

WSVX Quarterly Reports & Issues, 3rd quarter 2023

Community involvement, Upcoming eclipse event	Rachael Ackley appeared on Morning Show with what county is doing, preparing for regarding 2024 eclipse. Conversation included what people need to do to host an eclipse event, liability and insurance concerns. Also, examples of Hendersonville, KY experiences for a similar event years ago	July 20 30 min 9 am
--	--	---------------------------

Community involvement, Upcoming eclipse event	EMA Director Denis Ratekin talks eclipse 2024 regarding how local law enforcement is handling the event with no days off for officers, that ambulances may be situated strategically around the county to better response times with what are expected to be massive crowds in Shelby County.	Aug 1 25 min 8 am
--	---	-------------------------

Government, solar farms	Commissioner Kevin Nigh discusses the hot topic of solar farms and the decision to install a moratorium on future solar farms while further investigation into their future, safety, takes place.	Aug 15 20 min 8:10 am
-------------------------	---	-----------------------------

Rural broadband, State government	State Sen. Jean Leising discusses how residents can request broadband access through the Indiana Connectivity Program. Rural broadband continues to be a concern for several geographic regions of the state and a good portion of Shelby County. Sen Leising also previews a few items she believes will be at the top of the agenda when the next legislative session opens in January.	Sept 6 25 min 8:30 am
--------------------------------------	---	-----------------------------

Civic event, contribution to Shelbyville HS	WSVX pulled the Sophomores float in the SHS Homecoming parade. It was the first time in several years that the station had been a part of the event and directly contributed to the class having a successful event. WSVX also played 80's music through the drive to enhance the float's theme.	Sept 20 3 hours 4-7 pm
---	--	------------------------------

Health	With the usual uptick in mosquito concerns amidst a wetter than normal spring season, Robert Lewis with the Shelby County Health Dept. appeared to talk about repelling mosquitos, destroying standing water and the health concerns of the virus. Additional warnings prompted by discovery of West Nile in northern Ind counties	Aug 24 8:10 am 20 min
--------	--	-----------------------------

Public safety,
Fireworks safety,
4th of July

Indiana State Fire Marshal Jim Greeson appeared on GIANT fm to detail the laws involved and ways to be safe this fireworks season. Greeson also talked about campfire safety.

July 12
25 min
9 am

---

---

Health, fundraising
Local events

Representatives of Our Hospice appeared on the Morning Show to preview their annual summer fundraising concert at Mill Race Park. The concert brings in about 10,000 people and serves as a major fundraiser for Our Hospice.

Aug 30
30 min
9:30 am

Details included what you can and can't bring, how to come into the park on concert day and other activities surrounding the event that are also fundraisers to Our Hospice.

---

---