Mobile, AL
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
Third Quarter, 2016
03/17/2017

WNTM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Animal rescue: Greater B'ham Humane Society sees huge spike in strays/rescues, need for spay/neuter
- Domestic violence, Family Issues: The Family Center is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in Mobile. Executive Director Lydia Pettijohn and Board Member Anita Clark talk about the parenting programs available and the role the Family Center plays in supervised visitation and in facilitating child drop offs to diffuse potentially volatile family situations.
- Economic Development: Elyse Goonan with One Mobile and Hayley Van Antwerp of Innovation Portal explain what Start Up Weekend Mobile is and why the program through Google for Entrepreneurs is a timely addition to Mobile's current business climate
- Economy: Womens Business Alliance programs to help women get started in business and network to support women-owned businesses.
- Education: Learn about AL history at AL Dept of Archives & History in Montgomery
- Energy, Environment: Coal vs renewable resources, and the effect on AL coal industry
- Environment: Obama Administration pushing new EPA coal industry regulations, affecting Alabamians. The role of the Dauphin Island Sea Lab in education and research, and programs at the Sea Lab for the upcoming National Estuaries Week
- Family Issues: Big Brothers Big Sisters of So. AL seeking mentors to help at-risk children
- Health: Foundation Fitness effort to get people to make healthier diet/nutrition choices

- Health, Children: Ronald McDonald House Charities of AL expanding in B'ham; over 50 families on waiting list
- Humanitarian Aid: Salvation Army's Jennifer Lopes, director of Corporate relations and special events, talks about Salvation Army programs for the homeless in Mobile. She also discusses the upcoming Christmas season, and how businesses, church groups and individuals can help families in need, as well as how and when needy families can sign up for holiday help.
- Hunger: Chef Challenge event supports Feeding the Gulf Coast programs covering 24 counties
- MENTAL HEALTH: Jennifer Claire Moore Foundation -Peer Helpers in local schools help kids deal with issues
- Programs for the Disabled: AL Institute for Deaf & Blind, on programs available in the state to help with those disabilities
- Public Safety: Jeff DeQuattro, with Delta Bike Project, talks about general rules for biking safety, and about the new Alabama law requiring drivers to give bicyclists at least 3 feet when passing. New signs have just gone up along the Causeway, a popular path for bikers.
