6:30am to 7am

5:19 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: KXL reporter Brett Reckemp hears how Salem Police are turning to the internet to start getting rid of stuff at a discount. He says they have all kinds of stuff lying around and are actually renting storage space for it all. So, in an effort to actually save time and money, they're putting cheap prices on it and trying to get rid of it all while also bringing in some extra money for the department. And, if someone notices something that they think was stolen from them and they can prove it, they'll get it back for free.

ISSUE: TRANSPORTATION - CRIME

KXL (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

April 17th, 2016

6:30am to 7am

3:50 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: KXL reporter Joe Simons hears from Sergeant Neiman about the Sheriff's decision to take a look at accidents in the county and start not coming out to everyone. Neiman says if it's a fender bender, nobody is hurt or drunk, both parties have a valid driver's license and aren't in a city vehicle, then they won't be sending out a deputy to the crash scene. It's a cost cutting move and being done because of low staffing issues.

June 12th, 2016

6:30am to 7am

6:07 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: KXL reporter Brett Reckemp gets the latest from Dr. Nguyen about why drinking wine can be better for you if you're trying to shed some pounds. He says while wine is made from grapes, beer is made from barley and hops which have much more carbs and cause our body to spike insulin. That makes us store more fat and for guys, most of it ends up in our gut. Dr. Nguyen says while beer bellies are pretty common, you pretty much never see a wine belly. He says after a person hits their target weight, it's OK to enjoy some beer again – of course always in moderation!

3:38 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: KXL reporter Brett Reckemp gets a blow by blow of a very brazen robbery at Ben Bridge Jeweler in the mall. A man reportedly came in on Wednesday afternoon in broad daylight, took a sledge hammer to the counter – smashed his way in, grabbed 3 Rolex watches worth an estimated $100K and ran off. Cops used K9 units to track him to some nearby bushes and arrested him.

Guest: KXL reporter Joe Simons gets Steve's reaction to the news, he says it will cost farmers a lot of time and money. Trucker Steve says some will have to travel 30 miles out of their way to try and get equipment where it needs to be. Steve believes this is just the tip of the iceberg – he thinks the county should just pony up the dough to get the bridges fixed.

6:30am to 7am

10:06 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: KXL reporter Brett Reckemp talks with Willie Levenson – Ringleader Human Access Project about the 6th annual Big Float happening July 10th on the Willamette River. He expects about 4,000 people to turn-out. People get in inner-tubes and float down the Willamette to Tom McCall Park, then get out and have a party on the waterfront. The idea is to show that we care about our rivers and want to keep them clean. And, we want more access to rivers – even the Willamette!
