Subject: Gender Issues In Seattle

Guest: Scott Trettenero

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/22/16

Time Aired: 6:45 – 7:00 a.m.

Summary: Gender in Seattle and across the country generates many discussions of a wide array of topics - some traditional American sitcom style thinking, other times spurring discussions of bathroom rules and appropriateness. We live in a time where huge power sources like the Catholic Church still hold roles they deem only appropriate for men. The conversations stretches back for a hundreds of generations, and Trettenero boils them down - possibly controversially - when discussing his book Master the Mystery of Human Nature.

Compliance issues covered: Gender/Culture

Subject: Health And Wellness

Guest: Faye Hueston

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 05/29/2016

Time Aired: 6:45 – 7:00 a.m.

Summary: Summary: As modern medicine continues to grow and change, it's easy to go down a path well funded by research from publicity campaigns, private donors, and anecdotal stories of those who have survived and those who have lost. But not everyone simply ditches the search for knowledge in acceptance of the accepted norm.

In her thought-provoking book, Invisible Enemy, author Faye Hueston writes about her mysterious and debilitating illness which, after years of being dismissed as psychosomatic or "all in her mind," was finally diagnosed by a clinical ecology doctor as a collapsed immune system due to pesticide poisoning." it took leaving the US to find treatment that could turn her life around.

Subject: Affordable Care Act

Guest: Leonard Zwelling

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5-29-16

Time Aired: 6:15 – 6:30 a.m.

Summary: For better or worse, the Affordable Care Act will be an important piece of Barack Obama's legacy. Leonard Zwelling, MD, sheds light on little-known details of perhaps one of the most controversial legislative efforts during Obama's term in office in Red Kool Aid Blue Kool Aid: How Partisan Politics and Greed Undermined Obama Care.

Red Kool Aid Blue Kool Aid is the dizzying memoir of Dr. Zwelling's experience on Capitol Hill as a Robert Wood Johnson Foundation health policy fellow, struggling to bring some medicine and science to a highly politicized environment of big money and bigger politics. In the process, the details of the city of Washington, DC and its Byzantine operation are revealed. The forces influencing legislation are never discussed on the TV news shows and rarely in the press at all, he points out but is revealed somewhat in his book

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Aging/Culture

Guest: Chris Orestis

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 06/12/16

Time Aired: 6:00 – 6:15 a.m.

Summary: More than a year ago, Ezekiel J. Emanuel – a nationally recognized doctor penned a peculiar article titled “Why I Hope To Die At 75.” In it, Emanuel acknowledged that death deprives us of our most precious resource: time – including time spent with loved ones and engaged in other worthwhile experiences. But he added that living too long may also be a loss, especially under rapidly declining or severely disabling conditions. In the face of uncertainty and death, how can one know if it's too long to be alive. What are the drawbacks to living so long?

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Seattle Nutrition For Families

Guest: Natasha Trenev

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 06/12/16

Time Aired: 6:45 – 7:00 a.m.

Summary: Seattle is a city regularly pushing humans toward progress. We lead the pack with technology, place strong emphasis on understanding our impact on the world, and we offer such a rich culture of dietary options - from eating tasty sodo barbeque to vegan living in madison valley. There's so much we don't understand about our own biology in part thanks to the trillions of bacteria living inside of us! Those bacteria outnumber us.

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Spirituality

Guest: Diane M Hoffman

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/19/16

Time Aired: 6:15 – 6:30 a.m.

Summary: Pew Research indicates that about 2 of every 5 Americans attends church - or at least claims to attend. The church used to be THE guide through life for most of our culture, but as times change and evolve, what struggles will the church face to update its own dogma and ideology to grow with change? Diane M Hoffman isn't just involved in Ministry, she's spent a large portion of her life being educated in Theology and degrees along the way. She's written a new book 24 Hot Potatoes In The Church Today.

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: The Rise of Sci-Fi

Guest: David Weber

Length: 12:29

Date Aired: 6/19/16

Time Aired: 6:45 – 7:00 a.m.

Summary: In Seattle we live amongst wonderful squishy nerd brains both looking to consume excellent entertainment, and create the things we consume. In the area, many awesome gaming companies provide the world with fun. It's a wonderful place to be, but why are we currently churning out and enjoying more sci-fi, fantasy, and fiction than ever before? David Weber is an author that's been at it for the best part of 25 years of writing including 50 novels, miniseries adult and young adult works. If anyone has had a chance to witness the rise of fantasy and science fiction culture, it's Mr. Weber.

Subject: Technology/Wellness

Guest: Sifu Slim

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/19/16

Time Aired: 6:30 – 6:45 a.m.

Summary: The world would be super dull if it weren't for changes that define eras and generations, but that doesn't necessarily mean that we've changed for the better. Thanks to technology, getting lost is a thing of a past with GPS, smartphones, 4g and more, but it's also reverting our communication from words spoken to one another or written and read upon a page to emojis with smiling faces or glyphs of delicious foods.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Wellness, Education/Community/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Plant-based diet

Guest: Jane Mitchell

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 6/19/16

Time Aired: 6:45 – 7:00 a.m.

Summary: Jane teaches the listeners about the plant based diet and gives her opinion on why we should all be vegans or at the least reduce our consumption of meat.

Subject: Gay Marriage

Guest: Hillel Presser

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/26/16

Time Aired: 6:45 – 7:00 a.m.

Summary: It's the end of wedding season in Washington - imagine the beautiful photos with the changing leaves. When legally joining, it's more than just love, it's ultimately combining the financial lives of two people - perhaps that just ran up a big wedding bill. Yikes. What are the practices we should know about leading into a marriage, and how can we prepare ourselves for the potential worst outcome: divorce? Hillel L Presser is an attorney that specializes in these tricky matters - imagine if you knew what could potentially be a nightmare in the future before it was too late - sure you may not be able to predict the outcome of a marriage, sadly, but knowing some steps about how to handle things before might be nice.
