

Quarterly Reports & Issues, WSVX (96.5, 106.3, AM 1520)

1st quarter 2023

Indiana agriculture, Economics	Newly appointed Indiana Ag Dept Director Don Lamb on his new position, influences of local ag on world markets and his impression of local organizations at the Shelby County Ag Promotion Committee and how it can help spread the word on agriculture to the state.	Mar 5 8:05 a 30 min
-----------------------------------	---	---------------------------

State govt, roads funding,	State Sen. Jean Leising details plans for the state to increase mental health funding, school safety, energy and utility legislation	Feb 28 9am 35 min
-------------------------------	--	-------------------------

Drugs, govt Crime	Shelby Co. Prosecutor Brad Landwerlen details information regarding rehab and addiction programs available in light of increased overdoses and drug arrests in the county	Feb 21 8:10 a 25 min
----------------------	---	----------------------------

Health, charity	Brittany Fannin on SASS ((Shelby Accessing Social Supports) And its annual Hygiene Drive. Points included the need for hygiene products by many in the community, economic concerns with today's inflation, the homeless in the local area, and how people can donate to help the cause.	Mar 2 8:30 a 25 min
-----------------	---	---------------------------

Public safety, Weather, emergency	Emergency Management and Preparedness Director Mary Moran appear on the midday show to talk about Severe Weather preparedness week with spring's storms and tornado possibilities approaching. Discusses how to plan for severe weather, having a home an business plan ready to go, how to recognize severe weather.	Mar 10 9 am 20 min
--------------------------------------	--	--------------------------

Schools,
Bullying,
Legislation

SCS Superintendent Matt Vance and Asst. Superintendent discuss bullying concerns at Shelbyville Central.

Mar 24
8:30 a
25 min

Conversation points included legislation on bullying at the Statehouse, procedures for handling cases at the local schools and the current rising concern about bullying amongst parents and students.
