Alabama News Network, the station's local news programs air at the times listed above. "Alabama News Network is Every Where" is the station's slogan. There are working newsrooms in Montgomery, West Alabama, and Troy. When news breaks in the West Alabama Newsroom, we are must faster in getting to the scene with live coverage; during hurricane season, we can cover dangerous conditions more easily by having the South Alabama newsroom with its live capabilities. When news happens in Troy, we have a one hour head start on the competition. They're on the road while we're on the air. Crews live in these areas; they know the people and the issues and can provide live coverage when news breaks 24 hours a day. Alabama News Rising and the 11 A.M. Newscasts starts off the day's coverage with news that happened over night, and a look at stories in the making; the 5:30P; 10P; and weekend newscasts on Saturday at 6P and 10P; Sunday at 5:30P and 10P consist of late breaking news, sports and weather. Our viewers are given up-to-the minute news coverage as well as recaps of the day's top stories. Issues that are of concern to every sector of our society are featured each day in each newscast – government, education, economy, and health are given the same emphasis as crime, recreation, etc. During the quarter, anchors for Alabama News Rising! at 5 A.M. were Andrew James, Jalea Brooks, Kay McCabe and Ryan Stinnett. The show started airing at 4:30 A.M. in November. Anchors for ABC 32 News At 11 were Ellis Eskew and Ben Lang; Anchors for Alabama News Network at 5:30 P.M. were Ellis Eskew, Ben Lang, and Adam Solomon; Anchors for Alabama News Network at 10 P.M. were Darryl Hood/Samantha Williams, Shane Butler, and Adam Solomon; Anchors for Alabama News Network Saturday at 6P and 10P, and Sunday at 5:30P and 10P were Samantha Williams/Jerome Jones/Tim Lennox, Ben Lang, and Madison Jagers.

WNCF-TV PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMMING

YOUR COMMUNITY THIS WEEK

SUNDAY

9:00-9:30 A.M.

(Regular programming was interrupted by the COVID-19 Pandemic. Visitors are still not allowed in the studio at this time, and this show did not air during the 4th Quarter.)

This 30-minutes weekly locally produced public affairs program gives WNCF-TV a great opportunity to explore the issues one on one with the people who are making the news. The show covers significant community issues; crime, health, government, education, recreation, lifestyles, community, and tracks and gives exposure to economic development (including employment and industrial development). The program actively interviews everyday people, community leaders, and city and state officials in an effort to keep track of problem solving on their levels. Guests who represent various segments of the community are featured as well.
