

Quarterly Public Affairs Report – Cumulus Chattanooga

First Quarter, 2024

Program: Conversation Piece – a 30-minute Current Events / Public Affairs Program

Jan 7, 2024 – The Jed and JR in the Morning show goes on location to broadcast live from the Chatt Foundation, talking to volunteers and homeless clients.

Jan 14, 2024 – Chattanooga Mayor Tim Kelly discusses the higher price for the new Lookouts Stadium and the safety of pedestrians on the Northshore.

Jan 21, 24 – Encore broadcast of the Mayor Tim Kelly visit to the Jed and JR Morning Show.

Jan 28, 2024 – A discussion with Mike Dzik on the continuing fighting in Gaza and how it affects Jewish residents in America.

Feb 4, 2024 – Another discussion of the fighting in Gaza, this time from Austin Center, of the Jewish Federation in Chattanooga, who recently returned from the war-torn Israel.

Feb 11, 2024 – A repeat broadcast of the discussion with Austin Center of the Chattanooga Jewish Federation on the implications of war crimes by the IDF in Gaza.

Feb 18, 2024 – Jed and JR in the Morning on location at Hoppies Restaurant in Hixson, to discuss race in the Chattanooga Valley.

Feb 25, 2024 – A repeat broadcast of Jed and JR in the Morning's visit to Hoppies in Hixson to discuss race relations in the Chattanooga area.

Mar 3, 2024 – A visit from Chattanooga Mayor Tim Kelly to discuss ongoing efforts to make Frazier Avenue safer for pedestrians and his recent State of the City address.

Mar 10, 2024 – Dr. Rebecca Ashford of Chattanooga State discusses new programs available at the Community College, including a new Manufacturing Innovation Center.

Mar 17, 2024 – Technical difficulties. Did not air.

Mar 24, 2024 – Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp visits the Jed and JR Morning Show to discuss his State of the County address and the latest news from the county.

Mar 31, 2024 – More of Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp's State of the County address talking about the new jail and other matters of law enforcement.