne) as well as Dayspring Baptist in Mobile, Community Life UMC in Gulf Breeze and Perdido Key UMC, put on a dance with all the trimmings (limo, band, hair, makeup, tuxes, dresses) for disabled teens/adults. Each attendee also has a volunteer buddy to make sure they have a good experience. It's a night of fun that many were unable to have at high school, and it gives caregivers a respite. The Exceptional Foundation is an adult day program for the disabled, giving them recreational and social opportunities.
