Since 1978, Food Share has been feeding the hungry in Ventura County. It all began when eight friends banded together to provide food to those in need under a bridge in Ventura, CA. Today, staff and volunteers distribute more than 13 million pounds of food, or nearly 12 million meals annually through its 190 pantry and program partners. As Ventura County's regional food bank, Food Share provides food for over 75,000 hungry friends and neighbors monthly. Food Share is a member of Feeding America, the nation's largest hunger-relief network of food banks, as well as the California Association of Food Banks.

Ventura County Public Health, Tobacco Policy Program The program educates and informs the community about the negative health effects of tobacco. The program also works to reduce the availability of tobacco to youth and exposure to secondhand smoke in indoor and outdoor environments. The County of Ventura's Public Health department, is deeply concerned about the rising number of teens using flavored e-cigarettes. According to the CDC's National Youth Tobacco Survey - there was a 78 percent surge in e-cigarette use among high school students from 2017 to 2018. Youth use of tobacco products in any form is unsafe. If cigarette smoking continues at the current rate among youth in this country, 5.6 million of today's Americans younger than 18 will die early from a smoking-related illness. That's about 1 in every 13 Americans aged 17 years or younger who are alive today. Research shows us, Teens who vape are 3 times more likely to smoke cigarettes within a year. • A report released by the California Medical Association finds that youth are attracted to sweet flavors and, with the help of targeted marketing, youth are much more likely to try and then continue to use a tobacco product that is flavored. Tobacco flavors like chocolate, strawberry, and bubble gum, 15,500 flavors in all, help mask the harshness of tobacco and lure our kids who have never used tobacco products before into a lifetime of addiction.

May is Older Americans month. This was designated to celebrate the contributions that older adults make to our community. This year's theme is Make Your Mark, which highlights the difference everyone can make in the lives of older adults.

One thing we can all do to protect older adults is to protect them from Elder Abuse and Neglect, which may take the form of financial and physical abuse, neglect and self-neglect. If you are concerned about an older adult in Ventura County you can make a report to the Elder Abuse Hotline 24/7 at 805-654-3200. "Be honorable, protect the vulnerable."

According to the National Council on Aging, approximately 1 in 10 Americans aged 60+ has experienced some form of elder abuse. It is estimated that every year 5 million older adults are victims of abuse. One study estimated that only 1 in 14 cases of abuse are reported to authorities.

Last year in Ventura County, Adult Protective Services responded to 5,000 reports of vulnerable adult abuse, neglect and self-neglect. If you have concerns about an older or an adult with disabilities in Ventura County,

Organization: TENDER LIFE ANNUAL WALK

Guests: EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR JIM DURAN

The Tender Life Maternity Home 2020 Annual Fundraiser Walk is upon us. We are walking to raise money to fund our maternity home. All funds raised will be used to provide shelter and related expenses. Where this money is really going, if we're honest, is the purchase of opportunities. Opportunities for these women to learn coping skills, life skills and resume skills – among many other things. These skills will allow these women to provide a better life for their children. It will help them to meet life's challenges the right way – with prayer and positivity. Our focus turns outward to a world of people who really need what God offers. So, we intentionally share the love of God with people who have never come into a relationship with Him. We invite others to join us. We serve those who are hurting or in need. In our church. At our work. In our schools. Around our neighborhoods. We are a part of what God is doing globally to relieve suffering and hopelessness and bring the gospel to those who have never heard. We describe all of this as engaging the world.
