

WICN-FM & WICN-HD, WORCESTER, MA
QUARTERLY ISSUES
First Quarter 2014

This listing includes some of the significant issues responded to by WICN(FM), Worcester, Massachusetts along with the most significant treatment of those issues for the period January 1 – March 31, 2014. This listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Legend:

Issue

Program Name – Date - Start Time - Duration

Narrative

ARTS

Business Beat – MARCH 16 – 10PM – 30 minutes

Douglas Quattrochi has been Worcester Property Owners Association's part-time executive director since December 2013. Quattrochi discusses his position as full-time COO of Artist Bomb in Lowell, an angel-funded startup in the live-music industry.

Inquiry – FEBRUARY 23 – 9PM – 60 minutes

Honee A Hess, Executive Director of the Worcester Center For Crafts, talks about the new exhibition and celebration called ¡CARNAVAL!

CHILDREN

Business Beat – MARCH 2 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Ivy Child International is a non-profit organization for "teaching children to use their mindfulness, self-regulation and leadership to build their resilience, emotional intelligence and healthy habits for life." Mayor Lisa Wong is one of Ivy Child's board members, chairs the Mindful Kids Yogathon, and is at the forefront of an important movement in child health.

ECONOMY

Business Beat – FEBRUARY 16 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Tim McGourthy, former chief development officer of the City of Worcester, and Craig Blais, executive director of the Worcester Business Development Corp, talk about the proposed Theater

District for downtown Worcester.

Business Beat – JANUARY 19 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Amy Mosher discusses her position as strategy and innovation leader for Workforce Central Career Center One-Stop Career Center in Worcester.

EQUAL RIGHTS

Public Eye – JANUARY 26 – 1030PM – 30 Minutes

Carrie Lukas, managing director of policy for the non-profit Independent Women's Forum (IWF) believes women have made great strides and are not dependent on government handouts.

HEALTH

Inquiry – MARCH 16 – 9PM – 60 Minutes

Theresa Morris, Professor of Sociology at Trinity College, Hartford, CT, talks about her new book titled Cut It Out: The C-Section Epidemic In America.

Inquiry – MARCH 9 – 9PM – 60 Minutes

A new study reveals that this notorious stimulant may enhance learning and help treat Parkinson's, schizophrenia and other neurological diseases. Discover magazine's Dan Hurley reveals the findings.

Public Eye – MARCH 2 – 1030PM – 30 Minutes

When she moved to Barrington, Rhode Island, Andrea Caesar was an active, happy, vivacious ten-year-old who loved to play kickball and hang from the monkey bars. A year later, Andrea had trouble catching her breath while running, was plagued by migraines, and battled constant muscle aches. Although she did not know it at the time, she had contracted Borrelia burgdorferi, better known as Lyme disease. Caesar talks about this disease and her advice to others.

Business Beat – FEBRUARY 2 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Patricia Davidson, chair, and Janelle Wilson, executive director of Jeremiah's Inn, talk about the mission and business of helping men to battle substance abuse.

HISTORY

Public Eye – MARCH 16 – 1030PM – 30 Minutes

Journalist and author Cokie Roberts went to all-girls schools from K-12 then to college at Wellesley. In spite of this, she knew next to nothing about the role women played in the Revolution. "When we leave women out of history, we're missing half the story and are leaving out a part of history that is incredibly inspiring to girls and young women," says Cokie. Now in her new book: Founding Mothers, Roberts offers a new perspective as to the role played by our founding mothers.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Business Beat – MARCH 9 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Worcester City Councilor Sarai Rivera discusses the role of community development corporations in inner-city housing development.

Business Beat – FEBRUARY 23 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Joe Grafton, director of development and community engagement for the American Independent Business Alliance, and Julie Theriault, executive director of Worcester Local First, talk about how thinking - and acting - local helps to build healthy, sustainable communities.

SAFETY

Public Eye – FEBRUARY 9 – 1030PM – 30 Minutes

Dr. Peter Vincent Pry, Executive Director of the EMP task force on national and homeland security, discusses a Congressional advisory board dedicated to protecting the United States from weapons of mass destruction and the eventual destruction of our energy grids.

VETERANS

Business Beat – FEBRUARY 9 – 10PM – 30 Minutes

Richard Turner, manager of employment and training, and John Valis, employment and training specialist at Veterans Inc. and Farah Diba Sahnoun, associate recruiter of Manpower's Boston office discuss transitioning veterans out of homelessness.