WNTM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WNTM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Anti-Bullying: Mobile Co Coalition Against Bullying on weeklong local campaign in schools to get students to speak up about bullying
- Business/Marketing: author of "Strengthen Your Business" on how to turn businesses around to be profitable
- Children and Families: AL Baptist Children's Home, providing homes for children of families in crisis; Local business people talk about a new fundraiser, the Trees 4 Hope benefit, to raise money for the Alabama Baptist Children's Home in Mobile, providing homes for children of families in crisis. Haley Danner of the Children's Home talks about how they help these children and efforts to work with the court system to find stable homes for these children, while providing for their needs in the meantime.
- Community Improvement: Junior League of Mobile's Christmas Jubilee is one of the largest holiday markets on the Gulf Coast, with over 100 vendors from across the country. It's also the Junior League's largest fundraiser, and makes a direct impact on the Mobile and Baldwin County communities through the development of JLM volunteers and the numerous local agencies and programs with which JLM partners
- Disabilities/Education: Candice Dodson, program director for the Exceptional Foundation of the Gulf Coast, explains their mission, to provide social and recreational opportunities for the special needs community of Baldwin and Mobile Counties. Year-round programs are offered for adults with special needs; summer programs are also offered for school age students with special needs. The program offers socialization and recreation, and gives caregivers a much-needed break.
- Economy, Human Trafficking: The SVP of Economic Development with B'ham Business Alliance talks about Amazon. Birmingham is one of many cities competing for a new headquarters from Amazon. / Support services provided to victims of sex trafficking at The Wellhouse
- Education: Distinguished Young Women of America director Kendra Haskins talks about how this scholarship program has grown and evolved since it began as America's Junior Miss in 1958. The program now also focuses on developing leadership and talent, with programs in all 50 states.

Distinguished Young Woman of America 2015 Moira Nakada talks about her experience with the program and the scholarship she won to the University of South Alabama, thanks to DYW.

- Emergency Weather Coverage of Hurricane Nate—Saturday 10/7/17— WNTM provided about 11 hours of continuous coverage (plus a special noon newscast). Because of the timing and size of the storm, we elected to fully utilize our news partner NBC 15 for the duration of coverage. Information was also provided to listeners via the station website and social media.
 - Environment: Update on Mobile Baykeeper efforts to keep area waterways free of pollution, including a notice of intent to sue Daphne Utilities for Clean Water Act violations due to sewer spills; working with Alabama Power to move 16 million tons of coal ash away from the Mobile River to a lined landfill; and implementing a two year marine debris removal project on One Mile Creek in Mobile.
 - MENTAL HEALTH: Lifelines Brunch Fest is a new fundraiser to help support Lifelines Counseling. Lifelines Counseling Services of Mobile helps people find real solutions to real problems. Their goal is to facilitate positive changes in individuals, families and communities by providing comprehensive education, referral and counseling services for social, emergency and financial problems. They offer family counseling, consumer credit counseling, rape crisis counseling and more, with a sliding fee for those without insurance.
 - Public Health: Kimberly Garrett, Audra Harper and Bo Megginson with Victory Health Partners, which offers low-cost medical care for uninsured working adults. Each year, Victory has approximately 19,000 patient encounters with patients from 25 counties in Alabama, 11 in Mississippi and 8 in Florida. The clinic has a far-reaching network of over 150 local physicians, dentists, healthcare providers, and hospitals offering specialized care in their own offices
 - Public Safety: Capt. Doug Parmenter of the Mobile Police Department talks about holiday safety, shopping, and car burglaries. Parmenter says the key to preventing crime is to eliminate opportunity and being aware of your surroundings. Parmenter says 75% of car burglaries could be prevented by owners locking their car doors. He also talks about the problem of guns, taking during car burglaries, ending up in criminals' hands and leading to more crime.
 - Military; Health: Three-hour program to explain the mission of Fisher House, share stories of families affected, and encourage community and financial support. Fisher Houses provide military families housing close to a loved one during hospitalization for an illness, disease or injury.
