FACE THE NATION

- 09/05/10 Guests: Laura Tyson, White House Economic Recovery and Advisory Board (1); Mark Zandi, Chief Economist, Moody's Analytics (1); Gretchen Morgenson, The New York Times (1); Nancy Cordes, CBS News Congressional Correspondent (2); Jim VandeHei, Executive Editor, Politico (2)
Guest Moderator: Harry Smith, Anchor, The Early Show
1) Topics include: speculation regarding President Obama's next steps to help jumpstart the lagging economy, such as suspending the payroll tax and making permanent tax cuts for businesses involved in technological research and development / effect of homeowner debt on the economy / soon-to-expire Bush tax cuts / negative opinions regarding the implementation of the first stimulus program / call for a second stimulus package, focusing on job creation through the development of unaddressed infrastructure needs
2) Topics include: effect both the current economic reality and the upcoming midterm elections have on Republicans and Democrats / trend amongst the Democratic candidates of distancing themselves from the Obama administration / lack of desire from the Republicans in Congress to accomplish anything substantial / speculation that the Democrats will lose the House of Representatives / how finances will play a part for Democratic, Republican, and Tea Party candidates / claim privately expressed by some Democrats that focusing on health care reform was a mistake / call for President Obama to re-energize his base
- 09/12/10 Guests: Representative John Boehner (R-OH), House Republican Leader (1); Tom Kean, Co-chairman, 9/11 Commission (2); Representative Keith Ellison (D-MN) (2)
1) Topics include: support for extending the Bush tax cuts / claim that small business income will be taxed under President Obama's proposal / promise to vote for a bill extending tax cuts for the lower and middle classes, even if it did not include extending tax cuts for Americans in the so-called "upper brackets"; criticism against the bill to reform Wall Street because it didn't address the three problems that caused the financial crisis -- Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and subprime lending; justification for accepting the large campaign contributions from the tobacco industry; plan to repeal Obama's health plan; thoughts on the upcoming November elections
2) Topics include: report from the 9/11 Commission, outlining the growing terrorism threat -- smaller attacks carried out by American citizens / Representative Ellison's agreement with the analysis provided in the report, but concern as to how that information will be used / reasons behind the growing anti-Islamic sentiment in America / call to deal with the majority of Muslims in good faith / Representative Ellison's desire to forge a bill to help study violent radicalization
- 09/19/10 Guests: former President Bill Clinton (1); Michael Gerson, The Washington Post (2); Ed Rollins, Republican Strategist (2)
1) Topics include: focus of this year's Clinton Global Initiative; reasons behind the rise in poverty in the United States; factors behind the Tea Party's ability to secure a foothold in the American political system; why President Obama continues to receive intense opposition from the Republicans and how he has handled it / belief that losing control in the Senate or House of Representatives could increase President Obama's chance of being re-elected
2) Topics include: reaction to a 1999 excerpt from "Politically Incorrect", containing footage of Tea Party member and winner of the Delaware Republican Senate primary, Christine O'Donnell, admitting to having dabbled in witchcraft / impact of the Tea Party movement on the Republican Party
- 09/26/10 Guests: Marco Rubio (R-FL), Candidate for U.S. Senate (1); Ken Buck (R-CO), Candidate for U.S. Senate (2); Sal Russo, Chief Strategist, Tea Party Express (3)
1) Topics include: explanation of the Tea Party movement / criticism against the Republican Party; pledge to save Social Security; opinion of Arizona's immigration law; response to critics who charge him with being fiscally irresponsible
2) Topics include: plan to get government spending under control / support for extending the Bush tax cuts; clarification on his stance regarding abortion and birth control; call for Veterans Administration hospitals to be run by the private sector, instead of the government; common beliefs shared between all Tea Party candidates
3) Topics include: how the Tea Party Express is financed / what the Tea Party Express looks for before backing a potential candidate; fundamental beliefs of the Tea Party movement / decision of the Tea Party Express to focus on economic issues / belief that the Tea Party has been a boost for economically conservative candidates

60 MINUTES

- 09/05/10 “60 Billion Dollar Fraud” - a report on Medicare and Medicaid fraud, focusing on criminals in South Florida, who set up phony clinics and pharmacies and, with the use of illegally obtained but valid patient numbers and Medicare codes, are able to bill Medicare for unrequested and undelivered supplies. Interviewed: FBI Special Agent Brian Waterman; Justice Department prosecutor Kirk Ogrisky, who oversees half a dozen Medicare fraud strike forces; United States Attorney General Eric Holder; “Tony” (not his real name), who ran a string of phony medical supply companies; Clara Mahoney and Ed Davis, two Medicare patients who reported fraudulent charges on their Medicare statements; and Kim Brandt, Medicare’s Director of Program Integrity. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen, Joel Bach) (OAD: 10/25/09)
- “The Seed School” - a profile of The SEED Public Charter School, the nation’s first urban public boarding school. With admission by lottery only, this charter school, paid for by private and government money, aims to provide poor inner city students with the twenty-four hour supportive academic and social environment of the boarding school experience. Includes interviews with: Raj Vinnakota and Eric Adler, creators of the concept of SEED; Charles Adams, the head of school; Lesley Poole, SEED administrator; Jawan Harris, SEED teacher. Also interviewed are several SEED students. (C: Byron Pitts - P: Ruth Streeter) (OAD: 05/23/10)
- “Doubles” - a profile and interview with Mike and Bob Bryan, identical twins who are pro tennis’ leading doubles champions. Also includes comments by their father, Wayne Bryan, and by tennis player brothers Patrick and John McEnroe. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On) (OAD: 03/21/10)
- 09/12/10 “21st Century Snake Oil” - a report on medical conmen who claim that their stem cell therapies can reverse incurable diseases such as cancer, multiple sclerosis and Lou Gehrig’s disease (ALS). Focussing on Lawrence Stowe (of Stowe Biotherapy, La Mesa, California) and his associate, Frank Morales, hidden cameras document their false promises and exorbitant financial requests. Also discussed is how the potential promise of stem cell research has prompted the proliferation of bogus stem cell clinics which, via the internet, have a global reach. Includes interviews with: Steven Watters and Michael Martin, ALS victims; Lawrence Stowe, medical conman; Frank Morales, medical conman; Keith Erickson and his wife, Muna, a multiple sclerosis victim and former patient of Stowe; Professor Sean Morrison, director, University of Michigan Center for Stem Cell Biology; Larry Goldstein, stem cell biologist, and Doug Sipp, researcher, International Society for Stem Cell Research. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Gelber, Sam Hornblower, Michael Radutzky) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT (OAD: 04/18/10). This 09/12/10 rebroadcast includes a brief update by Scott Pelley at its conclusion.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

09/04/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Lies and Whispers” (9:00-10:00p) - A follow-up to “Sex, Lies And The Doctor’s Wife” (OAD: 11/12/05) and “Truth On Trial” (OAD: 11/15/08), detailing the third trial of Daniel Wade Moore, who was first convicted of murdering Karen Tipton, a mother and wife of psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, in her Decatur, Alabama home in 1999. As detailed in “Truth On Trial”, eight months after his conviction, in 2005, the verdict was reversed by the same judge who had sentenced him to death. A second trial was held, ending in a hung jury. This report details his third trial (2009) in which his lawyers made use of new evidence to turn suspicion back to Dr. Tipton, by using an FBI report that said Karen Tipton was having multiple affairs and may have known her killer. After a month of testimony, Moore is found not guilty of the crime. Moore has moved away from Alabama after receiving death threats and plans to sue the city of Decatur and police for violating his right to a fair trial. Interviewed: Daniel Wade Moore; Sherman Powell, Moore’s attorney; presiding Judge Glenn Thompson; Dr. David Tipton; Ken Collier, former chief of investigations for the Decatur Police who is now the police chief; Sparky Moore, Moore’s uncle; Pam Smith, a Tipton neighbor; Co-prosecutor Corey Maze; Virginia Byrd, Moore’s mother. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Susan Mallie, Paul LaRosa) See also: “Sex, Lies And The Doctor’s Wife” (OAD: 11/12/05; rebroadcast on 06/06/06) and “Truth On Trial” - an update of “Sex, Lies And The Doctor’s Wife” (OAD: 11/15/08). 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 09/04/10 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Krystal’s Courage” (10:00-11:00p) - an updated and edited version of “Krystal’s Courage” (OAD 08/16/02). On December 30, 1999, 10-year-old Krystal Surles, a Yates, Kansas girl, and her friend Kaylene Harris were attacked in Kaylene’s Del Rio, Texas home, by a knife-wielding intruder who slashed both girls’ throats. Kaylene died... Krystal not only survived the attack but was able to help a police sketch artist draw an image that led to the arrest of her attacker, Tommy Lynn Sells. After his arrest Sells confessed to the crime and revealed that he had been traveling across the country killing men, women and children for twenty years and had never in the past left a witness alive. Krystal Surles testified during Sells’ trial for the December 1999 murder of Kaylene Harris, which ended in his being sentenced to death. This updated edition includes new commentary by Krystal Surles; Marque Surles, her sister; Pam Surles, her mother; Mark Surles, her father; Johnny Allen, Texas Ranger. Updated text graphic at conclusion: Krystal, now 20, lives with her father in Idaho. Tommy Lynn Sells has been on death row for nine years. (C: Harold Dow - P: Chris Young) (OAD as “Krystal’s Courage”, a two-part edition of 48 HOURS MYSTERIES, with an original broadcast date of 08/16/02. “Krystal’s Courage” was originally broadcast as “Dead Men Tell No Tales” Part I, 02/01/01 and as “Dead Men Tell No Tales” Part II, 02/08/01.) (OAD: 11/28/09). This 09/04/10 rebroadcast includes a brief video postscript featuring commentary by the late Correspondent Harold Dow on the occasion of his reunion with Krystal and her family in 2009.
- 09/11/10 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Innocence Lost” - a follow-up to “Who Killed These Girls” (OAD: 03/25/92) and “Deadly Encounters” (OAD: 09/14/98). In December 1991, four teenage girls were found murdered in an Austin, Texas yogurt shop. The girls had been tied up, stripped down, at least one was raped, shot in the head and their naked bodies were stacked in a corner then set on fire. In the weeks after the murders, authorities received countless tips, many false confessions and even interrogated teenagers Maurice Pierce, Michael Scott, Robert Springsteen and Forrest Welborn. With no solid evidence, they were released. There were no developments in the investigation until 1999, when new detectives assigned to the case made the announcement that they had made four arrests: the same four suspects, whom police had interrogated to eight years earlier. The charges against Welborn and Pierce were dropped. Scott and Springsteen each stood trial for murder. Both were convicted, with Springsteen sentenced to death and Scott sentenced to life in prison. On appeal, the convictions were overturned when DNA evidence did not match any of the suspects. It was from an unknown male. The Travis County District Attorney, Rosemary Lehmborg, says there is no statute of limitations for murder, and they will continue the investigation until the person(s) responsible for these murders are brought to justice. For now Scott and Springsteen are free; and the girls’ families are still dealing with the deaths of their daughters. Interviewed: John Jones, lead detective in 1991; Mike Huckabay, Jones’ partner; Bob Ayers, Pam Ayers, Barbara Ayers-Wilson, Maria Thomas, parents of the victims; suspects Forrest Welborn, Robert Springsteen; Jim Sawyer, Springsteen’s attorney; District Attorney Rosemary Lehmborg; Saul Kassin, psychology professor at John Jay College for Criminal Justice (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 01/09/10)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Vegas Heat" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report on the December 14, 2005 discovery of the charred corpse of a young woman, found in a burned-out car on a Las Vegas, Nevada desert road. The car was registered to Kelly Ryan, a fitness champion who is married to Craig Titus, a Mr. Olympia competitor. Both were stars of the body building world and also hard partiers, known for using illegal drugs and pain killers. The unrecognizable body was initially thought to be Ryan, but authorities were stunned when they arrived at the couple's house only to be greeted by her at the door. When asked about the car, Craig and Kelly claimed that it had been taken the day before by Melissa James, their 31-year-old live-in assistant and a dancer, who was headed to New Jersey to spend Christmas with her mother. Melissa never made it to New Jersey and when pressed, Craig and Kelly accused her of theft -- that she stole the Jaguar and used Kelly's debit card to steal from them. Detectives were lucky and discovered that Kelly's debit card was last used at Wal-Mart by Kelly, who purchased seven bottles of lighter fluid. Panicked by the police visit, Craig and Kelly confided in Megan Foley, Kelly's friend, that a fight between Kelly and Melissa had spiraled out of control -- Kelly tased Melissa, injected her with narcotics and that it ended when Craig choked her. Megan's attorney contacted the police. Armed with that information, police issued a warrant for their arrest. Eventually, the FBI tracked the couple to Boston, where they were charged with murder and arson. Twenty-one days after the body was found, it was officially identified as Melissa James. But because the body was so badly burned, the coroner could not say for sure how Melissa died or if it was even murder. Craig had a different story and in an interview, told 48 HOURS that Melissa had attacked Kelly and that he interceded on his wife's behalf. Enraged, Melissa ran upstairs to her room and when Craig checked on her, she was dead. Craig also claimed that he, Melissa, and Kelly had been using drugs for days leading up to the fight and that her death was an overdose. High on drugs, they panicked and disposed of her body in the desert. As the trial was about to begin, Craig and Kelly each accepted a plea deal -- Craig for second-degree murder, kidnapping, and arson; Kelly for battery and arson. After further courtroom dramatics, Craig Titus was sentenced to 21 to 55 years and Kelly Ryan to six to 17 years in prison. Craig has filed a motion to reduce his sentence. Kelly says her marriage to Craig is over. Graphic update for the 07/14/09 rebroadcast: Craig Titus' request to reduce his sentence or let him stand trial was denied. Kelly Ryan has filed for a divorce. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson, Chris O'Connell) (OAD: 11/08/08; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/14/09)

09/18/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Buried Secrets of Las Vegas" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the death of gaming tycoon Ted Binion, who was found dead in his Las Vegas home more than a decade ago. The son of legendary gambling impresario Benny Binion, Ted was a brilliant casino operator himself. Paranoid about his wealth, he stashed millions of dollars worth of silver in a hidden vault in Pahrump, Nevada. Ted was also addicted to smoking heroin. Prior to his death, he became involved with Sandy Murphy, and it was she who told police in September 1998 that she had found him dead of an apparent drug overdose. However Binion's sister, Becky Binion Behnen, insisted to police that this was no drug overdose and demanded an investigation. Police discovered that Sandy was having an affair with Rick Tabish, and theorized that they were trying to steal Ted's buried treasure. Both were charged with his murder and both were found guilty of murder in the first degree. While imprisoned, Sandy contacted Alan Dershowitz, who agreed to take on her appeal. The Nevada Supreme Court agreed with Dershowitz's arguments and overturned both convictions. After the second trial, both Murphy and Tabish were found not guilty of murder, but were found guilty of stealing Binion's buried silver from the Pahrump vault. Many believe that much of Binion's money is still missing. 48 HOURS retained ground sonar experts to search the Binion estate, which had remained empty since his death; nothing was found. Tabish remains in prison because of a prior record; Murphy returned to California where she married an art dealer. Tabish's latest bid for parole is under consideration. Murphy is suing the state of Nevada, alleging false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. Interviewed: Sandy Murphy; Wayne Newton, Las Vegas entertainer; Glenn Puit, author; Becky Binion Behnen, Ted's sister; Christine Lefkowitz, Las Vegas realtor; Wayne Peterson, the Las Vegas Police Lieutenant who led the investigation; Ed Howard, Nye County Police Lieutenant, who saw Tabish digging up the vault in Pahrump; Attorney Alan Dershowitz; Rainey Williams, evidence custodian; and Jared Lampe, ground penetrating radar technician. Graphic update for the 09/18/10 rebroadcast: Rich Tabish was released on parole May 17, 2010, after more than ten years in prison. Ted Binion's home on Palomino Drive remains unsold. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: James STOL, Chris O'Connell, Jenni Jackson) (OAD: 01/23/10)

09/25/10

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Killing Game” - a report on the California criminal justice system’s 40-year pursuit of Rodney James Alcalá, from his 1968 abduction, rape and attempted murder of 8-year old Tali Shapiro in Los Angeles, to his 2010 conviction --with the help of advances in DNA technology -- for the kidnapping, rape and murder of five California women. Although he had been initially apprehended in New York in 1971, the prosecution at that time had no choice but to enter into a plea agreement with Alcalá: Tali Shapiro’s parents had moved out of the country after the incident, and Tali was unavailable for trial. He pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of child molestation and was ultimately convicted -- but released by a parole board after thirty-four months in prison. In 1979, Alcalá abducted and murdered 12-year-old Robin Samson. With the help of her friend, Bridget Wilvurt, police identified Alcalá as a suspect. He was arrested for Robin Samson’s murder. Police discovered a storage facility he had rented in Seattle, which contained photographs he had taken of more than one hundred young women, including photos which placed him near the scene of Robin Samson’s abduction. It also contained jewelry worn by Robin, and identified as such by her mother. In February 1980, Alcalá went on trial; he was convicted, and sentenced to death. In 1984, the California State Supreme Court then ruled that he had not received a fair trial. He was tried and convicted a second time...and again the verdict was overturned. In 2003, DNA technology enabled Los Angeles Deputy District Attorney Gina Satriano to link Alcalá to three other unsolved murders: Jill Barcomb, Georgia Wixted, and Charlotte Lamb, all of whom had been killed between November 1977 and June 1978. Evidence also linked Alcalá to the 1979 murder of another Los Angeles woman, Jill Parenteau. In January 2010, Alcalá went on trial for all of these murders -- and was found guilty and sentenced to death. Includes interviews with: Chris Camacho, Los Angeles police officer; Matt Murphy, deputy District Attorney, Orange County, CA; Steve Hodel, detective; Bridget Wilvurt, friend of Robin Samson; Marianne Connelly, mother of Robin Samson; Robert and Tim Samson, brothers of Robin Samson; Beth Kelleher, former girlfriend of Alcalá; Pat Ellis, Detective; Lori Werts, photo subject of Alcalá; Gina Satriano, deputy District Attorney, Los Angeles; Tali Shapiro, victim of Alcalá; Graphic conclusion: investigators want the public’s help in identifying people in Rodney Alcalá’s photographs. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

09/26/10

“Faith In Action” - a report on how young people are creating change today in a world of conflict, poverty, and social inequality. Among the examples portrayed: (1) Artsbridge, a conflict resolution leadership program founded by Debbie Nathan, a mental health counselor and art therapist, who wanted to start a program that helps young people living in conflict. Each July, Israeli and Palestinian high school students are invited to Boston, Massachusetts, to collaborate on an art project. (2) Students from the Gates Presbyterian Church Youth Group in Rochester, New York, came to New York City to volunteer for the Youth Services Opportunities Project (YSOP), a decades-old service-oriented program inspired by the Quakers. Working alongside Lisa Gesson, Program Director for YSOP, they volunteered at the Congregation B’nai Jeshurun lunch program. (3) Aaron Dorfman, Vice President of Programs, described the work of American Jewish World Services, an organization which provides the opportunity for young adults (ages 16-24) to volunteer for summer projects in impoverished areas around the world. A recent project in Ghana is focused on. (4) Nadia, a young Muslim woman, is followed as she fulfills her faith obligations during the holy month of Ramadan. “Muslims Against Hunger”, a non-profit organization, is one such place where Nadia volunteers. Zamir Hassan, the founder of the organization, discusses how the volunteers of all faiths work in underserved communities in 20 different cities across the United States, serving hot lunches and dinners to the homeless and working poor. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Kathleen Fieffe. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; United States Conference of Catholic Bishops; The Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis.)
