

Sundial Quarterly Report

Quarterly Report Oct 1st- Dec 31st 2022

Topics and Issues

Sundial Now - 10.04.2022

Reuters video journalist Maria Alejandra Cardona joins Sundial Now to discuss what she is seeing on Florida's Gulf Coast.

Sundial Now - 10.20.2022

Fresh off her coverage of Hurricane Ian in Key West, WLRN's new Florida Keys reporter joins sundial Now to discuss storms, affordability and other headlines from the southernmost point. Gwen was part of the Pulitzer Prize-winning team that covered Hurricane Katrina for the New Orleans Times-Picayune and over a decade ago made Key West her home.

Sundial Now - 10.25.2022

Broward Commissioner Jared Moskowitz joins Sundial Now to reflect on 16 years in politics—from Broward to Tallahassee, and now vying for D.C. Throughout his career, the Democratic nominee for Florida's 23rd congressional district has been lauded and criticized for working with his political opponents — from helping pass a school safety bill after the Parkland shooting, to accepting a job in Governor Ron DeSantis' office.

Sundial Now - 10.27.2022

How did Floridians' tax dollars play a role in Governor Ron DeSantis' recent operation to send migrants from San Antonio, Texas to Martha's Vineyard? A new Miami Herald investigation looked into the state's controversial migrant relocation program.

Sundial Now - 10.31.2022

For this year's Halloween sketch, Miami-born actress and content creator Jenny Lorenzo shows us what it would be like if Scooby-Doo was Latino. As the video grows into another hit for the content creator — it already has more than 300,000 views after just 10 days — she joined Sundial Now to talk about her blossoming career, her love of dressing up in costumes and her complicated relationship with Miami.

Sundial Now - 11.18.2022

A literary journal penned by incarcerated people in Florida is being presented at the Miami Book Fair.

Sundial Rundown 12.12 - 12. 15 2022

All Sundial Segments are subject to change

Monday 12.12

WLRN Sundial host Carlos Frías talks with Felipe Valls Jr. about his father, inventor of Cuban coffee windows and founder of famous Cuban restaurant Versailles.

Pre-tape

Tuesday 12.13

Columnist Leonard Pitts Jr. talks with WLRN Sundial's Carlos Frías about retirement, race, comics, music and what's next for this author.

Pre-tape

Wednesday 12.14 - NO SUNDIAL / SCHOOL BOARD

Thursday 12.15

Miami writer and former WLRN reporter Nadege Green speaks to Sundial host Carlos Frías about community love and a new book of stories about gun violence in Miami.

Pre-tape

Sundial Rundown 12.19 - 12. 22 2022

All Sundial Segments are subject to change

Monday 12.19 - NO SUNDIAL / Special coverage, Jan. 6
Committee Hearings

Tuesday 12.20

Author Jonathan Escoffery talks with WLRN Sundial's Carlos Frías about his first book, If I Survive You, which was nominated for a National Book Award. His book of interconnected fictional stories draws on his real experience of a Jamaican family fleeing political oppression and immigrating to Miami — where they confront issues of race, class and crushing economic disparity.

LIVE - ZOOM

Wednesday 12.21

Miami Herald reporter Jacqueline Charles talks with WLRN Sundial's Carlos Frías about Haiti, growing up in Miami, identity and Haiti expertise.

Pre-tape

Thursday 12.22

A couple from Michigan moved down to the Florida Keys because they saw a Corona Christmas commercial. Years later, they dared to recreate that commercial by decorating a lonely pine tree on the old Seven-Mile Bridge.

Pre-tape

Sundial Rundown 12.26 - 12. 29 2022

All Sundial Segments are subject to change

Monday 12.26 - NO SUNDIAL / HOLIDAY

Tuesday 12.27 - REBROADCAST

Columnist Leonard Pitts Jr. talks with WLRN Sundial's Carlos Frías about retirement, race, comics, music and what's next for this author.

Pre-tape / self-contained

Wednesday 12.28

Carlos Frías speaks with Ryan Pfeffer, the Miami Senior Editor of The Infatuation, for an end-of-year conversation about the highlights of restaurants and the food scene in South Florida in 2022.

LIVE - in studio

Thursday 12.29

Carlos Frías speaks with Books&Books founder and owner, Mitchell Kaplan, and Miami Herald journalist Connie Ogle about the best books of 2022 and what they're looking forward to in 2023.

LIVE - in studio

###