Children’s TV Act

The Children’s Television Act of 1990 (the “Act”) and the FCC’s regulations pursuant thereto require that cable and certain other television systems maintain records sufficient to determine whether they are in compliance with the commercial content restrictions of the Act with respect to “children’s programming.”

Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 4th Quarter 2016. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, Turner Classic Movies, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

Kindest Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Stephen Jones". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.
